81A—Provisional licences

- (1) In this section—

complying interstate provisional licence—an interstate provisional licence is a complying interstate provisional licence if it has been in force for a period of at least 12 months;

P1 qualifying period means the period, or total period, for which a person has held a P1 licence (excluding, if the person had been disqualified from holding or obtaining a licence in this State or in another State or Territory of the Commonwealth, any period preceding the period of disqualification);

P2 qualifying period means the period, or total period, for which a person has held a P2 licence (excluding, if the person had been disqualified from holding or obtaining a licence in this State or in another State or Territory of the Commonwealth, any period preceding the period of disqualification);

peer passenger means a passenger in a motor vehicle who is aged not less than 16 years and not more than 20 years;

prescribed concentration of alcohol means any concentration of alcohol in the blood.

- (2) Without derogating from any other provision of this Act, if an applicant for the issue of a licence—
- (a) has not held a non-provisional licence or interstate non-provisional licence at some time during the period of 5 years immediately preceding the application; or

- (b) holds an interstate provisional licence; or
- (c) holds an interstate non-provisional licence or a foreign licence but is under the age of 20 years; or
- (d) —
  - (i) has been disqualified from holding or obtaining a licence or learner's permit in this State, or in another State or Territory of the Commonwealth, as a consequence of an offence committed or allegedly committed (whether in this State or elsewhere) while the holder of a P1 licence or interstate provisional licence; and
  - (ii) has not held a P2 licence or a complying interstate provisional licence since the end of the period of disqualification, a licence issued to the applicant is a provisional licence and will be taken to be a P1 licence until he or she has completed a P1 qualifying period of 12 months (and thereafter will be taken to be a P2 licence).

- (3) Without derogating from any other provision of this Act, if an applicant for the issue of a licence has been disqualified from holding or obtaining a licence or learner's permit in this State, or in another State or Territory of the Commonwealth, as a consequence of an offence committed or allegedly committed (whether in this State or elsewhere)—
  - (a) while the holder of a P2 licence or a complying interstate provisional licence; or
  - (b) after the expiry of such a licence but before obtaining a non-provisional licence or an interstate non-provisional licence, and has not held a non-provisional licence or an interstate non-provisional licence since the end of the period of disqualification, a licence issued to the applicant is a provisional licence and will be taken to be a P2 licence.

- (4) The provisional licence conditions are as follows:
  - (a) a condition that the holder of the licence must not drive a motor vehicle or attempt to put a motor vehicle in motion on a road while the prescribed concentration of alcohol is present in his or her blood, or a prescribed drug is present in his or her oral fluid or blood;
  - (b) a condition that the holder of the licence must not drive a motor vehicle at a speed exceeding by 10 kilometres an hour or more a speed limit that applies under the Road Traffic Act 1961 or this Act.

- (5) Subject to this Act, the Registrar must not grant a non-provisional licence to an applicant unless the applicant—
- (a) will be aged 20 years or over at the commencement of the term of the licence; and
  - (b) will, at the commencement of the term of the licence, have completed a P2 qualifying period of at least 2 years; and
  - (c) is not the holder of a provisional licence that is subject to alcohol interlock scheme conditions.
- (6) If a court disqualifies a person from holding or obtaining a licence or learner's permit the court may order—
- (a) that any provisional licence to be issued to the person at the end of the period of disqualification will be taken to be a P1 licence for an extended period; or
  - (b) that the period referred to in subsection (5)(b) be extended in relation to any such provisional licence.
- (7) Despite any other provision of this Act, if an applicant for the issue of a driver's licence—
- (a) holds or has previously held a foreign licence; or
  - (b) is of a class of applicants prescribed by regulation,
- the Registrar may, if of the opinion that there is proper cause to do so, do 1 or more of the following:
- (c) issue a licence not subject to the conditions that would otherwise be imposed under this section;
  - (d) reduce the period for which the person will be taken to hold a P1 licence under this section or the period referred to in subsection (5)(b).
- (8) If an applicant is not willing to accept a provisional licence, the Registrar must refuse to issue a licence to the applicant.
- (9) The holder of a provisional licence must not contravene a condition of the licence.
- Maximum penalty: $1 250.
- (10) Sections 47C, 47D, 47E, 47EAA, 47GA, 47GB and 47K and Schedule 1 of the Road Traffic Act 1961 apply in relation to an offence against subsection (9) of contravening the condition referred to in subsection (4)(a) as if—
- (a) a reference in any of those sections to an offence against that Act was a reference to an offence against subsection (9); and
  - (b) a reference in any of those sections to the prescribed concentration of alcohol as defined in section 47A of that Act was a reference to the prescribed concentration of alcohol as defined in this section.

- (11) The holder of a provisional licence must not drive a motor vehicle on a road in any part of the State at a speed exceeding 100 kilometres an hour.

Maximum penalty: $1 250.

- (12) Section 175 of the Road Traffic Act 1961 applies in relation to—

(a) an offence against subsection (9) of contravening the condition referred to in subsection (4)(b); or

(b) an offence against subsection (11),

as if a reference in that section to an offence against that Act was a reference to an offence against subsection (9) or (11).

- (13) The holder of a provisional licence must not, if he or she is under the age of 25 years, drive a high powered vehicle.

Maximum penalty: $1 250.

- (14) Subject to the regulations, the Registrar may, on application by the holder of a provisional licence and payment of the fee (if any) prescribed by regulation, grant the holder an exemption from subsection (13) for such a term and subject to such conditions as the Registrar thinks fit.

- (15) The holder of a P1 licence must not—

(a) drive a motor bike on a road unless a plate bearing the letter "P" is affixed to the bike in accordance with the regulations; or

(b) drive any other motor vehicle on a road unless 2 plates bearing the letter "P" are affixed to the vehicle in accordance with the regulations.

Maximum penalty: $1 250.

- (16) The holder of a P1 licence who is under the age of 25 years must not drive a motor vehicle on a road between the hours of midnight and 5.00 am unless the driver is accompanied by a person acting as a qualified supervising driver for the holder of a licence.

Maximum penalty: $1 250.

- (17) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (16) if the defendant establishes that he or she was driving the vehicle in the circumstances prescribed—

(a) in Schedule 2; or

(b) by the regulations; or

(c) by notice in the Gazette under subsection (20).

(18) The holder of a P1 licence who is under the age of 25 years must not drive a motor vehicle on a road while 2 or more peer passengers are present in the vehicle unless the driver is also accompanied by a person acting as a qualified supervising driver for the holder of a licence.

Maximum penalty: $1 250.

(19) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (18) if the defendant establishes that he or she was driving the vehicle in the circumstances prescribed—

- (a) in Schedule 2; or
- (b) by the regulations; or
- (c) by notice in the Gazette under subsection (20).

(20) The Registrar may, by notice in the Gazette, prescribe circumstances that will constitute a defence for the purposes of subsection (17)(c) or subsection (19)(c) and may, by further notice in the Gazette, vary or revoke such a notice.

(21) A notice prescribing circumstances that will constitute a defence for the purposes of subsection (17)(c) or subsection (19)(c) has effect for the period specified in the notice (which must be not longer than 6 months).

Schedule 1—Transitional provisions

1—Interpretation

- (1) In this Schedule—

disqualified provisional licence holder means a person who, immediately before the commencement of section 11, was—

- (a) a prescribed provisional licence holder; or
- (b) the holder of a provisional licence issued to an applicant referred to in section 81A(2)(d);

prescribed provisional licence holder means a person who, immediately before the commencement of section 11, was the holder of a P1 licence that was issued on an application made in accordance with section 81BA(3) or 81BB(7);

principal Act means the Motor Vehicles Act 1959.

- (2) All other words and phrases used in this Schedule have the same meaning as in the principal Act (unless the contrary intention appears).

2—General application of principal Act as amended

- (1) Subject to clauses 3 and 4, the principal Act as in force after the commencement of this Act applies in relation to a licence or learner's permit issued, renewed or in force after the commencement of this Act.

- (2) For the avoidance of doubt—
- (a) if a provisional licence is to come into effect after the commencement of section 11 as a result of a safer driver agreement entered into under section 81BA of the principal Act before such commencement, section 81BA of the principal Act as in force after such commencement will be taken to apply in relation to the licence; and
  - (b) if a provisional licence is issued to a person after the commencement of section 11 as a result of an appeal determined under section 81BB of the principal Act before such commencement, section 81BB of the principal Act as in force after such commencement will be taken to apply in relation to the licence.

3—Principal Act as in force before commencement to continue to apply in certain circumstances

Subject to clause 4, the principal Act as in force immediately before the commencement of this Act continues to apply in relation to—

- (a) a P1 or P2 licence or a learner's permit in force immediately before the commencement of this Act; and
- (b) the renewal of a licence or permit referred to in paragraph (a) (and in relation to a P1 or P2 licence or a learner's permit as so renewed) other than where the renewal occurs on application made more than 12 months after expiry of the previous licence or permit; and
- (c) the issue of a P2 licence after the commencement of this Act (and in relation to the P2 licence as so issued) to a person who was the holder of a P1 licence—
  - (i) immediately before the commencement of this Act; and
  - (ii) at some time during the period of 12 months immediately preceding the application for the P2 licence; and
- (d) the issue of a non-provisional licence after the commencement of this Act to a person who was the holder of a P1 or P2 licence—
  - (i) immediately before the commencement of this Act; and
  - (ii) at some time during the period of 12 months immediately preceding the application for the non-provisional licence.

4—Transitional modifications of principal Act

Despite clauses 2 and 3—

- (a) on and from the commencement of section 7, section 75A(20) and (21) of the principal Act apply to a prescribed learner's permit holder (within the meaning of section 75A of that Act) whether the permit was issued (or renewed) before or after that commencement; and
- (b) on and from the commencement of section 11, section 81A(16), (17), (18) and (19) of the principal Act apply to the holder of a P1 licence who is under the age of 25 years whether the P1 licence was issued (or renewed) before or after that commencement; and

- (c) on and from the commencement of section 11 any condition referred to in section 81A(3)(c) of the principal Act (as in force immediately before the commencement of section 11) will cease to apply to a provisional licence; and
- (d) on and from the commencement of section 11, section 81A(5)(a) of the principal Act (as in force immediately before the commencement of section 11) will apply as if subparagraph (iv) were deleted; and
- (e) on and from the commencement of section 11, section 81A(8)(b) of the principal Act (as in force immediately before the commencement of section 11) will not apply in relation to any applicant for a licence; and
- (f) section 81A (as in force immediately before the commencement of section 11) applies to a disqualified provisional licence holder as if—
  - (i) the references in section 81A(5)(b)(i) to 2 years were references to 12 months; and
  - (ii) the prescribed period (for the purposes of section 81A) was—
    - (A) in relation to a prescribed provisional licence holder—2 years; and
    - (B) in relation to any other disqualified provisional licence holder—18 months; and
- (g) a P1 licence referred to in clause 3 may be renewed as a non-provisional licence if—
  - (i) the holder of the P1 licence—
    - (A) has not been disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence or learner's permit as a result of an offence committed or allegedly committed while the holder of a P1 licence; and
    - (B) has held a P1 licence for periods totalling at least 2 years; or
  - (ii) the holder of the P1 licence is a disqualified provisional licence holder and has held the P1 licence for a period of—
    - (A) in the case of a prescribed provisional licence holder—at least 3 years; or
