Legislative history

1—Short title

These regulations may be cited as the Collections for Charitable Purposes (Collection Bins) Regulations 1995.

2—Commencement

These regulations will come into operation on 1 January 1996.

3—Interpretation

In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—the Act means the Collections for Charitable Purposes Act 1939; collection bin means a receptacle left in a public place to enable members of the public to dispose of unwanted goods;

commercial collection bin means a collection bin that a person who does not hold a licence under section 6 of the Act uses to collect unwanted goods.

4—Information to be displayed on commercial collection bins

- (1) One or other of the following statements must be displayed on the upper half of commercial collection bins:

"COMMERCIAL COLLECTION BIN"

"COMMERCIAL RECYCLE CLOTHING BIN".

- (2) The statement must be displayed on as many parts of the bin as is necessary to enable a person approaching the bin at ground level from any direction to read the statement.
- (3) No other information may be displayed on the upper half of a commercial collection bin whether by words, pictures, symbols or any other means except with the approval of the Minister.

- (4) The name and address of the person using a commercial collection bin to collect unwanted goods must be displayed on the lower half of the bin and a telephone number for that person may also be displayed on the lower half of the bin.
- (5) No information may be displayed on a commercial collection bin, whether by words, pictures, symbols or any other means, except—
 - (a) information that is required or permitted to be displayed on the bin by subregulation (1) or (4); or
 - (b) information approved by the Minister in respect of a particular bin or bins.
- (6) The letters used in the statement displayed on the upper half of a commercial collection bin must be at least five centimetres in height.
- (7) The letters and numerals comprising the name and address of the person using a commercial collection bin must be 25 millimetres in height and none of the other letters and numerals displayed on the lower half of the bin may exceed that height.
- (8) All the letters and numerals displayed on a commercial collection bin must be the same colour and tone which must contrast with the background colour and tone of the bin so that they are clearly legible.
- (9) A person who uses a commercial collection bin to collect unwanted goods is guilty of an offence if the bin does not comply with this regulation.

Maximum Penalty: $2 000
