7—Meaning of supervision

(1) For the purposes of these regulations, dental treatment is provided to a patient by a person under the supervision of a dental practitioner (the supervising practitioner) if and only if—

(a) the supervising practitioner has responsibility for the care of the patient; and

(b) the treatment is of a kind authorised by the supervising practitioner's registration; and

(c) the supervising practitioner has personally attended the patient; and

(d) the supervising practitioner has prepared or approved a written individual treatment plan for the patient within the previous 6 months; and

(e) the treatment is provided in accordance with the plan; and

(f) the treatment is provided in accordance with a supervision agreement between the person and the supervising practitioner.

(2) In this regulation—

supervision agreement means an agreement approved by the Board that specifies—

(a) the dental treatment that a person may provide only if a dental practitioner whose registration authorises the provision of the treatment of the kind concerned is present on the premises where the treatment is being provided and is available—

(i) to advise or assist the person in the provision of the treatment; or

(ii) to intervene in the provision of the treatment, as may be necessary in the circumstances of the case; and

(b) the dental treatment that a person may provide only if a dental practitioner whose registration authorises the provision of the treatment of the kind concerned is contactable by telephone, fax, email or other electronic means to provide advice or instruction to the person, if necessary, while the person is providing the treatment.

8—Authority conferred by registration as dental prosthetist (section 31(c) of Act)

For the purposes of section 31(c) of the Act, registration on the register of dental prosthetists authorises the prosthetist to provide dental treatment consisting of—

(a) the manufacture of dental prostheses; and

(b) the manufacture of corrective dental appliances prescribed by a registered dentist or registered specialist; and

(c) the fitting of, and taking impressions or measurements for the purposes of fitting, a denture to a jaw—

(i) in which there are no natural teeth or parts of natural teeth or implants; and

(ii) where the jaw, gum and proximate tissue are not abnormal, diseased or suffering from a surgical wound; and

(d) with the written approval of the Board, the fitting of, and taking impressions or measurements for the purposes of fitting, a denture to a jaw—

(i) in which there are natural teeth or parts of natural teeth; and

(ii) where the jaw, gum and proximate tissue are not abnormal, diseased or suffering from a surgical wound.

(1) For the purposes of section 31(e) of the Act, registration on the register of dental hygienists authorises—

(a) a dental hygienist employed in the public sector or by a prescribed body to provide dental treatment of a kind prescribed by subregulation (2) in accordance with the conditions of the hygienist’s employment;

(b) a dental hygienist employed in the private sector (other than by a prescribed body) to provide dental treatment of a kind prescribed by subregulation (2) under the supervision of a registered dentist or registered specialist.

(2) For the purposes of subregulation (1), the following kinds of dental treatment are prescribed:

(a) oral examination and the assessment and recording of oral conditions;

(b) the taking of impressions of teeth (other than for the purposes of prosthodontic or prosthetic dental treatment);

(c) the application of preventive and therapeutic solutions to teeth;

(d) preventive dental procedures, including the application of fissure sealants;
(e) the non-surgical management of gingival and periodontal conditions, including root debridement;

(f) orthodontic procedures that do not initiate tooth movement (including, but not limited to, orthodontic band sizing or selection, the bonding of fixed orthodontic retainers, the disengagement of arch-wires and the removal of orthodontic attachments and adhesives);

(g) the placement and removal of metallic and non-metallic separators;

(h) splinting to stabilise mobile teeth;

(i) the polishing and recontouring of restorations;

(j) the application of professionally available bleaching agents;

(k) the removal of sutures;

(l) the application and removal of periodontal packs;

(m) diagnostic dental radiography, but only if—

   (i) the dental hygienist is licensed under section 31 of the Radiation Protection and Control Act 1982 to operate ionising radiation apparatus used for such radiography; and

   (ii) the exposure of a patient to ionising radiation for the purpose of such radiography has been authorised under Part 3 Division 1 of the Radiation Protection and Control (Ionising Radiation) Regulations 2000;

(n) dental treatment consisting of—

   (i) the administration of local anaesthetic solutions for the purposes of dental procedures; and

   (ii) the placement of temporary restorations not involving removal of a tooth structure, but only if the dental hygienist has been authorised in writing by the Board to provide dental treatment of that kind.

10—Authority conferred by registration as dental therapist (section 31(f) of Act)

(1) For the purposes of section 31(f) of the Act, registration on the register of dental therapists authorises—

   (a) a dental therapist employed in the public sector or by a prescribed body in accordance with the conditions of the therapist's employment; or

   (b) a dental therapist employed in the private sector (other than by a prescribed body) under the supervision of a registered dentist or registered specialist, to provide—

   (c) dental treatment of a kind prescribed by subregulation (2) to any person; and

   (d) dental treatment consisting of the diagnosis of oral conditions and planning of dental treatment to a person under the age of 18 years.
(2) For the purposes of subregulation (1), the following kinds of dental treatment are prescribed:

(a) oral examination;
(b) the taking of impressions of teeth (other than for the purposes of prosthodontic or prosthetic dental treatment);
(c) the application of preventive and therapeutic solutions to teeth;
(d) preventive dental procedures, including the application of fissure sealants;
(e) the administration of local anaesthetic solutions for the purposes of dental procedures;
(f) dental prophylaxis, including the removal of dental calculus;
(g) splinting to stabilise mobile teeth;
(h) restoration of coronal tooth structure, including pulp capping and pulpotomy;
(i) extraction of deciduous teeth;
(j) the referral to—
   (i) in the case of a dental therapist who provides dental treatment under the supervision of a registered dentist or registered specialist—that dentist or specialist; or
   (ii) in any other case—a registered dentist or registered specialist, of a patient whose present situation requires dental treatment of a kind not authorised by the dental therapist's registration;

(k) diagnostic dental radiography, but only if—
   (i) the dental therapist is licensed under section 31 of the Radiation Protection and Control Act 1982 to operate ionising radiation apparatus used for such radiography; and
   (ii) the exposure of a patient to ionising radiation for the purpose of such radiography has been authorised under Part 3 Division 1 of the Radiation Protection and Control (Ionising Radiation) Regulations 2000.

11—Authority conferred by registration as dental student (section 31(h) of Act)

For the purposes of section 31(h) of the Act, registration on the register of dental students authorises the student to provide, under the supervision of a dental practitioner giving instruction in a course of study that provides qualifications for registration as a dental practitioner under the Act in which the student is enrolled, dental treatment of a kind authorised by the practitioner's registration.

12—Use of certain titles or descriptions prohibited (section 44 of Act)

For the purposes of section 44(1) and (3) of the Act, the words specified in column 1 of the table in Schedule 1 are prescribed in relation to a person who is not registered on the register specified opposite in column 2.
13—Obligation to report medical unfitness or unprofessional conduct of dental practitioner or dental student (section 54 of Act)

(1) For the purposes of section 54(2) of the Act, the following information is required to be included in a report to the Board:

(a) the diagnosis of the dental practitioner or dental student and its likely duration and prognosis;

(b) if the person making the report is of the opinion that the dental practitioner or dental student is or may be medically unfit to provide dental treatment only in a particular branch of dentistry—a statement specifying the particular branch of dentistry and the reasons for the opinion.

(2) For the purposes of section 54(2a) of the Act, the following information is required to be included in a report to the Board:

(a) the date, time and place at which it is alleged the dental practitioner or dental student engaged in unprofessional conduct;

(b) the nature of the alleged unprofessional conduct.

14—Meaning of health product

For the purposes of the definition of health product in section 69 of the Act, therapeutic goods within the meaning of the Therapeutic Goods Act 1989 of the Commonwealth are declared to be health products for the purposes of Part 7 of the Act.

15—Meaning of health service
