PART 1
PRELIMINARY

Citation

1. These regulations may be cited as the Community Titles Regulations 1996.

Commencement

2. These regulations will come into operation on 4 November 1996.

Interpretation

3. In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—

"the Act" means the Community Titles Act 1996.

Community Titles Regulations 1996

PART 2
REQUIREMENTS RELATING TO PLANS

Scale of plans

4. (1) The following scales are prescribed for the purposes of sections 14(4)(h), 52(4)(f)(ii), 58(3)(e) and 60(3)(f) of the Act:

1:100	1:125	1:150	1:200	1:250
1:300	1:400	1:500	1:750	1:800
1:1000 or any greater number that is a multiple of 10.

(2) The plans referred to in sections 14, 52, 58 and 60 of the Act must include a bar scale that is at least 100 millimetres in length.

Lot entitlements (s. 20(3))

5. The aggregate of the lot entitlements of all community lots defined on a plan of community divisions may be any whole number between 2 and 100 000 but must not be a number that exceeds 100 000.

Encroachments

6. For the purposes of section 27(1)(b)(ii) of the Act—

- (a) associated structures are all structures (including a roof) that are supported by footings that protrude beyond the boundaries of the community parcel and include all things attached to those structures;
- (b) the prescribed distance for the protrusion of footings and associated structures is 200 millimetres or such other distance as the Registrar-General may determine in a particular case.

Minor amendment of plan

7. The minor amendment of the delineation of lots or common property referred to in section 54(3) of the Act is a change in the position of the boundary of a lot or the common property by 200 millimetres or less.

Submission of outer boundary survey plan

8. (1) Subject to subregulation (2), a person who intends making an application for the division of an allotment or allotments by a primary plan of community division must, before making the application, submit to the Registrar-General—

- (a) an outer boundary survey plan of the land to be divided in a form approved by the Registrar-General; and
- (b) the appropriate fee prescribed by schedule 2.

(2) Subregulation (1) does not apply in relation to an application for the division of land in respect of which the Registrar-General has determined that subregulation (1) should not apply.

(3) The Registrar-General must examine the outer boundary survey plan and must, if satisfied that the requirements of these regulations have been met and the information on the plan appears to be adequate and accurate, send a copy of the plan to:

- (a) the applicant or the applicant's agent; and
- (b) the council (if any) for the area in which the land is situated.

Examination of plans

9. The Registrar-General must not deposit a plan under the Act unless he or she has examined the plan and is satisfied with it.

Additional information as to applications

10. The Registrar-General may require a person who has made an application to him or her under the Act to provide him or her with any information that the Registrar-General requires to consider the application.

Certification of irregular boundaries

11. Where a plan shows land bounded by a watercourse, lake, the sea or some other irregular boundary, the Registrar-General may require the accuracy of the boundary as shown on the plan to be certified by a licensed surveyor.

Notification on deposit of plan

12. After the Registrar-General deposits a plan in the Lands Titles Registration Office under the Act he or she must—

- (a) notify the applicant or the applicant's agent in writing of the deposit; and
- (b) notify the council (if any) for the area in which the land is situated in writing of the deposit and send a copy of the deposited plan to the council.

Issue of certificates of title on deposit of plan

13. On depositing a plan of community division in the Lands Titles Registration Office the Registrar-General must issue a separate certificate of title for each lot and the common property created by the plan.

Lease of part of a lot or common property

14. A lease of part of a lot or common property must identify the land let by reference to a plan deposited in the General Registry Office unless the Registrar-General authorises some other method of identification.

Community Titles Regulations 1996

PART 3
ADMINISTRATION OF COMMUNITY SCHEMES

DIVISION 1—GENERAL

Delegation (s. 75(5))

15. (1) A community corporation may delegate any of its functions and powers (except this power of delegation) to a member or employee of the corporation or to a member of a secondary or tertiary corporation within the same community scheme.

(2) A corporation may delegate the following functions and powers to any person:

- (a) the receipt and holding of money and other personal property on behalf of the corporation; and
- (b) payment of money on behalf of the corporation; and
- (c) the preparation of statements of expenditure and statements of accounts; and
- (d) the collection of money due to the corporation; and
- (e) entering into contracts of insurance with insurers on behalf of the corporation; and
- (f) maintaining and keeping records on behalf of the corporation; and
- (g) issuing and signing notices on behalf of the corporation; and
- (h) preparing minutes of meetings of the corporation; and
- (i) providing information as required by the Act on behalf of the corporation; and
- (j) investing money on behalf of the corporation; and
- (k) arranging for the maintenance and repair of the common property on behalf of the corporation.

(3) A corporation cannot delegate a function or power under subregulation (1) or (2) if the function or power is of a kind that can only be performed or exercised by the corporation by passing a special or unanimous resolution.

(4) A delegation by a corporation—

- (a) may be absolute or conditional;
- (b) does not derogate from the power of the corporation to act in any matter.

Matters to be addressed at first general meeting

16. The following are prescribed under section 80(2)(e) of the Act as matters that must be addressed at the first general meeting of a corporation:

- (a) whether the policies of insurance taken out by the developer are adequate;
- (b) whether the corporation should establish a management committee;
- (c) the delegation of functions and powers by the corporation;

- (d) whether the by-laws of the scheme need amendment.

Agenda for annual general meeting (s. 81(5)(d))

17. The agenda for each annual general meeting must include consideration of the policies of insurance required by the Act to be held by the corporation.

Proof of insurance

18. A person who is required by section 106(1) of the Act to insure a building must provide the community corporation with a photocopy of the current certificate of the insurance that he or she has taken out to satisfy that requirement.

Unanimous or special resolution for acquisition of property

19. (1) A community corporation's acquisition of a freehold or leasehold interest in a lot must be authorised by a unanimous resolution of the corporation (see section 112(3)(a) of the Act).

(2) If the cost of the acquisition by a community corporation of property (other than property referred to in subregulation (1))—

- (a) is $5 000 or more the acquisition must be authorised by a unanimous resolution of the corporation; or
- (b) is less than $5 000 the acquisition must be authorised by a special resolution of the corporation.

Interest on arrears of contributions by lot owners (s. 114(4)(b))

20. A community corporation, when fixing interest payable by the owner of a community lot in respect of a contribution, or an instalment of a contribution, that is in arrears must not—

- (a) exceed a rate of 15 per cent per annum; and
- (b) must not demand payment of interest on unpaid interest.

Notice for payment of contribution or instalment (s. 114(6)(a))

21. A notice of a contribution or instalment of a contribution served by a community corporation on the owner of a lot must include the following information:

- (a) identification of the lot in relation to which the contribution or instalment is payable; and
- (b) the amount of the contribution or instalment; and
- (c) in the case of a contribution that is payable in instalments—the amount of each instalment and the day on which each instalment is payable; and
- (d) the day on or before which the contribution or instalment must be paid (being a day not less than 14 days after the notice is served); and
- (e) the total amount that the corporation has decided to raise by way of contributions by the owners of community lots; and
- (f) the purpose or purposes for which the money raised will be used; and
- (g) the rate of interest payable in respect of a contribution or instalment that is in arrears; and

Community Titles Regulations 1996

- (h) the name of the person to whom the contribution or instalment should be sent or delivered.

Resolutions authorising expenditure (s. 119)

22. Expenditure by a community corporation—

- (a) of less than an amount that is equivalent to $2 000 multiplied by the number of community lots in the scheme must be authorised by an ordinary resolution of the corporation;
- (b) of the amount referred to in paragraph (a) or more but less than an amount that is equivalent to $5 000 multiplied by the number of community lots in the scheme must be authorised by a special resolution;
- (c) of the larger of the two amounts referred to in paragraph (b) or more must be authorised by a unanimous resolution.

Register of owners of community lots (s. 135(2))

23. A community corporation must keep a record of information used to compile its register of the names and addresses of the owners of the community lots for a period of at least seven years.

Records (ss. 136 and 137)

24. (1) Documents of the following kinds must be kept by community corporations:

- (a) receipts for the expenditure of money; and
- (b) passbooks, deposit books and all other documents providing evidence of the deposit or investment of money; and
- (c) bank statements and all other documents providing evidence of dealing with money invested or on deposit.

(2) All documents and records kept by a corporation must be kept in an orderly manner to enable them to be found easily for the purposes of inspection or copying.

(3) The following periods are prescribed under sections 136 and 137(2) of the Act as the period for which a corporation must keep its records and documents:

- (a) minutes of meetings—30 years;
- (b) accounting records—7 years;
- (c) any statements of account—7 years;
- (d) notices or orders served on the corporation—7 years;
- (e) correspondence—7 years;
- (f) notices of meetings—7 years.

Audit (s. 138(1) and (4))

25. A community corporation is exempted from the requirement to have the annual statement of accounts audited if—

- (a) all of the community lots of the community scheme are owned by the same person; or
- (b) all money payable to the corporation is received and held by an agent on behalf of the corporation in accordance with the Act and these regulations; or
- (c) the number of community lots in the community scheme is six or less and during the financial year to which the exemption will relate, the corporation has passed a unanimous resolution exempting the corporation from that requirement; or
- (d) the aggregate of the contributions made, or to be made, by members of the corporation in respect of the year to which the statement relates does not exceed $3 000 and the balance standing to the credit of the administrative fund and the sinking fund at the commencement of that year does not exceed $3 000 for each fund.

Fee for provision of information

26. (1) For the purposes of section 139(2) of the Act, the following fees are prescribed:

- (a) in the case of an application for all or any of the information referred to in section 139(1)(a)—
 - (i) where the applicant is the owner of a community lot—no fee;
 - (ii) in any other case—$25 per application;
- (b) in the case of an application for copies of all or any of the documentary material referred to in section 139(1)(b)—
 - (i) where the applicant is the owner of a community lot—$5 per application;
 - (ii) in any other case—$25 per application, plus an additional fee of $10 where the application is for, or includes a request for, a copy of current policies of insurance taken out by the corporation;
- (c) where an application is made to inspect all or any of the documentary material referred to in section 139(1)(c)—
 - (i) where the applicant is the owner of a community lot—no fee;
 - (ii) in any other case—$5 per application.

(2) A community corporation may reduce or waive any fees under subregulation (1).

Services provided by corporations

27. (1) A community corporation may, pursuant to section 143 of the Act, provide to the owner or occupier of a lot any kind of service that relates to the ownership or occupation of the lot.

(2) The provision of a service under subregulation (1) is subject to the following restrictions:

- (a) a service must not be provided to a person who has not agreed with the corporation to accept the service;

Community Titles Regulations 1996

- (b) the cost of the service must be paid for by the persons who have agreed to accept it and must not be subsidised by the corporation.

DIVISION 2—AGENT'S TRUST ACCOUNTS

Authorisation of fees, costs and disbursements (s. 123(b))

28. (1) An agent may withdraw money from a trust account held on behalf of a community corporation in satisfaction of a claim that the agent has against the corporation for fees, costs or disbursements if the corporation has agreed in writing to pay to the agent those fees, costs or disbursements.

(2) An agent who becomes entitled to money held in the agent's trust account in or towards satisfaction of the agent's fees, costs or disbursements must, as soon as practicable (and in any event within three months), transfer the money to an account maintained by the agent for receipts other than trust money.

Maximum penalty: $500.

Authorised trust accounts (s. 124)

29. Accounts for the time being approved by the Commissioner for Consumer Affairs in relation to the holding of trust money under the Land Agents Act 1994 and the Conveyancers Act 1994 are prescribed for the purposes of section 124 of the Act.

Keeping of records

30. For the purposes of section 126(1)(c) of the Act, the detailed accounts of receipts and disbursements of trust money to be compiled by an agent must comply with the following requirements:

- (a) a cash receipt book (or some other form of record approved in writing by the Commissioner for Consumer Affairs on the application of the agent) must be kept in which the agent records the following information in respect of each receipt of trust money:
- (i) the date and reference number of the receipt; and
 - (ii) the name of the person from whom the money is received; and
 - (iii) the name of the community corporation or reference to which the transaction relates; and
 - (iv) brief particulars of the purpose of the receipt; and
 - (v) the amount of the receipt;
- (b) a cash payments book (or some other form of record approved in writing by the Commissioner for Consumer Affairs on the application of the agent) must be kept in which the agent records the following information in respect of each payment of trust money:
- (i) the date and reference number of the cheque by which the payment was made; and
 - (ii) the name of the payee; and

- (iii) the community corporation's name or reference to which the transaction relates; and
 - (iv) brief particulars of the purpose of the payment; and
 - (v) the amount of the cheque;
- (c) trust ledger accounts must be kept separately—
- (i) in respect of each of the agent's clients; and
 - (ii) if the agent performs services for a corporation in respect of a number of transactions between different parties—in respect of each such transaction; and
- (d) each of the separate accounts must contain the following details:
- (i) the name and address of the corporation to whom the accounts relate;
 - (ii) a brief description of the service provided and the transaction to which the accounts relate;
 - (iii) in respect of each receipt or payment of trust money—
 - (A) the date and reference number of the receipt or the cheque by which the payment is made;
 - (B) the name of the person from whom the money is received or to whom the money is paid;
 - (C) brief particulars of the purpose of the receipt or payment;
 - (D) the amount received or paid;
- (e) if the agent transfers money between any of the separate accounts, the transfer must be clearly recorded—
- (i) in both accounts; and
 - (ii) in a transfer journal,
- in sufficient detail that the transfer may be clearly understood;
- (f) at the end of each month, reconciliation statements must be prepared—
- (i) reconciling the balance of the agent's cash books (or other records approved under paragraph (a) or (b)) with the balance of the agent's trust account; and
 - (ii) reconciling the balances of the ledgers comprised in the agent's trust ledger accounts with the balance of the agent's trust account,
- (however, the agent is not required to set out in the statement a list of individual balances, or the names of the corporations on whose behalf money is held).

Community Titles Regulations 1996

Receipt of trust money

31. For the purposes of section 126(2)(a) of the Act, the receipt that an agent must make available to a person making a payment of trust money—

- (a) must—
 - (i) be legibly written on a form comprised in a series of consecutively pre-numbered duplicate receipt forms marked with the name of the agent and the words "Trust Account"; or
 - (ii) be in some other form approved in writing by the Commissioner for Consumer Affairs on the application of the agent; and
- (b) must contain the following information:
 - (i) the date of payment; and
 - (ii) the name of the person making the payment; and
 - (iii) whether the payment is by cash, cheque or bank draft and, if the payment is by cheque, the name of the drawer of the cheque; and
 - (iv) the name of the corporation for whom the money is received; and
 - (v) brief particulars of the purpose of the payment; and
 - (vi) the amount of the payment.

Payment of trust money

32. (1) An agent must not make a payment of trust money in cash.

Maximum penalty: $500.

- (2) When an agent makes a payment of trust money by cheque, the agent—
 - (a) must ensure that the cheque is marked with the name of the agent and the words "Trust Account"; and
 - (b) must—
 - (i) cause the cheque to be crossed and endorsed "Not negotiable"; or
 - (ii) obtain from the person receiving the cheque a receipt that complies with subregulation (3) and keep the receipt as part of the agent's records; and
 - (c) must prepare and keep as part of the agent's records a cheque stub or voucher containing the following information:
 - (i) the date and reference number of the cheque;
 - (ii) the name of the payee;
 - (iii) the client name or reference and brief particulars of the purpose of the payment;

- (iv) the amount of the cheque.

Maximum penalty: $500.

(3) The receipt must be legible and contain the following information:

- (a) the date and reference number of the cheque; and
- (b) particulars identifying the trust account against which the cheque is drawn; and
- (c) the name of the payee; and
- (d) brief particulars of the purpose of the payment; and
- (e) the amount of the cheque.

Audit of trust accounts

33. (1) For the purposes of section 127(1)(a) of the Act, the audit period in respect of which an agent must have the accounts and records audited is each financial year.

(2) In carrying out an audit, the auditor must—

- (a) make checks that will enable the auditor to give an opinion as to whether the agent has, during the period covered by the audit, complied with the Act and these regulations relating to the agent's accounts and records; and
- (b) ascertain what trust accounts were kept by the agent during that period; and
- (c) make a general test examination of any trust account kept by the agent and of the pass books and statements relating to any such account during that period; and
- (d) make a comparison as to no fewer than two dates (one to be the last day of the period of the audit and one other to be a date within that period selected by the auditor) between—
 - (i) the liabilities of the agent to the agent's clients as shown by the agent's trust ledger accounts and the records kept under these regulations; and
 - (ii) the aggregate of the balances standing to the credit of the agent's trust account; and
- (e) ask for such information and explanations as the auditor may require for the purposes of this regulation.

(3) For the purposes of section 127(1)(b) of the Act, the statement relating to the audit must be prepared by the auditor and must include all matters relating to the agent's accounts and records that should, in the auditor's opinion, be communicated to the community corporation and, in particular, deal with each of the following matters:

- (a) whether the accounts and records appear to have been kept regularly and properly written up at all times;
- (b) whether the accounts and records have been ready for examination at the periods appointed by the auditor;
- (c) whether the agent has complied with the auditor's requirements;

Community Titles Regulations 1996

- (d) whether, at any time during the period of the audit, the agent's trust account was overdrawn and, if so, the full explanation for that given by the agent;
- (e) whether the agent has, or has had, any debit balances in his or her trust account and the explanation or reason for such a debit given by the agent;
- (f) whether the auditor has received and examined the notice given to the auditor under regulation 34 and the result of that examination.

(4) The auditor must attach to the auditor's statement a copy of the agent's notice delivered to the auditor under regulation 34(1).

(5) The auditor must verify the statement by statutory declaration and give a signed copy of the statement to the agent.

(6) If the auditor in the course of auditing the agent's accounts and records discovers—

- (a) that they are not kept in a manner that enables them to be properly audited; or
- (b) a matter that appears to the auditor to involve dishonesty or a breach of the law by the agent; or
- (c) a loss or deficiency of trust money or a failure to pay or account for trust money; or
- (d) a failure to comply with the Act or these regulations,

the auditor must, as soon as possible, give a report in respect of the discovery to the Minister and the agent concerned.

Maximum penalty: $500.

(7) For the purposes of section 127(2)(b) of the Act, an agent must lodge an audit statement or declaration within two months after the end of each audit period.

Agent's statement

34. (1) An agent who is required to have accounts and records audited must, before the completion of the audit, certify—

- (a) under his or her hand; or
- (b) in the case of a firm of agents—under the hands of not less than two partners of the firm; or
- (c) in the case of a body corporate agent—under the hands of not less than two directors of the body, and deliver to the auditor a notice setting out in detail, as of the last day of the period to which the audit relates, particulars of—

- (d) the names of all corporations on whose behalf the agent is holding trust money and the amount of the credit of each such corporation; and
- (e) all negotiable or bearer securities or deposit receipts in the name of the agent which represent money drawn from the agent's trust account and which were held by the agent on that day; and

- (f) —
 - (i) the names of the trust accounts in which the balance of the agent's trust money is lodged and the balances on that date of those accounts; and
 - (ii) if the trust account balances are not in agreement with the balances of the agent's ledger accounts—a statement reconciling those balances.

Maximum penalty: $500.

- (2) The notice must be verified by statutory declaration—
 - (a) of the agent; or
 - (b) in the case of a firm of agents—of not less than two of the partners of the firm; or
 - (c) in the case of a body corporate agent—of not less than two directors of the body.
- (3) The agent must give the auditor making the next succeeding audit of the agent's accounts and records—
 - (a) at the request of the auditor, a copy of the notice, together with a signed copy of the auditor's statement of the last preceding audit of the agent's accounts and records; or
 - (b) if the agent's accounts and records are being audited for the first time or, if for any other reason a copy of the notice cannot be produced for the purpose of the audit—before completion of the audit, a notice containing the same particulars as to money, negotiable or bearer securities and deposit receipts held on the first day of the period to which the audit relates.

Maximum penalty: $500.

Certain persons may not audit accounts and records of agent

35. A person must not audit the accounts and records of an agent if the person—

- (a) is, or has been within two years, an employee or partner of the agent; or
- (b) is an employee of another agent actually carrying on business as an agent; or
- (c) is, himself or herself, an agent carrying on business as an agent.

Maximum penalty: $500.

Form No. 9—Notice under section 154(2) of the Act

To [insert name(s) and address(es)]¹ of person(s) to whom notice is given].

I/We [insert name and address of each person giving notice] give you notice that I/we [intend to make] have made an application to the Registrar-General under [insert reference to provision of the Act] of the Community Titles Act 1996 [here state the subject matter of the application] in respect of the land comprised in Certificate of Title Register Book Volume Folio

If you do not consent to the Registrar-General granting the application you must lodge a written objection with the Registrar-General.

I/We are required by section 154(2) of the Community Titles Act 1996 to—

- (a) post this notice to you; and*
- (b) publish a copy of this notice in a newspaper circulating generally throughout the State; and*
- (c) if the subject matter of the application relates to or involves an encroachment—leave a copy of this notice in a conspicuous place on or near the land over which the encroachment has occurred.*

If 28 days have passed since I/we complied with paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) and you have not lodged an objection to the application with the Registrar-General before he or she grants the application, the Registrar-General may grant the application without your consent. After consent has been granted it will be too late for you to lodge an objection.

Dated this day of [year]
