Part 7—Writs for elections

47—Issue of writ

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Governor is the sole authority by whom a writ for an election may be issued.

(2) If—

(a) a casual vacancy in the membership of the House of Assembly occurs; or

(2) A writ must fix—

(a) the date and time for the close of the rolls; and

(2) A date or time fixed by notice under subsection (1) will be taken to have been validly fixed by the writ.

50—Failure of election

(1) Whenever an election wholly or partially fails, a new writ must immediately be issued for a supplementary election.

(2) An election will be taken to have wholly failed if no candidate is nominated or returned as elected.

(3) A Legislative Council election will be taken to have partially failed if one or more candidates are returned as elected but not the full number required to be elected.
(4) A supplementary election must, unless more than 3 months have elapsed between the date fixed for the return of the writ for the election that failed and the date of the writ for the supplementary election, be held on the same rolls as were prepared for the earlier election.

(2) If 2 or more elections are to be held under this Act on the same day, a person is not entitled to be a candidate in more than 1 of those elections and, if on the declaration of nominations the same person is nominated as a candidate in more than 1 of those elections, each of those nominations is invalid.

(6) The returning officer must immediately inform the registered officer of the party of the revocation of the nomination.

(7) The registered officer of the party may, if—
   (a) the nomination of a candidate is revoked; or
   (b) a nominated candidate dies before the hour of nomination, nominate some other person as the candidate endorsed by the party for the district by lodging with the appropriate district returning officer before the hour of nomination a duly completed nomination paper.

(8) If the registered officer does not nominate another candidate under subsection (7), the deposit paid in respect of a candidate whose nomination has been revoked or a candidate who has died must be returned to the party.

(9) A nomination is not invalid because of a formal defect or error if the provisions of this Act have been substantially complied with.

(10) A person who is endorsed by a registered political party as a candidate for election but is not nominated under subsection (1) may be nominated as a single candidate for election under section 53A.

(4) If a nominated candidate, by notice in writing lodged with the appropriate district returning officer before the hour of nomination, withdraws consent to stand as a candidate in an election, the nomination of that candidate is revoked and the candidate's deposit must be returned.

(4a) If a nomination paper lodged under subsection (2) does not fully comply with the requirement under subsection (3)(a)(ii), the relevant district returning officer must, if practicable, give the nominated candidate notice of the non-compliance sufficient to enable the candidate to fully comply with the requirement before the hour of nomination.

(5) A nomination is not invalid because of a formal defect or error if the provisions of this Act have been substantially complied with.

(c) has been assumed for an ulterior purpose.

(3) Where a nomination is to be rejected under subsection (2), the returning officer must, if practicable, give the nominee sufficient notice of the proposed rejection to enable the withdrawal of the nomination and the making of a fresh nomination under a different name before the hour of nomination.

55—Proceedings on nomination day

(1) In the case of a Legislative Council election, if the number of candidates nominated is not greater than the number of candidates required to be elected—

(b) the previous address and the new address are both in the same House of Assembly district.

(4) A person who satisfies the requirements of subsection (3) will be taken to be an elector for the purposes of the other provisions of this Act (with respect to the election or elections held on the day in relation to which the entitlement under that subsection arises).

the Electoral Commissioner may register the elector as a declaration voter.

(3a) An application under this section for the issue of declaration voting papers to an elector, or for registration of an elector as a declaration voter, may be made by a person other than the elector if the application is accompanied by a certificate from a medical practitioner, in a form approved by the Electoral Commissioner, certifying that the elector is, because of physical disability, unable to sign the elector's own name.

(ii) if an elector has provided an address to which declaration voting papers are to be issued that is different from the address of the principal place of residence—the address to which the papers are to be issued.

(5) The Electoral Commissioner must from time to time revise the register of declaration voters.

(6) A person may inspect the register of declaration voters at the office of the Electoral Commissioner and, on payment of a fee to be determined by the Electoral Commissioner, may be given a copy of, or of any part of, the register.

(b) if the ballot paper contains 1 or more group voting squares—by placing the number 1 in the square that relates to the group of candidates for whom the voter votes as his or her first preference and, if the voter so desires, by placing the number 2 and consecutive numbers in the group voting squares that relate to other groups of candidates in the order of the voter's preference for them (but not so as to be required to indicate a preference for all groups of candidates).

(2) In a House of Assembly election, a voter must mark his or her vote on the ballot paper by placing the number 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom he or she votes as his or her first preference, and consecutive numbers in the squares opposite the names of the remaining candidates so as to indicate the order of preference for all candidates.

(ii) that the envelope is opened inside the polling booth and the folded ballot paper is placed in the ballot box;

(ii) mark a vote on the ballot paper and fold it so as to conceal the vote; and

(iii) place the ballot paper in the envelope provided and seal the envelope, and the presiding officer must then, in the presence of the scrutineers, ensure that the envelope is deposited in the ballot box;

(c) if a voter satisfies the presiding officer that the voter is unable to vote without assistance, the voter may be assisted in accordance with section 80 as if the voter were in the polling booth.

81—Voting by elector to whom declaration voting papers have been issued

Maximum penalty: $1 250.

(5) Where an elector makes a declaration vote before an officer (otherwise than in a polling booth) the officer must make available for the assistance of the elector copies of any how-to-vote cards and other electoral materials in the possession of the officer that are to be exhibited in the polling booth on polling day.

(6) A person who—
(a) makes a declaration vote after the close of poll on polling day; or

Maximum penalty: $2 500 or imprisonment for 6 months.

(1) The Electoral Commissioner may, by notice published in the Gazette—
(a) declare the whole or a specified part of an institution to be a declared institution; or
(b) vary or revoke a declaration under this section.

(2) The Electoral Commissioner must, in respect of each election—
(a) appoint a sufficient number of assistant returning officers to be electoral visitors; and
(b) make the necessary arrangements for all declared institutions within the district in which the election is being held to be visited by electoral visitors so that the votes of those persons at the declared institution who are entitled to declaration votes may be taken before them.

(3) A declared institution may be visited under this section at any time between the expiration of 3 days from the date fixed for the nomination and the close of poll on polling day.

(4) An electoral visitor may require the person apparently in charge of a declared institution to furnish him or her with the following information:

Division 5A—Electronically assisted voting for sight-impaired electors

84A—Electronically assisted voting for sight-impaired electors

(1) The regulations may make provision in relation to voting in an election by sight-impaired electors by means of an electronically assisted voting method.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), regulations made for the purposes of this Division may—

(a) determine, or provide for the determination of, the following:

(i) the electronically assisted voting method;

(ii) matters related to the voting using the electronically assisted voting method, including the provision of assistance to electors using the method, requirements to be followed after an elector has used the method and matters of privacy and secrecy;

(iii) the number of places where the electronically assisted voting method is to be available, the location of those places and the days and times at which the method is to be available;

(iv) which electors may use the electronically assisted voting method; and

(b) require the making of a record of each person who has voted using the electronically assisted voting method; and

(c) specify the information that is to be included in a record; and

(d) provide for the production of a record of the vote each person has cast, which must not contain any means of identifying the person who cast the vote; and

(e) provide for the appointment by the Electoral Commissioner of officers in relation to the conduct of the electronically assisted voting method; and
(f) provide for the application of this Act, or provisions of this Act, in relation to votes cast using the electronically assisted voting method, including the modification of the application of this Act or a provision of this Act in relation to such votes; and

(g) make provision for any other matters related to electronically assisted voting.

(3) To avoid doubt, nothing in this Division (or in regulations made for the purposes of this Division) authorises any elector to vote more than once at an election.

(4) In this section—

sight-impaired elector means an elector whose sight is impaired such that the elector is unable to vote without assistance.

84B—Applying provisions of Act to elector using electronic assisted voting

(1) The prescribed electronically assisted voting method must be such that an elector using the method in relation to an election—

(a) receives the same information (in the same order), and has the same voting options, as would appear in the ballot paper for the election that the elector would be given if the elector were voting at a polling booth under this Part; and

(b) is able to indicate a vote in a way that, if the elector were marking a ballot paper, would not be an informal ballot paper.

(2) Subject to this Division, if an elector votes using the electronically assisted voting method (an electronically assisted vote)—

(a) this Act applies (subject to any modifications prescribed under section 84A(2)(f)) in relation to an electronically assisted vote as if it were a declaration vote; and

(b) the record of the electronically assisted vote produced in accordance with the regulations is to be taken to be a ballot paper for the purposes of this Act; and

(c) the requirements of this Act in relation to the elector's right to receive a ballot paper are to be taken to have been satisfied.

84C—Electoral Commissioner may determine that electronically assisted voting is not to be used

(1) The Electoral Commissioner may, by notice in the Gazette, determine that the prescribed electronically assisted voting method is not to be used either generally or at 1 or more specified places.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) must specify the election in respect of which the determination applies.

Division 6—Compulsory voting

85—Compulsory voting

(1) Subject to subsection (2), it is the duty of every elector to record his or her vote at each election in a district for which the elector is enrolled.
(2) An elector who leaves the ballot paper unmarked but who otherwise observes the formality of voting is not in breach of the duty imposed by subsection (1).

(3) Within the prescribed period after the close of each election, the Electoral Commissioner must send by post to each elector who appears not to have voted at the election a notice, in the prescribed form—

(a) notifying the elector that he or she appears to have failed to vote at the election and that it is an offence to fail to vote at an election without a valid and sufficient reason; and

(b) calling on him or her to show cause why proceedings for failing to vote at the election without a valid and sufficient reason should not be instituted against him or her,

but the Electoral Commissioner, if satisfied that the elector is dead or had a valid and sufficient reason for not voting, need not send such a notice.

(4) Before sending any such notice, the Electoral Commissioner must insert in the notice a date, not being less than 21 days after the date of posting of the notice, on which the form attached to the notice, duly filled up and signed by the elector, is to be in the hands of the Electoral Commissioner.

(5) Every elector to whom a notice under this section has been sent must complete the form in the indicated place by stating the reasons (if any) why proceedings for failing to vote at the election should not be instituted against him or her, and then sign the form and return it to the Electoral Commissioner not later than the date inserted in the notice.

(6) If an elector is absent or unable, by reason of physical incapacity, to complete, sign and return the form, within the time allowed under subsection (4), any other elector who has personal knowledge of the facts may complete, sign and return the form, duly witnessed, within that time, and, in that case, the elector will be taken to have complied with subsection (5).

(7) An elector must not—

(a) fail to vote at an election without a valid and sufficient reason for the failure; or

(b) on receipt of a notice under subsection (3), fail to complete, sign and return the form (duly witnessed) that is attached to the notice within the time allowed under subsection (4).

Maximum penalty: $50.

Expiation fee: $10.

(8) An elector has a valid and sufficient reason for failing to vote at an election if—

(a) the elector was ineligible to vote at the election; or

(b) the elector was absent from the State on polling day; or

(c) the elector had a conscientious objection, based on religious grounds, to voting at the election; or

(d) there is some other proper reason for the elector's failure to vote.
A prosecution for an offence against this section—

(a) cannot be commenced except by the Electoral Commissioner or an officer authorised in writing by the Electoral Commissioner;

(b) in the case of a prosecution for failing to vote at an election or failing to return a notice to the Electoral Commissioner in accordance with subsection (4)—may be commenced at any time within 12 months of polling day.

In proceedings for an offence against this section—

(a) a certificate apparently signed by the Electoral Commissioner certifying that an officer named in the certificate was authorised to commence the prosecution will, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be accepted as proof of that authority;

(b) a certificate apparently signed by an officer certifying that the defendant failed to vote at a particular election will be accepted as proof of that failure to vote in the absence of proof to the contrary;

(c) a certificate apparently signed by an officer certifying that a notice under subsection (3) was posted to an elector, at the address appearing on the electoral roll or at a postal address provided by the elector, on a date specified in the certificate, will be accepted, in the absence of proof to the contrary, as proof—

(i) that the notice was duly sent to the elector on that date; and

(ii) that the notice complied with the requirements of this Act; and

(iii) that it was received by the elector on the date on which it would, in the ordinary course of post, have reached the address to which it was posted;

(d) a certificate apparently signed by an officer certifying that the defendant failed to return a form under this section to the Electoral Commissioner within the time allowed under subsection (4) will be accepted, in the absence of proof to the contrary, as proof of the failure to return the form within that time.

86—Presiding officer may appoint substitute

(1) The presiding officer at a polling booth may appoint a suitable person to act in the position during a temporary absence of the presiding officer from the polling booth.

(2) A person appointed under subsection (1) has, while acting in the position of the presiding officer, all the powers, functions and responsibilities of the presiding officer.

87—Ballot boxes or other facilities to be kept secure

(1) Subject to subsection (2), a ballot box or other facility used for keeping voting papers must be kept securely closed and sealed so as to prevent the introduction or removal of any paper or object except—

(a) when it is immediately required for the purpose of receiving voting papers; or
(b) when the voting papers are required for the purposes of scrutiny.

(2) An officer must, before voting papers are first deposited in a ballot box or other secured facility for the purposes of an election, publicly exhibit it empty.

88—Adjournment of polling

(1) If for any reason it is not practicable to proceed with polling at a polling place on polling day, the Electoral Commissioner may adjourn polling at that polling place for a period not exceeding 21 days.

(2) Where for any reason the polling is adjourned at any polling place, only those electors for the district for which the polling place is appointed who were entitled to vote on polling day and who have not already voted, are entitled to vote at the adjourned polling.
Part 10—The scrutiny

Division 1—Preliminary

89—Scrutiny

(1) The result of an election is to be ascertained by scrutiny.

(2) The scrutiny must commence as soon as practicable after the close of poll and may be adjourned from time to time as may be necessary until the counting of the votes is complete.

(3) Despite subsection (2), the returning officer or a deputy returning officer may undertake a preliminary scrutiny of declaration voting papers (without opening any envelope) before the close of poll.

90—Scrutineers

(1) All proceedings at the scrutiny are open to the inspection of the scrutineers.

(2) If a scrutineer objects to a ballot paper as being informal, the officer conducting the scrutiny must mark the ballot paper "admitted" or "rejected" according to his or her decision to admit or reject the ballot paper.

(3) Nothing in this section prevents the officer conducting the scrutiny from rejecting a ballot paper as informal although it is not objected to.

91—Preliminary scrutiny

(1) For the purposes of the scrutiny of declaration voting papers, the returning officer or a deputy returning officer—

(a) must begin by producing the relevant applications for declaration voting papers and, unopened, the envelopes containing declaration ballot papers, being such envelopes received by him or her up to the end of the period of 7 days immediately following the close of the poll, or received by any other officer up to the close of the poll; and

(b) must then—

(i) in the case of declaration voting papers of voters whose votes were not taken before an officer, if satisfied—

(A) that the signature of the declarant corresponds with the signature on the application for declaration voting papers (other than in the case of an application made on behalf of an elector referred to in section 74(3a)); and

(B) that the vote was recorded before the close of the poll, accept the ballot paper for further scrutiny and proceed with the process by—

(C) tearing off the extensions to the envelope flap on the envelope containing the ballot paper; and
(D) rearranging the envelopes that no longer bear their tear-off extensions so that the anonymity of the voter is maintained; and

(E) withdrawing the ballot paper from its envelope and placing it in a securely closed ballot box or other facility reserved for such ballot papers, but, if the officer is not so satisfied, the officer must disallow the ballot paper without opening the envelope in which it is contained; or

(ii) in the case of declaration voting papers of voters whose votes were taken before an officer, proceed with the process by—

(A) tearing off the extensions to the envelope flap on the envelope containing the ballot paper; and

(B) rearranging the envelopes that no longer bear their tear-off extensions so that the anonymity of the voter is maintained; and

(C) withdrawing the ballot paper from its envelope and placing it in a securely closed ballot box or other facility reserved for such ballot papers, unless the officer determines that there is proper cause at this stage for not accepting the ballot paper for further scrutiny under this Act; and

(c) must then seal up in separate parcels and preserve—

(i) all tear-off extensions removed from envelopes; and

(ii) all opened declaration envelopes relating to declaration ballot papers accepted for further scrutiny; and

(iii) all unopened envelopes containing declaration ballot papers disallowed; and

(d) must then proceed with the scrutiny of the declaration ballot papers that have been accepted for further scrutiny.

(1a) However, if a ballot paper for a House of Assembly election and a ballot paper for a Legislative Council election are contained in the same envelope, and the ballot paper for the Legislative Council election is to be accepted for further scrutiny but not the ballot paper for the House of Assembly election, the returning officer must—

(a) withdraw the ballot paper for the Legislative Council election and place it in the securely closed and sealed ballot box or other facility reserved for declaration ballot papers accepted for further scrutiny; and

(b) seal up the envelope with the disallowed ballot paper for the House of Assembly election; and

(c) place the envelope with the other envelopes containing disallowed declaration ballot papers.
(1b) The returning officer, when acting under subsection (1a), must comply with the following provisions:

(a) the returning officer must, if practicable, avoid removing the disallowed House of Assembly ballot paper from the envelope but, if not, both ballot papers may be removed from the envelope but the disallowed ballot paper for the House of Assembly must be returned to the envelope; and

(b) the returning officer must, if practicable, avoid unfolding the ballot papers before dealing with them as required by this section but, if not, the returning officer may unfold them to the extent necessary to separate them; and

(c) the returning officer must, as far as practicable, avoid looking at votes recorded on the ballot papers and must not allow anyone else to do so before dealing with them as required by this section.

(2) If, in conducting a scrutiny, it appears to a returning officer or deputy returning officer that 2 or more declaration ballot papers in respect of the same election have been received from the same elector, the returning officer or deputy returning officer must, subject to this section, accept the first such ballot paper that came into his or her hands and reject the remainder from further scrutiny.

Division 2—Interpretation and validity of ballot papers

92—Interpretation of ballot papers in Legislative Council elections

(1) This section applies only in relation to a Legislative Council election.

(2) If 1 or more numbers, that are not disregarded under section 94(4b), are placed in group voting squares on a ballot paper in relation to groups of candidates (each group being a preferred group), the ballot paper is taken to have been marked as if—

(a) each candidate in a preferred group was given a different number starting from 1; and

(b) candidates in a preferred group were numbered consecutively starting with the candidate whose name on the ballot paper is at the top of the group to the candidate whose name is at the bottom; and

(c) the order in which candidates in different preferred groups are numbered is worked out by reference to the order in which the groups were numbered on the ballot paper, starting with the group marked 1; and

(d) when all the candidates in a preferred group have been numbered, the candidate whose name is at the top of the next preferred group is given the next consecutive number.

(3) If a voter marks 1 or more group voting squares in accordance with subsection (2) but also indicates preferences for individual candidates, the following provisions apply:

(a) if the indication of preferences for individual candidates would not, if it stood alone, constitute an informal vote, that indication of preferences will be taken to be the vote of the voter and any marks in the group voting squares will be disregarded;
93—Interpretation of ballot papers in House of Assembly elections

(1) This section applies only in relation to a House of Assembly election.

(2) Where—

(a) a voter marks a ballot paper by placing the number 1 in the square opposite the name of a particular candidate and indicates no further preference; and

(b) there is 1 voting ticket registered for the purposes of the election in relation to that candidate, the ballot paper will be taken to have been marked in accordance with that voting ticket.

(3) Where—

(a) a voter marks a ballot paper by placing the number 1 in the square opposite the name of a particular candidate and indicates no further preference; and

(b) there are 2 voting tickets registered for the purposes of the election in relation to that candidate, then the ballot paper is to be grouped with other ballot papers marked in the same manner and—

(c) if the number of those ballot papers is an even number—half of them will be taken to have been marked in accordance with one ticket and half in accordance with the other; or

(d) if the number of those ballot papers is not an even number—

(i) one of the ballot papers will be taken to have been marked in accordance with whichever of the 2 tickets is determined by lot by the returning officer; and

(ii) half the remainder (if any) will be taken to have been marked in accordance with one ticket and half in accordance with the other.

(4) Where—

(a) a voter marks a ballot paper by placing the number 1 in the square opposite the name of a particular candidate and proceeds to indicate further preferences by consecutive numbers; and

(b) there is 1 voting ticket registered for the purposes of the election in relation to that candidate; and

(c) the preferences indicated by the voter are consistent with that voting ticket; and

(d) the ballot paper would, apart from this subsection, be informal,

the ballot paper will be taken to have been marked in accordance with that voting ticket.
(5) Where—

   (a) a voter marks a ballot paper by placing the number 1 in the square opposite the name of a particular candidate and proceeds to indicate further preferences by consecutive numbers; and

   (b) there are 2 voting tickets registered for the purposes of the election in relation to the candidate; and

   (c) the preferences indicated by the voter are consistent with one or both of those voting tickets; and

   (d) the ballot paper would, apart from this subsection, be informal,

   the ballot paper, if consistent with both voting tickets, will be treated as if it had been marked only with the number 1 and dealt with in accordance with subsection (3), but if it is consistent with one only of the voting tickets, it will be taken to have been marked in accordance with that voting ticket.

94—Informal ballot papers

(1) Subject to this section, a ballot paper is informal if—

   (a) it is not authenticated by the initials of the officer by whom it was issued, or by an official mark as prescribed; or

   (b) —

      (i) in the case of a ballot paper for a House of Assembly election—it has no vote indicated on it, or it does not indicate, in the manner required by this Act, the order of the voter's preference for all candidates in the election; or

      (ii) in the case of a ballot paper for a Legislative Council election—it has no vote indicated on it, or it does not indicate, in the manner required by this Act, the order of the voter's preference for candidates in the election; or

   (d) in the case of a ballot paper required by this Act to be deposited in a ballot box or other secured facility—it is not so deposited.

(2) A ballot paper that is not duly authenticated by initials or an official mark is not informal by reason of subsection (1)(a) if the officer responsible for considering whether the ballot paper should be admitted is satisfied that it is an authentic ballot paper on which a voter has marked his or her vote.

(3) Where a voter indicates by consecutive numbers commencing with the number 1 the order of his or her preference for all candidates on a ballot paper for a House of Assembly election except one—

   (a) the ballot paper is not informal; and

   (b) it will be presumed that the candidate for whom no preference is expressed is the one least preferred by the voter and that the voter has accordingly indicated the order of his or her preference for all candidates.

(4) A ballot paper for a House of Assembly election to which effect can be given under the provisions of this Division relating to registered voting tickets is not informal by reason of subsection (1)(b)(i).
(4a) A ballot paper for a Legislative Council election where there are more than 6 candidates is not informal under subsection (1)(b)(ii) if the voter has placed consecutive numbers (starting from the number 1) in the squares printed opposite the names of at least 6 candidates in total.

(4b) For the purposes of this Act, the following numbers placed in a square printed opposite the name of a candidate, or placed in a group voting square, on a ballot paper for a Legislative Council election are to be disregarded:
   (a) numbers that are repeated and any higher numbers;
   (b) if a number is missed—any numbers that are higher than the missing number.

(5) Where a candidate in a Legislative Council election dies between the date of nomination and polling day—
   (a) a ballot paper is not informal by reason only—
      (i) of the inclusion on the ballot paper of the name of the deceased candidate; or
      (ii) of the marking of any consecutive number opposite that name; or
      (iii) of the omission to place any number opposite that name, or of any resultant failure to indicate in consecutive order the voter's preferences; and
   (b) a preference indicated on the ballot paper for that candidate must be ignored and subsequent preferences renumbered accordingly.

(6) Where—
   (a) a ballot paper has not been marked by a voter in the manner required by this Act; but
   (b) despite that fact, the voter's intention is clear, the ballot paper is not informal and will be counted as if the voter's intention had been properly expressed in the manner required by this Act.

(7) A ballot paper is not informal except for a reason specified in this section.

Division 3—Counting of votes

95—Scrutiny of votes in Legislative Council election

(1) In a Legislative Council election, the scrutiny must, subject to this Act, be conducted, and the vacancies must be filled, in the manner set out in this section.

(2) Each assistant returning officer must, in the presence of an assistant presiding officer or a poll clerk, and of such authorised scrutineers as may attend—
   (a) open all ballot boxes sent to him or her, or received from polling places within or for that portion of the district in which he or she exercises his or her powers; and
   (b) reject all informal ballot papers, and arrange the unrejected ballot papers under the names of the respective candidates by placing in a separate parcel all those on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate; and
(c) count the first preference votes given for each candidate on all unrejected ballot papers; and

(d) make out and sign a statement setting out the number of first preference votes given for each candidate, and the number of informal ballot papers; and

(e) place in a separate parcel all the ballot papers which have been rejected as informal; and

(f) transmit the following information, in an expeditious manner, to the deputy returning officer for the division:
   (i) the number of first preference votes given for each candidate; and
   (ii) the total number of ballot papers rejected as informal; and

(g) seal up the parcels and endorse on each parcel a description of its contents; and

(h) transmit the parcels to the deputy returning officer with the least possible delay, together with the statement specified in paragraph (d).

(3) The deputy returning officer must—

(a) open all ballot boxes and other facilities used for keeping voting papers not opened by an assistant returning officer and must conduct the scrutiny of the ballot papers contained in those boxes or facilities, as far as practicable, in the manner described above; and

(b) if authorised by the Electoral Commissioner—
   (i) open the sealed parcels of ballot papers received from the assistant returning officers that comprise ballot papers where voting has occurred by the use of a group voting square; and
   (ii) make a fresh scrutiny of the ballot papers contained in those parcels, and for that purpose he or she has the same powers as if the fresh scrutiny were the original scrutiny, and may reverse any decision given in the original scrutiny; and
   (iii) arrange the unrejected ballot papers so scrutinised by him or her under the names of the respective candidates by placing in a separate parcel all those on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate by virtue of the group voting square; and
   (iv) count the first preference votes given for each candidate on all unrejected ballot papers arranged under subparagraph (iii); and
   (v) make out and sign a statement setting out the number of first preference votes given for each candidate under subparagraph (iv), and the number of informal ballot papers under this paragraph; and
   (vi) place in a separate parcel all the ballot papers which have been rejected as informal under this paragraph; and

(c) seal up all parcels created under this subsection and endorse on each parcel a description of its contents; and

(d) complete a return, in a form determined by the Electoral Commissioner, addressed to the returning officer for the Legislative Council; and
(e) transmit all voting papers, together with the return, to the returning officer for the Legislative Council.

(4) Subject to subsection (4a), the returning officer for the Legislative Council must—

(a) open the sealed parcels of ballot papers received from the deputy returning officers and make a fresh scrutiny of the ballot papers contained in the parcels, and for that purpose he or she has the same powers as if the fresh scrutiny were the original scrutiny, and may reverse any decision given by an assistant or deputy returning officer in relation to the original scrutiny; and

(b) arrange the unrejected ballot papers so scrutinised by him or her under the names of the respective candidates by placing in a separate parcel all those on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate; and

(c) count the first preference votes given for each candidate on those ballot papers.

(4a) The returning officer may, to such extent as he or she determines to be appropriate, rely on any information contained in a return under subsection (3) in substitution for conducting a fresh scrutiny under subsection (4) (and that information will then, to the extent determined by the returning officer, have full effect for the purposes of the succeeding provisions of this section).

(5) Where, for the purposes of the succeeding provisions of this section, the number of ballot papers or votes in any category is required to be ascertained or a quota or transfer value is required to be determined, the returning officer must determine the quota or transfer value.

(6) The number of first preference votes given for each candidate and the total number of all such votes is to be ascertained and a quota determined by dividing the total number of first preference votes by 1 more than the number of candidates required to be elected and by increasing the quotient so obtained (disregarding any remainder) by 1, and any candidate who has received a number of first preference votes equal to or greater than the quota will be elected.

(7) Unless all the vacancies have been filled, the number (if any) of votes in excess of the quota (in this section referred to as surplus votes) of each elected candidate will be transferred to the continuing candidates as follows:

(a) the number of surplus votes of the elected candidate will be divided by the number of first preference votes received by him or her and the resulting fraction will be the transfer value;

(b) the total number of ballot papers of the elected candidate that express the first preference vote for him or her and the next available preference (if any) for a particular continuing candidate will be multiplied by the transfer value, the number so obtained (disregarding any fraction) will be added to the number of first preference votes of the continuing candidate and all those ballot papers will be transferred to the continuing candidate, and any continuing candidate who has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of any such transfer will be elected.

(7a) A ballot paper that is, under subsection (7), required to be transferred to a continuing candidate must be set aside as finally dealt with if it does not indicate a next available preference for a continuing candidate.
(8) Unless all the vacancies have been filled, the surplus votes (if any) of any candidate elected under subsection (7), or elected subsequently under this subsection, will be transferred to the continuing candidates in accordance with subsection (7)(a) and (b), and any continuing candidate who has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of any such transfer will be elected.

(9) Where a continuing candidate has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of a transfer under subsection (7) or (8) of the surplus votes of a particular elected candidate, no votes of any other candidate will be transferred to the continuing candidate.

(10) For the purposes of the application of subsection (7)(a) and (b) in relation to a transfer under subsection (8) or (12) of the surplus votes of an elected candidate, each ballot paper of the elected candidate that was obtained by him or her on a transfer under this section will be dealt with as if any vote it expressed for the elected candidate were a first preference vote, as if the name of any other candidate previously elected or excluded had not been on the ballot paper and as if the numbers indicating subsequent preferences (if any) had been altered accordingly.

(11) Where, after the counting of first preference votes or the transfer of surplus votes (if any) of elected candidates, no candidate has, or less than the number of candidates required to be elected have, received a number of votes equal to the quota, the candidate who has the fewest votes will be excluded and all his or her votes will be transferred to the continuing candidates as follows:

   (a) the total number of ballot papers of the excluded candidate that express the first preference vote for him or her and the next available preference (if any) for a particular continuing candidate will be transferred, each ballot paper at a transfer value of 1, to the continuing candidate and added to the number of votes of the continuing candidate and all those ballot papers will be transferred to the continuing candidate;

   (b) the total number (if any) of other votes obtained by the excluded candidate on transfers under this section will be transferred from the excluded candidate in the order of the transfers on which he or she obtained them, the votes obtained on the earliest transfer being transferred first, as follows:

      (i) the total number of ballot papers transferred to the excluded candidate from a particular candidate and expressing the next available preference (if any) for a particular continuing candidate will be multiplied by the transfer value at which the votes were so transferred to the excluded candidate;

      (ii) the number so obtained (disregarding any fraction) will be added to the number of votes of the continuing candidate;

      (iii) all those ballot papers will be transferred to the continuing candidate.

   (c) a ballot paper that under this subsection is, pursuant to the exclusion of a candidate, required to be transferred to a continuing candidate must be set aside as finally dealt with if it does not indicate a next available preference for a continuing candidate.
(12) Any continuing candidate who has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of a transfer under subsection (11) or (13) of votes of an excluded candidate is elected, and, unless all the vacancies have been filled, the surplus votes (if any) of the candidate so elected will be transferred in accordance with subsection (7)(a) and (b), except that, where the candidate so elected is elected before all the votes of the excluded candidate have been transferred, the surplus votes (if any) of the candidate so elected will not be transferred until the remaining votes of the excluded candidate have been transferred in accordance with subsection (11)(a) and (b) to continuing candidates.

(13) Subject to subsection (16), where, after the transfer of all the votes of an excluded candidate, no continuing candidate has received a number of votes greater than the quota, the continuing candidate who has the fewest votes is excluded and his or her votes transferred in accordance with subsection (11)(a) and (b).

(14) Where a candidate is elected as a result of a transfer of the first preference votes of an excluded candidate or a transfer of all the votes of an excluded candidate that were transferred to the excluded candidate from a particular candidate, no other votes of the excluded candidate will be transferred to the candidate so elected.

(15) In respect of the last vacancy for which 2 continuing candidates remain, the continuing candidate who has the most votes will be elected despite the fact that the number may be below the quota.

(16) However, if, in respect of a vacancy referred to in subsection (15), the continuing candidates have an equal number of votes, the matter must be referred, on the application of the Electoral Commissioner, to the Court of Disputed Returns for the Court to determine the validity of any disputed ballot papers and—

(a) if the deadlock is resolved—the Court must declare the appropriate candidate elected; but

(b) if the deadlock is not resolved—the Court must order a fresh election to be held in accordance with any directions of the Court with the continuing candidates as the sole candidates in that election.

(16a) Subsection (16) does not limit the jurisdiction of the Court of Disputed Returns under Division 2 of Part 12 in relation to an election.

(17) Despite any other provision of this section, where, on the completion of a transfer of votes under this section, the number of continuing candidates is equal to the number of remaining unfilled vacancies, those candidates are elected (regardless of whether those candidates have received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota).

(18) The returning officer must, on the completion of the last count—

(a) make out and sign a statement setting out the number of ballot papers and votes counted to each candidate at each count and the number of informal ballot papers, and forward the statement to the Electoral Commissioner; and

(b) place in a separate parcel all the ballot papers which have been rejected as informal; and

(c) place in a separate parcel all the unrejected ballot papers; and
(d) seal up the parcels and endorse on each parcel a description of its contents, and permit any scrutineers present, if they so desire, to countersign the endorsement.

(19) For the purposes of this Act—

(a) the order of election of candidates in a Legislative Council election will be taken to be in accordance with the order of the count or transfer as a result of which they were elected, the candidates (if any) elected on the count of first preference votes being taken to be the earliest elected; and

(b) where 2 or more candidates are elected as a result of the same count or transfer, the order in which they will be taken to have been elected will be in accordance with the relative numbers of their votes, the candidate with the largest number of votes being taken to be the earliest elected, but if any 2 or more of those candidates each have the same number of votes, the order in which they will be taken to have been elected will be taken to be in accordance with the relative numbers of their votes at the last count or transfer before their election at which each of them had a different number of votes, the candidate with the largest number of votes at that count or transfer being taken to be the earliest elected, and if there has been no such count or transfer the returning officer will determine the order in which they will be taken to have been elected.

(20) Subject to subsections (21) and (22), where, after any count or transfer under this section, 2 or more candidates have surplus votes, the order of any transfers of the surplus votes of those candidates will be in accordance with the relative sizes of the surpluses, the largest surplus being transferred first.

(21) Subject to subsection (22), where, after any count or transfer under this section, 2 or more candidates have equal surpluses, the order of any transfers of the surplus votes of those candidates will be in accordance with the relative numbers of votes of those candidates at the last count or transfer at which each of those candidates had a different number of votes, the surplus of the candidate with the largest number of votes at that count or transfer being transferred first, but if there has been no such count or transfer the returning officer must determine the order in which the surpluses are to be dealt with.

(22) Where, after any count or transfer under this section, a candidate obtains surplus votes, those surplus votes must not be transferred before the transfer of any surplus votes obtained by any other candidate on an earlier count or transfer.

(23) Where the candidate who has the fewest votes is required to be excluded and 2 or more candidates each have the fewest votes, whichever of those candidates had the fewest votes at the last count or transfer at which each of those candidates had a different number of votes will be excluded, but if there has been no such count or transfer, the returning officer must determine which candidate is to be excluded.

(24) Where a candidate is elected by reason that the number of first preference votes received by the candidate, or the aggregate of first preference votes received by the candidate and all other votes obtained by the candidate on transfers under this section, is equal to the quota, all the ballot papers expressing those votes must be set aside as finally dealt with.
(25) In a case where a candidate has died between the date of nomination and polling day, a vote indicated on a ballot paper opposite the name of the deceased candidate must be counted to the candidate next in the order of the voter's preference (if any), and the numbers indicating subsequent preferences (if any) will be taken to be altered accordingly.

(26) For the purposes of this section, a transfer under subsection (7), (8) or (12) of the surplus votes of an elected candidate, a transfer in accordance with subsection (11)(a) of all first preference votes of an excluded candidate or a transfer in accordance with subsection (11)(b) of all the votes of an excluded candidate that were transferred to him or her from a particular candidate each constitutes a separate transfer.

(27) In this section—

continuing candidate means a candidate not already elected or excluded from the count.

(28) In this section, a reference to votes of or obtained or received by a candidate includes votes obtained or received by the candidate on any transfer under this section.

96—Scrutiny of votes in House of Assembly election

(1) In a House of Assembly election, the scrutiny must, subject to this Act, be conducted in the following manner.

(2) Each assistant returning officer must, in the presence of an assistant presiding officer or a poll clerk, and of such authorised scrutineers as may attend—

(a) open all ballot boxes sent to him or her, or received from polling places within or for that portion of the district in which he or she exercises powers; and

(b) reject all informal ballot papers, and arrange the unrejected ballot papers under the names of the respective candidates by placing in a separate parcel all those on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate; and

(c) count the first preference votes given for each candidate on all unrejected ballot papers; and

(d) make out and sign a statement setting out the number of first preference votes given for each candidate, and the number of informal ballot papers; and

(e) place in a separate parcel all the ballot papers which have been rejected as informal; and

(f) transmit the following information, in an expeditious manner, to the district returning officer:

(i) the number of first preference votes given for each candidate; and

(ii) the total number of ballot papers rejected as informal; and

(g) seal up the parcels and endorse on each parcel a description of its contents and permit any scrutineers present, if they so desire, to countersign the endorsement; and
(h) transmit the parcels to the district returning officer with the least possible delay, together with the statement specified in paragraph (d), and the district returning officer must open all ballot boxes not opened by an assistant returning officer and conduct the scrutiny of the ballot papers contained in those boxes (as far as applicable) in the manner described above.

(3) From the statements transmitted to the district returning officer by the assistant returning officers in or for the district, and the result of the scrutiny of the votes counted by him or her, the district returning officer will ascertain the total number of first preference votes given for each candidate for the district.

(4) The candidate who has received the largest number of first preference votes is, if that number constitutes an absolute majority of votes, elected.

(5) If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes, the district returning officer—

(a) must open the sealed parcels of ballot papers received from the assistant returning officers for the district; and

(b) must make a fresh scrutiny of the ballot papers contained in the parcels, and, for the purpose of that scrutiny, the district returning officer—

(i) has the same powers as if it were the original scrutiny; and

(ii) may reverse any decision given by an assistant returning officer in relation to the original scrutiny; and

(c) from the result of the scrutiny of the votes counted by the district returning officer and the fresh scrutiny conducted by him or her under this subsection—must ascertain the total number of first preference votes given for each candidate and the number of informal ballot papers; and

(d) must proceed with the scrutiny and the counting of the votes as follows:

(i) the candidate who has received the fewest first preference votes will be excluded, and each ballot paper counted to that candidate is to be counted to the candidate next in the order of the voter's preference;
and

(ii) if no candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes, and counting each of that candidate's ballot papers to the unexcluded candidate next in the order of the voter's preference, is to be repeated until 1 candidate has received an absolute majority of votes; and

(iii) the candidate who has received an absolute majority of votes will be elected.

(6) If on any count 2 or more candidates have an equal number of votes, and one of them has to be excluded, the district returning officer must decide which are to be excluded, but if in the final count 2 candidates have an equal number of votes—

(a) the matter must be referred, on the application of the Electoral Commissioner, to the Court of Disputed Returns;

(b) the Court must determine the validity of any disputed ballot papers;
(c) if it then appears that the deadlock has been resolved, the Court must declare the appropriate candidate elected, but if not, the Court must order a fresh election.

(7) Subsection (6) does not limit the jurisdiction of the Court of Disputed Returns under Division 2 of Part 12 in relation to an election.

(8) In this section, an absolute majority of votes means a greater number than one-half of the whole number of ballot papers other than informal ballot papers.

(9) The district returning officer must—

(a) place in a separate parcel all the ballot papers which have been rejected as informal; and

(b) place in a separate parcel all the unrejected ballot papers; and

(c) seal up the parcels and endorse on each parcel a description of its contents, and permit any scrutineers present, if they so desire, to countersign the endorsement.

(10) Where 3 or more candidates stood for election in a district, then, despite the election of a candidate, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and attributing his or her votes to the candidate next in order of the voter's preference is to be continued until there are only 2 unexcluded candidates.

(11) The Electoral Commissioner must, within 3 months after the return of the writ, cause to be published in the Gazette a notice showing the number of votes attributable to each of the 2 unexcluded candidates at the conclusion of the process referred to in subsection (10).

Division 3A—Computer vote counting in Legislative Council elections

96A—Application of Division

This Division applies only in relation to a Legislative Council election.

96B—Approval of computer program

(1) The Electoral Commissioner may approve a computer program to carry out steps involved in the scrutiny of votes in an election.

(2) The Electoral Commissioner may revoke an approval of a computer program.

(3) The Electoral Commissioner may only approve a computer program—

(a) after providing a demonstration of the use of the program for representatives of the registered political parties; and

(b) if the proper use of the program would produce the same result in the scrutiny of votes in an election as would be obtained if the scrutiny were conducted without computer assistance.

(4) The Electoral Commissioner must determine processes that must be followed in relation to the use of an approved computer program in the scrutiny of votes in an election.
96C—Protection of approved computer program from interference

The Electoral Commissioner must take steps to ensure that an approved computer program is kept secure from interference at all times.

96D—Use of approved computer program in election

(1) An approved computer program may, if the Electoral Commissioner so determines, be used in the scrutiny of votes in an election.

(2) If an approved computer program is used in the scrutiny of votes in an election, the provisions of section 95 apply to the conduct of the scrutiny and the filling of vacancies as follows:

(a) subsections (2) and (3) apply according to their terms;

(b) the processes described in subsections (4)(a) and (4)(b) are to be carried out in conjunction with the entry into the computer of the necessary data from the ballot papers and the operation of the computer to identify remaining informal ballot papers (after taking into account the operation of subsection (4a) (if relevant));

(c) the computer must continue to be operated so as to carry out processes corresponding to those that would be required to be carried out according to subsections (4)(c) to (15) (inclusive), (17) and (20) to (28) (inclusive) (after taking into account the operation of subsection (4a) (if relevant));

(d) however, if, in carrying out processes corresponding to those referred to in subsection (21) or (23), there has not been a count or transfer at which the candidates had a different number of votes, the computer processes must pause while the returning officer makes a determination in accordance with that subsection and causes the result of the determination to be entered into the computer;

(e) continuing candidates who at any stage of the scrutiny have received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota will be elected;

(f) subsections (16), (16a), (18) and (19) apply according to their terms.

96E—Manual counting of votes not prevented

The making of a determination by the Electoral Commissioner to use an approved computer program in an election, or the use of an approved computer program in an election, does not prevent counting or re-counting of votes in the election without computer assistance.

Division 4—Re-count

97—Re-count

(1) At any time before the declaration of the result of a Legislative Council election, the returning officer may, if he or she thinks fit, and must, if so directed by the Electoral Commissioner, direct a re-count of the ballot papers from any division or portion of a division, or of the ballot papers contained in any parcel or in any other category.

(2) A district returning officer must before the declaration of the result of a House of Assembly election have a re-count made of the relevant ballot papers.
(2a) In addition to the requirements of subsection (2), at any time before the declaration of the result of a House of Assembly election, the district returning officer may, if the district returning officer thinks fit, and must, if so directed by the Electoral Commissioner, conduct one or more further re-counts of the ballot papers contained in any parcel.

(3) The officer conducting a re-count—

(b) if the person is convicted of the offence and the failure continues after conviction, the person is guilty of a further offence against that provision and liable, in addition to the penalty otherwise applicable to the offence, to a penalty for each day during which the failure continues after the conviction of not more than an amount equal to one-fifth of the maximum penalty prescribed for the offence.

(8) An allegation in a complaint that a specified person had not furnished a return of a specified kind as at a specified date will be taken to have been proved in the absence of proof to the contrary.

(9) In proceedings against a person for an offence under this Part, it is a defence for the person to prove that the person exercised all reasonable diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.

130ZZF—Non-compliance with Part does not affect election

Subject to section 107(7), a failure of a person to comply with a provision of this Part in relation to an election does not invalidate that election.

130ZZG—Appropriation

Amounts of funding payable under this Part are payable out of the Consolidated Account (which is appropriated to the necessary extent).

130ZZH—Regulations

(1) The regulations may require greater detail to be provided in returns than is otherwise required by this Part.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations may—

(a) require that a return under Division 7 include additional information relating to persons making gifts, loans or bequests; or

(b) require that the total amounts referred to in section 130ZN be broken down in the way specified in the regulations.

(3) The regulations may reduce the amount of information to be provided in returns under section 130ZO.
Part 14—Miscellaneous

131—Signature to electoral paper

(1) An electoral paper that is required by this Act to be signed by any person must be signed by that person with his or her personal signature.

(2) If a person who is unable to sign his or her name in writing makes a mark as his or her signature to an electoral paper, the mark will be taken to be the personal signature, if it is identifiable as such and is made in the presence of a witness who signs the electoral paper as witness.

132—Injunctions

(1) If a person contravenes or fails to comply with this Act or some other law of the State applicable to elections, or there are reasonable grounds to suppose that a person may contravene or fail to comply with this Act or some other law of the State applicable to elections, the Supreme Court may, on application by the Electoral Commissioner, grant an injunction for one or more of the following purposes:

(a) to restrain the person from engaging in conduct in breach of this Act or the other law; or

(b) to require the person to comply with this Act or the other law; or

(c) to require the person to take specified action to remedy non-compliance with this Act or the other law.

(2) However, an injunction cannot be granted under this section in relation to a contravention of, or non-compliance with, Division 2 of Part 13.1

(3) The Court may—

(a) grant an injunction restraining conduct of a specified kind on an interim basis; or

(b) discharge or vary an injunction (whether or not granted on an interim basis).

(4) No undertaking as to damages is to be required as a condition of granting an injunction under this section.

Note—

1 For power to give injunctive relief in relation to electoral advertising, see section 113.

133—Disqualification for bribery and undue influence

Any person who is convicted of bribery or undue influence or an attempt to commit bribery or undue influence is, during a period of 2 years from the date of the conviction, disqualified from sitting or being elected as a Member of either House of the Parliament.

134—Service by post

Any notice or other document that is to be served or given by the Electoral Commissioner under this Act may be served by post.
135—Preservation of ballot papers

All ballot papers, certified lists of voters and declarations used at or in connection with an election must be preserved, until the election can no longer be questioned.

136—Offences committed with connivance of person other than offender

Where a person commits an offence against this Act on behalf, and with the connivance, of another, that other person is also guilty of an offence and liable to the same penalty as is prescribed for the principal offence.

138—Exemption from stamp duty

No declaration made for the purposes of this Act is chargeable with stamp duty.

139—Regulations

(1) The Governor may make such regulations as are contemplated by this Act, or as are necessary or expedient for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the regulations may—

(a) prescribe forms for the purposes of this Act; and

(b) prescribe fines (not exceeding $5 000) for offences against the regulations; and

(c) prescribe fees or charges in respect of matters under this Act, and provide for the waiver or refund of such fees or charges; and

(d) be of general application or vary in their application according to prescribed factors; and

(e) provide that a matter or thing in respect of which regulations may be made is to be determined according to the discretion of the Electoral Commissioner; and

(f) refer to or incorporate, wholly or partially and with or without modification, any standard or other document prepared or published by a body referred to in the regulation, as is in force from time to time or as in force at a particular time; and

(g) modify the application of Part 13A, or a provision of that Part, where there has been a disendorsement of a candidate by a registered political party; and

(h) make provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of Part 13A.

Transitional etc provisions associated with Act or amendments

Electoral (Miscellaneous) Amendment Act 2009, Sch 1 Pt 2—Transitional provisions

3—Interpretation

In this Schedule—

principal Act means the Electoral Act 1985;

relevant day means the day on which sections 9 to 15 of this Act come into operation.

4—Transitional provisions

(1) The amendments effected to Part 6 of the principal Act by this Act will apply from 6 months after the relevant day with respect to a political party registered under that Part immediately before the relevant day.

(2) A political party registered under Part 6 of the principal Act immediately before the relevant day is not required to furnish a return under section 43A of the principal Act (as enacted by this Act) until 30 September 2011.

(3) An application for the registration of an eligible political party (not being a parliamentary party) made but not finally determined before the amendment of Part 6 of the principal Act must comply with the requirements of that Part as amended by this Act, but the Electoral Commissioner must allow the applicant a reasonable opportunity to amend the application in order to comply with those requirements.

(4) The registration of an elector under paragraph (b)(iii) of section 74(3) of the principal Act is not affected by the amendment of that paragraph by this Act.

Electoral (Miscellaneous) Amendment Act 2017, Sch 1 Pt 2—Transitional provision

2—Political expenditure on electoral matter

Section 130A(6a) of the Electoral Act 1985 (as inserted by this Act) applies to political expenditure on electoral matter incurred on or after 1 May 2017 (but does not apply to political expenditure on electoral matter incurred before that date).

Statutes Amendment (SACAT) Act 2019, Pt 9

72—Transitional provisions

(1) A right of appeal to the District Court under Part 12 Division 1 of the principal Act in existence before the relevant day (but not exercised before that day) will be exercised as if this Part had been in operation before that right arose, so that the relevant proceedings may be commenced before the Tribunal rather than the District Court.

(2) Nothing in this section affects any proceedings before the District Court commenced before the relevant day.

(3) In this section—

principal Act means the Electoral Act 1985;

relevant day means the day on which this Part comes into operation;
Tribunal means the South Australian Civil and Administrative Tribunal.
