ceases to be an officer of the teaching service before he becomes entitled to long service leave under this Division, he shall be entitled to a sum, by way of pro rata long service leave, ascertained in accordance with the following formula:

where—

- \( P \) is the amount payable;
- \( S \) is an amount arrived at by dividing the annual salary of the officer immediately before the cessation of his service by 365;
- \( D \) is the number of complete years in the period of the officer’s effective service;
M is—

21. (1) Where an officer dies, the Minister shall pay to the dependants or personal representative of the officer—
(a) the monetary equivalent of any long service leave to which the officer was entitled on the date of his death;

(b) if the officer was not then entitled to long service leave, the sum (if any) by way of pro rata long service leave to which the officer would have been entitled if he had resigned—
(i) on the date of his death;
and
(ii) (if, in the circumstances of the case, the reason for resignation is material to the question of determining entitlement to pro rata long service leave) for a reason giving rise to such an entitlement.
Education Act, 1972

(3) Any question under this section as to—

(a) whether an officer had any dependants and the identity of the dependants;

or

(b) to which dependants any monetary amount should be paid under this section, shall be determined by the Minister as he considers proper.

(4) In this section—

"dependants" means persons who are wholly or in part dependent upon the earnings of the officer at the time of his death.

(5) No action shall lie against the Minister in respect of a payment of, or failure to pay, moneys under this section.

22. (1) Where a person retires, or retired, from employment under this Act, or the repealed Act, on the ground of invalidity and is, or was, subsequently employed as an officer, his service before retirement and service after re-employment shall, for the purposes of this Division (except to the extent to which he has received long service leave, or payment in lieu of long service leave, in respect of any such period of service), be taken into account as though that service were continuous.

(2) Where either before or after the commencement of this Act the service of a person employed under this Act, or the repealed Act, was interrupted otherwise than by resignation or dismissal for misconduct and he is, or was, subsequently appointed as an officer of the teaching service within two years after the date of that interruption, his service before the interruption and his service after the interruption shall, for the purposes of this Division (except to the extent to which he has received long service leave, or payment in lieu of long service leave, in respect of any such period of service), be taken into account as though that service were continuous.

(3) Where either before or after the commencement of this Act the service of an officer was interrupted otherwise than by resignation or dismissal for misconduct for a period exceeding two years, the Minister may grant a certificate under this section.

(4) Where the Minister grants a certificate under subsection (3), the service of the officer shall be regarded as continuous notwithstanding the interruption, but the period of the interruption shall not be taken into account in determining the period of the officer's service.

23. (1) If an officer is transferred to any other employment in the Government of the State and his service in that employment is continuous with his service as an officer, his service as an officer shall be taken into account for the purpose of computing long service leave to which he may be entitled in respect of that other employment.

(2) This section does not apply to service in respect of which long service leave has been granted, or a payment in lieu of long service leave has been made, to the officer under this Act.

24. (1) Where an officer has previously been in prescribed employment and his service in the prescribed employment is continuous with his service as an officer, the long service leave to which he is entitled under this Act shall be determined on the basis that his service in the prescribed employment is service in the teaching service.

(4) For the purposes of this section, continuity of service is not interrupted by an interval, not exceeding six weeks, between the time that service in the prescribed employment terminated and the time the officer took up his employment as such.

(5) Where there is an interval of more than six weeks between the conclusion of service in the prescribed employment and the commencement of service in the teaching service, the Minister may, if he thinks special reasons exist for so doing, declare that that interval shall not disrupt the continuity of service, and the declaration shall have effect according to its terms.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a school year is the period of twelve months that commences on the first day of February in any year and ends on the thirty-first day of January in the next year.
