Legislative history

The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

Part 1—Preliminary

1—Short title

This Act may be cited as the Tobacco and E-Cigarette Products Act 1997.

3—Objects of Act

In recognition of the fact that the consumption of tobacco products impairs the health of the citizens of the State and places a substantial burden on the State's financial resources, and in recognition of the potential harm caused by smoking e-cigarettes, the objects of this Act are—

- (b) to reduce the incidence of smoking and other consumption of tobacco products and e-cigarettes in the population, especially young people—
 - (i) by requiring health warnings to be displayed on tobacco products and e-cigarette products and otherwise disseminating information about the harmful effects of such smoking or consumption;
 - (ii) by prohibiting the supply of tobacco products and e-cigarette products to children;
 - (iii) by encouraging non-smokers, especially young people, not to start smoking and encouraging and assisting smokers to give up smoking;
 - (iv) by prohibiting or limiting advertising, sponsorships and other practices designed to promote or publicise tobacco products and e-cigarette products and their consumption;
- (c) to protect non-smokers from unwanted and unreasonable exposure to tobacco smoke and e-cigarette vapour.

Part 2—Licences

6—Requirement for licence

A person must not—

- (a) carry on the business of selling tobacco products by retail; or
- (ab) carry on the business of selling e-cigarette products by retail; or
- (b) hold himself or herself out as carrying on such a business, unless the person holds a licence under this Part.

Maximum penalty: $20 000.

Expiation fee: $1 000.

7—Issue or renewal of licence

- (1) The Minister may, on application by a person, issue or renew, or refuse to issue or renew, a licence under this Part.
- (2) The Minister may, if he or she thinks fit, renew a licence despite the fact that application for renewal of the licence was made after the end of the previous term of the licence.

8—Licence term etc

- (1) Subject to this Act, a licence expires on the anniversary of the date of issue of the licence and may be renewed on application for successive terms of one year.
- (2) A licence has effect, on issue or renewal, from the date specified in the licence for that purpose which may be earlier than the date of application for the issue or renewal of the licence.
- (3) The holder of a licence may, at any time, by notice in writing to the Minister, surrender the licence, at which time the licence ceases to have effect.

9—Licence conditions

- (1) The Minister may fix conditions of a licence.

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), a licence condition may limit the sale of tobacco products or e-cigarette products, including by—
 - (a) a condition under which the holder of the licence is prevented from selling such products except at a single place specified in the condition (with the effect that a separate licence will be required by the person for any or each other place at which the person sells such products);
 - (b) a condition that restricts the points of sale of such products within the place at which the holder of the licence may sell such products under the licence.
- (3) The Minister may, on application or at the Minister's own initiative, vary a licence.
- (4) A licence may be varied by endorsement of the licence or by notice in writing to the holder of the licence.
- (5) The holder of a licence must not contravene a condition of the licence.
Maximum penalty: $10 000.
Expiation fee: $500.

10—Form of application and licence fee

- (1) An application for the issue, renewal or variation of a licence must be made to the Minister in a manner and form approved by the Minister and contain the information required by the Minister.
- (2) An applicant must provide any further information that the Minister reasonably requires for the purposes of determining the application.
- (3) An application may not be granted except on payment of the appropriate fee under the regulations.

11—Cancellation or suspension of licence

The Minister may, by written notice to the holder of a licence, suspend or cancel the licence if satisfied that the holder of the licence has contravened this Act or is not or is no longer for any reason a fit and proper person.

12—Review of decision of Minister

- (1) A person who is dissatisfied with a decision of the Minister under this Part may apply to the Minister for a review of the decision.
- (2) An application for review—
 - (a) must be made within one month after the applicant received notice of the decision to which the application relates; and
 - (b) must set out in detail the grounds on which the applicant seeks the review.
- (3) If an application is made under subsection (1), the Minister must review the decision to which the application relates.
- (4) On a review the Minister may—
 - (a) confirm or vary the decision under review; or
 - (b) quash the decision and substitute for it a decision that should, in the Minister's opinion, have been made in the first instance.

- (5) The Minister must inform the applicant in writing of the result of the review.

13—Review

- (1) A person who is dissatisfied with a decision taken by the Minister on a review may apply to SACAT under section 34 of the South Australian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2013 for a review of the Minister's decision.
- (2) An application for review must be made within 1 month after the person receives notice of the Minister's decision.

Part 3—Restrictions on supply or promotion of tobacco products and e-cigarette products

30—Restrictions on retail sale of tobacco products and e-cigarette products

- (1) The following provisions apply in relation to the retail sale of tobacco products:
- (a) a person must not sell cigarettes—
 - (i) singly or loose; or
 - (ii) if the package enclosing the cigarettes—
 - (A) contains, or is designed to contain, fewer than 20 cigarettes; or
 - (B) is able, or is readily able, to be divided into portions containing fewer than 20 cigarettes each;
 - (b) a person must not sell a tobacco product unless it is enclosed in a package that complies with the regulations and is labelled in accordance with the regulations;
 - (c) a person must not sell a tobacco product that is enclosed in 2 or more packages unless each package complies with the regulations and is labelled in accordance with the regulations;
 - (d) a person must not sell a package containing a tobacco product unless the package is wrapped in a material that is wholly transparent;
 - (e) a person must not sell a tobacco product if the order for the product has been placed by mail, telephone, fax, email, Internet or other electronic means.

Maximum penalty: $10 000.

Expiation fee: $500.

- (b) uses abusive, threatening or insulting language to an authorised officer, or a person assisting an authorised officer; or
- (c) refuses or fails to comply with a requirement or direction of an authorised officer under this Part; or
- (d) when required by an authorised officer under this Part to answer a question, refuses or fails to answer the question to the best of the person's knowledge, information and belief; or
- (e) falsely represents, by words or conduct, that he or she is an authorised officer, is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $35 000.

68—Self-incrimination

- (1) It is not an excuse for a person to refuse or fail to answer a question or to produce or provide a record or information as required under this Part on the ground that to do so might tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty.
- (2) If compliance by a person with a requirement to answer a question or to produce or provide a record or information might tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty, then—
- (a) in the case of a person who is required to produce or provide a record or information—the fact of production or provision of the record or the information (as distinct from the contents of the record or the information); or
 - (b) in any other case—the answer given in compliance with the requirement,
- is not admissible in evidence against the person in proceedings for an offence or for the imposition of a penalty (other than proceedings under this Act).

69—Powers in relation to seized products

If tobacco products or e-cigarette products are seized under this Part, the following provisions apply:

- (a) the Minister may, if satisfied that it is necessary to do so to avoid loss due to the deterioration of the products, determine that the products are forfeited to the Crown;
- (b) apart from paragraph (a), the products will be forfeited to the Crown if a court convicts a person of an offence against this Act in relation to the products, unless the court determines that the circumstances of the offence were trifling;
- (c) subject to this section, the owner of the products will be entitled to recover the products or, if the products have been forfeited by determination of the Minister or have deteriorated, will be entitled to be paid compensation by the Crown in respect of the products—
 - (i) if a prosecution for an offence against this Act in relation to the products has been commenced but—
 - (A) the defendant is acquitted; or
 - (B) the prosecution is withdrawn or lapses; or
 - (C) the court hearing the proceedings determines that the circumstances of the offence were trifling; or
 - (ii) if—
 - (A) a prosecution for an offence against this Act in relation to the products has not been commenced within three months of the date of seizure; and
 - (B) the District Court determines, on application by the owner, that the justice of the case requires that the products be returned or that compensation be paid;
- (d) at the end of the period of three years from the date of seizure—
 - (i) if the products have not been forfeited or returned to the owner, they are forfeited to the Crown; and
 - (ii) in any case, the owner will not have any right to recover the products or be paid compensation in respect of the products (other than a right that has already arisen or been determined under paragraph (c));
- (e) any products forfeited under this section may be disposed of in such manner as the Minister may direct;
- (f) any compensation payable under this section in respect of the products will be in an amount equal to the consideration paid by the owner of the products when he or she purchased them or, where the owner is the manufacturer of the products, their value (determined by reference to the price that would have been obtained from their sale by the owner in the ordinary course of business) as at the date of seizure;

- (g) the owner of the products has no right to recover the products or be paid compensation in respect of the products apart from under this section.

Part 7—Miscellaneous

70A—Confiscation of products from children

- (1) A prescribed person who becomes aware that tobacco products or e-cigarette products are in the possession of a child may confiscate the products from the child.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to tobacco products or e-cigarette products that are in the possession of a child in the ordinary course of his or her employment or otherwise for the purpose of sale by retail in accordance with this Act.
- (3) If tobacco products or e-cigarette products are confiscated under subsection (1)—
 - (a) the products are forfeited by the child; and
 - (b) the products must be destroyed as soon as is reasonably practicable by the prescribed person; and
 - (c) no compensation is payable in relation to the confiscation of the products.
- (4) In this section—

prescribed person, in relation to a child, means—

- (a) a member of the police force; or
- (b) any other authorised officer under Part 5; or
- (c) a person performing the duties of a teacher at a school attended by the child (whether or not such duties are being performed on the grounds of the school).

71—Exemptions

- (1) The Governor may, by proclamation—
 - (a) exempt a person, tobacco product or e-cigarette product, or a class of persons, tobacco products or e-cigarette products, from the operation of a provision of this Act subject to such conditions as may be set out in the proclamation;
 - (b) vary or revoke an exemption under this section.
- (5) Without limiting subsection (1), the Minister may, by notice in writing, exempt a person, or a class of persons, from the operation of a provision of this Act in respect of an artistic performance.
- (6) An exemption under subsection (5) may be conditional or unconditional.
- (7) The Minister may, by notice in writing, vary or revoke an exemption under subsection (5).

72—Delegation

- (1) A Minister may delegate powers or functions under this Act to any person or body.
- (2) A power, duty or function delegated under this section may, if the instrument of delegation so provides, be subdelegated.

- (3) A delegation or subdelegation under this section—
- (a) must be by instrument in writing; and
 - (b) may be absolute or conditional; and
 - (c) does not derogate from the power of the delegator to act in any matter; and
 - (d) is revocable at will by the delegator.

73—Register of licences

- (1) The Minister must cause a register to be kept of licensees under Part 2.
- (2) The register must be kept available for public inspection at a place approved by the Minister during ordinary office hours.

75—False or misleading information

A person must not make a statement that is false or misleading in a material particular (whether by reason of the inclusion or omission of any particular) in any information furnished, or record kept, under this Act.

Maximum penalty: $75 000.

76—Minister may require verification of information

- (1) Where a person is required to furnish information under this Act, the Minister may require that the information be verified by statutory declaration.
- (2) A person who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a requirement under subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $35 000.

77—Report from police

The Commissioner of Police must, at the request of the Minister, provide to the Minister any information required by the Minister for the purpose of determining an application for a licence or whether a licence should be suspended or cancelled.

78—Confidentiality

A person must not divulge any information consisting of or relating to information obtained (whether by that person or some other person) in the administration of this Act except—

- (a) as authorised by or under this Act; or
- (b) with the consent of the person from whom the information was obtained or to whom the information relates; or
- (c) in connection with the administration or enforcement of this Act; or
- (e) for the purpose of any legal proceedings arising out of the administration or enforcement of this Act.

Maximum penalty: $20 000.

79—General defence

It is a defence to a charge of an offence against this Act if the defendant proves that the offence was not committed intentionally and did not result from any failure on the part of the defendant to take reasonable care to avoid the commission of the offence.

81—Vicarious liability

- (2) If an employee or agent is convicted of an offence against this Act, the employer or principal is, subject to the general defence under this Part, guilty of an offence and liable to the same penalty as may be imposed for the principal offence.
- (3) If an offence is committed against this Act in relation to a sale, any person who has derived or would, if the sale were completed, expect to derive a direct or indirect pecuniary benefit from the transaction is, subject to the general defence under this Part, guilty of an offence and liable to the same penalty as may be imposed for the principal offence.

82—Prosecutions

Proceedings for an offence against this Act must be commenced—

- (a) in the case of an expiable offence—within the time limits prescribed for expiable offences by the Summary Procedure Act 1921;
- (b) in any other case—within five years after the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed.

83—Expiation notices may be given to certain children

Despite section 6 of the Expiation of Offences Act 1996, an expiation notice for an offence against this Act may be given to a child who has attained the age of 15 years.

85—Evidence

- (1) In any proceedings for an offence against this Act, an apparently genuine document purporting to be—
 - (a) a certificate of the Minister certifying that a specified person was an authorised officer at a specified date; or
 - (b) a certificate of the Minister certifying that a specified person was or was not the holder of a licence of a specified kind at a specified date,constitutes proof of the matters so certified in the absence of proof to the contrary.
- (2) The presence on any premises of a vending machine from which tobacco products or e-cigarette products may be obtained is to be taken to constitute conclusive evidence that the occupier of the premises has sold such products by means of the machine.

86—Service

- (1) A notice, order or other document to be given to or served on a person under this Act may be given or served—
 - (a) by delivering it personally to the person or an agent of the person; or
 - (b) by leaving it for the person at the person's place of residence or business with someone apparently over the age of 16 years; or

- (c) by posting it to the person or agent of the person at the person's or agent's last known place of residence or business.
- (2) Without limiting the effect of subsection (1), a notice, order or other document required or authorised to be given to or served on a person may—
 - (a) if the person is the holder of a licence under this Act—be given to or served on the person—
 - (i) by posting it to the person at the address last provided by the person for that purpose; or
 - (ii) by transmitting it to the person by facsimile transmission to the number last provided by the person for that purpose; or
 - (b) if the person is a company or registered body within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth—be served on that company or registered body in accordance with section 109X or 601CX of that Act, as the case requires.

86A—Immunity

- (1) No personal liability attaches to an authorised officer or any other person engaged in the administration of this Act for an honest act or omission in the performance, exercise or discharge, or purported performance, exercise or discharge, of a function, power or duty under this Act.
- (2) A liability that would, but for subsection (1), lie against a person lies instead against the Crown.

87—Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make such regulations as are contemplated by, or necessary or expedient for the purposes of, this Act.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the regulations may make provision for or in relation to—
 - (a) the design, construction and materials of packages containing tobacco products or e-cigarette products; and
 - (b) labelling requirements for packages containing tobacco products or e-cigarette products; and
 - (c) warnings and information that must be displayed—
 - (i) on packages containing tobacco products or e-cigarette products; and
 - (ii) at premises at which tobacco products or e-cigarette products are offered for sale by retail, (including the manner and form in which such warnings must be displayed);
and
 - (d) other warnings in relation to tobacco products or e-cigarette products generally or tobacco products or e-cigarette products of a particular class; and
 - (e) signs that must be displayed in relation to places or areas where smoking is prohibited or permitted and the manner and form in which those signs must be displayed; and

- (f) fines (not exceeding $10 000) for offences against the regulations; and
 - (g) expiation fees (not exceeding $500) for alleged offences against the regulations; and
 - (h) evidentiary provisions to facilitate proof of contraventions of the Act or the regulations for the purposes of proceedings for offences.
- (3) The regulations may—
- (a) be of general or limited application; and
 - (b) make different provision according to the matters or circumstances to which they are expressed to apply; and
 - (c) make provisions of a saving or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the Tobacco Products Regulation (E-Cigarettes and Review) Amendment Act 2018 or on the commencement of a specified provision of that Act or on the making of regulations under this Act; and
 - (d) provide that a matter or thing in respect of which regulations may be made is to be determined according to the discretion of the Minister or an authorised officer.

Schedule—Transitional provision

A class A licence in force under Part 2 immediately before the commencement of this Schedule under which a person was carrying on the business of selling tobacco products by retail continues (subject to the provisions of this Act) as a licence under Part 2 authorising the carrying on of such a business for the balance of the period for which the licence was granted (including periods for which it was to have been automatically renewed).

Transitional etc provisions associated with Act or amendments

Tobacco Products Regulation (Dissolution of Sports Promotion, Cultural and Health Advancement Trust) Amendment Act 1998

2—Interpretation

In this Act—

the Minister means the Minister for Human Services;

the Trust means the South Australian Sports Promotion, Cultural and Health Advancement Trust.

7—Transitional provisions

- (1) All moneys held in account in the Sports Promotion, Cultural and Health Advancement Fund at the Treasury immediately before the commencement of this Act are to be transferred to the Consolidated Account.
- (2) All property, rights and liabilities vested in or attaching to the Trust immediately before the commencement of this Act vest in or attach to the Minister.

Statutes Amendment (SACAT No 2) Act 2017

269—Transitional provisions

- (1) A right of appeal under section 13 of the principal Act in existence before the relevant day (but not exercised before that day) will be exercised as if this Part had been in operation before that right arose, so that the relevant proceedings may be commenced before the Tribunal rather than the District Court.
- (2) Nothing in this section affects any proceedings before the District Court commenced before the relevant day.
- (3) In this section—

principal Act means the Tobacco Products Regulation Act 1997;

relevant day means the day on which this Part comes into operation;

Tribunal means the South Australian Civil and Administrative Tribunal established under the South Australian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2013.

Tobacco Products Regulation (E-Cigarettes and Review) Amendment Act 2018, Sch 1—Transitional provisions

1—Interpretation

In this Schedule—

principal Act means the Tobacco Products Regulation Act 1997 as in force immediately before the commencement of this clause.

2—Licences

- (1) A licence that is in force under Part 2 of the principal Act immediately before the commencement of this clause will, on the commencement of this clause, be taken to authorise the carrying on of the business of selling e-cigarette products by retail.
- (2) A reference to a tobacco product in a licence condition in force immediately before the commencement of this clause will, on the commencement of section 10 of this Act, be taken to include a reference to an e-cigarette product.

3—References to Tobacco Products Regulation Act 1997

A reference in a licence under the principal Act or in any instrument, contract, agreement or other document to the Tobacco Products Regulation Act 1997 will, on and from the commencement of this clause, have effect as if it were a reference to the Tobacco and E-Cigarette Products Act 1997.
