Schedule 1—Budget Measures

Part 1—Amendment of Education Act 1972

1—Amendment of section 5—Interpretation

Section 5(2)(a)—delete paragraph (a) and substitute:

 - (i) in the case of an officer to whom section 22A applies—the period (if any) of the officer's continuous service in the teaching service determined in accordance with that section; or
 - (ii) in any other case—the period (if any) of the officer's continuous service in the teaching service; and

2—Amendment of section 22—Interruption of service

Section 22—after subsection (4) insert:

- (5) This section does not apply in relation to an officer of the teaching service to whom section 22A applies.

3—Insertion of section 22A

After section 22 insert:

22A—Special provisions relating to certain temporary officers of the teaching service

- (1) This section applies to an officer of the teaching service who is, or was during any relevant period, a prescribed temporary teacher (other than an officer of a class declared by the regulations to be excluded from the operation of this section).
- (2) On the commencement of this section—
 - (a) all entitlements in respect of long service leave and skills and experience retention leave accrued or purportedly accrued before the commencement of this section by an officer of the teaching service to whom this section applies will be taken to be extinguished; and
 - (b) the Minister must confer entitlements in respect of long service leave and skills and experience retention leave determined in accordance with this section on an officer of the teaching service to whom this section applies in respect of the officer's service completed before the commencement of this section.
- (3) The entitlement to long service leave and skills and experience retention leave of an officer of the teaching service to whom this section applies is to be determined as follows:
 - (a) to the extent that the officer's service was completed before the commencement of this section—the entitlement is to be determined by the Minister as if the officer had been lawfully appointed under section 101B or a corresponding previous provision of this Act or the repealed Act;
 - (b) to the extent that the officer's service is completed on or after the commencement of this section—the entitlement is to be determined by the Minister—
 - (i) as if the officer had been lawfully appointed under section 15 or a corresponding previous provision of this Act or the repealed Act; and
 - (ii) on the basis that subsection (5) applies, and has always applied, to the question of whether a particular period of the officer's service is a period of continuous service.

- (4) In making a determination under subsection (3)(a), the Minister must ensure that the entitlements of an officer are not less than the officer would have been entitled to had he or she been appointed under the Public Sector Act 2009 or a corresponding previous Act (as in force at the time of appointment) instead of this Act.
- (5) For the purposes of this or any other Act, where either before or after the commencement of this section the service of a person employed under this Act, or the repealed Act, was interrupted otherwise than by resignation or dismissal for misconduct and he or she is, or was, subsequently appointed as an officer of the teaching service within the prescribed period after the date of that interruption, his or her service before the interruption and his or her service after the interruption will (except to the extent to which he or she has received long service leave, or payment in lieu of long service leave, in respect of any such period of service) be taken into account as though that service were continuous.
- (6) For the purposes of this or any other Act, where an officer has previously been in prescribed employment and his or her service in the prescribed employment is continuous with his or her service as an officer (determined in accordance with this section as if the prescribed employment was employment in the teaching service), the long service leave to which he or she is entitled under this Act will be determined on the basis that his or her service in the prescribed employment is effective service (and section 24(3), (4) and (5) will be taken to apply to the service as if section 24(6) had not been enacted).
- (7) To the extent that a matter relating to the long service leave or skills and experience retention leave of an officer to whom this section applies is not able to be determined under another provision of this section, the matter is to be determined in accordance with a determination of the Minister.
- (8) If a person was, during a particular period, both an officer of the teaching service to whom this section applies and an officer of the teaching service to whom this section does not apply, this section will be taken to apply only in respect of that part of the officer's service undertaken as a prescribed temporary teacher.
- (9) Nothing in this section affects the validity of—
 - (a) a period of long service leave or skills and experience retention leave; or
 - (b) a payment of a monetary amount in lieu of long service leave or skills and experience retention leave,taken or made under this or any other Act before the commencement of this section.
- (10) This section has effect despite—
 - (a) any other provision of this Act or a provision of any other Act or law; and

- (b) a term of a contract, enterprise bargaining agreement, undertaking or other instrument or agreement (however described) that was in force immediately before the commencement of this section.
- (11) In this section—
- prescribed employment* has the same meaning as in section 24(2);
- prescribed period*, in relation to an interruption of an officer's service as contemplated by subsection (5), means—
- (a) 3 calendar months (disregarding any period of school vacation falling immediately after the officer's service before the interruption and immediately before his or her service after the interruption); or
 - (b) if a longer period is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this definition—that period;
- prescribed temporary teacher* means an officer of the teaching service who—
- (a) —
 - (i) was, before the commencement of this section, purportedly appointed under section 9 of this Act (as in force at the time of the purported appointment); or
 - (ii) was or is (whether before or after the commencement of this section) appointed or purportedly appointed under section 15 of this Act; and
 - (b) was not, or is not, so appointed on a permanent basis.
- (12) The regulations may make provisions of a saving or transitional nature in respect of the operation of this section.

4—Amendment of section 23—Transfer of teachers to other Government employment

Section 23—after subsection (2) insert:

- (3) For the purposes of the Public Sector Act 2009 and any other Act, the question of whether particular service of an officer who is an officer of the teaching service to whom section 22A applies is continuous service is to be determined in accordance with that section.

5—Amendment of section 24—Rights of persons transferred to the teaching service

- (6) This section does not apply to a person who is, or who will be on becoming an officer of the teaching service, an officer of the teaching service to whom section 22A applies.
