ANNO QUADRAGESIMO SECUNDO ET QUADRAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1879.

****

No. 134.

An Act to vest Section 335, in the Hundred of Lincoln, County of Flinders, in the Province of South Australia, in the Catholic Church Endowment Society, Incorporated.

[Assented to, 27th August, 1879.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS by a certain indenture, dated the twenty-first day of July, 1869 (registered No. 197, book 240), and made between William Bakewell, of the first part, James Owen, of the second part, the Very Reverend John Smyth, the Venerable Patrick Thomas Russell, and the Very Reverend Julian Edmund Tenison Woods, of the third part, all that country section or allotment of land situate at Port Lincoln, containing twenty acres or thereabouts, and being lot numbered 160, part of section numbered 11 in the map or plan of the country land of the Port Lincoln survey, was granted, bargained, sold, and released unto the said parties of the third part, their heirs and assigns, for ever, upon and for the trusts, ends, interests, and purposes therein mentioned for the benefit of the Roman Catholic Church of South Australia: And whereas a church and parsonage have been erected upon portions of the land hereinafter described, and other portions of the said land have been used by the Roman Catholics of Port Lincoln as and for a cemetery, and it has until recently been supposed that the said church, parsonage, and cemetery were situate upon the said lot numbered 160; but it has now been ascertained that the same are situated upon section, numbered 335, in the said hundred: And whereas the said lot, numbered 160, is now vested in the Catholic Church Endowment Society, Incorporated: And whereas the said section, numbered 335,

335, forms part of the waste lands of the Crown, and the said Catholic Church Endowment Society, Incorporated, having paid to the Treasurer of the province at the rate of One Pound per acre for the said land, it is expedient that the said section should also be vested in the Catholic Church Endowment Society, Incorporated, in manner hereinafter mentioned—Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the House of Assembly of the said province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

Section 335, Hundred of Lincoln, to vest in the Catholic Church Endowment Society, Incorporated.

1. From and immediately after the passing of this Act, all that section of land, situate in the Hundred of Lincoln, County of Flinders, in the said province, numbered 335 in the map or plan of the said hundred, as delineated on the public maps of the said province deposited in the Survey Office, at Adelaide, and containing seven acres one rood and twelve perches or thereabouts, shall be and the same is hereby vested in the Catholic Church Endowment Society, Incorporated, to be held by the said society in fee simple upon and for the trusts and purposes, and with, under, and subject to the powers, provisions, declarations, and agreements under and subject to which the said society now hold the said lot of land, numbered 160.

Not to affect owners of section 11.

2. Nothing in this Act contained shall prejudice or affect the owners of any part of section numbered 11 in the said Hundred of Lincoln.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Port Lincoln Catholic Church Property Act."

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS, Governor.

Adelaide: By authority, E. Spiller, Acting Government Printer, North-terrace.
