Registration in business names

71a. (1) Where an application for registration is made by a person carrying on a business the name of which is registered under the Business Names Act, 1963, the Registrar may, notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Part, register the motor vehicle in that business name.

(2) Upon registration of a motor vehicle under this section, the provisions of this Act apply and have effect in relation to each person who is carrying on the business as if that person were the owner of the motor vehicle, but it will be sufficient compliance with any such provision if any one of those persons discharges the obligations imposed by the provision on the owner.

PART III

DRIVERS' LICENCES

Classification of licences

72. (1) A licence must be endorsed with one or more of the prescribed classifications.
Subject to this Act, where a person applies for the grant of a licence, the licence, if granted, must be endorsed with any classification for which the person has applied.

(8) Subject to this Act, where a person applies for the renewal of a licence, the licence, if renewed, must be endorsed with the classification with which the licence was endorsed immediately prior to renewal.

(9) Where an applicant for the renewal of a licence applies for the endorsement of any further or other classification upon the licence, and satisfies the Registrar, by such evidence as the Registrar may require, that the applicant is competent to drive a motor vehicle in respect of which that further or other classification is required under this Act, the licence, if renewed, must be endorsed with that further or other classification.

Register of licences

73. (1) The Registrar must keep a register of the names and addresses of all licensed drivers, and of all endorsements on, and renewals, suspensions, and cancellations of, licences.

(2) The register will contain such other information as the Registrar thinks necessary for the administration of this Act and will be in a form determined by the Registrar.

Duty to hold licence or learner's permit

74. (1) Subject to this Act, a person must not drive a motor vehicle on a road unless the person holds an appropriate licence or a learner's permit.

(1a) A person who drives a motor vehicle on a wharf for the purpose of loading or unloading cargo is not required to comply with subsection (1) while so driving.

(2) "Appropriate licence", in relation to the driving of any motor vehicle, means a licence which authorizes the holder to drive motor vehicles of the class to which that motor vehicle belongs.
Issue and renewal of licences

75. (1) Subject to this Act, the Registrar must issue a licence to, or renew the licence of, any person who—

(a) makes a written application for the licence or renewal in a form determined by the Minister;

(b) forwards with the application the prescribed fee;

and

(c) has complied with any requirements of the Registrar under section 77b.

(2) A licence will be in a form determined by the Minister.

(3) Where an application is made for the issue, or renewal, of a licence, the Registrar, if satisfied that the circumstances of the case justify the issue of a temporary licence under this section, may, upon payment of such fee (if any) and subject to such terms and conditions as the Registrar considers appropriate, issue a temporary licence and the licence will be valid—

(a) until the application is determined or, where the application is not entirely in order, until a proper application is made and determined;

or

(b) until the expiration of one month from the date of the issue of the temporary licence, whichever is the lesser.

(4) A person must not contravene a condition inserted in a licence pursuant to this section.

Penalty: Division 10 fine.

Only one licence to be held at any time

75aa. (1) The Registrar must not issue a licence or learner’s permit to a person who holds an interstate licence unless the person—

(a) surrenders the interstate licence to the Registrar;

and

(b) provides the Registrar with a letter addressed to the authority that issued the interstate licence requesting the authority to cancel the licence.

(2) Where a person who holds an interstate licence is issued with a licence or learner’s permit under this Act, the interstate licence will, for the purposes of this Act, be taken to have been cancelled on the date of issue of the licence or permit under this Act.

(3) Where a person who holds a licence or learner’s permit under this Act is issued with an interstate licence, the licence or permit under this Act will, for the purposes of this Act, be taken to have been cancelled on the date of issue of the interstate licence.

(c) has passed the examination prescribed in section 79;

and

(d) has complied with any requirements of the Registrar under section 77b.

(b) authorize the holder of the permit to drive a motor vehicle on roads—

(i) during the period specified in the permit;

and

(ii) subject to the conditions imposed by or under subsection (3);

and

(c) while the conditions to which the permit are subject are observed, have effect as a licence.

(3) A learner's permit is subject to the following conditions:

or

(ii) being a motor cycle—unless any person who is carried by the holder of the permit as a passenger on the motor cycle or in a sidecar attached to the motor cycle is the holder of a driver's licence authorizing the person to drive that motor cycle (not being a probationary licence);

(da) a condition that the holder of the permit must at all times when driving a motor vehicle on a road carry the permit and produce it forthwith if requested to do so by a member of the police force;

and

(e) any other condition—

(i) limiting the kind of vehicle that may be driven pursuant to the permit;

(ii) limiting the hours during which or the locality within which a vehicle may be driven pursuant to the permit;

or

(iii) imposing any other restriction,

that the Registrar thinks necessary.

(3aa) A condition imposed on a learner's permit by the Registrar under subsection (3) (e) must be endorsed on the permit.
In this section—

(a) a reference in any of those sections to an offence against that Act were a reference to an offence against subsection (5);

and

(b) a reference in any of those sections to the prescribed concentration of alcohol as defined in section 47a of that Act were a reference to the prescribed concentration of alcohol as defined in subsection (3a).

(5b) Where the court before which a person is charged with an offence against subsection (5) of contravening a condition referred to in subsection (3) (a) convicts the person of the offence or finds that the charge is proved but does not proceed to conviction, the court must, unless proper cause for not doing so is shown, order the person to attend, within a period fixed by the court, being not more than six months from the making of the order, a lecture conducted pursuant to the regulations.

(5c) A person must not fail, without reasonable excuse, to comply with an order under subsection (5b).

Penalty: Division 11 fine.

will be construed as if the words “or learner’s permit” were inserted wherever the word “licence” occurs.

Issue of duplicate licence or learner’s permit

77. (1) On the application of the holder of a licence or learner’s permit, the Registrar may, if satisfied of the loss or destruction of the licence or learner’s permit, or on the surrender of the licence or permit to the Registrar, and payment of the prescribed fee, issue to the holder a duplicate licence or learner’s permit bearing all memoranda endorsed on the original licence or learner’s permit that are current; but the Registrar may, for reasonable cause, remit the fee in any case.

(2) Any such duplicate will avail for all purposes as if it were the original licence or learner’s permit.

Licences and learner’s permits to include photographs

77a. (1) A licence (other than a temporary licence) issued or renewed after the commencement of this section must include a photograph of the holder of the licence.

(2) A learner’s permit (other than a temporary learner’s permit) issued or renewed after the commencement of this section must, if the Registrar so determines, include a photograph of the holder of the permit.

(3) Subject to section 77b, on the application of the holder of a licence issued before the commencement of this section, the Registrar may, on surrender of the licence and payment of an amount determined in accordance with the regulations, issue to the holder a new licence bearing a photograph of the holder and the appropriate endorsements.

(4) Where a probationary licence is issued under subsection (3), the licence expires on the expiration of the period for which the probationary conditions of the old licence would have been effective.

Power of Registrar to require photograph of applicant for licence, etc.

77b. (1) Where a photograph of a person is to be included on a licence or permit, the Registrar may, for the purpose of obtaining such a photograph—

(a) require the person to attend at a specified place for the purpose of having the person’s photograph taken;
or

(b) require the person to supply to the Registrar one or more photographs of the person as specified by the Registrar.

(2) Where—

(a) a person of whom a requirement is made under subsection (1) refuses or fails to comply with the requirement;

or

(b) a failure to attend at a specified place or to supply one or more photographs as specified by the Registrar occurs;
(b) a photograph of a person taken or supplied pursuant to subsection (1) is not, in the opinion of the Registrar, suitable for inclusion on a licence or permit, the Registrar may determine that the licence or permit in question not be issued or renewed as the case may be.

Temporary licences and learner’s permits

77c. (1) Where—

(a) on application by a person for the issue or renewal of a licence or learner’s permit, the Registrar determines that the licence or permit should be issued or renewed; and

(b) the licence or permit must when issued or renewed include a photograph of the person, the Registrar may issue to the person a temporary licence or temporary learner’s permit pending the preparation and delivery of a licence or permit that bears a photograph of the person.

(2) A temporary licence or permit issued to a person under subsection (1)—

(a) must bear all the appropriate endorsements and has effect for all purposes as if it were the appropriate licence or permit for which the person made application; but

(b) expires—

(i) on the day specified for that purpose in the licence or permit, being not more than one month after the date on which it is issued;

or

(ii) on the day on which the person receives the licence or permit that bears a photograph of the person, whichever is the earlier.

Graduated licences

78. (1) A learner’s permit cannot be issued to a person under the age of 16 years.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a licence cannot be issued to a person under the age of 16 years and six months.

(3) A licence subject to conditions or restrictions by virtue of which the holder of the licence is authorized to drive only a self-propelled wheelchair may be issued to a person under the age of 16 years and six months.

Examination of applicant for driver’s licence or learner’s permit

79. (1) Subject to this Act, the Registrar may not issue a licence or a learner’s permit to an applicant who has not held a licence at some time during the period of five years immediately preceding the date of the application unless—

(a) the applicant produces to the Registrar a certificate signed by an examiner certifying that the applicant has passed an examination conducted by the examiner, in the rules required by law to be observed by drivers of motor vehicles;

or

(b) the applicant satisfies the Registrar by such evidence as the Registrar may require that, within the period of five years immediately preceding the date of the application, the applicant held a licence to drive a motor vehicle under the law of a State or Territory of Australia other than this State.

(2) A person will not be regarded as having passed an examination for the purposes of this section unless the person has answered correctly at least three-quarters of the questions asked in the examination. Although a person may have answered correctly at least three-quarters of the questions asked in the examination, the Registrar may treat the person as having failed if an incorrect answer has been given to any question dealing with any rule which in the Registrar's opinion is one of special importance.

(3) The following persons are examiners for the purposes of this section:

(a) every member of the police force;

and

(b) any other person appointed by the Registrar to be an examiner for the purposes of this section.

(4) The examination will consist of such number of questions as the Registrar may determine and the questions for each applicant must be selected by the examiner from a series of questions formulated and supplied by the Registrar.

(5) A person who has sat for and failed to pass an examination under this section may again sit for such an examination at any time after an interval of two clear days.

Practical driving tests

79a. The Registrar must not issue a licence to an applicant who has not held a licence at some time during the period of five years immediately preceding the date of application, unless—

(a) the applicant produces to the Registrar a certificate signed by an authorized examiner certifying that the applicant has passed a practical driving test conducted by that examiner and appropriate to the class of the licence for which application is made;

or

(b) the applicant satisfies the Registrar by such evidence as the Registrar may require that the applicant—

(i) has at some time during the period of five years immediately preceding the date of application held a licence to drive motor vehicles under the law of some place outside this State;

and

(ii) has experience such that the Registrar should issue a licence of the category for which application is made without requiring a practical driving test under this Act.

Licence or permit falsely obtained is void

79b. A driver's licence or learner's permit that is issued by the Registrar pursuant to a false or misleading statement of the applicant, or on the basis of any false evidence produced by the applicant, is void and of no effect.

Licence or learner's permit unlawfully altered or damaged is void 79ba. Where a person, without lawful authority, wilfully alters, defaces or otherwise damages a licence or learner's permit, the licence or permit is void and of no effect.

Duty on holder of licence to notify illness, etc.

79c. The holder of a learner's permit or driver's licence who suffers during the term of the permit or licence any illness or injury that may impair his or her competence to drive a motor vehicle without danger to the public must, within a reasonable time after the occurrence of the illness or injury, notify the Registrar in writing accordingly.

Penalty: Division 9 fine.

Power to test applicants

80. (1) If in the opinion of the Registrar it is desirable that the ability or fitness of an applicant for the issue or renewal of a learner's permit or driver's licence, or of the holder of a learner's permit or driver's licence, to drive a motor vehicle should be tested, the Registrar may require the person to undergo such tests or to furnish such evidence of ability or fitness to drive as the Registrar directs.

(1a) The Registrar may, with the approval of the Minister, direct that all applicants for the issue or renewal of a learner's permit or driver's licence who are of a particular class must undergo such tests, or furnish such evidence as to ability or fitness to drive a motor vehicle, or a motor vehicle of a particular class, as the Registrar may require.

(2) If a person fails to comply with a requirement of the Registrar under subsection (1) or (1a), or if, after considering the results of the tests or the evidence, the Registrar is satisfied that a person is not competent to drive a motor vehicle without danger to the public, the Registrar may refuse to issue a learner's permit or licence to that person, or suspend a learner's permit or licence issued to that person, until the person satisfies the Registrar, in such a manner as the Registrar directs, that he or she is competent so to drive a motor vehicle.

(3) The Registrar may issue to any person who has been required to undergo tests, or to furnish other evidence of ability or fitness to drive a motor vehicle, a temporary driving permit authorizing that person, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be specified in the permit, to drive motor vehicles.

(4) A temporary driving permit has, subject to any conditions and restrictions specified in the permit, effect as a licence.

(5) A person must not contravene any condition or restriction of a temporary driving permit.

Penalty: Division 10 fine.

Restricted learner's permits and licences

81. (1) Where, in such circumstances as the Registrar thinks fit and upon such evidence as the Registrar may require, the Registrar is satisfied that the holder of a learner's permit or driver's licence, or an applicant for the issue or renewal of a learner's permit or driver's licence, should only be permitted to drive a motor vehicle subject to restriction, the Registrar may endorse upon the permit or licence all or any of the following conditions:

(a) a condition that the holder of the permit or licence is permitted to drive only in specified localities;

(b) a condition that the holder of the permit or licence is permitted to drive only a vehicle of a specified class, size or type or a vehicle fitted with specified equipment;

or

(c) any other condition that the Registrar thinks necessary for the purpose of preventing accident or injury.
(2) Where the Registrar is satisfied that, because of special circumstances it would be unreasonable to require the applicant to take an examination under section 79 or to pass a driving test under section 79a, the Registrar may, without submitting the applicant to such an examination or test, issue a permit or licence containing conditions as provided by subsection (1).

(3) If a person is not willing to accept a condition proposed by the Registrar under this section, the Registrar must refuse to issue the permit or licence, or cancel the permit or licence, as the case may require.

(4) A person must not contravene a condition endorsed upon a licence pursuant to this section.

Penalty: Division 10 fine.

Probationary licences

81a. (1) Without derogating from any other provision of this Act, where the applicant for the issue of a driver's licence—

(1aa) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where the applicant for the issue of a driver's licence has previously held an unconditional licence issued under this Act or under the law of a place outside this State but not during the period of three years immediately preceding the date of the application, the Registrar may issue a licence not subject to probationary conditions.

(1a) In this section—

“prescribed concentration of alcohol” means any concentration of alcohol in the blood:

“unconditional licence” means a licence not subject to the conditions referred to in subsection (1) (d) and (e) or conditions substantially the same as those conditions and includes a licence issued under this Act that has been subject to such conditions for the period fixed by or under this Act.

(2a) The condition referred to in subsection (1) (f) does not apply to the holder of a probationary licence where the holder has parted with possession of the licence pursuant to this Act or any other Act.

(3) Where—

or

(b) a licence is issued to an applicant referred to in subsection (1) (c) (ii) and the court by which the order of disqualification was made ordered that the conditions were to be effective for a greater period than that prescribed by subsection (2)—the conditions will be effective for the period ordered by the court.

(4) If an applicant is not willing to accept a probationary licence, the Registrar must refuse to issue a licence to the applicant.

(5) A person must not contravene a condition of a probationary licence.

(a) a reference in any of those sections to an offence against that Act were a reference to an offence against subsection (5);

and

(b) a reference in any of those sections to the prescribed concentration of alcohol as defined in section 47a of that Act were a reference to the prescribed concentration of alcohol as defined in subsection (1a).

(7) Where the court before which a person is charged with an offence against subsection (5) of contravening the condition referred to in subsection (1) (ca) convicts the person of the offence or finds that the charge is proved but does not proceed to conviction, the court must, unless proper cause for not doing so is shown, order the person to attend, within a period fixed by the court, being not more than six months from the making of the order, a lecture conducted pursuant to the regulations.

(8) A person must not fail, without reasonable excuse, to comply with an order under subsection (7).

Penalty: Division 11 fine.

(a) an offence against subsection (5) of contravening the condition referred to in subsection (1) (d);

or

(b) an offence against subsection (5b), as if a reference in that section to an offence against that Act were a reference to an offence against subsection (5) or (5b).

(a) commits an offence of contravening a probationary condition;

or
(b) commits an offence in respect of which a demerit point is, or demerit points are, recorded against the person and, in consequence, the total number of demerit points recorded against the person in respect of offences committed while the holder of a learner's permit or a probationary licence equals or exceeds four, the Registrar must, upon receiving notice under section 93 of the conviction, or the expiation, of the offence, give notice—

(c) that the person is disqualified from holding or obtaining a permit or licence for a period of six months commencing on a day specified in the notice;

and

(d) that, if the person holds any permit or licence at the commencement of the period of disqualification, the permit or licence is cancelled.

(3) Any notice under subsection (2) must be given in writing served personally or by post upon the person to whom it is directed.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2), any notice given to a person under that subsection does not apply in relation to any unconditional licence held or sought by the person if the person held an unconditional licence when the offence giving rise to the notice was committed.

(5) In subsection (4)—

"unconditional licence" means a licence not subject to probationary conditions.

(6) Where a person has been or is liable to be given notice of disqualification under subsection (2), that person may, in accordance with the relevant rules of court, appeal to a local court against the disqualification.

(7) The appellant and the Crown are entitled to be heard upon the appeal.

(8) If the local court is satisfied by evidence given on oath by or on behalf of the appellant that the disqualification would result in undue hardship to the appellant, the court may allow the appeal.

(9) Where a court has allowed an appeal against disqualification under this section, the court must order—

(a) that the disqualification be removed;

(b) that any licence held by or issued to the appellant be subject to probationary conditions for the following period:

(i) in the case of a licence subject to probationary conditions held by or issued to a person under the age of 19 years—a period of six months commencing on the expiry of those previous conditions;

(ii) in any other case—for a period of one year commencing on the date of the order or the issue of the licence, as the case may require;

and

(c) if the appellant is the holder of a licence—that the Registrar vary the endorsements on the licence, or cancel the licence and issue a probationary licence, as the case may require.

(10) Where an appeal against disqualification has been instituted under this section, the disqualification and any related cancellation are suspended until the determination or withdrawal of the appeal.

(10a) Where an appeal against disqualification is allowed under this section, any related cancellation has no effect.
(10b) An order under subsection (9) (b) does not affect the period for which probationary conditions imposed by section 81a on a licence issued to the appellant after the date of the order would be effective under that section.

(11) A person who has successfully appealed against disqualification under this section is not entitled to appeal against any subsequent disqualification under this section until the expiration of one year from the day on which that previous appeal was allowed.

82. (1) The Registrar must, upon the recommendation of the consultative committee—

(ab) suspend, for such period as the consultative committee recommends, the licence or learner's permit of any person;

(ac) cancel the licence of any person and issue in its place a probationary licence subject to probationary conditions effective for such period as the committee recommends;

or

(b) cancel the licence or learner's permit of any person,

if that person has been convicted of an offence, or a series of offences, involving the use of a motor vehicle that, in the opinion of the consultative committee, shows the person to he unfit to hold a licence or a learner's permit or has behaved in some other manner that, in the opinion of the consultative committee, shows the person to be unfit to hold a licence or a learner's permit.

(1aa) A person who expiates an offence that attracts demerit points under this Act will, for the purposes of subsection (1), be taken to have been convicted of that offence.

(1) If the Commissioner of Police or the Registrar suspects that any person holding a driver's licence is suffering from any disease (mental or physical) or any disability that impairs or may at any time impair the person's ability to drive a motor vehicle, the Commissioner or the Registrar may suspend the licence of that person for such period as the Commissioner or the Registrar thinks proper.

(2) If the Commissioner of Police or the Registrar is subsequently satisfied that the ability of the person to drive a motor vehicle is not impaired, or is not impaired to such an extent as to justify the continuance of the suspension, the Commissioner or the Registrar may remove the suspension.

(3) Where the licence of any person has been suspended under this section, that person may on complaint duly laid before a court of summary jurisdiction and served on the Commissioner of Police or the Registrar, as the case may be, as defendant to the proceedings, apply to that court for an order removing the suspension.

PART IIIA

MOTOR DRIVING INSTRUCTORS’ LICENCES

Instructors’ licences

98a. (1) A person who is not the holder of a current motor driving instructor’s licence must not, for fee, reward, salary, wages or other remuneration or for any other consideration paid or payable by any person, teach any other person to drive a motor vehicle.

Penalty: Division 10 fine.

(2) If the Registrar is satisfied that an applicant for an instructor’s licence—

(a) is the holder of a valid driver’s licence;

(b) has held a driver’s licence in South Australia or elsewhere for a continuous period of not less than three years immediately preceding the date of the application;

(c) is a fit and proper person to hold an instructor’s licence;

and

(d) is proficient as a motor driving instructor, the Registrar must issue to the applicant an instructor’s licence in a form determined by the Minister.

(2aa) An instructor’s licence may be issued subject to such conditions as the Registrar thinks fit.

(2a) An application for an instructor’s licence must be made in a manner and form determined by the Minister and must be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(2b) If the Registrar is not satisfied that an applicant for an instructor’s licence is a fit and proper person to hold such a licence, the Registrar must refer the question of whether the applicant is a fit and proper person to hold an instructor's licence to the consultative committee for inquiry, and the determination of that question by the consultative committee is binding on the Registrar.

(3) Every instructor's licence will, subject to this Act, remain in force for a period, not exceeding five years, specified on the licence, but nothing in this subsection precludes the issue, subject to this Act, of a further instructor's licence to the holder to take effect upon the expiration of an earlier instructor's licence.

(5) In order to test the proficiency of any applicant for an instructor's licence (whether or not the applicant is or has been the holder of such a licence) the Registrar may require the applicant to undergo such tests as the Registrar may think necessary, whether written, oral or practical, and those tests must, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, include examination in traffic laws, driving practices, vehicle manipulation and teaching technique.

(6) Where the driver's licence of any holder of an instructor's licence is cancelled or suspended or any such holder otherwise ceases to hold a driver's licence, the instructor's licence automatically ceases to have any effect, and where the driver's licence of any such holder is suspended, the instructor's licence, unless cancelled pursuant to the provisions of this Part, is automatically suspended for the same period.

(7) The Registrar may cancel any instructor's licence or suspend any instructor's licence for such term as the Registrar thinks fit if satisfied that the holder has been guilty of conduct making him or her unfit to hold such a licence.

(7a) Where the Registrar is of the opinion that proper grounds exist for the cancellation of an instructor's licence under subsection (7), the Registrar must not proceed to cancel the licence unless the matter has been referred to the consultative committee and the committee has concurred in the Registrar's opinion that proper grounds exist for cancellation of the licence under that subsection.

(8) Where an instructor's licence is suspended, it has no effect during the term of the suspension.

(9) The provisions of sections 77, 96, 139ba and 141 (a) apply to and in respect of holders of instructor's licences as if the words “instructor's licence” were substituted for the word “licence” wherever it occurs in those sections and that paragraph.

(10) This section does not apply to—

(a) a member of the police force acting in the execution of duty;

or

(b) a person who teaches another to drive a motor vehicle if both the teacher and the learner are employed by the same employer and are acting in the ordinary course of their employment.

PART IIIB

POINTS DEMERIT SCHEME

Points demerit scheme

98b. (1) Where a person is convicted of an offence specified in the third schedule, the number of demerit points prescribed by the schedule in relation to that offence will, subject to this section, be recorded against that person.

(1a) Where a person expiates an offence to which a traffic infringement notice relates, the person will, for the purposes of this section, be taken to have been convicted of that offence on the day upon which the offence was expiated.
(2) Upon the demerit points recorded against a person amounting to twelve or more in number, the person is, subject to this section, disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of three months.

* * * * * * * * * * *

(4) In calculating the aggregate of the demerit points recorded against any person for the purposes of this section, only those demerit points that relate to offences committed within a period of three years may be taken into account.

(5) Where it is practicable so to do, the Registrar must, when the number of demerit points recorded against any person is equal to or exceeds one-half of the number required for disqualification under this section, send by post to that person a notice—

(a) specifying the number of points recorded against the person; and

(b) warning that further convictions for prescribed offences may result in disqualification from holding or obtaining a licence.

(6) The operation of this section is not affected by any failure to comply with subsection (5).

* * * * * * * * * * *

(8) Where a person is convicted of two or more offences arising from the same incident, demerit points will be recorded only in respect of the offence, or one of the offences, that attracts or attract the most demerit points.

(9) A court in determining the penalty to be imposed upon a person convicted of an offence must not take into account the fact that, in consequence of the conviction, demerit points will be recorded against the convicted person pursuant to this Act.

(10) If a court by which a person is convicted of an offence is satisfied by evidence given on oath forthwith upon conviction that the offence is trifling, or that any other proper cause exists, it may order that no demerit points, or a reduced number of demerit points, be recorded against the convicted person in respect of that offence.

(11) The Registrar must—

(a) where the aggregate of demerit points recorded against a person amounts to twelve or more;

or

(b) where a person by instrument in writing addressed to the Registrar admits convictions that will lead to the recording of twelve or more demerit points and requests that the disqualification should commence forthwith, cause to be served personally or by post upon that person a notice informing the person that he or she is disqualified from holding or obtaining a licence and the disqualification takes effect upon the service of the notice or, if at the time of service of the notice the person is disqualified from holding or obtaining a licence under some other provision either of this Act or of some other Act, the disqualification takes effect upon the expiration or termination of that prior disqualification.

(12) Where a disqualification has taken effect in pursuance of subsection (11), the demerit points incurred by the disqualified person up to (and including) the time at which the person committed the offence that brought the aggregate of the demerit points recorded to twelve or more are wholly extinguished.
(12a) Where a person who is disqualified under this section institutes (whether before or after the disqualification is effected) an appeal against a conviction in respect of which demerit points that are included in the points resulting in the disqualification were recorded, or applies for a rehearing of the proceedings that led to the conviction, the disqualification is inoperative until the appeal or application for rehearing is determined or withdrawn.

(13) A person who has become liable to disqualification under this section may (whether or not the disqualification has in fact taken effect) appeal to a local court against the disqualification.

(14) The appellant and the Crown are entitled to be heard upon the appeal.

(15) If the local court is satisfied by evidence given on oath by or on behalf of the appellant that—

(a) it is not in the public interest that the appellant should be disqualified under this section;

or

(b) that the disqualification would result in undue hardship to the appellant, the court may order that the aggregate of the demerit points recorded against the appellant be reduced to eleven.

(15a) Where a court has made an order under subsection (15) on the ground that the disqualification would result in undue hardship, the court must order—

(a) that the Registrar endorse upon the licence such conditions as are appropriate in view of the grounds upon which the court allowed the appeal;

and

(b) that the appellant deliver the licence to the Registrar for that purpose.

(15b) A condition endorsed upon a licence pursuant to subsection (15a) has effect for the period of three months from the time of the endorsement.

(15c) A person who fails to comply with a condition endorsed upon a licence pursuant to subsection (15a) is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Division 10 fine.

(15d) Where a person is convicted of an offence under subsection (15c), one demerit point will, subject to this section, be recorded against that person.

(16) Where an appeal has been instituted under this section, a disqualification against which the appeal is brought is inoperative until the appeal has been determined or withdrawn.

(17) Where a court has ordered a reduction in the aggregate of demerit points recorded against an appellant, the Registrar must deduct the number of points by which the aggregate was reduced from the recorded points in the order in which they were incurred by the appellant.

(18) A person is not entitled to appeal against disqualification under this section if any of the demerit points upon which the person is liable to be disqualified formed part of an aggregate that was reduced by the court upon a previous appeal under this section.

(19) For the purposes of this section, a person incurs demerit points in respect of a prescribed offence on the day on which the offence is committed.

(20) While a person is disqualified under this section from holding or obtaining a licence, any licence held by the person is, by force of this section, suspended.

and

(e) to any person who conveyed the injured person as mentioned in paragraph (a)—an amount to be ascertained in accordance with the regulations.
(2) Where bodily injury (including fatal injury) is caused by or arises out of the use of two or more motor vehicles insured by different insurers, each insurer must pay an equal share of the payments required to be made under subsection (1).

(3) The liability (if any)—

(a) of the owner or driver of the motor vehicle in respect of the death or bodily injury;

the person who could have so recovered judgment against the insured person may recover the amount of that judgment by action against the insurer.

(2) Without limiting the scope of subsection (1), it is declared that a right of action against the insurer under that subsection in a case where the insured person is dead exists and has existed since the enactment of that subsection notwithstanding that the claimant has or had a right of action against the estate of the deceased person under the Survival of Causes of Action Act, 1940, or any other law.

(4) Where a claimant fails to give notice of a claim in accordance with the requirements of subsection (3), and the court before which the action is brought is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the defendant has been prejudiced in the conduct of his or her defence by that failure, it may, if the justice of the case so requires, dismiss the action.

Claim against nominal defendant where vehicle uninsured

116. (1) In this section—

"uninsured motor vehicle" means a motor vehicle in relation to which no policy of insurance as required by this Part is in force but does not include a motor vehicle in relation to which there is in force a policy of insurance—

(7) A sum properly paid by the nominal defendant to satisfy a claim made or judgment obtained under this section together with costs is recoverable by the nominal defendant from the driver of the motor vehicle or any person liable for the negligence of that driver; but it is a defence in an action under this subsection if the defendant satisfies the court that at the time of the accident—

(a) the defendant was the owner of the motor vehicle or was driving the vehicle with the consent of the owner;

and

(b) that he or she had reasonable grounds for believing and did believe that the vehicle was an insured motor vehicle.

In sections 113 and 115 the expression “a person who could have obtained a judgment in respect of that death or bodily injury” includes a tortfeasor against whom a claim has been made in respect of that death or bodily injury and who is entitled to recover contribution in respect of it from some other person pursuant to Part III of the Wrongs Act, 1936.

may make or bring that claim or action or enforce that judgment against the nominal defendant.

(4) The nominal defendant has the same duties and liabilities and has and may exercise the same powers and rights in or in relation to any such claim, action or judgment as the insurer would have if it were not being wound up, or had not entered into a compromise or arrangement with its creditors.

(5) Notwithstanding any other Act, where the nominal defendant pays or is liable to pay any sum pursuant to subsection (3) and the amount so paid or liable to be paid or any part of it would, if paid by the insurer, have been recoverable by the insurer from another person under any provision of this Part or a contract or arrangement for reinsurance, the nominal defendant has and may exercise the rights and powers of the insurer under that contract or arrangement so as to enable the nominal defendant to recover that amount from that other person.

(6) The insurer or any officer or agent of the insurer or, where the insurer is being wound up, the liquidator of the insurer must, upon the request of the nominal defendant forthwith—

(a) furnish the nominal defendant with such particulars as the nominal defendant requires relating to claims, actions and judgments referred to in subsection (3) of which the insurer or liquidator has received notice;

(3) Every person who was an approved insurer at the date of the accident giving rise to the injury is liable to pay a contribution to the Treasurer to reimburse the Treasurer for the amount paid pursuant to this section.

(4) The contribution of each insurer will be determined by the Treasurer and in so determining the Treasurer must have regard to the premium income received for insurance under this Part during the previous year by each insurer.

Policy to bind all insured persons

121. While a policy of insurance remains in force, every person who is insured in terms of the policy is contractually bound by the provisions of the policy in all respects as if the person had agreed with the insurer so to be bound.

Cancellation of policy

122. (1) An insurer may, subject to subsection (2), by notice in writing served personally or by post upon the insured person, cancel a policy of insurance in respect of a motor vehicle.

Right of insurer against unauthorized driver of vehicle

123. or

(b) by driving a motor vehicle while there is present in his or her blood a concentration of .15 grams or more of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood, the insurer may, by action in a court of competent jurisdiction, recover from the insured person any money paid or costs incurred by the insurer in respect of that liability.

(2) Where an insured person incurs a liability against which he or she is insured under this Part and the insured person has, to the prejudice of the insurer—

(3) Where, in pursuance of this section, an insurer has been joined as a defendant to an action—

(a) the insurer will be taken to have directly assumed the liability (if any) of the insured person upon the claim in respect of death or bodily injury and, where such a liability is found to exist, judgment upon that claim will be given not against the insured person but against the insurer;

(b) the insured person remains a party to the action only for the purposes of—

(7) In deciding on an award of costs under subsection (6) (a) or a reduction in an award of compensation under subsection (6) (b), the court may take into account—

(a) the effect that the non-compliance with subsection (2) (b) or (c) has had on the proper conduct of the case by any other party to the action; and
(b) the effect that that non-compliance may have had on the possibility of settling the case before trial.

(8) Where a written report is obtained by the insurer on the findings made, or the opinions formed, by a legally qualified medical practitioner on the examination of a claimant under subsection (2)(a), the insurer must, within 21 days of receiving the report, send a copy of the report to the claimant (or a legal practitioner engaged by the claimant).
