Part 4—Ability to transfer property

29—Ability to transfer property

(1) In this section—

asset includes—

- (a) a present, contingent or future legal or equitable estate or interest in real or personal property; or
- (b) a present, contingent or future right, power, privilege or immunity;

liability includes a present, contingent or future liability or obligation.

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the Governor may, by proclamation, transfer assets or liabilities (or both) of the Trust to a Minister.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to any asset that the Trust holds on trust to the extent that a transfer under that subsection would be inconsistent with the terms or conditions of the trust.
- (4) A transfer of assets or liabilities under this section operates by force of this section and despite the provisions of any other law.
- (5) Nothing done under this section—
 - (a) constitutes a breach of, or default under, an Act or other law; or
 - (b) constitutes a breach of, or default under, a contract, agreement, understanding or undertaking; or
 - (c) constitutes a breach of a duty of confidence (whether arising by contract, in equity or by custom or in any other way); or
 - (d) constitutes a civil or criminal wrong; or
 - (e) terminates an agreement or obligation or fulfils any condition that allows a person to terminate an agreement or obligation, or gives rise to any other right or remedy; or
 - (f) releases a surety or other obligee wholly or in part from an obligation.

10—Repeal of Schedules 1, 2 and 3

Schedules 1, 2 and 3—delete the Schedules

Schedule 1—Transitional provision

1—Transitional provision

- (1) In this clause—

principal Act means the Adelaide Festival Centre Trust Act 1971.

- (2) The repeal of a provision of the principal Act by this Act does not affect any vesting of property before the commencement of this Act (but any property so vested may, after the commencement of this Act, be the subject of a proclamation under section 29 of the principal Act, as enacted by this Act).
