Division 1A—School-based children's services centres

17A—Minister may establish school-based children's services centres

(1) The Minister may establish such school-based children's services centres (other than preschools) as the Minister thinks fit.

Note—

For school-based preschools see section 16.

(2) A school-based children's services centre—

(a) must be established in relation to the school specified by the Minister; and

(b) must provide children's services of a kind or kinds (other than the provision of preschool education) at the school, as specified by the Minister; and

(c) will, for the purposes of this Act, be taken to form part of the specified school,

(and for the purposes of this Act and the Education and Early Childhood Services (Registration and Standards) Act 2011 or any other Act or law, a reference to the school will, unless the contrary intention is indicated, be taken to include a reference to the school-based children's services centre).

(3) A school-based children's services centre—

(a) may consist of such number of campuses or sites as the Minister thinks fit; and

(b) need not be located at the same campus or site as the specified school at which it is established.

(4) To avoid doubt, if a school-based children's services centre consists of more than 1 campus or site, an individual campus or site will be taken not to constitute a separate children's services centre for the purposes of the Education and Early Childhood Services (Registration and Standards) Act 2011 or any other Act or law.

17B—Governing councils of school-based children's services centres

(1) Subject to this Act, the governing council of the school at which a school-based children's services centre is established is the governing council for the school-based children's services centre.

(2) If the Minister establishes a school-based children's services centre at an existing school, the Minister—

(a) must appoint to the governing council of the school such number of persons who are responsible for children attending, or who are to attend, the children's services centre as the Minister considers appropriate to represent the children's services centre; and

(b) must take such action under section 40 as the Minister thinks fit to ensure the constitution of the governing council reflects the establishment of the children's services centre; and

(c) must comply with any other requirements set out in the regulations.

(3) If the Minister establishes a school-based children's services centre at a new school, the Minister must ensure that the governing council of the school established under section 34 includes such number of persons who are responsible for children attending, or who are to attend, the children's services centre as the Minister considers appropriate to represent the children's services centre.

Division 1—Charges for particular subject, course of instruction or program

129—Charges in relation to particular subject, course of instruction or program

(1) A school may impose a charge in respect of a particular subject, course of instruction or program undertaken or to be undertaken by a student enrolled at the school that forms part of the curriculum determined by the Chief Executive for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The following provisions apply in relation to a charge imposed, or proposed to be imposed under subsection (1):

(a) the school must not impose a charge—

(i) to recover the salaries or material costs of teachers; or

(ii) for the provision or maintenance of school buildings, facilities or fittings; or

(iii) for any other matter or thing prescribed by the regulations;

(b) a charge may be imposed from time to time throughout the calendar year;

(c) the principal of the school may, in accordance with the requirements of any policy issued by the Chief Executive, determine any charges that are to apply for a particular subject, course of instruction or program in consultation with the governing council of the school;

(d) the amount of any proposed charge for a particular subject, course of instruction or program must be approved by the governing council for the school before it can be imposed.

(3) Liability for a charge imposed under subsection (1) is to be determined as follows:

(a) in the case of a student who is not an adult—each person who is responsible for the student is jointly and severally liable for the charge;

(b) in the case of an adult student—

(i) if the student is a dependant of a person who is responsible for the student—the student and the person who is responsible for the student are jointly and severally liable for the charge; or

(ii) in any other case—the student is liable for the charge.

(4) A charge imposed under subsection (1) is recoverable as a debt due to the governing council of the school.

(5) Subject to any directions of the Chief Executive, the principal of a school may wholly or partly waive, reduce or refund a charge imposed under subsection (1), or allow the charge to be paid by instalments.

(6) In this section—

(a) permit the land, buildings or facilities of a Government stand-alone preschool or Government stand-alone children's services centre to be used for sport, recreation, the arts and cultural and community purposes on terms and conditions determined by the Minister;

(3) Section 134—before its present contents as amended by this section (now to be designated as subsection (4)) insert:

(1) Subject to any guidelines issued by the Minister, a Government school is to make the school's land, buildings and facilities available for use for sport, recreation, the arts and cultural and community purposes outside of school hours when they are not being used by the school.

(2) The use of a Government school's land, buildings or facilities under subsection (1) will be on terms and conditions determined by the Minister.

(3) Guidelines issued by the Minister for the purposes of subsection (1)—

(a) may, without limitation, make provision for or in relation to—

(i) matters to be considered in determining the use of, or access to, school land, buildings or facilities; and

(ii) the safe use and security of school land, buildings or facilities; and

(iii) the resolution of disputes in relation to the use or potential use of, or access or potential access to, school land, buildings or facilities; and

(b) must be published on a website determined by the Minister.

37—Insertion of section 134A

After section 134 insert:

134A—Standards relating to planning and design of Government schools

(1) The Chief Executive must issue standards relating to the planning and design of Government schools.

(2) Without limiting the matters that may be included in standards issued by the Chief Executive, the standards must include requirements regarding the planning and design of Government schools to facilitate the use of school land, buildings and facilities for sport, recreation, the arts and cultural and community purposes.

(3) Standards issued under this section must be published on a website determined by the Chief Executive.

Schedule 1—Savings and transitional provisions

1—Interpretation

In this Schedule—

principal Act means the Education and Children's Services Act 2019.

2—Children's services centres established under section 18 of principal Act

A children's services centre established by the Minister under section 18(2) of the principal Act before the commencement of this clause will be taken to be a stand-alone children's services centre.

3—Registered children's services centres continued under section 26 of principal Act

A registered children's services centre that has been continued as a children's services centre established under the Act by section 26 of the principal Act is to be taken to have been continued as a stand-alone children's services centre established under the Act (and a reference in the principal Act to a children's services centre continued under section 26, or continued under Part 4 Division 3, will be taken to refer to a stand-alone children's services centre as so continued).

4—Recovery of outstanding materials and services charges

For the avoidance of doubt, a materials and services charge payable under section 129 of the principal Act as in force immediately before the commencement of this clause that remains unpaid immediately before that commencement is recoverable under that section as so in force.
