Part 3—Dual representation

29—Circumstances in which conveyancer may act for both parties

- (1) For the purposes of section 30 of the Act, a conveyancer is authorised to act for both the transferor and transferee, or the grantor and grantee, of property or rights under a transaction if—

- (b) the conveyancer has a personal or pecuniary interest in the transaction arising otherwise than from the conveyancer's services as a conveyancer in respect of the transaction.

Part A—Parties and land

Part B—Purchaser's cooling-off rights and proceeding with the purchase

Part C—Statement with respect to required particulars

†Part D—Certificate with respect to prescribed inquiries by registered agent

Schedule

Preliminary

To the purchaser:

The purpose of a statement under section 7 of the Land and Business (Sale and Conveyancing) Act 1994 is to put you on notice of certain particulars concerning the land to be acquired.

If you intend to carry out building work on the land, change the use of the land or divide the land, you should make further inquiries to determine whether this will be permitted. For example, building work may not be permitted on land not connected to a sewerage system or common drainage scheme if the land is near a watercourse, dam, bore or the River Murray and Lakes.

The Aboriginal Heritage Act 1988 protects any Aboriginal site or object on the land. Details of any such site or object may be sought from the "traditional owners" as defined in that Act.

If you desire additional information, it is up to you to make further inquiries as appropriate.

Instructions to the vendor for completing this statement:

† means strike out or omit the Part, Division, Particulars or item if not applicable.

* means strike out or omit the option that is not applicable.

If there is insufficient space to provide any particulars required, continue on attachments.

Part B—Purchaser's cooling-off rights and proceeding with the purchase

To the purchaser:

Right to cool-off

(section 5)

1—Right to cool-off and restrictions on that right

You may notify the vendor of your intention not to be bound by the contract for the sale of the land UNLESS—

- (a) you purchased by auction; or
- (b) you purchased on the same day as you, or some person on your behalf, bid at the auction of the land; or
- (c) you have, before signing the contract, received independent advice from a legal practitioner and the legal practitioner has signed a certificate in the prescribed form as to the giving of that advice; or
- (d) you are a body corporate; or
- (e) the contract is made by the exercise of an option to purchase not less than 5 clear business days after the grant of the option and not less than 2 clear business days after service of this form; or
- (f) the sale is by tender and the contract is made not less than 5 clear business days after the day fixed for the closing of tenders and not less than 2 clear business days after service of this form; or
- (g) the contract also provides for the sale of a business that is not a small business.

2—Time for service

The cooling-off notice must be served—

- (a) if this form is served on you before the making of the contract—before the end of the second clear business day after the day on which the contract was made; or
- (b) if this form is served on you after the making of the contract—before the end of the second clear business day from the day on which this form is served.

However, if this form is not served on you at least 2 clear business days before the time at which settlement takes place, the cooling-off notice may be served at any time before settlement.

3—Form of cooling-off notice

The cooling-off notice must be in writing and must be signed by you.

4—Methods of service

The cooling-off notice must be—

- (a) given to the vendor personally; or
- (b) posted by registered post to the vendor at the following address:

- (d) left for the vendor's agent (with a person apparently responsible to the agent) at, or posted by registered post to the agent at, the following address:
(being *the agent's address for service under the Land Agents Act 1994/an address nominated by the agent to you for the purpose of service of the notice).

Note—

Section 5(3) of the Land and Business (Sale and Conveyancing) Act 1994 places the onus of proving the giving of the cooling-off notice on the purchaser. It is therefore strongly recommended that—

- (a) if you intend to serve the notice by leaving it for the vendor's agent at the agent's address for service or an address nominated by the agent, you obtain an acknowledgment of service of the notice in writing;
- (b) if you intend to serve the notice by fax, you obtain a transmission report in relation to the sending of the fax.

5—Effect of service

If you serve such a cooling-off notice on the vendor, the contract will be taken to have been rescinded at the time when the notice was served. You are then entitled to the return of any money you paid under the contract other than—

- (a) the amount of any deposit paid if the deposit did not exceed $100; or
- (b) an amount paid for an option to purchase the land.

Proceeding with the purchase

If you wish to proceed with the purchase—

- (a) it is strongly recommended that you take steps to make sure your interest in the property is adequately insured against loss or damage;
- (b) pay particular attention to the provisions in the contract as to time of settlement—it is essential that the necessary arrangements are made to complete the purchase by the agreed date—if you do not do so, you may be in breach of the contract;
- (c) you are entitled to retain the solicitor or registered conveyancer of your choice.

Note—

These questions relate to details about the land that may be known by the vendor. A "YES" answer to the questions at items 2(1) or 2(2) may indicate that a potentially contaminating activity has taken place at the land (see sections 103C and 103H of the Environment Protection Act 1993) and that assessments or remediation of the land may be required at some future time.

A "YES" answer to any of the questions in this item may indicate the need for the purchaser to seek further information regarding the activities, for example, from the council or the EPA.

3—Licences and exemptions recorded by EPA in public register

Does the EPA hold any of the following details in the public register:

- (a) details of a current licence issued under Part 6 of the Environment Protection Act 1993 to conduct, at the land—

*YES/NO
- (h) details of a licence issued under the repealed Waste Management Act 1987 to produce prescribed waste (within the meaning of that Act) at the land?
*YES/NO

Note—

These questions relate to details about licences and exemptions required to be recorded by the EPA in the public register. If the EPA answers "YES" to any of the questions—

- in the case of a licence or exemption under the Environment Protection Act 1993—
 - the purchaser may obtain a copy of the licence or exemption from the public register on payment of the prescribed fee; and
 - the purchaser should note that transfer of a licence or exemption is subject to the conditions of the licence or exemption and the approval of the EPA (see section 49 of the Environment Protection Act 1993); and
- in the case of a licence under a repealed Act—the purchaser may obtain details about the licence from the public register on payment of the prescribed fee.

A "YES" answer to any of these questions may indicate that a potentially contaminating activity has taken place at the land (see sections 103C and 103H of the Environment Protection Act 1993) and that assessments or remediation of the land may be required at some future time.

The EPA will not provide details about licences to conduct the following prescribed activities of environmental significance (within the meaning of Schedule 1 Part A of the Environment Protection Act 1993): waste transport business (category A), waste transport business (category B), dredging, earthworks drainage, any other activities referred to in Schedule 1 Part A undertaken by means of mobile works, helicopter landing facilities, marinas and boating facilities or discharges to marine or inland waters.

*YES/NO
- (j) details of records, held by the former South Australian Waste Management Commission under the repealed Waste Management Act 1987, of waste (within the meaning of that Act) having been deposited on the land between 1 January 1983 and 30 April 1995?
*YES/NO

Note—

These questions relate to details required to be recorded by the EPA in the public register. If the EPA answers "YES" to any of the questions, the purchaser may obtain those details from the public register on payment of the prescribed fee.

5—Pollution and site contamination on the land—other details held by EPA

Does the EPA hold any of the following details in relation to the land or part of the land:

- (a) a copy of a report known as a "Health Commission Report" prepared by or on behalf of the South Australian Health Commission (under the repealed South Australian Health Commission Act 1976)?

6—Further information held by councils

Does the council hold details of any development approvals relating to—

- (a) commercial or industrial activity at the land; or
- (b) a change in the use of the land or part of the land (within the meaning of the Development Act 1993)?

*YES/NO

Note—

The question relates to information that the council for the area in which the land is situated may hold. If the council answers "YES" to the question, it will provide a description of the nature of each development approved in respect of the land. The purchaser may then obtain further details from the council (on payment of any fee fixed by the council). However, it is expected that the ability to supply further details will vary considerably between councils.

A "YES" answer to paragraph (a) of the question may indicate that a potentially contaminating activity has taken place at the land (see sections 103C and 103H of the Environment Protection Act 1993) and that assessments or remediation of the land may be required at some future time.

It should be noted that—

- the approval of development by a council does not necessarily mean that the development has taken place;
- the council will not necessarily be able to provide a complete history of all such development that has taken place at the land.

7—Further information for purchasers

Note—

The purchaser is advised that other matters under the Environment Protection Act 1993 (that is, matters other than those referred to in this Statement) that may be relevant to the purchaser's further enquiries may also be recorded in the public register. These include:

†Schedule—Division 3—Community lots and strata units

Matters to be considered in purchasing a community lot or strata unit

The property you are buying is on strata or community title. There are special obligations and restrictions that go with this kind of title. Make sure you understand these. If unsure, seek legal advice before signing a contract. For example:

Governance

You will automatically become a member of the body corporate, which includes all owners and has the job of maintaining the common property and enforcing the rules. Decisions, such as the amount you must pay in levies, will be made by vote of the body corporate. You will need to take part in meetings if you wish to have a say. If outvoted, you will have to live with decisions that you might not agree with.

If you are buying into a mixed use development (one that includes commercial as well as residential lots), owners of some types of lots may be in a position to outvote owners of other types of lots. Make sure you fully understand your voting rights, see later.

Use of your property

You, and anyone who visits or occupies your property, will be bound by rules in the form of articles or by-laws. These can restrict the use of the property, for example, they can deal with keeping pets, car parking, noise, rubbish disposal, short-term letting, upkeep of buildings and so on. Make sure that you have read the articles or by-laws before you decide whether this property will suit you.

Depending on the rules, you might not be permitted to make changes to the exterior of your unit, such as installing a television aerial or an air-conditioner, building a pergola, attaching external blinds etc without the permission of the body corporate. A meeting may be needed before permission can be granted. Permission may be refused.

Note that the articles or by-laws could change between now and when you become the owner: the body corporate might vote to change them. Also, if you are buying before the community plan is registered, then any by-laws you have been shown are just a draft.

Are you buying a debt?

If there are unpaid contributions owing on this property, you can be made to pay them. You are entitled to know the financial state of the body corporate and you should make sure you see its records before deciding whether to buy. As a prospective owner, you can write to the body corporate requiring to see the records, including minutes of meetings, details of assets and liabilities, contributions payable, outstanding or planned expenses and insurance policies. There is a fee. To make a request, write to the secretary or management committee of the body corporate.

Expenses

The body corporate can require you to maintain your property, even if you do not agree, or can carry out maintenance and bill you for it.

The body corporate can require you to contribute to the cost of upkeep of the common property, even if you do not agree. Consider what future maintenance or repairs might be needed on the property in the long term.

Guarantee

As an owner, you are a guarantor of the liabilities of the body corporate. If it does not pay its debts, you can be called on to do so. Make sure you know what the liabilities are before you decide to buy. Ask the body corporate for copies of the financial records.

Contracts

The body corporate can make contracts. For example, it may engage a body corporate manager to do some or all of its work. It may contract with traders for maintenance work. It might engage a caretaker to look after the property. It might make any other kind of contract to buy services or products for the body corporate. Find out what contracts the body corporate is committed to and the cost.

The body corporate will have to raise funds from the owners to pay the money due under these contracts. As a guarantor, you could be liable if the body corporate owes money under a contract.

Buying off the plan

If you are buying a property that has not been built yet, then you cannot be certain what the end product of the development process will be. If you are buying before a community plan has been deposited, then any proposed development contract, scheme description or by-laws you have been shown could change.

Mixed use developments—voting rights

You may be buying into a group that is run by several different community corporations. This is common in mixed use developments, for example, where a group of apartments is combined with a hotel or a group of shops. If there is more than one corporation, then you should not expect that all lot owners in the group will have equal voting rights. The corporations may be structured so that, even though there are more apartments than shops in the group, the shop-owners can outvote the apartment owners on some matters. Make enquiries so that you understand how many corporations there are and what voting rights you will have.

†Schedule 2

Preliminary

To the purchaser:

The purpose of a statement under section 8 of the Land and Business (Sale and Conveyancing) Act 1994 is to put you on notice of certain particulars concerning the business to be acquired and any land to be acquired as part of that business.

If you intend to carry out building work on the land, change the use of the land or divide the land, you should make further inquiries to determine whether this will be permitted. For example, building work may not be permitted on land not connected to a sewerage system or common drainage scheme if the land is near a watercourse, dam, bore or the River Murray and Lakes.

The Aboriginal Heritage Act 1988 protects any Aboriginal site or object on the land. Details of any such site or object may be sought from the "traditional owners" as defined in that Act.

If you desire additional information, it is up to you to make further inquiries as appropriate.

Instructions to the vendor for completing this statement:

† means strike out or omit the Part, Schedule, Division, Particulars or item if not applicable.

* means strike out or omit the option that is not applicable.

If there is insufficient space to provide any particulars required, continue on attachments.

The particulars set out under the headings "Particulars relating to environment protection" and "Particulars relating to Livestock Act 1997" in Schedule 2 Division 2 must be included if the matters set out under those headings affect, presently or prospectively, the business the subject of the sale, regardless of whether land is sold under the contract for sale of the business. If land is sold under the contract, the particulars must be included in relation to both the land and the business the subject of the sale.

*YES/NO

If YES, give details of all environmental assessments that the vendor is aware of and whether they were carried out or commenced before or after the vendor acquired an interest in the land:

Note—

These questions relate to details about the land that may be known by the vendor. A "YES" answer to the questions at items 2(1) or 2(2) may indicate that a potentially contaminating activity has taken place at the land (see sections 103C and 103H of the Environment Protection Act 1993) and that assessments or remediation of the land may be required at some future time.

A "YES" answer to any of the questions in this item may indicate the need for the purchaser to seek further information regarding the activities, for example, from the council or the EPA.

3—Licences and exemptions recorded by EPA in public register

Does the EPA hold any of the following details in the public register:

- (a) details of a current licence issued under Part 6 of the Environment Protection Act 1993 to conduct, at the land—
- (i) a waste or recycling depot (as referred to in clause 3(3) of Schedule 1 Part A of that Act); or
 - (ii) activities producing listed wastes (as referred to in clause 3(4) of Schedule 1 Part A of that Act); or
 - (iii) any other prescribed activity of environmental significance under Schedule 1 of that Act?

*YES/NO

- (b) details of a licence no longer in force issued under Part 6 of the Environment Protection Act 1993 to conduct, at the land—
- (i) a waste or recycling depot (as referred to in clause 3(3) of Schedule 1 Part A of that Act); or
 - (ii) activities producing listed wastes (as referred to in clause 3(4) of Schedule 1 Part A of that Act); or
 - (iii) any other prescribed activity of environmental significance under Schedule 1 of that Act?

*YES/NO
- (h) details of a licence issued under the repealed Waste Management Act 1987 to produce prescribed waste (within the meaning of that Act) at the land?
*YES/NO

Note—

These questions relate to details about licences and exemptions required to be recorded by the EPA in the public register. If the EPA answers "YES" to any of the questions—

- in the case of a licence or exemption under the Environment Protection Act 1993—
 - the purchaser may obtain a copy of the licence or exemption from the public register on payment of the prescribed fee; and
 - the purchaser should note that transfer of a licence or exemption is subject to the conditions of the licence or exemption and the approval of the EPA (see section 49 of the Environment Protection Act 1993); and
- in the case of a licence under a repealed Act—the purchaser may obtain details about the licence from the public register on payment of the prescribed fee.

A "YES" answer to any of these questions may indicate that a potentially contaminating activity has taken place at the land (see sections 103C and 103H of the Environment Protection Act 1993) and that assessments or remediation of the land may be required at some future time.

The EPA will not provide details about licences to conduct the following prescribed activities of environmental significance (within the meaning of Schedule 1 Part A of the Environment Protection Act 1993): waste transport business (category A), waste transport business (category B), dredging, earthworks drainage, any other activities referred to in Schedule 1 Part A undertaken by means of mobile works, helicopter landing facilities, marinas and boating facilities or discharges to marine or inland waters.

Note—

These questions relate to details required to be recorded by the EPA in the public register. If the EPA answers "YES" to any of the questions, the purchaser may obtain those details from the public register on payment of the prescribed fee.

5—Pollution and site contamination on the land—other details held by EPA

Does the EPA hold any of the following details in relation to the land or part of the land:

6—Further information held by councils

Does the council hold details of any development approvals relating to—

- (a) commercial or industrial activity at the land; or
- (b) a change in the use of the land or part of the land (within the meaning of the Development Act 1993)?

*YES/NO

Note—

The question relates to information that the council for the area in which the land is situated may hold. If the council answers "YES" to the question, it will provide a description of the nature of each development approved in respect of the land. The purchaser may then obtain further details from the council (on payment of any fee fixed by the council). However, it is expected that the ability to supply further details will vary considerably between councils.

A "YES" answer to paragraph (a) of the question may indicate that a potentially contaminating activity has taken place at the land (see sections 103C and 103H of the Environment Protection Act 1993) and that assessments or remediation of the land may be required at some future time.

It should be noted that—

- the approval of development by a council does not necessarily mean that the development has taken place;
- the council will not necessarily be able to provide a complete history of all such development that has taken place at the land.

7—Further information for purchasers

Note—

The purchaser is advised that other matters under the Environment Protection Act 1993 (that is, matters other than those referred to in this Statement) that may be relevant to the purchaser's further enquiries may also be recorded in the public register. These include:

- details of prosecutions and other enforcement action;
- details of civil proceedings;
- other details prescribed under the Environment Protection Act 1993 (see section 109(3)(I)).

Details of these matters may be obtained from the public register on payment to the EPA of the prescribed fee.

it will be noted in the items under the heading Environment Protection Act 1993 under the Table of Particulars in this Statement. Details of any registered documents may be obtained from the Lands Titles Registration Office.

†Schedule 2—Division 3—Community lots and strata units

Matters to be considered in purchasing a community lot or strata unit

The property you are buying is on strata or community title. There are special obligations and restrictions that go with this kind of title. Make sure you understand these. If unsure, seek legal advice before signing a contract. For example:

Governance

You will automatically become a member of the body corporate, which includes all owners and has the job of maintaining the common property and enforcing the rules. Decisions, such as the amount you must pay in levies, will be made by vote of the body corporate. You will need to take part in meetings if you wish to have a say. If outvoted, you will have to live with decisions that you might not agree with.

If you are buying into a mixed use development (one that includes commercial as well as residential lots), owners of some types of lots may be in a position to outvote owners of other types of lots. Make sure you fully understand your voting rights, see later.

Use of your property

You, and anyone who visits or occupies your property, will be bound by rules in the form of articles or by-laws. These can restrict the use of the property, for example, they can deal with keeping pets, car parking, noise, rubbish disposal, short-term letting, upkeep of buildings and so on. Make sure that you have read the articles or by-laws before you decide whether this property will suit you.

Depending on the rules, you might not be permitted to make changes to the exterior of your unit, such as installing a television aerial or an air-conditioner, building a pergola, attaching external blinds etc without the permission of the body corporate. A meeting may be needed before permission can be granted. Permission may be refused.

Note that the articles or by-laws could change between now and when you become the owner: the body corporate might vote to change them. Also, if you are buying before the community plan is registered, then any by-laws you have been shown are just a draft.

Are you buying a debt?

If there are unpaid contributions owing on this property, you can be made to pay them. You are entitled to know the financial state of the body corporate and you should make sure you see its records before deciding whether to buy. As a prospective owner, you can write to the body corporate requiring to see the records, including minutes of meetings, details of assets and liabilities, contributions payable, outstanding or planned expenses and insurance policies. There is a fee. To make a request, write to the secretary or management committee of the body corporate.

Expenses

The body corporate can require you to maintain your property, even if you do not agree, or can carry out maintenance and bill you for it.

The body corporate can require you to contribute to the cost of upkeep of the common property, even if you do not agree. Consider what future maintenance or repairs might be needed on the property in the long term.

Guarantee

As an owner, you are a guarantor of the liabilities of the body corporate. If it does not pay its debts, you can be called on to do so. Make sure you know what the liabilities are before you decide to buy. Ask the body corporate for copies of the financial records.

Contracts

The body corporate can make contracts. For example, it may engage a body corporate manager to do some or all of its work. It may contract with traders for maintenance work. It might engage a caretaker to look after the property. It might make any other kind of contract to buy services or products for the body corporate. Find out what contracts the body corporate is committed to and the cost.

The body corporate will have to raise funds from the owners to pay the money due under these contracts. As a guarantor, you could be liable if the body corporate owes money under a contract.

Buying off the plan

If you are buying a property that has not been built yet, then you cannot be certain what the end product of the development process will be. If you are buying before a community plan has been deposited, then any proposed development contract, scheme description or by-laws you have been shown could change.

Mixed use developments—voting rights

You may be buying into a group that is run by several different community corporations. This is common in mixed use developments, for example, where a group of apartments is combined with a hotel or a group of shops. If there is more than one corporation, then you should not expect that all lot owners in the group will have equal voting rights. The corporations may be structured so that, even though there are more apartments than shops in the group, the shop-owners can outvote the apartment owners on some matters. Make enquiries so that you understand how many corporations there are and what voting rights you will have.

Land and Business (Sale and Conveyancing) Regulations 2010 regulation 17

Before you buy a home there are a number of things that you should investigate and consider. Though it may not be obvious at the time, there could be matters that may affect your enjoyment of the property, the safety of people on the property or the value of the property.

The following questions may help you to identify if a property is appropriate to purchase. In many cases the questions relate to a variety of laws and standards. These laws and standards change over time, so it is important to seek the most up to date information. Various government agencies can provide up to date and relevant information on many of these questions. To find out more, the Office of Consumer and Business Affairs recommends that you check the website: www.ocba.sa.gov.au/consumeradvice/realestate
