This Act operates to the exclusion of any power of the Independent Gambling Authority to restrict the sale or consumption of tobacco products.

Part 2—Licences

6—Requirement for licence

A person must not—

(a) carry on the business of selling tobacco products by retail; or

(b) hold himself or herself out as carrying on such a business, unless the person holds a licence under this Part.

Maximum penalty: $10 000.

Expiation fee: $315.

7—Issue or renewal of licence

(1) The Minister may, on application by a person, issue or renew, or refuse to issue or renew, a licence under this Part.

(2) The Minister may, if he or she thinks fit, renew a licence despite the fact that application for renewal of the licence was made after the end of the previous term of the licence.

8—Licence term etc

(1) Subject to this Act, a licence expires on the anniversary of the date of issue of the licence and may be renewed on application for successive terms of one year.
(2) A licence has effect, on issue or renewal, from the date specified in the licence for that purpose which may be earlier than the date of application for the issue or renewal of the licence.

(3) The holder of a licence may, at any time, by notice in writing to the Minister, surrender the licence, at which time the licence ceases to have effect.

9—Licence conditions

(1) The Minister may fix conditions of a licence.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the conditions of a licence may include—

(a) a condition under which the holder of the licence is prevented from selling tobacco products except at a single place specified in the condition (with the effect that a separate licence will be required by the person for any or each other place at which the person sells tobacco products);

(b) a condition that restricts the points of sale of tobacco products within the place at which the holder of the licence may sell tobacco products under the licence.

(3) The Minister may, on application or at the Minister's own initiative, vary a licence.

(4) A licence may be varied by endorsement of the licence or by notice in writing to the holder of the licence.

(5) The holder of a licence must not contravene, or fail to comply with, a condition of the licence.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

Expiation fee: $315.

10—Form of application and licence fee

(1) An application for the issue, renewal or variation of a licence must be made to the Minister in a manner and form approved by the Minister and contain the information required by the Minister.

(2) An applicant must provide any further information that the Minister reasonably requires for the purposes of determining the application.

(3) An application may not be granted except on payment of the appropriate fee under the regulations.

11—Cancellation or suspension of licence

The Minister may, by written notice to the holder of a licence, suspend or cancel the licence if satisfied that the holder of the licence has contravened this Act or is not or is no longer for any reason a fit and proper person.

12—Review of decision of Minister

(1) A person who is dissatisfied with a decision of the Minister under this Part may apply to the Minister for a review of the decision.

(2) An application for review—

(a) must be made within one month after the applicant received notice of the decision to which the application relates; and
Part 2—Licences

(b) must set out in detail the grounds on which the applicant seeks the review.

(3) If an application is made under subsection (1), the Minister must review the decision to which the application relates.

(4) On a review the Minister may—
   (a) confirm or vary the decision under review; or
   (b) quash the decision and substitute for it a decision that should, in the Minister's opinion, have been made in the first instance.

(5) The Minister must inform the applicant in writing of the result of the review.

13—Review

(1) A person who is dissatisfied with a decision taken by the Minister on a review may apply to SACAT under section 34 of the South Australian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2013 for a review of the Minister's decision.

(2) An application for review must be made within 1 month after the person receives notice of the Minister's decision.

Part 3—Restrictions on supply or promotion of tobacco products

29—Application of Part

This Part does not apply in relation to anything done by means of a radio or television broadcast.

30—Sale of tobacco products by retail

(1) A person must not sell a tobacco product by retail unless it is enclosed in a package that complies with the regulations and is labelled in accordance with the regulations.
   Maximum penalty: $5 000.
   Expiation fee: $315.

(2) A person must not sell a tobacco product by retail that is enclosed in two or more packages unless each package complies with the regulations and is labelled in accordance with the regulations.
   Maximum penalty: $5 000.
   Expiation fee: $315.

(3) A person must not sell a tobacco product by retail if the package containing the tobacco product is wrapped in a material that is not wholly transparent.
   Maximum penalty: $5 000.
   Expiation fee: $315.

(4) A person must not sell cigarettes by retail in a package containing less than 20.
   Maximum penalty: $5 000.
   Expiation fee: $315.
(5) A person must not sell a tobacco product by retail if the order for the tobacco product was placed by mail, telephone, facsimile transmission or internet or other electronic communication.

31—Importing and packing of tobacco products

(1) A person must not import tobacco products that have been packed for sale by retail unless—
   (a) the packages in which the tobacco products are packed comply with the regulations and are labelled in accordance with the regulations; and
   (b) where two or more health warnings have been prescribed—the various warnings are distributed in approximately equal numbers between the packages imported by that person in each financial year.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.
Expiation fee: $315.

(2) A person who packs tobacco products for sale by retail must ensure—
   (a) that the packages in which the tobacco products are packed comply with the regulations and are labelled in accordance with the regulations; and
   (b) where two or more health warnings have been prescribed—the various warnings are distributed in approximately equal numbers between the packages packed by that person in each financial year.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.
Expiation fee: $315.

(3) Where tobacco products have been packed for sale by retail in two or more packages only the smallest of those packages and the warning it displays will be taken into account when determining the number of packages on which each health warning is displayed.

32—Tobacco products in relation to which no health warning has been prescribed

Despite any other provision of this Act, where no health warning is prescribed by regulation (or by direction of the Minister under the regulations) in relation to a tobacco product of a particular class—
   (a) a tobacco product of that class need not be enclosed in a package; and
   (b) a package that contains a tobacco product of that class need not (provided it does not also contain a tobacco product of a class in relation to which a health warning is prescribed) display a health warning.

34A—Prohibited tobacco products

(1) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, declare that a class of tobacco products specified in the notice are prohibited tobacco products.

(2) The Minister must not make a declaration under subsection (1) unless the Minister is satisfied that—
   (a) the tobacco products, or the smoke of the products, possesses a distinctive fruity, sweet or confectionary-like character; and
(b) the nature of the products, or the way they are advertised, might encourage young people to smoke.

(3) The Minister may, by further notice in the Gazette, vary or revoke a notice under this section.

(4) A person must not sell a prohibited tobacco product by retail.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

Expiation fee: $315.

35—Sale of sucking tobacco

A person must not sell sucking tobacco by retail.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

Expiation fee: $315.

36—Products designed to resemble tobacco products

A person must not sell by retail any product (other than a tobacco product) that is designed to resemble a tobacco product.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

37—Sale of tobacco products by vending machine

(1) A person must not sell cigarettes or any other tobacco product by means of a vending machine unless—

(a) the vending machine is situated—

(i) in an area delineated under a gaming machine licence under the Gaming Machines Act 1992 as the area in which gaming machines may be operated pursuant to the licence and no other such vending machine is situated in the gaming area or any other part of the premises in respect of which the licence is in force under the Liquor Licensing Act 1997; or

(ii) in some other part of premises in respect of which a licence is in force under the Liquor Licensing Act 1997 and no other such vending machine is situated in the premises in respect of which the licence is in force; or

(iii) in a part of the casino in which the public are permitted to engage in gambling activities under the Casino Act 1997 and no other such vending machine is situated in the casino; and

(b) subject to subsection (2), the machine is only able to be operated by—

(i) in the case of premises in respect of which a licence is in force under the Liquor Licensing Act 1997—the holder of the licence or an employee of the holder of the licence; or

(ii) in the case of the casino—an employee of the casino; or

(iii) in any case—

(A) by the use of a token or similar device supplied to the person by a person referred to in subparagraph (i) or (ii); or
(B) by remote control operated by a person referred to in subparagraph (i) or (ii).

Maximum penalty: $5 000.
Expiation fee: $315.

(2) The requirements of subsection (1)(b) apply—

(a) in relation to a vending machine in use on the day subsection (1) commences—as of 1 June 2010; or

(b) in any other case—as of 1 June 2008.

38—Carrying tray etc of tobacco products for making of successive retail sales

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

38A—Sale or supply of tobacco products to children

(1) If a tobacco product is sold or supplied to a child, the responsible person is guilty of an offence, or if there is more than one responsible person, each responsible person is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.
Expiation fee: $315.

(2) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (1) that was allegedly committed in the course of a business to prove that—

(a) the proprietor of the business or some person acting on behalf of the proprietor of the business required the minor to produce evidence of age of a kind prescribed by regulation; and

(b) the minor made a false statement, or produced false evidence, in response to that requirement; and

(c) in consequence the person who served or assisted the minor reasonably assumed that the minor was of or above the age of 18 years.

(3) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (1) that was allegedly committed otherwise than in the course of a business to prove that the defendant had reasonable cause to believe that the child was of or above the age of 18 years.

(4) The defence under subsection (2) or (3) applies to the exclusion of the general defence under section 79.
(5) A person who sells tobacco products by retail or who occupies premises in which a vending machine that is designed to sell tobacco products is situated must display a notice in the prescribed form setting out the effect of, and the penalty for, an offence against subsection (1) in a manner and position that is likely to attract the attention of his or her customers or of persons using the machine.

Maximum penalty: $750.
Expiation fee: $105.

(6) In this section—

responsible person, in relation to the sale or supply of a tobacco product to a child, means—

(a) if the product is sold or supplied in the course of a business otherwise than by means of a vending machine—

(i) the proprietor of the business; or

(ii) a person who sells or supplies the product on behalf of the proprietor; or

(b) if the product is sold or supplied by means of a vending machine—

(i) the proprietor of the business carried on in the premises where the machine is situated; or

(ii) a person who, on behalf of the proprietor, provides a token to, or other assistance to, the child for the operation of the machine; or

(c) if the product is sold or supplied otherwise than in the course of a business—the person who sells or supplies the product.

39—Power to require evidence of age

(1) If an authorised person suspects on reasonable grounds that a person seeking to obtain a tobacco product may be a child, he or she may require the person to produce evidence, to his or her satisfaction, of the person's age.

(2) A person who—

(a) fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a requirement under this section; or

(b) makes a false statement, or produces false evidence, in response to such a requirement,

is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $200.
Expiation fee: $75.

(3) In this section—

authorised person means—

(a) a person who holds a licence under Part 2 or an employee of such a person; or

(b) an authorised officer.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

Expiation fee: $315.

(2) A person must not—

(a) distribute to the public any unsolicited leaflet, handbill, or other document that constitutes a tobacco advertisement; or

(b) sell any object that constitutes or contains a tobacco advertisement.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

Expiation fee: $315.

(3) This section does not apply in relation to—

(a) the display, in accordance with the regulations, of signs outside premises where tobacco products are sold by retail; or

(b) the provision of assistance to customers or potential customers by sales assistants in premises where tobacco products are sold by retail; or

(c) action of a kind prescribed by regulation; or

(e) an invoice, statement, order, letterhead, business card, cheque, manual or other document ordinarily used in the course of business.

41—Prohibition of certain sponsorships

(1) A person must not promote or publicise, or agree to promote or publicise—

(a) a tobacco product or a trademark or brand name, or part of a trademark or brand name, of a tobacco product; or

(b) the name or interests of a manufacturer or distributor of a tobacco product in association directly or indirectly with that tobacco product, under a contract, or an arrangement (whether or not legally binding), under which a sponsorship is provided, or to be provided, by another person.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

Expiation fee: $315.

(2) A person must not provide, or agree to provide, a sponsorship under a contract or arrangement of a kind referred to in subsection (1).

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

Expiation fee: $315.

42—Competitions and reward schemes etc

(1) A person must not, in connection with the sale of a tobacco product, or for the purpose of promoting the sale of a tobacco product—

(a) provide or offer to provide—

(i) a prize, gift or other benefit; or
(ii) a stamp, coupon, token, voucher, ticket or other thing by virtue of which any person may become entitled to, or may qualify for a prize, gift or other benefit (whether the entitlement or qualification is absolute or conditional); or

(iii) a number of points, or a similar device, by the accumulation of which a person may become entitled to, or qualify for, a prize, gift or other benefit (whether the entitlement or qualification is absolute or conditional); or

(b) conduct a scheme declared by regulation to be a scheme to promote the sale of a tobacco product or to promote smoking generally.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

(2) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (1)(a) to prove that it was not practicable for the person to identify the particular item or items purchased that gave rise to the supply of the benefit or thing.

43—Free samples
A person must not, for the purpose of inducing or promoting the sale of a tobacco product, offer or give to a member of the public a free sample of a tobacco product.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

45—Business promotions to attract smokers
A person must not display signs, or engage in a practice of any kind, designed to promote a business as welcoming or permitting smoking on its premises.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

Expiation fee: $315.

Part 4—Restrictions on smoking

46—Smoking banned in enclosed public places, workplaces and shared areas

(1) Smoking is banned in an enclosed public place, workplace or shared area.

   (a) that he or she did not provide an ashtray, matches, a lighter or any other thing designed to facilitate smoking where the contravention occurred; and
   (b) that—
      (i) he or she was not aware, and could not reasonably be expected to have been aware, that the contravention was occurring; or (ii) he or she requested the person smoking to stop smoking and informed the person that the person was committing an offence.

48—Smoking in motor vehicle if child present

(1) A person must not smoke in a motor vehicle if a child is also present in the motor vehicle.
   Maximum penalty: $200.
   Expiation fee: $75.

(2) In proceedings for an offence against this section an allegation in the complaint that a child was present in a motor vehicle at a specified time will be accepted as proved in the absence of proof to the contrary.

(3) In this section—
   child means a person under 16 years of age;
   motor vehicle has the same meaning as in the Motor Vehicles Act 1959.

49—Smoking banned in certain public transport areas

(1) A person must not smoke in a prescribed public transport area.
   Maximum penalty: $200.
   Expiation fee: $75.

(2) Without limiting any other provision of this Act, subsection (1) does not apply to a person smoking in a motor vehicle.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person will be taken to be in a prescribed public transport area if any part of the person is within the prescribed public transport area.

(4) In proceedings for an offence against this section, an allegation in the complaint that a specified place is a prescribed public transport area will be accepted as proved in the absence of proof to the contrary.

(5) In this section—
   prescribed public transport area means any part of a bus stop, tram stop, railway station, taxi rank, airport or similar place that is—
      (a) a public area; and
      (b) used, or is intended to be used, by passengers boarding or alighting from public transport; and
      (c) wholly or partly covered by a roof;
   public transport includes—
      (a) a taxi service; and

(2) Without limiting any other provision of this Act, subsection (1) does not apply to a person smoking in a motor vehicle.

(3) For the purposes of this section—

(a) a person will be taken to be in a public area if any part of the person is within the public area; and

(b) a person will be taken to be within 10 metres of prescribed children's playground equipment if any part of the person is within 10 metres of any part of the prescribed children's playground equipment.

(4) In proceedings for an offence against this section, an allegation in the complaint that—

(a) specified equipment is children's playground equipment; or

(b) specified children's playground equipment is prescribed children's playground equipment, will be accepted as proved in the absence of proof to the contrary.

(5) In this section—

prescribed children's playground equipment means children's playground equipment (however described) that is located in a public area.

51—Smoking banned in certain public areas—short term bans

(1) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, declare that smoking is banned in the public area or areas, and during the period (being a period not exceeding 3 days), specified in the notice.

(2) A notice under subsection (1)—

(a) may be of general application or vary in its application in respect of each public area to which it applies; and

(b) may exempt specified areas, specified circumstances or specified times from the operation of subsection (4); and

(c) may be conditional or unconditional.

(3) The Minister may, by subsequent notice in the Gazette, vary or revoke a notice under subsection (1).

(4) A person who smokes in contravention of a notice under subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $200.
Expiation fee: $75.
(5) If a notice is made under subsection (1), signs setting out the effect of the notice must be erected in such numbers and in positions of such prominence that the signs are likely to be seen by persons within the public area or areas to which the notice relates (however, validity of a prosecution is not affected by non-compliance or insufficient compliance with this subsection).

(6) For the purposes of this section, a person will be taken to be in a particular area if any part of the person is within the area.

52—Smoking banned in certain public areas—longer term bans

(1) The Governor may, by regulation, declare that smoking is banned in the public areas specified in the regulations for the purposes of this section.

(2) A person who smokes in a public area declared by the regulations to be a public area in which smoking is banned is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $200.

Expiation fee: $75.

(3) The regulations under subsection (1)—

(a) may be of general application or vary in their application according to prescribed factors; and

(b) may provide that a matter or thing in respect of which regulations may be made is to be determined according to the discretion of the Minister or other specified person or body; and

(c) may exempt specified areas, specified circumstances or specified times from the operation of subsection (2); and

(d) may be conditional or unconditional.

(4) If smoking is banned in a public area pursuant to this section, signs setting out the effect of this section and the regulation must be erected in such numbers and in positions of such prominence that the signs are likely to be seen by persons within the public area (however, validity of a prosecution is not affected by non-compliance or insufficient compliance with this subsection).

Part 5—Investigations

63—Appointment of authorised officers

(1) The Minister may appoint persons to be authorised officers for the purposes of this Act.

(2) An appointment may be made subject to conditions specified in the instrument of appointment.

(3) The Minister, may at any time, revoke an appointment or vary, revoke or add a condition of an appointment.

(4) All members of the police force are authorised officers for the purposes of this Act.
64—Identification of authorised officers

(1) An authorised officer, other than a member of the police force, must be issued with an identity card—
   (a) containing the person's name and a photograph of the person; and
   (b) stating that the person is an authorised officer for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Where the powers of an authorised officer have been limited by conditions under this Part, the identity card issued to the authorised officer must contain a statement of the limitation on the officer's powers.

(3) An authorised officer must, at the request of a person in relation to whom the authorised officer intends to exercise any powers under this Act, produce for the inspection of the person—
   (a) in the case of an authorised officer who is a member of the police force and is not in uniform—his or her certificate of authority; or
   (b) in the case of an authorised officer who is not a member of the police force—his or her identity card.

65—Power to require information or records or attendance for examination

(1) The Minister may, for a purpose related to the administration or enforcement of this Act, by written notice served on a person, require the person—
   (a) to provide to the Minister (either orally or in writing) information that is described in the notice; or
   (b) to attend and give evidence before the Minister or an authorised officer; or
   (c) to produce to the Minister a record in the person's custody or control that is described in the notice.

(2) The Minister may require that evidence be given under this section on oath.

(3) If a person, without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails—
   (a) to comply with the requirements of a notice under this section within the period specified in the notice or any further period allowed by the Minister; or
   (b) to comply with any other requirement of the Minister as to the giving of evidence or the manner in which information or evidence is to be provided or given under this section, the person is guilty of an offence.

   Maximum penalty: $20 000.

66—Powers of authorised officers

(1) Subject to this Part—
   (a) an authorised officer may enter and remain on premises and inspect the premises and any part of or thing in or on the premises as reasonably required in connection with the administration or enforcement of this Act;
(b) with the authority of a warrant issued under this Part or in circumstances in which the authorised officer reasonably believes that immediate action is required, use reasonable force to break into or open any part of, or anything in or on premises;

(c) require a person to produce a record, including a written record that reproduces in an understandable form information stored by computer, microfilm or other process, as reasonably required with the administration or enforcement of this Act;

(d) examine, copy or take extracts from a record or require a person to provide a copy of a record, as reasonably required in connection with the administration or enforcement of this Act;

(e) examine and test ventilation and air conditioning equipment in an enclosed public dining or café area;

(f) take photographs, films, audio, video or other recordings as reasonably required in connection with the administration or enforcement of this Act;

(g) seize and retain tobacco products or records if the authorised officer reasonably suspects that an offence against this Act has been committed in relation to the products or records or that the products or records may afford evidence of an offence against this Act;

(i) require a person who the authorised officer reasonably suspects has committed, is committing or is about to commit, an offence against this Act to state the person's full name and usual place of residence and to produce evidence of the person's identity;

(j) require a person who the authorised officer reasonably suspects has knowledge of matters in respect of which information is reasonably required for the administration or enforcement of this Act to answer questions in relation to those matters;

(k) require a person holding or claiming to hold a licence to produce it for inspection;

(l) give directions reasonably required in connection with the exercise of a power conferred by this subsection or otherwise in connection with the administration and enforcement of this Act.

(2) A magistrate may issue a warrant for the purposes of subsection (1) if satisfied that the warrant is reasonably required for the administration or enforcement of this Act.

(3) In the exercise of powers under this Act an authorised officer may be assisted by such persons as he or she considers necessary in the circumstances.

67—Offence to hinder etc authorised officers

A person who—

(a) hinders or obstructs an authorised officer, or a person assisting an authorised officer, in the exercise of powers conferred by this Act; or

(b) uses abusive, threatening or insulting language to an authorised officer, or a person assisting an authorised officer; or
Part 5—Investigations

(c) refuses or fails to comply with a requirement or direction of an authorised officer under this Part; or

(d) when required by an authorised officer under this Part to answer a question, refuses or fails to answer the question to the best of the person's knowledge, information and belief; or

(e) falsely represents, by words or conduct, that he or she is an authorised officer, is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $20 000.

68—Self-incrimination

(1) It is not an excuse for a person to refuse or fail to answer a question or to produce or provide a record or information as required under this Part on the ground that to do so might tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty.

(2) If compliance by a person with a requirement to answer a question or to produce or provide a record or information might tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty, then—

(a) in the case of a person who is required to produce or provide a record or information—the fact of production or provision of the record or the information (as distinct from the contents of the record or the information); or

(b) in any other case—the answer given in compliance with the requirement, is not admissible in evidence against the person in proceedings for an offence or for the imposition of a penalty (other than proceedings under this Act).

69—Powers in relation to seized tobacco products

If tobacco products are seized under this Part, the following provisions apply:

(a) the Minister may, if satisfied that it is necessary to do so to avoid loss due to the deterioration of the products, determine that the products are forfeited to the Crown and sell the products by public tender;

(b) apart from paragraph (a), the products will be forfeited to the Crown if a court convicts a person of an offence against this Act in relation to the products, unless the court determines that the circumstances of the offence were trifling;

(c) subject to this section, the owner of the products will be entitled to recover the products or, if the products have been forfeited by determination of the Minister or have deteriorated, will be entitled to be paid compensation by the Crown in respect of the products—

(i) if a prosecution for an offence against this Act in relation to the products has been commenced but—

(A) the defendant is acquitted; or

(B) the prosecution is withdrawn or lapses; or

(C) the court hearing the proceedings determines that the circumstances of the offence were trifling; or

(ii) if—
(A) a prosecution for an offence against this Act in relation to the products has not been commenced within three months of the date of seizure; and

(B) the District Court determines, on application by the owner, that the justice of the case requires that the products be returned or that compensation be paid;

(d) at the end of the period of three years from the date of seizure—

(i) if the products have not been forfeited or returned to the owner, they are forfeited to the Crown; and

(ii) in any case, the owner will not have any right to recover the products or be paid compensation in respect of the products (other than a right that has already arisen or been determined under paragraph (c));

(e) if the products are forfeited otherwise than under paragraph (a), the Minister may sell the products by public tender;

(f) any compensation payable under this section in respect of the products will be in an amount equal to the consideration paid by the owner of the products when he or she purchased them or, where the owner is the manufacturer of the products, their value (determined by reference to the price that would have been obtained from their sale by the owner in the ordinary course of business) as at the date of seizure;

(g) the owner of the products has no right to recover the products or be paid compensation in respect of the products apart from under this section.

Part 6—Trial of nicotine replacement therapy to aid in quitting smoking

70—Trial of nicotine replacement therapy to aid in quitting smoking

(1) The Minister must establish a scheme to trial the effectiveness of using nicotine replacement therapy to overcome the physical addiction to tobacco products.

(2) The Minister must establish the scheme in accordance with the following principles:

(a) at least 1 000 users of tobacco products who wish to quit using tobacco products must participate in the trial;

(b) the trial must be conducted in accordance with established scientific methods using control groups;

(c) participants in the trial must be selected according to a means test;

(d) participants in the trial must receive a subsidy determined by the Minister of up to 75% of any cost incurred by the participant for nicotine replacement therapy but not exceeding $300 per participant;

(e) an evaluation of the trial must be carried out to determine—

(i) whether the nicotine replacement therapy contributed significantly to the success rate of participants quitting the use of tobacco products; and
(ii) whether making nicotine replacement therapy generally affordable would be a cost-effective method of dealing with a serious public health issue.

(3) The Minister must take into account any recommendations of Quit SA when establishing the scheme.

Note—Quit SA is an initiative of The Cancer Council of Australia and the National Heart Foundation (SA Division). Most of its funding is provided by the State Government.

Part 7—Miscellaneous

70A—Confiscation of tobacco products from children

(1) A prescribed person who becomes aware that tobacco products are in the possession of a child may confiscate the products from the child.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to tobacco products that are in the possession of a child in the ordinary course of his or her employment or otherwise for the purpose of sale by retail in accordance with this Act.

(3) If tobacco products are confiscated under subsection (1)—
   (a) the products are forfeited by the child; and
   (b) the products must be destroyed as soon as is reasonably practicable by the prescribed person; and
   (c) no compensation is payable in relation to the confiscation of the products.

(4) In this section—

  prescribed person, in relation to a child, means—
   (a) a member of the police force; or
   (b) any other authorised officer under Part 5; or
   (c) a person performing the duties of a teacher at a school attended by the child (whether or not such duties are being performed on the grounds of the school).

71—Exemptions

(1) Subject to this section, the Governor may, by proclamation—
   (a) exempt a person or tobacco product, or a class of persons or tobacco products, from the operation of a provision of this Act subject to such conditions as may be set out in the proclamation;
   (b) vary or revoke an exemption under this section.

(2) An exemption from the operation of a provision of Part 3 may not be granted under this section except as recommended by the appropriate Minister—
   (a) to facilitate the promotion and conduct of a sporting or cultural event or function; or
   (b) to relieve undue hardship that might result if the exemption were not granted.
(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the appropriate Minister is—
   (a) in relation to an exemption to facilitate the promotion and conduct of a sporting event or function—the Minister for Recreation, Sport and Racing;
   (b) in relation to an exemption to facilitate the promotion and conduct of a cultural event or function—the Minister for the Arts;
   (c) in any other case—the Minister.

(4) The Minister for Recreation, Sport and Racing and the Minister for the Arts must, before recommending that an exemption be granted in relation to a sporting or cultural event or function—
   (a) consult with the Minister; and
   (b) have regard to whether—
      (i) there is national or international interest in the event or function; and
      (ii) there are links between the event or function and other events or functions outside the State; and
      (iii) reasonable efforts have been made to obtain support for the event or function that would not require the granting of such an exemption.

(5) Without limiting subsection (1), the Minister may, by notice in writing, exempt a person, or a class of persons, from the operation of a provision of this Act in respect of an artistic performance.

(6) An exemption under subsection (5) may be conditional or unconditional.

(7) The Minister may, by notice in writing, vary or revoke an exemption under subsection (5).

72—Delegation

(1) A Minister may delegate powers or functions under this Act to any person or body.

(2) A power, duty or function delegated under this section may, if the instrument of delegation so provides, be subdelegated.

(3) A delegation or subdelegation under this section—
   (a) must be by instrument in writing; and
   (b) may be absolute or conditional; and
   (c) does not derogate from the power of the delegator to act in any matter; and
   (d) is revocable at will by the delegator.

73—Register of licences

(1) The Minister must cause a register to be kept of licensees under Part 2.

(2) The register must be kept available for public inspection at a place approved by the Minister during ordinary office hours.
75—False or misleading information
A person must not make a statement that is false or misleading in a material particular (whether by reason of the inclusion or omission of any particular) in any information furnished, or record kept, under this Act.
Maximum penalty: $50 000.

76—Minister may require verification of information
(1) Where a person is required to furnish information under this Act, the Minister may require that the information be verified by statutory declaration.
(2) A person who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a requirement under subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: $20 000.

77—Report from police
The Commissioner of Police must, at the request of the Minister, provide to the Minister any information required by the Minister for the purpose of determining an application for a licence or whether a licence should be suspended or cancelled.

78—Confidentiality
A person must not divulge any information consisting of or relating to information obtained (whether by that person or some other person) in the administration of this Act except—
(a) as authorised by or under this Act; or
(b) with the consent of the person from whom the information was obtained or to whom the information relates; or
(c) in connection with the administration or enforcement of this Act; or
(e) for the purpose of any legal proceedings arising out of the administration or enforcement of this Act.
Maximum penalty: $10 000.

79—General defence
It is a defence to a charge of an offence against this Act if the defendant proves that the offence was not committed intentionally and did not result from any failure on the part of the defendant to take reasonable care to avoid the commission of the offence.

81—Vicarious liability
(2) If an employee or agent is convicted of an offence against this Act, the employer or principal is, subject to the general defence under this Part, guilty of an offence and liable to the same penalty as may be imposed for the principal offence.
(3) If an offence is committed against this Act in relation to a sale, any person who has derived or would, if the sale were completed, expect to derive a direct or indirect pecuniary benefit from the transaction is, subject to the general defence under this Part, guilty of an offence and liable to the same penalty as may be imposed for the principal offence.
82—Prosecutions

Proceedings for an offence against this Act must be commenced—

(a) in the case of an expiable offence—within the time limits prescribed for expiable offences by the Summary Procedure Act 1921;

(b) in any other case—within five years after the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed.

83—Expiation notices may be given to certain children

Despite section 6 of the Expiation of Offences Act 1996, an expiation notice for an offence against this Act may be given to a child who has attained the age of 15 years.

85—Evidence

(1) In any proceedings for an offence against this Act, an apparently genuine document purporting to be—

(a) a certificate of the Minister certifying that a specified person was an authorised officer at a specified date; or

(b) a certificate of the Minister certifying that a specified person was or was not the holder of a licence of a specified kind at a specified date, constitutes proof of the matters so certified in the absence of proof to the contrary.

(2) The presence on any premises of a vending machine from which tobacco products may be obtained is to be taken to constitute conclusive evidence that the occupier of the premises has sold tobacco products by means of the machine.

86—Service

(1) A notice, order or other document to be given to or served on a person under this Act may be given or served—

(a) by delivering it personally to the person or an agent of the person; or

(b) by leaving it for the person at the person's place of residence or business with someone apparently over the age of 16 years; or

(c) by posting it to the person or agent of the person at the person's or agent's last known place of residence or business.

(2) Without limiting the effect of subsection (1), a notice, order or other document required or authorised to be given to or served on a person may—

(a) if the person is the holder of a licence under this Act—be given to or served on the person—

(i) by posting it to the person at the address last provided by the person for that purpose; or

(ii) by transmitting it to the person by facsimile transmission to the number last provided by the person for that purpose; or

(b) if the person is a company or registered body within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth—be served on that company or registered body in accordance with section 109X or 601CX of that Act, as the case requires.
87—Regulations

(1) The Governor may make such regulations as are contemplated by, or necessary or expedient for the purposes of, this Act.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), those regulations may—

(c) prescribe the design, construction and materials of packages containing tobacco products;

(d) prescribe warnings and information (or empower the Minister to give directions as to warnings and information) that must be displayed on packages containing tobacco products;

(e) prescribe other labelling requirements (or empower the Minister to give directions as to other labelling requirements) for packages containing tobacco products;

(f) prescribe warnings that must be displayed at premises at which tobacco products are offered for sale by retail and the manner and form in which those warnings must be displayed;

(fa) prescribe signs that must be displayed in relation to places or areas where smoking is prohibited or permitted and the manner and form in which those signs must be displayed;

(g) impose a penalty not exceeding $2 500 for a breach of a regulation.

(3) A regulation may prescribe a warning in relation to tobacco products generally or in relation to tobacco products of a particular class.

Schedule—Transitional provision

A class A licence in force under Part 2 immediately before the commencement of this Schedule under which a person was carrying on the business of selling tobacco products by retail continues (subject to the provisions of this Act) as a licence under Part 2 authorising the carrying on of such a business for the balance of the period for which the licence was granted (including periods for which it was to have been automatically renewed).

Transitional etc provisions associated with Act or amendments

Tobacco Products Regulation (Dissolution of Sports Promotion, Cultural and Health Advancement Trust) Amendment Act 1998

2—Interpretation

In this Act—

the Minister means the Minister for Human Services;

the Trust means the South Australian Sports Promotion, Cultural and Health Advancement Trust.

7—Transitional provisions

1. All moneys held in account in the Sports Promotion, Cultural and Health Advancement Fund at the Treasury immediately before the commencement of this Act are to be transferred to the Consolidated Account.

2. All property, rights and liabilities vested in or attaching to the Trust immediately before the commencement of this Act vest in or attach to the Minister.
Statutes Amendment (SACAT No 2) Act 2017

269—Transitional provisions

(1) A right of appeal under section 13 of the principal Act in existence before the relevant day (but not exercised before that day) will be exercised as if this Part had been in operation before that right arose, so that the relevant proceedings may be commenced before the Tribunal rather than the District Court.

(2) Nothing in this section affects any proceedings before the District Court commenced before the relevant day.

(3) In this section—

principal Act means the Tobacco Products Regulation Act 1997;

relevant day means the day on which this Part comes into operation;

Tribunal means the South Australian Civil and Administrative Tribunal established under the South Australian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2013.
