 - (b) determine the claim and, if appropriate, make a payment to the claimant from the indemnity fund;
 - (c) require the claimant to make contractual undertakings as to the assistance that the claimant must give the Commissioner in any action taken by the Commissioner to recover the loss.
- (4) In deciding whether to require the claimant to take action to recover the loss, and in deciding what action the claimant should be required to take to recover the loss, the Commissioner is to consider the size of the claim, the complexity of the case, the claimant's financial circumstances, the claimant's mental or physical health or capacity and any other factors that the Commissioner considers relevant.
- (5) The Commissioner must—
 - (a) keep the claimant informed of the progress of the claim in accordance with the regulations; and

 - (b) the claimant acted honestly and reasonably in all the circumstances of the case, determine the amount of compensation payable to the claimant and, by notice in writing, inform the claimant of the determination.

- (3) A person is not entitled to make a claim under this section where—
 - (a) the conveyancer by whom the fiduciary default was committed, or to whom the fiduciary default relates, was required to be registered or licensed under this Act or a corresponding previous enactment; and
 - (b) that person knew, or ought to have known, at the time of the default, that the conveyancer was not so registered or licensed.

36—Personal representative may make claim

The personal representative of a claimant (including a deceased claimant) is entitled to make the claim on behalf of the claimant or the claimant's estate.

37—Review of Commissioner's determination

- (1) The claimant or the conveyancer or former conveyancer by whom the fiduciary default was committed or to whom the fiduciary default relates may seek a review of the Commissioner's determination by the Tribunal under section 34 of the South Australian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2013.
- (1a) An application for review may be made to the Tribunal within 3 months after the person receives notice of the determination.

39—Claimant's entitlement to compensation and interest

- (1) Subject to any reduction because of insufficiency of the indemnity fund, a claimant is entitled to payment of the amount of compensation determined under this Division.
- (2) A claimant's entitlement to compensation will (to the extent to which it has not been satisfied or discharged) be increased by interest at the rate fixed by regulation from the first anniversary of the lodgment of the claim with the Commissioner until the entitlement is satisfied or discharged, but interest must not be calculated on any component of the claimant's entitlement that is attributable to interest that has already accrued under this subsection.

40—Rights of Commissioner

- (1) Where the Commissioner makes a payment (whether in respect of compensation or interest) to a claimant, the Commissioner is, to the extent of the payment, subrogated to the rights of the claimant against a person liable at law or in equity for the fiduciary default in respect of which the payment was made.
- (2) However, this section does not confer on the Commissioner any right to recover money from a person whose liability in respect of a fiduciary default does not arise from a wrongful or negligent act or omission on that person's part.

- (1) The Commissioner may insure the indemnity fund to such extent as the Commissioner thinks fit against claims under this Division.
- (2) The cost of the insurance will be paid from the indemnity fund.

- (2) Where, at the time at which a claimant's entitlement to compensation is determined, other persons have made claims that have not yet been determined, the Commissioner may defer payment of the claimant's entitlement for any period (not exceeding 12 months) in order to allow time for the entitlements of those other claimants to be determined.
- (3) The Commissioner may set aside a part of the indemnity fund as the Commissioner from time to time considers necessary to protect the interests of persons who—
 - (a) have made claims against the fund that have not been determined; or
 - (b) are likely to make claims against the fund in the future,and, when determining whether payments to claimants should be reduced, the Commissioner must not take into account a part of the fund set aside by the Commissioner.
- (4) If, after a claimant's entitlement to compensation has been determined, the claimant recovers an amount (that was not allowed for in that determination) in respect of the pecuniary loss suffered by the claimant, the claimant's entitlement to compensation is reduced by the amount recovered.
- (5) Entitlements in respect of which payments are made under this section are discharged despite the fact that they may not have been satisfied in full.
- (6) The Commissioner may, with the approval of the Minister, make payments to a person—
 - (a) whose entitlement to compensation has been discharged; or
 - (b) whose entitlement to compensation is insufficient because an amount that the person was expected to recover in respect of the pecuniary loss has not been recovered; or
 - (c) whose claim is barred,

but a payment so made does not revive or reinstate an entitlement or claim.
