- (b) that the probationer is not likely to comply with a summons.

(3) A summons must be served on the probationer—

- (a) personally; or

(5) If a guarantor fails to appear before the probative court in compliance with a summons and the court is satisfied that the summons was duly served on the guarantor, the court may make orders in relation to enforcing the guarantee in the absence of the guarantor.

(6) If a probationer is found guilty of an offence committed during the term of a bond by a court that has jurisdiction to deal with proceedings for breach of the bond, the court may, on an oral application by the Crown, proceed to hear and determine the application forthwith if it is satisfied that the probationer has had adequate notice of the intention of the Crown to make such an application.
