(2) To avoid doubt, a reference to the Court in this Schedule is a reference to the Industrial Relations Court of South Australia.

2—Referral of matter to Industrial Relations Commission by agreement

(1) This clause applies to an industrial matter or an industrial dispute if 2 or more parties have entered into an agreement in writing (a referral agreement) to seek the assistance of the Commission by making a referral to the Commission in order to obtain (as the case may be)—

(a) the resolution of an industrial matter arising between the parties (including by making a determination about levels of remuneration, conditions of employment or other industrial matters);

(b) the resolution of an industrial dispute between the parties (including by settling a dispute about whether appropriate remuneration has been paid to a person under a contract of employment or whether there has been a breach of a condition of employment);

(c) the resolution of the question whether, on the balance of probabilities, the dismissal of an employee was harsh, unjust or unreasonable.

(5) A party seeking the assistance of the Commission under a referral agreement will do so in accordance with the rules.

(6) On a referral under this Schedule, the Commission has and may perform or exercise such functions or powers with respect to the matter as the Commission might exercise in the exercise of its jurisdiction under section 26 of the Fair Work Act 1994, subject to any limitation or exclusion specified in the referral agreement and not so as to give any form of relief outside the referral agreement.

(7) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the application of the provisions of the Fair Work Act 1994 (with such modifications, if any, as may be prescribed by the regulations) to the performance or exercise of functions or powers under this Schedule.

(a) the matter or dispute should be determined in some other manner; or

(b) proceedings that relate to the subject matter of the referral have been commenced under the Fair Work Act 1994, or before some other body or person; or

(c) there is some other reasonable cause that justifies a decision not to proceed, or to suspend or discontinue any action under this section,

(and such a determination will have effect according to its terms).

A party to a matter in respect of which the Commission has made a determination under this section may appeal against that determination in accordance with section 207 of the Fair Work Act 1994 unless the referral agreement provides that a determination will be final and conclusive and not subject to appeal.

If an appeal is made, it will be taken to be part of the referral to the Commission under the referral agreement.

The functions and powers conferred on the Commission by or under this Schedule are in addition to, and do not derogate from, any other function or power of the Commission under the Fair Work Act 1994.
