(b) if and to the extent that the matter is included in the legislative powers of the Parliament of the State.

(3) The operation of each paragraph of subsection (1) is not affected by any other paragraph.

- 25 (4) The revocation of a proclamation published under subsection (1) does not prevent publication of a further proclamation under that subsection.
- (5) If the amendment reference and the transition reference have been terminated, the expression the references in subsection (1) refers only to the initial reference.

30 8—Effect of termination of amendment reference or transition reference before initial reference

- (i) laws referred to in paragraph (a) that come into operation after that termination; or

9—Period for termination of references

(1) Subject to subsection (2), a day fixed by a proclamation under section 7(1) must be no earlier than the first day after the end of the period of 6 months beginning on the day on which the proclamation is published.

(2) If—

(a) a proclamation under section 7(1) only provides for the termination of the amendment reference; and

(b) the Governor, as part of the proclamation by which the termination is to be effected, declares that, in the opinion of the Governor, the Commonwealth Fair Work Act—

(i) is proposed to be amended (by an amendment introduced into the Parliament of the Commonwealth by a Commonwealth Minister); or

(ii) has been amended, in a manner that is inconsistent with 1 or more of the fundamental workplace relations principles, the day fixed by the proclamation under section 7(1)(b) may be earlier than the day that applies under subsection (1) but must be no earlier than the first day after the end of the period of 3 months beginning on the day on which the proclamation is published.

(3) If the Governor terminates the amendment reference and fixes a day under subsection (2), the Minister must, as soon as practicable after the publication of the relevant proclamation, prepare a report on the matter and cause copies of that report to be laid before both Houses of Parliament.
