and

Incapacity of members of the teaching service

17. (1) Where the Director-General is satisfied that an officer is, by reason of mental or physical illness or disability, incapable of performing satisfactorily the duties of the office occupied by the officer, the Director-General may do one or more of the following:

DIVISION III—LONG SERVICE LEAVE

Long service leave

19. (1) An officer's entitlement to long service leave accrues as follows:

(a) the officer is entitled to 63 days' leave in respect of the first seven years of effective service;

(b) the officer is then entitled to 0.75 of a day's leave for each subsequent complete month of effective service until the end of the 15th year of effective service;

(c) the officer is then entitled to 1.25 days' leave for each subsequent complete month of effective service.

(2) Where long service leave is taken by an officer, the officer's entitlement to long service leave is reduced accordingly.

(3) Every day from the commencement to the conclusion of a period of long service leave (whether a working day or not) will be counted as a day of that leave.

(4) This Division—

(a) does not affect an entitlement to long service leave or payment in lieu of long service leave that accrued before the commencement of the Education Act Amendment Act, 1987;

and
(b) does not prejudice an entitlement to pro rata long service leave arising after five years' effective service that would have come into existence if the Education Act Amendment Act, 1987, had not been enacted.

Taking of long service leave

20. (1) Subject to this section, an officer who has completed at least 10 years' effective service is entitled to take long service leave.

(2) The Director-General may permit an officer who has completed at least seven years' effective service to take long service leave.

(3) Long service leave may only be taken in respect of completed years of effective service.

(4) Long service leave may only be taken at times and for periods that are, in the opinion of the Director-General, convenient to the Department.

(5) Subject to this section, the salary to which an officer is entitled during long service leave is—

(a) where the effective service of an officer consists of full-time service—the salary applicable to the officer's substantive classification level during that leave (excluding any additional salary attributable to a higher classification level temporarily assigned to the officer);

(b) where the effective service of an officer consists in whole or in part of part-time service—a salary determined by the Director-General.

(6) An officer may elect to take long service leave on half salary and, in that event, may take two days' leave for each whole day of the officer's entitlement.

(7) Where the effective service of an officer consists in whole or in part of part-time service, the officer may elect to take long service leave on the salary applicable to full-time service and, in that event, the period of the long service leave will be reduced accordingly.

(8) The Director-General may authorize payment to an officer on long service leave of such additional salary or allowances as the Director-General considers appropriate.

Payment in lieu of long service leave

21. (1) Where a person ceases to be an officer in the teaching service after not less than seven years' effective service, the person is entitled to payment of the monetary equivalent of the officer's long service leave entitlement as at the date of cessation of service.

(2) Where an officer dies, the Minister must pay to—

(a) the officer's personal representative;

or

(b) such of the officer's dependants as the Minister considers appropriate, the monetary equivalent of the officer's long service leave entitlement as at the date of death.

(3) In determining the monetary equivalent of a long service leave entitlement no allowance will be made for an increase in salary that may or would have been made if the officer's service had not ceased.

(4) The Minister may apply any amount payable to or in respect of an officer under this section in satisfaction of a claim against the officer.
Interruption of service

22. (1) Where a person retires or retired from employment under this Act, or the repealed Act, on the ground of invalidity and is, or was, subsequently employed as an officer, his service before retirement and service after re-employment shall, for the purposes of this Division (except to the extent to which he has received long service leave, or payment in lieu of long service leave, in respect of any such period of service), be taken into account as though that service were continuous.

(2) Where either before or after the commencement of this Act the service of a person employed under this Act, or the repealed Act, was interrupted otherwise than by resignation or dismissal for misconduct and he is, or was, subsequently appointed as an officer of the teaching service within two years after the date of that interruption, his service before the interruption and his service after the interruption shall, for the purposes of this Division (except to the extent to which he has received long service leave, or payment in lieu of long service leave, in respect of any such period of service), be taken into account as though that service were continuous.

(3) Where either before or after the commencement of this Act the service of an officer was interrupted otherwise than by resignation or dismissal for misconduct for a period exceeding two years, the Minister may grant a certificate under this section.

(4) Where the Minister grants a certificate under subsection (3), the service of the officer shall be regarded as continuous notwithstanding the interruption, but the period of the interruption shall not be taken into account in determining the period of the officer’s service.

Transfer of teachers to other Government employment

23. (1) If an officer is transferred to any other employment in the Government of the State, and his service in that employment is continuous with his service as an officer, his service as an officer shall be taken into account for the purpose of computing long service leave to which he may be entitled in respect of that other employment.

(2) This section does not apply to service in respect of which long service leave has been granted, or a payment in lieu of long service leave has been made, to the officer under this Act.

Rights of persons transferred to the teaching service

24. (1) Where an officer has previously been in prescribed employment and his service in the prescribed employment is continuous with his service as an officer, the long service leave to which he is entitled under this Act shall be determined on the basis that his service in the prescribed employment is service in the teaching service.

(2) In this section—

"prescribed employment" means—

(a) employment in the Public Service of the Commonwealth;
(b) employment in the Public Service of this State;
(c) employment by the Government of the State otherwise than in the Public Service;
(d) employment in the Public Service of any other State or Territory of the Commonwealth;
(e) employment by a University or College of Advanced Education established in this State;

and

(f) any other employment approved by the Minister.
(3) This section does not apply to service in respect of which long service leave has been granted or a payment in lieu of long service leave has been made.

(4) For the purposes of this section, continuity of service is not interrupted by an interval, not exceeding six weeks, between the time that service in the prescribed employment terminated and the time the officer took up his employment as such.

(5) Where there is an interval of more than six weeks between the conclusion of service in the prescribed employment and the commencement of service in the teaching service, the Minister may, if he thinks special reasons exist for so doing, declare that that interval shall not disrupt the continuity of service, and the declaration shall have effect according to its terms.

DIVISION IV—RETIRING AGE

Retiring age

25. (1) An officer may retire on or after the day on which he reaches the age of fifty-five years, but must retire upon reaching the age of sixty-five years if he has not retired beforehand.

(3) This section does not prevent the Minister from appointing to the teaching service, on a temporary basis, a person of or above the age of sixty-five years, but a person, after being so appointed, acquires no right to long service leave under this Act.

DIVISION V—DISCIPLINE

Disciplinary action

26. (1) If an officer—

(a) contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of this Act;

(b) contravenes or fails to comply with any lawful direction given to him under this Act;

(d) is absent from duty without proper cause;

or

(e) is guilty of any disgraceful or improper conduct,

(5) The Appeal Board may, upon the hearing of an appeal under this section, vary or revoke the determination or decision subject to appeal and, if the determination or decision has taken effect, order that the officer be reinstated in the teaching service as if no such determination or decision had been made.

(6) Any fine imposed on an officer under this section may be deducted from the salary or other remuneration payable to that officer.

Suspension

27. (1) Where in the opinion of the Director-General the nature or circumstances of any matter alleged against an officer are such that the officer should not continue in the performance of his duties, the Director-General may suspend the officer.

(2) A suspension under subsection (1) may be made whether or not the officer has been charged with an offence.

(3) Unless the Minister otherwise directs, a person suspended under this section shall be entitled to his salary in respect of the period of suspension.

(4) Where a direction has been given under subsection (3) and the guilt of the suspended officer of the matter alleged against him is not established by due process of law, he shall be entitled to receive the salary to which he would have been entitled if there had been no direction under subsection (3).

DIVISION VI—CLASSIFICATION OF OFFICERS

Assignment of classification to officers

28. (1) The Director-General shall assign a classification to every officer of the teaching service.
