- (a) that any medical, surgical, psychiatric, dental, hospital or nursing care or treatment by way of physiotherapy or chiropractic is or was reasonably required in respect of that person; and
 - (b) that the financial position of that person is and has been such as to preclude the person from making provision for or towards the cost of that care or treatment; and
 - (c) that the person against whom the order was made has not made adequate provision for or towards that cost and it is just and equitable in all the circumstances of the case that he or she pay, or contribute towards, that cost, the court may order the person against whom the order was made to pay to the applicant or to the Chief Executive Officer for or towards that cost such amount as it thinks reasonable.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)—

Division 3—Jurisdiction and powers of Magistrates Court

130—General jurisdiction of courts of summary jurisdiction in respect of orders under this Part

- (1) Subject to this Act, but without limiting the jurisdiction of any court, the Magistrates Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine any complaint and to make and to discharge, suspend or vary any order of a kind provided for in this Part.
- (2) Subject to this Act, the court has jurisdiction to make an order under this Part by reason of facts and circumstances, whether or not those facts or circumstances, or some of them, took place before the commencement of this Act or outside this State—
 - (a) if the person against whom the order is sought is resident in this State; or
 - (b) if the person for whose benefit the order is sought is resident in this State.
- (3) Nothing in this Act limits or affects the operation of any provision of any other Act by which any person is or may be required to make contribution to, or payment on account of, the maintenance or support of any other person.

131—Orders directing payment of nominal sum only

- (1) Where, upon the hearing of a complaint under Division 1 upon which an order for maintenance may be made, the Magistrates Court is satisfied that it would make an order for the maintenance of the complainant but for the fact that the defendant is not presently able to contribute to the support of that person, the court may nevertheless make an order setting out its findings on the complaint and directing the payment by the defendant of a merely nominal amount in respect of that person.

- (2) Proceedings cannot be taken under this Act to enforce payment of the nominal amount directed to be paid by an order where the sum due under the order is less than ten dollars but, if that amount is varied under any provision of this Part, proceedings may be taken to enforce payment of any amount payable under the order as varied.

133—Interim orders for payment of maintenance

- (1) Where the hearing of a complaint under Division 1 is adjourned for a period of not less than seven days the court may order the defendant to pay for or towards the maintenance of the person to whom the complaint relates such amount as it thinks reasonable.
- (2) An order under this section is not subject to suspension, variation or appeal and remains in force until the expiration of a period of three months from the date on which the order is made or until the complaint again comes before the court (whichever first occurs).

Division 4—Provisions relating to the commencement and duration of orders and to evidentiary matters

Subdivision 1—Commencement and duration of orders

134—Orders for maintenance of children etc

Except as otherwise provided in this Division—

- (a) an order cannot be made under this Part in respect of a child who has attained the age of 18 years; and
- (b) except where arrears are due under the order and to the extent of those arrears, an order for the maintenance of a child ceases to have effect when the child attains the age of 18 years, marries, dies or is adopted or the person against whom the order was made dies, whichever first occurs.

135—Maintenance after child's eighteenth year

- (1) Upon complaint or application to the Magistrates Court made by or on behalf of a child (including a child who has attained the age of 18 years), if the court is satisfied that it is necessary to make an order under this section—
 - (a) for the purposes of enabling the child to undertake or complete a course of education or training that will fit the child for a profession, trade or occupation in which to earn a livelihood; or
 - (b) if the child is unable to earn a livelihood by reason of physical or mental incapacity—for the purposes of maintaining him or her, the court may make an order against a near relative for maintenance in respect of the child that will be in force, or vary an existing order for maintenance in respect of the child so that it will be in force, for an amount specified in the order and for a period specified in the order that commences after or continues beyond the date at which the child attained or will attain the age of 18 years.

- (2) This section does not apply—
- (a) in respect of a course of education or training commenced after a child attains the age of 21 years; or

136—Orders for support of wife, husband or child may include provision for past maintenance

Unless otherwise provided by this Act an order under this Part for the maintenance of a person may, whether or not an application for that purpose has been made, be made to take effect from a past date not being earlier than a date that the court thinks reasonable, and where an order takes effect from a past date the court may direct the past maintenance to be paid in one sum or by such instalments as the court directs.

138—Recovery of arrears after cessation of order

- (1) The fact that an order under this Act for the maintenance of a person ceases to have effect by virtue of this Act does not prevent the enforcement of the order or the recovery of any money due under the order, so far as it relates to any period, or to past maintenance of a person during any period, before it ceased to have effect.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply where the order ceased to have effect by reason of the death of the defendant.

Subdivision 2—Evidentiary provisions

Upon the hearing of a complaint under this Part with respect to a child born outside marriage the evidence of a woman that the defendant (not being her husband) is the father of her child or that she is pregnant by the defendant (not being her husband) must not be accepted without corroboration in a material particular except in the following cases:

- (a) where the defendant is present in court during the hearing of the complaint and does not give evidence on oath denying that he is the father of the child or that the woman is pregnant by him;
- (b) where the defendant is not present in court during the hearing of the complaint and the court is satisfied that he was duly served personally with a summons to attend the court;
- (c) where a direction has been given by the court pursuant to section 112 and the defendant refuses or without reasonable excuse fails to attend within the period or extended period fixed under that section upon the medical practitioner or analyst nominated in the direction and to permit the necessary blood samples to be taken for the purposes of the blood tests directed by the court, and in any of those cases the court may, subject to this Act, in its discretion accept the uncorroborated evidence of the woman as sufficient evidence of the fact that the defendant is the father of the child or that she is pregnant by him.

- (3) An order must not be discharged, suspended or varied under this Division unless the court is satisfied—
 - (a) that the order or, if the order has been varied, the original order or any order varying the original order was obtained by fraud or upon the basis of the existence of a marriage that did not in fact exist; or

- (b) that the means of the person for whose benefit the order was made or the means and ability to pay of the person against whom the order was made have so altered as to justify the discharge, suspension or variation of the order; or
 - (c) that new facts or circumstances have arisen that have not previously been disclosed to a court in any proceedings in connection with the order and that by reason of those facts or circumstances it is reasonable to discharge, vary or suspend the order; or
 - (d) that facts or circumstances were in existence at the time of the making of the order or, if the order has been varied, the original order or any order varying the original order, that have not previously been disclosed to a court in any proceedings in connection with the order and that were not and could not by the exercise of reasonable diligence have previously been known to the party by whom or on whose behalf the discharge, suspension or variation of the order is presently sought and that by reason of those facts or circumstances it is reasonable to discharge, vary or suspend the order.

- (2) The defendant is not liable to serve a term of imprisonment because of failure to pay an amount of arrears of maintenance in respect of which the defendant has already served a term of imprisonment pursuant to an order made under this section, but the liability to pay any such arrears is not discharged by imprisonment in respect of those arrears and the amount of any such arrears remains, until paid, a sum that may be recovered under any other provision of this Act.

 - (b) the Magistrates Court, on complaint made by or on behalf of the person for whose benefit the maintenance order was made, is satisfied that payment by the defendant of the maintenance is in arrears in breach of the condition of the suspension, the court may issue the warrant of commitment or may order that the issue of the warrant be further suspended upon the condition that the defendant make such payments in respect of the arrears of maintenance that have accrued up to the time of the hearing as are specified by the court, and duly pays all sums becoming payable under the maintenance order or the order for costs after the order for further suspension.

- (5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Act, where an order has been made under this section committing the defendant to prison in respect of arrears of maintenance and it appears to the Magistrates Court that the amount of the arrears of maintenance in respect of which the commitment order was made has been reduced, the fact of that reduction must be stated in the warrant of commitment, and the term of imprisonment for which the defendant may be committed will be reduced by the number of days bearing as nearly as possible the same proportion to the total number of days in the term of imprisonment as the amount paid bears to the whole arrears of maintenance.

- (6) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Act or in any warrant of commitment, where any person is in prison for non-payment of arrears of maintenance, the person may pay or cause to be paid to the manager of the prison—
- (a) the whole of the arrears of maintenance or, having regard to subsection (5), the amount of those arrears remaining to be paid; or
 - (b) any lesser amount.
- (7) Where the amount referred to in subsection (6)(a) is paid to the manager, the manager must discharge that person if the person is in custody for no other cause.
- (8) Where an amount referred to in subsection (6)(b) is paid to the manager, the term of imprisonment fixed by the commitment order will be reduced by the number of days bearing to the total number of days in the term of imprisonment a proportion that is the same as, or most nearly approximates to, the proportion that the amount paid bears to the whole of the arrears of maintenance and on the expiration of the term as so reduced the person imprisoned must, if in custody for no other cause, be discharged.
- (9) A court must not make an order committing the defendant to prison or issue a warrant of commitment if it is satisfied—
- (a) that the defendant has not and has not had and could not by reasonable effort have had the means and ability to pay the amount of the arrears of maintenance; or
 - (b) that for any other reason payment of the arrears of maintenance should not be enforced by imprisonment.
- (10) Where the court is aware that a court has previously refused to make an order committing the defendant to prison or to issue a warrant of commitment under this section for non-payment of a sum (in this subsection referred to as the original sum) included in the amount of arrears of maintenance in respect of which the complaint is made, the court must only have regard to the amount by which the sum still due and unpaid exceeds the original sum unless it is satisfied that, since that refusal, the means and ability of the defendant to pay the original sum have so altered as to make it reasonable for the defendant now to be committed to prison for non-payment of the original sum.

170—Warrant may be issued upon complaint enforcing maintenance order

Upon a complaint made in connection with the enforcement of any maintenance order, a justice may, instead of issuing a summons, issue a warrant for the apprehension of the person against whom the complaint is made, and for the detention of that person until the hearing of the complaint, unless the person enters into a bond, with or without guarantors, in such sum as the justice directs, conditioned upon his or her appearance at the hearing of the complaint.

172—Disobedience of order and quitting State

Penalty: Division 6 fine or division 6 imprisonment.

174—Warrant for arrest of deserter

- (1) Upon complaint on oath by an employee of the Department, that he or she has reasonable grounds for believing that a person is about to commit an offence under this Subdivision a justice, if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the offence has been or is about to be committed, may issue a warrant for the apprehension of the person complained against.
- (2) Upon the hearing of a complaint made under this section the Magistrates Court may, if satisfied that the defendant was about to commit the offence mentioned in the complaint, order the defendant to find an adequate guarantor or security to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant will comply with the maintenance order, or that he or she will not leave the child without, or will provide the child with, adequate means of support.
- (3) The court, in default of such a guarantor or security being found, may commit the defendant to prison for any term not exceeding six months.
- (4) The court may at any time determine the sufficiency of any proposed guarantors, or security, and in what manner the security is to be given, and upon being satisfied that security has been duly made and perfected, order the discharge of that person from prison.

Subdivision 2—Attachment of earnings

175—Interpretation

- (1) In this Subdivision, except where the context or subject matter or some other provision requires a different construction—attachment of earnings order means an order made under section 176 or such an order as varied from time to time; earnings, in relation to a defendant, means any sums payable to the defendant—

- (a) by way of wages or salary (including any fees bonus, commission, overtime pay, any payment in lieu of leave or other emolument payable in addition to wages or salary); or
- (b) by way of pension, including—
 - (i) an annuity in respect of past services, whether or not the services were rendered to the person paying the annuity; and
 - (ii) periodical payments in respect of or by way of compensation for the loss, abolition or relinquishment, or any diminution in the emoluments, of any office or employment, but does not include any pension, benefit or sum payable to the defendant under the Social Security Act 1991, the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 or the Seamen's War Pensions and Allowances Act 1940 of the Commonwealth;

employer, in relation to a defendant, means a person (including the Crown whether in right of the Commonwealth or in right of the State, a Minister of the Crown, whether in right of the Commonwealth or in right of the State and any statutory authority representing the Crown whether in right of the Commonwealth or in right of the State) by whom, as a principal and not as a servant or agent, earnings are payable or likely to become payable to the defendant;

normal deduction, in relation to an attachment of earnings order and in relation to a pay-day, means an amount representing a payment at the normal deduction rate specified in the order in respect of the period between that pay-day and either the last preceding pay-day, or, where there is no last preceding pay-day, the date on which the employer became, or last became, the defendant's employer;

pay-day means a day on which earnings to which an attachment of earnings order relates become payable;

protected earnings, in relation to an attachment of earnings order and in relation to a pay-day, means the amount representing a payment at the protected earnings rate specified in the order in respect of the period between that pay-day and either the last preceding pay-day, or where there is no last preceding pay-day the date on which the employer became, or last became, the defendant's employer.

- (a) a reference to a person entitled to receive payments under a maintenance order is to be read as a reference to a person entitled to receive payments under the maintenance order either directly or through another person or for transmission to another person; and
- (b) a reference to proceedings relating to an order is to be read as including a reference to proceedings in which the order may be made.

176—Application for attachment of earnings order

- (1) An employee of the Department or a person entitled to receive payments under a maintenance order may apply in writing to the Magistrates Court for an attachment of earnings order.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) may be made without specifying the name of any particular employer.
- (3) If the court is satisfied that the defendant is a person to whom earnings are payable or are likely to become payable and that the defendant has persistently failed to comply with the requirements of the order, or that, at the time when the application was made, there was due under the maintenance order and unpaid an amount equal to not less than—
 - (a) in the case of an order for weekly payments—four payments; or
 - (b) in any other case—two payments, the court may order a person who appears to the court to be the defendant's employer in respect of those earnings or a part of those earnings to make out of those earnings or that part of those earnings payments in accordance with this Subdivision.

- (4) An attachment of earnings order must specify, either generally or in relation to any particular pay-day or pay-days, the normal deduction rate, that is to say, the rate at which the court considers it to be reasonable that the earnings to which the order relates should be applied in satisfying the requirements of the maintenance order but not exceeding the rate that appears to the court to be necessary for the purpose of—
 - (a) securing payment of the sums from time to time falling due under the maintenance order; and
 - (b) securing payment within a reasonable time of any sums already due and unpaid under the maintenance order and any costs incurred in proceedings relating to the maintenance order that are payable by the defendant.
- (5) An attachment of earnings order may specify a higher normal deduction rate to apply for a specified number of pay-days after the order comes into force and a lower normal deduction rate to apply to any other pay-days.
- (6) An attachment of earnings order must also specify the protected earnings rate, that is to say, the rate below which, having regard to the resources and needs of the defendant and of any person for whom the defendant must or reasonably may provide, the court considers it to be reasonable that the earnings to which the order relates should not be reduced by a payment under the order.
- (7) An attachment of earnings order must provide that payments under the order are to be made to the main office of the Department in Adelaide.
- (8) An attachment of earnings order must contain such particulars as the court thinks proper for the purpose of enabling the person to whom the order is directed to identify the defendant.
- (9) Upon the making of an attachment of earnings order the court must cause a copy of the order to be served on—
 - (a) the defendant; and
 - (b) the person to whom the attachment of earnings order is directed; and
 - (c) if an employee of the Department is not a party to the application for the order, the Chief Executive Officer, but the order will not come into force until the expiration of seven days after the day on which a copy of the order is served on the person to whom the order is directed.

177—Employer to make payments under order

- (1) An employer to whom an attachment of earnings order is directed must, so long as the order is in force and the net earnings of the defendant in relation to each pay-day after the making of the order exceed the amount of the protected earnings of the defendant in relation to that pay-day, pay to the Chief Executive Officer, so far as the amount of the excess permits, the normal deduction in relation to that pay-day, but where—
 - (a) on any such pay-day, the amount of that excess is insufficient to permit the payment of the normal deduction in relation to that pay-day; or

- (b) in respect of any such pay-days the net earnings of the defendant were less than the protected earnings of the defendant and the amount by which those net earnings were less than those protected earnings has not been paid to the defendant, the employer must, so long as the order is in force, and if on any subsequent pay-day the net earnings of the defendant are sufficient after providing, if necessary, for the making good of any deficiency in the protected earnings referred to in paragraph (b), pay to the Chief Executive Officer the normal deduction in relation to that subsequent pay-day and, so far as the balance of the defendant's net earnings permits, all the arrears of the normal deductions.

- (2) A payment made by the employer under subsection (1) to the Chief Executive Officer is a valid discharge to the employer as against the defendant to the extent of the amount paid.

178—Power to make attachment of earnings order instead of other order

- (1) Where any proceedings in relation to, or for the enforcement of, a maintenance order already made are brought in the Magistrates Court the court may, instead of making any other order, make an attachment of earnings order.
- (2) Unless the court otherwise orders, where an attachment of earnings order is in force, no warrant or other process may be issued or order made in proceedings for the enforcement of the maintenance order that were begun before the making of the attachment of earnings order.

179—Discharge, suspension or variation of order

- (1) The Magistrates Court may, in its discretion, on the application of the defendant, an employee of the Department or a person entitled to receive payments under the maintenance order, make an order discharging, suspending or varying an attachment of earnings order.

- (a) the respondent to the application; and
 - (b) the person to whom the attachment of earnings order is directed; and
 - (c) if an employee of the Department is not a party to the application, the Chief Executive Officer,

but the order will not come into force until the expiration of seven days after the day on which a copy of the order is served on the person to whom the order is directed.

180—Cessation of attachment of earnings order

- (1) An attachment of earnings order ceases to have effect—
- (a) upon being discharged by an order under this Subdivision; or
 - (b) subject to subsection (2), upon the discharge or variation of the maintenance order in relation to which the attachment of earnings order was made; or
 - (c) unless the court otherwise orders, upon the making of any other order for the enforcement of the maintenance order in relation to which the attachment of earnings order was made.

- (2) Where it appears to the court discharging or varying a maintenance order that arrears under the order will remain to be recovered under the order, the court may direct that the attachment of earnings order will not cease to have effect until those arrears have been paid.
- (3) On an attachment of earnings order ceasing to have effect, a Registrar of the court must give notice of that fact to the Chief Executive Officer and to the person to whom the order was directed.
- (4) Where an attachment of earnings order ceases to have effect, the person to whom the attachment of earnings order is directed does not incur any liability in consequence of treating the order as still in force at any time before the expiration of seven days after the date on which the notice required by subsection (3) or a copy of the discharging order, as the case may be, is served on him or her.

181—Compliance with order

An attachment of earnings order made under this Subdivision has priority over any other order directed to the defendant's employer with respect to any earnings payable, or likely to become payable, to the defendant, and the defendant's employer must, notwithstanding anything in any other law, but subject to this Subdivision, comply with the order.

Penalty: Division 7 fine.

- (2) A person to whom an attachment of earnings order is directed who makes an application under subsection (1) does not incur any liability for failing to comply with the order with respect to any payments of the class or description specified in the application that are made to the defendant while the application, or any appeal from a determination made on the application, is pending.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply in respect of any payment made after the application has been withdrawn or an appeal from a determination made on the application has been abandoned.

the Collector must request the Magistrates Court to cancel the registration of the order, and that registration must be so cancelled.

- (6) Where the registration of an interstate order is so cancelled—
- (a) the order is unenforceable in this State; and
 - (b) the order remains unenforceable in this State and no proceedings for the enforcement of it lie, unless and until it is again registered in this State; and
 - (c) a warrant or other process under this Act arising out of the order previously issued in this State and not executed ceases to have effect.

202—Collector to notify original State when defendant leaves this State

Where an interstate order has been registered in this State under this Act and the Collector has reasonable grounds for believing that the defendant is no longer resident in this State, but is resident in, or proceeding to, another Australian State, the Collector must notify the Collector in the State in which the order was made of the fact and give such information as he or she possesses concerning the whereabouts and intended movements of the defendant.

203—Application for provisional order of variation

- (1) Where an interstate order made by a court of summary jurisdiction, or by a magistrate or justices, is enforceable in this State by virtue of this Subdivision, application in writing in accordance with the prescribed form may be made by or on behalf of the complainant or the defendant to the Magistrates Court for an order discharging, suspending, varying or reviving the interstate order, and that court has jurisdiction to hear and determine the application.
- (2) Where a South Australian order made by the Magistrates Court is enforceable in another Australian State by virtue of any enactment in that State corresponding with this Subdivision, application in writing in accordance with the prescribed form may be made by or on behalf of the complainant or the defendant to the Magistrates Court for an order discharging, suspending, varying or reviving the South Australian order.
- (3) The applicant must cause notice of an application under this section to be served personally or by post not less than 14 days before the hearing of the application, upon the Collector at the main office of the Department in Adelaide, and the Collector must, on receiving the notice, notify the Collector for the Australian State in which the interstate order was made or the South Australian order is enforceable (as the case may be).
- (4) Except where the complainant and the defendant both appear upon the hearing, the evidence of any witness who is examined at the hearing of any such application must be put into writing and must be read over to and signed by him or her.
- (5) While a South Australian order is enforceable in another Australian State under the law of that other Australian State, no application for the discharge, suspension, variation or revival of the order may be made in this State except in accordance with this section.

204—Discharge, suspension or variation of order made in absence of defendant

Where—

- (a) an application is made under section 203(1) by a defendant for the discharge, suspension or variation of an interstate order; and
- (b) the defendant did not appear at the hearing of the complaint upon which the original interstate order was made and was not served personally in the Australian State in which the order was made with the summons upon that complaint; and
- (c) the application is made within six months after service on the defendant of notice of registration of the order in this State,

205—Law to be applied

In an application under section 203, the law to be applied will, except in matters of practice or procedure, be the law of the Australian State in which the original order was made.

206—Order of variation to be provisional only

- (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), an order made on an application under section 203 discharging, suspending, varying or reviving a maintenance order is provisional only and has no effect unless and until confirmed by a competent court of the appropriate Australian State in which the maintenance order was made or is enforceable, and must be expressed accordingly.
- (2) Where the respondent to an application under section 203 has been served personally in this State with notice of the application or appears on the hearing of the application, any order made on the application must recite that fact, and the order is, subject to section 200(4), enforceable and has effect in this State according to its tenor.
- (3) Where an order made on an application under section 203 is expressed to be provisional, a Registrar of the Magistrates Court must send a certified copy of the order, together with the depositions of the witnesses, to the Collector for the other Australian State.
- (4) Where an order referred to in subsection (3) has been confirmed (whether with or without modification) by a competent court of the other Australian State, the order is, subject to section 200(4), enforceable and has effect in this State as so confirmed.

207—Procedure where provisional order remitted by court of other Australian State

- (1) Where a provisional order made under this Subdivision is remitted by a court in another Australian State to the Magistrates Court, the Magistrates Court must, after notice has been given to such persons in such manner as the court thinks fit, proceed to take the evidence, and must cause the depositions of the witnesses to be sent to the court in the other Australian State.

- (2) If, upon the taking of the further evidence, it appears to the court that the order ought not to have been made, the court may rescind the order and may, if it thinks fit, make a fresh provisional order in its stead.

208—Confirmation in this State of provisional orders made in other Australian States

- (1) Where the Collector receives—
- (a) a certified copy of—
 - (i) a provisional order made by a court in another Australian State discharging, suspending, varying or reviving a South Australian order enforceable in that other Australian State; or
 - (ii) a provisional order made by a court in another Australian State discharging, suspending, varying or reviving an interstate order made in that Australian State and enforceable in this State by virtue of this Subdivision; and
 - (b) the depositions of the witnesses who gave evidence at the hearing of the application upon which the provisional order was made,
- the Collector must, on behalf of the party on whose application the provisional order was made in the other Australian State, apply to the Magistrates Court for an order confirming the provisional order.
- (2) The Collector must cause notice, in accordance with the prescribed form, of the application under this section to be served on the respondent to the application not less than seven days before the hearing of the application.
- (3) Upon the hearing of such an application, the court may—
- (a) confirm the provisional order, either with or without modification; or
 - (b) discharge the provisional order.
- (4) Where a provisional order is confirmed under this section (whether with or without modification), the order as so confirmed is, subject to section 200(4), enforceable and has effect in this State as if it were an order validly made by the court in this State.
- (5) Each party to an application for confirmation of a provisional order under this section has the same right of appeal against an order confirming or discharging the provisional order as he or she would have had on the making of, or the refusal to make, the original order.

209—Proceedings for enforcement

- (1) Where an interstate order is enforceable in this State by virtue of this Subdivision—
- (a) all proceedings may be taken for the enforcement of the order; and
 - (b) the provisions of this Part will, so far as they are applicable and with such modifications as are necessary, apply and have effect,
- as if it were a maintenance order made under this Part by the Magistrates Court.
- (2) The Collector may take any proceedings that are authorized by or by virtue of subsection (1).

- (3) Where proceedings are so taken by the Collector, the court will, unless it is satisfied by evidence to the contrary, presume that the enforcement of the order is required for the actual support of the person for whose benefit the order was made and that since the order became enforceable in this State no money has been paid under the order otherwise than to the Collector.

Subdivision 3—Overseas maintenance

210—Transmission of maintenance orders made in this State for enforcement in reciprocating countries

Where a South Australian order is enforceable in this State but not in any other Australian State and it appears to the Collector that the defendant is resident in, or proceeding to, a reciprocating country, the Collector may send to an appropriate authority in that reciprocating country—

- (a) three certified copies of the South Australian order; and
- (b) a Collector's certificate relating to the South Australian order; and
- (c) such information and material as the Collector possesses for facilitating the identification, and ascertaining the whereabouts, of the defendant; and
- (d) a request in writing that the South Australian order be made enforceable in that reciprocating country.

211—Power to make provisional order against person resident in reciprocating country

- (1) This section applies to an application for a maintenance order under this Act—
- (a) against a husband for the maintenance of his wife; or
 - (b) against a wife for the maintenance of her husband; or
 - (c) against a near relative of a child for the maintenance of that child.
- (2) Upon application made in writing in accordance with the prescribed form to the Magistrates Court for a maintenance order to which this section applies and upon proof that the person against whom the order is sought is resident in, or proceeding to, a reciprocating country, the court may, in the absence of that person, make any order it could have made if a summons had been duly served on that person and the person had failed to appear at the hearing.
- (3) An order made under subsection (2) is provisional only and has no effect unless and until confirmed (either with or without modification) by a competent court in a reciprocating country in which the defendant is resident at the time of that confirmation, and must be expressed accordingly.
- (4) The evidence of any witness who is examined on any such application must be put into writing and must be read over to and signed by him or her.
- (5) Where the court makes an order under subsection (2), a Registrar of the court must send to the Collector for transmission to the reciprocating country—
- (a) the depositions of the witnesses; and
 - (b) three certified copies of the order; and

- (c) a statement of the grounds on which the making of the order could have been opposed if the defendant had appeared at the hearing.
- (6) Where any provisional order made under this section has come before a court in a reciprocating country for confirmation and the order has by that court been remitted to the Magistrates Court, the Magistrates Court must, after notice has been given to such persons and in such manner as the court thinks fit, proceed to take the evidence, and must send the depositions of the witnesses to the Collector for transmission to the court in the reciprocating country.
- (7) If, upon the taking of the further evidence, it appears to the court that the order ought not to have been made, that court may rescind the order and may, if it thinks fit, make a fresh provisional order in its stead.
- (9) Where a court in a reciprocating country in which the defendant is for the time being resident confirms (either with or without modification) a provisional order made under this section, the order is enforceable and has effect in this State as so confirmed as if it were an order validly made under this Part by the Magistrates Court.
- (10) Where a court in a reciprocating country confirms (either with or without modification) a provisional order made under this section, then, in any proceedings arising out of or relating to the order, it will be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that the defendant was resident in that reciprocating country at the time when the order was confirmed.
- (11) The applicant has the same right of appeal (if any) against a refusal to make a provisional order as he or she would have had against a refusal to make the order had a summons been duly served on the person against whom the order is sought.

212—Cancellation of registration

Where—

- (a) a South Australian order is, under the law of a reciprocating country, enforceable in that reciprocating country; and
- (b) the Collector is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the defendant is not resident in, or proceeding to, that reciprocating country or it appears to the Collector that there is some other good reason why the order should no longer be enforceable in that reciprocating country, the Collector may send to an appropriate authority in that reciprocating country a request in writing that the order be made no longer enforceable in that reciprocating country and, for the purposes of this Act, the order will, upon the sending of the request, cease to be enforceable in that reciprocating country.

213—Registration of overseas orders

- (1) Where the Collector receives—
- (a) a certified copy of an overseas order; and
- (b) a certificate signed by an officer of a court or by an appropriate authority in the reciprocating country relating to the order and containing—
- (i) a statement that the order is, at the date of the certificate, enforceable in that reciprocating country; and

- (ii) a statement as to the amount of any arrears due under the order, distinguishing any amount in respect of which the defendant has been imprisoned, the Collector must, subject to subsection (2), if it appears to the Collector that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the defendant is resident in or proceeding to this State, send those documents to the Magistrates Court with a request that the order be registered in that court.

- (2) In the case of an overseas order originating in a country having restricted reciprocity, the Collector must not send the documents as required by subsection (1) unless the Collector is satisfied that the order is a maintenance order of such a kind as can be made under this Part.
- (3) Upon a request being made under subsection (1), the order must be registered and a certified copy of the order and the certificate must be filed in the court.
- (4) An overseas order so registered is, until the registration is cancelled and subject to any order for its suspension, enforceable in this State, both in respect of any arrears payable under the order and of amounts becoming due under the order after it is so registered.
- (5) Upon registration of an overseas order, the Collector must notify the officer of the court or other appropriate authority in the reciprocating country accordingly and cause a certified copy of the order to be served upon the defendant, together with a notice of registration of the order in this State—
 - (a) specifying the amount, if any, of the arrears due under the order; and
 - (b) stating that payments under the order are to be made to the Collector; and
 - (c) giving an address at which such payments may be made.

214—Confirmation of provisional orders made overseas

- (1) Where—
 - (a) an overseas order (other than an order in an affiliation case or an order consequent upon such an order) has no effect under the law of the reciprocating country in which it is made unless and until confirmed by a court outside that reciprocating country (whether or not it appears from the order that it may be confirmed by a court in this State); and
 - (b) a certified copy of the order and the depositions of the witnesses in the proceedings in which the order was made, together with a statement of the grounds on which the making of the order could have been opposed if the defendant had appeared at the hearing, have been received by the Collector; and
 - (c) it appears to the Collector that—
 - (i) there are reasonable grounds for believing that the defendant is resident in, or proceeding to, this State; and
 - (ii) the order will have effect under the law of the reciprocating country if it is confirmed by a court in this State, a summons may, subject to subsection (2), on the application of the Collector, be issued by any justice calling upon the defendant to appear before the Magistrates Court to show cause why the provisional order should not be confirmed.

- (2) In the case of a provisional order made in a country having restricted reciprocity, the Collector must not make an application as provided by subsection (1) unless satisfied that the order is of such a kind (apart from its provisional nature) as could be made under this Part.
- (3) At the hearing the defendant may raise any ground of opposition which he or she could have raised in the original proceedings or any ground of opposition which he or she could have raised if those proceedings had been heard in this State, and the statement referred to in subsection (1) is conclusive evidence that the grounds referred to in that statement are grounds on which the making of the order might have been refused in the original proceedings.
- (4) If the defendant, having been served in this State with the summons, does not appear at the hearing, or if the defendant appears at the hearing but fails to satisfy the court that the order ought not to be confirmed, the court may confirm the provisional order (either with or without modification), but the court may, if it thinks it just to do so, discharge the provisional order.
- (5) Where a provisional order is confirmed under this section (whether with or without modification), the order as so confirmed is enforceable and has effect in this State as if it were an order validly made by the court in this State.

215—Order enforceable in this State may be sent to another Australian State

- (1) Where an overseas order is enforceable in this State under this Subdivision, and it appears to the Collector that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the defendant has ceased to reside in this State and is resident in, or proceeding to, another Australian State, the Collector may send to the Collector for that Australian State—
 - (a) three certified copies of the overseas order; and
 - (b) a Collector's certificate relating to the order; and
 - (c) such information and material as the Collector possesses for facilitating the identification, and ascertaining the whereabouts, of the defendant; and
 - (d) a request in writing that the order be made enforceable in that Australian State, and if the Collector does so, the Collector must notify the officer of the appropriate court or the appropriate authority in the reciprocating country of the fact that he or she has so sent the documents.

- (2) Where a request is made under subsection (1)—
 - (a) the order is unenforceable in this State, and, if the order has been registered in a court in this State, that registration will be taken to be cancelled; and
 - (b) the order remains unenforceable in this State and no proceedings for its enforcement lie, unless and until it is registered, or again registered, in this State; and
 - (c) a warrant or other process under this Act arising out of the order previously issued in this State and not executed ceases to have effect.

216—Registration of overseas orders registered or confirmed in another Australian State

- (1) Where—
- (a) the Collector receives from the Collector for another Australian State—
 - (i) three certified copies of an overseas order; and
 - (ii) a Collector's certificate signed by the Collector for that Australian State relating to the order; and
 - (iii) a request in writing that the order be made enforceable in this State; and
 - (b) it appears from the Collector's certificate that—
 - (i) the order has been registered in, or confirmed by, a court in that Australian State under a law of that Australian State corresponding with this Subdivision; and
 - (ii) the order was, at the date of the certificate, presently enforceable in that Australian State in accordance with that law, the Collector must if it appears to him or her that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the defendant is residing in, or proceeding to, this State, send the documents to the Magistrates Court, with a request that the order be registered in that court.

- (2) Upon a request being made under subsection (1), the order must (whether or not it is of such a kind as could be made under this Part) be registered and a certified copy of the order and the certificate must be filed in the court.
- (3) An overseas order so registered is, until the registration is cancelled, enforceable in this State, both in respect of any arrears payable under the order and of amounts becoming due under the order after it is so registered.
- (4) Upon registration of an overseas order, the Collector must notify the officer of the appropriate court or the other appropriate authority in the reciprocating country accordingly, and must cause a certified copy of the order to be served upon the defendant, together with a notice of registration of the order in this State—
- (a) specifying the amount, if any, of the arrears due under the order; and
 - (b) stating that payments under the order are to be made to the Collector; and
 - (c) giving an address at which such payments may be made.

217—Transmission of documents where defendant not in this State

Where the Collector receives documents relating to an overseas order (including a provisional order) that have been transmitted to this State for the purpose of having the order made enforceable or confirmed in this State and it appears to him or her that the defendant is not resident in, or proceeding to, this State but is resident in, or proceeding to another Australian State or a reciprocating country other than that in which the order was made, the Collector may, instead of taking steps with a view to the registration or confirmation of the order in this State—

- (a) transmit the documents to the Collector for that other Australian State or an appropriate authority in that other reciprocating country together with such information as the Collector possesses concerning the whereabouts and intended movements of the defendant; and
- (b) give to the officer of the appropriate court or other appropriate authority in the reciprocating country in which the order was made notice of the fact that the documents have been so transmitted.

218—Cancellation of registration

(1) Where—

- (a) an overseas order is registered or confirmed under this Subdivision; and
- (b) the Collector receives a request in writing made by an officer of the Court that made the order or some other appropriate authority in the reciprocating country that the order be made no longer enforceable in this State, the Collector must send the request to the Magistrates Court, which must file the request and, if the order is registered under this Subdivision, cancel the registration of the order.

(2) Where such a request has been so filed—

- (a) the overseas order is unenforceable in this State; and
- (b) the order remains unenforceable in this State unless and until it is registered, or again registered, in this State; and
- (c) a warrant or other process under this Act arising out of the order previously issued in this State and not executed ceases to have effect.

219—Proceedings for enforcement

(1) Where an overseas order is enforceable in this State by virtue of this Subdivision—

- (a) all proceedings may be taken for the enforcement of the order; and
- (b) the provisions of this Part, so far as they are applicable and with such modifications as are necessary, apply and have effect, as if it were a maintenance order made under this Part.

(2) The Collector may take any proceedings that are authorized by or by virtue of subsection (1).

- (3) Where proceedings are so taken by the Collector, the court will, unless it is satisfied by evidence to the contrary, presume that the enforcement of the order is required for the actual support of the person for whose benefit the order was made and that since the order became enforceable in this State no money has been paid under the order otherwise than to the Collector.

220—Defendant in this State may apply for order of variation

- (1) Where an overseas order is enforceable in this State by virtue of this Subdivision, the defendant may make an application in writing, in accordance with the prescribed form, to a the Magistrates Court for an order discharging, suspending or varying the overseas order, and that court has jurisdiction to hear and determine the application.
- (2) Where a South Australian order is enforceable under the law of a reciprocating country in which the defendant is for the time being resident, the complainant may make an application in writing, in accordance with the prescribed form, to the Magistrates Court for an order varying or (if the order has been suspended) reviving, the order.
- (3) The applicant must cause notice of an application under this section to be served personally or by post upon the Collector at the main office of the Department in Adelaide not less than 14 days before the hearing of the application.
- (4) The evidence of any witness who is examined at the hearing of any such application must be put into writing and must be read over to, and signed by, him or her.
- (5) The court must, as far as practicable, hear and determine an application under this section as if it were a similar application under Division 5.

221—Discharge, suspension or variation of order made in absence of defendant

Where—

- (a) an application is made by a defendant for the discharge, suspension or variation of an overseas order; and
- (b) the defendant did not appear at the hearing of the proceedings upon which the overseas order was made and was not served personally in the reciprocating country with notice of those proceedings; and
- (c) the application is made within six months after service on the defendant, of notice of registration of the order in this State,

the defendant may, in addition to raising any matter that could have been raised on an application under section 144, raise any ground of opposition that he or she could have raised had the proceedings on which the overseas order was made been heard in this State.

222—Law to be applied

In an application under section 220 the law to be applied is the law of this State.

223—Certain orders to be provisional only

- (1) Where the court proposes to make an order on an application under section 220 and any court in the reciprocating country will, if the order is provisional only, have jurisdiction to confirm the order, the order is provisional only and has no effect unless and until confirmed (either with or without modification) by such a court, and must be expressed accordingly.
- (2) Where a provisional order is made in accordance with this section, the Collector must send a certified copy of the provisional order, together with the depositions of the witnesses, to an officer of a court in the reciprocating country having jurisdiction to confirm the provisional order, or to an appropriate authority in that country for transmission to such court.
- (3) Where a court in the reciprocating country confirms (either with or without modification) a provisional order made on an application under section 220, the order is enforceable and has effect in this State as so confirmed.
- (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, if a provisional order made on an application under section 220(2) is confirmed (either with or without modification) by a court of a reciprocating country (being a country other than the country specified in the order) in which the defendant is resident at the time of the confirmation, the order is enforceable and has effect in this State as so confirmed.

224—Procedure where provisional order remitted by court in reciprocating country

- (1) Where a provisional order made in accordance with section 223 is remitted by a court in a reciprocating country to the Magistrates Court, the Magistrates Court must, after notice has been given to such persons and in such manner as the court thinks fit, proceed to take the evidence, and must send the depositions of the witnesses to the Collector for transmission to the court in the reciprocating country.
- (2) If, upon the taking of the further evidence, it appears to the court that the order ought not to have been made, the court may rescind the order and may, if it thinks fit, make a fresh provisional order in its stead.

225—Confirmation in this State of provisional orders of variation made in reciprocating countries

- (1) Where the Collector receives—
 - (a) a certified copy of—
 - (i) a provisional order made by a court of a reciprocating country discharging, suspending, varying or reviving a South Australian order enforceable in that reciprocating country; or
 - (ii) a provisional order made by a court in a reciprocating country discharging, suspending, varying or reviving an overseas order made in that reciprocating country and enforceable in this State by virtue of this Subdivision; and
 - (b) the depositions of the witnesses who gave evidence at the hearing of the application upon which the provisional order was made,

the Collector must, on behalf of the party on whose application the provisional order was made in the reciprocating country, apply to the Magistrates Court for an order confirming the provisional order.

- (2) The Collector must cause notice in accordance with the prescribed form of the application under this section to be served on the respondent to the application not less than seven days before the hearing of the application.
- (3) Upon the hearing of any such application, the court may—
 - (a) confirm the provisional order (either with or without modification); or
 - (b) discharge the provisional order; or
 - (c) adjourn the proceedings and remit the provisional order to the court that made it with a request that the court take further evidence and further consider its provisional order.

226—Power of Governor to declare reciprocating countries

- (1) Where the Governor is satisfied that the law of a country makes provision for the enforcement in that country of maintenance orders made in another country and that under that law South Australian orders may be made enforceable in that country, the Governor may, by proclamation, declare that country to be a reciprocating country for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) If it appears to the Governor that the jurisdiction of the courts of a country specified, or to be specified, in a proclamation under subsection (1) to make maintenance orders extends to the making of orders that are not of the same kind as orders that may be made in this State under this Part, the Governor may, by the same or a subsequent proclamation, declare that that country has restricted reciprocity with this State.
- (3) In a proclamation made under subsection (1) or (2) the Governor may specify, in relation to the country to which the proclamation applies, a date, which may be before or after or the same day as the date of the proclamation, and declare that maintenance orders made in that country on or after that date are enforceable in this State in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
- (4) The Governor may, by proclamation, revoke or vary or further vary any proclamation made under subsection (1) or (2) or any corresponding previous enactment.
- (5) Where, by virtue of any proclamation made pursuant to this section, a country that has been a reciprocating country ceases to be a reciprocating country—
 - (a) a maintenance order made in that country and enforceable in this State by virtue of this Subdivision ceases to be so enforceable and no further proceedings for its enforcement may lie; and
 - (b) a warrant or other process under this Act arising out of any such order previously issued in this State and not executed ceases to have effect, but this subsection does not affect the validity of anything done under this Act for the enforcement of a maintenance order while that country was a reciprocating country.

- (6) At least once in every year the Collector must cause to be published in the Gazette a list of the names of the reciprocating countries, showing the respective dates upon which they became reciprocating countries, the dates, if any, on or after which maintenance orders made in those countries are enforceable in this State and indicating which of those countries are countries having restricted reciprocity.
- (7) A copy of the Gazette containing such a list will be accepted in any proceedings as evidence of the matters stated in the list and of the fact that a country shown in the list as a reciprocating country of either class continues to be a reciprocating country of that class.

Subdivision 4—General

227—Payments to be made to Collector

While a maintenance order is enforceable in this State under Subdivision 2 or Subdivision 3, all money directed by the order to be paid is payable and must be paid by the person against whom the order is made to the Collector, and the receipt of the Collector for any such money is a sufficient discharge of the liability of the person to pay that money in accordance with the order.

228—Collector to notify changes in orders enforceable in other Australian States or reciprocating countries

Where the operation of a South Australian order enforceable in another Australian State or in a reciprocating country, or the operation of an interstate order or overseas order enforceable in this State, is affected by an order (other than a provisional order), event or other matter made, occurring or arising in this State of which the Collector has notice, the Collector must send to the Collector for the other Australian State, or to an appropriate authority in that reciprocating country, a certified copy of the order, or a notice in writing giving particulars of the event or other matter, by which the operation of the order has been so affected.

229—Collector to note changes in orders made or enforceable in South Australia

- (1) Where the Collector receives from the Collector for another Australian State or from an appropriate authority in a reciprocating country a certified copy of an order (other than a provisional order), or a notice in writing giving particulars of an event or other matter, made, occurring or arising in that other Australian State or in that reciprocating country and affecting, in a manner appearing from the certified copy or notice, the operation of a South Australian order enforceable in that other Australian State or in that reciprocating country, or of an interstate order or overseas order enforceable in this State under this Division, the Collector must—
 - (a) file the certified copy or notice in the Magistrates Court; and
 - (b) if the complainant or defendant is resident in this State, cause a copy of the certified copy or notice to be served on the complainant or defendant, as the case may require.

- (2) Where a certified copy or notice is filed in accordance with subsection (1) in relation to a maintenance order, the order, event or matter has the same effect in this State as it appears from the certified copy or notice to have in the other Australian State or reciprocating country.
- (3) This section does not apply in relation to an order made in a reciprocating country affecting a maintenance order in a manner adverse to the defendant unless it appears from the documents received by the Collector that the defendant appeared on the hearing of the proceedings in connection with which the first-mentioned order was made.

230—Conversion of currency

- (1) For the purposes of this Division, an overseas order (including a provisional order) or a certificate or notice originating in a reciprocating country, that refers to an amount of money (including an amount of arrears) expressed in the currency of a reciprocating country will be taken to refer to the amount that was the equivalent amount in Australian currency on the prescribed date on the basis of the telegraphic transfer rate of exchange that prevailed on that date.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, a certificate signed by the Collector, or the Collector for another Australian State, and purporting to be based on information obtained from an ADI, stating that a specified amount in Australian currency was, on a specified date, the equivalent of a specified amount in another currency on the basis of the telegraphic transfer rate of exchange prevailing on that date is evidence of the matter stated in the certificate.
- (3) Where a certificate of a Collector in accordance with subsection (2) has been filed in the Magistrates Court in relation to an order, certificate or notice, every copy of that order, certificate or notice served on any person must be accompanied by a copy of the first-mentioned certificate.
- (4) Where, under this Division, the Collector is required to remit an amount of money to a country outside the Commonwealth, the Collector must remit such amount in the currency of that country as he or she is able to remit by the expenditure of that first-mentioned amount.
- (5) In this section—
the prescribed date means—
