PART 1
PRELIMINARY

Citation

1. These regulations may be cited as the Firearms Regulations 1993.

Commencement

2. These regulations will come into operation on 1 September 1993.

Revocation

3. The Firearms Regulations 1980 as varied are revoked.

Interpretation

4. (1) In these regulations unless the contrary intention appears—

"the Act" means the Firearms Act 1977;

"active member" of a club means a member of a club who—

(a) —

- (i) in the case of a club that includes amongst its regular activities the shooting of firearms—participates in an activity of the club that involves the shooting of firearms on at least six days in each calendar year;
- (ii) in the case of a club that has been established to foster the interests of persons who collect and display firearms and that does not include as part of its regular activities the firing of firearms—attends four or more meetings of the club in each calendar year; or

(b) makes a personal contribution (not being a financial contribution) to the club in a manner and to an extent that satisfies the Registrar that he or she is an active member of the club;

"antique firearm" means a firearm (not being a prescribed firearm)—

(a) that was made before 1900; and

(b) —

- (i) that is designed to fire breech loading cartridges but for which live rounds of ammunition are not commercially manufactured; or
- (ii) that is not designed to fire breech loading cartridges; and

(c) that is kept solely for curiosity, display or for ornamental purposes; and

(d) that is not used to fire projectiles;

3.

"captive bolt gun" means a firearm designed to kill animals by firing a bolt that remains part of the firearm during and after firing;

"dog retriever" means a firearm designed to fire a projectile for a dog to retrieve;

"home-made firearm" means a firearm that incorporates a barrel or receiver that was made in Australia by a person who is not a licensed dealer in firearms;

"owner" in relation to land includes an occupier of the land;

"paint-ball shooting" means shooting a paint-ball firearm when participating in an organised activity on the grounds of a recognised paint-ball operator;

"power head" means a firearm (not being a captive bolt gun) designed to kill animals by striking the muzzle against the animal;

"rocket line launcher" means a firearm that is designed to throw a rope, cable or line of any other kind;

"underwater firearm" means a firearm—

- (a) designed to fire projectiles by means of compressed air or other compressed gas; and
- (b) designed to be used underwater; and
- (c) kept solely for use underwater;

"Very pistol" means a handgun designed to fire flares or exploding shells.

(2) For the purposes of these regulations the length of the barrel of a firearm will be taken to be the distance from the breech face to the muzzle.

Definition of firearm

5. A toy firearm that is not designed to fire metallic projectiles is not included in the definition of "firearm" in the Act unless, in the Registrar's opinion, it should be regulated as a firearm under the Act and is the subject of a declaration to that effect by the Registrar published in the Gazette.

PART 2
CLASSES OF FIREARMS

Classes of firearms

6. Firearms are divided into the following classes:

- (a) exempt firearms;
- (b) prescribed firearms;
- (c) firearms not included in paragraph (a) or (b).

Exempt firearms

7. The following firearms are exempt from the provision of the Act and these regulations:

- (a) antique firearms;
- (b) captive bolt guns;
- (c) tools or instruments powered by burning propellant or by compressed air or other compressed gas;
- (d) rocket line launchers;
- (e) devices designed to throw a net to catch animals;
- (f) devices designed to throw an object for shotgun target practice;

* * * * *

- (h) dog retrievers;
- (i) Very pistols used only for signalling distress or rescuing persons in distress;
- (j) a firearm that—
 - (i) has been fitted with a transmitter of infrared electromagnetic waves or a receiver of such waves or both; and
 - (ii) has been modified so as to be incapable of firing a projectile; and
 - (iii) cannot easily be modified to fire projectiles;
- (k) an underwater firearm.

Prescribed firearms

8. (1) The following firearms are prescribed firearms:

- (a) automatic firearms;

5.

- (b) mortars, bazookas, rocket propelled grenades and similar military firearms designed to fire explosive projectiles;
- (c) firearms having one or more barrels of less than 330 millimetres in length (but not handguns, air rifles, air guns or power heads);
- (d) shotguns having one or more barrels of less than 450 millimetres in length;
- (e) air rifles and air guns having one or more barrels of less than 250 millimetres in length;
- (f) firearms having an overall length of less than 750 millimetres (but not handguns or power heads);
- (g) firearms (but not handguns) designed to be reduced in overall length by folding, telescoping or any other means to a length of less than 750 millimetres and then to be capable of being fired;
- (h) firearms designed to fire projectiles containing tear gas or any other lachrymatory substance or any nauseating substance or poison (but not firearms designed to tranquillise, immobilise or administer vaccines or other medicines to animals);
- (i) firearms designed as, and having the appearance of, other objects;
- (j) home-made firearms.

(2) When determining the overall length of a paint-ball firearm for the purposes of subregulation (1)(f) the gas cylinder and the hose connecting the cylinder to the firearm (if any) will be included.

Amendment of definition of class B firearms

9. The definition of "class B firearms" in section 5(1) of the Act is amended by inserting the following paragraph after paragraph (c):

- (ca) double barrel centre fire rifles that are not designed to hold additional rounds in a magazine.

PART 3
LICENCES

DIVISION 1—FIREARMS LICENCES

Form of application

11. An application for a firearms licence, or the renewal of a firearms licence, must be in a form approved by the Registrar.

Purposes for which firearms may be used

12. (1) A firearms licence must be endorsed by the Registrar with the purpose or purposes for which the firearm or firearms of the class or classes authorised by the licence may be used by the holder of the licence.

(2) Subject to subregulation (3), one or more of the following purposes may be endorsed on a firearms licence:

- (a) use as a member of a recognised firearms club—1;
- (b) target shooting—2;
- (c) hunting—3;
- (d) paint-ball shooting—4;
- (e) use in relation to carrying on the business of primary production or in the course of employment by a person who carries on such a business—5;
- (f) use in the course of carrying on the business of guarding property or use in guarding property in the course of employment by a person who carries on that business—6;
- (g) collecting and displaying firearms;
- (h) such other purpose as is approved by the Registrar—7.

(3) If the purpose of collecting and displaying firearms is endorsed on a licence no other purpose may be endorsed on the licence.

(4) A licence endorsed with the purpose of collecting and displaying firearms cannot authorise the possession of a prescribed firearm or a class D firearm¹.

¹If a prescribed firearm or a class D firearm is rendered unusable in a manner stipulated by the Registrar it ceases to be a firearm (see definition of firearm in section 5(1) of the Act) and is therefore no longer subject to regulation.

(5) The Registrar must not grant an application for the grant or renewal of a collector's licence unless he or she is satisfied that—

- (a) the applicant has, or genuinely intends to acquire, a collection of firearms that has, or will have, significant commemorative, historical, investment or other value; and 7.

- (b) the applicant is an active member of a recognised firearms club that—
- (i) has been established to foster the interests of persons who collect and display firearms; and
 - (ii) does not include as part of its regular activities the firing of firearms.

(6) The endorsement referred to in subregulation (2)(f) operates only so long as the holder of the licence holds an appropriate licence under the Security and Investigation Agents Act 1995.

* * * * *

(9) The holder of a firearms licence who is a member of a recognised firearms club is not entitled to use a firearm for hunting in the course of club activities unless the licence, by separate endorsement, authorises the use of that class of firearm for hunting.

(10) The purposes listed in paragraphs (a) to (h) of subregulation (2) will be sufficiently endorsed on a licence by endorsing on the licence the number appearing at the end of the relevant paragraph.

Checks to be made by the Registrar

12A. Before granting an application for a firearms licence or to renew or vary a firearms licence, the Registrar must check the application against the checklist adopted for that purpose by the Australasian Police Minister's Council.

DIVISION 2—PRESCRIBED FIREARMS

Authorised purposes

13. A person may possess and use a prescribed firearm pursuant to a firearms licence for the purpose of theatrical or cinematic productions or for such other purpose or purposes as are approved by the Registrar.

DIVISION 3—DEALER'S LICENCES

Form of application

14. An application for a dealer's licence, or the renewal of a dealer's licence, must be in a form approved by the Registrar.

Records of firearms purchased and sold

15. (1) A dealer must compile records in duplicate of firearms purchased and sold in a form approved by the Registrar for that purpose.

(2) Within seven days after the end of each month the dealer must deliver the original records in respect of that month to the Registrar.

(3) The duplicate copy of the records must be kept for at least three years at the dealer's premises.

(4) Where no firearms have been purchased or sold by a dealer during a month the dealer must deliver a copy of the appropriate form to the Registrar with "Nil Return" written across it.

Transfers of firearms through agency of dealer

15A. (1) Where possession of a firearm is transferred through the agency of a licensed dealer under section 15B(9)(b) of the Act the dealer must—

- (a) satisfy himself or herself by inspecting the relevant permit and licence that the person acquiring the firearm is entitled to acquire and possess it; and
- (b) record—
 - (i) the name and address of the person transferring and the person acquiring the firearm and the number of each of their firearms licences; and
 - (ii) the class, make, calibre and serial number or other identification of the firearm; and
 - (iii) where the firearm is lent or hired—the duration and the terms of the loan or hire; and
- (c) provide the Registrar with the information recorded under paragraph (b) within one month after possession of the firearm is transferred.

(2) The dealer must not transfer the firearm unless he or she has complied with subregulation (1)(a) and (b).

Records of transfers of firearms

15B. (1) A dealer must compile the records referred to in regulation 15A and a dealer or an authorised officer (as the case requires) must compile the records referred to in section 15C of the Act in duplicate in a form approved by the Registrar.

(2) Within 7 days after the end of each month the dealer or authorised officer must deliver the original records referred to in subregulation (1) in respect of that month to the Registrar.

(3) The duplicate copy of the records must be kept for at least three years at the dealer's or club's premises.

(4) If the dealer has not witnessed the transfer of possession of any firearms and has not acted as agent in the transfer of possession of any firearms during a month, the dealer must deliver a copy of the appropriate form to the Registrar with "Nil Return" written across it.

Other records

16. (1) A dealer must compile records of firearms received by the dealer for repair, consignment or safe keeping in a form approved by the Registrar for that purpose.

(1a) A dealer must, if required to do so by the Registrar, compile records of ammunition purchased by the dealer and ammunition sold by the dealer in a form approved by the Registrar for that purpose.

(2) The records must be kept for at least three years at the dealer's premises.

DIVISION 4—QUALIFICATIONS TO HOLD LICENCE

Training and examinations

17. (1) The Registrar may require an applicant for a firearms licence or a dealer's licence or for the addition of classes of firearms to which a licence relates or for the endorsement of a further purpose or purposes on a licence to complete to the satisfaction of the Registrar one or more of the following:

- (a) a course in the safe handling, carriage and use of firearms nominated by the Registrar;
- (b) a written examination in the safe handling, carriage and use of firearms nominated by the Registrar;
- (c) a practical examination in the safe handling, carriage and use of firearms nominated by the Registrar.

(2) Subregulation (1) does not apply to an application for the renewal of a licence—

- (a) unless a period of one year or more has elapsed since the licence expired; or
- (b) unless the licence will authorise the possession and use of additional classes of firearm or will authorise the possession and use of firearms for additional purposes; or
- (c) unless the licence is endorsed for use in the course of carrying on the business of guarding property or use in guarding property in the course of employment by a person who carries on that business.

Instructors and examiners

18. (1) The Registrar may authorise any suitable person to conduct a course or examination for the purposes of this Division.

(2) A person who conducts a course or examination under this Division must compile in a form approved by the Registrar and keep for at least three years a record of the names and addresses of all persons who attend the course or sit for the examination.

(3) A person referred to in subregulation (1) must provide the Registrar with such information as he or she requests relating to courses or examinations conducted by the person.

DIVISION 5—CONDITIONS OF LICENCES

Conditions of firearms licences

19. (1) It is a condition of a firearms licence that—

- (a) the holder of the licence must give the Registrar written notice in a form approved by the Registrar of all changes to his or her name or address within 14 days after the change occurs;
- (b) every firearm that the licence holder has possession of pursuant to the licence must comply with section 24A of the Act;

- (c) the holder of the licence must comply with the provisions of Part 6 that apply to, or in relation to, firearms held pursuant to the licence;
- (d) when a firearm or ammunition is not secured as required by Part 6 the holder of the licence must take all reasonable precautions to ensure that the firearm or ammunition is not lost or stolen or does not come into the possession of an unauthorised person;
- (e) the holder of the licence must report the theft, loss or destruction of a firearm to which the licence relates to a member of the police force within 14 days after the theft, loss or destruction occurs;
- (f) where the holder of a licence had informed the Registrar when applying for the licence of the place at which he or she intended to keep firearms pursuant to the licence when not in use and the manner in which he or she intended securing those firearms, the holder of the licence must not, without the approval of the Registrar, change the place at which the firearms are kept or the manner in which they are secured;
- (g) the holder of the licence must whenever required to do so by the Registrar provide the Registrar with information that the Registrar requires to determine whether he or she should take action under section 20(1a) of the Act.

(2) It is a condition of a firearms licence that authorises the use and possession of a class C firearm that the holder of the licence must within 14 days before each anniversary of the granting or renewal of the licence, provide the Registrar with information that the Registrar requires to determine whether he or she should take action under section 20(1a) of the Act.

(3) It is a condition of a firearms licence that authorises the possession and use of a class C firearm that the holder of the licence may only use a firearm of that class if the requirements set out in one or more of the paragraphs of section 15A(3) of the Act or in regulations under paragraph (d) of subsection (3) of that section are satisfied and then only if his or her use of the firearm is consistent with the relevant paragraph or regulation.

(4) Where the only paragraph of section 15A(3) of the Act satisfied by the holder of a firearms licence authorising the possession and use of a class C firearm is paragraph (b) (membership of The South Australian Clay Target Association Incorporated or the Australian Clay Target Association Incorporated and membership of a recognised firearms club affiliated with either of those associations) it is a further condition of the licence that the holder must be an active member of the club.

(5) For the purposes of subregulation (3) the requirements of paragraph (a) of section 15A(3) of the Act will not be taken not to be satisfied on the ground that the holder of the licence has possession of two or more class C firearms if his or her possession of those firearms is consistent with another paragraph of section 15A(3) or with a regulation under paragraph (d) of that section.

(6) It is a condition of a firearms licence that authorises the possession and use of a class D firearm that the holder of the licence may only use a firearm of that class for the purpose of destroying animals and then only if his or her livelihood is gained partly or wholly from professional shooting.

(7) It is a condition of a firearms licence that authorises the possession and use of a class H firearm that the holder of the licence may only use a firearm of that class—

- (a) if the holder is an active member of a recognised firearms club; or
- (b) in the course of carrying on the business of guarding property or in guarding property in the course of employment by a person who carries on that business; or
- (c) for the purpose of collecting and displaying firearms; or
- (d) for such other purpose as is approved by the Registrar.

(8) Where the purpose endorsed on a firearms licence is the collecting and displaying of firearms, the following are further conditions of the licence:

- (a) that in the case of all firearms in the collection manufactured after 1900—
 - (i) the bolt, breech block or firing pin of the firearm must be locked in a container kept separately from the firearm; or
 - (ii) the trigger of the firearm must be immobilised by means of a trigger lock; or
 - (iii) the firearm is secured by such other method as is approved by the Registrar; and
- (b) that the holder of the licence is an active member of a recognised firearms club that—
 - (i) has been established to foster the interests of persons who collect and display firearms; and
 - (ii) does not include as part of its regular activities the firing of firearms; and
- (c) that the holder of the licence does not have possession of any ammunition that can be used in a firearm owned by the collector for the purpose of collecting and displaying firearms (excluding ammunition for use in a firearm that the collector is authorised to have possession of and use for some other purpose endorsed on a separate firearms licence); and
- (d) that none of the firearms included in the collection is a prescribed firearm; and
- (e) that the firearms included in the collection must not be fired without the written approval of the Registrar.

(9) Where the purpose, or one of the purposes, endorsed on a firearms licence is paint-ball shooting, it is a condition of the licence that only a paint-ball firearm will be used for the purposes of paint-ball shooting.

(10) A licence to possess a prescribed firearm is subject to the following conditions in addition to the conditions prescribed by subregulation (1):

- (a) the firearm to which the licence relates must not be used to fire a projectile;
- (b) the firearm must be kept at the premises and in the manner specified in the licence unless approval to the contrary is granted by the Registrar;
- (c) the holder of the licence must not surrender control of the firearm except when disposing of the firearm.

(11) The conditions imposed by subregulations (3) and (6) do not apply to a licence held solely to enable the holder of the licence to possess and use firearms for the purposes of a contract with the Crown in right of this State or in any of the Crown's other capacities or for the purpose of tendering for such a contract.

Conditions of dealers' licences

19A. (1) It is a condition of a dealer's licence that—

- (a) the dealer must give the Registrar written notice in a form approved by the Registrar of all changes to his or her name or address within 14 days after the change occurs;
- (b) the dealer must comply with the provisions of Part 6 that apply to, or in relation to, firearms or ammunition held pursuant to the licence;
- (c) when a firearm or ammunition is not secured as required by Part 6 the dealer must take all reasonable precautions to ensure that the firearm or ammunition is not lost or stolen or does not come into the possession of an unauthorised person;
- (d) the dealer must report the theft, loss or destruction of a firearm that is owned or held by the dealer in the course of carrying on business as a dealer in firearms to a member of the police force within 14 days after the theft, loss or destruction occurs;
- (e) that, subject to subregulation (2), the dealer does not carry on business as a dealer in firearms or ammunition except at the premises authorised by the licence;
- (f) that in the course of carrying on business as a dealer in firearms the dealer does not keep firearms at any premises except those referred to in paragraph (e) unless he or she does so for the purpose of testing or repairing those firearms;
- (g) that the dealer must not deal in—
 - (i) mechanisms or other fittings that can be fitted to a firearm to convert it to an automatic firearm; or
 - (ii) mechanisms or other fittings that, when fitted to a suitable firearm, will enable the firearm to fire grenades or other explosive projectiles;

- (h) that during the hours that members of the public have access to the premises referred to in paragraph (e) the dealer displays the licence, or a copy of the licence (the copy does not need to include a photograph of the holder of the licence), in those premises in a position in which it is likely to be seen and read by members of the public;
- (i) that the dealer identifies, in a manner approved by the Registrar, each firearm that he or she owns in the course of carrying on business as a dealer in firearms;
- (j) that the dealer must produce to a member of the police force on request the records kept by him or her pursuant to the Act and these regulations.

(2) A dealer may—

- (a) exhibit firearms and ammunition for the purpose of sale by auction and may sell firearms or ammunition by auction at a place other than his or her premises;
- (b) exhibit firearms and ammunition for any other purpose at places other than his or her premises if he or she does not exhibit—
 - (i) two or more identical firearms; or
 - (ii) more than 50 rounds of identical ammunition.

DIVISION 6—EXEMPTION FROM REQUIREMENT TO BE LICENSED

Exemption from requirement to be licensed

20. (1) An offence is not committed against section 11 of the Act by—

- (a) a person of or over the age of 14 but under the age of 18 who has possession of or uses a registered firearm if—
 - (i) he or she is with and is under the continuous supervision of his or her parent or guardian or some other person approved by his or her parent or guardian;

and

 - (ii) the person providing the supervision holds a firearms licence authorising possession of the firearm for the purpose for which it is being used;
- (b) a person of or over the age of 14 but under the age of 18 who has possession of or uses a firearm if that person is (with the consent of his or her parent or guardian) with and is under the continuous supervision of a recognised coach who holds a firearms licence authorising possession of the firearm for the purpose for which it is being used;
- (c) a person who has possession of or uses a firearm for the purpose of a course or examination in the safe handling, carriage and use of firearms if that person is with and is under the continuous supervision of a person authorised by the Registrar to conduct the course or examination;

- (d) a person of or over the age of 18 who has possession of or uses a firearm if that person is with and is under the continuous supervision of a person who is registered as the owner of the firearm and who holds a firearms licence authorising possession of the firearm for the purpose for which it is being used;
- (da) a person who has possession of or uses a class C firearm on the grounds of a recognised firearms club that is affiliated with The South Australian Clay Target Association Incorporated or the Australian Clay Target Association Incorporated for the purpose of shooting in an activity of the club conducted in accordance with the rules of the Australian Clay Target Association Incorporated;
- (e) a person of or over the age of 14 but under the age of 18 who has possession of or uses a firearm at facilities provided by the South Australian Sports Institute with the consent of his or her parent or guardian;
- (f) a person of any age who has possession of or uses a firearm (including a prescribed firearm)—
 - (i) in the course of rehearsal for or the performance of a theatrical production; or
 - (ii) in the course of rehearsal for or the filming of a scene in the production of a film, if the person is under the continuous supervision of a person who holds a firearms licence authorising possession of the firearm for the purpose for which it is being used.

(2) An offence is not committed against section 11 of the Act by a person who is of or over the age of 10 but under the age of 14 in the circumstances set out in subregulation (1)(a) or (b) if the firearm concerned is a class A firearm.

(2a) For the purposes of subregulation (1)(d), a person will be taken to be registered as the owner of a firearm if he or she is the nominee of a body, whether incorporate or unincorporate, that is registered as the owner of the firearm.

(3) In this regulation—

"recognised coach" means a person who has been recognised by a recognised firearms club as being a fit and proper person to instruct others in the skills of using firearms.

Acquisition and supply of gas cylinders

21. A person who acquires or supplies a cylinder of compressed gas designed for use in a firearm is exempt from section 21b of the Act in relation to the acquisition or supply of the cylinder.

DIVISION 7—GENERAL

Company nominee

22. (1) A company that holds a licence must appoint a person—

- (a) who is, in the opinion of the Registrar, a fit and proper person to have control of the company's firearms; and
- (b) who is employed by the company and has his or her usual place of residence in the State, to have control of the company's firearms at the place at which they are kept by the company.

(2) Without limiting the meaning of "fit and proper person" in subregulation (1)(a), a person will be taken not to be a fit and proper person for the purposes of that subregulation if the Registrar would refuse to grant a firearms licence to that person.

(3) A person appointed under subregulation (1) must keep a record of—

- (a) the firearms under his or her control; and
- (b) the names of the persons who have possession of those firearms and the periods during which they have possession of them.

(4) A company must give the Registrar written notice in a form approved by the Registrar of the name and address of the person appointed by the company under subregulation (1).

Replacement of licence

23. If, where a person has applied for replacement of a licence that has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Registrar is satisfied on information provided by the applicant or on such other evidence as he or she requires that the licence has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Registrar may, on payment of the prescribed fee, issue a replacement for the licence.

PART 4
ACQUISITION AND REGISTRATION OF FIREARMS

Application for permits

24. An application for a permit to acquire a firearm must be in a form approved by the Registrar.

Checks to be made by the Registrar

24A. Before granting an application for a permit to acquire a firearm, the Registrar must check the application against the checklist adopted for that purpose by the Australasian Police Minister's Council.

Application to register a firearm

25. (1) Subject to subregulation (2), an application to register a firearm must be in a form approved by the Registrar and the applicant must produce the following to the member of the police force to whom the application is made:

- (a) the permit authorising the acquisition of the firearm; and
- (b) the firearm; and
- (c) the licence authorising the person producing the firearm to have possession of it.

(2) A person who applies for registration of a firearm in circumstances referred to in regulation 50(5) is not bound to comply with subregulation (1)(a) or (c).

Acquisition of class C firearms

26. The following requirements are prescribed for the purposes of section 15A(3)(d) of the Act:

- (a) in relation to the acquisition of class C firearms for the purpose of collection and display—
 - (i) the Registrar is satisfied that the applicant for the permit to acquire the class C firearm has, or genuinely intends to acquire, a collection of firearms that has, or will have, significant commemorative, historical, investment or other value; and
 - (ii) the firearm is to be acquired to form part of the collection; and
 - (iii) the applicant is an active member of a recognised firearms club that—
 - (A) has been established to foster the interests of persons who collect and display firearms; and
 - (B) does not include as part of its regular activities the firing of firearms;

17.

- (b) in relation to the acquisition of class C firearms by the Royal Zoological Society of South Australia Incorporated—
- (i) the applicant for the permit to acquire the class C firearm is the Royal Zoological Society of South Australia Incorporated; and
 - (ii) the Registrar is satisfied that the Society needs the firearm for the operation of its zoos.

Certificate of registration

27. (1) The Registrar must issue a certificate of registration to the person in whose name the firearm is registered.

(2) The Registrar may, on payment of the prescribed fee, issue a certificate to replace one that has been lost, stolen or destroyed.

PART 5
ACQUISITION OF AMMUNITION

Application for permit

28. An application to the Registrar for a permit to acquire ammunition—

- (a)* must be in a form approved by the Registrar; and
- (b)* must be accompanied by information required by the Registrar; and
- (c)* must be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

Limit on quantity of ammunition

28A. A person must not own or have in his or her possession ammunition that exceeds the reasonable needs of that person for the immediately following period of 12 months.

PART 6
SECURITY OF FIREARMS AND AMMUNITION

Possession pursuant to firearms licence

29. (1) A person (not being a dealer) who has possession of a class A or B firearm or the receiver of a class A or B firearm, must keep the firearm or receiver secured by—

- (a) securely attaching and locking it to part of the building in which it is kept; or
- (b) keeping it in a locked cabinet made of hardwood or steel that is securely attached to the building in which it is kept; or
- (c) keeping it in a locked safe made of steel that is securely attached to the building in which it is kept; or
- (d) keeping it in a locked steel and concrete strong room; or
- (e) such other method as is approved by the Registrar.

(2) A person (not being a dealer) who has possession of a class C, D or H firearm or the receiver of a class H firearm must keep the firearm or receiver secured by—

- (a) keeping it in a locked safe made of steel that is securely attached to the building in which it is kept; or
- (b) keeping it in a locked steel and concrete strong room; or
- (c) such other method as is approved by the Registrar.

(3) A cabinet or safe referred to in subregulation (1) or (2) must—

- (a) be fitted with fittings and locks that prevent it from being easily forced open; and
- (b) be made of material of sufficient thickness to prevent it being easily broken, opened or destroyed.

(4) Despite subregulations (1)(c) and (2)(a), a safe need not be attached to the building if its mass when empty is 150 kilograms or more.

Possession of prescribed firearms

30. A person who has possession of a prescribed firearm must keep the firearm secured in accordance with the conditions of the licence authorising possession of the firearm.

Possession of firearms by dealers

31. (1) Subject to this regulation, a person who has possession of a class A, B, C, D or H firearm or the receiver of a firearm in his or her capacity as a dealer must keep the firearm or receiver secured by one of the methods set out in regulation 29 in respect of the relevant class of firearm.

(2) A dealer is not required to comply with subregulation (1) during periods that his or her premises are open to the public in respect of class A or B firearms that are on display to members of the public entering the premises if the public does not have access to the firearms.

(3) A dealer is not required to comply with subregulation (1) during periods that his or her premises are open to the public in respect of class H firearms that are on display to members of the public entering the premises if—

- (a) the public does not have access to the firearms; and
- (b) the firearms are secured in a manner approved by the Registrar.

Ammunition

32. (1) Ammunition must be stored in a locked container separately from firearms.

(2) A person must not have possession of a round of ammunition that includes high explosives or that is designed to kill, injure or incapacitate by means of smoke or chemicals.

(3) A person must not have possession of a round of military ammunition unless—

- (a) it has been modified so that it is incapable of being fired; or
- (b) it is of United Nations Hazard classification Code 1.4S and has a calibre of less than 19.1mm.

Security of dealer's building

33. A dealer must ensure that the premises at which he or she carries on the business of dealing in firearms is properly secured against unlawful entry whenever the premises are unoccupied.

Exemption

34. The Registrar may exempt a person from compliance with this Part subject to such conditions as he or she thinks fit and may vary or revoke an exemption at any time.

Exclusion from s. 35A of the Act

44A. (1) A person who carries on the business of carrying goods may carry a firearm and ammunition, or cause a firearm and ammunition to be carried, by the same vehicle, vessel or aircraft if—

- (a) the owner of the firearm and the owner of the ammunition are being carried by the same vehicle, vessel or aircraft and no ammunition is carried in the chamber, breech or a magazine of the firearm; or
- (b) the firearm and ammunition are carried in the same vehicle, vessel or aircraft with the approval of the Registrar.

(2) For the purposes of section 35A(2) of the Act, a class C, D or H firearm must not be transported if there is a round of ammunition in the chamber, breech or a magazine of the firearm.

Records

45. (1) Records that a person is required to compile and keep under the Act, these regulations or the conditions of a licence must be produced on demand to the Registrar or a member of the police force.

(2) All alterations made to records compiled and kept under the Act, these regulations or the conditions of a licence must be made so that the entry that is altered remains clearly legible.

Waiver of firearms licence fee

46. The Registrar may waive payment of the fee for, or for the renewal of, a firearms licence that is endorsed for use in guarding property in the course of employment by a person who carries on the business of guarding property if—

- (a) the licence is not endorsed for any other purpose; and
- (b) the employee who has possession of a firearm pursuant to the licence will only have possession of the firearm when on the employer's premises and when carrying out the duties of his or her employment.

Form of applications and licences, etc.

47. (1) An application to the Registrar under the Act or these regulations must, unless otherwise provided, be in a form approved by the Registrar.

(2) A licence, permit or registration certificate granted or issued by the Registrar must, unless otherwise provided, be in a form approved by the Registrar.

Alteration, destruction, etc., of firearm

48. (1) A notice to the Registrar under section 25 of the Act must be in a form approved by the Registrar.

* * * * *

(3) A person (other than a dealer) who advertises a firearm for sale must include in the advertisement the identification number or combination of numbers and letters stamped or engraved on the firearm.

International visitor firearms permits

49. (1) The Registrar may, on the application of a visiting shooter, issue an international visitor firearms permit to the shooter.

(2) The application—

- (a) must be in a form approved by the Registrar; and
- (b) must include, or be accompanied by, such information as the Registrar requires.

(3) The applicant must—

- (a) provide such further information as the Registrar requires in order to determine the application; and
- (b) provide all information in connection with the application in the form required by the Registrar; and
- (c) provide such proof of the information supplied as the Registrar requires.

(4) A permit—

- (a) may be issued for such term and subject to such conditions as the Registrar thinks fit; and
- (b) may be varied or revoked by the Registrar at any time.

(5) A permit issued under this regulation—

- (a) must identify the firearm or firearms to which it applies;
- (b) must not be issued in relation to a class D firearm or a prescribed firearm.

(6) A visiting shooter may possess and use a firearm in South Australia for the purpose of, or for a purpose related to, competitive shooting in accordance with an international visitor firearms permit issued to the shooter under this regulation or in accordance with a permit issued to the shooter under a law of another State or a Territory of the Commonwealth corresponding with this regulation.

(7) A visiting shooter referred to in subregulation (6) is exempt from each of the provisions of the Act and these regulations that he or she would otherwise be required to comply with in relation to activities authorised by the permit.

(8) In this regulation—

"visiting shooter" means a person who is visiting, or who intends visiting, Australia to participate in competitive shooting.

Exemption of persons from outside the State

50. (1) Subject to this regulation, an unlicensed person whose usual place of residence is out of South Australia may possess and use a firearm in South Australia for a purpose permitted by these regulations if the person is authorised to do so under the law of his or her usual place of residence.

(1a) Subregulation (1) does not entitle a person whose usual place of residence is outside Australia to possess or use a class C, D or H firearm for hunting.
