(2) The taxes so imposed will be raised and levied pursuant to this Act in aid of the General Revenue of the State for every financial year.

(3) The taxes so imposed for a particular financial year will, subject to this Act, be calculated as at midnight on the thirtieth day of June immediately preceding that financial year on the basis of circumstances then existing.

(4) Land of the Crown, subject to any agreement for sale or right of purchase, is liable to taxation, whether that agreement or right is absolute or conditional, and whether it is capable of completion or exercise immediately or at any future time.

(5) Nothing in this Act interferes with any exemption, by special legislation, of land from taxation.

Exemption of certain residential land from land tax

10A. (1) Land is exempt from land tax under this section if—

(a) proper grounds exist for exempting the land from land tax; and

(b) the land has been exempted from land tax in pursuance of this section and the exemption is, for the time being, in force.

(2) Where proper grounds exist upon which that land may be exempted from land tax in pursuance of this section an owner of the land may apply to the Commissioner for an exemption in respect of that land.

(3) A person shall not make any false or misleading statement or representation in an application made, or purporting to be made, under this section.

Penalty: $1 000 or imprisonment for 3 months.

(4) The Commissioner may, if satisfied that proper grounds exist for doing so, exempt land from land tax (whether or not an application for exemption has been made).

(5) The Commissioner must, on exempting land from land tax under this section, give notice in writing to an owner of the land setting out the grounds on which the exemption is made.

(6) Where—

(a) a notice of exemption under subsection (5) contains a statement purporting to be—

(i) a statement of fact; and

(ii) a ground on which the exemption is made; and

(b) the statement is inaccurate in any respect, the owner to whom notice of the exemption was given shall, within 21 days after the date of receipt of the notice, notify the Commissioner of the inaccuracy.

Penalty: $500.

Expiation fee: Division 9 fee.

(7) Where—

- (a) land has been exempted from land tax in pursuance of this section; and
- (b) in the opinion of the Commissioner, proper grounds for the exemption do not, or have ceased to, exist, the Commissioner may revoke the exemption.

(8) Where land has been exempted from land tax in pursuance of this section, and proper grounds for the exemption cease to exist, the owner of the land shall forthwith inform the Commissioner in writing of that fact and (whether or not the Commissioner is so informed and whether or not the exemption is revoked) the land will cease to be exempt from land tax.

(9) If an owner of land fails to comply with subsection (8), the owner is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: $500.

Expiation fee: Division 9 fee.

(10) An exemption granted in pursuance of this section is effective from a day (which may be antecedent or subsequent to the day on which it was granted) determined by the Commissioner.

(11) For the purposes of this section, proper grounds for exempting land from land tax exist if—

- (a) the land is owned by—
  - (i) a natural person for whom the land constitutes his or her principal place of residence (whether or not he or she is the sole owner of the land); or
  - (ii) a company entitled to the benefit of this section in respect of the land; or
  - (iii) a person entitled to the benefit of this section pursuant to subsection (12a); and
- (b) the criteria for the time being in force under subsection (13) are satisfied.

(12) Where—

- (a) the whole of the land owned by a company consists of a group of dwellings and land appurtenant to those dwellings; and
- (b) all the issued shares of the company are owned by shareholders who acquire exclusive rights to occupy land of the company by virtue of their shareholdings in the company; and
- (c) each dwelling owned by the company is occupied by a shareholder in the company or a person deriving rights of occupancy from a shareholder in the company, the company is entitled to the benefit of this section in respect of any of its land that is occupied by a shareholder (being a natural person) as his or her principal place of residence.

(12a) The owner of land comprising a retirement village is entitled to the benefit of this section in respect of so much of the land as consists of—

Land Tax Act 1936

- (a) a residential unit occupied, pursuant to a residence contract, by a natural person (alone or with any other person) as his or her principal place of residence; or
- (b) the land appurtenant to any such unit; or
- (c) a facility provided pursuant to the retirement village scheme for the exclusive use of the residents (and their guests).

(13) The Governor may, by regulation, determine criteria for the purposes of subsection (11)(b).

(14) A notice under this section may be given personally or by post.

(15) Where an owner of land contravenes or fails to comply with a provision of this section, and, in consequence, land tax is not assessed in respect of that land during a financial year for which land tax is payable upon the land, the Commissioner may assess the land tax upon the land for that financial year at a rate not exceeding double the rate that would otherwise have been applicable.

Taxable value of land

11. (1) Subject to this Act, the site value of land is its taxable value.

(2) Land tax in respect of a particular financial year is calculated on the basis of determinations of site value in force under the Valuation of Land Act 1971 as at midnight on the thirtieth day of June immediately preceding the commencement of that financial year (whether the determination is actually made before, on or after that date).

(3) Where a determination of site value as in force at the date referred to in subsection (2) is corrected or amended under the Valuation of Land Act 1971 (whether in pursuance of an objection, review or appeal or otherwise), the determination of site value, as corrected or amended, must be used for the calculation of land tax.

*****

*****

Scale of land tax

12. (1) Land tax is calculated on the basis of the taxable value of the land in accordance with the following table:

Taxable value of land	Amount of tax
Not exceeding $50 000	Nil
Exceeding $50 000 but not exceeding $300 000	$0.35 for every $100 or fractional part of $100 over $50 000.
Exceeding $300 000 but not exceeding $1 million	$875 plus $1.65 for every $100 or fractional part of $100 over $300 000.
Exceeding $1 million	$12 425 plus $3.70 for every $100 or fractional part of $100 over $1 million

(3) Except as otherwise provided by this Act, land tax is calculated on the basis of the aggregate taxable value of all land owned by the taxpayer.

(4) Where a taxpayer is liable to pay land tax in respect of land included in more than one land tax assessment, the land tax is (subject to any additional levy that affects portion only of that land) apportioned to and chargeable on the land included in the various assessments in the proportions that the taxable value of the land included in each separate assessment bears to the aggregate taxable value of all the land.

Land Tax Act 1936

Cases of multiple ownership and aggregation of value

15A. (1) If two or more persons are owners of the same land but not all in the same capacity<sup>1</sup>, the Commissioner may treat all who are owners of the land in one particular capacity (to be decided by the Commissioner) as—

- (a) the sole owner or owners of the land; and
- (b) the sole taxpayer or taxpayers for the land.

(2) If the Commissioner treats a person or persons as the sole owner or owners of land under subsection (1), the aggregation principle<sup>2</sup> applies as if that person or those persons were the sole owner or owners of the land.

(3) The aggregation principle<sup>2</sup> is subject to the following qualifications:

- (a) if two or more persons are the taxpayers for the same land, the taxable value of the land will not be aggregated with the taxable value of—
  - (i) other land for which one or more, but not all, of those persons is or are the taxpayer or taxpayers; or
  - (ii) other land for which one or more of those persons and some other person are the taxpayers;
- (b) if land is held on trust (other than a trust arising because of a contract to purchase or acquire an estate or interest in the land), notice of the trust is given as required by regulation, and the trustee is the taxpayer for the land, the taxable value of the land will not be aggregated with the taxable value of other land owned by the same taxpayer unless the other land is held in trust for the same beneficiary.

(4) If two or more trustees own land separately, but subject to the same trust, the Commissioner may treat any one of the trustees as the owner or owners of all the land subject to the trust.

(5) For the purposes of this section, the various capacities in which a person may be the owner of land are as follows:

- (a) as legal owner;
- (b) as equitable owner;
- (c) as prospective owner (ie. a person who has entered into a contract to purchase or acquire an estate or interest in the land);
- (d) as lessee under a perpetual lease or a shack-site lease;
- (e) if the land is in a defined shack-site area—as occupier.

Liability to Tax

Liability to land tax

31. Subject to this Act, an owner of land is liable for land tax levied in respect of that land.

Change of ownership

32. (1) Subject to this Act, no land and no person assessed for land tax is relieved of a charge or liability for land tax in respect of a particular financial year by reason of a change in the ownership of the land, or any other event, occurring after the commencement of the financial year.

(2) The Commissioner may refuse to recognise any change in the ownership of any land until the amount of the tax on that land, together with fines and interest (if any), have been paid.

(3) The Commissioner may refuse to recognise any change in the ownership of any land where notice of that change of ownership has not been given as required by the regulations.

(4) Where the Commissioner refuses to recognise a change in the ownership of any land, the person who is recognised by the Commissioner as the owner of the land remains the taxpayer in respect of the land.

Taxpayers representative capacity

33. (1) Subject to this Act, the following are taxpayers in their representative capacity:

- (a) an agent of a person permanently or temporarily absent from the State;
- (b) a trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, manager or receiver.

(2) Subject to this Act, a person who is a taxpayer in a representative capacity is, in respect of land that is held or managed by the person in that capacity, liable under this Act as if that person were the beneficial owner of the land.

Distribution of Burden of Taxation

Liability for tax to be joint and several

34. Where there are two or more taxpayers in respect of the same land, they are jointly and severally liable to pay land tax in respect of that land.

Distribution of burden

35. (1) The burden of the land tax will be distributed between the taxpayers in the relative proportions of the value of their interests in the land taxed.

(2) A taxpayer who has paid land tax in respect of land is entitled to recover from every other taxpayer in respect of the same land a proper proportion of the amount paid.

* * * * *

Indemnity to taxpayer in representative capacity

40. A taxpayer who pays tax in a representative capacity is entitled—

- (a) to recover the amount paid from those beneficially entitled to the land; or
- (b) to retain the amount of the payment from money that comes into his or her hands in the representative capacity.

Contracts, etc., to evade land tax

42. (1) Where a contract, agreement or arrangement entered into in writing or verbally (whether before or after the commencement of the Land Tax Act Amendment Act 1977) has or purports to have the purpose (whether as the main or a subsidiary purpose) of in any way directly or indirectly—

- (a) altering the incidence of land tax; or
- (b) relieving any person from liability to pay land tax, or reducing any such liability; or
- (c) defeating, evading or avoiding any obligation or liability imposed by this Act, the Commissioner may, by notice in writing given personally or by post to the parties treat that contract, agreement or arrangement as void for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Where the Commissioner has, in pursuance of this section, treated a contract, agreement or arrangement as void for the purposes of this Act, it will be presumed, in any legal proceedings, in the absence of proof to the contrary, that the purpose of the contract, agreement or arrangement is such as would attract the operation of this section.

* * * * *

* * * * *

PART 6
COLLECTION AND RECOVERY OF TAX

Time for Payment

Time for payment of tax

56. (1) Land tax is due and payable 30 days after the service of a particular notice showing the amount payable.

(2) When the Commissioner has reason to believe that a taxpayer may leave Australia before the tax for which the taxpayer is, or is to be, liable will be due and payable, the tax becomes due and payable on such date as the Commissioner fixes and notifies to the taxpayer.

Request for detailed statement of tax claim

56A. The Commissioner must, upon receipt of a request in writing made by a taxpayer, render a full and detailed statement of the taxpayer's liability to pay the amount of tax shown in a particular notice.

Power of Commissioner to extend time for payment

57. The Commissioner may, if sufficient reason is shown, postpone the day upon which any land tax will become due and payable.

Fines for unpaid land tax

58. (1) If land tax is unpaid after it falls due, the amount of the land tax will be increased by a fine as follows:

- (a) if the land tax is unpaid at the expiration of 30 days from the date on which it fell due—by a fine of 5 per cent of the amount in arrears;
- (b) if the land tax is unpaid at the expiration of 6 months from the date on which it fell due—by a fine of 10 per cent of the amount of arrears, in addition to the fine specified in paragraph (a);
- (c) if the land tax is unpaid at the expiration of 12 months from the date on which it fell due—by a fine of 10 per cent of the amount of arrears, in addition to the fines specified in paragraphs (a) and (b).

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the amount of any fine under this section increasing unpaid land tax is to be disregarded in determining the amount of land tax in arrears.

(3) The Commissioner may, for any proper reason, remit a fine under this section wholly or in part.

Postponement and remission of tax in cases of hardship

58A. (1) Where the Commissioner is satisfied upon application by a taxpayer that the payment of land tax in respect of any financial year would cause hardship to that taxpayer the Commissioner may postpone the payment of that land tax or any portion of that land tax.

(2) The Commissioner may, if of the opinion that by reason of any change in the financial circumstances of a taxpayer land tax of which payment has been postponed under this section may be paid without hardship, require the taxpayer forthwith to pay the land tax or a portion of it.

(3) Any land tax of which payment has been postponed under this section remains a first charge upon the land taxed and is recoverable forthwith by the Commissioner, in the event of any change in the ownership of the land, from any person liable to pay the tax, and, in the event of the death of the taxpayer, from the personal representatives of the taxpayer.

(4) No penalty for late payment of tax is incurred in respect of any period for which payment of the tax has been postponed.

* * * * *

* * * * *

Recovery of Taxes

Recovery of land tax as a debt

59. (1) If tax is in arrears, it may be recovered as a debt due to the Commissioner.

(2) The taking of proceedings for the recovery of tax under subsection (1) does not prevent the Commissioner from proceeding under any other provision of this Act for the recovery of the tax.

(3) If it appears from a valuation roll under the Valuation of Land Act 1971 that the defendant in proceedings for the recovery of tax under this Act was the owner of the land in respect of which the tax was assessed, it will be presumed in the absence of proof to the contrary that the defendant is liable to pay the tax.

Power to collect tax from persons owing money to taxpayer

61. (1) The Commissioner may by notice in writing (a copy of which must be forwarded to the taxpayer to the last place of address known to the Commissioner) require—

- (a) any person from whom money is due or may become due to a taxpayer; or
- (b) any person who holds, or may subsequently hold, money for or on account of a taxpayer; or
- (c) any person who holds or may subsequently hold money on account of some other person for payment to a taxpayer; or
- (d) any person having authority from some other person to pay money to a taxpayer, to pay forthwith, or upon the money becoming due or being held, or within such further time as the Commissioner allows the money or so much of it as is sufficient to pay the land tax due by the taxpayer and the interest and costs (if any) imposed by this Act or any court in respect of any omission or offence against this Act.

(2) A person who fails to comply with a notice under this section is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: $100.

(3) Where the amount payable by a person to whom a notice under subsection (1) has been given is less than the amount of land tax and interest due by the taxpayer, that person shall pay to the Commissioner in reduction of that tax and interest the amount payable by that person to the taxpayer.

Land Tax Act 1936

(4) A person making a payment under this section is entitled to indemnity from the taxpayer in respect of that payment.

(5) If the land tax and interest are paid before any payment is made under this section, the Commissioner must forthwith give notice of the payment to the person to whom the notice under subsection (1) was given.

Notice of intention to let or sell

62. (1) If land tax is in arrears for six months or more, the Commissioner may have a notice published in the Gazette—

- (a) specifying the land in respect of which the tax is payable; and
- (b) specifying the amount of the tax in arrears; and
- (c) stating that if the tax is not paid within three months of the date of the notice the Commissioner will let the land, or apply to the Supreme Court for an order for sale of the land.

(2) If at the expiration of three months from the date of a notice published under subsection (1) any part of the tax remains in arrears the Commissioner may—

- (a) let the land; or
- (b) apply to the Supreme Court for an order for the sale of the land.

(3) The Supreme Court may, on an application under subsection (2)(b)—

- (a) make an order for the sale of the land; and
- (b) give directions as to how the proceeds of sale are to be dealt with.

(4) Subject to any directions of the Supreme Court under subsection (3), where land is leased or sold in pursuance of this section the proceeds will be applied by the Commissioner towards the payment of the arrears of tax and the costs of proceeding under this section and any surplus must be paid to the person beneficially entitled to the land or, if the land has been sold, to the person who was beneficially entitled to the land prior to the sale.

Transfer of land to the Crown

65. Where land is unencumbered except by a liability to pay land tax, the Commissioner may, on behalf of the Crown, accept a transfer of an estate in fee simple in the land in satisfaction of the liability for land tax.

Land tax to be a first charge on land

66. Subject to this Act, tax is, until payment, a first charge on the land subject to the tax.

Certificates in respect of liability to land tax

66A. (1) Upon application by the purchaser of any land, or the purchaser's agent, and payment of the prescribed fee, the Commissioner may issue a certificate showing the amount (if any) of tax that is, or will be, payable under this Act in respect of the land on a specified date ("the relevant date").

(2) Where the Commissioner is unable to calculate exactly the amount referred to in subsection (1), the Commissioner may make an estimate of that amount.

(3) Where the land in respect of which an application is made under this section is only part of the land included in a land tax assessment, the certificate referred to in subsection (1) must relate to the whole of the land comprised in the assessment.

(4) Where—

(a) the amount (if any) stated in a certificate given under this section is paid within a period specified in the certificate; or

(b) the certificate indicates that no amount is or will be payable,

the purchaser and the purchaser's successors in title are released from any liability to land tax that accrued in respect of the land before the relevant date, and no such liability is or remains a charge upon the land after it becomes vested in the purchaser.

No statute of limitation to apply

67. No statute of limitation bars or affects any action or remedy for recovery of tax.

Alterations to valuations or assessments of tax

68. (1) The right of the Commissioner to recover tax under this Act is not suspended or delayed by an objection, review or appeal in relation to a valuation under the Valuation of Land Act 1971 and the Commissioner may recover tax on the assumption that the valuation is correct, but if any alteration to a valuation affecting the amount of land tax payable in respect of any land is made under that Act (whether in consequence of an objection, review or appeal, or otherwise) the Commissioner must refund to the taxpayer any excess tax recovered, or may recover any additional tax, recoverable on the basis of the altered valuation, as arrears.

(2) Subject to this section, the Commissioner may (whether or not an application for amendment of the assessment has been made) amend an assessment of tax by making such alterations or additions as are necessary to ensure its completeness and accuracy.

(3) An amendment may be made under this section—

(a) where an application by a taxpayer under this section is made within three years after the service of notice of the assessment or an amendment to the assessment and the taxpayer has supplied to the Commissioner within that period or such further period as the Commissioner may allow all information required for the purpose of deciding the application—at any time;

(b) where the Commissioner is of the opinion that a taxpayer has attempted to evade the payment of land tax—at any time;

(c) in any other case—within three years after the service of notice of the assessment or of an amendment to the assessment.

(4) Where an amendment to an assessment has been made in accordance with this section and a period of more than three years has elapsed since the service of notice of the original assessment, any further amendment of the assessment must, subject to this section, be limited to the subject matter of the prior amendment.

(5) Where the amendment to an assessment has the effect of imposing any fresh liability, or increasing an existing liability, the taxpayer is liable to pay the difference between the tax (if any) already paid under the assessment and the tax that is to be paid according to assessment as amended.

(6) Where an alteration in an assessment has the effect of reducing the taxpayer's liability the Commissioner must refund any tax overpaid.

PART 7
