The provisions of sections 47, 48, and 49 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to every such application.

Dissolution by award of Public Actuary. Cf. U.K. 59 & 60 Vict. c. 25, ss. 76, 80. Inserted by 2018, 1931, s. 13.

45f. (1) Upon the application of one-fifth of the whole number of members of any society, or of one hundred members in the case of a society of one thousand members and not exceeding ten thousand, or of five hundred members in the case of a society of more than ten thousand members, made in writing under their hands setting forth that the funds of the society are insufficient to cover the benefits assured and the grounds upon which such insufficiency is alleged, and requesting an investigation into the affairs of the society or branch with a view to the dissolution thereof, the Public Actuary may, by himself, or by any actuary or public auditor whom he may appoint in writing under his hand, investigate the affairs of the society, giving nevertheless not less than two months' previous notice in writing to the society whose affairs are to be investigated, at the registered office of the society.

(2) If upon such investigation it appears that the funds of the society are insufficient to meet existing claims thereon, or that the rates of contribution fixed in the rules of the society are insufficient to cover the benefits assured to be given by the same, the Public Actuary may, if he considers it expedient so to do, award that the society is dissolved and that its affairs be wound up and direct in what manner the assets of the society shall be divided or appropriated: Provided always that the Public Actuary may suspend his award for such period as he deems necessary to enable the society to make such alterations and adjustments of contributions and benefits as will in his judgment prevent the necessity of such award of dissolution being made.

(3) The Public Actuary proceeding under this section shall have all the same powers and authorities enforceable by the same penalties as in the case of an inspection by him under this Act.

(4) Every award under this section, whether for dissolution or distribution of funds, shall be final and conclusive on the society in respect of which the same is made and on all members of the same and other persons having any claim on the funds of the society without appeal, and shall be enforced in the same manner as a decision on a dispute under this Act, and the expenses of every investigation and award and of publishing every notice of dissolution shall be paid out of the funds of the society before any other appropriation thereof is made.

(5) Notice of every award for dissolution shall within twenty-one days after the same has been made be advertised by the Public Actuary in the Gazette and in some newspaper circulating in the neighbourhood in which the registered office of the society is situated, and unless within three months from the date of the Gazette in which the advertisement appears a member or other person interested in or having any claim on the funds of the society commence proceedings to set aside the dissolution of the society consequent upon such award and the dissolution is set aside accordingly, the society shall be legally dissolved from the date of the advertisement, and the requisite consents to the application to the Public Actuary shall be considered to have been duly obtained without proof of the signatures thereto.

45g. Notice shall be sent to the Public Actuary of any proceedings to set aside the dissolution of a society not less than seven days before it is commenced by the person taking the proceedings, and of any order setting a dissolution aside by the society or branch within seven days after the order is made.

46. (1) Every dispute between branches of any society or between any member or members of any society or branch, or between any person claiming through or under a member or under the rules of any society or branch, and the society or branch, or the trustees, committee of management, treasurer, or other officer thereof, or between the assigns of a member and the society, branch, trustees, committee, treasurer, or other officer, shall be decided, and the costs and expenses attending the decision of such dispute be awarded and paid, in manner directed by the rules of the society or branch.

Disputes, how to be determined.
Friendly Societies Act, 1886, s. 22.
Cf. U.K. 59 & 60 Vict. c. 25, s. 68.

(2) The decision and award so made shall be binding and conclusive on all parties, without appeal to any court of law.

47. (1) If—

(a) the rules of any society or branch direct that disputes shall be settled by arbitration, but no arbitrators have been appointed or no award made within such time as is prescribed by such rules, after complaint to the officers of the society or branch; or

(b) either party fails or neglects to comply with or conform to any award made by the arbitrators under any such rules; or

(c) such rules direct such disputes to be decided before a local court; or

(d) no mode of proceedings is specified in such rules;

then, and in any of such cases, all applications for the removal of any trustee or other officer, or for any other relief, order, or direction, or for the settlement of any dispute that may arise or may have arisen in the society, or for the enforcement of any such award as aforesaid, shall be made to the local court of full jurisdiction nearest to the usual or principal place of business of the society or branch.

Jurisdiction of local courts in certain cases.
Friendly Societies Act, 1886, s. 23.
Cf. U.K. 59 & 60 Vict. c. 25, s. 68 (5) (6).

(2) Such court shall, upon the application of any person interested in the matter, entertain such application and grant such orders and directions in relation to the matter of such application as such court thinks fit, or as may be made or granted by the Supreme Court in its equitable jurisdiction.

(3) The decision of such local court upon such application, touching any of the matters aforesaid, shall be final and conclusive.

Mode of proceeding in local court.
Friendly Societies Act, 1886, s. 24. Cf. U.K. 59 & 60 Vict. c. 25, s. 68 (7).

48. The mode of proceeding under section 47 shall be as follows:—

I. Where any member of any society, or his legal representative, seeks to recover from the society, or any branch thereof, or from any of the officers of the society or branch, any sum of money, whether the same is a liquidated demand or not, or to enforce any such award as aforesaid, the proceedings shall be commenced by plaint, and shall be conducted in all other respects according to the practice of local courts in the case of ordinary plaints.

II. Where the application is for the removal of a trustee or other officer, or for an order for compelling the performance or omission of any act or otherwise, and where the relief sought would, but for this Act, come within the equitable jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, then—

(a) the applicant shall file with the clerk of the court a short statement, in writing, setting forth the facts and praying for the relief to which he deems himself entitled, and shall also leave with the clerk of the court a copy thereof for each defendant, and such clerk shall forthwith cause a copy to be served on the defendant, with a notice to appear as in ordinary cases;

(b) the defendant, if he desires to appear, shall file with the clerk of the court a short statement of his defence, and the case shall be set down for trial in the usual way;

(c) if the defendant does not appear in due course the plaintiff may sign judgment, the effect of which shall be that on the trial the defendant shall be precluded from denying any of the facts set forth in the plaintiff's statement, and the clerk of the court shall thereupon set down the cause for trial as in cases for assessment of damages, and the court, upon such trial, may make such order as it thinks fit.

Orders of local courts, how enforced. Friendly Societies Act, 1886, s. 25.

49. (1) When any local court makes any order for the performance or omission of any particular act as aforesaid, it may also order that if the defendant, for a time to be mentioned in such order, refuses or neglects to perform or abstain from the act mentioned, he shall pay to the plaintiff a sum of money to be therein specified, not exceeding one hundred pounds, and such order shall be duly entered by the clerk as the judgment of the court.

(2) In case the defendant, after the expiration of the time mentioned in such order, continues to neglect or refuse as aforesaid, the plaintiff may at once proceed to enforce such order by all or any of the means by which judgments of such court may for the time being be enforceable, and no such order shall be removed by certiorari or otherwise into any superior court of record.

(3) In any case where any local court gives judgment against any society or branch for any sum of money, and there are not sufficient moneys, goods, or chattels of the society or branch whereon execution can be levied for such sum and costs, then and in such case such judgment may be satisfied by being levied on and by the seizure and sale of any of the moneys, goods, and chattels of any of the trustees for the time being of the society or branch: Provided that whatever sum of money is paid by any such trustee, or is levied on his goods and chattels as aforesaid, shall be repaid, with all damages accruing to him in consequence thereof, out of the moneys belonging to the society or branch, or out of the first moneys which are thereafter received by the society or branch.

Expelled members may be reinstated or in default be awarded compensation. Friendly Societies Act, 1886, s. 26.

50. (1) In case any member of any society has been expelled therefrom, and the award of any arbitrators appointed in accordance with the rules of the society, or the order of any local court, directs that he shall be reinstated, it shall be lawful for such arbitrators to award, or local court to order, in default of such reinstatement, such a sum of money to be paid to such member by the trustees of the society as to such arbitrators or local court may seem just and reasonable.

(2) Such sum of money, if not paid, shall be recoverable from the society, or the treasurer, trustee, or other officer thereof, if such order is made by a local court, in the manner hereinbefore provided, and if by arbitrators, then by action on such award in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Digest 605; reversing (on this point) GREATER ADELAIDE LAND DEVELOPMENT COMPANY LIMITED v. GEORGE (1929) S.A.S.R. 199. Grounds upon which approval may be withheld. Inserted by 55, 1955, s. 7.

12a. (1) The committee may withhold approval to any plan of subdivision unless the committee is satisfied—

(e) that there is sufficient provision for shopping sites;

(f) that the proposed mode of subdivision would not destroy any natural beauty spot on the subdivided land: Provided that approval shall not be withheld pursuant to this paragraph if the committee is satisfied that the land upon which the natural beauty spot is situated has been offered by the owner of the land for sale to the Government and the council of the area in which the land is situated at a price which in the opinion of the Land Board is reasonable and the offer has been refused by both the Government and the council;

(g) that any proposed road, street, or thoroughfare is so graded as to be capable of being conveniently connected with any existing street, road or thoroughfare;

(h) that any proposed road, street, or thoroughfare is not inconvenient for traffic and that sufficient provision is made for convenient inter-communication with neighbouring localities;

(i) if the land is situated within a municipality that the council of that municipality has notified the committee that the roadway of every proposed street or road has to a width of at least twenty-four feet been adequately formed and paved and all necessary bridges and culverts to carry every such roadway have been constructed or that the applicant for approval to the plan has made binding arrangements satisfactory to the council under which every such roadway will, at the cost of the applicant, be formed to a width of twenty-four feet and paved with consolidated metal to a depth of four inches and sealed with bitumen, tar or asphalt or will be paved in any other manner agreed between the applicant and the council and every such bridge or culvert will, at the cost of the applicant, be constructed;

(j) that the plan provides for reasonably adequate reserves for public gardens and public reserves having regard to the existing reserves which will be available for the use of persons residing on the land subdivided by the plan.

(2) If the land is situated in the metropolitan area, and if the Engineer-in-Chief does not certify to the committee that the land can be advantageously and economically sewered and reticulated with water, the committee shall not approve of the plan unless the Minister consents to the giving of the approval.

13a. (1) If the committee refuses to approve of a plan of subdivision (whether on appeal as provided by section 13 or otherwise) the person submitting the plan may, within thirty days after receiving notice of the refusal, by notice of appeal in writing, request the committee to re-consider the matter. The commitee shall thereupon reconsider the matter and the appellant may appear before the committee or may submit any representations in writing to the committee.

(2) If after re-consideration of any plan under subsection (1) the committee refuses to approve the plan, the committee shall make a report to the Minister setting out its reasons for its refusal.

(3) Every such report shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament and may be considered by a joint committee appointed for the purpose by both Houses of Parliament in pursuance of the Joint Standing Orders. The joint committee shall consider the plan of subdivision and the report of the committee and any other matters deemed relevant by the joint committee and may after consideration thereof approve the plan, in which case the plan shall be deemed to be approved for the purposes of this Act, or may uphold the decision of the committee.

Effect of approval of plan of subdivision.

14. (1) When any plan of subdivision has been deposited in the Lands Titles Registration Office or the General Registry Office every road, street, thoroughfare, reserve, or other like open space shown thereon shall, unless it is specified that the said road, street, thoroughfare, reserve, or other open space is vested in any other person or body, be vested for the purpose indicated on the plan in fee simple by virtue of this Act in the council of the area in which it is situated without compensation or payment to any person.

(2) Every road, street, or thoroughfare vested in a council pursuant to this section shall be for all purposes a public road, street, or thoroughfare, as the case may be.

Easements. Inserted by 46, 1956, s. 2.

14a. (1) If any plan of subdivision is deposited in the Lands Titles Registration Office or the General Registry Office and it is shown on the plan that any land comprised therein is subject or intended to be subject to an easement to the Minister of Works for sewerage purposes or for water supply purposes then, as from the time of deposit, the land shall, without compensation or payment to any person, be subject to an easement to the Minister of Works giving the Minister of Works his agents, servants and workmen full free and unrestricted liberty from time to time and at all times to break the surface of, dig, open up and use the said land for the purpose of laying down, fixing, taking up, repairing, relaying or examining pipes therein and of using and maintaining those pipes for sewerage purposes or, as the case may be, water supply purposes together with the right to the Minister of Works with or without horses, plant, equipment, carts, motor vehicles and other carriages laden or unladen full, free and unrestricted right and liberty of entry, egress and regress from time to time and at all times for him and his agents, servants and workmen in, through, over, across and along the land for any of the purposes aforesaid.

(2) If any plan of subdivision is deposited in the Lands Titles Registration Office or the General Registry Office and it is shown on the plan that any land is subject or is intended to be subject to an easement to the council in the area of which the land is situated for drainage purposes then, as from the time of the deposit, the land shall, without compensation or payment to any person, be subject to an easement to the council of the area in which the land is situated giving the council, its agents, servants and workmen full, free and unrestricted liberty from time to time and at all times to break the surface of, dig, open up and use the said land for the purpose of laying down, fixing, taking up, repairing, relaying or examining drainage pipes therein for the purpose of the drainage of water and of using and maintaining such pipes together with the right to the council with or without horses, plant, equipment, carts, motor vehicles and other carriages laden or unladen full, free and unrestricted right and liberty from time to time and at all times for the council and its agents, servants and workmen in, through, on, over and along the said land for any of the purposes aforesaid.

(3) If by virtue of this section, any land is subject to an easement, the Registrar-General of Deeds shall, if the land affected is land under The Real Property Act, 1886-1945, make all such entries as may be necessary or proper to evidence that the land is subject to the easement or, if the land is not land under the said Act, register in the General Registry Office a memorial to the effect that the land is so subject. For the purpose of making any such entry or registering any such memorial it shall be sufficient description of the easement if reference is made to this section.

Provision where plan of re-subdivision relates to one allotment only.

15. If a plan of re-subdivision re-subdivides one allotment only it shall not be necessary to obtain the approval of the council thereto if the Town Planner approves of the said plan.

Consent of parties interested in subdivided lands.

16. The Registrar-General shall not be bound to accept any plan of subdivision sought to be deposited in the Lands Titles Registration Office or the General Registry Office unless he is satisfied that all persons who appear from the Register Book or any other instrument or document in the Lands Titles Registration Office or the General Registry Office to have or claim any interest in the land shown in the plan, consent to the proposed subdivision.

Power of Town Planner to require re-subdivisions to be dealt with as subdivisions.

17. (2) When any such resolution has been passed, the council shall, within one month after the passing of the resolution, serve a notice under the hand of the Mayor or Chairman and the Town or District Clerk, as the case may be, on the owner of the strip, either personally, or by post in a registered letter addressed to the owner at his last known place of residence.

(3) Any such proclamation may be varied or revoked by a subsequent proclamation.

(4) No plan of subdivision with respect to any land to which any such proclamation applies shall be approved under this Act.

(5) During such time as any such proclamation applies to any land, the land shall, for the purposes of the Land Tax Act, 1936-1952, the Waterworks Act, 1932-1954, the Sewerage Act, 1929-1953, and the Local Government Act, 1934-1954, be assessed having regard to the value of the land resulting from the use to which it is put at the relevant time and no regard shall be had to the value the land would have

if it were subdivided or were capable of being subdivided into allotments for sites for residences, shops, factories or other like premises.

Other Subdivisions of Land.

Application of ss. 31 to 34. Inserted by 46, 1956, s. 3.

30. Sections 31, 32, 33 and 34 shall be construed subject to the preceding provisions of this Act and nothing in sections 31, 32, 33 and 34 shall apply to any plan of subdivision or plan of re-subdivision within the meaning of section 2.

No plan of land to be deposited without certificate of approval. Inserted by 46, 1956, s. 3.

31. (1) Except as allowed by this Act—

(a) no map or plan of any land situated within an area dividing such land into allotments or otherwise, or showing any street, road, or right-of-way, or intended street, road, or right-of-way, over such land or any part thereof; and

(b) no map or plan subdividing any land already so divided or part thereof, or showing any street, road, or right-of-way, or intended street, road or right-of-way, over such land or part, or over any part thereof, shall be deposited in the Lands Titles Registration Office, or in the General Registry Office, unless the map or plan has been certified as approved by the Town Planner.

(2) The Registrar-General shall not be bound to accept any such plan or map unless he is satisfied that all persons who appear from the Register Book or any other instrument or document in the Lands Titles Registration Office or the General Registry Office to have any interest in the land shown in the plan or map, consent to what is proposed in the plan or map.

How certificate of approval obtained. Inserted by 46, 1956, s. 3.

32. (1) Every such map or plan as mentioned in section 31 shall be submitted in duplicate by the person desiring to deposit the same, to the council of the area in which the land is situated.

(2) The council shall, within twenty-eight days, consider such map or plan and forward the same in duplicate to the Town Planner, with a memorandum under the hand of the clerk, stating whether the council has or has not any objections to the map or plan, and (if any) the nature of the objections.

(3) If the council has no such objection, the Town Planner shall, unless he is satisfied that there is sufficient reason for refusing his approval, certify the map or plan as approved, and shall return one part thereof to the council.

(4) If the council has any such objection, the Town Planner shall submit the same, with the map or plan, to the committee, which may either confirm the objection or overrule the same, in which latter case the Town Planner shall, unless he is satisfied that there is sufficient reason for refusing his approval, certify the plan as approved.

(5) If the committee confirms the objection, it may at any time review its decision, and vary the same if it sees fit.

Power to refuse approval. Inserted by 46, 1956, s. 3.

33. (1) The Town Planner shall not approve of any such map or plan unless he is satisfied that there is no sufficient reason why his approval should be refused.

(2) Without in any way limiting the discretion of the Town Planner under this section, it shall be a sufficient reason for refusing approval of any such map or plan if—

(a) any road or street or intended road or street therein shown is of a less width than forty feet or cannot be made or drained without undue expense or is not necessary;

(b) the land therein comprised is intersected by or is bounded or partly bounded on any side by a line of railway, and a road or street is not shown on such plan on both sides of such line of railway, or on the side of such line which is adjacent to such land, as the case may be;

(c) the site or orientation of any building to be erected on such land is for any reason unsatisfactory;

(d) the effect of giving approval to the map or plan would be to enable a future subdivision or re-subdivision of the land comprised in the map or plan or of any of such land to be made contrary to the requirements of any of the preceding provisions of this Act.

(3) There shall be an appeal to the committee in accordance with the regulations against any refusal of the Town Planner to approve of any such map or plan.

Preparation of plans. Inserted by 46, 1956, s. 3.

34. The mode in which maps and plans to be deposited as required by section 31 are to be prepared, the particulars to be shown thereon, and all other requirements in relation thereto shall be as prescribed by regulations.

Application of s. 29. Inserted by 46, 1956, s. 3.

35. Nothing in section 29 shall preclude the deposit of a map or plan as provided by section 31.

TABLES OF ACTS OF THE PARLIAMENT OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA

TABLE OF PUBLIC GENERAL ACTS OF THE PARLIAMENT OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA, INCLUDING CROSS REFERENCES.

The following table contains a list of the public Acts of general application of the Parliament of South Australia passed up to the end of 1956 and which were unrepealed as at that time.

In the case of an Act reprinted in Volumes 1 to 8 of the South Australian Statutes, 1837-1936, a reference is given in the table to the volume and page where the Act is printed. In the case of any other Act a reference is given to the annual volume of Statutes in which the Act is printed.

Since the publication of the South Australian Statutes, 1837-1936, some Acts have been reprinted pursuant to the Amendments Incorporation Act, 1937. The table contains a reference to all such reprinted Acts; in some instances, the reprinted Act has been included in the annual volume of Statutes and in those cases a reference is given to the volume and page where the Act is reprinted.

The table also includes cross references to the subject matters dealt with by legislation.
