Transitional etc provisions associated with Act or amendments

Statutes Amendment (Budget 2010) Act 2010

64—Transitional provisions

- (1) The amendment to Schedule 1 of the Public Sector Act 2009 made by this Part does not affect an entitlement to long service leave or payment in lieu of long service leave that accrues before 1 July 2011 and, in relation to an employee who has, before that date, completed at least 15 years of service, any completed month of effective service occurring before that date for which long service leave has not yet accrued will be taken to give rise to an entitlement to 1.25 days of long service leave for each such month (but, subject to that entitlement and from that date, long service leave for the balance of that particular year of effective service will accrue at the rate of 0.75 days for each completed month of service).
- (2) The Governor may, by proclamation, declare that a specified provision of an enterprise agreement that relates to a particular class of public sector employees and provides for an entitlement to long service leave or payment in lieu of long service leave that is inconsistent with the standard set by subclause (1) of clause 7 of Schedule 1 of the Public Sector Act 2009 (as enacted by this Act) no longer applies from 1 July 2011.
- (3) A proclamation under subsection (2)—
 - (a) may make transitional or ancillary provisions that may be necessary or expedient in the circumstances; and
 - (b) will have effect according to its terms.

Statutes Amendment and Repeal (Budget 2012) Act 2012

33—Transitional provisions

- (1) In this section—

effective service has the same meaning as under clause 7 of Schedule 1 of the principal Act;

employee means a person to whom clause 7 of Schedule 1 of the principal Act applies but does not include a person who is excluded from an entitlement to skills and experience retention leave on account of regulations made under section 41 of the principal Act;

principal Act means the Public Sector Act 2009.

- (2) An employee who—

(a) during the 2011/2012 financial year has, or attains, 15 years of effective service; and

(b) is an employee on 1 July 2012, will qualify for an additional skills and experience retention leave entitlement under clause 7 of Schedule 1 of the principal Act equal to $\frac{1}{6}$ working days leave for each month of effective service completed during that financial year (being service as a long-term employee within the meaning of subclause (1a) of clause 7 of Schedule 1 of the principal Act as enacted by this Act).

- (3) Subclause (4c) of clause 7 of Schedule 1 of the principal Act as enacted by this Act applies subject to the qualification that no skills and experience retention leave entitlement will be lost under that subclause before 1 July 2018.

- (4) If—

(a) a regulation under section 41 of the principal Act applies Part 6 of Schedule 1 of the principal Act to any persons so as to provide for an entitlement constituted by a skills and experience retention leave entitlement; or

(b) a regulation is made under clause 9A of Schedule 1 of the principal Act (as enacted by this Act) in conjunction with a regulation referred to in paragraph (a); or

(c) a regulation is made under section 41 of the principal Act so as to exclude a class of persons from an entitlement to skills and experience retention leave, the regulation may, if the regulation so provides, take effect from 1 July 2012 (even if the enactment of this section, and the making of the regulation, occurs after that date).

- (5) The Governor may, by proclamation, make other transitional or ancillary provisions that may be necessary or expedient in connection with the provision of an entitlement to skills and experience retention leave under the principal Act or this section.

Statutes Amendment (South Australian Employment Tribunal) Act 2016

135—Transitional provisions

- (1) In this section—

principal Act means the Public Sector Act 2009;

PSGRC means the Public Sector Grievance Review Commission; relevant day means the day on which this Part comes into operation;

Tribunal means the South Australian Employment Tribunal.

- (2) A right to apply to PSGRC for a review of a decision under the principal Act in existence before the relevant day (and not exercised before that day) will be exercised as if this Part had been in operation before that right arose, so that the relevant proceedings may be commenced instead before the Tribunal.
- (3) Nothing in this section affects any proceedings before PSGRC commenced before the relevant day.
- (4) The Governor may, when the Governor thinks it is appropriate to do so, by proclamation, dissolve PSGRC.
- (5) When a proclamation is made under subsection (4) any member of PSGRC, or member of a panel constituted for the purposes of PSGRC, holding office at the time of the making of the proclamation will cease to hold office and any contract of employment, agreement or arrangement relating to the office held by that member is terminated by force of this subsection at the same time (and no right of action will arise against a Minister or the State on account of that termination).
- (6) A decision, direction or order of the Industrial Relations Commission of South Australia under the principal Act in force immediately before the relevant day will, on and from the relevant day, be taken to be a decision, direction or order of the Tribunal.
- (7) A right to make any application or referral, or to seek a review, with respect to any matter in existence before the relevant day, with the effect that the relevant proceedings would have been commenced before the Industrial Relations Commission of South Australia under the principal Act will be exercised as if this Part had been in operation before the right arose, so that the relevant proceedings may be commenced instead before the Tribunal.
- (8) Any proceedings before the Industrial Relations Commission of South Australia under the principal Act immediately before the relevant day will, subject to such directions as the President of the Tribunal thinks fit, be transferred to the Tribunal where they may proceed as if they had been commenced before that Tribunal.
- (9) The Tribunal may—
 - (a) receive in evidence any transcript of evidence in proceedings before the Industrial Relations Commission, and draw any conclusions of fact from that evidence that appear proper; and
 - (b) adopt any findings or determinations of the Industrial Relations Commission that may be relevant to proceedings before the Tribunal; and
 - (c) adopt or make any decision (including a decision in the nature of a determination), direction or order in relation to proceedings before the Industrial Relations Commission before the relevant day (including so as to make a decision or determination, or a direction or order, in relation to proceedings fully heard before the relevant day); and
 - (d) take other steps to promote or ensure the smoothest possible transition from 1 jurisdiction to another in connection with the operation of this section.
