3A—Principles for determining territorial relationship

- (1) An instrument relates to property situated in a particular jurisdiction if it—
- (a) creates, transfers, redeems, renounces, surrenders, cancels or extinguishes an interest in property situated in the relevant jurisdiction; or
 - (b) deals with an interest in property situated in the relevant jurisdiction in any other way; or
 - (c) acknowledges, evidences or records a transaction to which paragraph (a) or (b) refers.
- (2) A potential, contingent, expectant or other inchoate interest is to be regarded as an interest in property in a particular jurisdiction if the realisation of the potentiality, contingency or expectancy, or the occurrence of any act or event necessary to perfect the interest could result in—
- (a) an interest in property situated in that jurisdiction; or
 - (b) an interest in the proceeds of the sale of property situated in that jurisdiction.

- (3) For the purpose of calculating duty on an instrument that relates to a potential, contingent, expectant or other inchoate interest—
- (a) the interest is to be treated as an actual interest ie as if the potentiality, contingency or expectancy had been realised or anything necessary to perfect the interest had occurred; and
 - (b) if the interest is dependent in any way on the exercise of a discretion or any other contingency, it will be presumed that the discretion has been exercised, or the contingency has been realised, so as to give rise to the greatest possible liability to duty in this State.
- (4) An interest in property is taken to be situated in the jurisdiction in which the property to which the interest relates is situated.

3B—Territorial application of Act

- (1) This Act applies in respect of an instrument that relates to property situated, or a matter or thing to be done, in South Australia irrespective of whether—
- (a) the instrument is within or outside South Australia; or

- (3) The Commissioner is to determine proportions for the purposes of subsection (2) having regard to—

 - (b) where the private entity is a private unit trust—a unit in the trust.
- (2) Property is taken to be held beneficially by a private unit trust scheme if it is held by the trustees of the scheme in trust for the unitholders.
 - (3) If an interest that is to be valued for the purposes of this Division is the potential interest of an object of a discretionary trust, the interest is to be valued as if it were the greatest beneficial interest in the property subject to the trust that could be conferred under the terms of the trust.

71EB—Direct interests

- (1) A person has a direct interest in a private entity if the person holds a share in the private entity.
- (2) A direct interest is to be expressed as a proportionate interest.
- (3) The proportionate interest is the highest of the following:
 - (a) a percentage representing the proportion of votes that the person would be entitled to exercise (or control) at a general meeting of shareholders or unitholders assuming that all shareholders or unitholders exercised their voting rights;
 - (b) a percentage representing the extent the person is entitled to participate in dividends or distributions of income;
 - (c) a percentage representing the extent to which the person would be entitled to participate in distribution of assets on a winding up of the private entity.

- (4) The proportionate interest of a person is to be determined as if any power that the person has to increase the extent of an interest (by varying the constituent documents of the private entity or in any other way) had been exercised so as to maximise the relevant interest in the private entity.

71EC—Related entities

- (1) Two private entities are related entities if—
 - (a) one has a direct interest in the other; or
 - (b) a series of such relationships can be traced between them through another or other related entities (intermediate entities).
- (2) If a private entity is related to another private entity by a relationship traced through an intermediate entity or intermediate entities, the private entity's proportionate interest in the other is calculated by multiplying the relevant fractions together and expressing the result as a percentage.

Example—

Entity A (a private company) holds a 75% proportionate interest in entity B (a private unit trust scheme) which in turn holds a 50% proportionate interest in entity C (a private company). In this case, the proportionate interest of entity A in entity C (insofar as it is traced through entity B) is 37.5%.

71ED—Indirect interests

- (1) If a person has a direct interest in a private entity (entity A) which is related to another private entity (entity B), the person has an indirect interest in entity B.
- (2) An indirect interest is to be expressed as a proportionate interest.
- (3) The proportionate interest is calculated by multiplying together—
 - (a) a fraction representing the person's proportionate interest in entity A; and
 - (b) a fraction representing entity A's proportionate interest in entity B,and expressing the result as a percentage.

Example—

X holds a proportionate interest of 33⅓% in entity A (a private company) which in turn holds a 75% proportionate interest in entity B (a private unit trust scheme) which in turn holds a 50% proportionate interest in entity C (a private company). In this case X's indirect interest in entity C is to be expressed as a proportionate interest of 12.5%

71EE—Notional interests

- (1) If a private entity owns a gaming machine business or an interest in a gaming machine business, a person who holds a direct or indirect interest in the private entity is taken to have a notional interest in the gaming machine business.
- (2) The value of the notional interest is calculated as follows:

$$V = p \times v_1$$

where—

p is a fraction representing the person's proportionate interest in the private entity;

v_j is the value of the gaming machine business or the interest in the gaming machine business (as the case requires).

71EF—Application of this Division

- (1) This Division applies to the following transactions—
 - (a) the transfer of an interest in a gaming machine business; or
 - (b) the transfer of a notional interest in a gaming machine business.
- (2) A transfer includes any transaction as a result of which the amount or value of the interest or notional interest of a person (the transferor) in a gaming machine business is diminished or extinguished and another person (the transferee) gains an interest or notional interest in the gaming machine business or the transferee's interest or notional interest increases in amount or value.

Example—

Suppose that a gaming machine business is operated by a private entity. The shares of a particular person in the private entity are redeemed or cancelled. This transaction is to be regarded as a transfer of the shareholder's notional interest to the remaining shareholders because their respective notional interests are increased by the value of the notional interest that has been extinguished by the redemption or cancellation.

- (3) However, a transfer does not include—
 - (a) a transaction by way of mortgage; or
 - (b) a transaction between members of the same family group by way of gift; or
 - (c) a transaction between members of the same family group for which there is no consideration of a commercial nature.

71EG—Imposition of surcharge

- (1) A gaming machine surcharge is imposed on a transaction to which this Division applies.
- (2) The surcharge is in addition to any other duty payable under this Act in respect of the transaction.
- (3) The surcharge is calculated as follows:

$$A = p \times 0.05 \times NGR$$

where—

A is the amount of the surcharge

p is —

- (a) if the whole of the gaming machine business is transferred—1;
- (b) in any other case—a fraction representing the relationship between the value of the interest or notional interest transferred and the value of the gaming machine business

NGR is the net gambling revenue derived from the business for the last 12 complete calendar months before the date of the transaction or, if the business was not carried on during that period or for the whole of that period, an amount determined by the Liquor and Gambling Commissioner to be reasonable having regard to net gambling revenue derived during that period from similar businesses.

71EH—Exempt transactions

- (1) A transaction is exempt from the surcharge if—
 - (a) no liability to duty is imposed (apart from this Division) in respect of the transaction (or an instrument by which it is effected); or
 - (b) the transaction is effected by a conveyance that is exempt from ad valorem duty under this Act.
- (2) The regulations may exempt transactions of a specified class from the surcharge.

71EI—Notice of transaction to which this Division applies

- (1) If a transaction to which this Division applies occurs, the parties to the transaction must within 2 months after the date of the transaction—
 - (a) lodge a return with the Commissioner; and
 - (b) pay the relevant amount of the surcharge.

Maximum penalty: $10 000.

- (2) The return must be in a form approved by the Commissioner and contain the following information—
 - (a) the names and addresses of the parties to the transaction; and
 - (b) the date of the transaction; and
 - (c) particulars of the transaction and the interest or notional interest transferred as a result of the transaction; and
 - (d) sufficient details to enable the calculation of the fraction representing the relationship between the value of the interest or notional interest transferred and the value of the gaming machine business; and
 - (e) details of the net gambling revenue for the last 12 calendar months before the date of the transaction; and
 - (f) other information required by the Commissioner.

71EJ—Recovery of duty

- (1) The Commissioner may recover a surcharge payable on a transaction to which this Division applies as a debt—
 - (a) from a party to the transaction; or
 - (b) if the relevant gaming machine business is owned by a private entity—from the private entity.
- (2) If the Commissioner recovers the surcharge from a private entity, the private entity may recover the relevant amount from the parties to the transaction.

Division 8—Transactions effected without creating dutiable instrument

71E—Transactions otherwise than by dutiable instrument

 - (i) land; or
 - (ii) —
 - (A) a business situated in the State; or
 - (B) a part of a business (being a business situated in the State), excluding goods that are stock-in-trade of a business where the transaction occurs in the ordinary course of business, where the transaction is associated with, or is for the purposes of, a change in the ownership of a legal or equitable interest in the business (including a case where a business is being divided up into separate parts and then those parts are being transferred to one or more persons as part of one transaction or one series of transactions); or
 - (iii) an interest in a partnership; and
 - (b) —
 - (i) the transaction is not effected, or not wholly effected, by an instrument on which ad valorem duty is chargeable; but
 - (ii) if the transaction had been effected, or wholly effected, by an instrument, the instrument would be chargeable with duty as a conveyance or as if it were a conveyance.
- (1a) For the purposes of this section (and for the calculation of the value of any property), a change in the ownership of a legal or equitable interest in a business will be taken to include a transfer of the goodwill of the business.

Part 3—Special provisions with respect to certain stamp duties

Division 8—Transactions effected without creating dutiable instrument

- (d) a statement of any consideration that has passed or is to pass between the parties to the transaction.
- (4) Duty is payable on the statement as if it were a conveyance effecting the transaction to which it relates.
- (4a) A statement under this section will, for the purposes of this Act, be taken to be an instrument executed by the person required to lodge the statement on the date of the change in legal or equitable ownership of property effected by the transaction to which the statement relates.
- (5) Where a statement is lodged with the Commissioner under this section—
 - (a) any instrument that relates to the same transaction is not chargeable with duty to the extent to which duty has been paid on the statement; and
 - (b) the statement will not be charged with duty to the extent that duty has been paid on any instrument that relates to the same transaction.
- (6) If a statement relating to a transaction to which this section applies is not lodged with the Commissioner in accordance with this section within two months after a change in legal or equitable ownership of property is effected by the transaction—
 - (a) each party to the transaction is guilty of an offence; and
 - (b) the parties to the transaction are nevertheless jointly and severally liable to pay duty to the Commissioner as if such a statement had been lodged with the Commissioner immediately before the end of that period of two months.

- (1) A statutory transfer is a transfer or vesting of assets or liabilities that takes effect by or under the provisions of a special Act.
- (2) The parties to a statutory transfer must, within 2 months after a statutory transfer takes effect, lodge with the Commissioner a statement in a form approved by the Commissioner setting out—
 - (a) a description of the property subject to the statutory transfer; and
 - (b) the value of that property; and
 - (c) any other information required by the Commissioner.
- (3) Duty is payable on the statement as if it were a conveyance, executed by the parties to the statutory transfer, operating as a voluntary disposition inter vivos of the property subject to the statutory transfer.

- (4) If a statement is not lodged as required by this section within 2 months after the statutory transfer takes effect—
- (a) each party to the transfer is guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding $10 000; and
 - (b) the parties to the transfer are jointly and severally liable to pay duty to the Commissioner as if such a statement had been lodged with the Commissioner immediately before the end of that period of 2 months.
- (5) A statutory transfer arising from the merger of credit unions, or transferring assets from one credit union to another, is exempt from this section.

Division 9—Leases

72—Agreement for lease to be charged as a lease

An agreement for a lease or with respect to the letting of any lands shall be chargeable with the same duty as if it were an actual lease made for the term and consideration mentioned in the agreement.

73—Leases, how to be charged in respect of produce etc

- (1) Where the consideration or any part of the consideration for which a lease is granted or agreed to be granted consists of any produce or other goods, the value of the produce or goods shall be deemed a consideration in respect of which the lease or agreement is chargeable with ad valorem duty.
- (2) Where it is stipulated in any lease or agreement for a lease that the value of the produce or goods shall amount at least to, or shall not exceed, a given sum or where the lessee is specially charged with, or has the option of paying after, any permanent rate of conversion, the value of the produce or goods shall, for the purpose of assessing the ad valorem duty, be estimated at the given sum or according to the permanent rate.
- (3) A lease or agreement for a lease made either wholly or partially for any such consideration, if it contains a statement of the value thereof and is stamped in accordance with the statement, shall, so far as regards the subject matter of the statement, be deemed duly stamped, unless or until it is otherwise shown that the statement is incorrect and that the lease or agreement is in fact not duly stamped.

74—Duty in respect of certain kinds of lease

- (1) A lease or agreement for a lease or with respect to the letting of any lands shall not be chargeable with any duty in respect of any penal rent, or increased rent in the nature of a penal rent, thereby reserved or agreed to be reserved or made payable, or by reason of being made in consideration of the surrender or abandonment of any existing lease or agreement of, or relating to, the same subject matter.
- (2) A lease made for any consideration in respect of which it is chargeable with ad valorem duty and in further consideration either of a covenant by the lessee to make, or of his having previously made, any substantial improvement of, or addition to, the property demised to him, or of any covenant relating to the subject matter of the lease, shall not be chargeable with any duty in respect of the further consideration.

75—Consideration for lease

- (1) In this section—

current market rent for property means the consideration (including rent and any other form of valuable consideration) that a lessee might reasonably be expected to pay under a lease of the property, if it were unoccupied and offered for renting, expressed as a rate of rent per annum;

lease includes an agreement for a lease or any written document for the tenancy or occupancy of property;

lessee means the person who has the right to occupy property under a lease and includes a prospective lessee under an agreement for a lease; property means land or a tenement.

- (2) If the rent or any other consideration payable by the lessee under a lease of property cannot be ascertained or estimated at the time that the lease is lodged with the Commissioner for stamping (whether because the consideration depends on some future contingency or for any other reason), the Commissioner may assess the duty payable based on the current market rent for the property as if the current market rent were the rate or average rate of rent per annum under the lease and there were no other consideration payable under the lease.
- (3) If the consideration payable by the lessee under a lease of property can be ascertained or estimated at the time that the lease is lodged with the Commissioner for stamping but the duty that may be charged on the instrument (whether as a lease or a conveyance on sale or both) apart from this section is less than the duty that would be payable based on the current market rent for the property, the Commissioner may assess the duty payable based on the current market rent as if the current market rent were the rate or average rate of rent per annum under the lease and there were no other consideration payable under the lease.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, the Commissioner may—
 - (a) cause a valuation to be made of any property that is the subject of a lease for the purpose of determining the current market rent for the property; and
 - (b) having regard to the merits of the case, charge the whole or a part of the expenses of, or incidental to, the making of the valuation to the person liable to pay the duty and may recover the amount charged as a debt due to the Crown.

75A—Abolition of duty on leases

- (1) No liability to duty arises in relation to a lease entered into on or after 1 July 2004.
- (2) After 1 July 2004, the Governor may, by proclamation, fix a date for the repeal of this Division and Schedule 2 clause 10.
- (3) On the date fixed under subsection (2), this Division (including this section) and Schedule 2 clause 10 are repealed.
- (4) In this section—
lease includes an agreement for a lease or any other document for the tenancy or occupancy of land or a tenement.

Division 10—Mortgages

76—Interpretation

In this Act—

liability means a present, future or contingent monetary liability;

mortgage means—

- (a) an instrument creating, acknowledging, evidencing or recording a legal or equitable interest in, or charge over, real or personal property by way of security for a liability; or
- (b) an instrument creating, acknowledging, evidencing or recording a liability in respect of which an instrument of title is or is to be pledged or deposited by way of security.

- 1 A mortgage includes an instrument that would, assuming the fulfilment of a condition to which the instrument is subject, fall into one of the above categories.
- 2 A mortgage includes an agreement that gives rise to a presumptive mortgage under section 10(3) of the Consumer Credit (South Australia) Code.

77—Where mortgage consists of several instruments

If several instruments are necessary to make a mortgage and duty would, but for this section, be chargeable on more than one of those instruments, the duty shall be chargeable upon the principal instrument only and the other instruments shall not be liable to any duty, and the parties, with the approval of the Commissioner, may decide which is the principal instrument.

78—Security for stock, how to be charged

A security for the transfer or retransfer of any stock shall be chargeable with the same duty as a similar security for a sum of money equal in amount to the value of the stock; and a transfer or assignment of any such security shall be chargeable with the same duty as an instrument of the same description relating to a sum of money equal in amount to the value of the stock.

79—Mortgage securing future and contingent liabilities

- (1) A mortgage that extends to future or contingent liabilities is, if limited to a particular amount, chargeable with duty as if it were a security for that amount.
- (2) A mortgage that extends to future or contingent liabilities is, if not limited to a particular amount, chargeable with duty as follows:
 - (a) the mortgage is chargeable, in the first instance, with duty on the basis of an estimate of the highest amount to be secured (to be made on the assumption that all contingencies to which the mortgage or the liability is subject will actually happen); and
 - (b) if the amount of the liability secured by the mortgage subsequently exceeds the amount for which the mortgage has been previously stamped, the mortgage becomes chargeable with further duty as from the date when the liability was first exceeded and the amount of that further duty is to be calculated as follows:
 - (i) a fresh estimate is to be made in accordance with this section of the highest amount to be secured; and
 - (ii) duty is then to be calculated on the basis of that estimate and in all other respects as if the mortgage were a new and separate instrument made on the date when the liability was first exceeded; and
 - (iii) the further duty is then to be calculated by subtracting the amount of duty already paid from the amount of duty calculated under subparagraph (ii).

Exceptions—

- 1 Paragraph (b) does not apply if the liability is wholly or partly denominated in a foreign currency and the amount for which the mortgage has been previously stamped is extended solely because of fluctuations in the rate of exchange.
- 2 If a mortgage becomes chargeable with further duty under paragraph (b), and the rate of duty payable on the mortgage has increased since it was previously stamped, then the further duty is to be calculated by subtracting from the amount of duty calculated under paragraph (b)(ii) the amount that would have been already paid if duty had then been calculated and paid at the higher rate.
- 3 If a mortgage becomes chargeable with further duty under paragraph (b), and the rate of duty payable on the mortgage has decreased since it was previously stamped, then the further duty is to be calculated by subtracting from the amount of duty calculated under paragraph (b)(ii) the amount that would have been already paid if duty had then been calculated and paid at the lower rate.
- 4 If—
 - (a) a further advance is made under—
 - (i) a mortgage that is, until the further advance, wholly exempt from duty; or
 - (ii) a mortgage that would, assuming it had been submitted for stamping immediately before the further advance, have been wholly exempt from duty; and

- (b) in consequence of the further advance, the mortgage ceases to be of a type that is, or has become, wholly exempt from duty,
- duty (or further duty) is calculated on the mortgage as if it secured only the further advance and, if duty was paid before the exemption took effect, as if no such payment had been made.
- (3) If a mortgage is chargeable with duty under subsection (2), the parties must, on submitting the mortgage for stamping or further stamping, make a fair estimate of the highest amount to be secured (to be made on the assumption that all contingencies to which the mortgage or the liability is subject will actually happen).
- (4) The Commissioner may accept the parties' estimate of the highest amount to be secured or, if dissatisfied with that estimate, substitute the Commissioner's own estimate of that amount, for the purposes of determining the amount of duty or further duty with which the mortgage is chargeable.
- (5) The Commissioner has a discretion, in the case of a mortgage securing a contingent liability, to permit the mortgage to be stamped for an amount that is less than the full amount of that liability, but, if the contingency subsequently happens, further duty becomes chargeable on the mortgage as from the date of the happening of the contingency and the amount of that further duty is to be calculated as follows:
- (a) duty is to be calculated on the mortgage on the basis of the full amount of the liability as if the mortgage were a new and separate instrument made on the date of the happening of the contingency; and
- (b) the further duty is then to be calculated by subtracting the amount of duty already paid from the amount of duty calculated under paragraph (a).
- (6) If a mortgage for an unlimited amount is registered under the Real Property Act 1886, a discharge of the mortgage may not be registered unless the instrument of discharge is endorsed with a certificate by the mortgagee, an officer, agent or employee of the mortgagee, or some other person approved for the purposes of this subsection by the Commissioner—
- (a) stating the highest amount that was secured during the currency of the mortgage; and
- (b) stating that the mortgage has been duly stamped.
- (7) If a certificate under subsection (6) is false, the mortgagee and the person by whom the certificate was signed are each guilty of an offence.
- Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.
- (8) In this section references to an amount secured or to be secured by a mortgage are, if the mortgage secures both principal and interest or principal, interest, and rates taxes or other recurrent charges in respect of land, to be read as references to the principal only.

80—Security for repayment by periodical payments, how to be charged

A security for the payment of any rentcharge, annuity or other periodical payment, by way of repayment or in satisfaction or discharge of any loan, advance or payment intended to be so repaid, satisfied or discharged, shall be chargeable with the same duty as a similar security for the payment of the sum of money so lent, advanced or paid.

81—Transfers and further charges

- (1) No transfer of a duly stamped security and no security by way of further charge for money or stock added to money or stock previously secured by a duly stamped instrument shall be chargeable with any duty by reason of containing any further or additional security for the money or stock transferred or previously secured, or the interest or dividends thereon, or any new covenant, proviso, power, stipulation or agreement in relation thereto or any further assurance of the property comprised in the transferred or previous security.
- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if the security is over, or relates to, land that is subject to the provisions of the Real Property Act 1886.

81A—Duty may be denoted in certain cases by adhesive stamps

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the duty on a security by way of mortgage, bond, debenture or covenant securing the payment or repayment of an amount not exceeding $6 000 may be denoted by an adhesive stamp affixed in accordance with the regulations.
- (2) This section does not apply in respect of a security by way of mortgage for the payment or repayment of moneys that may become due on an account current unless—
 - (a) where the total amount secured or to be ultimately recoverable is limited—the amount so limited does not exceed $6 000; or
 - (b) where the total amount secured or to be ultimately recoverable is not limited—the total amount actually secured or recoverable does not exceed $6 000.

81B—Duty chargeable proportioned to value of South Australian property

- (1) A security that creates a charge on property in South Australia and property outside South Australia may, subject to this section, be stamped for less than the full amount ad valorem duty otherwise appropriate to the amount secured.
- (2) The amount for which the security is stamped must however be sufficient to satisfy the following formula:

$$\frac{A_1}{A_2} \geq \frac{V_1}{V_2}$$

Where

A_1 is the amount for which the security is stamped

A_2 is the amount on which ad valorem duty would, apart from this section, be chargeable

V_1 is the value of property situated in South Australia

V_2 is the total value of the property subject to the security.

- (3) A security stamped under this section is available as a security on property situated in South Australia for such amount only as the ad valorem duty denoted on the security extends to cover.

- (4) If a security does not create a charge on property in South Australia it may be stamped with a stamp indicating that no ad valorem duty is payable.

81C—Duty paid on one mortgage may be denoted as having been paid on another mortgage

- (1) The Commissioner may, upon the application of a party to a mortgage upon which duty has been paid, authorise the whole or a part of the duty paid upon the mortgage to be denoted as having been paid upon some other mortgage or mortgages if he is satisfied, upon the basis of such evidence as he may require—
- (a) that the duty was paid upon the first mentioned mortgage instead of the other mortgage or mortgages as a result of an error on the part of a party to the mortgage or his agent; and
 - (b) that the parties to the first mentioned mortgage are the same as the parties to the other mortgage or mortgages; and
 - (c) that the first mentioned mortgage has not been acted upon or relied upon in any way as a security.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) must—
- (a) be made in a form approved by the Commissioner; and
 - (b) be made not later than three months after the date on which duty was paid upon the first mentioned mortgage; and
 - (c) be accompanied by the prescribed charge.
- (3) The Commissioner may, upon an application under subsection (1), if he thinks it just to do so, waive payment of the prescribed charge.
- (4) The Commissioner may require any evidence given in support of an application under subsection (1) to be verified by statutory declaration.
- (5) Duty shall not be denoted as having been paid upon the other mortgage or mortgages in pursuance of subsection (1) unless the original and every copy of the first mentioned mortgage stamped under this Act has been produced to the Commissioner and dealt with in accordance with the regulations.
- (6) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) mortgagees that are related corporations shall be regarded as one and the same person; and
 - (b) corporations are related if they are related for the purposes of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

82—Unregistered mortgages protected by caveats

- (1) A caveat under the Real Property Act 1886 to protect an interest arising under an unregistered mortgage is chargeable with duty.
- (2) The amount of duty chargeable on a caveat to which subsection (1) applies is—
- (a) if the mortgage to which the caveat relates has been stamped—$10;
 - (b) if the mortgage to which the caveat relates has not been stamped—$10 plus the amount of duty that would be payable on the mortgage if produced for stamping.

- (3) The proportionate interest is the highest of the following:

- (3) The proportionate interest is calculated by multiplying together—
- a fraction representing the proportionate interest of the person or group in entity A; and

- and expressing the result as a percentage.

Example—

X holds a proportionate interest of 33⅓% in entity A (a private company) which in turn holds a 75% proportionate interest in entity B (a private unit trust scheme) which in turn holds a 50% proportionate interest in entity C (a private company). In this case the X's indirect interest in entity C is to be expressed as a proportionate interest of 12.5%.

93—Notional interest in assets of related entity

- (1) A private entity has a notional interest in an asset held beneficially by a related entity if—
- the private entity holds a majority interest in the related entity; or
 - a chain of majority interests can be traced between the private entity and the related entity.

Example—

Entity A holds a 75% proportionate interest in entity B which in turn holds a 60% proportionate interest in entity C which in turn holds a 40% proportionate interest in entity D. In this case entity A has a notional interest in the assets held beneficially by entity B and entity C but not in the assets held by entity D.

- (2) The value of the notional interest is calculated as follows:

$$V = V_1 \times P$$

Where—

V_1 is the unencumbered value of the asset;

P is a fraction representing the proportionate interest of the private entity in the related entity.

Division 2—Land rich entity94—Land rich entity

- (1) A private entity is a land rich entity if—
- (a) the unencumbered value of the underlying local land assets of the private entity and associated private entities is $1m or more; and
 - (b) the unencumbered value of the entity's underlying land assets comprises 80 per cent or more of the unencumbered value of the entity's total underlying assets.
- (2) In determining the unencumbered value of a private entity's total underlying assets, assets of the following classes are to be excluded from consideration—
- (a) money in cash or on deposit with a financial institution;
 - (b) negotiable instruments;
 - (c) shares or units in a related private entity;
 - (d) contractual rights or interests other than—
 - (i) an interest in land arising from a contract or option to purchase the land; or
 - (ii) a right or interest under a loan transaction that is to be taken into account under subsection (4);
 - (e) monetary entitlements from shareholders or unitholders under the terms on which shares or units were issued;
 - (f) an asset of a class that is, under the regulations, to be excluded from consideration.
- (3) Further, in determining the value of a private entity's total underlying assets as at a particular time, any asset (other than a land asset) acquired by the entity or a related entity within the previous 2 years is to be excluded from consideration unless the private entity satisfies the Commissioner that the asset was not acquired solely or mainly for the purpose of avoiding duty under this Part.

- (4) A loan transaction is to be taken into account for the purposes of subsection (2)(d)(ii) unless—
- (a) the loan is repayable on demand or within 12 months of the date of the loan; or
 - (b) the loan is to a director, shareholder, trustee or beneficiary, or a relative of a director, shareholder, trustee or beneficiary, of the private entity or an associated private entity.

Division 3—Dutiable transactions

95—General principle of liability to duty

- (1) A person or group that acquires a majority interest, or increases its majority interest, in a land rich entity notionally acquires an interest in the underlying local land assets of the entity and is liable to duty in respect of the notional acquisition.
- (2) The following transactions are therefore dutiable:
- (a) a transaction as a result of which a person or group has a majority interest in a land rich entity; or
 - (b) a transaction as a result of which a person or group that has a majority interest in a land rich entity increases its majority interest in the entity.
- (3) A transaction is dutiable under this Part even though the person or group that has a majority interest, or increases its majority interest, in the land rich entity as a result of the transaction—
- (a) is not a party to the transaction; or
 - (b) has a passive role in the transaction.
- (4) For example, any of the following is capable of being a dutiable transaction:
- (a) an allotment of shares in a company or units in a unit trust scheme; or
 - (b) the variation or abrogation of rights attaching to shares in a company or units in a unit trust scheme; or
 - (c) the redemption, surrender or cancellation of shares in a company or units in a unit trust scheme.
- (5) However, if a private entity acquires a local land asset and, as a result of the acquisition, becomes a land rich entity, and conveyance duty is paid in respect of the transaction, the transaction is not dutiable under this Part.

96—Value of notional interest acquired as a result of dutiable transaction

- (1) If a person or group has, as a result of a dutiable transaction, a majority interest in a land rich entity the value of the notional interest acquired in the entity's underlying local land assets is determined as follows:

$$NV = TV \times P$$

Where—

NV is the value to be of the notional interest acquired.

TV is the total unencumbered value of all the entity's underlying local land assets.

P is the fraction representing the proportionate interest of the person or group in the entity.

- (2) If a person or group that has a majority interest in a land rich entity increases its majority interest as a result of a dutiable transaction the value of the notional interest acquired in the entity's underlying local land assets is determined as follows:

Where—

NV is the value to be ascertained.

TV is the total unencumbered value of all the entity's underlying local land assets.

P_1 is the fraction representing the proportionate interest in the entity before the increase.

P_2 is the fraction representing the proportionate interest in the entity after the increase.

97—Calculation of duty

- (1) If the total unencumbered value of the entity's underlying local land assets is $1.5m or more, duty in respect of a transaction under which a person or group acquires a majority interest in a land rich entity is to be equivalent to the duty payable on a conveyance of land with an unencumbered value equivalent to the value of the acquirer's notional interest in the entity's underlying local land assets.
- (2) If the total unencumbered value of the entity's underlying local land assets is less than $1.5m, duty is to be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$D = \left[\frac{(TV - $1m)}{$0.5m} \times d_1 \right] + \left[\left(1 - \frac{(TV - $1m)}{$0.5m} \right) \times d_2 \right]$$

Where—

D is the amount of the duty.

TV is the total unencumbered value of all the entity's underlying local land assets.

d_1 is the duty that would be payable if subsection (1) were applicable.

d_2 is the duty that would be payable in respect of a transaction for the acquisition of financial products with a dutiable value equivalent to the value of the notional interest.

- (3) Duty on a dutiable transaction under which a person or group increases its majority interest in a land rich entity is to be calculated as follows:

$$D = d_1 - d_2$$

Where—

D is the amount of the duty.

d_1 is the amount that would have been payable if the person or group had acquired the whole of its interest in a single transaction at the time of the increase.

d_2 is the amount that would have been payable if the person or group had acquired its pre-existing interest in a single transaction at the time of the increase.

- (4) However, if any part of a majority interest in a land rich entity was acquired by the relevant person or group more than 3 years before the date of a dutiable transaction (the earlier acquisition), the duty calculated under the above provisions is to be rebated by a percentage representing the extent of the earlier acquisition as a proportion of the majority interest as a whole.
- (5) If a person or group acquires or increases a majority interest in a land rich entity through the acquisition of financial products and duty has been paid under this Act or a corresponding law in respect of the transaction for the acquisition of the financial products, the duty calculated under this section is to be reduced by the amount of the duty paid.

Division 4—Payment and recovery of duty

98—Acquisition statement

- (1) If a dutiable transaction occurs, the person or group that acquires or increases its majority interest in the land rich entity must, within 2 months after the date of the dutiable transaction—
 - (a) lodge a return with the Commissioner; and
 - (b) pay the relevant amount of duty.Maximum penalty: $10 000.
- (2) The return must contain the following information:
 - (a) the name and address of the person, or the name and address of each member of the group, that has the majority interest or has increased its majority interest as a result of the transaction; and
 - (b) the date of the transaction; and
 - (c) particulars of—
 - (i) the interest acquired as a result of the transaction; and
 - (ii) any other interests held and the dates and circumstances of their acquisition; and
 - (iii) the underlying land assets and the underlying local land assets of the land rich entity as at the date of the transaction; and
 - (iv) the underlying assets of the land rich entity as at the date of the transaction; and
 - (v) amounts of duty paid under this Act or a corresponding law in relation to the acquisition of the majority interest in the land rich entity; and
 - (d) other information required by the Commissioner.

99—Recovery from entity

- (1) If a person or group fails to pay duty as required under this Part, the Commissioner may recover the duty, as a debt, from the relevant private entity.

- (2) Instead of, or as well as, proceeding against the private entity for recovery of duty as a debt, the Commissioner may register a charge on any of its land for the amount of the unpaid duty.
- (3) The Commissioner must give written notice of the registration of a charge under this section to—
 - (a) the registered proprietor of the land; and
 - (b) the person in default, or each member of the group in default.
- (4) If the duty remains unpaid 6 months after the registration of the charge, the Commissioner may apply to the District Court for an order for the sale of the land.
- (5) On an application under subsection (4), the Court may make an order for sale of the land by public auction and, in that event, the proceeds of sale are to be applied as follows:
 - (a) firstly—in payment of the costs of the sale and other costs of proceeding under this section; and
 - (b) secondly—in discharging liabilities secured by an instrument registered in priority to the registered charge; and
 - (c) thirdly—in discharging the liability to duty; and
 - (d) fourthly—in discharging other liabilities as directed by the Court; and
 - (e) fifthly—in payment to the registered proprietor of the land immediately before the completion of the sale.
- (6) If the Commissioner recovers duty under this section, the private entity may recover the amount paid to, or recovered from, the entity from the person or persons principally liable for the payment of the duty.

Division 5—Miscellaneous

100—Valuation of interest under contract or option to purchase land

If an interest in land consists of an interest arising under a contract or option to purchase the land, the interest is to be valued, for the purposes of this Part, by subtracting from the market value of the land the amount that the purchaser under the contract or the holder of the option would be required to pay in order to complete the purchase.

101—Exempt transactions

- (1) A transaction under which a person or a group acquires an interest in a land rich entity is exempt from duty under this Part if it takes place in circumstances in which a conveyance of an interest in the underlying local land assets would not attract ad valorem duty.

Example—

Suppose that A is entitled under the will of B to 60% of the shares in X Pty Ltd, a land rich entity, owning land in the State valued at $2m. A's acquisition of the shares on distribution of the estate is exempt from duty because a conveyance of the land itself would, if it occurred in these circumstances (ie on distribution of the estate), be exempt from ad valorem duty.

- (2) The following transactions are exempt from duty under this Part:
- (a) an acquisition of an interest in a land rich entity that takes place under a compromise or arrangement approved by a court under Part 5.1 of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth;
 - (b) a transaction exempted by regulation from duty under this Part.

102—Multiple incidences of duty

- (1) If it is possible under this Part to assess the incidence of duty in different ways in respect of the same transaction, duty will be assessed so as to maximise the return to the revenue but not so as to extend the incidence of duty beyond a single person or group identified in the assessment.
- (2) If a person or a group acquires a majority interest in a land rich entity, and another person or group later acquires a majority interest in the land rich entity without diminishing the former majority interest, the Commissioner may, if satisfied that it is just and equitable to do so, exempt the later acquisition, wholly or partly, from duty under this Part.

Example—

Suppose the shares of X Pty Ltd, a land rich entity, are divided into Class A and Class B. The Class A shares confer rights to dividends but no rights to share in the distribution of assets on winding up of the company. The Class B shares confer no rights to dividends but do confer rights to share in the distribution of assets on the winding up of the company. Suppose that A acquires all the Class A shares and pays duty under this Part on the acquisition of a majority interest in the company. Suppose that B then acquires all the Class B shares. In this case, the Commissioner could, if satisfied that it would be just and equitable to do so, grant relief under the above subsection.

- (3) If a group acquires a majority interest in a land rich entity as a result of a dutiable transaction, and a person or group that is a member or subgroup of the group acquires that majority interest from the group, the Commissioner may, if satisfied that it is just and equitable to do so, exempt the later acquisition, wholly or partly, from duty under this Part.

Part 5—Miscellaneous provisions

106—Spoiled or unused stamps

- (1) Subject to any regulations made under this Act, the Commissioner may, on the application of any person in possession of stamps or stamped material unused or rendered useless by being inadvertently spoiled, give to that person, in lieu of the stamps or stamped material so spoiled or unused, other stamps (of the same or another denomination) of the same value or, at his discretion, money of the same value, deducting the proper allowance on purchase of stamps of the same description; but the Commissioner may, if he thinks it just to do so, refrain from making any such deduction.
- (2) For the purposes of Part 4 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996—
 - (a) an application under this section is to be taken to be an application for a refund; and
 - (b) the giving of stamps or money under this section is to be taken to be the making of a refund.

106A—Transfer of financial products not to be registered unless duly stamped

- (1) A transfer of a financial product to which Division 5 of Part 3A applies must not be registered by the corporation, company or society by which the financial product was issued—
 - (a) unless a proper instrument of transfer has been delivered to the corporation, company or society in which, in the case of a transfer by way of sale, the consideration therefor is expressed in terms of money and the actual date of sale and the date or dates of execution by the transferor and transferee are set out; and
 - (b) unless the instrument is duly stamped under this Act or is, under subsection (1b), deemed to have been duly stamped.
- (1a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, where financial products are transferred pursuant to a takeover scheme, the Commissioner may, if he thinks it expedient to do so, upon payment of the duty payable in respect of the instruments of transfer, denote payment of the duty on a statement in the approved form.
- (1b) Where payment of duty is denoted on a statement pursuant to subsection (1a), each instrument of transfer to which the statement relates shall be deemed to have been duly stamped.
- (2) A transfer of a financial product (other than a CSF transaction within the meaning of Part 3A) on a sale or purchase to which Division 2 of Part 3A applies must not be registered by the corporation, company or society by which the financial product was issued—
 - (a) unless a proper instrument of transfer has been delivered to the corporation, company or society; and
 - (b) unless the transfer is, under section 90E(3), taken to have been duly stamped.

- (3) After a transfer of any financial product has been registered by the corporation, company or society in this State, the instrument of transfer shall be retained in this State by the corporation, company or society for a period of not less than five years.
- (4) If a corporation, company or society contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section, that corporation, company or society is guilty of an offence.
Penalty: $10 000.
- (5) The right or title of any transferee or subsequent holder of any financial product shall not be invalidated by reason only that the transfer of the financial product was registered by a corporation, company or society in contravention of the provisions of this section.

107—Transfer of property to correct error

- (1) If the Commissioner is satisfied, on application by a party to an instrument submitted for stamping, that the sole purpose of the instrument is to reverse or correct a disposition of property resulting from an error in an earlier instrument, the Commissioner may grant relief from stamp duty under this section.
- (2) The Commissioner may require the applicant to provide such information (verified if the Commissioner thinks fit by statutory declaration) as the Commissioner thinks necessary to decide the application.
- (3) If the Commissioner grants relief from stamp duty under this section, the duty chargeable on the instrument is ten dollars plus the amount (if any) by which the duty that would have been paid on the earlier instrument if it had been correctly made in the first instance exceeds the amount of duty actually paid on that instrument.

108—Penalties for certain offences

- (1) Any person who—
 - (a) forges any die or stamp;

shall be guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term of not less than one year and not more than seven years.

- (2) Any person who causes to be done, or knowingly assists in doing, any of the acts mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to (h) shall be deemed to be guilty of the principal offence and shall be punishable accordingly.

109—Penalty for fraud

Any person who—

- (a) fraudulently removes or causes to be removed from any instrument any adhesive stamp, or fraudulently affixes to any instrument any adhesive stamp which has been removed from any other instrument, with intent that the stamp may be used again; or
- (b) knowingly sells, offers for sale or utters any adhesive stamp which has been removed from any instrument, or utters any instrument having thereon any adhesive stamp which to his knowledge has been so removed; or

- (2) The Court may make absolute such a rule and enforce by attachment or otherwise the payment of any such duty or sum of money as appears to be due, together with costs.

112—Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make such regulations and may authorise such forms as may be necessary from time to time for carrying this Act into effect and may, by any such regulation, impose a penalty not exceeding $2 000 for any breach thereof.
- (2) Every such regulation and form, when published in the Gazette, shall have the force of law.

- (3) Every such regulation shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament forthwith if Parliament is sitting and, if not, then within thirty days after the commencement of the next session.
- (4) Regulations made under this section may prescribe any matters necessary or convenient to be prescribed or which are required or, expressly or by implication, authorised or permitted to be prescribed for the purposes of this Act.
- (5) Without limiting the generality of subsection (4), the regulations may—
 - (a) be of general or limited application; and
 - (b) require the use of forms approved by the Commissioner for documents required or authorised to be used for the purposes of this Act or the regulations; and
