Legislative history

The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

Part 1—Preliminary

1—Short title

This Act may be cited as the Firearms Act 1977.

5—Interpretation

- (1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—
- to acquire means to acquire through purchase, gift, loan or hire;
- active member of a club for a 12 month period means—
- (a) in relation to a collectors' club—
 - (i) a member of the club who has attended four or more meetings of the club during the 12 months; or
 - (ii) a member of the club who has made a personal contribution (not being a financial contribution) to the club during the 12 months in a manner and to an extent that satisfies the Registrar that he or she should be regarded as an active member of the club; or
 - (b) in relation to a shooting club and the holder of a firearms licence authorising possession of class H firearms—
 - (i) a member of the club who has participated in shooting club organised competitive shooting matches for class H firearms on at least six occasions during the 12 months; or
 - (ii) a member of the club who satisfies the Registrar that the member failed to meet the requirements of subparagraph (i), during the 12 months, due to the member's ill health or employment obligations or some other reason accepted by the Registrar;

air gun means a firearm (other than a rifle or handgun) designed to fire shot, bullets or other projectiles by means of compressed air or other compressed gas and not by means of burning propellant;

air rifle means a rifle designed to be carried by hand and to fire shot, bullets or other projectiles by means of compressed air or other compressed gas and not by means of burning propellant;

ammunition means ammunition suitable for use in a firearm and includes primers and propellant;

antique firearm means a firearm that—

- (a) was manufactured before 1900; and
- (b) is kept solely for curiosity, display or ornamental purposes; and
- (c) is not used to fire projectiles; and
- (d) —
 - (i) in the case of a firearm other than a class H firearm—
 - (A) is designed to fire breech loading cartridges and is not a firearm for which live rounds of ammunition are commercially manufactured factory loaded; or
 - (B) is not designed to fire breech loading cartridges; or
 - (ii) in the case of a class H firearm—is a handgun designed or altered to fire by means of a flintlock, matchlock, wheel-lock or other system used prior to the use of percussion caps as a means of ignition, and includes a receiver of such a firearm;

automatic firearm means a firearm that is designed to fire a round when the trigger is brought to the firing position and to continue to fire one or more rounds automatically while the trigger is held in that position;

class A firearms means—to supply means to supply through sale, gift, loan or hire.

- (2) For the purposes of this Act the capacity of a magazine that has been modified to reduce its capacity will only be regarded as having the reduced capacity, instead of its capacity as manufactured, if it has been modified in a manner approved by the Registrar.
- (3) A person who purchases or sells more than 20 firearms or more than 20 firearm parts in any 12 month period will, for the purposes of this Act, be taken to be carrying on the business of dealing in firearms or firearm parts in respect of the firearms or firearm parts purchased or sold in excess of 20 in that period unless he or she establishes on the balance of probabilities that he or she was not carrying on such a business.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply if all the firearms purchased or sold in a 12 month period were the subject of one transaction or two or more transactions entered into on the same day at an auction.
- (5) A person who purchases or sells more than 50 000 rounds of ammunition in any 12 month period will, for the purposes of this Act, be taken to be carrying on the business of dealing in ammunition in respect of the ammunition purchased or sold in excess of 50 000 rounds in that period unless he or she establishes on the balance of probabilities that he or she was not carrying on such a business.

- (6) Subsection (5) does not apply—
- (a) in relation to a recognised firearms club;
 - (ab) to the purchase or sale by a recognised paint-ball operator of ammunition suitable for use in paint-ball firearms;
 - (b) if all the ammunition purchased or sold in a 12 month period was the subject of one transaction or two or more transactions entered into on the same day at an auction.
- (7) For the purposes of this Act, any grounds provided or arranged to be provided by or on behalf of a recognised firearms club for use by members of the club will be taken to be grounds of the club.
- (8) For the purposes of this Act, any grounds provided or arranged to be provided by or on behalf of a recognised paint-ball operator for use by participants in an organised activity involving the use of paint-ball firearms will be taken to be grounds of the operator.
- (9) A reference in this Act to a person who carries on the business of primary production includes—
- (a) where the business is carried on by a company—a director of the company; and
 - (b) the person (if any) employed to manage the business,
- if the director or manager resides on or near the land on which the business is carried on or visits the land frequently for the purposes of the business.
- (10) For the purposes of this Act a person who has a mental or physical condition that would make it unsafe for him or her to possess a firearm or ammunition must be taken not to be a fit and proper person to have possession of a firearm or ammunition or to hold or have possession of a licence.
- (11) For the purposes of this Act a person may be taken not to be a fit and proper person to have possession of a firearm or ammunition or to hold or have possession of a licence if the person—
- (a) has not complied with the requirements of this Act in relation to the safe handling, carriage or use of firearms; or
 - (b) has been convicted of an offence against this Act or corresponding legislation of another State or Territory of the Commonwealth; or
 - (c) has been convicted of an offence involving actual or threatened violence in this State or any other State or Territory of the Commonwealth or in any other part of the world; or
 - (d) has been guilty of fraud or deception for the purpose of obtaining a licence or permit under this Act or under corresponding legislation in another State or Territory of the Commonwealth; or
 - (e) is the subject, or has in the past been the subject, of a domestic violence restraining order under the Domestic Violence Act 1994 or any other order of a similar nature made by a court whether in this State or any other State or Territory of the Commonwealth.

- (12) Subsection (11) does not limit the grounds on which a person may be taken not to be a fit and proper person for the purposes of this Act.

5A—Crown not bound

This Act does not apply to the Crown in right of this State or to the Crown in any other capacity.

Part 2—Administration

Division 1—The Registrar of Firearms

6—The Registrar

- (1) The Commissioner of Police is the Registrar of Firearms.
- (2) The Registrar may, by instrument in writing, delegate to any person any of the Registrar's powers and functions under this Act.
- (3) A delegation under this section is revocable at will, and does not prevent the exercise of any power or function by the Registrar.
- (4) The Registrar may not delegate the function of classifying information as criminal intelligence for the purposes of this Act except to a Deputy Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner of Police.

Division 2—The Firearms Consultative Committee

7—Establishment of consultative committee

- (1) The Firearms Consultative Committee is established.
- (2) The consultative committee consists of six members, appointed by the Governor, of whom—
 - (a) one must be a legal practitioner of at least seven years standing; and
 - (b) one must be a person nominated by the Commissioner of Police; and
 - (c) one must be a person who has, in the opinion of the Governor, wide experience in the use and control of firearms; and
 - (d) one must be a medical practitioner; and
 - (e) one must be a person who carries on the business of primary production and uses a firearm or firearms for the purposes of that business; and
 - (f) one must be a person who has experience in the administration of, or in participating in, a competitive discipline using firearms being a discipline in which shooters compete at the Olympic Games or the Commonwealth Games.
- (2a) The committee must include at least two men and two women.
- (3) The Governor may appoint any member of the consultative committee to be chairman of the committee.

- (4) The Governor may appoint a suitable person to be a deputy of any member of the committee, and such a person while acting in the absence of the member has all the powers, authorities, duties and obligations of that member.

8—Quorum etc

- (1) Four members of the consultative committee constitute a quorum of the committee and no business may be transacted by the committee unless a quorum is present.
- (2) A decision carried by a majority of votes cast by members at a meeting is a decision of the committee.
- (3) Each member present at a meeting has one vote on any question arising for decision and, if the votes are equal, the person presiding at the meeting may exercise a casting vote.

9—Allowances and expenses

The members of the consultative committee are entitled to such allowances and expenses as the Minister may determine.

10—Procedure of the consultative committee

- (1) Before the consultative committee makes any decision upon a matter arising under this Act, it must allow the Registrar, and any other person with a direct interest in the matter, a reasonable opportunity to make representations orally or in writing to the committee.
- (2) In investigating any matter arising under this Act, the consultative committee is not bound by the rules of evidence but may inform itself in any manner it thinks fit.
- (3) The consultative committee must maintain the confidentiality of information provided to the committee by the Registrar that is classified by the Registrar as criminal intelligence.

Part 3—Possession of firearms and dealing in firearms and ammunition

Division 1—Possession and use of firearms

11—Possession and use of firearms

- (1) A person who has possession of a firearm without holding a firearms licence authorising possession of that firearm is guilty of an offence.
- (2) A person who has possession of a firearm, or who uses a firearm, for a purpose that is not authorised by a firearms licence held by that person is guilty of an offence.
- (3) If, in proceedings for an offence against subsection (2), the evidence gives rise to a reasonable inference that the purpose for which the defendant had possession of the firearm, or used the firearm, was not authorised by the licence, the onus shifts to the defendant to establish that the purpose for which he or she had possession of the firearm, or used the firearm, was authorised by the licence.

- (4) No offence is committed under this section in relation to a class A, B or H firearm by virtue of the fact that—
- (a) a person has possession of, or uses, the firearm on the range of a recognised commercial range operator or at a shooting gallery in the normal course of the operation of the commercial range operator or the shooting gallery if the commercial range or the gallery is under the supervision of a responsible person who holds a firearms licence authorising possession of that firearm;
 - (b) a person has possession of, or uses, the firearm on the grounds of a recognised firearms club for the purpose of shooting in a manner authorised by the club provided that the person—
 - (i) is not the holder of a firearms licence, or a similar licence or authorisation under corresponding legislation of another State or Territory of the Commonwealth, that is suspended; and
 - (ii) has not been the holder of a firearms licence, or a similar licence or authorisation under corresponding legislation of another State or Territory of the Commonwealth, that has been cancelled; and
 - (iii) is not prohibited from possessing or using a firearm by an order of a court whether in this State or any other State or Territory of the Commonwealth;
 - (ba) a person has possession of, or uses, a paint-ball firearm on grounds of a recognised paint-ball operator while participating in an organised activity involving the use of paint-ball firearms (but no other firearms);
 - (c) a person has possession of the firearm in the ordinary course of the business of carrying or storing goods;
 - (d) a person has possession of, or uses, the firearm in the ordinary course of business as a licensed dealer in firearms.
- (4a) No offence is committed under this section in relation to a class C or D firearm by virtue of the fact that—
- (a) a person has possession of the firearm in the ordinary course of the business of carrying or storing goods; or
 - (b) a person has possession of, or uses, the firearm in the ordinary course of business as a licensed dealer in firearms if his or her dealer's licence authorises dealing in that class of firearm.
- (4b) No offence is committed under this section in relation to a class A, B, C, D or H firearm or a prescribed firearm by virtue of the fact that a person has possession of the firearm if he or she has possession of it on behalf of the Crown.
- (5) No offence is committed under this section in relation to a firearm by virtue of the fact that—
- (a) a person has possession of the firearm as executor of the will, or administrator of the estate, of a deceased person;
 - (b) a person has possession of the firearm—
 - (i) as the administrator, committee, guardian or manager of the estate of a person who is unable to manage his or her affairs; or

- (ii) as the donee of an enduring power of attorney during a period of legal incapacity suffered by the donor of the power; or
 - (iii) as the Official Trustee or the registered trustee of a bankrupt estate;
 - (c) a person has possession of, or uses, the firearm in circumstances prescribed by regulation.
- (6) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) a person who handles a firearm—
 - (i) in the presence, and with the consent, of a person who is the owner of the firearm and who is authorised by or under this Act to have possession of it; or
 - (ii) in the premises of a licensed dealer in firearms for the purpose of inspecting the firearm, does not have possession of the firearm;
 - (b) a person who has possession of a self-loading rim fire rifle that does not have an inbuilt magazine and does not have possession of any magazine that can be fitted to the rifle has possession of a class C firearm;
 - (c) a person who has possession of a self-loading rim fire rifle and also has possession of a magazine with a capacity of more than ten rounds that can be fitted to the rifle has possession of a class D firearm even though the magazine is not fitted to the rifle;
 - (d) a person who has possession of a self-loading or pump action shotgun that does not have an inbuilt magazine and does not have possession of any magazine that can be fitted to the shotgun has possession of a class C firearm;
 - (e) a person who has possession of a self-loading or pump action shotgun and also has possession of a magazine with a capacity of more than five rounds that can be fitted to the shotgun has possession of a class D firearm even though the magazine is not fitted to the shotgun.
- (7) The maximum penalty for an offence against this section is as follows:
 - (a) where the firearm is a prescribed firearm—$50 000 or imprisonment for 10 years;
 - (b) where the firearm is a class C, D or H firearm—$35 000 or imprisonment for seven years;
 - (c) where the firearm is any other kind of firearm—$20 000 or imprisonment for four years.
- (8) A person may, at the discretion of the prosecutor, be prosecuted for a summary offence against this section except where the firearm is a prescribed firearm, but on conviction of a summary offence against this section the maximum penalty is $10 000 or imprisonment for two years.

12—Application for firearms licence

- (1) An application for a firearms licence—
 - (a) must be made to the Registrar in the prescribed manner and form; and

Firearms Act 1977—1.10.2003 to 31.5.2007

Part 3—Possession of firearms and dealing in firearms and ammunition

Division 1—Possession and use of firearms

- (b) must contain the prescribed information; and
 - (c) must be accompanied by any certificates, declarations, references, reports or other documents required by the regulations or by the Registrar.
- (2) The Registrar may require an applicant—
 - (a) to furnish such further information as may be necessary to enable the Registrar to determine the application; or
 - (b) to verify by statutory declaration information furnished in relation to the application.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), an application for a firearms licence cannot be made by a person under the age of 18 years.
- (4) An application for a firearms permit may be made by a person who has reached the age of 15 years but who has not reached the age of 18 years if that person is the spouse, child, brother, sister or employee of a person who holds a firearms licence and who carries on the business of primary production.
- (4a) A firearms permit may only authorise the possession and use of class A or B firearms registered in the name of the spouse, parent, brother, sister or employer of the licence holder and may only authorise use of the firearm for the purposes of the business of primary production carried on by that person.
- (5) The Registrar must not grant an application for a firearms licence unless satisfied—
 - (a) as to the identity of the applicant (the Registrar may require the applicant to identify himself or herself in the same manner and to the same extent as could be required if the applicant were opening an account at an ADI); and
 - (ab) as to the age and the residential and postal addresses of the applicant; and
 - (b) that the applicant intends using the firearm, or a firearm of the class, to which the licence relates for the purpose or purposes endorsed on the licence in relation to that firearm or firearms of that class.
- (5a) The Registrar may refuse an application for a firearms licence if the applicant is not usually resident in the State.
- (6) Subject to this section, where an application for a firearms licence is properly made the Registrar may only refuse the application if—
 - (a) —
 - (i) the Registrar is not satisfied that the applicant is a fit and proper person to hold the licence applied for; or
 - (ii) the proposed licence would authorise possession of a class C or D firearm and the Registrar would not be prepared to grant a permit to the applicant to acquire a firearm of that class; or
 - (iii) the Registrar is not satisfied that the applicant will keep firearms in his or her possession secured in accordance with this Act; or
 - (iv) the Registrar is satisfied that the applicant could not use any firearm for the purpose or one or more of the purposes to be endorsed on the licence; or

- (v) the Registrar is satisfied that the applicant could not use any firearm of the class or one or more of the classes to be endorsed on the licence in accordance with the conditions of the licence; or
 - (vi) to grant the application would, in the Registrar's opinion, be contrary to the public interest; and
 - (b) the consultative committee agrees that the application should be refused.
- (7) An application for a firearms licence authorising possession of a prescribed firearm can only be granted if the Registrar is satisfied—
 - (a) that the prescribed firearm will be used for a purpose authorised by the regulations; and
 - (b) that the applicant is a fit and proper person to have possession of the prescribed firearm.
- (7a) If—
 - (a) the Registrar refuses an application for a firearms licence on the ground that to grant the licence would, in the Registrar's opinion, be contrary to the public interest; and
 - (b) the Registrar made the decision because of information that is classified by the Registrar as criminal intelligence, the Registrar is not required to provide any reasons for the Registrar's decision to the applicant other than that the decision was made on public interest grounds under this section.

- (7b) An application for a collector's licence may be refused if the Registrar is not satisfied that—
 - (a) the applicant has, or genuinely intends to acquire, a collection of firearms that has, or will have, significant commemorative, historical, investment or other value; or
 - (b) —
 - (i) in the case of an application for a new collector's licence (as distinct from the renewal of a licence)—the applicant has been an active member of a collectors' club for the preceding 12 months; or
 - (ii) in the case of an application for renewal of a collector's licence—the applicant has been an active member of a collectors' club for each licence year of the licence.
- (7c) An application for a firearms licence authorising possession of class H firearms may be refused if—
 - (a) the applicant was the holder of a firearms licence authorising possession of class H firearms that was, on application made by the person within the period of six months from the commencement of this subsection—
 - (i) cancelled; or
 - (ii) altered so that class H firearms ceased to be endorsed on it; and
 - (b) not more than five years has elapsed since the end of that period.

- (7d) An application for renewal of a shooting club member's licence authorising possession of class H firearms may be refused if the Registrar is not satisfied that the applicant has been an active member of a shooting club for each licence year of the licence.
- (8) An application for a new firearms licence (as distinct from the renewal of a licence) must not be granted until at least 28 days after the application was made.
- (9) The Registrar will be taken to have refused an application for a firearms licence if the application has not been granted within 90 days after it was made.
- (10) A firearms licence does not come into force until the prescribed application fee has been paid.
- (11) A person may hold a collector's licence and another firearms licence for other purposes at the same time.

13—Provisions relating to firearms licences

- (1) A firearms licence may authorise possession of a particular firearm or firearms of a particular class, and must be endorsed by the Registrar with the purpose or purposes for which that firearm or firearms of that class may be used by the holder of the licence.
- (2) A firearms licence can only be endorsed with a purpose or purposes prescribed by regulation or approved by the Registrar pursuant to the regulations.
- (2a) Where a firearms licence is endorsed with the purpose of collecting and displaying firearms no other purpose may be endorsed on that licence.
- (3) A firearms licence that authorises possession of a prescribed firearm must be specially endorsed by the Registrar to that effect.
- (3a) A firearms licence does not authorise the possession and use of a firearm acquired by the holder of the licence on or after the commencement of the Firearms (Miscellaneous) Amendment Act 1996 if possession of the firearm was transferred to the holder in contravention of Division 2A.
- (4) Subject to this section, a firearms licence is subject to—
 - (a) any licence conditions prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (b) any licence conditions imposed by the Registrar with the approval of the consultative committee; and
 - (c) any licence conditions imposed by the Registrar with the agreement of the holder of the licence.
- (5) The Registrar may impose licence conditions pursuant to subsection (4) on the grant or renewal of the licence or at any time during the term of the licence.
- (6) A licence condition imposed pursuant to subsection (4)(b) during the term of the licence does not operate until the Registrar has given the holder of the licence (either personally or by certified mail) notice in writing of the condition.
- (8) The Registrar may, on his or her own initiative or on the application of the holder of a firearms licence—
 - (a) extend or restrict the classes of firearms to which the licence relates;

- (b) vary or revoke a purpose endorsed on the licence pursuant to subsection (1) or endorse a further purpose or purposes on the licence;
 - (c) vary or revoke a licence condition (including a condition to which the licence is subject by virtue of the regulations).
- (8a) Where the Registrar is considering taking action under subsection (8), he or she may require the holder of the licence—
- (a) to furnish such information as may be necessary or desirable to enable the Registrar to take that action; or
 - (b) to verify, by statutory declaration, information already furnished to the Registrar.
- Maximum penalty: $5 000.
- (9) An alteration under subsection (8) relating to a licence does not operate until the Registrar has given the holder of the licence (either personally or by post) notice in writing of the alteration or the licence has been appropriately endorsed.

Division 2—Acquisition of firearms

14—Acquisition of firearms

- (1) Subject to this section, a person who—
- (a) acquires a firearm; or
 - (b) knowingly takes part in the acquisition of a firearm,
- without being authorised to acquire the firearm by a permit under this Part (or under corresponding legislation in another State or Territory of the Commonwealth) is guilty of an offence.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the acquisition of a firearm by a person in the ordinary course of carrying on business as a licensed dealer pursuant to the licence.
- (3) It is a defence to prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) to prove that—
- (a) the acquisition was in circumstances (prescribed by or under section 11) in which the person who acquired the firearm was not required to hold a licence authorising possession of the firearm; or
 - (b) the owner of the firearm carried on a business and the firearm was temporarily acquired for the purposes of the business from the owner by a person who was—
 - (i) the holder of a licence authorising the possession and use of the firearm; and
 - (ii) an employee, or in the case of a primary production business, a relative, of the owner; or
 - (c) in the case of a class A or B firearm or, subject to subsection (4), a class H firearm, the acquisition was pursuant to a written agreement between the owner of the firearm and the person who acquired the firearm that the person would only use the firearm for a purpose or purposes specified in the agreement and would return the firearm to the owner within 10 days; or

Part 3—Possession of firearms and dealing in firearms and ammunition

Division 2—Acquisition of firearms

- (d) the acquisition was in circumstances prescribed for the purposes of this subsection by regulation.
- (4) The defence under subsection (3)(c) is not available in the case of a class H firearm—
 - (a) if—
 - (i) the person who acquired the firearm was the holder of a shooting club member's licence; and
 - (ii) the firearm—
 - (A) is a self-loading handgun (other than a revolver) with a barrel length, as measured in accordance with the regulations, of less than 120mm; or
 - (B) is a revolver or single shot handgun in either case with a barrel length, as measured in accordance with the regulations, of less than 100mm; or
 - (C) has a magazine or cylinder capacity of more than 10 rounds or a modified magazine or cylinder capacity; or
 - (D) is of more than .38 calibre; or
 - (b) if the person who acquired the firearm was the holder of a shooting club member's licence and had held the licence for less than six months; or
 - (c) if—
 - (i) the person who acquired the firearm was the holder of a shooting club member's licence and had held the licence for six months or more but less than 12 months; and
 - (ii) acquisition of the firearm resulted in the person having possession of a class H firearm or class H firearms other than—
 - (A) one .177 calibre air pistol or one .22 calibre rim fire handgun (long rifle or short) or one centre fire handgun; or
 - (B) one .177 calibre air pistol and one .22 calibre rim fire handgun (long rifle or short); or
 - (C) one .177 calibre air pistol and one centre fire handgun.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a person takes part in the acquisition of a firearm if—
 - (a) the person takes, or participates in, any step, or causes any step to be taken, in the process of acquisition of the firearm; or
 - (b) the person provides or arranges finance for any step in that process; or
 - (c) the person provides the premises in which any step in that process is taken, or suffers or permits any step in that process to be taken in premises of which the person is an owner, lessee or occupier or of which the person has care, control or management.
- (6) Subject to subsection (7), the maximum penalty for an offence against this section is as follows:
 - (a) where the firearm is a prescribed firearm—$75 000 or imprisonment for 15 years;

- (b) where the firearm is a class C, D or H firearm—$50 000 or imprisonment for 10 years;
 - (c) where the firearm is any other kind of firearm—$35 000 or imprisonment for seven years.
- (7) A person may, at the discretion of the prosecutor, be prosecuted for a summary offence against this section except where the firearm is a prescribed firearm, but on conviction of a summary offence against this section the maximum penalty is $10 000 or imprisonment for two years.

14A—Supply of firearms

- (1) Subject to this section, a person who—
- (a) supplies a firearm; or
 - (b) knowingly takes part in the supply of a firearm,
- to a person who is not authorised to acquire the firearm by a permit under this Part (or under corresponding legislation in another State or Territory of the Commonwealth) is guilty of an offence.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the supply of a firearm to a person who acquires the firearm in the ordinary course of carrying on business as a licensed dealer pursuant to the licence.
- (3) It is a defence to prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) to prove that—
- (a) the supply was in circumstances (prescribed by or under section 11) in which the person who acquired the firearm was not required to hold a licence authorising possession of the firearm; or
 - (b) the owner of the firearm carried on a business and the firearm was temporarily supplied for the purposes of the business by the owner to a person who was—
 - (i) the holder of a licence authorising the possession and use of the firearm; and
 - (ii) an employee, or in the case of a primary production business, a relative, of the owner; or
 - (c) in the case of a class A or B firearm, or subject to subsection (4), a class H firearm, the supply was pursuant to a written agreement between the owner of the firearm and the person who acquired the firearm that the person would only use the firearm for a purpose or purposes specified in the agreement and would return the firearm to the owner within 10 days; or
 - (d) the supply was in circumstances prescribed for the purposes of this subsection by regulation.
- (4) The defence under subsection (3)(c) is not available in the case of a class H firearm—
- (a) if—
 - (i) the person who acquired the firearm was the holder of a shooting club member's licence; and
 - (ii) the firearm—

Firearms Act 1977—1.10.2003 to 31.5.2007

Part 3—Possession of firearms and dealing in firearms and ammunition

Division 2—Acquisition of firearms

- (A) is a self-loading handgun (other than a revolver) with a barrel length, as measured in accordance with the regulations, of less than 120mm; or
 - (B) is a revolver or single shot handgun in either case with a barrel length, as measured in accordance with the regulations, of less than 100mm; or
 - (C) has a magazine or cylinder capacity of more than 10 rounds or a modified magazine or cylinder capacity; or
 - (D) is of more than .38 calibre; or
 - (b) if the person who acquired the firearm was the holder of a shooting club member's licence and had held the licence for less than six months; or
 - (c) if—
 - (i) the person who acquired the firearm was the holder of a shooting club member's licence and had held the licence for six months or more but less than 12 months; and
 - (ii) acquisition of the firearm resulted in the person having possession of a class H firearm or class H firearms other than—
 - (A) one .177 calibre air pistol or one .22 calibre rim fire handgun (long rifle or short) or one centre fire handgun; or
 - (B) one .177 calibre air pistol and one .22 calibre rim fire handgun (long rifle or short); or
 - (C) one .177 calibre air pistol and one centre fire handgun.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a person takes part in the supply of a firearm if—
 - (a) the person takes, or participates in, any step, or causes any step to be taken, in the process of supply of the firearm; or
 - (b) the person provides or arranges finance for any step in that process; or
 - (c) the person provides the premises in which any step in that process is taken, or suffers or permits any step in that process to be taken in premises of which the person is an owner, lessee or occupier or of which the person has care, control or management.
- (6) Subject to subsection (7), the maximum penalty for an offence against this section is as follows:
 - (a) where the firearm is a prescribed firearm—$75 000 or imprisonment for 15 years;
 - (b) where the firearm is a class C, D or H firearm—$50 000 or imprisonment for 10 years;
 - (c) where the firearm is any other kind of firearm—$35 000 or imprisonment for seven years.
- (7) A person may, at the discretion of the prosecutor, be prosecuted for a summary offence against this section except where the firearm is a prescribed firearm, but on conviction of a summary offence against this section the maximum penalty is $10 000 or imprisonment for two years.

15—Application for permit

- (1) An application for a permit authorising the acquisition of a firearm—
 - (a) must be made to the Registrar in the prescribed manner and form; and
 - (b) must contain the prescribed information.
- (2) The Registrar may require an applicant—
 - (a) to furnish such further information as may be necessary to enable the Registrar to determine the application; or
 - (b) to verify by statutory declaration information furnished in relation to the application.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) a permit authorising the acquisition of a firearm can only be granted—
 - (a) after the expiration of 28 days after the application for the permit was made; and
 - (b) if the applicant holds a firearms licence that authorises possession of the firearm.
- (4) The Registrar may grant a permit before the expiration of 28 days after the application for the permit was made if the Registrar is satisfied that it is safe to do so and that there are special reasons for doing so.
- (5) A licence, to the extent that it authorises possession of a firearm for the purposes of employment by a person carrying on the business of guarding property is not sufficient for the purposes of subsection (3)(b) to justify the granting of a permit to acquire a firearm.
- (8) The period for which a permit remains in force must be set out in the permit.

15A—Reasons for refusal of permit

- (1) Subject to this section the Registrar may refuse an application for a permit to acquire a firearm of any class if he or she is satisfied that—
 - (a) the firearm is particularly dangerous by reason of its design, construction or any other factor; or
 - (b) the firearm can easily be converted to an automatic firearm; or
 - (c) the firearm is, by reason of its size or any other factor, more readily concealed than other firearms of the same class and is for that, or any other reason, particularly suited to unlawful use; or
 - (d) the applicant has in the past acquired a firearm that he or she has failed to produce to the Registrar for registration in accordance with this Act or has been guilty of any other offence against this Act.
- (2) Subject to this Act, where the application is for a permit to acquire a class B firearm and the application is properly made the Registrar may only refuse the application if—
 - (a) the Registrar is of the opinion that the applicant does not have a genuine reason for acquiring the firearm; or
 - (b) the Registrar is entitled to refuse the application under subsection (1).

- (3) The Registrar must refuse an application for a permit to acquire a class C firearm unless—
- (a) the following requirements are satisfied:
 - (i) the applicant—
 - (A) must carry on the business of primary production; or
 - (B) must be an employee of a person who carries on the business of primary production and must live on or near the land on which that business is carried on and must be employed in the carrying on of that business; or
 - (C) must be a relative of a person who carries on that business and must live on or near the land on which that business is carried on and must be employed in the carrying on of that business; and
 - (ii) the Registrar must be satisfied that the applicant needs the firearm for the purposes of that business and that there is no satisfactory alternative to using a firearm of that class; and
 - (iii) if the application is for a self-loading rifle—the applicant does not have possession of any other self-loading rifle; and
 - (iv) if the application is for a self-loading shotgun—the applicant does not have possession of any other self-loading shotgun or a pump action shotgun; and
 - (v) if the application is for a pump action shotgun—the applicant does not have possession of any other pump action shotgun or a self-loading shotgun; or
 - (b) the following requirements are satisfied:
 - (i) the applicant is a member of The South Australian Clay Target Association Incorporated or the Australian Clay Target Association Incorporated and is also a member of a recognised firearms club affiliated with either of those associations; and
 - (ii) the Registrar is satisfied that the applicant needs the firearm for the purpose of an activity of the club conducted in accordance with the rules of the Australian Clay Target Association Incorporated and in accordance with regulations under this Act; or
 - (c) the Registrar could, in accordance with subsection (4), grant a permit to the applicant to acquire a class D firearm; or
 - (d) requirements prescribed by regulation for the purposes of this paragraph are satisfied.
- (4) The Registrar must refuse an application for a permit to acquire a class D firearm unless—
- (a) he or she is satisfied that—
 - (i) the applicant gains his or her livelihood wholly or partly from professional shooting; and

- (ii) the applicant needs the firearm to destroy animals in the course of professional shooting; or
 - (b) requirements prescribed by regulation for the purposes of this paragraph are satisfied.
- (4a) Subject to this Act, where the application is for a permit to acquire a class H firearm and the application is properly made the Registrar may only refuse the application if—
 - (a) the Registrar is of the opinion that the firearm is not genuinely required by the applicant for a purpose for which the applicant is authorised by a firearms licence to possess or use such a firearm; or
 - (b) the Registrar is entitled to refuse the application under subsection (1), (4b) or (4c).
- (4b) Subject to the regulations, the Registrar may refuse an application for a permit to acquire a class H firearm for use as a member of a shooting club—
 - (a) if the firearm—
 - (i) is a self-loading handgun (other than a revolver) with a barrel length, as measured in accordance with the regulations, of less than 120mm; or
 - (ii) is a revolver or single shot handgun in either case with a barrel length, as measured in accordance with the regulations, of less than 100mm; or
 - (iii) has a magazine or cylinder capacity of more than 10 rounds or a modified magazine or cylinder capacity; or
 - (iv) is of more than .38 calibre; or
 - (b) if the applicant is the holder of a shooting club member's licence and has held the licence for less than six months; or
 - (c) if—
 - (i) the applicant is the holder of a shooting club member's licence and has held the licence for six months or more but less than 12 months; and
 - (ii) acquisition of the firearm to which the application relates would result in the applicant having possession of a class H firearm or class H firearms other than—
 - (A) one .177 calibre air pistol or one .22 calibre rim fire handgun (long rifle or short) or one centre fire handgun; or
 - (B) one .177 calibre air pistol and one .22 calibre rim fire handgun (long rifle or short); or
 - (C) one .177 calibre air pistol and one centre fire handgun.
- (4c) The Registrar may refuse an application for a permit to acquire a class H firearm for the purpose of collection and display if—
 - (a) the firearm was manufactured after 1946; and

- (b) the Registrar is not satisfied that the applicant meets the requirements of the regulations as to the kind of collector who may be granted a permit to acquire class H firearms manufactured after that year.
- (4d) In determining whether an applicant meets the requirements of the regulations referred to in subsection (4c), the Registrar must have regard to any certificate lodged by the applicant that has been prepared and signed by an office holder of the collectors' club of which the applicant is a member (being an office holder nominated by the club for the purpose) stating that the applicant meets those requirements and setting out details in support of that statement.
- (4e) Subsections (4b) and (4c) do not apply in relation to muzzle-loading handguns or percussion cap and ball handguns.
- (5) Where the Registrar decides that the application should be refused the applicant may, within one month after receiving notice in writing of the Registrar's decision, require the Registrar to refer the application to the consultative committee.
- (6) If the committee does not agree with the Registrar's decision the committee may direct the Registrar to grant the application.

Division 2A—Transfer of possession of firearms

15B—Transfer of possession

- (1) The owner of a firearm may only transfer possession of the firearm to another person—
 - (a) if he or she is selling, giving, lending or hiring the firearm to the other person and transfers possession in accordance with subsection (9); or
 - (b) if the firearm is a class A, B or H firearm and is lent pursuant to a written or oral agreement between the owner and borrower that the borrower will only use the firearm for a purpose or purposes specified in the agreement and will return the firearm to the owner within 10 days; or
 - (c) if the other person is a licensed dealer in firearms and possession is transferred—
 - (i) to enable the dealer to repair, modify or test the firearm or to display the firearm on behalf of the owner for the purpose of sale; or
 - (ii) to the dealer to hold the firearm during a period during which the owner is not entitled to be in possession of the firearm; or
 - (d) if the owner of the firearm carries on the business of primary production and possession of the firearm is transferred temporarily to an employee or relative of the owner for the purposes of that business; or
 - (e) if the owner of the firearm carries on the business of guarding property and possession of the firearm is transferred temporarily to an employee of the owner for the purposes of that business; or
 - (f) in circumstances (prescribed by or under section 11) in which the person acquiring possession is not required to hold a licence authorising the possession and use of the firearm; or
 - (g) in circumstances authorised by regulation.

- (2) Subsections (1)(a) and (9) do not apply in relation to the sale of a firearm if the person selling or purchasing the firearm is a licensed dealer in firearms acting in the normal course of carrying on the business of dealing in firearms pursuant to his or her licence.
- (3) Subsections (1)(a) and (9) do not apply in relation to the hiring of a firearm that is owned and is hired to another person by a licensed dealer in firearms acting in the normal course of carrying on the business of dealing in firearms pursuant to his or her licence.
- (4) When—
- (a) selling, lending or hiring a firearm to another person on his or her own behalf; or
 - (b) selling, giving, lending or hiring a firearm as agent for the owner of the firearm,
- a licensed dealer in firearms may, subject to subsection (5), only transfer possession of the firearm to the person purchasing, borrowing or hiring the firearm or receiving it as a gift (or, where that person is a company, to a nominee of the company) and must not—
- (c) transfer possession of the firearm to another person on that person's behalf; or
 - (d) consign the firearm to Australia Post or any other carrier for delivery to that person.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply in relation to the sale, lending or hiring of a firearm by a licensed dealer in firearms to another licensed dealer pursuant to his or her licence.
- (5a) A person must not transfer possession of a class H firearm to another person under subsection (1)(b)—
- (a) if—
 - (i) the other person is the holder of a shooting club member's licence; and
 - (ii) the firearm—
 - (A) is a self-loading handgun (other than a revolver) with a barrel length, as measured in accordance with the regulations, of less than 120mm; or
 - (B) is a revolver or single shot handgun in either case with a barrel length, as measured in accordance with the regulations, of less than 100mm; or
 - (C) has a magazine or cylinder capacity of more than 10 rounds or a modified magazine or cylinder capacity; or
 - (D) is of more than .38 calibre; or
 - (b) if the other person is the holder of a shooting club member's licence and has held the licence for less than six months; or
 - (c) if—
 - (i) the other person is the holder of a shooting club member's licence and has held the licence for six months or more but less than 12 months; and

- (ii) transfer of the firearm would result in the other person having possession of a class H firearm or class H firearms other than—
 - (A) one .177 calibre air pistol or one .22 calibre rim fire handgun (long rifle or short) or one centre fire handgun; or
 - (B) one .177 calibre air pistol and one .22 calibre rim fire handgun (long rifle or short); or
 - (C) one .177 calibre air pistol and one centre fire handgun.
- (6) A person must not transfer possession of a firearm under subsection (1)(b) unless—
 - (a) immediately before transferring possession he or she has inspected the firearms licence held by the person who is to borrow the firearm and is satisfied that the borrower is authorised to possess the firearm and use it for the agreed purpose or purposes; and
 - (b) he or she believes on reasonable grounds that the borrower will not use the firearm for any other purpose.
- (7) A person must not transfer possession of a firearm under subsection (1)(d) or (e) or under circumstances prescribed by regulation unless he or she is satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the person to whom possession is transferred is authorised by a firearms licence to possess and use the firearm for the purpose or purposes for which the firearm is transferred.
- (8) A person who borrows a firearm under subsection (1)(b) must return it to the owner within 10 days.
- (9) When selling, giving, lending or hiring a firearm to another person, the owner, or former owner, of the firearm may only transfer possession of the firearm to the other person—
 - (a) if—
 - (i) the owner, or former owner, and the person acquiring possession are together in the presence of a licensed dealer in firearms or a responsible officer of a recognised firearms club who has been authorised by the Registrar to witness the transfer for the purposes of this subsection (an authorised officer) or a member of the police force and the transfer is witnessed by the dealer, authorised officer or member of the police force; and
 - (ii) the owner, or former owner, and the person acquiring possession, provide the dealer, authorised officer or the member of the police force with the information, and produce the licences and permit necessary to enable the dealer, authorised officer or the member of the police force to comply with his or her obligations under this Division; or
 - (b) through the agency of a licensed dealer.
- (10) Where the owner or the person acquiring the firearm is a company, the requirements of subsection (9) are satisfied if a nominee of the company attends before a licensed dealer in firearms or a member of the police force on behalf of the company.
- (11) A person must not accept the transfer of possession of a firearm unless possession is transferred to him or her in accordance with this section.

- (12) A person to whom possession of a firearm is transferred under subsection (1) who is not the owner of the firearm must not (unless authorised by or under this Act) transfer possession of the firearm to any other person except the owner of the firearm.
- (13) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with a provision of this section is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty:

Where the offence is committed in relation to a prescribed firearm or a class C, D or H firearm—$10 000 or imprisonment for two years.

Where the offence is committed in relation to any other kind of firearm—$5 000 or imprisonment for one year.

15C—Obligations of dealer, authorised officer or police officer

- (1) A dealer, authorised officer or member of the police force who witnesses the transfer of possession of a firearm for the purposes of this Division must—
- (a) satisfy himself or herself by inspecting the relevant permit and licence that the person acquiring the firearm is entitled to acquire and possess it; and
 - (b) record—
 - (i) the name and address of the person transferring and the person acquiring the firearm and the number of each of their firearms licences; and
 - (ii) the class, make, calibre and serial number or other identification of the firearm; and
 - (iii) where the firearm is lent or hired—the duration and the terms of the loan or hire; and
 - (iv) such other information as is prescribed by regulation; and
 - (c) provide the Registrar with the information recorded under paragraph (b) within one month after possession of the firearm is transferred.
- (2) If a dealer, authorised officer or member of the police force is unable to comply with subsection (1) because a person refuses or fails to produce a licence or permit for inspection or to provide information required by subsection (1)(b), the dealer, authorised officer or police officer must prepare and submit a report to the Registrar setting out such information as the Registrar requires in relation to the matter.
- (3) A dealer, authorised officer or member of the police force may refuse to witness the transfer of possession of a firearm as required by this Division if he or she is not first paid the fee prescribed by regulation.
- (4) A dealer or authorised officer who contravenes or fails to comply with a requirement of this section is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

15D—What constitutes possession of a firearm

- (1) For the purposes of this Division, the owner, or a person to whom the owner has transferred possession, of a firearm has possession of the firearm (and therefore has not transferred possession for the purposes of this Division) while it is in his or her physical possession or is under his or her control.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), a firearm will be taken to be in the physical possession or under the control of the owner or a person to whom the owner has transferred possession—
 - (a) while he or she is handling the firearm or the firearm is under his or her control; or
 - (b) while the firearm is—
 - (i) on premises at which the owner or other person usually resides or premises at which the owner or other person is for the time being residing; or
 - (ii) in a vehicle, vessel or aircraft in which the owner or other person is for the time being travelling or residing; or
 - (c) where the firearm is used by the owner or other person in the course of carrying on a business—while the firearm is on premises at which that business is carried on; or
 - (d) while the firearm is in the physical possession or under the control of an employee of the owner of the firearm or other person in the course of that employment; or
 - (e) while the firearm is in the possession of a person on behalf of the owner or other person in the normal course of the firstmentioned person carrying on the business of carrying or storing goods; or
 - (f) in any other circumstances prescribed by regulation.

Division 3—Dealing in firearms and ammunition

16—Requirement for dealer's licence

A person who carries on the business of dealing in firearms or ammunition or both in this State without holding a dealer's licence granted under this Act authorising the carrying on of that business is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $10 000 or imprisonment for two years.

17—Application for dealer's licence

- (1) An application for a dealer's licence—
 - (a) must be made to the Registrar in the prescribed manner and form; and
 - (b) must contain the prescribed information; and
 - (c) must be accompanied by any certificates, declarations, references, reports or other documents required by the regulations or by the Registrar; and
 - (d) must be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

- (2) The Registrar may require an applicant—
 - (a) to furnish such further information as may be necessary to enable the Registrar to determine the application; or
 - (b) to verify by statutory declaration information furnished in relation to the application.
- (3) Subject to this section, where an application for a dealer's licence is properly made, the Registrar may only refuse the application if—
 - (a) the Registrar is not satisfied that—
 - (i) the applicant is a fit and proper person to hold such a licence; or
 - (ii) the premises at which the applicant intends carrying on the business of dealing in firearms or ammunition is appropriate for that purpose, and the consultative committee agrees with the Registrar's decision; or
 - (b) the applicant is not usually resident in this State.
- (3a) A dealer's licence does not authorise dealing in class C or D firearms unless it is endorsed to that effect.
- (4) A dealer's licence is subject to—
 - (a) a condition that the licensee must not deal in prescribed firearms; and
 - (b) any conditions prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (c) any conditions imposed by the Registrar with the approval of the consultative committee; and
 - (d) any conditions imposed by the Registrar with the agreement of the holder of the licence.
- (4a) The Registrar may impose licence conditions pursuant to subsection (4) on the grant or renewal of the licence or at any time during the term of the licence.
- (4b) A licence condition imposed pursuant to subsection (4)(c) during the term of the licence does not operate until the Registrar has given the holder of the licence (either personally or by post) notice in writing of the condition.
- (4c) The Registrar may, on his or her own initiative or on the application of the holder of a dealer's licence, vary or revoke a licence condition.
- (4d) A variation or revocation of a licence condition under subsection (4c) does not operate until the Registrar has given the holder of the licence (either personally or by post) notice in writing of the variation or revocation.
- (4e) The Registrar cannot vary a licence condition on his or her initiative under subsection (4c) without the approval of the consultative committee.
- (5) A dealer's licence that authorises dealing in ammunition but not firearms must be endorsed to that effect.
- (6) A dealer's licence cannot be granted to a person under the age of 18.

18—Records

A dealer who—

- (a) fails to keep prescribed records in relation to the firearms or ammunition in which the dealer deals; or
- (b) fails to submit prescribed returns to the Registrar in accordance with the regulations,

is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

Division 4—Licences

19—Term and renewal of licence

- (1) Subject to this Act a firearms licence remains in force—
 - (a) in the case of a licence that authorises the possession or use of prescribed firearms or class D or H firearms—for a term not exceeding one year;
 - (b) in the case of a licence that only authorises the possession or use of Class A, B or C firearms—for a term not exceeding five years.
- (1a) Subject to this Act a dealer's licence remains in force for a term not exceeding five years.
- (2) A licence may be renewed from time to time.
- (3) An application for renewal of a licence—
 - (a) must be made to the Registrar in the prescribed manner and form; and
 - (b) must contain the prescribed information; and
 - (c) must be accompanied by any certificates, declarations, references, reports or other documents required by the regulations or by the Registrar; and
 - (d) must be accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- (4) The Registrar may require an applicant for renewal of a licence—
 - (a) to furnish such further information as may be necessary to enable the Registrar to determine the application; or
 - (b) to verify by statutory declaration information furnished in relation to the application.
- (5) The provisions of this Part that apply in relation to the determination of an application for a new licence apply in relation to the determination of an application for renewal of the licence.

19A—Licences to include photographs

- (1) All licences granted, renewed varied or replaced under this Act must include a photograph of the holder of the licence.

- (2) The Registrar may require the applicant for the grant or renewal of a licence or the holder of a licence that is to be varied or replaced—
 - (a) to attend at a specified place for the purpose of having his or her photograph taken; or
 - (b) to supply the Registrar with one or more photographs of the applicant or holder of the licence specified by the Registrar.
- (3) Where an application is made for the grant, renewal, variation or replacement of a licence and—
 - (a) the applicant refuses or fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (2); or
 - (b) a photograph taken or supplied under subsection (2) is not suitable, in the Registrar's opinion, for inclusion in a licence,the Registrar may suspend his or her consideration of the application until the applicant complies with the requirement or a suitable photograph is taken or supplied.
- (4) Where the Registrar varies a licence on his or her own initiative and the holder of the licence refuses or fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (2)(a), the Registrar may suspend or cancel the licence.
- (5) Where the Registrar is prepared to grant, renew vary or replace a licence but the new licence cannot be issued immediately, the Registrar may issue an interim licence that does not include a photograph of the applicant or holder of the licence.
- (6) An interim licence does not come into force until the prescribed application fee has been paid and a receipt for the fee is printed on the licence and the licence remains in force for 28 days or until a licence that includes a photograph is issued to the applicant whichever first occurs.

20—Cancellation, variation and suspension of licence

- (1) If the Registrar is satisfied that the holder of a licence—
 - (a) has contravened or failed to comply with a provision of this Act or a condition of the licence; or
 - (b) is, for any reason, not a fit and proper person to hold the licence,the Registrar may, with the concurrence of the consultative committee, by notice in writing served personally or by post on the holder of the licence, cancel the licence.
- (1a) Where the Registrar is satisfied that—
 - (a) it would be contrary to the public interest to permit the holder of a firearms licence to continue to possess and use firearms; or
 - (b) the holder of a firearms licence can no longer use any firearm for one or more of the purposes endorsed on his or her licence; or
 - (c) a class of firearms to which the licence applies can no longer be used by the holder of the licence in accordance with the conditions of the licence,the Registrar may with the agreement of the consultative committee and after giving the holder of the licence at least 14 days written notice—
 - (d) where paragraph (a) applies—cancel the licence; or

Firearms Act 1977—1.10.2003 to 31.5.2007

Part 3—Possession of firearms and dealing in firearms and ammunition

Division 4—Licences

- (e) where paragraph (b) applies—vary the licence by removing the relevant purpose or purposes from the licence; or
 - (f) where paragraph (c) applies—vary the licence so that it no longer authorises the possession and use of that class of firearms.
 - (1b) The cancellation or variation of a licence under subsection (1a) will be effected by written notice served—
 - (a) in the case of cancellation—personally on the holder of the licence;
 - (b) in the case of variation—personally or by certified mail on the holder of the licence.
 - (2) The Registrar may, by notice in writing served personally or by post on the holder of a licence, suspend the licence for a period not exceeding three months (or such longer period as is allowed in a particular case by the consultative committee) pending an investigation as to whether the licence should be cancelled under subsection (1).
 - (3) A notice served on the holder of a licence cancelling, varying or suspending the licence under this section must set out the Registrar's reasons for the cancellation, variation or suspension.
 - (3a) If the Registrar cancels a licence under this section and made the decision because of information that is classified by the Registrar as criminal intelligence, the Registrar is not required to give any reasons for the Registrar's decision other than that the decision was made on public interest grounds under this section.
 - (3b) The Registrar may, on the application of the holder of a licence, cancel the licence.
 - (4) The Registrar may, on his or her own initiative or on application by a person whose licence is suspended, revoke the suspension.
 - (5) Where a firearms licence held by a person—
 - (a) has been cancelled or suspended and—
 - (i) the person was a member of a recognised firearms club; or
 - (ii) the licence authorised the person to use a firearm in the course of his or her employment; or
 - (b) has been varied and, as a result, the person is no longer entitled to use a firearm—
 - (i) as a member of a recognised firearms club; or
 - (ii) in the course of his or her employment,
- the Registrar may, if he or she has complied with subsection (6), inform the club or the person's employer (or both) that the licence has been cancelled, suspended or varied.
- (6) The Registrar must serve notice on the holder or former holder of a licence that he or she intends to inform that person's club or employer (or both) of the cancellation, suspension or variation of the licence.
 - (7) The Registrar is not subject to any civil or criminal liability in respect of action taken by the Registrar under subsection (5).

20A—Reporting obligations of certain persons and clubs

- (1) Where a prescribed person has reasonable cause to believe that—
 - (a) a person whom he or she has seen in his or her professional capacity is suffering from a physical or mental illness, disability or deficiency that is likely to make the possession of a firearm by the person unsafe for the person or any other person; and
 - (b) that person holds or intends applying for a firearms licence or possesses or has the intention of possessing a firearm,

the prescribed person has a duty to inform the Registrar in writing of the person's name and address, the nature of the illness, disability or deficiency and the reason why, in the opinion of the prescribed person, it is or would be unsafe for the person to have possession of a firearm.

- (2) Where a recognised firearms club has reasonable cause to believe that a member of the club is suffering from a physical or mental illness, disability or deficiency that is likely to make the possession of a firearm by the member unsafe for the member or any other person, the club has a duty to inform the Registrar in writing of the member's name and address and the reason why, in the opinion of the club, it is unsafe for the member to have possession of a firearm.
- (3) A prescribed person and a club must comply with this section as soon as practicable after first forming the relevant belief.
- (4) Compliance by a prescribed person or a club, or by a person on behalf of a prescribed person or a club, with this section does not attract civil or criminal liability.
- (5) In this section—

prescribed person means a medical practitioner or a person of any other class prescribed by regulation for the purposes of this definition.

21—Breach of conditions etc

The holder of a licence who contravenes, or fails to comply with, a condition of the licence is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty:

Where the condition relates to a prescribed firearm or a class C, D or H firearm—$10 000 or imprisonment for two years.

In any other case—$5 000 or imprisonment for one year.

21A—Notice of change of address

The holder of a licence who fails to give the Registrar notice in writing of a change of his or her address within 14 days of the change is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

21AB—Return of licence to Registrar

- (1) The former holder of a licence that has been suspended or cancelled who does not forthwith return the licence to the Registrar is guilty of an offence.

- (2) The holder of a licence who does not return the licence to the Registrar in accordance with the directions of the Registrar in order for endorsements on the licence to be made or altered is guilty of an offence.
- (3) The maximum penalty for an offence against this section is $5 000.

Division 5—Acquisition of ammunition

21B—Acquisition of ammunition

- (1) A person must not purchase ammunition or accept ammunition as a gift unless he or she is the holder of—
 - (a) a firearms licence (not being a collector's licence) that authorises possession of a firearm designed to fire that ammunition; or
 - (b) a permit granted by the Registrar entitling the holder to acquire ammunition of that kind.
- (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.
- (2a) In proceedings for an offence against subsection (2) the onus is on the defendant to establish that he or she held the licence or permit required by subsection (1) when the ammunition was acquired.
- (3) The Registrar must not grant a permit to acquire ammunition unless satisfied that the applicant—
 - (a) is a fit and proper person to have possession of ammunition of the kind that may be acquired under the permit; and
 - (b) has a genuine reason for making the application.
- (4) When granting a permit the Registrar must not restrict the kind of ammunition that can be acquired unless it is, in the Registrar's opinion, necessary to do so in order to comply with subsection (3).
- (5) A person who sells or supplies ammunition to another person knowing, or having reason to believe, that that other person—
 - (a) is not the holder of a firearms licence (other than a collector's licence) that authorises possession of a firearm designed to fire that ammunition; and
 - (b) is not the holder of a permit granted by the Registrar authorising the acquisition of that ammunition,is guilty of an offence.
- (6) This section does not apply in relation to the acquisition of ammunition—
 - (a) by a licensed dealer in ammunition in the ordinary course of business as a dealer in ammunition; or
 - (b) by a recognised firearms club for distribution to members of, or visitors to, the club; or
 - (c) by a member of a recognised firearms club from the club; or
 - (d) from a recognised firearms club by a visitor to the club for use on the grounds of the club in a manner authorised by the club; or

- (da) by a recognised paint-ball operator for distribution to participants in an organised activity involving the use of paint-ball firearms (but no other firearms) on grounds of a recognised paint-ball operator; or
 - (e) by a person for use by that person in a firearm in circumstances in which that person is not required by this Act to hold a firearms licence.
- (7) In proceedings for an offence against this section the onus is on the defendant to prove that he or she was entitled to purchase, accept, sell or supply the ammunition by virtue of subsection (6).
- (8) The maximum penalty for an offence against this section is $10 000 or imprisonment for two years.

21BA—Cancellation or suspension of permit

- (1) If the Registrar is satisfied that the holder of a permit under this Division—
- (a) has contravened or failed to comply with a provision of this Act or a condition of the permit; or
 - (b) is, for any reason, not a fit and proper person to hold the permit,
- the Registrar may, with the agreement of the consultative committee, by notice in writing served personally or by certified mail on the holder of the permit, cancel the permit.
- (2) The Registrar may, by notice in writing served personally or by certified mail on the holder of a permit, suspend the permit for a period not exceeding three months (or such longer period as is allowed in a particular case by the consultative committee) pending an investigation as to whether the permit should be cancelled under subsection (1).
- (3) A notice served on the holder of a permit suspending or cancelling the permit under this section must set out the Registrar's reasons for the suspension or cancellation.
- (4) The Registrar may, on his or her own initiative or on application by a person whose permit is suspended, revoke the suspension.

21BB—Limit on quantity of ammunition

- (1) The Governor may, by regulation, limit the quantity of ammunition of any kind that a person, or a person of a particular class, may acquire during a specified period or may own or have in his or her possession at any one time.
- (2) A person who acquires or owns or has possession of ammunition in contravention of a regulation under subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.
- Maximum penalty: $5 000.

Division 6—General

21D—Appeals

- (1) A person aggrieved by a decision of the Registrar—
- (a) to refuse an application for a licence, or renewal of a licence or an application for a permit authorising the acquisition of a firearm; or
 - (b) to impose or vary licence conditions (other than prescribed conditions); or

- (ba) to vary a firearms licence by restricting the classes of firearms to which the licence relates or to vary or revoke a purpose endorsed on the licence; or
 - (c) to suspend or cancel a licence or permit; or
 - (ca) to refuse to revoke a suspension of a licence or permit; or
 - (d) to refuse an application for a permit to acquire ammunition; or
 - (da) to refuse an application for registration of a firearm; or
 - (db) to cancel the registration of a firearm; or
 - (e) to refuse to approve grounds of a recognised firearms club or recognised paint-ball operator or to revoke such an approval; or
 - (f) to impose conditions on an approval of grounds of a recognised firearms club or recognised paint-ball operator or to vary such conditions; or
 - (g) to refuse to approve the range of a recognised commercial range operator or to revoke such an approval; or
 - (h) to impose conditions on an approval of the range of a recognised commercial range operator or to vary such conditions,
- may appeal against that decision to a magistrate sitting in chambers.
- (2) The appeal must be instituted within one month after the appellant received notice of the decision, but the magistrate may, if satisfied that it is just and reasonable in the circumstances to do so, dispense with the requirement that the appeal should be instituted within that time.
 - (3) The magistrate may, on the hearing of the appeal, exercise one or more of the following powers:
 - (a) affirm or vary the decision appealed against, or substitute any decision that should have been made in the first instance;
 - (b) remit the subject matter of the appeal to the Registrar for further consideration;
 - (c) make any order for costs.

21E—Procedure where decision based on criminal intelligence

- (1) This section applies to a decision of the Registrar to refuse an application for a licence, or to cancel a licence, on public interest grounds because of information that is classified by the Registrar as criminal intelligence.
- (2) On an appeal against the decision under this Part, the magistrate must, on the application of the Registrar, take steps to maintain the confidentiality of the information classified as criminal intelligence, including steps to receive evidence and hear argument about the information in private in the absence of the appellant and the appellant's representative.

Part 4—Registration of firearms

22—Application of this Part

This Part does not apply to—

- (a) any firearm in the possession of a person in the ordinary course of business as a licensed dealer in firearms pursuant to his or her licence; or
- (b) any firearm in the possession of a person in the ordinary course of the business of carrying or storing goods; or
- (c) a person in relation to a firearm that that person has possession of in his or her capacity as—
 - (i) the executor or administrator of a deceased estate; or
 - (ii) the administrator or manager of the estate of a person who is unable to manage his or her affairs; or
 - (iii) the donee of an enduring power of attorney during a period of legal incapacity suffered by the donor of the power; or
 - (iv) the Official Trustee or the registered trustee of a bankrupt estate; or
- (ca) any prescribed firearm in the possession of the holder of a firearms licence that authorises possession of the prescribed firearm; or
- (d) any firearm in the possession of a person in prescribed circumstances; or
- (e) a receiver in the possession of a person in whose name a firearm of which the receiver forms part is registered (whether the firearm is assembled or disassembled).

23—Duty to register firearms

- (1) A person who has possession of any unregistered firearm is guilty of an offence.
- (2) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under subsection (1) if the defendant proves that the firearm came into his or her possession not more than fourteen days before the alleged date of the offence and that it was not reasonably practicable in the circumstances for the firearm to be registered by the time of the alleged offence.
- (3) The owner of a firearm that is not registered in the name of the owner is guilty of an offence.
- (4) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under subsection (3) if the defendant proves that ownership of the firearm passed to him or her not more than 14 days before the alleged date of the offence and that it was not reasonably practicable in the circumstances for the firearm to be registered in his or her name by the time of the alleged offence.
- (5) The maximum penalty for an offence against this section is as follows:
 - (a) where the firearm is a prescribed firearm or a class C, D or H firearm—$10 000 or imprisonment for two years;
 - (b) where the firearm is any other kind of firearm—$5 000 or imprisonment for one year.

24—Registration of firearms

- (1) An application for registration of a firearm—
 - (a) must be made to the Registrar in the prescribed manner and form; and
 - (b) must contain the prescribed information; and
 - (c) must be accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- (2) The Registrar may refuse an application for registration of a firearm if he or she is satisfied that—
 - (a) acquisition of the firearm by the applicant was not authorised by a permit in contravention of this Act; or
 - (b) the applicant improperly obtained a permit to acquire the firearm; or
 - (c) the applicant would not, having regard to the firearm sought to be registered and the current circumstances, be entitled to be granted a permit to acquire the firearm; or
 - (d) the firearm does not have identifying characters as required under section 24A or the identifying characters of the firearms have been defaced or altered without the authority of the Registrar.
- (3) If a person has ceased to be the owner of a firearm, registration of the firearm in that person's name is cancelled by registration of the firearm in the name of the subsequent owner.

24A—Identification of firearms

- (1) Subject to this section, all firearms that are required to be registered under this Act must have stamped or engraved into part of the metal structure of the firearm a number, or a number preceded or followed by a letter or letters, for the purposes of identification.
- (2) The identification must be on the outside surface of the firearm where it can be easily seen and must, if possible, be on the receiver of the firearm.
- (3) At least four characters must comprise the number or the combination of numbers and letters.
- (4) The characters must be at least two millimetres in height and must be stamped to form an indentation to a depth, or be engraved to a depth, of at least 0.5 millimetres.
- (5) Where a firearm that is produced for registration does not comply with this section, the Registrar must allocate a number, or numbers and letters, to the firearm and the owner of the firearm must produce the firearm to a member of the police force within 14 days with the identification stamped or engraved on the firearm in accordance with this section.

Maximum penalty:

Where the firearm is a prescribed firearm or a class C, D or H firearm—$10 000 or imprisonment for two years.

Where the firearm is any other kind of firearm—$5 000 or imprisonment for one year.

- (6) This section does not apply to a firearm of historical, archaeological or cultural value if—
- (a) to stamp or engrave a number on the firearm would reduce its value; and
 - (b) the Registrar is satisfied that it can be identified in some other way.
- (7) A person who defaces or alters the identifying characters of a firearm is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty:

Where the firearm is a prescribed firearm or a class C, D or H firearm—$10 000 or imprisonment for two years.

Where the firearm is any other kind of firearm—$5 000 or imprisonment for 1 year.

24B—Cancellation of registration

- (1) The Registrar may, by notice in writing served personally or by certified mail on the owner of a registered firearm, cancel the registration of the firearm if the Registrar is satisfied that, having regard to the firearm and the current circumstances, the owner would not be entitled to obtain registration of the firearm.
- (2) A notice served on the owner of a registered firearm under this section must set out the Registrar's reasons for the cancellation.

25—Notice by registered owner of alteration, loss, theft or destruction of firearm

- (1) The owner of a registered firearm must, within fourteen days after—
- (b) any alteration is made to the firearm that affects the nature or performance of the firearm in a prescribed manner or to a prescribed extent; or
 - (c) the firearm is lost, stolen, or destroyed,
- give notice of that fact in the prescribed form to the Registrar.
- (1a) Without limiting subsection (1)(b) an alteration to a firearm will be taken to affect the nature and performance of the firearm if, as a result of the alteration, the firearm becomes a firearm of a different class.
- (2) A person who fails to comply with this section is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: $5 000.

26—Notice of change of address

The owner of a registered firearm who fails to give the Registrar notice in writing of a change of his or her address within 14 days of the change is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

Part 5—Miscellaneous

26A—Recognised firearms clubs

- (1) If the Minister is satisfied that a firearms club conducts its affairs and activities in a responsible manner, the Minister must, if the club applies for recognition, declare the club to be a recognised firearms club by notice in the Gazette.
- (2) If the Minister refuses an application for recognition the Minister must provide the applicant with a written statement setting out the reasons for the refusal.
- (3) If at any time the Minister is satisfied that a recognised firearms club has failed to comply with this Act or no longer conducts its affairs or activities in a responsible manner, the Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, revoke a declaration under subsection (1).
- (4) Before revoking a declaration the Minister must—
 - (a) give the club at least two months written notice of the proposed revocation setting out the Minister's reasons for the proposed revocation; and
 - (b) give the club a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral submissions to the Minister in relation to the proposed revocation.
- (5) The club must upon receiving notice of the proposed revocation inform its members in writing of the proposal.

26B—Recognised paint-ball operators

- (1) If the Minister is satisfied that a paint-ball operator conducts its affairs and activities in a responsible manner, the Minister must, on application by the operator for recognition, declare the operator to be a recognised paint-ball operator by notice in the Gazette.
- (2) If the Minister refuses an application for recognition, the Minister must provide the applicant with a written statement setting out the reasons for the refusal.
- (3) If at any time the Minister is satisfied that a recognised paint-ball operator has failed to comply with this Act or no longer conducts its affairs or activities in a responsible manner, the Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, revoke a declaration under subsection (1).
- (4) Before revoking a declaration, the Minister must—
 - (a) give the operator at least two months written notice of the proposed revocation setting out the Minister's reasons for the proposed revocation; and
 - (b) give the operator a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral submissions to the Minister in relation to the proposed revocation.

26BA—Recognised commercial range operators

- (1) If the Minister is satisfied that a commercial range operator conducts his or her affairs and activities in a responsible manner, the Minister must, on application by the operator for recognition, declare the operator to be a recognised commercial range operator by notice in the Gazette.

- (2) If the Minister refuses an application for recognition, the Minister must provide the applicant with a written statement setting out the reasons for the refusal.
- (3) If at any time the Minister is satisfied that a recognised commercial range operator has failed to comply with this Act or no longer conducts his or her affairs or activities in a responsible manner, the Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, revoke a declaration under subsection (1).
- (4) Before revoking a declaration, the Minister must—
 - (a) give the operator at least two months written notice of the proposed revocation setting out the Minister's reasons for the proposed revocation; and
 - (b) give the operator a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral submissions to the Minister in relation to the proposed revocation.

26C—Approval of grounds of recognised firearms clubs or paint-ball operator

- (1) If any activity involving the use of a firearm takes place on grounds of a recognised firearms club or recognised paint-ball operator and those grounds are not approved under this section in relation to that activity, recognition of the club or operator under this Part is by force of this section revoked.
- (2) If the Registrar is satisfied that the grounds of a recognised firearms club or recognised paint-ball operator are suitable for the purpose of the activities of the club or operator, the Registrar may, on the application of the club or operator, approve those grounds for use in connection with those activities.
- (3) An approval under this section is subject to—
 - (a) any conditions prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (b) any conditions imposed by the Registrar (which may include a condition limiting the periods during which the grounds may be used by the club or operator).
- (4) The Registrar may impose conditions pursuant to subsection (3) on the approval of the grounds or subsequently.
- (5) If the Registrar refuses an application for approval, the Registrar must provide the applicant with a written statement setting out the reasons for the refusal.
- (6) If at any time the Registrar is satisfied that grounds approved under this section would not be approved if application for approval were made at that time or that a condition of the approval has been contravened, the Registrar may, by notice to the club or operator, revoke the approval.
- (7) The Registrar may, on his or her own initiative or on application by a recognised firearms club or recognised paint-ball operator, vary or revoke conditions of an approval.
- (8) Before revoking an approval or varying conditions of an approval on his or her own initiative, the Registrar must—
 - (a) give the club or operator at least two months written notice of the proposed revocation or variation setting out the Registrar's reasons for the proposed revocation or variation; and

- (b) give the club or operator a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral submissions to the Registrar in relation to the proposed revocation or variation.
- (9) The Registrar, or a person authorised by the Registrar, may, for the purposes of determining an application for approval under this section, reviewing such an approval or determining whether conditions of approval are being or have been contravened, enter and inspect the grounds of a recognised firearms club or recognised paint-ball operator at any reasonable time.

26D—Approval of range of recognised commercial range operator

- (1) If any activity involving the use of a firearm takes place on the range of a recognised commercial range operator and the range is not approved under this section in relation to that activity, recognition of the operator under this Part is by force of this section revoked.
- (2) If the Registrar is satisfied that the range of a recognised commercial range operator is suitable for the purpose of the activities of the operator, the Registrar may, on the application of the operator, approve the range for use in connection with those activities.
- (3) An approval under this section is subject to—
 - (a) any conditions prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (b) any conditions imposed by the Registrar (which may include a condition limiting the periods during which the range may be used by the operator).
- (4) The Registrar may impose conditions pursuant to subsection (3) when he or she approves the range under this section or at any later time.
- (5) If the Registrar refuses an application for approval, the Registrar must provide the applicant with a written statement setting out the reasons for the refusal.
- (6) If at any time the Registrar is satisfied that a range approved under this section would not be approved if application for approval were made at that time or that a condition of the approval has been contravened, the Registrar may, by notice to the operator, revoke the approval.
- (7) The Registrar may, on his or her own initiative or on application by a recognised commercial range operator, vary or revoke conditions of an approval.
- (8) Before revoking an approval or varying conditions of an approval on his or her own initiative, the Registrar must—
 - (a) give the operator at least two months written notice of the proposed revocation or variation setting out the Registrar's reasons for the proposed revocation or variation; and
 - (b) give the operator a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral submissions to the Registrar in relation to the proposed revocation or variation.

- (9) The Registrar, or a person authorised by the Registrar, may, for the purposes of determining an application for approval under this section, reviewing such an approval or determining whether conditions of approval are being or have been contravened, enter and inspect the range of a recognised commercial range operator at any reasonable time.

27—Registers

- (1) The Registrar must maintain—
- (a) a register of licences issued under this Act; and
 - (b) a register of firearms registered under this Act.
- (2) Where the Registrar is satisfied that a person has a proper interest in the contents of a register maintained under this section, the Registrar may permit that person to inspect that register, or portion of that register.

28—False information

- (1) A person who provides information to the Registrar or any other person under this Act that is false or misleading in a material particular is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: $10 000 or imprisonment for two years.
- (2) It is a defence to a charge under subsection (1) to prove that the defendant believed upon reasonable grounds that the information was true.

29—Handling firearms when under the influence

- (1) A person who handles a firearm while so much under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a drug as to be incapable of exercising effective control of the firearm is guilty of an offence if—
- (a) a round is in the breech or chamber or the magazine of the firearm; or
 - (b) the person is handling or is carrying with him or her ammunition that can be used in the firearm.
- Maximum penalty: $10 000 or imprisonment for two years.
- (2) A person who transfers possession of a firearm to a person who is so much under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a drug as to be incapable of exercising effective control of the firearm is guilty of an offence if—
- (a) a round is in the breech or chamber or the magazine of the firearm; or
 - (b) the person to whom possession of the firearm has been transferred is handling or is carrying with him or her ammunition that can be used in the firearm.
- Maximum penalty: $10 000 or imprisonment for two years.

 - (b) a mechanism or other fitting that, when fitted to a suitable firearm, will enable the firearm to fire grenades or other explosive projectiles, is guilty of an offence unless he or she is authorised to have possession of the mechanism or other fitting by a firearms licence.

Maximum penalty: $10 000 or imprisonment for two years.

- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to a licensed dealer in firearms in the normal course of carrying on the business of dealing in firearms pursuant to his or her licence.

29C—Duty to carry licence

- (1) A person who is carrying a firearm on or about his or her person or who has a firearm in his or her immediate physical control must carry with him or her a firearms licence authorising his or her possession of the firearm.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a licensed dealer in firearms in the normal course of carrying on the business of dealing in firearms pursuant to his or her licence.

30—Information to be given to police officer

- (1) A member of the police force who suspects on reasonable grounds that a person has, or recently has had, in his or her possession a firearm or ammunition, may require that person to state his or her full name, address and age.

- (1a) A member of the police force may require the owner of a firearm to answer questions relating to the whereabouts of the firearm or relating to the person or persons who have, or have had, possession, of the firearm.

- (2) The member of the police force may, if he or she thinks fit to do so, require that person to produce such evidence as may be stipulated by the member of the police force to verify information given in response to a requirement under this section.

- (3) A person who fails or refuses without reasonable excuse to—

- (a) comply with a requirement under this section; or
- (b) answer a question put by a member of the police force to the best of his or her knowledge, information and belief,

is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $5 000 or imprisonment for one year.

- (4) A person may not decline on grounds of self-incrimination to answer a question put by a member of the police force under subsection (1a) but the answer to any such question is not admissible except in proceedings for an offence against this section.

31—Production of licence and certificate of registration

- (1) A person who has possession of a firearm must, at the request of a member of the police force or a warden under the National Parks and Wildlife Act 1972—
 - (a) produce a firearms licence authorising his or her possession of the firearm and the certificate of registration of the firearm for inspection by the member of the police force or warden (or, if production of the licence or certificate is not possible at the time of the request, that person must produce the licence or certificate within 48 hours for inspection by a member of the police force at a police station nominated by that person at the time of the request); and
 - (b) produce the firearm for inspection or, if production is not possible at the time of the request, produce the firearm within 48 hours for inspection by a member of the police force at a police station nominated by that person at the time of the request.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

- (2) An apparently genuine document purporting to be signed by the Commissioner of Police, and to certify that a licence or certificate of registration has not been produced as required under this section, must, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be accepted as proof of the matter so certified.
- (3) A warden under the National Parks and Wildlife Act 1972 can only act under subsection (1) when the person in possession of a firearm is on a reserve constituted under that Act.

31A—Period of grace on cancellation, suspension etc of licence

- (1) Subject to this Act, where—
 - (a) a licence authorising possession of a firearm is cancelled or suspended; or
 - (b) the Registrar refuses to renew such a licence; or
 - (d) the registration of a firearm is cancelled,the person who held, or applied for renewal of, the licence or in whose name the firearm was registered (as the case may require) may, in order to dispose of the firearm, retain possession of it for one month.
- (2) Where a licence authorising possession of a firearm is suspended under this Act, the person who held the licence may retain the power of disposition over the firearm if—
 - (a) the firearm is kept by a person who holds a dealer's licence or a person approved by the Registrar; and
 - (b) the person who held the licence does not have access to the firearm.
- (3) A person referred to in this section who uses the firearm for any purpose before disposing of it in accordance with this section is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty:

Where the firearm is a prescribed firearm or a class C, D or H firearm—$10 000 or imprisonment for two years.

Where the firearm is any other kind of firearm—$5 000 or imprisonment for one year.

- (4) A person who receives a firearm (the subject of a licence that is suspended) for the purpose of keeping it in accordance with subsection (2) and who does not forthwith notify the Registrar of that receipt is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

32—Power to seize firearms etc

- (1) If a member of the police force suspects upon reasonable grounds that—
- (a) a firearm is unregistered; or
 - (b) an offence against this Act has been committed, or is being committed, with respect to a firearm; or
 - (ba) a firearm has been forfeited to the Crown by order of a court; or
 - (c) a person who has possession of a firearm is not a fit and proper person to have possession of that firearm; or
 - (ca) continued possession of a firearm by a person would be likely to result in undue danger to life or property; or
 - (cb) a person has possession of a firearm in contravention of an order of a court whether the order was made in this State or in any other State or Territory of the Commonwealth; or
 - (d) a firearm is mechanically unsafe; or
 - (e) a firearm (not being a prescribed firearm)—
 - (i) is particularly dangerous by reason of its design, construction or any other factor; or
 - (ii) can easily be converted to an automatic firearm; or
 - (iii) is, by reason of its size or any other factor, more readily concealed than other firearms of the same class and is for that, or any other reason, particularly suited to unlawful use, the member may seize that firearm.

- (1aa) If a member of the police force suspects on reasonable grounds that a person has possession of a firearm or any mechanism or fitting in contravention of this Act, the member may seize the firearm, receiver, mechanism or fitting.
- (1ab) If a member of the police force suspects on reasonable grounds that a person has possession of ammunition that has been acquired or is held in contravention of this Act the member may seize the ammunition.
- (1a) If a member of the police force suspects on reasonable grounds that—
- (a) a person has possession of a licence authorising possession of a firearm that has been seized under this section; or
 - (b) a person has possession of a licence in contravention of an order of a court; or
 - (c) a person has possession of a licence that has been cancelled or suspended; or
 - (d) a person has possession of a licence for an illegal purpose; or
 - (e) a person who has possession of a firearms licence is not a fit and proper person to have possession of the licence, the member may require the person to deliver the licence to him or her forthwith and, if the person refuses or fails to comply with such a requirement, seize the licence.

- (2) A member of the police force may stop, detain and search or detain and search—
 - (a) any vehicle upon which the member suspects on reasonable grounds that there is a firearm, licence, mechanism, fitting or ammunition liable to seizure under this section; or
 - (b) any person whom the member suspects on reasonable grounds has possession of a firearm, licence, mechanism, fitting or ammunition liable to seizure under this section.
- (2a) If a member of the police force suspects on reasonable grounds that a person who has possession of a firearm has failed to keep the firearm secured as required by this Act, the member may inspect the firearm and the means (if any) by which it has been secured.
- (3) A member of the police force may break into, enter and search any premises in which the member suspects on reasonable grounds—
 - (a) there is a firearm, licence, mechanism, fitting or ammunition liable to seizure under this section; or
 - (b) a firearm is kept contrary to the security requirements of this Act.
- (4) Where a firearm, licence, mechanism, fitting or ammunition is delivered or seized in pursuance of this section, it must be forwarded forthwith to the Registrar.

33—Obstruction of police officer

A person who hinders or resists a member of the police force acting in the exercise of powers conferred by this Act is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

34—Forfeiture of firearms etc

- (1) Where a firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition is seized under this Part, the Registrar may institute proceedings for forfeiture of the firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition before a court of summary jurisdiction.
- (2) If, in proceedings under subsection (1), a court is satisfied that—
 - (a) the owner of the firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition is not authorised by or under this Act to be in possession of the firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition; or
 - (b) that the return of the firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition to its owner would be likely to result in undue danger to life or property; or
 - (c) that the whereabouts of the owner of the firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition has not been, and is not likely to be, ascertained by reasonable inquiry; or
 - (d) the owner of the firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition has failed to comply with the requirements of this Act in relation to the safe storage of the firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition; or

- (e) in the case of a firearm—the firearm can easily be converted to an automatic firearm, it may order that the firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition be forfeited to the Crown, or make such other order for the disposal of the firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition as it thinks appropriate.

- (3) A firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition seized under this Part may be held under this subsection—

- (a) until—

- (i) proceedings are instituted for an order under this section or for an offence in relation to the firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition against the owner of the firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition or a decision is made not to institute such proceedings; or
- (ii) the expiration of 12 months after the firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition was seized, whichever first occurs;

- (b) if proceedings of either kind referred to in paragraph (a)(i) are instituted within 12 months after the firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition was seized—until those proceedings are finally determined.

34AA—Return of licence that has been delivered or seized

Where a licence has been delivered to or seized by a member of the police force under this Part and the licence has not been suspended or cancelled, it must, subject to the order of any court, be dealt with as follows:

- (a) if the firearm to which the licence relates has been seized—the licence must be returned to the holder on the return of the firearm to its owner;
- (b) in any other case—the licence must be returned to the holder at the expiration of 14 days from the date of delivery or seizure.

34A—Forfeiture of firearms by court

- (1) Where a court convicts a person of an offence against this or any other Act and the court finds that a firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition was involved in the commission of the offence the court must make one or more of the following orders:
 - (a) where the firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition was owned by the convicted person—that the firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition be forfeited to the Crown or be disposed of in such other manner as the court directs;
 - (b) that a licence held by the convicted person is subject to specified conditions;
 - (c) that a licence held by the convicted person is suspended for a specified period or until further order;
 - (d) that a licence held by the convicted person is cancelled;
 - (e) that the convicted person is disqualified from holding or obtaining a licence for a specified period or until further order.

- (2) Where, in the course of proceedings before a court, the court forms the view that a party to the proceedings who has possession of a firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition is not a fit and proper person to have possession of the firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition, the court must make one or more of the following orders:
- (a) that the firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition be disposed of in such manner as the court directs;
 - (b) that a licence held by the party is subject to specified conditions;
 - (c) that a licence held by the party is suspended for a specified period or until further order;
 - (d) that a licence held by the party is cancelled;
 - (e) that the party is disqualified from holding or obtaining a licence for a specified period or until further order.

35—Disposal of forfeited firearms etc

- (1) The Registrar may sell or otherwise dispose of a firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition forfeited to the Crown under this or any other Act.
- (2) Subject to the other provisions of this Act or the regulations, the Registrar may sell or otherwise dispose of a firearm, mechanism, fitting or ammunition surrendered to the Registrar.
- (3) Where a court makes an order confiscating a firearm to the custody of the Registrar but does not make an order as to the manner in which the firearm should be disposed of or dealt with, the Registrar must, subject to a further order of the court or the order of any other court, keep the firearm for one year and must then sell or otherwise dispose of it as he or she thinks fit.
- (4) The proceeds of the sale or disposal of a firearm under this section must be paid into the Consolidated Account.

35A—Transporting of firearms

- (1) Subject to any exclusions prescribed by regulation, a person who carries on the business of carrying goods must not, in the course of carrying on that business, carry a firearm and ammunition (whether the ammunition is suitable for use in the firearm or not), or cause a firearm and ammunition to be carried, by the same vehicle, vessel or aircraft.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

- (2) A person (whether a person who carries on the business of carrying goods or not) must comply with the requirements prescribed by regulation when transporting a class C, D or H firearm or a prescribed firearm.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

35B—Advertising firearms for sale

A person (other than a licensed dealer in firearms) who advertises a firearm for sale must include in the advertisement a statement that transfer of possession of the firearm on sale must take place in the presence of, and be witnessed by, a licensed dealer in firearms, an authorised officer of a recognised firearms club or a member of the police force in accordance with section 15B(9).

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

35C—Dealing with firearms by executors etc

Where a person is the owner of a firearm as—

- (a) the executor or administrator of a deceased estate; or
- (b) the administrator or manager of the estate of a person who is unable to manage his or her affairs; or
- (c) the donee of an enduring power of attorney; or
- (d) the Official Trustee or the registered trustee of a bankrupt estate,

the owner must, subject to any law to the contrary—

- (e) sell or give the firearm to another person in accordance with this Act as soon as practicable; or
- (f) surrender the firearm to the Registrar.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

35D—Notice to Registrar when storing firearms

A person who has given a firearm to a person who carries on the business of storing firearms to keep the firearm in storage for more than 14 days must, within 14 days after the period of storage commences, provide the Registrar with the following information in writing:

- (a) the name and address of the person to whom the firearm has been given; and
- (b) the place at which the firearm will be stored.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

36—Evidentiary provisions

In any proceedings for an offence under this Act, an apparently genuine document purporting to be signed by the Registrar and to certify—

- (a) that at a specified time a person was or was not the holder of a licence; or
- (b) that a licence was endorsed with specified endorsements; or
- (ba) that a licence was subject to specified conditions; or
- (bb) that a licence was suspended or cancelled; or
- (bc) that a person was disqualified from holding or obtaining a licence; or
- (bd) that a person was or was not the holder of a permit; or
- (c) that at a specified time a firearm mentioned in the document was or was not registered; or

- (d) that a person or body was, or was not, a collectors' club, shooting club, paint-ball operator or commercial range operator; or
- (e) that a firearms club, paint-ball operator or commercial range operator was, or was not, a recognised firearms club, recognised paint-ball operator or recognised commercial range operator; or
- (f) that the grounds of a recognised firearms club or recognised paint-ball operator were or were not approved under this Act; or
- (fa) that the range of a recognised commercial range operator was, or was not, approved under this Act; or
- (g) that an approval under this Act was subject to specified conditions; or
- (h) that information required to be provided under this Act to the Registrar has, or has not, been provided, must, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be regarded as proof of the matter so certified.

36A—General defence

It is a defence to a charge of an offence against this Act if the defendant proves that the alleged offence was not committed intentionally and did not result from any failure on the part of the defendant to take reasonable care to avoid the commission of the offence.

36B—Service of notices

- (1) A notice or other document required or authorised to be given to or served on a person under this Act may be given or served as follows:
 - (a) by personal service on the person or the agent of the person;
 - (b) by leaving it for the person at his or her place of residence or, in the case of a company, at the company's registered office, with someone apparently over the age of 16 years;
 - (c) by serving it by certified mail on the person or an agent of the person at his or her last known address.
- (2) Service by post is effected by addressing, prepaying and posting the notice or document and service will be taken to have occurred when the notice or document, or notice that the notice or document is available for collection, would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

37—General amnesty

- (1) The Registrar may, with the approval of the Minister, from time to time declare a general amnesty from one or more of the provisions of this Act.
- (2) An amnesty—
 - (a) must be declared by notice published in the Gazette and in a newspaper circulating generally throughout the State; and
 - (b) applies in relation to the provision or provisions of this Act specified in the notice for such period as is specified in the notice; and

- (c) applies for the benefit of all members of the class or classes of persons affected by the provision or provisions to which the amnesty relates; and
 - (d) is subject to the terms and conditions (if any) set out in the notice.
- (3) The Registrar may, with the approval of the Minister, vary or revoke the declaration of an amnesty under subsection (1) by notice published in the Gazette and in a newspaper circulating generally throughout the State.

38—Commencement of proceedings for offences

- (2) Proceedings for an offence against this Act may be commenced at any time within twelve months after the date of the alleged offence.

39—Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make such regulations as are contemplated by this Act, or as are necessary or expedient for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, those regulations may—
- (a) prescribe the duties of the Registrar;
 - (ab) amend or replace the definition of class A, B, C, D or H firearms in section 5;
 - (ac) prescribe or empower the Registrar to determine qualifications or experience in relation to the safe handling of firearms that an applicant for a licence must have in order to obtain a licence under this Act;
 - (ad) provide or empower the Registrar to determine requirements for the safe custody of firearms generally, or any specified class of firearms, or ammunition generally, or any specified class of ammunition;
 - (ada) provide or empower the Registrar to determine requirements for the safe custody of the receivers of firearms;
 - (ae) empower the Registrar to endorse a firearms licence with a purpose or purposes not included in regulations;
 - (af) require the keeping of records and the furnishing of information to the Registrar by—
 - (i) recognised firearms clubs;
 - (ia) recognised paint-ball operators;
 - (ib) recognised commercial range operators;
 - (ii) licensed dealers;
 - (iii) employers whose employees are required to carry firearms in the course of their employment;
 - (b) regulate the keeping and form of registers;
 - (c) prescribe forms or empower the Registrar to approve forms to be used in connection with this Act;
 - (d) prescribe, and provide for the payment or recovery of, fees for the purposes of any application or other proceeding under this Act;
 - (e) exempt absolutely or subject to conditions—

- (i) persons of a specified class; or
 - (ii) firearms of a specified class,
from specified provisions of this Act;
 - (g) prescribe penalties not exceeding a fine of $2 500 for breach of, or non-compliance with, any regulation.
- (3) A regulation made under this section or any other provision of this Act may confer discretionary powers.

Schedule 1—Transitional provisions and compensation

1—Interpretation

In this Schedule—

surrender period means the period of six months from the commencement of this clause.

2—Period allowed for surrender (or registration) of certain firearms etc

- (1) A person who has possession of an unregistered receiver during the surrender period is to be taken not to have committed an offence against this Act for possession of the receiver provided that, during the surrender period, the person—
- (a) obtains registration of the receiver; or
 - (b) surrenders it to the Registrar.
- (2) A person who, during the surrender period, has possession of any of the following:
- (a) a self-loading handgun (other than a revolver) with a barrel length, as measured in accordance with the regulations, of less than 120mm;
 - (b) a revolver or single shot handgun in either case with a barrel length, as measured in accordance with the regulations, of less than 100mm;

 - (e) a class H firearm that was manufactured after 1946 and acquired by the person for the purpose of collection and display,
- is, if the firearm is unregistered or ceases to be registered, to be taken not to have committed an offence against this Act for possession of the firearm provided that, during the surrender period, the person—
- (f) obtains registration of the firearm; or
 - (g) surrenders it to the Registrar.
- (3) The Registrar must, as soon as practicable after the commencement of the surrender period, by notice in writing, cancel the registration of each firearm referred to in paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) of subclause (2) that is registered in the name of a person who is the holder of a shooting club member's licence.

- (4) If the registration of a firearm is cancelled under subclause (3), no fee is payable in respect of an application made by the owner of the firearm during the surrender period for re-registration of the firearm.

3—Prohibition of use of certain firearms

- (1) This clause applies to any of the following firearms if unregistered:
- (a) a self-loading handgun (other than a revolver) with a barrel length, as measured in accordance with the regulations, of less than 120mm;
 - (b) a revolver or single shot handgun in either case with a barrel length, as measured in accordance with the regulations, of less than 100mm;
 - (c) a class H firearm with a magazine or cylinder capacity of more than 10 rounds or a modified magazine or cylinder capacity;
 - (d) a class H firearm of more than .38 calibre.
- (2) A person must not use a firearm to which this clause applies.

4—Compensation for certain surrendered firearms etc

- (1) The Registrar may, subject to conditions approved by the Minister, pay compensation in respect of—
- (a) firearms; or
 - (b) firearm parts; or
 - (c) firearm accessories; or
 - (d) ammunition,
- of a kind approved by the Minister surrendered to the Registrar during the surrender period.
- (2) A decision of the Registrar or the Minister under subclause (1) is final and conclusive and may not be challenged or called in question in any court.
- (3) Compensation payable under this clause must be paid from the Consolidated Account which is appropriated by this clause to the necessary extent.

5—Possession of and collectors' licences for certain antique firearms

- (1) This clause applies to firearms that, on the commencement of this clause, become subject to this Act (having previously been exempted from this Act as antique firearms under the regulations).
- (2) A person who has possession of unregistered firearms to which this clause applies during the period of six months from the commencement of this clause is to be taken not to have committed an offence against this Act for possession of the firearms provided that, during that period—
- (a) the person obtains registration of the firearms and, if required, a collector's licence; or
 - (b) the person disposes of the firearms (which the person is hereby authorised to do).

- (3) No fee is payable in respect of an application made by a person referred to in subclause (2) during the period of six months from the commencement of this clause for registration of a firearm to which this clause applies.
- (4) An application for a collector's licence made by a person referred to in subclause (2) during the period of six months from the commencement of this clause is not to be refused on the ground that he or she is not an active member of a collectors' club provided that he or she is a member of such a club.
