Schedule 1—Repeal and transitional provisions

Part 1—Repeal

1—Repeal of Nurses Act 1999

The Nurses Act 1999 is repealed.

Part 2—Transitional provisions

2—Transitional provisions relating to Board

(1) The Nursing and Midwifery Board of South Australia is the same body corporate as the Nurses Board of South Australia.

(2) The following provisions apply in relation to the members of the Board in office immediately before the commencement of clause 1 of this Schedule:

(a) the elected members appointed under section 5(1)(b) of the repealed Act continue to hold office for the balance of their respective terms as if they had been elected under this Act (despite section 7(1) and section 8(2));
(b) all other members vacate their respective offices so that fresh appointments may be made to the Board under section 6.

(3) Despite section 7(5), the following provisions govern the appointment of a person to fill a casual vacancy that occurs in the office of a member referred to in subclause (2)(a):

(a) if the vacancy occurs within 12 months after the election at which the member was elected, and at that election a candidate or candidates were excluded, the Governor must appoint the person who was the last excluded candidate at that election;

(b) if that person is no longer qualified for appointment or is unavailable or unwilling to be appointed or if the vacancy occurs later than 12 months after the election at which the member was elected, the Governor may appoint, on the nomination of the Minister, a nurse or midwife;

(c) before nominating a person for appointment, the Minister must consult the representative bodies;

(d) the person appointed holds office for the balance of the term of that person's predecessor.

(4) Despite subclause (2)(b), a person may continue to act as a member of the Board for the purpose of continuing and completing proceedings (including an application for registration, enrolment or reinstatement) commenced under the repealed Act.

(5) If appointments are to be made to the Board pursuant to the Acts Interpretation Act 1915 prior to the commencement of clause 1 of this Schedule, for the purposes of section 6—

(a) a reference in that section to a nurse will, for those purposes, be taken to be a reference to a person who is registered on the register (other than that part of the register comprised of the midwives register), or who is an enrolled nurse, under the repealed Act at the relevant time; and

(b) a reference in that section to a midwife will, for those purposes, be taken to be a reference to a person who is registered on the midwives register under the repealed Act at the relevant time; and

(c) despite section 14C(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1915, such an appointment takes effect on the commencement of section 6 and not before.

3—Transitional provisions relating to registration and enrolment

(1) The general nurses register forming part of the register under the repealed Act continues in existence as the nurses register under this Act.

(2) The midwives register forming part of the register under the repealed Act continues in existence as the midwives register under this Act.

(3) The nurses roll under the repealed Act continues in existence as the nurses roll under this Act.
(4) A person who is registered under the repealed Act on the register (other than that part of the register comprised of the midwives register) immediately before the commencement of this clause will be taken to be registered under this Act on the nurses register and any restrictions, limitations or conditions that applied to the registration of the person under the repealed Act immediately before that commencement will be taken to continue to apply as conditions of the registration of the person as if they had been imposed by the Board under this Act.

(5) In addition to subclause (4), the registration of a person who is registered under the repealed Act on the special practice (nurse practitioners) register in a particular area of practice immediately before the commencement of this clause will be taken to be endorsed under this Act with—

(a) recognition as a nurse practitioner in the same area of practice; and

(b) an authorisation to prescribe prescription drugs.

(6) A person who is registered under the repealed Act on the midwives register immediately before the commencement of this clause will be taken to be registered under this Act on the midwives register and any restrictions, limitations or conditions that applied to the registration of the person under the repealed Act immediately before that commencement will be taken to continue to apply as conditions of the registration of the person as if they had been imposed by the Board under this Act.

(7) A person who is enrolled under the repealed Act on the nurses roll immediately before the commencement of this clause will be taken to be enrolled under this Act on the nurses roll and any restrictions, limitations or conditions that applied to the enrolment of the person under the repealed Act immediately before that commencement will be taken to continue to apply as conditions of the enrolment of the person as if they had been imposed by the Board under this Act.

(8) If a person who was removed from the register or nurses roll under the repealed Act for any reason and who had not, before the commencement of this clause, been reinstated on that register or nurses roll, applies for registration or enrolment under this Act, the Board may deal with the application as though it were an application for reinstatement on the appropriate register or the nurses roll under this Act.

(9) In this clause—

special practice (nurse practitioners) register means the part of the register maintained under the repealed Act for the area of nursing recognised by the Board as being the special practice area constituted of the scope of practice of nurse practitioners.

4—Transitional provision relating to students

Note—

Clause 4 had not come into operation at the date of the publication of this version.

A person who was, immediately before the commencement of this clause, enrolled in a course of study that provides qualifications for registration or enrolment under the repealed Act is, on due application to the Board, entitled to full registration on the registered nursing students or enrolled nursing students part of the students register.
5—Transitional provisions relating to completion of proceedings

(1) Disciplinary and other proceedings (including an application for registration, enrolment or reinstatement) commenced but not determined under the repealed Act before the commencement of this clause are to be determined as if they had been commenced under this Act (and for that purpose an application for registration or reinstatement on the special practice (nurse practitioners) register is to be treated as an application for endorsement of registration with recognition as a nurse practitioner in a particular area of practice and an authorisation to prescribe prescription drugs).

(2) Despite clause 2(2)(b), the Board may, in relation to particular proceedings commenced but not determined under the repealed Act before the commencement of this clause, continue and complete the proceedings as constituted for the purpose of those proceedings under the repealed Act (whether or not the Board as so constituted complies with a requirement of this Act in respect of the constitution of the Board for proceedings of the relevant kind).

(3) In this clause—

special practice (nurse practitioners) register means the part of the register maintained under the repealed Act for the area of nursing recognised by the Board as being the special practice area constituted of the scope of practice of nurse practitioners.

6—Regulations

The regulations may make other provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act.
