Duty on other instruments

18. Where the duty with which any instrument is chargeable depends in any manner upon the duty paid upon another instrument, the payment of the last mentioned duty may, on production of both the instruments, be denoted in such manner as the Commissioner thinks fit upon the first mentioned instrument.

* * * * *

(4) If an instrument that is chargeable with stamp duty is not produced to the Commissioner for stamping within the period prescribed by this section, any person who executed the instrument, or on whose behalf it was executed, is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: $10 000.

- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply in relation to—

(7) The commission of an offence against subsection (4) does not affect the validity of the instrument in relation to which the offence was committed.

* * * * *

Admissibility of unstamped instruments in evidence

21. Upon the production of any instrument chargeable with duty as evidence in any civil proceedings in any part of South Australia, the officer whose duty it is to read the instrument shall call the attention of the presiding judge, special magistrate or justices to any omission or insufficiency of the stamp thereon.

Except as aforesaid no unstamped instrument to be received in evidence

22. No instrument chargeable with duty executed in any part of South Australia, or relating, wherever it was executed, to any property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in any part of South Australia, shall, except in criminal proceedings, be pleaded or given in evidence, or admitted to be good, useful or available at law or in equity, unless duly stamped.

Assessments and stamping of instruments

23. (1) If the result of an assessment relating to an instrument is that the instrument is not chargeable with duty, the instrument may be stamped by the Commissioner with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with duty.

* * * * *

Stamp Duties Act 1923

(2) If the result of an assessment relating to an instrument is that the instrument is chargeable with duty or further duty, the instrument is, on payment of any duty or further duty payable in respect of the instrument, to be stamped or further stamped in accordance with the assessment, and, when so stamped, may also be stamped by the Commissioner with a particular stamp denoting that it is duly stamped.

(3) If the result of an assessment relating to a stamped instrument is that duty or further duty is chargeable in respect of the instrument, the instrument is, from the date of the assessment until the duty or further duty is paid and the instrument is further stamped, to be taken to be insufficiently stamped, and this subsection applies despite the fact that the instrument has already been stamped, whether under this section or another provision of this Act, with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with duty or that it is duly stamped.

(4) Every instrument stamped with the particular stamp denoting either that it is not chargeable with duty or that it is duly stamped shall, subject to subsection (3), be admissible in evidence and shall be available for all purposes, notwithstanding any objection relating to duty.

(10) For the purposes of this Act, in determining the value of property transferred by a conveyance operating as a voluntary disposition inter vivos, no regard shall be had to the fact that the person to whom the property is transferred takes or is to hold the property subject to a trust or has a beneficial interest in the property.

(11) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act but subject to subsection (11a), the rate of duty chargeable in respect of a conveyance operating as a voluntary disposition inter vivos of a marketable security shall, if that conveyance is made in pursuance of sale, be the rate fixed by schedule 2 in respect of a conveyance or transfer on sale of a marketable security or, as the case may require, in respect of a return lodged pursuant to section 90D.

 - (iii) an interest in a partnership; and
- (b) (i) the transaction is not effected, or not wholly effected, by an instrument on which ad valorem duty is chargeable; but

Stamp Duties Act 1923

*LeasesAgreement for lease to be charged as a lease

72. An agreement for a lease or with respect to the letting of any lands shall be chargeable with the same duty as if it were an actual lease made for the term and consideration mentioned in the agreement.

Leases, how to be charged in respect of produce, etc.

73. (1) Where the consideration or any part of the consideration for which a lease is granted or agreed to be granted consists of any produce or other goods, the value of the produce or goods shall be deemed a consideration in respect of which the lease or agreement is chargeable with ad valorem duty.

(2) Where it is stipulated in any lease or agreement for a lease that the value of the produce or goods shall amount at least to, or shall not exceed, a given sum or where the lessee is specially charged with, or has the option of paying after, any permanent rate of conversion, the value of the produce or goods shall, for the purpose of assessing the ad valorem duty, be estimated at the given sum or according to the permanent rate.

(3) A lease or agreement for a lease made either wholly or partially for any such consideration, if it contains a statement of the value thereof and is stamped in accordance with the statement, shall, so far as regards the subject matter of the statement, be deemed duly stamped, unless or until it is otherwise shown that the statement is incorrect and that the lease or agreement is in fact not duly stamped.

Duty in respect of certain kinds of lease

74. (1) A lease or agreement for a lease or with respect to the letting of any lands shall not be chargeable with any duty in respect of any penal rent, or increased rent in the nature of a penal rent, thereby reserved or agreed to be reserved or made payable, or by reason of being made in consideration of the surrender or abandonment of any existing lease or agreement of, or relating to, the same subject matter.

(2) A lease made for any consideration in respect of which it is chargeable with ad valorem duty and in further consideration either of a covenant by the lessee to make, or of his having previously made, any substantial improvement of, or addition to, the property demised to him, or of any covenant relating to the subject matter of the lease, shall not be chargeable with any duty in respect of the further consideration.

Consideration for lease

75. (1) In this section—

"current market rent" for property means the consideration (including rent and any other form of valuable consideration) that a lessee might reasonably be expected to pay under a lease of the property, if it were unoccupied and offered for renting, expressed as a rate of rent per annum;

"lease" includes an agreement for a lease or any written document for the tenancy or occupancy of property;

"lessee" means the person who has the right to occupy property under a lease and includes a prospective lessee under an agreement for a lease;

"property" means land or a tenement.

(2) If the rent or any other consideration payable by the lessee under a lease of property cannot be ascertained or estimated at the time that the lease is lodged with the Commissioner for stamping (whether because the consideration depends on some future contingency or for any other reason), the Commissioner may assess the duty payable based on the current market rent for the property as if the current market rent were the rate or average rate of rent per annum under the lease and there were no other consideration payable under the lease.

(3) If the consideration payable by the lessee under a lease of property can be ascertained or estimated at the time that the lease is lodged with the Commissioner for stamping but the duty that may be charged on the instrument (whether as a lease or a conveyance on sale or both) apart from this section is less than the duty that would be payable based on the current market rent for the property, the Commissioner may assess the duty payable based on the current market rent as if the current market rent were the rate or average rate of rent per annum under the lease and there were no other consideration payable under the lease.

(4) For the purposes of this section, the Commissioner may—

- (a) cause a valuation to be made of any property that is the subject of a lease for the purpose of determining the current market rent for the property; and
- (b) having regard to the merits of the case, charge the whole or a part of the expenses of, or incidental to, the making of the valuation to the person liable to pay the duty and may recover the amount charged as a debt due to the Crown.

Stamp Duties Act 1923

Where mortgage consists of several instruments

77. If several instruments are necessary to make a mortgage and duty would, but for this section, be chargeable on more than one of those instruments, the duty shall be chargeable upon the principal instrument only and the other instruments shall not be liable to any duty, and the parties, with the approval of the Commissioner, may decide which is the principal instrument.

Security for stock, how to be charged

78. A security for the transfer or retransfer of any stock shall be chargeable with the same duty as a similar security for a sum of money equal in amount to the value of the stock; and a transfer or assignment of any such security shall be chargeable with the same duty as an instrument of the same description relating to a sum of money equal in amount to the value of the stock.

Mortgage securing future and contingent liabilities

79. (1) A mortgage that extends to future or contingent liabilities is, if limited to a particular amount, chargeable with duty as if it were a security for that amount.

(2) A mortgage that extends to future or contingent liabilities is, if not limited to a particular amount, chargeable with duty as follows:

- (a) the mortgage is chargeable, in the first instance, with duty on the basis of an estimate of the highest amount to be secured (to be made on the assumption that all contingencies to which the mortgage or the liability is subject will actually happen); and
- (b) if the amount of the liability secured by the mortgage subsequently exceeds the amount for which the mortgage has been previously stamped, the mortgage becomes chargeable with further duty as from the date when the liability was first exceeded and the amount of that further duty is to be calculated as follows:
 - (i) a fresh estimate is to be made in accordance with this section of the highest amount to be secured; and
 - (ii) duty is then to be calculated on the basis of that estimate and in all other respects as if the mortgage were a new and separate instrument made on the date when the liability was first exceeded; and
 - (iii) the further duty is then to be calculated by subtracting the amount of duty already paid from the amount of duty calculated under subparagraph (ii),

(but this paragraph does not apply if the liability is wholly or partly denominated in a foreign currency and the amount for which the mortgage has been previously stamped is exceeded solely because of fluctuations in the rate of exchange).

(3) If a mortgage is chargeable with duty under subsection (2), the parties must, on submitting the mortgage for stamping or further stamping, make a fair estimate of the highest amount to be secured (to be made on the assumption that all contingencies to which the mortgage or the liability is subject will actually happen).

(4) The Commissioner may accept the parties' estimate of the highest amount to be secured or, if dissatisfied with that estimate, substitute the Commissioner's own estimate of that amount, for the purposes of determining the amount of duty or further duty with which the mortgage is chargeable.

(5) The Commissioner has a discretion, in the case of a mortgage securing a contingent liability, to permit the mortgage to be stamped for an amount that is less than the full amount of that liability, but, if the contingency subsequently happens, further duty becomes chargeable on the mortgage as from the date of the happening of the contingency and the amount of that further duty is to be calculated as follows:

- (a) duty is to be calculated on the mortgage on the basis of the full amount of the liability as if the mortgage were a new and separate instrument made on the date of the happening of the contingency; and
- (b) the further duty is then to be calculated by subtracting the amount of duty already paid from the amount of duty calculated under paragraph (a).

(6) If a mortgage for an unlimited amount is registered under the Real Property Act 1886, a discharge of the mortgage may not be registered unless the instrument of discharge is endorsed with a certificate by the mortgagee, an officer, agent or employee of the mortgagee, or some other person approved for the purposes of this subsection by the Commissioner—

- (a) stating the highest amount that was secured during the currency of the mortgage; and
- (b) stating that the mortgage has been duly stamped.

(7) If a certificate under subsection (6) is false, the mortgagee and the person by whom the certificate was signed are each guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

(8) In this section references to an amount secured or to be secured by a mortgage are, if the mortgage secures both principal and interest or principal, interest, and rates taxes or other recurrent charges in respect of land, to be read as references to the principal only.

Security for repayment by periodical payments, how to be charged

80. A security for the payment of any rentcharge, annuity or other periodical payment, by way of repayment or in satisfaction or discharge of any loan, advance or payment intended to be so repaid, satisfied or discharged, shall be chargeable with the same duty as a similar security for the payment of the sum of money so lent, advanced or paid.

Transfers and further charges

81. (1) No transfer of a duly stamped security and no security by way of further charge for money or stock added to money or stock previously secured by a duly stamped instrument shall be chargeable with any duty by reason of containing any further or additional security for the money or stock transferred or previously secured, or the interest or dividends thereon, or any new covenant, proviso, power, stipulation or agreement in relation thereto or any further assurance of the property comprised in the transferred or previous security.

(2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if the security is over, or relates to, land that is subject to the provisions of the Real Property Act 1886.

Duty may be denoted in certain cases by adhesive stamps

81A. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the duty on a security by way of mortgage, bond, debenture or covenant securing the payment or repayment of an amount not exceeding $4 000 may be denoted by an adhesive stamp affixed in accordance with the regulations.

(2) This section does not apply in respect of a security by way of mortgage for the payment or repayment of moneys that may become due on an account current unless—

Stamp Duties Act 1923

- (a) where the total amount secured or to be ultimately recoverable is limited—the amount so limited does not exceed $4 000; or
- (b) where the total amount secured or to be ultimately recoverable is not limited—the total amount actually secured or recoverable does not exceed $4 000.

Duty chargeable proportioned to value of South Australian property

81B. (1) A security that creates a charge on property in South Australia and property outside South Australia may, subject to this section, be stamped for less than the full amount ad valorem duty otherwise appropriate to the amount secured.

(2) The amount for which the security is stamped must however be sufficient to satisfy the following formula:

$$\frac{A_1}{A_2} \geq \frac{V_1}{V_2}$$

Where

- A_1 is the amount for which the security is stamped
- A_2 is the amount on which ad valorem duty would, apart from this section, be chargeable
- V_1 is the value of property situated in South Australia
- V_2 is the total value of the property subject to the security.

(3) A security stamped under this section is available as a security on property situated in South Australia for such amount only as the ad valorem duty denoted on the security extends to cover.

(4) If a security does not create a charge on property in South Australia it may be stamped with a stamp indicating that no ad valorem duty is payable.

Duty paid upon one mortgage may be denoted as having been paid upon another mortgage

81C. (1) The Commissioner may, upon the application of a party to a mortgage upon which duty has been paid, authorise the whole or a part of the duty paid upon the mortgage to be denoted as having been paid upon some other mortgage or mortgages if he is satisfied, upon the basis of such evidence as he may require—

- (a) that the duty was paid upon the first mentioned mortgage instead of the other mortgage or mortgages as a result of an error on the part of a party to the mortgage or his agent; and
- (b) that the parties to the first mentioned mortgage are the same as the parties to the other mortgage or mortgages; and
- (c) that the first mentioned mortgage has not been acted upon or relied upon in any way as a security.

(2) An application under subsection (1) must—

- (a) be made in a form approved by the Commissioner; and

(b) be made not later than three months after the date on which duty was paid upon the first mentioned mortgage; and

(c) be accompanied by the prescribed charge.

(3) The Commissioner may, upon an application under subsection (1), if he thinks it just to do so, waive payment of the prescribed charge.

(4) The Commissioner may require any evidence given in support of an application under subsection (1) to be verified by statutory declaration.

(5) Duty shall not be denoted as having been paid upon the other mortgage or mortgages in pursuance of subsection (1) unless the original and every copy of the first mentioned mortgage stamped under this Act has been produced to the Commissioner and dealt with in accordance with the regulations.

(6) For the purposes of this section—

(a) mortgagees that are related corporations shall be regarded as one and the same person; and

(b) corporations are related if they are related for the purposes of the Corporations Law.

Refinancing of primary producers' loans

81D. (1) If the Commissioner is satisfied—

(a) that a mortgage over land (the "new mortgage") provides for the refinancing of a loan secured by a previous mortgage (whether or not with the same mortgagee) that is being fully discharged; and

(b) that both the new mortgage and the previous mortgage apply to the same, or substantially the same, land; and

(c) that the land is used wholly or mainly for the business of primary production and is not less than 0.8 hectares in area; and

(d) that the sole or principal business of the mortgagor is the business of primary production; and

(e) that the mortgagor under both mortgages is the same person, and is not a public company or a subsidiary of a public company, duty is not chargeable on so much of the amount under the new mortgage as secures the balance outstanding under the previous mortgage.

(2) The Commissioner may require a party to a mortgage in respect of which a benefit is claimed under this section to provide such information or evidence as the Commissioner may require for the purpose of determining whether the mortgage is entitled to that benefit.

(3) The Commissioner may require the information or evidence to be given on oath or verified by statutory declaration.

Refinancing of loan due to rural branch closure

81E. (1) If the Commissioner is satisfied—

- (a) that a mortgage over property with a financial institution as mortgagee (the "new mortgage") provides for the refinancing of a loan secured by a previous mortgage (with another financial institution as mortgagee) that is being fully discharged; and
- (b) that both the new mortgage and the previous mortgage apply to the same, or substantially the same, property; and
- (c) that the sole or principal reason for refinancing the loan is the closure of a branch office (situated in a town, township or settlement outside Metropolitan Adelaide) of the financial institution that was the mortgagee under the previous mortgage; and
- (d) that the financial institution that was the mortgagee under the previous mortgage does not have another branch office in the same town, township or settlement; and
- (e) that the mortgagee under the new mortgage is a financial institution with a branch office—
 - (i) in the same town, township or settlement as the closing branch office; or
 - (ii) if no financial institution has a branch office in that town, township or settlement—in the next closest town, township or settlement (outside Metropolitan Adelaide) in which a branch office of a financial institution is situated; and
- (f) that the mortgagor under both mortgages is the same person, duty is not chargeable on so much of the amount under the new mortgage as was subjected to the payment of duty under the previous mortgage.

(2) The Commissioner may require a party to a mortgage in respect of which a benefit is claimed under this section to provide such information or evidence as the Commissioner may require for the purpose of determining whether the mortgage is entitled to that benefit.

(3) The Commissioner may require the information or evidence to be given on oath or verified by statutory declaration.

(3) If—

- (a) stamp duty is paid on a caveat in respect of a mortgage that has not been stamped; and
- (b) the mortgage is subsequently produced for stamping, the mortgage is not chargeable with duty to the extent to which duty in respect of the mortgage has been paid on the caveat.

whichever of the amounts under paragraph (a) or (b) results in the greater amount, unless the Commissioner determines, after consideration of the circumstances of the case, and where the calculation under paragraph (b) results in the greater amount, that the amount of the entitlement should be calculated under paragraph (a).

(6) Where—

- (a) a person acquires an interest in a private company or scheme; and
- (b) the company or scheme is entitled to real property; and
- (c) the circumstances of the case are such that had the real property been conveyed by the company or scheme to the person at the time of the acquisition, the conveyance would have been exempt from ad valorem duty,

then—

- (d) that property will not be taken into account for the purpose of determining whether a statement must be lodged under this Part in respect of the acquisition; and
 - (e) if such a statement must be lodged, the value of that property will not be taken into account for the purpose of determining the duty chargeable under this Part.
- (7) A private company or scheme does not own property beneficially by virtue only—

- (d) the acquisition is effected by an agreement, conveyance or transfer exempt from ad valorem duty under another provision of this Act, other than section 90V; or

Statement of acquisition of certain interests in a private company or scheme

94. (1) If—

- (a) a person—

- (b) those shares or units are allotted to the person as part of an allotment of shares or units to all shareholders or unitholders in the private company or scheme in proportion to their respective interests in the company or scheme; and
- (c) the allotment does not have the effect of varying, abrogating or altering the rights of the person as against the rights of the other shareholders or unitholders, the person is not required, by virtue of that allotment of shares or units, to lodge a statement under this section.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), if a person acquires an interest in a private company or scheme and within two years before or after the acquisition became or becomes entitled to a right to acquire a further interest in the company or scheme, and that right is exercised, the person will be taken to have acquired that further interest within the period of two years after the first mentioned acquisition, notwithstanding that the right is exercised after the expiration of that period.

- (a) the maximum percentage of the property of the private company or scheme to which the person required to lodge the statement, or that person together with any related person, would be entitled on a winding up of the private company or scheme by virtue of the acquisition of that interest (and no other) immediately after the acquisition of the interest (otherwise than as a creditor or other person to whom the private company or scheme was liable at the time of the acquisition) in a distribution of the property of the private company or scheme; and
- (b) the basis and method of calculation of that percentage.

Assessment and payment of duty—private company or scheme

95. (1) This Act applies (and duty will be assessed) in relation to a statement lodged under section 94 as if the statement were a conveyance operating as a voluntary disposition inter vivos of property of a value equal to—

- (a) where there have been no prior acquisitions of interests in the private company or scheme—the amount calculated by multiplying the unencumbered value of all real property in South Australia to which the private company or scheme is entitled at the date of the relevant acquisition by the percentage of the interest acquired by the relevant acquisition; or
- (b) where there have been one or more prior acquisitions of interests in the private company or scheme—the aggregate of—
 - (i) in respect of the relevant acquisition—the amount calculated by multiplying the unencumbered value of all real property in South Australia to which the private company or scheme is entitled at the date of the relevant acquisition by the percentage of the interest acquired by the relevant acquisition; and
 - (ii) in respect of each prior acquisition—each amount calculated by multiplying the unencumbered value (as at the date of the prior acquisition) of all real property in South Australia to which the private company or scheme was entitled at the date of the prior acquisition by the percentage of the interest acquired by the prior acquisition.

(2) The duty chargeable under this section will be reduced by the sum of the duty, if any, paid—

- (a) under this Part in respect of a prior acquisition; and
- (b) under a corresponding law in respect of the relevant acquisition or a prior acquisition; and
- (c) on any instrument which effects, acknowledges, evidences or records the acquisition of—
 - (i) the relevant acquisition; or
 - (ii) any prior acquisition in respect of which duty under this Part has not previously been paid.

Stamp Duties Act 1923

(3) If the Commissioner is satisfied that it would not be just and reasonable in the circumstances, the Commissioner may determine that an amount calculated in accordance with subsection (1)(b)(ii) and specified in the Commissioner's determination will not be aggregated for the purposes of this section.

(4) If duty is chargeable under this section on a statement in respect of a relevant acquisition acquired by a person and any prior acquisition acquired by a related person, the person and the related person are jointly and severally liable for the payment of the duty.

Statement of acquisition of land use entitlement

96. (1) If a person acquires a land use entitlement in a private company or scheme, the person must lodge with the Commissioner a statement in respect of the acquisition.

(2) A statement under this section must be lodged within two months after the interest is acquired, or within such longer period as the Commissioner may approve in writing.

(3) The statement must be in a form approved by the Commissioner and must contain the following information:

- (a) the name and address of the person who has acquired the land use entitlement; and
- (b) the title reference of the real property to which the land use entitlement applies; and
- (c) the date of acquisition of the land use entitlement; and
- (d) the unencumbered value of the real property to which the land use entitlement applies as at the date of acquisition; and
- (e) the same information as is specified in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) in respect of each prior land use entitlement acquired in relation to the private company or scheme by the person or a related person; and
- (f) the amount of duty paid in respect of the acquisition of each such prior land use entitlement; and
- (g) such other information as may be required by the Commissioner.

Assessment and payment of duty—land use entitlement

97. (1) This Act applies (and duty will be assessed) in relation to a statement lodged under section 96 as if the statement were a conveyance operating as a voluntary disposition inter vivos of property of a value equal to the unencumbered value of the real property the subject of the land use entitlement as at the date of acquisition aggregated with the unencumbered value of any real property which is the subject of any prior land use entitlement as at the date of acquisition of the prior land use entitlement.

(2) The duty chargeable under this section will be reduced by the sum of the duty, if any, paid—

- (a) under this Part in respect of a prior land use entitlement; and
- (b) under a corresponding law in respect of the acquisition of the land use entitlement or any prior land use entitlement; and
- (c) on any instrument which effects, acknowledges, evidences or records the acquisition of—

- (i) the land use entitlement; or
- (ii) any prior land use entitlement in respect of which duty under this Part has not previously been paid.

(3) If the Commissioner is satisfied that it would not be just and reasonable in the circumstances, the Commissioner may determine that a value referred to in subsection (1) will not be aggregated for the purposes of this section.

(4) If duty is chargeable under this section on a statement in respect of a land use entitlement acquired by a person and any prior land use entitlement acquired by a related person, the person and the related person are jointly and severally liable for the payment of the duty.

Special allowance for certain financial arrangements

98. (1) If—

- (a) the Commissioner is informed at the time that a person lodges a statement under section 94 or 96 that the relevant acquisition or the acquisition of the land use entitlement (as the case may be) has been effected for the purpose of securing financial accommodation; and
- (b) the Commissioner is satisfied that the acquisition has been effected for that purpose, the statement is not, insofar as it relates to that acquisition, chargeable with duty to the extent provided by subsection (2).

(2) The statement will be chargeable with duty at the expiration of the period of five years after the date of the particular acquisition (or such longer period as may be determined by the Commissioner in a particular case) unless, within that period (or such longer period)—

- (a) the interest or land use entitlement is reacquired by the person from whom it was acquired; or
- (b) in the case of an acquisition on account of a mortgagee exercising a power of sale—the interest or land use entitlement is conveyed by the mortgagee to a third person in exercise of that power of sale.

(3) Sections 94 and 96 do not apply to the reacquisition by a person of an interest in a private company or scheme, or the reacquisition of a land use entitlement.

Valuation of real property

99. (1) The Commissioner may—

- (a) require a person who is required to lodge statement under this Part to furnish a further statement in a form approved by the Commissioner concerning the unencumbered value of any real property, or such other evidence of that value as the Commissioner thinks fit; and
- (b) assess duty in accordance with that evidence of value.

(2) If the Commissioner is not satisfied with the evidence of value furnished under subsection (1), the Commissioner may assess the duty chargeable on the basis of a valuation made at the request of the Commissioner by a person appointed by the Commissioner.

Stamp Duties Act 1923

- (b) in the case of a statement under section 96—the date of the acquisition of the land use entitlement.

(2) If a statement is not lodged as required under section 94 or 96, the person or persons who would have been liable to pay duty on the statement if lodged are nevertheless liable to pay the duty as if the statement had been lodged immediately before the end of the period allowed for such lodgement.

Notice may be registered on title

101. (1) If, in relation to the acquisition of an interest or a land use entitlement in a private company or scheme—

- (a) a statement has been lodged with the Commissioner under this Part, or should have been so lodged; and
- (b) the Commissioner has made an assessment of the duty chargeable under this Part in respect of the acquisition and any penalty tax and interest payable under Part 5 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996 in relation to the duty; and
- (c) the assessment has not been paid or has not been paid in full,

the Commissioner may, in relation to all or any of the real property to which the private company or scheme is entitled in South Australia, deliver to the Registrar-General a notice, in a form determined by the Registrar-General, setting out the amount of the assessment.

(2) On receipt of a notice under subsection (1), the Registrar-General will, in relation to any real property referred to in the notice, enter in the Register Book the amount of the assessment.

(3) While an entry referred to in subsection (2) is in the Register Book, the Registrar-General must not register an instrument affecting the real property to which the entry relates unless—

- (a) the instrument—
 - (i) was executed before the entry was made; or
 - (ii) has been executed under or pursuant to an agreement entered into before the entry was made; or
 - (iii) relates to an instrument registered before the entry was made;
- (b) the instrument is an instrument of a prescribed class;
- (c) the Commissioner consents to the registration in writing;
- (d) the instrument is expressed to be subject to the operation of the notice under this section;

- (e) the instrument is a duly stamped conveyance—
 - (i) that results from a sale of the real property under section 103; or
 - (ii) that results from the exercise of a power of sale under a mortgage, charge or encumbrance in existence before the entry was made.

(4) An instrument registered under subsection (3)(a), (b) or (c) has effect, in relation to the entry, as if it had been registered before the entry was made.

(5) If an instrument is registered under subsection (3)(e), the entry will be taken to be cancelled by the registration of the instrument and the Registrar-General must make the appropriate entries to give effect to the cancellation.

(6) If the duty in respect of which an entry has been made in the Register Book is paid, the Commissioner must deliver to the Registrar-General a notice to that effect.

(7) The Commissioner may, notwithstanding that the duty in respect of which an entry has been made in the Register Book has not been paid, discharge or vary a notice given under subsection (1) (although the Commissioner may only vary a notice by releasing real property from the operation of the notice).

(8) On receipt of a notice under subsection (6) or (7), the Registrar-General will, according to the terms of the notice, cancel or vary any relevant entry in the Register Book (and the real property to which that notice relates then ceases to be subject to the operation of this section).

(9) Where the Commissioner delivers a notice to the Registrar-General under this section, the Commissioner must send a copy of the notice to the registered proprietor of the real property to which the notice relates with a direction that the registered proprietor must immediately send a copy of the notice to each person that the registered proprietor believes may be affected by the operation of this section.

(10) The registered proprietor must not fail to comply with a direction in a notice under subsection (9).

Penalty: $1 000.

(11) Nothing in this section affects a person's ability to lodge with the Registrar-General a caveat relating to any real property referred to in a notice under this section.

Charge on real property

102. If an entry is made in the Register Book under section 101 in relation to the certificate of title of any real property, the duty to which the relevant notice relates is a charge on the real property and the charge continues in force until the duty is paid, or the entry is cancelled (whichever first occurs).

Power of sale

103. (1) If—

- (a) an entry has been made under section 101 in relation to the certificate of title of real property; and
- (b) the assessment referred to in that section has not been paid, or has not been paid in full, at the expiration of six months from the date of the making of the assessment,

Stamp Duties Act 1923

the Commissioner may publish in the Gazette a notice in which the Commissioner—

- (c) sets out a brief description of the real property and the amount of duty payable; and
- (d) states that if the duty is not paid within three months from the publication of the notice, the Commissioner will apply to the Supreme Court for an order for the sale of the real property.

(2) A copy of a notice under subsection (1) must be sent to the registered proprietor of the real property to which the notice relates, and to any other person with a registered interest in the property.

(3) The Commissioner may, if the duty is not paid in full within the three month period referred to in subsection (1), apply to the Supreme Court for an order for the sale of the real property to which the notice under that subsection relates.

(4) The Supreme Court may, on an application under subsection (3), make an order for the sale of the real property.

(5) Any money received in respect of the sale of real property under subsection (4) will be applied as follows:

- (a) firstly—in paying the costs of the sale and any other costs incurred in proceeding under this section; and
- (b) secondly—in discharging any liabilities secured by any instrument registered before the entry was made under section 101(2), or that is taken to have such effect by virtue of section 101(4); and
- (c) thirdly—in payment of the duty assessed; and
- (d) fourthly—in discharging any other liabilities secured by registered instrument; and
- (e) fifthly—in discharging any other liabilities secured by unregistered instrument of which the Commissioner has notice; and
- (f) sixthly—in discharging any liability to the Crown for rates or taxes, or any other prescribed liability to the Crown in respect of the land; and
- (g) seventhly—in payment to the registered proprietor of the real property at the time of the sale.

(6) Where real property is sold in pursuance of this section, a conveyance executed by an officer of the Supreme Court nominated by the Court will, on registration or enrolment, operate to vest title to the real property in the purchaser.

(7) The title vested in the purchaser will be free of—

- (a) any charge under this Part; and
- (b) all other liabilities discharged under subsection (5); and
- (c) any other liability that may exist on account of any mortgage, charge or encumbrance.

(8) The Registrar-General must, on production of a conveyance executed under subsection (6), register the conveyance and, notwithstanding The Real Property Act 1886 production of the duplicate certificate of title will not be required (but, if the duplicate certificate of title is not produced, the Registrar-General will cancel the existing certificate of title and issue a new certificate in the name of the transferee).

Substituted service

104. If the Commissioner cannot, after making reasonable inquiries, ascertain the address of a person to whom a notice is to be sent under section 101 or 103, the Commissioner may effect service of the notice by—

- (a) placing a copy of the notice in a newspaper circulating generally in the State; and
- (b) causing a copy of the notice to be left in a conspicuous place on the real property to which the notice relates.

Reassessment of duty in certain cases

105. (1) If a person, under or by virtue of an agreement, acquires an interest or a land use entitlement in a private company or scheme, and the agreement is subsequently rescinded, annulled or otherwise terminated (except by completion)—

- (a) any obligation to lodge a statement under this Part on account of the acquisition, or to include the acquisition in a statement under this Part, ceases; and
- (b) if the acquisition has been included in a statement under this Part, the Commissioner may, on his or her own initiative or on application to the Commissioner in a form approved by the Commissioner, assess or reassess the liability to duty under this Part as if the interest or land use entitlement had never existed.

(2) If a private company or scheme, by virtue of an agreement, is entitled to property, and the agreement is subsequently rescinded, annulled or otherwise terminated (except by completion)—

- (a) any obligation to lodge a statement under this Part on account of the ownership of that property by the company or scheme, or to include that property in a statement under this Part, ceases; and
- (b) if the property has been included in a statement under this Part, the Commissioner may, on his or her own initiative or on application to the Commissioner in a form approved by the Commissioner, assess or reassess the liability to duty under this Part as if the private company or scheme had never been entitled to the property.

- (a) the payment will be taken to be made on behalf of the person who acquired the interest or land use entitlement; and
