Division 4—General

86A—Application of Division

This Division (other than section 91) does not apply in relation to conduct that constitutes or would constitute a contravention of a provision of the Australian Consumer Law (SA) or proceedings relating to such conduct.

87—Prosecutions

- (1) Proceedings for a summary offence against this Act must be commenced—
 - (a) in the case of an expiable offence—within the time limits prescribed for expiable offences by the Summary Procedure Act 1921;
 - (b) in any other case—within two years of the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed or, with the authorisation of the Minister, at a later time within five years of that date.

88—Defences

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), in a prosecution for a contravention of a provision of this Act, it is a defence if the defendant establishes—
 - (a) that the contravention was due to reasonable mistake; or
 - (b) that the contravention was due to reasonable reliance on information supplied by another person; or
 - (c) that—
 - (i) the contravention was due to the act or default of another person, to an accident or to some other cause beyond the defendant's control; and
 - (ii) the defendant took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the contravention.
- (2) In subsection (1)(b) and (c)— another person does not include a person who was—

 - (a) a servant or agent of the defendant; or
 - (b) in the case of a defendant that is a body corporate, a director, servant or agent of the defendant, at the time when the contravention occurred.

- (3) If a defence provided by subsection (1) involves an allegation that a contravention was due to reliance on information supplied by another person or to the act or default of another person, the defendant is not, without permission, entitled to rely on that defence unless the defendant has, not later than seven days before the day on which the hearing of the proceeding commences, served on the person by whom the proceeding was instituted a notice in writing giving such information that would identify or assist in the identification of the other person as was then in the defendant's possession.
- (4) In a prosecution for a contravention of a provision of this Act committed by the publication of an advertisement, it is a defence to establish that the defendant is a person whose business it is to publish or arrange for the publication of advertisements and that the defendant received the advertisement for publication in the ordinary course of business and did not know and had no reason to suspect that its publication would amount to a contravention of a provision of this Act.

90—Vicarious liability

- (1) Where an agent or employee is convicted of an offence against this Act, the principal or employer is also guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding the maximum prescribed for the offence committed by the agent or employee, unless it is proved that the principal or employer could not, by the exercise of reasonable diligence, have prevented the commission of the offence by the agent or employee.
- (2) Where an offence is committed against this Act in relation to the formation of a contract, any person who has derived or would, if the contract were carried out, expect to derive a direct or indirect pecuniary benefit from the contract is also guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding the maximum prescribed for the principal offence, unless it is proved that the person could not, by the exercise of reasonable diligence, have prevented the commission of the principal offence.
- (3) Where a body corporate is convicted of an offence against this Act, each director is also guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding the maximum prescribed for the offence committed by the body corporate, unless it is proved that the director could not, by the exercise of reasonable diligence, have prevented the commission of the offence by the body corporate.

91—Evidentiary provisions

- (1) In any proceedings an apparently genuine certificate, purporting to be signed by the Minister, stating that a person named in the certificate is an authorised officer is, in the absence of proof to the contrary, proof that the person is such an officer.
- (2) In any proceedings an apparently genuine certificate, purporting to be signed by the Minister or the Commissioner (as the case requires) containing particulars of a delegation under this Act is, in the absence of proof to the contrary, proof of the particulars.

- (7) In any proceedings an apparently genuine document purporting to be certified by the Commissioner as a true copy of an assurance given by a trader and accepted by the Commissioner under Division 2 is, in the absence of proof to the contrary, proof of the contents of the assurance and proof that the trader gave the assurance and that the Commissioner accepted it.
- (8) A finding of fact made by a court in proceedings under this Act will, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be accepted as proof of that fact in other proceedings (except criminal proceedings) under this Act.
