- (2) The cancellation of a teacher's registration under this section will be taken to have effect—
 - (a) in the case where the teacher becomes a prohibited person on the issue of a prohibition notice under the Child Safety (Prohibited Persons) Act 2016—on the day the prohibition notice is issued to the person under that Act; or

- (b) in the case where the teacher becomes a prohibited person by virtue of having been prohibited from working with children under a law of the Commonwealth, or of another State or Territory—on the day from which the teacher is so prohibited; or
- (c) in the case where the teacher becomes a prohibited person by virtue of having been found guilty of a prescribed offence (within the meaning of the Child Safety (Prohibited Persons) Act 2016) committed as an adult—on the day on which the finding of guilt is made.

19—Amendment of section 26—Term of registration

Section 26(1)(a)—delete "third" and substitute:

fifth

20—Insertion of section 26A

After section 26 insert:

26A—Annual fee

- (1) A registered teacher (including a teacher whose registration has been suspended) must, in each year, pay to the Teachers Registration Board an annual fee in accordance with the regulations.
- (2) Without limiting the matters that may be dealt with in the regulations, the regulations may—
 - (a) prescribe the fee; and
 - (b) fix the day of the month on or before which the fee is to be paid in each year; and
 - (c) fix the period of 12 months (the annual fee period) in respect of which the fee is to be paid; and
 - (d) make provisions of a saving or transitional nature in respect of annual fees.
- (3) If a registered teacher fails to pay the annual fee in accordance with the regulations, the Teachers Registration Board may, by written notice, require the registered teacher to make good the default as specified in the notice and, in addition, pay to the Teachers Registration Board the amount prescribed as a penalty for default.
- (4) If a registered teacher fails to comply with a notice under subsection (3), the Teachers Registration Board may, by further written notice, suspend the teacher's registration until the notice has been complied with.

21—Amendment of section 27—Requirement for provision of information

Section 27—after subsection (2) insert:

- (3) For the purposes of this section, a reference to a registered teacher will be taken to include a reference to a person who was, but is no longer, a registered teacher.

22—Amendment of section 28—Register

Section 28(2)—after paragraph (bb) insert:

- (bc) details of any highly accomplished or lead teacher certification held by the person from time to time;

23—Amendment of section 30—Special authority for unregistered person to teach

Section 30(2)—after paragraph (c) insert:

- (ca) the person is otherwise a fit and proper person to be granted a special authority to teach; and

24—Substitution of section 31

Section 31—delete the section and substitute:

31—Register

- (1) The Teachers Registration Board must keep a register of persons granted a special authority to teach under this Part.
- (2) The register must include, in relation to each such person—
 - (a) the person's full name, personal address and business address (if any); and
 - (b) the qualifications (if any) held by the person determined by the Teachers Registration Board to be relevant to the person's activities under the special authority to teach; and
 - (c) the number of the person's special authority to teach; and
 - (d) the person's unique identifier; and
 - (e) details of the most recent working with children check conducted in relation to the person (if known); and
 - (f) details of any condition of the person's special authority to teach; and
 - (g) the expiry date of the person's special authority to teach; and
 - (h) details concerning the outcome of any action taken against the person by the Board under this Act, and may include other information as the Teachers Registration Board thinks fit.

- (3) The Registrar will be responsible to the Teachers Registration Board for the form and maintenance of the register.

- (4) The holder of a special authority to teach must, within 28 days after changing name or address, inform the Registrar in writing of the change.
- Maximum penalty: $1 250.
Expiation fee: $160.
- (5) The holder of a special authority to teach must, as soon as is reasonably practicable after a working with children check is conducted in relation to the person (but in any event within 14 days), inform the Registrar in writing of that fact, and provide such details relating to the working with children check as the Registrar may require.
- (6) The Registrar may remove or correct an entry in the register as required without giving notice to any person.
- (7) The Registrar must—
- (a) make a record of the full name of each person granted a special authority to teach and the information entered in the register under subsection (2)(b), (f) and (g) in relation to the teacher available for inspection on application to the Registrar; and
 - (b) make a record of the full name of each person granted a special authority to teach and the information entered in the register under subsection (2)(f) and (g) in relation to the person available for inspection on a website established by the Teachers Registration Board.
- (8) An apparently genuine document purporting to be signed by the Registrar stating that, at a specified date, or during a specified period—
- (a) a specified person was the holder of a special authority to teach granted under this Part that was unconditional or subject to specified conditions; or
 - (b) a specified person was not holder of a special authority to teach granted under this Part,
- will, in any legal proceedings, constitute proof of the matters stated in the document in the absence of proof to the contrary.

25—Insertion of section 31A

After section 31 insert:

31A—Requirement for provision of information

- (1) The Teachers Registration Board or the Registrar may, at any time, require a holder of a special authority to teach, or the employer or a former employer of such a person, to provide information relating to the person or the person's employment.

- (2) A person who fails to comply with a requirement under this section is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: $5 000.
Expiation fee: $315.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, a reference to a holder of a special authority to teach will be taken to include a reference to a person who was, but is no longer, the holder of a special authority to teach.

26—Insertion of Part 6A

After section 31 insert:

Part 6A—Codes of conduct and professional standards

31B—Codes of conduct and professional standards

- (1) The Teachers Registration Board may, by notice in the Gazette, publish or adopt codes of conduct and professional standards (or both) for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The Teachers Registration Board may, from time to time, by notice in the Gazette, vary, substitute or revoke a code of conduct published or adopted under this section.
- (3) A copy of any code of conduct published or adopted under this section, as varied or substituted from time to time—
 - (a) must be published on a website determined by the Teachers Registration Board; and
 - (b) must be made available for inspection without charge at the place or places determined by the Teachers Registration Board.

31C—Recognition of quality teaching and educational leadership

- (1) The Teachers Registration Board may, in accordance with any requirements set out in the regulations—
 - (a) accredit, certify or otherwise recognise attainment by teachers of levels of proficiency and accomplishment in the teaching profession and educational leadership; and
 - (b) vary or revoke an accreditation, certificate or other recognition; and
 - (c) publish information about an accreditation, certificate or other recognition, or a variation or revocation of an accreditation, certificate or other recognition.

- (2) Without limiting the generality of the regulations that may be made under subsection (1), the regulations may apply or incorporate, wholly or partially and with or without modification, a code, standard, policy or other document prepared or published by the Teachers Registration Board or another specified person or body.

27—Insertion of section 32A

After section 32 insert:

32A—Constitution of Teachers Registration Board for purposes of Part

Except where the contrary intention appears, the Teachers Registration Board may, in exercising a function or power under this Part, be constituted of not less than 3 members, 1 of whom must be a practising teacher and 1 a legal practitioner.

28—Amendment of section 33A—Suspension of teacher's registration if working with children check not current etc

- (1) Section 33A(1)—delete "Teachers Registration Board may, if satisfied that a working with children check has not been conducted in relation to a registered teacher within the preceding 5 years" and substitute:

Registrar may, if satisfied that a working with children check has not been conducted in relation to a registered teacher within the preceding 5 years, by notice in writing served personally on the teacher,

- (2) Section 33A(2)(a)—after "Teachers Registration Board" insert:

or Registrar

29—Amendment of section 34—Registrar may conduct investigation

- (1) Section 34—after subsection (1) insert:

- (1a) A person who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a requirement under subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $10 000 or imprisonment for 1 year.

- (1b) Without limiting subsection (1) or any other provision of this Act, the Registrar, or a person authorised by the Registrar, may, if the Registrar has reasonable grounds to suspect that a teacher's capacity to teach is seriously impaired by an illness or disability affecting the teacher's behaviour or competence as a teacher, require the teacher to—

- (a) submit to a medical examination by a medical practitioner selected by the teacher from a panel of medical practitioners nominated by the Teachers Registration Board; and
- (b) provide, or authorise the medical practitioner to provide, a report on the results of the medical examination to the Registrar.

- (2) Section 34—delete subsection (3) and substitute:
- (3) The Teachers Registration Board may, if a teacher refuses or fails to comply with a requirement under this section, suspend (without any requirement for a hearing or other process) the registration of the teacher.
- (3a) A suspension under this section has effect—
- (a) until the fulfilment of specified conditions or until further order of the Teachers Registration Board; or
- (b) if the teacher's registration is cancelled under section 35(2)—until that cancellation has effect,
- whichever occurs first.
- (3b) To avoid doubt, a suspension of a teacher's registration under this section has effect whether or not an appeal has, or is to be, instituted against the decision to suspend the registration of the teacher.

30—Amendment of section 34A—Suspension of registration where teacher charged with certain offences or unacceptable risk to children

- (1) Section 34A(1)—before "teacher" first occurring insert:
- registered
- (2) Section 34A(1)—delete "if the Registrar becomes aware that the teacher has been charged with a prescribed offence" and substitute:
- if—
- (a) the Registrar becomes aware that the teacher has been charged with a prescribed offence; or
- (b) the Registrar reasonably suspects that the teacher poses an unacceptable risk to children.
- (3) Section 34A(7)—delete subsection (7)

31—Substitution of section 37

Section 37—delete section 37 and substitute:

37—Employer to notify Teachers Registration Board of certain matters relating to practising teachers

- (1) An employer of a practising teacher must notify the Teachers Registration Board if—
- (a) the employer dismisses the teacher for 1 or more of the following reasons:
- (i) the teacher is a prohibited person;
- (ii) a working with children check has not been conducted in relation to the teacher within the preceding 5 years;

- (iii) in response to an allegation of unprofessional conduct made against the teacher;
 - (iv) incompetence (however described);
 - (v) any other reason prescribed by the regulations; or
 - (b) the employer accepts the resignation of the teacher arising out of 1 or more of the reasons referred to in paragraph (a).
- (2) An employer of a practising teacher must notify the Teachers Registration Board if the employer becomes aware of any of the following in relation to the teacher:
 - (a) that the teacher's capacity to teach is, or may be, seriously impaired by an illness or disability affecting the person's behaviour or competence as a teacher;
 - (b) that an allegation of unprofessional conduct is made against the teacher;
 - (c) the teacher is not, in the opinion of the employer, a fit and proper person to be a registered teacher;
 - (d) any other matter of a kind prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) A person who was, but is no longer, the employer of a practising teacher must notify the Teachers Registration Board if the person becomes aware of any of the following in relation to the teacher within the 12 months immediately after the person ceases to be the employer of the teacher:
 - (a) that an allegation of unprofessional conduct is made against the teacher;
 - (b) any other matter of a kind prescribed by the regulations.
- (4) A notification under this section—
 - (a) must be made in a manner and form determined by the Teachers Registration Board; and
 - (b) must be made as soon as is reasonably practicable (and in any case within 7 days) after the employer becomes aware of the relevant matter; and
 - (c) must include such information as may be reasonably required by the Teachers Registration Board in respect of notifications of the relevant kind; and
 - (d) must comply with any other requirements in the regulations.
- (5) A person who, without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails to comply with a requirement under this section is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: $10 000.
- (6) No liability attaches to an employer or other person in respect of a notification made, or purportedly made, under this section.

- (7) For the purposes of this section, a reference to a registered teacher or teacher will be taken to include a reference to a person granted a special authority to teach under Part 6 (whether or not the special authority has expired).

32—Repeal of section 39

Section 39—delete section 39

33—Amendment of section 40—Notification by Registrar of action or suspension etc under Part

- (1) Section 40(c)—delete paragraph (c)
- (2) Section 40—after paragraph (d) insert:
- and
- (e) the central assessment unit under the Child Safety (Prohibited Persons) Act 2016; and
- (f) any other person or body prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (3) Section 40—after its present contents (now to be designated as subsection (1)) insert:
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Registrar must, as soon as practicable after suspending the registration of a teacher, or varying the conditions of a teacher's registration, under Part 5 or section 34A, give notice of that fact to each of the persons and bodies referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) Without limiting a preceding subsection, the Registrar may, after suspending the registration of a teacher under section 33A, give notice of that fact to each of the persons and bodies referred to in subsection (1).

34—Insertion of Part 9A

After section 49 insert:

Part 9A—Information sharing

49A—Disclosure of information to prevent harm

Despite a provision of this or any other Act or law, the Teachers Registration Board may disclose information obtained in the course of the administration or operation of this Act to an appropriate person or body if the Teachers Registration Board is of the opinion that to do so is reasonably necessary to prevent harm being caused to a child.

49B—Sharing of information between Teachers Registration Board and certain persons and bodies

- (1) This section applies to the following persons and bodies:
- (a) the Teachers Registration Board;

- (b) the Education and Early Childhood Services Registration and Standards Board of South Australia;
 - (c) the Registrar;
 - (d) a teacher regulatory authority in Australia and New Zealand;
 - (e) a person or body who is an employer of a teacher;
 - (f) the central assessment unit under the Child Safety (Prohibited Persons) Act 2016;
 - (g) a State authority;
 - (h) any other person or body declared by the regulations to be included in the ambit of this subsection.
- (2) Despite any other Act or law, a person or body to whom this section applies (the provider) may, in accordance with any requirement set out in the regulations, provide prescribed information and documents to another person or body to whom this section applies (the recipient) if the provider reasonably believes that the provision of the information or documents would assist the recipient—
- (a) to perform official functions relating to the health, safety, welfare or wellbeing of a child or class of children; or
 - (b) to manage any risk to a child or class of children that might arise in the recipient's capacity as an employer or provider of services.
- (3) Despite any other Act or law, information or documents that do not directly or indirectly disclose the identity of any person may be provided by one person or body to whom this section applies to another without restriction.
- (4) Subsection (3) applies—
- (a) whether or not the information or documents consist of or include prescribed information and documents; and
 - (b) whether the information or document ever disclosed the identity of a person, or has been redacted so as to de-identify it.
- (5) Information may be provided under this section regardless of whether the provider has been requested to provide the information.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, a reference to a teacher will be taken to include a reference to a person granted a special authority to teach under Part 6 (whether or not the special authority has expired).
- (7) In this section—
- prescribed information and documents means—
- (a) information or documents relating to the health, safety, welfare or wellbeing of a particular child or class of children; or

- (b) any other information or document of a kind prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this definition;

State authority means—

- (a) a person who holds an office established by an Act; or
- (b) a public sector agency; or
- (c) South Australia Police; or
- (d) a local council constituted under the Local Government Act 1999; or
- (e) any other person or body declared by the regulations to be a State authority, but does not include a person or body declared by the regulations to be excluded from the ambit of this definition.

35—Amendment of section 50—Provision of information by Commissioner of Police

Section 50(1)—after "registered as a teacher" insert:

, or to hold a special authority to teach under Part 6

36—Amendment of section 51—Arrangements between Teachers Registration Board, DPP, and Commissioner of Police for reporting of offences

Schedule 1—Transitional etc provisions

Part 1—Transitional etc provisions

1—Vacation of Teachers Registration Board

- (1) On the commencement of this clause, the office of each member of the Teachers Registration Board is, by force of this clause, vacated.
- (2) Section 9(4) and (5), as enacted by this Act, will be taken not to apply in relation to the appointment of the first Teachers Registration Board following the commencement of this clause.

2—Certain registrations to continue to be for 3 year period

- (1) This clause applies in relation to registration as a teacher applied for, but not granted, before the commencement of this clause.

- (2) Despite section 26 of the Teachers Registration and Standards Act 2004 (as amended by this Act), registration as a teacher to which this clause applies will be taken to remain in force—
- (a) until 31 January in the third year following the year in which the registration was granted or last renewed; or
 - (b) if the registration is subject to a condition limiting the period for which it remains in force to a lesser period—for that period.

3—All teacher registrations taken to be subject to condition

Subject to the Teachers Registration and Standards Act 2004 (as amended by this Act), the condition referred to in section 24(2)(a)(iia) (as enacted by this Act) will, by force of this clause, be taken to be imposed on the registration of each teacher (whether the registration was granted before or after the commencement of this clause).
