Society means the Royal Agricultural and Horticultural Society of South Australia Incorporated.

2A—Closing times for show grounds

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) the show grounds must be closed to members of the public at the times prescribed by regulations made by the Governor.
- (2) The Society may, with the written approval of the Minister, open the show grounds to the public at times when they are required to be closed by the regulations.

- (3) The Minister must cause notice of his or her approval under subsection (2) to be published in the Gazette at least 14 days before the show grounds are opened under that subsection.

3—Power to make by-laws

The Council of the Society may make by-laws for all or any of the following purposes:

- (a) to prohibit persons from trespassing on the show grounds;
- (b) to prevent damage to the show grounds and any buildings and chattels thereon;
- (c) to regulate vehicular and pedestrian traffic on the show grounds;

4—Mode of making by-laws

No by-law shall be made—

- (a) except at a meeting of the Council of the Society of which at least fourteen days' prior notice in writing has been given to each member of the Council specifying the by-laws intended to be proposed;
- (b) unless a majority of all the members of the Council vote at the meeting in favour of the proposed by-law.

5—Confirmation of by-laws

- (1) Every by-law—
- (a) shall be submitted to the Governor for confirmation and shall be of no force until confirmed;
 - (b) after confirmation shall be published in the Gazette at the expense of the Society;
 - (c) shall, subject to subsection (2) hereof, take effect from the date of that publication or from any later date fixed by the by-law;
 - (d) shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after the said publication if Parliament is in session and if not, within fourteen days after the commencement of the next session of Parliament.

- (2) If either House of Parliament passes a resolution disallowing any by-law of which resolution notice has been given at any time within fourteen sitting days of that House after the by-law has been laid before it the by-law shall thereupon cease to have any effect, but without affecting the validity or curing the invalidity of anything done or committed in the meantime. This subsection shall apply although all the fourteen sitting days, or some of them, do not occur in the same session of Parliament as that in which the by-law is laid before the House.
- (3) When a resolution has been passed as mentioned in subsection (2) hereof notice of the resolution shall forthwith be published in the Gazette.
