INDEX OF SOUTH AUSTRALIAN LEGISLATION

This publication is available as part of the 1992 annual volume of South Australian Statutes or may be purchased separately from the State Information Centre, Australis Centre 77 Grenfell Street, Adelaide (08) 204 1900.

The information in this index is updated fortnightly on a cumulative basis by the publication South Australian Legislation Update which is available from the Attorney-General's Department, GPO Box 464, Adelaide 5001 (08) 207 1566.

The index has been prepared by the Parliamentary Counsel's Office researching primary sources from 1976. The case annotations have been enlarged and brought up to date. The information is presented in a new and more convenient format.

Although the index will be published annually on a cumulative basis, it is recommended that previous indexes be kept to enable details of repealed legislation to be found.

General Outline

The index lists Acts of the South Australian Parliament that are in force and Acts that have been repealed or have expired since 31 December 1975.

The index does not include Appropriation Acts or Supply Acts.

Acts that have amended other Acts (including Statutes Amendment Acts and Statute Law Revision Acts) are listed under the Act or Acts amended. Acts amending public general Acts before 1 January 1976 are recorded in the 1975 consolidation of South Australian Statutes and are not recorded in this index.

Each repeal Act and each amending Act that has repealed an Act since 31 December 1975 is included with its date of operation as a means of identifying the date of the repeal. (The date of operation of an amending Act is set out opposite the number of the amending Act in the entry for the principal Act amended.)

Where the name of an Act has been changed since 1975 both names are included.

The index includes information up to 31 December 1992.

Acts of limited interest

The Acts marked with an asterisk are Acts that are in force but are not included in the South Australian Statutes and Consolidation Service. The majority of these Acts are either of local or restricted application or are private Acts. Some public Acts of general application are excluded from the consolidation service because they are not of general interest and these are treated as limited Acts in the index and marked with an asterisk. An example is the Housing Agreement Acts of 1956, 1961, 1966, 1973, 1974 and 1978. The current Housing Agreement Act 1991 is included in the consolidation service and is included in the index as a public general Act. Acts that are not currently in operation but that have not been repealed such as the Income Tax Acts are also regarded as being of limited interest. Acts such as the Companies (Application of Laws) Act 1982 that have been superseded are entered in the same way as repealed Acts.

The only information included with Acts of limited interest is the number and year of the Act and the number and year of any amending Acts whether passed before or after 1 January 1976.

Repeal of Acts and revocation of Regulations and Rules

If necessary the edition of the index for the year in which an Act is repealed will include the Act with its amending Acts, legislative history, regulations and other details in order to provide a record of all relevant information in relation to the Act up to the time of repeal. Subsequent editions of the index will only record the name of the Act and the name of the Act that repeals it.

The same system will be used in respect of regulations and rules that are revoked and regulations that have expired.

The operation of section 11 of the Acts Interpretation Act should be kept in mind. Subject to that section a regulation in force under an Act ceases to operate upon the repeal of the Act. Section 11 provides that where the regulation could have been made under the repealing Act the regulation will remain in force. Regulations usually remain in force for a relatively short period under this provision until new regulations have been made under the repealing Act. Subject to the earlier comments, regulations under a repealed Act will be removed from the index even though they may remain in force by virtue of section 11.

Expiry of regulations

A regulation that has expired under Part IIIA of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1978 will be removed from the index and subsequent annual editions will not include any reference to it.

Proclamations and notices

In this edition of the index limited categories of proclamations and notices have been included in respect of 1990, 1991 and 1992. With some exceptions they are instruments that extend, restrict or otherwise affect the operation or application of an Act. The index for the 1989 annual volume of South Australian Statutes should be consulted for information in respect of proclamations and notices made before 1.1.90.

It is intended in subsequent editions of the index to enlarge the categories that are included.

The section number under which a proclamation or notice is made and the Gazette reference are recorded. Two or more proclamations or notices under the same provision of an Act frequently appear on the same page of the Gazette. When this occurs only one entry is recorded in the index.

Accuracy

Considerable time and effort has been devoted to compiling the index as accurately as possible. Given the amount of detailed information involved it is not possible to guarantee complete accuracy. If you find an error it would be appreciated if you would advise Elizabeth Delvizis of the Parliamentary Counsel's Office. Please phone (08) 207 1001.

CASE ANNOTATIONS:

s 12	Repeal of statutes and substitution of new provisions	Samuels v Songaila (1977) 16 SASR 397 (SA Sup Ct FC) case stated: The effect of ss 12 and 16 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1915 considered and discussed.
s 14	Expressions in statutory and other instruments have same meanings as in the Act under which they are made	Richman v South Australian Planning Commission (1988) 31 APA 288 (SA Planning App Trib): Definitions of "building", "structure". Statutory definitions in Planning Act 1982 not imported into Development Plan.
s 14c	Exercise of powers conferred by a provision of an Act or statutory instrument before the provision comes into operation	LeCornu v Furniture and Carpet Centre Pty Ltd v Parsons (1990) 54 SASR 108 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that s 2(1) of the Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act resulted in the unsuspended provisions coming into operation when first proclaimed and the specified suspended provisions coming into operation when later proclaimed, which then allowed for the operation of s 14c of the Acts Interpretation Act 1915.
s 14d	Time of commencement	Gribbles Pathology (Vic) Pty Ltd v His Honour Judge Allan and Anor (1992) 57 SASR 218 (SA Sup Ct FC): Any right that accrued to the respondent as of midnight on 30 June was not defeated by the amending Act coming into operation as from midnight of the day preceding 1 July in accordance with s 14d. The Act without express words could not remove a right which existed at the time it came into operation. s 16	Saving of operation of repealed, amended or expired Act	Wilkins Servis Pty Ltd v Zrinsky (1974) 41 SAIR (Pt 2) 1369 (SA Ind Ct FC) Appeal from order of Stanley J: Section 16(1) applied in the absence of legislative intention to the contrary, to a proceeding that had been commenced before the subsequent Act came into operation making the former section the appropriate section to be applied. Collett v Minister of Health (1976) 43 SAIR (Pt 2) 1163 (SA Ind Ct Haese J) Applied the principle in Wilkins Servis Pty v Zrinski (see above). Hucks v Slann (1980) 24 SASR 535 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from Children's Court: The possible application to the proceedings (Children's Court appeal) of s 16, considered and discussed. R v Habib and Visrikis (1986) 44 SASR 413: A repealed section and accompanying regulations were saved in their operation by the provisions of s 16(1)iv. Samuels v Songaila: see s 12.
s 22	Acts to be deemed remedial	Crosilla v Challenge Property Services (1982) 2 IR 448 (SA Indust Ct): Whilst s 22 deems every Act of Parliament to be a remedial Act, it does not allow for a construction contrary to the true intent, meaning and spirit placed on the words actually used by Parliament.

s 22a	Construction of Act so as not to exceed power of State	Application for Registration–Australian Builders Labourers Federation (1972) 39 SAIR (Pt 2) 1247 (Industrial Registrar Mr C.S Chislett): Section 22a(1) referred to and applied in an application for registration of the Australian BLF. Buck v Bavone (1976) 135 CLR 110 (HC): H.C. Sleigh Ltd v State of South Australia (1976) 136 CLR 475 (HC): Consideration of how s 22a may save a state law from invalidity when it is unconstitutional in at least part of its operation per the Constitution.
s 27	Provisions as to limitation of time	R v Titchy (1982) 6 A Crim R 117 (SA Ct of Crim Appeal FC) Appeal against inadequacy of sentence: Held, the Attorney-General is required to act with all convenient speed in lodging notices of applications for leave to appeal in accordance with s 27(3). Seventeen days was not beyond this limit in the circumstances of the case. s 32	Attempted offences	R v Kruger (1977) 17 SASR 214 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: The provisions of s 32 do not apply in the case of a conviction for the common law misdemeanour of attempting to commit a felony.
s 35	Words applying to occupant of public office to apply to successive occupants	Porter v Ettridge (1984) 36 SASR 175 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Section 35 authorised the Acting Commissioner (of Police) to issue a certificate as to an authority given by the former Commissioner. s 36	Words giving power to appoint	Palais Parking Station v Shea (1977) 16 SASR 350 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from order of Wells J: The effect of ss 36 and 37 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1915 considered and discussed.
s 37	Powers may be exercised from time to time	Palais Parking Station v Shea: see s 36. R v Berri District Council; Ex parte HL Clark (Berri) Pty Ltd (1984) 52 LGRA 137 (SA Sup Ct White J): Section 37 operated to render null and void a resolution purporting to extend the commencement date of construction work, commencement on the original date being an essential condition of planning consent.
s 42	Who may proceed for recovery of penalties	R v Stewart-Crompton (1977) 15 SASR 370 (SA Sup Ct FC) Point of Law reserved for Supreme Court: The effect of ss 42 and 43 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1915 considered and discussed.

s 24	Power to examine witnesses	In the Estate of Goodfellow (1987) 47 SASR 367 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): For the purposes of s 24(1)(a) "proceeding" includes a caveat warning and appearance thereto, and the words "depending or not" refer to any action or proceeding notwithstanding that no writ had been issued in relation to contentious issues in the affidavits.
s 72j	Distribution amongst relatives	In the Estate of Hughes (1985) 38 SASR 5 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Pursuant to para (d)(iv) of s 72j, first cousins take per capita and the children of first cousins who have predeceased the intestate take per stirpes.
s 88	Public Trustee may be appointed executor or trustee under wills or settlements inter vivos	Caldwell v Public Trustee (1983) 33 SASR 246 (SA Sup Ct FC): 1. A grant of leave made pursuant to s 88(4) is a judicial rather than administrative decision, and is therefore appealable under s 50 of the Supreme Court Act 1935. 2. Problems of personality are insufficient to bring an application within the ambit of s 88(4).
s118m	Powers of administrator	Snow v A/G (SA) (1989) 51 SASR 330 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that administrators under the Mental Health Act 1977 were not authorized to purchase bonds pursuant to the Administration and Probate Act 1919 which conferred power to purchase real property, not personal property.

s 10	Discretion exercisable by bail authority	McLeod v Fauser (1986) 42 SASR 356 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J): Held, the rule that bail will not be granted pending the decision of an appeal against conviction or sentence for an indictable crime unless the circumstances are exceptional does not apply in the case of an appeal against the severity of a sentence imposed by a court of summary jurisdiction. Farquar v Fleet (1989) 50 SASR 490 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, on a bail application or review the applicant is to be granted bail, prima facie, unless the factors set out in s 10 persuade the bail authority or Court of Review otherwise.
s 13	Procedure on arrest	R v Clark (1986) 23 A Crim R 303 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J): Interaction between the Bail Act 1985 s 13 and the Summary Offences Act 1953 s 78 discussed and considered.
s 19	Estreatment	Zagar v Wright (1986) 41 SASR 452 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, there is no right of appeal to the Supreme Court against the refusal of an application for remission or reduction of a forfeiture order, made consequent on a breach of bail terms. R v Rigney (No. 2) (1988) 49 SASR 389 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Ruling on applications under the Bail Act. There is no power under the Bail Act 1985 (which is to be treated as a code) to order payment by instalments, nor is there power to fix a term of imprisonment in default of payment of any sum forfeited. Sweatman v Le Griffin (1988) 50 SASR 379 35A Crim R 113 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Application for relief against forfeiture. The court when it ordered forfeiture was acting as a court of summary jurisdiction pursuant to the Bail Act 1985 s 19(1)(b). The application to rescind or revise under s 19(3) of the Act took the same character as the earlier order, so that there was power to state a case.

s 21	Work for fee or reward	Saunders v Cadman (1990) 54 SASR 534 (SA Sup Ct Mulligan J): Held, appeal dismissed. 1. Inclusion of the cost of materials in the statements for the purpose of recouping only the actual cost, in the circumstances of acquiring the materials as a favour to the appellants, where no amount was sought over and above the actual cost for the time and expense incurred in the acquisition, could not amount to the charging of a fee or the seeking of a reward within s 21(3)(a). 2. The fee of $10 per hour was in the nature of wages within s 21(4) as there was no component in the fee other than the provision of labour and skill.

General

Roberts v Bilney (1981) 29 SASR 179; 7 Fam LR 855 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the effect of the Children's Protection and Young Offenders Act 1979 on the statutory jurisdiction of the Supreme Court under the Guardianship of Infants Act 1940 and on the Supreme Court's inherited equitable jurisdiction.

s 4	Interpretation	R v Sander (1979) 22 SASR 361 (SA Sup Ct FC) case stated: Held, an accused who attained the age of eighteen years prior to being convicted but after the commission of the offence remains a "child" within the meaning of the Children's Protection and Young Offenders Act 1979. Roberts v Bilney (1981) 29 SASR 179 7 Fam LR 855 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the meaning of "guardian" and "guardianship". The Minister v Broughton (1983) 34 SASR 520 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the meaning of "guardian" in s 4. A/G v Smith (1985) 39 SASR 311 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, for the purposes of the definition of "child", a person attains the age of 18 years at the first moment of the day preceding his or her 18th birthday.
s 6	Jurisdiction	Roberts v Bilney (1981) 29 SASR 179 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case referred to Full Court: Held, notwithstanding an order made under s 6(5) of the Act placing a child in the custody of the Minister, the Supreme Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine an application for custody by the parents of the child.
s 7	Factors to be considered when dealing with a child	Hallam v O'Dea (1979) 22 SASR 133 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Children's Court: Principles upon which a court should act when sentencing a young offender to detention, considered and discussed. The Queen v S (a child), V (a child) and Nates (1982) 31 SASR 263 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the scope, effect and operation of s 7. R v Amanatidis (1983) 34 SASR 129 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the application of s 7 to the sentencing of a child as an adult pursuant s 56(c). R v Wilson (1984) 35 SASR 200 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the principles governing the exercise of power under s 56(c) are those laid down by s 7. S 56(c) erroneously applied–had been substituted by No 65 of 1982 which came into operation 1.7.82. Discussed, the scope, effect and operation of s 7.
s 9	Jurisdiction of Children's Court	Pressland v Daire (1983) 34 SASR 362 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussed, the effect of s 9(2) in relation to an order made under the Justices Act 1921 against a defendant whose true age at the time of the offence was under 18 years.
s 12	Application for declaration	Minister for Community Welfare v Hillier: see s 14.
s 14	Orders Court may make	The Minister v Broughton (1983) 34 SASR 520 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the effect of an order made under s 14 on the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court. Minister for Community Welfare v Hillier (1987) 47 SASR 553 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Children's Court: Whilst s 14 envisaged two stages in the determination of a s 12 application, the first leading to a declaration, and the second requiring the court to consider the consequential protection order, the powers and procedures in s 14 required one trial only. See also s 22.
s 22	Minister is lawful guardian	Roberts v Bilney (1981) 29 SASR 179; 7 Fam LR 855 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the meaning of "immediate custody and control" in s 22. C and Another v Minister of Community Welfare (1985) 38 SASR 362: Held, when the Children's Court has made an order under s 14 to place children under the guardianship of the Minister, s 22 operates to deny the Children's Court the power to make an order for access to the children.
ss 47, 48	Application by Attorney-General to Judge of Supreme Court for order that child be tried in adult court	In re Szekely (1980) 25 SASR 112 (SA Sup Ct FC) Application under s 47 of the Children's Protection and Young Offenders Act: Discussed, power of Judges with respect to a s 47 application. s 51	Sentencing provisions for children	R v Sander (1979) 22 SASR 361 (SA Sup Ct FC) case stated: Held, the accused, being a "child" within the meaning of the Act, should be sentenced by the trial Judge in accordance with the provisions of s 51 of the Act. s 56	Sentencing of children tried in adult courts	R v Amanatidis and R v Wilson: see s 7. R v G (1986) 43 SASR 503 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, sentencing of children tried in adult courts under s 56 and provisions for remissions for good behaviour and parole under the Correctional Services Act 1982.

s 61	Breach of recognizance	Higgins v Goldfinch: see s 77.
s 76	Appeals from orders, etc., under Part III, and other Acts	Hillier v Minister for Community Welfare (1987) 45 SASR 467 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, an appeal under s 76 is a rehearing on the evidence taken in the court below, with a power in the Supreme Court to receive further evidence in a proper case.
		C v Minister of Community Welfare (1989) 13 Fam LR 171 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J) Appeal from Children's Court: Held, that an appeal under s 76 of the Act was an appeal in the strict sense and not a rehearing.
s 77	Appeals from order, etc., under Part IV	Walsh v Kaminski (1980) 26 SASR 188 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Children's Court: Held, there is no right of appeal to the Supreme Court against a non-conviction in the Children's Court.
		Higgins v Goldfinch (1981) 26 SASR 364 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Children's Court: Held, an order of dismissal of an application to the Children's Court was a final order, from which appeal lay to the Supreme Court. s 88	Certain reports must be made available to child	Smith v Minister of Community Welfare (1988) 46 SASR 577; 12 Fam LR 159 (SA Sup Ct von Doussa J): Discussed, factors to be considered in deciding whether to exercise the discretion not to furnish the child with a report under s 88(2).

s 24	Applications for approval	Decca Pty Ltd v City of Adelaide (1982) 52 LGRA 85 (SA Sup Ct White J): Discussed, inconsistency between s 24 of the City of Adelaide Development Control Act and both s 13 of the Building Act 1971 and a reg 6.3 building certificate under the Building Act. Colliers Properties (No 1) Pty Ltd v Adelaide City Corporation (1988) 65 LGRA 397; (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, pursuant to the City of Adelaide Development Control Act 1976, third parties were not given any rights to receive notice of any development application, or to be heard on any such application, or to appeal from any decision thereon.
s 42	Law governing proceedings under this Act	Adelaide Development Co Pty Ltd v Adelaide City Corporation (1991) 74 LGRA 15 (SA Sup Ct Debelle J): The effect of the section is that the law by reference to which the application is to be decided crystallises at the time of lodgement of the application. This means that where an application was made to demolish a building and the building was subsequently entered on the World Heritage List this does not prevent the applicant from demolishing the building if all the relevant consents were granted.

s 25	Right of appeal	Mobitel Pty Ltd v Dun and Bradstreet (Australia) Pty Ltd (1979) 22 SASR 288 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the right of appeal to the Supreme Court was against a decision of the Tribunal. No right of appeal exists against a decision of the Chairman of the Tribunal upon a preliminary matter of law. s 28	Obligation to be licensed	Webb v Action Home Loan Pty Ltd (1985) 82 FLR 200; 63 ALR 113 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the activities of the Adelaide branch of a company based in Queensland was subject to the SA Consumer Credit Act 1972 because, among other reasons, the defendant carried on a business as a credit provider in SA within the meaning of s 28.
s 29	Application for a licence	Club Resorts (Finance) Pty Ltd v Commercial Tribunal (SA) (1992) ASC 57,752 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): The words "fit and proper person" should not be given a narrow construction. A propensity to make misleading representations in the making of consumer contracts may be sufficient although the mere use of high pressure sales techniques may not.
s 36	Tribunal to exercise disciplinary powers	R v The Credit Tribunal and Others; Ex parte General Motors Acceptance Corporation Australia (1977): see s 40.
s 40	Form of credit contract	R v The Credit Tribunal and Others; Ex parte General Motors Acceptance Corporation Australia (1977) 15 SASR 482 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held, that the Credit Tribunal had jurisdiction under s 36 of the Act to inquire into the question of the use by the company of a blank contract contrary to the provisions of s 40 of the Act. Mercantile Credits Ltd v Comblas and Another (1982) 56 ALJR 499; 40 ALR 75 (PC): Held, ambiguity which arose by reference to a credit contract as a "consumer mortgage" was further compounded by s 40(5) and the Regulations there-under which refer to both the Consumer Credit Act 1972 and the Consumer Transactions Act 1972. It was contrary to the spirit of s 40 that a liability of such importance as that of having one's goods seized and sold by the lender, should not be stated expressly in the contract, rather than incorporated into it deviously.

s 4	Interpretation	R v Catanzaritti, re "produce": see s 32.
s 32	Prohibition of manufacture, production, sale or supply of drug of dependence or prohibited substance	R v Scali (1986) 40 SASR 597 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the presumption in s 32(3) applied with respect to the sentencing process as well as to the determination of criminal liability. R v Catanzaritti (1987) 74 SASR 579 (Ct. of Crim. App): Held, the offence of producing a drug, constituted by s 32(1)(a), included its cultivation, by reason of the definition of "produce" in s 4. R v Davidson: see s 52.
s 39	Prosecution for simple possession offence	R v Young (1987) 47 SASR 525; 27 A Crim R 85; 79 ALR 441 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the prohibition in s 39 is attracted by the character of the prosecution not the nature of the offence of which the offender is convicted.
s 45a	Expiation of simple cannabis offences	R v Offord (1991) 53 A Crim R 475 (SA Sup Ct FC): The appellant's possession of 400 grams of cannabis harvested from 5 plants for his personal use which led to a conviction of possession for supply was not an offence "arising out of" the cultivation of cannabis and it was not a simple cannabis offence. The phrase should be interpreted as meaning either "consisting of" cultivation or "directly connected with" cultivation.
s 52	Power to search, seize, etc.	Tran Nominees Pty Ltd v Scheffler (1986) 42 SASR 361; sub nom Ryan v Tran Nominees Pty Ltd 22 A Crim R 274 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the warrant on its face failed to disclose compliance with the requirements of s 52(5) and was invalid. R v Davidson (1991) 54 SASR 580 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Consideration of the scope of power to search, and exercise of discretion to reject evidence. Mammone v Chaplin (1991) 54 A Crim R 163 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): The prosecution is required to prove as an objective fact, that a member of the police force suspected that a substance was in a vehicle. Hearsay evidence may be relied on in establishing whether the police suspected on reasonable grounds. The powers in s 52(9) are to be read disjunctively.

s 44	Cross-vesting–transfer of proceedings	JN Taylor Finance Pty Ltd (In Liq) v BCF (Bond Corp Finance) Ltd (1991) 4 ACSR 483 (SA Sup Ct Debelle J): Held, that s 44 requires a determination as to which of the two courts is more appropriate. S 44 assumes that both courts are appropriate for one reason or another. If the plaintiff has lawfully chosen one forum, and if there is no indication of forum shopping, and if there is no demonstrable advantage of one forum over another, the court will not lightly transfer the proceedings from the forum originally chosen by the plaintiff. To that extent, the defendant may have some kind of onus to discharge. But at the end of the day, the task for the court is to weigh the relevant advantages and disadvantages in determining whether an order for transfer should be made.
s 85	Operation of Companies (SA) Code in relation to "matters arising before commencement of this section"	The Duke Group Ltd (In Liq) v Arthur Young (Reg) (1991) 5 ACSR 347; 7 ACLC 1,107 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, that by virtue of s 85(1), a Company ordered to be wound up in Victoria under the Companies (Victoria) Code was able to file a copy of the order in the Supreme Court of South Australia pursuant to s 465 Companies (SA) Code so that third party proceedings issued against it in South Australia before 1/1/91 could be stayed, notwithstanding that the filing took place after the Corporations Law (SA) came into effect.

s 19	Correctional institutions to be under the control of the Minister	Sandery v South Australia: see s 36.
s 21	Day on which sentence of imprisonment commences	R v Bugg (1987) 46 SASR 40 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, ss 21 and 65 required the fixing of a non-parole period only when the sentence of imprisonment exceeds one year. Discussed, the ambit and effect of ss 21 and 65 where a person is sentenced to two periods of imprisonment of less than 12 months each, for offences against Commonwealth and State Laws. R v Jamieson (1988) 50 SASR 130 (Ct Crim App FC) Appeal from sentence of Supreme Court: Held, the sentencing judge's statutory power under s 21, to order that a sentence commence on a date prior to that of the commencement of the relevant sitting, is generally to allow for incorporation into the sentence periods spent in custody prior to the date of passing sentence.
s 22	Assignment of prisoners to particular correctional institutions	Sandery v South Australia: see s 36.
s 24	Chief Executive Officer has custody of prisoners	Fricker v Dawes (1992) 57 SASR 494 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): Section 24 gives the prison manager an absolute discretion that may not be reviewed by the court in the ordinary case. Reviewable perhaps only on the grounds that it is inconsistent with other provisions of the Act or made in bad faith.
s 25	Transfer of prisoners	Sandery v South Australia: see s 36.
s 36	Power to keep a prisoner apart from all other prisoners	Sandery v South Australia (1987) 48 SASR 500 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J) Application for judicial review: Held, separate confinement could only be imposed in accordance with s 36. No residual power was conferred by ss 22 and 25 in the plaintiff's particular circumstances. Whilst s 19 vested general control in the Minister, such residual power was not unqualified and could not be exercised in a manner and for a purpose running counter to legislative intention. Forrest v South Australia (1989) 39 A Crim R 326 (SA Sup Ct Duggan J): The Permanent Head of the Department of Correctional Services, upon being satisfied of any of the matters referred to in s 36(3)(c) is permitted to direct segregation for a period not exceeding 14 days. By s 36(4), a limit of two months is fixed in respect of any one extension. Bromley v SA (1990) 55 SASR 309 (SA Sup Ct Duggan J): Held, that a direction for segregation under s 36 was unlawful where the written notice did not provide a clear and proper understanding of the reasons for the direction of segregation.
s 50	Escape	R v Forrest: see s 65.
s 65	Court shall fix or extend non-parole periods	R v Thomas (1986) 41 SASR 566; 84 FLR 420; 24 A Crim R 404; 67 ALR 497 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the fixing of non-parole period where prisoner sentenced to terms of imprisonment for offences against both Commonwealth and State laws. Flentjar v Wright (1986) 42 SASR 246 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, factors to be considered when determining whether there is special reason for not fixing a non-parole period under s 65(2). R v Becker (1986) 43 SASR 309 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Discussed, power of the court to fix a fresh non-parole period where prisoner sentenced interstate for offence committed in breach of parole. R v Bugg: see s 21. R v Forrest (1987) 46 SASR 75 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the effect of ss 50, 65 and 74a on a non-parole period of an offender sentenced while in custody for an earlier offence and subject to an existing non- parole period. Held, if at the time of sentence for escape, the offender is on parole, s 74a applies, not s 50(2).

		Houghagen v Charra (1988) 50 SASR 419 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Justices Appeal: Held, s 65(1)(b) requires the Court to consider whether the non-parole period should be extended - when an additional sentence has been imposed - but does not direct that it should be extended in all cases.
s 66	Board must order release on parole at end of non-parole period	Mackie v South Australia (1985) 20 A Crim R 455 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, where a non-parole period expires and the prisoner either accepts conditions of parole proposed to the prisoner, or is not invited to accept such conditions, the prisoner is entitled to release on parole (subject to the conditions in s 66(2)(a)) even where the Parole Board has not ordered the release.
s 74	Suspension of parole while serving imprisonment for offence committed before release on parole	R v Forrest: see s 65.
s 75	Automatic cancellation of parole upon imprisonment for offence committed while on parole	Galang v Rowbottom (1992) 58 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Calculation of unexpired balance of the sentence for the purposes of s 75.
s 79	Remission for certain life prisoners and prisoners serving sentences exceeding three months	R v G (1986) 43 SASR 503 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, whether the provisions of s 79 apply to a person whose sentence comprises a term of detention until age of 18 followed by a term of imprisonment.

s 4 Interpretation

Battista v Cooper (1976) 14 SASR 225: Applicants suffering shock and emotional disturbance due to the murder of their husband and father were persons to whom compensation might be ordered to be paid under s 4 of the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act, 1969-1974.

R v Backo; In Re Hand (1977) 16 SASR 541 (SA Sup Ct Bright J) Criminal Trial: The court may withhold the making of an award of compensation to an injured person under s 4 of the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act, 1969-1974 because that person had provoked the assault. However, once an award has been made then compensation is not to be reduced by reason of provocative conduct by the injured person.

In Re Gage and Bird (1978) 19 SASR 239 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Application under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act: Held, that combined physical revulsion and contemporaneous mental shock caused by rape constituted an "injury" within the meaning of s 4 of the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act, 1969-1974. Upheld an appeal in In Re Bird (1979) 21 SASR 76 (SA Sup Ct FC).

Brown v Ween (1979) 21 SASR 72 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Application under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act: When an award of compensation is made pursuant to s 4 of the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act 1969-1974, the compensation may be reduced by reason of the behaviour of the injured person.

Morrison v Groom (1979) 21 SASR 153 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that the court of summary jurisdiction has jurisdiction to make an order for compensation under s 4 of the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act 1969-1974 for a child injured by a dog against the owner of the dog.

Delaney v Celon (1980) 24 SASR 443 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Claim under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act: Consideration and discussion of the extent to which emotional upset, with consequent ill effects, is an "injury" within the meaning of s 4.

Dale v Chenoweth (1980) 24 SASR 510 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Claim under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act: Held, that the cost of replacement of dentures is an item in respect of which compensation may be awarded under that Act.

Sanders v Rowden and the State of South Australia (1980) 24 SASR 547 (SA Sup Ct Mr Commissioner Rice) Claim under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act: Held, an applicant who had been raped and who subsequently suffered from emotional distress and fear had suffered an "injury" within the meaning of s 4, and was entitled to an award of compensation.

		Lamb v Miller (1981) 26 SASR 563 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Applications for compensation under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act: Consideration of the principles upon which compensation should be awarded to the father, mother and two sisters of a girl who had been murdered should be assessed. V v McDonald (1981) 28 SASR 489 (SA Sup Ct Williams J) Application under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act: A woman who had been raped and as a consequence suffered revulsion and mental shock was awarded the full amount payable under the Act. T v South Australia (1992) Aust Torts Reports 61,326 (SA Sup Ct FC): It is impracticable and undesirable to attempt to develop precise definitions or identify ranges of practical situations which fall within the concept of "injury". Whilst the statute has in contemplation something more than mere sorrow or grief, the court is required to contrast the condition of the victim before and after the crime. Where there is more than a transient deleterious effect upon mental health and well being that adversely affects the normal enjoyment of life that person has sustained "mental injury".
s 7	Applications for compensation	In Re Gollan (1979) 21 SASR 79 Application under Criminal Injuries Compensation Act: Held, that grief and concern were not "injury" within the meaning of s 7 of the Act. Hence, compensation could not be claimed for grief and/or concern. Delaney v Celon (1980) 24 SASR: A claim as a victim (rather than a dependant of a victim) of an offence is limited to compensation in respect of physical or mental injury suffered by the claimant and does not extend to compensation for financial loss suffered as a result of the death of a victim of the offence. R v Newman; Ex parte Gregory (1981) 29 SASR 89 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, where a victim of an offence makes an application under s 7 and that offence was committed by two or more offenders who have been tried in different courts, application for compensation may be made to any one of the courts before which one of the offenders was tried. Clark v Clauson (1982) 33 SASR 18 (note) (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J): Held, where an assessment for compensation exceeds $10,000, s 7(8)(a) applies. Boyle v Morshead (1983) SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the provisions of s 7(8)(a) and (b) must be read cumulatively. Loter v Bruza (1983) 32 SASR 333 (SA Sup Ct Mohr J): Guidelines for determining the compensation to be awarded under s 7, where the injured victim's conduct has allegedly contributed to the injury. Schmidt v State of South Australia (1985) 37 SASR 570 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Held, appeal against decision not to make an order for compensation under s 7(9a) dismissed because Schmidt had failed, without good reason, to report the offence to the police within a reasonable time and that failure had significantly hindered the police's investigations into the offence. R v Newman; Ex parte Gregory (1981) 29 SASR 89 (SA Sup Ct FC) Mandamus: The application of the expression "appropriate court" in s 7(4) considered. P v South Australia (1992) 60 A Crim R 286 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the assessment of damages awarded under s 7 is compensatory and includes aggravated damages but does not include exemplary damages.
s 9	Joint offences	R v Newman; Ex parte Gregory (1981) 29 SASR 89 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the effect and intention of s 9 is merely to limit the Crown's liability, in respect of injury suffered, to one award of compensation. McKenzie v Donald and State of South Australia (1985) 37 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, several rapes committed by one offender on one victim over a period of six hours constituted a single incident within the meaning of s 9(2) and therefore the victim was entitled only to one order for compensation.

s 11	Satisfaction of orders by Attorney- General	Hodgkinson v State of South Australia (1983) 35 SASR 190 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, in the absence of indications that the claimant's next friend had received or was likely to receive compensation payment from another source, there was no basis on which the Attorney-General could form an opinion to decline to satisfy the order. McKenzie v Donald and State of South Australia (1985) 37 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, an application for compensation may be heard and determined notwithstanding that an appeal against conviction of the offence in question may be pending and undetermined. Bartlett v South Australia (1985) 40 SASR 149 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, where a health fund refused to meet hospital and medical expenses of an applicant there was no basis on which the Attorney-General could form an opinion to deduct those expenses under s 11(2). Kingston-Lee v Hunt and Others and the State of South Australia (1986) 42 SASR 136 (SA St Ct FC): Held, under s 11(3) the Attorney-General had a right to recover in full from any of several offenders any payment made from the General Revenue of the State in pursuance of a compensation order made under the Act.

R v Hill (1976) 14 SASR 507 (SA Sup Ct FC): Observations as to the penalty to be imposed for the offence of causing death by driving a motor vehicle in a manner dangerous to the public, where the manner of driving was heedless but not reckless. R v Little (1976) 14 SASR 556 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Direction to be given to a jury upon a charge of causing death by driving in a manner dangerous to the public, considered and discussed. R v Boll (1983) 33 SASR 321 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, factors to be taken into account in imposing sentence for the offence of causing death by driving a motor vehicle contrary to s 14.
s 18	Attempts	R v Duvivier (1982) 29 SASR 217; 5 A Crim R 89 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held: 1. Provocation is a defence to a charge of attempted murder. 2. Rejection of the possibility of convicting of attempted manslaughter where the charge is attempted murder (and the defence of provocation is open and has not been negatived by the prosecution).

s 19a	Dangerous driving causing death	R v Kamleh (1990) 51 A Crim R 435; sub nom Kamleh v The Queen 12 MVR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC): Observations as to the test of liability under the provisions and directions to the jury. R v Kroon (1990) 52 A Crim R 15; sub nom Kroon v The Queen 12 MVR 483 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held that: 1. A driver cannot be convicted of causing death or bodily injury by dangerous driving in respect of a period during which the driver is asleep. 2. Observations as to the test of liability under s 19a.
s 21	Wounding etc., with intent to do grievous bodily harm	R v Marshall (1987) 26 A Crim R 259 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed the ambit and applicability of the felony murder rule. s 38	Injuring persons by dangerous or negligent riding or driving	R v Ackland; Ex parte Tepper (1985) 38 SASR 371 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, a court of summary jurisdiction does not have jurisdiction to hear and determine a charge of an offence under s 38.
s 40	Assaults occasioning harm	Coulter v The Queen (1988) 164 CLR 350; 62 ALJR 74; 30 A Crim R 471; 76 ALR 365 (HC): Held, to obtain a conviction on a charge (brought under s 40) of assault occasioning actual bodily harm, it is not necessary for the Crown to prove specific intent to cause actual bodily harm. s 48	Rape	R v Sherrin (No 2) (1979) 21 SASR 250 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: In summing up upon a trial of rape, the trial judge should direct the jury in the terms laid down in s 48(1). He may then assist the jury with further directions, but it is undesirable for the trial judge to substitute for the words of the section a gloss or paraphrase of his/her own. R v Egan (1985) 15 A Crim R 20 (SA Sup Ct FC): The meaning of "recklessly indifferent", discussed. R v Athanasiadis (1990) 51 A Crim R 292 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that: 1. "Reckless indifference" within s 48 exists where the accused has sexual intercourse with another person without the consent of that other, having no belief that the alleged victim is consenting and not caring whether the alleged victim is consenting or not. 2. On the evidence, the trial Judge's use of the expression "uncaring, not caring" in direction to the jury was a sufficient explanation of the concept of reckless indifference in his direction to the jury.
s 49	Unlawful sexual intercourse	R v Beattie (1981) 26 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Trial: Consideration and discussion of: 1. The directions to be given to the jury upon a trial for rape where the prosecutrix is a mentally deficient woman and the defence of consent is raised. 2. The interpretation and application of the provisions of s 49(6).
s 59	Abduction of male or female person	R v Hussey (1980) 23 SASR 178 (SA Sup Ct FC): The factors to be taken into account in imposing sentence for an offence under s 59, and the legislative history of that section, considered and discussed.
s 63	Procuring persons to be prostitutes	R v Williams (1978) 19 SASR 423 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Elements of the offence of endeavouring a person to become a common prostitute contrary to s 63, considered and discussed.
s 73	Offences involving sexual intercourse	R v L (1991) 174 CLR 379 (High Ct FC): Respondent facing trial on two counts of rape of his wife. Held per curiam, s 73(3) was not invalid by reason of inconsistency with s 114(2) of the Family Law Act 1975 (Cth) or with any other provision of that Act or the Marriage Act 1961 (Cth). Section 73(3) does no more than rebut any presumption there might be that a party to a marriage had consented to sexual intercourse with the other party to the marriage.
s 77a	Detention of persons incapable of controlling sexual instincts	R v O'Shea (1982) 31 SASR 129; 8 A Crim R 219 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, circumstances in which a direction should be given by a trial judge under s 77a. R v Kiltie (1986) 41 SASR 52 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the meaning of "mental condition" in s 77a(1). O'Shea v Parole Board of South Australia (1987) 61 ALJR 477; 73 ALR 1 (HC): Discussed: 1. Effect of a licence issued pursuant to s 77a(7a). 2. Scope of the Parole Board's power under s 77a. 3. Effect of apprehension under s 77a(7c) using a defective warrant. 4. Whether, under s 77a(7c) the Parole Board is required to give a hearing before authorizing a detainee's return to custody.

		R v Hodge (1987) 48 SASR 91; 31 A Crim R 200 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed: 1. Whether a medical practitioner submitting a report to the court under s 77a should be subject to cross-examination. 2. The correct procedure for taking the oath, by such medical practitioners. 3. Requirements to be met before a report can provide a legal basis for an order under s 77a. 4. How to construe s 77a, in particular s 77a(4). 5. Other factors to be taken into account before making an order under s 77a.
s 84	Preliminary	R v Jones (1979) 22 SASR 583 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that the words "with intent thereby to injure.....any person" in s 84(c) include injury to a person by burning his property.
s 85	Sentencing for attempted arson	R v Teremoana (1990) 54 SASR 30 (SA Sup Ct FC) Held, that it is not a universal rule that the judge, when sentencing for the offence specifically charged in the information, may never have regard to relevant actions of the defendant that, strictly speaking, constituted separate offences. If they were offences of lesser gravity than the offence of which the defendant had been convicted, then it would be a matter of degree and fairness whether they may properly be taken into account as a part of the circumstances surrounding the offence charged. Accordingly, while a state of mind that could support a conviction under s 29 or 31 should not be taken into account in sentencing a defendant under s 85, the court may take into account a relevant state of mind that falls short of the requirements of those sections.
		Tziavrangos v Hayes (1991) 55 SASR 416; 53 A Crim R 220 (SA Sup Ct White J): Held, that the words "recklessly indifferent" in s 85(3) involve proof by the prosecution of advertence by the accused to the risk of the consequence that some property might be damaged.
s 90	Placing inflammable material for the purpose of causing a fire	R v Stewart (1983) 34 SASR 394 (SA Sup Ct King CJ): How to construe s 90, discussed.
s 156	Assault with intent to rob - felony	R v Cooper, Jones and Harris: see s 158.
s 158	Robbery with violence	R v Cooper, Jones and Harris (1978) 17 SASR 472 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: The offences created by s 156 and s 158(b) are separate and distinct offences.
		R v Kruger: see s 270.
s 160	Demanding money etc., with menaces by force, with intent to steal	Chamberlain v Thow (1986) 42 SASR 301 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Held, a court of summary jurisdiction does not have jurisdiction to hear and determine a charge of an offence under s 160.
s 172	Being found by night, armed, or in possession of housebreaking implements	R v Korac (1978) 18 SASR 317 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: The passage "without lawful excuse" relates to "other implements of housebreaking" as well as to the implements named in the section. Also, upon proof by the Crown that the "other implement" can be useful for housebreaking, the onus is upon the accused to prove lawful excuse.
s 176	Larceny and embezzlement by clerks and servants	McGrath v Higgins (1976) 13 SASR 365 (SA Sup Ct Bray CJ): Held, that a charge of stealing under s 176 whilst the accused was an adult could not be heard concurrently with a charge under s 176 laid when the accused was a juvenile. Such offences could only be heard under the procedure laid down in s 36 of the Juvenile Courts Act 1971.
s 181	Verdict of larceny where embezzlement charged, and vice versa	R v Harper (1984) 14 A Crim R 414 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): The effect of the section is to require a person charged with embezzlement to make his answer if there is evidence on which a jury could properly convict of either embezzlement or larceny as a servant. s 189	Directors of companies fraudulently appropriating property	R v Johnson (1979) 22 SASR 161 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: The meaning of the expression body corporate or public company, considered.
		A/G's Reference (No 1 of 1985) (1985) 41 SASR 147; 19 A Crim R 436: Held, cheques drawn on an account of an incorporated company constitute, or are capable of being "property of a body corporate" within the meaning of s 189. Discussed, how further to construe s 189.

		A/G's Reference (No. 3 of 1987) (1987) 48 SASR 1; 30 A Crim R 343 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed: 1. Whether company property required to be "entrusted" to a director before the director could be guilty of an offence under s 189. 2. Whether "misappropriation" was a misdescription of the offence under s 189.
s 195	False pretences	R v Timperon (No 2) (1976) 15 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Elements of the crime of false pretences, considered and discussed.
s 196	Receiving where principal guilty of felony	R v Fallon (1981) 28 SASR 394; 4 A Crim R 411 (SA Sup Ct FC): The meaning to be attributed to the expression "knowing the same to have been stolen" in s 196, considered.
s 200	Admissibility of evidence	R v Phan (1990) 54 SASR 561 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that: 1. The appellant's plea of not guilty put in issue the element of guilty knowledge. Consequently the evidence was admissible. 2. The trial judge was correct in refusing to sever the counts and admitting the evidence under s 200.
s 214	Deeds, wills, bills of exchange, etc.	R v Cubbon (1984) 34 SASR 596 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, a minor forgery offence should not, when fixing a penalty, be viewed in the perspective of the maximum sentence under s 214.
s 234	Demanding property upon forged instruments	R v Kastratovic (1985) 19 A Crim R 28 (SA Sup Ct FC): Mental elements of the offence to be proved, discussed.
s 268	Accessories after the fact	R v White (1977) 16 SASR 571 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Principles to be applied in imposing sentence for the offence of being an accessory after the fact to a felony, considered and discussed. R v Mills (1977) 16 SASR 581 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Application of the principle that the maximum sentence should be reserved for the worst case of its kind to the offence of being an accessory after the fact to a felony, considered and discussed.
s 270	Punishment for certain offences	R v Kruger (1977) 17 SASR 214 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: The maximum penalty to be imposed upon conviction for such an offence is imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years. Radak v Daire (1982) 30 SASR 60 (SA Sup Ct Walters J): Discussed: 1. Factors to be taken into account in determining the penalty to be imposed for the offence of keeping a common bawdy house, under s 270(1)(b). 2. Factors to be proved to establish a charge under s 270(1)(b). R v Debelis (1984) 36 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, section 61 of the Police Offences Act 1953 did not impliedly repeal, in part, s 270.
s 278	Joinder of charges	R v Killick (1980) 24 SASR 137 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Held, that four counts of armed robbery where joined in the one information since there was a sufficient nexus between all the alleged offences for them to form "a series of offences of the same or similar character" within the meaning of s 278. R v Miller (1980) 25 SASR 170 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Criminal Appeal: Consideration and discussion of the propriety of the joinder in one information of seven counts of murder, where the circumstances of the offence are of a similar nature. Sutton v R (1984) 58 ALJR 60; 51 ALR 435 (HC): Charges for more than one felony may be joined in the same information under s 278 only if evidence of the other charges is relevant in a way other than as showing that the accused had a propensity for, or a disposition to, commit crime, or crime of a particular kind, or that he was the kind of person likely to commit the crime charged. R v Armstrong (1990) 48 A Crim R 358; 54 SASR 207 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, application for separate trials was properly refused as all the evidence which the Crown proposed to lead on one count could be admissible as evidence tending to prove guilt on each individual count. Discussion of the tests for similar fact evidence and for whether or not joinder is justified. Held, desirable for trial Judge to give appropriate warning to the jury in respect of propensity evidence, but failure to do so in the circumstances was not fatal.

		R v Luczkowski (1990) 54 SASR 169 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): Held, that the similarity of related offences may be found, not only in the legal elements of the offences in question, but also from the facts which constituted them and the circumstances in which, and the relationships out of which, they arise. s 293	Insanity affecting capacity to plead	R v Forrester (1982) 31 SASR 312; 7 A Crim R 167 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J): Held, the appropriate procedure to ascertain whether the accused was still insane under s 293(1) or had become fit to plead was to empanel a fresh jury to determine that question. s 299a	Orders as to firearms and offensive weapons	Daire v Raphael (1983) 35 SASR 302 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Discussed, circumstances under which it is appropriate for an order to be made under s 299a.
s 302	Court to have regard to remission in fixing sentence or non-parole period	R v King (1988) 48 SASR 557 (SA Sup Ct FC) A/G's appeal against sentence: The application of s 302 in terms of the appropriate sentence range, considered.
s 310	Sentence or imprisonment may be made cumulative	R v Spiero (1979) 22 SASR 543 (SA Sup Ct FC): Section 310 precludes the ordering of more than one cumulative sentence for felony. R v Knight (1981) 26 SASR 573 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Observations as to the necessity of deterrent sentences of imprisonment, and as to the imposition of consecutive sentences, for offences of armed robbery. R v Shannon (1982) 32 SASR 5; 7 A Crim R 457 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, whether s 310 constitutes a statutory prohibition against imposing three consecutive sentences.
s 328a	Abolition of presumption of marital coercion	Goddard v Osborne (1978) 18 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The nature and elements of the defences of duress and marital coercion, and the applicability of the marital coercion defence in a court of summary jurisdiction, considered and discussed. Brennan v Bass (1984) 35 SASR 311 (SA Sup Ct White J): Held, the defence of marital coercion provided by s 328a is available only to a lawfully married wife and does not extend to a de facto wife.
s 330	Prisoner not to sue	Milera v Wilson (1980) 23 SASR 485 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from Local Court: Held, the Local Court had no jurisdiction to hear and determine an action for conversion brought by a prisoner. Bromley v Dawes (1983) 34 SASR 73 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, per Legoe J: A claim for damages for wrongful imprisonment or trespass to the person does not fall within the ambit of an action "for the recovery of any property, debt, or damages whatsoever" within s 330.
s 350	Questions of law may be reserved	R v Parry (1980) 23 SASR 187 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: Held, it was not competent for a trial judge to discharge the jury and reserve a question for the consideration of the Full Court at the close of the Crown case. The right of a Judge to state a case for consideration of the Full Court, considered and discussed.
s 352	Right of appeal in criminal cases	R v Bitter (1981) 27 SASR 183 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Observations as to the principles to be applied by the Court of Criminal Appeal in determining an appeal by the Attorney- General, against inadequacy of sentence. R v Flaherty (1981) 28 SASR 105; 4 A Crim R 28 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Observations as to the principles to be applied in determining an appeal by the Attorney-General, against inadequacy of sentence. A/G v Tichy (1982) 30 SASR 84 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, an appeal brought under s 352(2) must, according to the Acts Interpretation Act 1915, s 27, be brought "with all convenient speed". R v Spiers (1983) 34 SASR 546 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, per Mitchell ACJ: The right of appeal in s 352(2) does not extend to the Attorney- General a right to appeal against a refusal of a judge to order that a suspension of sentence be revoked under s 9(4) of the Offenders Probation Act 1913.

		Taylor v A/G (SA) (1991) 53 A Crim R 166 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that an order of forfeiture made under the Crimes (Confiscation of Profits) Act 1986 is an order that falls within the definition of sentence in the Criminal Law Consolidation Act, so that with leave of the Full Court, there is a right of appeal under s 352.
s 353	Determination of appeals in ordinary cases	R v Johnson (1979) 22 SASR 161 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: The test to be applied in determining whether or not a criminal appeal should be dismissed, on the grounds that no substantial miscarriage of justice occurred, notwithstanding a misdirection by the trial Judge in summing up, considered and discussed. Whitehorn v R (1983) 57 ALJR 809; 49 ALR 448 (HC): Held, appeal against a conviction of indecent assault allowed pursuant to s 353. R v Egan (1985) 15 A Crim R 20 (SA Sup Ct FC): Onus of proof in showing miscarriage of justice, discussed. R v Miller (1980) 25 SASR 170 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: The application of the proviso to s 353(1) that the Full Court may dismiss an appeal if it considers that no substantial miscarriage of justice has actually occurred, considered and discussed. R v Drinkwater (1981) 27 SASR 396 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Held, the direction given by the trial judge was favourable to the accused, and could not in the circumstances constitute a misdirection. R v Costi (1987) 48 SASR 269 (Ct of Crim App) Appeal against conviction and sentence: Although the trial judge erred, a reasonable jury hearing the evidence and the correct directions must have convicted. The proviso to s 353(1) should be applied.
s 357	Time for appealing	Coulter v The Queen (1988) 164 CLR 350; 62 ALJR 74; 30 A Crim R 471; 76 ALR 365 (HC): Held, s 357 did not confer rights either to present oral argument or for the applicant to be present at the hearing of his application. s 364	Admission of appellant to bail and custody when attending Court	R v Fabry (1978) 18 SASR 479 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: In directing that the time of a sentence of imprisonment shall run notwithstanding an unsuccessful appeal or application for leave to appeal the court has power to direct that the time shall run in part. R v Lavery (No 3) (1979) 20 SASR 472 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal. The provisions of s 364(3), that the time of a sentence of imprisonment shall not run pending the determination of an appeal or application for leave to appeal are intended to serve as a check on frivolous appeals. Ordinarily time will not run, but the Court has a discretion to allow time to run, either in full or in part. R v Thompson (1979) 22 SASR 12 (SA Sup Ct FC): Consideration of principles under which the Court of Criminal Appeal should act in determining whether a direction should be given that a sentence of imprisonment run notwithstanding the dismissal of an appeal. R v Malvaso (No. 2) (1989) 50 SASR 541 (SA Sup Ct FC) Application to the Court of Criminal Appeal: Held, the word "appellant" in s 364(3) includes both a respondent to a Crown appeal and an applicant to the High Court.
s 367	Powers which may be exercised by a Judge of the Court	Malvaso v R (1989) 64 ALJR 44 (High Court): Where an appeal to the Full Court had been undertaken by the Attorney-General under the mistaken impression that leave had been granted under s 367, when in fact it had not been granted, the determination must be set aside, as the appeal itself was incompetent.
Rules under the Criminal Law Consolidation Act
Rule 25	Rules of court	Coulter v R (1988) 164 CLR 350; 62 ALJR 74; 30 A Crim R 471; 76 ALR 365 (HC): Held, rule 25 was validly made under s 368.
Rule 4A	Application for an extension of time for leave to appeal	R v Trotter (1979) 22 SASR 64 (SA Sup Ct Walters J): The principles upon which an application for an extension of time for leave to appeal should be determined and the effect of rule 4A in relation to such an application, considered and discussed.

15.8.91 p592	1.9.91

s 10	Matters to which a sentencing court should have regard	R v Adami (1989) 51 SASR 229 (SA Sup Ct FC): S 10(n) is a declaratory provision and does not produce a change in the law, so that the probable effect of a sentence upon dependants is still relevant only in exceptional cases.
s 12	Court to have regard to remission in fixing sentence or non-parole period	Hoare v R (1989) 86 ALR 361; 63 ALJR 505 (High Court of Aust) Application for special leave to appeal: Section 12 requires no more than the court "have regard to" remissions, its construction should be like that of s 302 of the Criminal Law Consolidation Act, 1935.
s 13	Order for payment of pecuniary sum not to be made in certain circumstances	Davies v White (1991) 53 A Crim R 92 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, that the offence was not a trifling offence for the purpose of s 17, but the terms of s 13 provided good reason for the court to reduce the minimum fine.
s 16	Imposition of penalty without conviction	Cresswell v Bates (1989) 9 MVR 176 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, that the minimum period of licence disqualification for a breach of s 47b(1) of the Road Traffic Act 1961 cannot be ameliorated by s 16 of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988. Glover v Zourondis (1990) 48 A Crim R 118 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) see also Fisheries Act ss 34 and 66. The power in s 16 to impose a fine without conviction is available only when the offence carries no other penalty in addition to the fine. Janz v Woolven (1990) 55 SASR 239; 49 A Crim R 284; 12 MVR 153 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the power under s 16 cannot be exercised so as to avoid the mandatory licence disqualification under s 47b(3) of the Road Traffic Act, 1961.
s 17	Reduction of minimum penalty	Davies v White (1991): see s 13.
s 32	Sentencing - non-parole period	R v Armstrong (1990) 54 SASR 207; 48 A Crim R 358 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that a District Court judge had properly declined to fix a non-parole period under s 35(5), where it was necessary to take into account a prior conviction for murder and the consequent life sentence. This allowed the prisoner to make application under s 32(3), to the Supreme Court which was the more appropriate forum.

		R v Addabo (1990) 53 SASR 449; 47 A Crim R 329 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J) affirmed (1990) 48 A Crim R 172 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, whilst legislative amendments subsequent to the original sentencing was something less than minimum non-parole period fixed by trial Judge and become the maximum period the respondent was to serve, that non-parole period could not be extended on that ground. Grounds for exercising discretion to extend non-parole period, discussed.
s 42	Conditions of bond	Kerry v Henderson (1990): see s 53.
s 53	Compensation	Kerry v Henderson (1990) 55 SASR 42 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): Held: 1. The power of a court to order compensation to a victim in a criminal matter is statutory. 2. The power to order compensation under s 42(1)(g)(ii) or s 53 does not encompass the power to order the payment of interest in addition to the repayment of moneys taken.
s 58	Orders that a court may make on breach of bond	Leech v Koko (1989) 51 SASR 131 (SA Sup Ct Prior J): The power contained in s 58(4) to reduce the term of a suspended sentence may include the power to extinguish such a term altogether. Gollan v The Queen (1992) 57 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that where, due to delay in an application to estreat, and offender has served his period of imprisonment and re-established his life, special circumstances exist for the purposes of s 58(4) to reduce the original sentence.
s 68	Remission of pecuniary sum	Hurley v Shore (1992) 58 SASR 181 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, when considering an application under s 68 a court is obliged to satisfy itself that no other order under Part IX would be appropriate.
Part V	BONDS	Janz v Woolvern (1990) 49 A Crim R 284 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that although the powers contained in Part V of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988 may be exercised to mitigate the penalties of fine and imprisonment provided for in ss 47 and 47b of the Road Traffic Act, the power not to record a conviction may not be used to avoid the penalty of mandatory licence disqualification.

PROCLAMATIONS SINCE 1.1.90:

s. 72(b)(i) Gaz 11.1.90 p67

s 26	Disciplinary action	R v Teachers Appeal Board; Ex parte Bilney (1984) 35 SASR 492; 6 IR 476 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the scope and operation of the words "any disgraceful or improper conduct" within s 26(1)(e). s 44	Effect of an award	Teachers (Non-metropolitan) Award Reference Case (1974) 41 SAIR (Pt 1) 110 (SA Ind Ct FC) Question of law referred by Olssen J: Section 44 interpreted as intending a clear indication on the part of the legislature that the Education Act is not to oust the jurisdiction of the Industrial Commission, and that such tribunal remains unfettered in its otherwise general jurisdiction to make awards affecting (inter alia) members of the teaching service. Teachers (Recreation Leave Loading) Award (Referral of Question of law) Case (1976) 43 SAIR (Pt 1) 741 (SA Ind Ct FC) Question of law referred by President: Teachers (Non-metropolitan) Award Reference Case (see above) followed. The scope of the regulation making power conferred in s 107 also considered.

s 54	Additional rights of appeal	Cusack v Parsons (1988) 48 SASR 364 (SA Sup Ct FC) Application for judicial review: The right of appeal conferred by s 54 extends only to an "officer" of the teaching service, and is not to be construed according to a broader definition. s 72f	Non-Government schools to be registered	Grace Bible Church Inc v Reedman (1984) 54 ALR 571 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the extent of the right to religious freedom, in particular whether that freedom can be abridged by an Act of SA Parliament, specifically s 72f of the Education Act 1972.
s 72g	Registration of non-Government schools	R v Ligertwood; Ex parte Darwin (1982) 30 SASR 328 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the scope of the Board's powers under s 72g.
s 72j	Review of registration, powers of cancellation, etc	Fountain Centre Christian School Inc v Harrington (1990) 53 SASR 361 (SA Sup Ct FC): The power to cancel registration is contained in s 72j(2) and requires the Board to come to the conclusion that the nature and content of the instruction at the school is unsatisfactory.
s 107	Regulations	Teachers (Recreation Leave Loading) Award (Referral of Question of Law) case: see s 44.
Education Regulations 1976
Reg 111	Complaint against a Departmental officer	Cusack v Parsons (1988) 48 SASR 364 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the right to complain under the Education Regulations was confined to a teacher who was an officer in the teaching service at the time of the act or omission complained of and at the time of invoking the regulation 111 procedure.

s 71	Exemptions	Smith v St John Ambulance Australia SA Inc: see s 98.
s 96	Quantum of damages	Donhardt v Holmes (1989) 54 SASR 58 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): Held, that damages were entirely at large and in the absence of error or proof that the award was not manifestly excessive, the award should not be interfered with on appeal.

s 98	Appeal	Smith v St John Ambulance Australia SA Inc (1992) 162 LSJS 404 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): An appeal to the Supreme Court from the Equal Opportunity Tribunal is not a hearing and is not confined to questions of law. On appeal upheld the finding of the Tribunal that the applicant's exclusion from employment as an ambulance driver on the basis of failing a colour blindness test was reasonable within s 71.

s. 59d Gaz 5.7.90 p232

s 9	Evidence without formality	R v Meier (1982) 30 SASR 126 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the scope and operation of s 9, in particular, whether this section authorized the trial judge to permit a ten year-old boy to give unsworn evidence.
s 12	Evidence of young children	A-G's Reference (No 2 of 1987) (1987) 46 SASR 275 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, pursuant to s 12, a child under ten is not permitted to give evidence on oath or affirmation, even in circumstances where such a child is otherwise competent to do so. A-G's Reference No 1 of 1988 (1988) 49 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that the amended provisions of the Evidence Act, which came into force on 1 May 1988, did not apply to the conduct of a trial commenced after that date in respect of offences committed prior to it, as the repealed provisions conferred substantive rights. R v Schlaefer (1992) 57 SASR 423 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussion of examination required by trial judge to be satisfied that a child "understands the obligation of an oath".
s 18	Accused persons competent to give evidence	R v Pfitzner (1976) 15 SASR 171 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: An allegation by the accused that the police officers had obtained a confession from him by the use of violence involved an imputation upon their character. Therefore, the accused was liable to be cross-examined upon past convictions. R v Bradshaw (1978) 18 SASR 83 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: The admissibility of evidence tendered by an accused regarding prior convictions, considered and discussed. R v Beech (1978) 20 SASR 410 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Consideration and discussion of the circumstances in which cross-examination of an accused as to his previous convictions should be permitted. R v Karan and Dwyer (1980) 26 SASR 408 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J) Criminal Trial: Prior to commencement of the defence, the trial judge at a criminal trial has power to rule whether cross-examination of the accused as to his character will be permitted. However, such a ruling must be subject to the right of a judge to vary it if the accused should give evidence and the circumstances upon which the judge made the ruling, alter. R v Corak (1982) 30 SASR 404 (SA Sup Ct FC) Discussed, the scope and effect of s 18(1)(vi)(c) - "evidence" includes evidence against a co-accused notwithstanding that the accused person giving evidence has no hostile intent towards the co-accused. R v Vuckov (1986) 40 SASR 498 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussed: 1. Whether rules of admissibility apply to the voir dire, specifically, whether an accused is protected by s 18(1)(vi) against cross-examination as to his past on the voir dire. 2. The scope of s 18(1)(vi). R v Siebel (1992) 59 A Crim R 105 (SA Sup Ct FC): Any comment that the accused person has failed to contradict prosecution witnesses, or to provide an alternative version of events, or that he has not given evidence is prohibited by s 18(1) II. Such an infringement cannot be lightly overlooked and the court must ensure that the comment could not reasonably be supposed to have affected the result.
s 21	Provisions governing competence and compellability of close relatives of accused persons	Priestwood v Shuttleworth (1985) 39 SASR 125; 19 A Crim R 123 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J): Held, a close relative of the defendant was entitled to apply under s 21 for an exemption from the obligation to give evidence against the defendant, notwithstanding the provisions of s 245 of the Community Welfare Act 1972.

s 34a	Proof of commission of offence	Monaghan v Glynde Auto Wreckers (1972) 39 SAIR (Pt 2) 1145 (SA Ind Magistrate): Three prior convictions of an employee dismissed for larceny admitted under s 34a in a claim by the employee for under payment of wages.
s 34c	Admissibility of documentary evidence as to facts in issue	In Re Practitioners of the Supreme Court (1980) 26 SASR 275 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motions: Notes taken and transcribed by a shorthand writer of evidence given upon a criminal trial in Victoria are not admissible in evidence in a South Australian Court. Wombat Nominees Pty Ltd v De Tullio (1990) 98 ALR 307 (Fed Ct of Aust O'Loughlin J): Re s 34c reception into evidence of statements in documents where direct oral evidence is admissible. Relevant considerations, as to whether or not it is "reasonably practicable" to secure attendance of witness, focus on the circumstances of the litigant. Re s 34c(3) held, that a witness did not have an "interest" with respect to a "fact which the [his/her] statement might tend to establish" under s 34c(3), if he/she would neither benefit nor suffer from any facts established in the outcome of the proceedings, that were facts addressed in his/her statement. Sianis v Barlow: see s 45b.
s 34ca	Statement of victim of sexual offence who is a young child	R v Corkin (1989) 50 SASR 580 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal against conviction: Per King CJ: the effect of s 34ca is not to enlarge the ambit of admissible complaints, but to enlarge the purposes for which they are admissible. It permits admissible evidence of a complaint of a young child (in a sexual case) to be used as evidence of the facts stated in the complaint, whether or not the child gives evidence of those facts.
s 34e	Proof of instrument to validity of which attestation is necessary	In the Estate of Gwynne (1988) 48 SASR 209 (SA Sup Ct White J): Held, admitting the will to Probate, that the notation was admissible under s 34c and due to the Wills Act, s 34e did not apply.
s 34i	Evidence in sexual cases	R v Byczko (No 1) (1977) 16 SASR 506 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: As a matter of practice, a warning to the jury against acting on the uncorroborated evidence of a prosecutrix should be given in all sexual cases, though failure to give such a warning did not automatically vitiate a conviction. R v Gun; ex parte Stephenson (1977) 17 SASR 165 (SA Sup Ct FC): The interpretation and application of s 34i which provides that evidence of the sexual experiences and sexual morality of the alleged victim shall not be adduced except by leave of the judge, considered and discussed. R v Gray, Adams, Brannon and Knox (1977) 17 SASR 534 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Criminal Trial: The circumstances in which, in proceedings in which a person is charged with a sexual offence, leave should be given to cross-examine the alleged victim as to her previous sexual experience, considered and discussed. R v Robertson and Mikhailov (1978) 17 SASR 479 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Criminal Trial: Leave granted to cross-examine the prosecutrix as to previous sexual experiences, but restricted to matters directly relevant to her consent. R v De Angelis (1979) 20 SASR 288 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: The application of the provisions of s 34i regarding the inadmissibility of evidence relating to the sexual experiences of an alleged victim, or the sexual morality of the alleged victim, considered and discussed. R v Kooyman & Robertson (1979) 22 SASR 376 (SA Sup Ct Wells J): Held, that cries and utterances were not "statements" within the meaning of s 34i. Meaning of the term "statement" considered. R v Henderson (1983) 37 SASR 288; 11 A Crim R 235 (SA Sup Ct, FC) Discussed cursorily: what amounts to a "statement" for the purposes of s 34i. R v Gallagher (1986) 41 SASR 73 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the amendment in 1984 of s 34i had the effect of restoring the common law rule as to the admissibility of a complaint of the commission of a sexual offence. R v G (1987) 24 A Crim R 370 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J): Discussed, the effect of s 34i(5).

		R v Pahuja (1987) 49 SASR 191 (Ct of Crim App FC) Appeal: Per Cox and Johnston JJ: s 34i(5) does not abolish the rule requiring a warning to the jury against acting on the uncorroborated evidence of a child, whether or not the evidence is given in a sexual case. R v Atkins (1988) 50 SASR 272 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Consideration as to whether or not a direction or warning should have been given by the trial judge, about the possible lack of corroborative evidence, in a child sexual case. R v Corkin (No. 2) (1988) 50 SASR 285 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Rulings in the course of a criminal trial: Held, despite s 34i(5), it is necessary, in a child sexual case, to give a warning that it is unsafe to convict the accused on uncorroborated evidence. Consideration of conflicting curial remarks in R v Pahuja (above) and R v Atkins (above). R v Do (1990) 54 SASR 543 (SA Sup Ct FC) Held, s 34i(5) does not affect the rule of practice that a trial judge should caution the jury with respect to the danger of convicting upon the uncorroborated evidence of a young child. Non-compliance with the rule will lead to the conviction being set aside only if it can be shown there has been a substantial miscarriage of justice.
s 36	Proof of votes and proceedings Parliament	Wright v Lewis (1990) 53 SASR 416 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, s 36 of the Evidence Act clearly establishes the statutory right to produce and tender Hansard to the courts as evidence of the proceedings within Parliament.
s 45a	Admission of business records in evidence	R v Perry (No 3) (1981) 28 SASR 112 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussed, what constitutes a "business record" within s 45a. see s 45b. R v Perry (No 4) (1981) 28 SASR 119 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussed: 1. The territorial operation of s 45a. 2. What constitutes a "business record" within s 45a. 3. (Re: forensic evidence See s 45b) Whether statements of opinion are excluded under s 45a, and what amounts to a statement of fact for the purposes of s 45a. R v Nicholson (1984) 12 A Crim R 231 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, what constitutes a "business record" under s 45a. R v Eade (1984) 14 A Crim R 186 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, what constitutes a "business record" under s 45a. Ryan v ETSA (No 2) (1987) 47 SASR 239 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Held, s 45a has the effect of rendering admissible material which might have been objectionable as hearsay, had it been the subject of oral evidence. Sianis v Barlow: see s 45b. Residues Treatment and Trading Co Ltd v Southern Resources Ltd (1989) 15 ACLR 416; 7 ACLC 608 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, the annual report of a company was admissible in evidence as a public document. Consideration of its admissibility as a business record under the Evidence Act. The Duke Group Ltd (In Liq) v Arthur Young (1990) 3 ACSR 420 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): The meaning of "business record", "use" considered.
s 45b	Admission of certain documents in evidence	R v Perry (No 3) (1981) 28 SASR 112 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, medical records admissible as "business records" under s 45a and as apparently genuine documents purporting to contain questions of fact under s 45b. R v Perry (No 4) (1981) 28 SASR 119 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, a report by the Victorian Police Department was admissible as evidence under s 45a and under ss 45a and 45b as evidence of any facts that might be inferred from the report. Discussed, whether statements of opinion are excluded under s 45a, and what amounts to a statement of fact for the purposes of s 45b. R v Calabria (1982) 31 SASR 423; 7 A Crim R 207 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, how to construe the words "the person by whom, or at whose direction, the document was prepared", in s 45b(2). Ryan v ETSA (No 2) (1987) 47 SASR 239 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Discussed: 1. Hearsay material is not admissable pursuant to s 45b. 2. Requirements to be met before a document is admissible under s 45b(2).

		Sianis v Barlow (1987) 48 SASR 469 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Action for damages: Held, a medical questionnaire, not completed in the plaintiff's own hand, nor recognized by him, was not admissible under s 34c of the Evidence Act. Although admissible under ss 45a and 45b, it lacked weight due to its doubtful accuracy. The Duke Group Ltd (In Liq) v Arthur Young (1990) 3 ACSR 147; 9 ACLC 49 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, s 45b should not be construed narrowly or technically; the courts have the widest discretion as to which documents should be admitted.
s 46	Interpretation	R v Nicholson (1984) 12 A Crim R 231 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, what constitutes a "banking record" under s 46. Griffiths v Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Ltd (1990) 53 SASR 256 (SA Sup Ct FC): A computer print-out of banking information is capable of becoming in due course a "banking record" within the meaning of s 46. R v Nicholson (1984) 12 A Crim R 231 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, to be admissible under s 47, a banking record must be compiled in the ordinary course of an Australian bank's business. ANZ Banking Group Ltd v Griffiths (1988) 49 SASR 385 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): Held, a document produced by a computer from information concerning banking transactions recorded and stored by a bank upon such a computer was a copy of a banking record within the meaning of s 46 Act and admissible pursuant to s 47. R v Pfennig: see s 59b.
s 47	Admission of banking record in evidence	R v Pfennig: see s 59b.
s 49	Power to order inspection of banking records etc	In re an Application by the Companies Auditors Board (1981) 27 SASR 196 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, that an application by originating summons was an appropriate procedure for the Companies Auditors Board to follow in order to initiate proceedings in the Supreme Court.
s 59a	Interpretation	R V Pfennig: see s 59b.
s 59b	Admissibility of computer output	Mehesz v Redman (1979) 21 SASR 569 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the evidence required to render admissible the results of a blood test performed by an auto-lab data analyser and the general admissibility of computer-generated evidence. Mehesz v Redman (No 2) (1980) 26 SASR 244 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the admissibility in evidence of the results of scientific tests, and in particular, the result of a blood analysis test performed by means of an auto-lab data analyser. R v Weatherall (1981) 27 SASR 238 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Criminal trial: The provisions of s 59b do not restrict the admissibility of computer-generated evidence, and such evidence may be admitted if the common law requirements as to admissibility have been satisfied. R v Pfennig (1992) Judgement No. S3420 unreported (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Ruling on the voir dire: Computer output generated by a bank showing transactions for a particular day constitute records of the bank. The records are admissible as banking records without the need for further proof. s 64	Proof of matters of history, science, etc.	Slatter v Kyalde Pty Ltd (1979) 22 SASR 196 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): A judge is authorized by s 64 to refer, of his own motion, to actuarial tables not tendered in evidence and not containing any controversial material. Casley-Smith v FS Evans and Sons Pty Ltd (No 4) (1988) 49 SASR 339 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Consideration and discussion of the threshold tests to be satisfied under s 64 and the judicial discretion afforded by the section. s 69	Power to suppress publication of evidence, etc.	Miller v Samuels (1979) 22 SASR 271 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J): Circumstances in which a special magistrate should exercise the power to forbid publication of evidence.

In re a Prosecution under the Customs Act (1980) 24 SASR 453 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Originating summons: The circumstances in which an order should be made under s 69 prohibiting publication of the name of a person concerned in proceedings before a court considered and discussed.

B v Tuncks (1980) 24 SASR 532 (SA Sup Ct, Cox J) Appeal from order of Special Justice The circumstances in which an order should be made under s 69 prohibiting publication of the name of the defendant to a complaint in a court of summary jurisdiction, considered and discussed.

K v Silk (1981) 26 SASR 360 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: S 69 authorizes the court in an appropriate case to forbid the publication not merely of the name of a person but of the name by which that person traded when he did not trade under his own name.

J v Holmes (1981) 28 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell AJ) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, it is only in rare circumstances that an order prohibiting publication of the name of a person charged with a sexual offence will be made after the case has been committed to trial.

A-G v Kernahan (1981) 28 SASR 313(SA Sup Ct FC): Held, contravention of an order made under 69(1)(d) or (e) is, by reason of the provisions of s 71, punishable summarily, and the Supreme Court has no power to punish such contravention as a contempt of court. See s 71.

X v Ford (1983) 33 SASR 155 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Discussed, the circumstances in which an order should be made under s 69.

G v The Queen (1984) 35 SASR 349 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed: 1. The circumstances in which an order should be made under s 69. 2. The procedure to be followed upon appeal to the Supreme Court against a refusal by a court of summary jurisdiction or magistrate to make such an order.

R v Lennon (1985) 38 SASR 356 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, factors to be taken into account in determining whether an order under s 69 should be made.

s 69a Suppression orders

Advertiser Newspapers Ltd v F (1985) 38 SASR 367 (SA Sup Ct Prior J): Discussed, construction of s 69a, and factors to be taken into account in determining whether an order under s 69a should be made.

Re Prosecutions under Controlled Substances Act (No 1) (1987) 26 A Crim R 183 (SA Sup Ct Prior J): Discussed: 1. Factors to be taken into account by the court in determining whether a suppression order should be made. 2. Duration of suppression order. 3. Whether representatives of the media were entitled to be present and heard at an application under s 69a.

Re Southern Television Corporation Pty Ltd (1987) 45 SASR 50 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J):Held, under s 69a(5) a "suppression order"includes an interim suppression order.Discussed, whether an appeal could lie against an interim order which, not being a determination of the application on the merits, could not involve an improper exercise of a discretion.

Re Prosecutions under Controlled Substances Act (No 3) (1987) 47 SASR 227; 28 A Crim R 300 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Discussed: 1. The effect of s 69a, and whether the criteria established by well-known authorities that antedate the insertion of s 69a still govern the court's exercise of discretion under s 69a. 2. The application of s 69a.

Roget v Flavel (1987) 47 SASR 402 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussed: the meaning of "publication" under s 69a.

Heading v M (1987) 49 SASR 168 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, there was no presumption one way or the other as to whether a suppression order under s 69a should be made. Further evidence should not be permitted on hearings under s 69a unless it was shown to be plainly necessary.

K v Bates (1988) 48 SASR 316 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal: Held, an appellant charged with ill- treatment of former residents of a boarding house was entitled to an order prohibiting publication of her name because the public interest was not of great weight in that case.

		Re F (1989) 51 SASR 141 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, undue hardship to an applicant who is not a member of the classes of persons specified in s 69a(1)(b) does not constitute "prejudice to the proper administration of justice" within the meaning of s 69a. Martin v M (1991) 54 A Crim R 173 (SA Sup Ct FC): The word "victim" in the section is not to be given a strained interpretation. Simply to show that someone has been adversely affected in some way by the commission of a crime is insufficient. The phrase "in civil or criminal proceedings" should not be given an unrestricted application. s 71	Penalty for non-compliance with order	A-G v Kernahan (1981) 28 SASR 313 (SA Sup Ct FC): Disobedience of an order under s 69 forbidding the publication of specified evidence or the name of a person in the proceedings is, by reason of the provisions of s 71 punishable summarily and the Supreme Court has no power to punish such contravention as a contempt of court. Nationwide News Pty Ltd v Bitter (1985) 38 SASR 390 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Held, mens rea is not an essential ingredient of an offence against the provisions of s 71(2).

s 76	Conduct of legal proceedings on behalf of consumers	Alsford v Woolworths (SA) Ltd (1989) 51 SASR 208 (SA Sup Ct Prior J): Held, s 76 has no application to criminal proceedings; it authorizes the Commissioner for Consumer Affairs to be involved in the enforcement of private rights, leaving the ordinary powers with respect to indictable offences untouched.

s 8	Presumption as to parenthood	P v T: see s 9. W v C: see s 9.
s 9	Declaration of paternity	P v T (1980) 23 SASR 289 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Application for declaration of paternity: Held, the standard of proof required under ss 8 & 9 is proof beyond reasonable doubt. W v C (1981) 28 SASR 130 (SA Sup Ct White J): Held, the standard of proof required under ss 8 & 9, is proof beyond reasonable doubt. In Re Y (1984) 36 SASR 584 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Discussed: 1. The admissibility of evidence of statements in relation to an application of paternity under s 9. 2. The onus of proof which lies on the applicant under s 9.
s 11	Putative spouse	Lesiw v Commissioner of Succession Duties (1979) 20 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct FC) Application: Held, the birth of a child at any time prior to death, even if while the parties were not cohabiting de facto as husband and wife, made a party a putative spouse within the meaning of s 11.

In Re Fagan (1980) 23 SASR 454 (SA Sup Ct, Jacobs J) Application Held: the onus of proof upon the applicant for a declaration under the Act is proof on the balance of probabilities. Meaning of the expression "cohabiting ... as the husband or wife de facto of that other person", considered and discussed.

s 14	Application of this Act to fisheries in accordance with arrangements	Port MacDonnell Professional Fishermen's Association Inc v South Australia (1989) 63 ALJR 67 (High Ct): Held, s 14 was not inconsistent with any law of the Commonwealth, nor did it exceed State extra-territorial legislative power.
s 23	Delegation	Ormerod v Blaslov (1989) 52 SASR 263 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J): Held, s 23(1) which permitted the Minister to delegate his powers "to the Director or any other officer" had to be interpreted expansively, having regard to the legislation as a whole, so that the word "or" had to be read conjunctively.
s 28	Fishing licences	Kelly v Kelly (1988) 48 SASR 115 (SA Sup Ct Lunn AJ) Action: Held, an abalone authority obtained under the Fisheries Act 1982, in substitution for an authority obtained under the Fisheries Act 1971 did not become a partnership asset where the Act came into effect after the partnership had dissolved. Further, the authority was property personal to the holder of it, and therefore did not become partnership assets.
	Powers of fisheries officers	Ritter v Glover (1990) 52 SASR 534 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Held, it is necessary to establish beyond reasonable doubt in any prosecution for an offence under s 28(4) that in giving a direction, the fisheries officer gave it reasonably suspecting that one or more of the circumstances adverted to in s 28(1)(a) or (b) of the Act existed. Glover v Zouroudis (1990) 54 SASR 200 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Observations on the appropriate procedure to be followed to confirm a seizure and forfeiture order under s 28. See s 66.
s 34	Persons and boats engaged or used in fisheries to be licensed	Lukin Enterprises Pty Ltd v Director of Fisheries (1986) 42 SASR 463 (SA Sup Ct FC): The Director of Fisheries had no power to derogate from an original grant of a licence to take tuna and salmon from a fishery by the imposition of a subsequent condition. Considered: ss 5, 37, 43, 46. Glover v Zouroudis (1990): see s 66.
s 41	Offence of engaging in certain fishing activities	Ferraro v Glover: see s 66.
s 66	Additional penalty based upon value of fish taken unlawfully	Ferraro v Glover (1988) 50 SASR 154 (SA Sup Ct White J): Held, where the defendant was convicted of taking under-sized fish contrary to s 41, the additional penalty could not be imposed as it was related to the wholesale value of the fish at the time taken and there could not be a wholesale value for under-sized fish.

Ferraro v Glover (No 2) (1989) 45 A Crim R 95 (SA Sup Ct White J): Both ss 41 and 66 are parts of the overall penalty and s 75(5) of the Justices Act applies equally to fixed fines and calculated fines (additional penalties).

Glover v Haseldine (1990) 48 A Crim R 118 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, when sentencing for offences under the Fisheries Act, the Court cannot, pursuant to s 16 of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988, decline to record a conviction and impose a fine, as the additional pecuniary penalty provided for in s 66 is a penalty in addition to a fine within s 16 of the Sentencing Act.

Glover v Zouroudis (1990) 54 SASR 200 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held: 1. It is erroneous in point of law to resort to s 16 of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988 and to decline to record a conviction in order to avoid the imposition of the additional penalty to be imposed upon a conviction under s 66. 2. Section 66 only seeks to impose an additional penalty when a person is convicted of an offence "involving the taking of fish" and the taking of fish is not an essential ingredient of s 34(2) of the Fisheries Act. The offence of putting a vessel to sea without a licensed master contrary to s 34(2) is not an offence in respect of which the taking of fish is an essential element so that the court does not have a discretion to not convict pursuant to s 16 of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act.

s 18	Standards with which food must comply	Coles Myer Ltd v Catt (1992) (SA Sup Ct FC) 58 SASR 298 Appeal against conviction for selling food not fit for consumption. Fly baked into cake, mixture not covered. Held, dismissing the appeal, once the food was contaminated the defendant is guilty unless they can show that they have taken "all possible precautions" to prevent flies in their food. "Possible" to be distinguished from "reasonable". "Possible" means things within the defendant's power or capacity and includes covering the cake mix and inspecting the finished cakes.

Act		Roberts v Bilney (1981) 29 SASR 179; 7 Fam LR 855 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed: 1. The scope of the Supreme Court's jurisdiction under the Guardianship of Infants Act 1940 after the commencement of the Children's Protection and Young Offenders Act 1979. 2. The meaning of "custody".
s 6	Power to make orders as to custody, etc	Walker v Walker (1976) 14 SASR 158 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Application to vary Master's certificate: Practices of the court when dealing with competing claims to guardianship, considered and discussed.
		Carmona v White (1980) 25 SASR 525 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Application under the Act: Held, the Supreme Court had jurisdiction to determine a father's application for access, notwithstanding that the child and its mother were no longer in South Australia.
s 11	Principles upon which questions relating to custody, upbringing, etc of infants are to be decided	Romeyko v Whackett (No 3) (1981) 7 Fam LR 737 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, since s 11, in its application to an ex-nuptial child, places the welfare of the child as the paramount consideration, the ex-nuptial child is in an equivalent position to a nuptial child under s 64(1) of the Family Law Act, and therefore the decisions of the Family Court of Australia apply a fortiori to the State Act.
		Romeyko v Whackett (1982) 39 ALR 643 (High Court): Special leave to appeal refused.
s 21	Saving provision	McCormick v Prowse (1979) 21 SASR 416 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Application for appointment of guardians: Held, the Supreme Court had jurisdiction to make an order removing the natural father as guardian and appointing the maternal grandmother and aunt as guardians.

s 6 Interpretation

R v Industrial Court of South Australia; Ex parte Australian Broadcasting Commission (1976) 13 SASR 460 Reversed.

R v the Industrial Commission of South Australia; Ex parte the Fire Brigade Board (1977) 15 SASR 546 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: The granting to an employee of paid study leave to attend trade union education courses is an "industrial matter" within the meaning of s 6 of the Act.

R v Industrial Commission of South Australia; Ex parte Adelaide Milk Supply Co-operative (1977) 16 SASR 6 (SA Sup Ct FC): The grant of some additional security, in the event of redundancy, is an "industrial matter" within the meaning of s 6 of the Act.

R v Cawthorne; Ex parte Public Service Association of South Australia Inc (1977) 17 SASR 321 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: There being no provision for the appointment of a temporary Deputy Registrar, such an appointment was invalid.

Australian Broadcasting Commission v Industrial Court of South Australia (1977) 138 CLR 399 (High Court of Aust): Held, to the extent that s 15(1)(e) of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1972 (SA) purported to empower the Industrial Court to make an order for re-employment of employees covered by the Broadcasting and Television Act, 1942 (Cth), it was inconsistent with the Commonwealth Act - the later providing for transfer, promotion, retirement and dismissal of employees.

R v Industrial Commission of South Australia; Ex parte Petersville Ltd (1978) 18 SASR 356 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: The meaning of "industrial dispute" and "industrial matter" as defined in s 6 considered and discussed.

Hotels, Clubs, etc Award (Question of Law) Case (1980) 47 SAIR (Pt 1) 345 (SA Indus Ct FC): Discussed, the meaning of "industrial matter" in s 6(1).

R v Industrial Commission of South Australia; ex parte Master Builders' Association of South Australia Inc.: see s 25.

Re Police Officers Award (1982) 2 IR 397 (SA Indus Ct): Discussed, the meaning of "public service employee" in s 6(1), particularly its extension to members of the police force.

R v Industrial Commission (SA); Ex parte Salisbury City Corporation (1982) 31 SASR 51; 2 IR 341 (SA Sup Ct FC) Certiorari: Held, the dismissal of employees could form part of an industrial dispute as defined in s 6. The jurisdiction of the Industrial Commission to order reinstatement to dispose of the dispute was not ousted by its reinstatement power under s 15(1)(e).

Retail Supermarket Bakehouse (New Award) Appeal Case (1986) 54 SAIR 32 (SA Indus Comm Full Comm): The published decision of the Commission was an "award" or "order" of the Commission pursuant to s 6, thus it came within the provisions of s 98(1)(b) as to the time limit for lodgement of appeal.

South Australian Institute of Teachers v Minister of Education (1987) 30 AILR 102 (SA Indus Ct FC): The provision of housing for teachers by a body other than the employer did not come within the ambit of the employer/employee relationship, therefore the Commission had no jurisdiction.

Re Teachers (Non-Metropolitan) Conditions Interim Award (1987) 54 SAIR 387 (SA Indus Ct Full Ct): Held, the amount payable by a teacher to the Teaching Housing Authority for rent cannot be the subject of an industrial dispute as it does not involve an "industrial matter" within s 6. The claim relates to provision of housing by a body other than the employer and outside the relationship of employer and employee.

Re South Australian Institute of Teachers (1990) 57 SAIR 375 (SA Indus Comm): Detailed consideration of the word "industry", its legislative history and the applicability of definitions relating to the Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1904.

s 15 Jurisdiction of the Court

R v Stanley; ex parte Redapple Restaurants Pty Ltd (1976) 13 SASR 290 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held, it was within the jurisdiction of the Industrial Court to hear an application for re-employment after the time-period specified for hearings under s 15(1)(e), had elapsed.

Australian Broadcasting Commission v Industrial Court of South Australia: see s 6.

Leg Trap Hotel v Rebbeck (1979) 46 SAIR (Pt 1) 739 (SA Indus Ct): Discussed, the meaning of "dismissal" within s 15(1)(e).

General Motors-Holdens Ltd v DiFazio (1979) 141 CLR 659 (High Court of Aust): Held, the Industrial Magistrate had power under ss 47 and 48 of the Limitation of Actions Act, 1936 (SA) to extend the time in which an application under s 15(1)(e) could be made.

R v DiFazio; Ex parte General Motors-Holdens Ltd (1979) 20 SASR 559 Affirmed.

R v Industrial Court of South Australia; Ex parte District Council of Karoonda East Murray (1980) 24 SASR 117 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the applicant, a former employee of a local council, had a right of appeal or review under the Local Government Act, therefore the Industrial Court had no jurisdiction to hear and determine the re-employment application. The meaning of "appeal" and "review", considered.

R v Industrial Court of South Australia; Ex parte Australian Government Workers Association (1980) 24 SASR 199 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held, an applicant, seeking re-instatement to his former position as an officer of a trade union, was employed in an "industry" within the meaning of s 15(1)(e) of the Act. Consequently the Court had jurisdiction to hear his claim.

Hotels, Clubs etc Award (Question of Law) Case (1980) 47 SAIR (Pt 1) 345 (SA Indus Ct FC): Discussed: 1. The scope and operation of s 15(1)(e). 2. The meaning of "dismissal" in s 15(1)(e).

		Poulos v Adelaide University Union (1981) 29 SASR 78; 1 IR 86 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the jurisdiction conferred on the Industrial Court by s 15(1)(d) was not exclusive, and the Local Court had jurisdiction to hear and determine the action. Lawrie v Mount Gunson Mines Pty Ltd (1981) IAS, Current Review 978 (SA Indus Ct): Discussed, the effect of, and operation of, s 15(1)(e). Jeffries v William Adams & Co (1982) 1 IR 273 (SA Indus Ct): Discussed, the meaning of "governed" in s 15(1)(d)(i). R v Industrial Court; Ex parte Mount Gunson Mines Pty Ltd (1982) 30 SASR 504; 2 IR 336 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed: 1. The scope of the Court's power under s 15(1)(e). 2. Factors to be taken into account in determining whether the criteria in s 15(1)(e) have been met. R v Industrial Commission (SA); Ex parte Salisbury City Corporation (1982) 31 SASR 51; 2 IR 341 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the scope of s 15(1)(e) and its effect on the jurisdiction of the Industrial Commission. Sewards v Canon Copiers Australia Pty Ltd (1983) 5 IR 227 (SA Indus Ct): Discussed, the meaning of "harsh, unjust or unreasonable" dismissal in s 15(1)(e). Frigmobile (SA) Pty Ltd v Buttle (1984) 8 IR 435 (SA Indus Ct): Discussed, factors relevant to a determination by a tribunal that a dismissal is "harsh, unjust or unreasonable". See s 157. Security Officers' Consolidating Award (Appeal Case) (1986) 53 SAIR 390 (SA Indus Ct FC): Consideration of calculation of rates of pay and annual leave regarding public holidays. Mitiovic v Softwood Holding Ltd (1987) 54 SAIR 332 (SA Indus Ct): Delay in application for recovery of long service leave payments was not intentional and contumelious and therefore the action should not have been struck out. Moschou v Kildare College (1987) 54 SAIR 456 (SA Indus Ct): Assessment of a claim for recovery of under paid wages to be evaluated against award definition. Boyle v CPE Australia Ltd (1990) 57 SAIR 487 (SA Indus Ct): Claims pursuant to s 15(1)(d) are to enforce a legal right, which involves the exercise of judicial power, whereas a claim pursuant to a Federal Award was to resolve a dispute, which was not an exercise of judicial power. Consequently there was no inconsistency between State and Federal legislation. Bradshaw v Commissioner for Public Employment (1991) 58 SAIR 336 (SA Indus Ct): Held: 1. In order to be entitled to wages there must be either the performance of work or a willingness to perform all work reasonably required. 2. If an employer accepts part-performance then an obligation to pay wages may arise. 3. If an employer reasonably directs the performance of full duties and indicates that part-performance is not acceptable, then the worker is obliged to return to full duties in order to recover wages. Henningsen v Bishop Collections Pty Ltd (1992) 59 SAIR 230 (SA Indus Ct): Held, the 1989 amendment to s 15(3)(c) that extended the time limit was a procedural amendment and the presumption against retrospectivity does not apply. Kenward v Australian Airlines Limited (1992) 59 SAIR 398 (SA Indus Ct): Held, that where the contract of employment was governed by a Federal award this is sufficient to vest the court with jurisdiction. Rights to superannuation that were conferred by a Federal Act were incorporated into the contract and were therefore also within jurisdiction. s 17	Powers of the Court	George Wills & Co Ltd v Robinson (1986) 40 SASR 585 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the ambit of the Court's jurisdiction under s 17(1)(j).
s 18	Special provisions relating to claims under awards, etc.	Taylor v Walter Fashions Pty Ltd (1987) 23 IR 108 (SA Indus Ct Lee J): Discussed, the meaning and scope of s 18(2)(c). s 25	Jurisdiction of the Commission	R v Industrial Commission; Ex parte Adelaide Milk Supply Co-operative (1977) 16 SASR 6 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held, s 25 confers a general jurisdiction on the Commission, which is not cut down or limited by s 82.

		Hotels, Clubs etc Award (Question of Law) Case (1980) 47 SAIR (Pt 1) 345 (SA Indus Ct FC): Discussed, the meaning of "industrial matter" in s 25.
		R v Industrial Commission of South Australia; Ex parte Master Builders' Association of South Australia Inc (1981) 26 SASR 535 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held, the Industrial Commission has jurisdiction to include in an award provisions prescribing conditions upon which employers bound by the award may engage independent contractors to do work covered by the award. The nature of the conditions which may be prescribed by the Commission, considered and discussed.
		R v Industrial Commission of South Australia; ex parte Fire Brigades Board (1981) 26 SASR 580 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held, notwithstanding that the general control of all fire stations is vested in the Fire Brigades Board, the Industrial Commission has jurisdiction to include in a firefighter's award provisions as to the manning requirements of fire appliances directed towards the safety of employees.
		Federated Miscellaneous Workers' Union of Australia (SA Branch) v Sola Optical Australia Pty Ltd (1982) 1 IR 275 (SA Indus Comm Full Comm): Discussed, the scope of s 25(1)(a).
		South Australian Institute of Teachers v Minister of Education: see s 6. s 26	Appointment of Conciliation Commission	R v Eglinton; Ex parte Public Service Board (1980) 25 SASR 166 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held, the Industrial Commission of South Australia has no power to call a voluntary or compulsory conference under s 26 or s 27, in an industrial matter relating to an occupation or calling in respect of which a Conciliation Committee has been appointed under Part V of the Act. s 27	Compulsory conference	R v Industrial Commission of South Australia; Ex parte Petersville Ltd (1978) 18 SASR 356 Motion: Held, an order for a compulsory conference of the parties to a dispute could be made, notwithstanding the fact that the relationship of the employer and employee had ceased.
		R v Eglinton: see s 26.
		R v Industrial Commission (SA); Ex parte Salisbury City Corporation (No 2) (1983) 4 IR 212 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, where a matter, which is the subject of a compulsory conference is heard on a reference under s 27(9) by the Commission, constituted by the same Commissioner who presided over the compulsory conference, this is not of itself a denial of natural justice. s 28	General powers of the Commission	Re New Award for Teachers Employed in Non- Government Schools (1984) 9 IR 48 (SA Indus Comm): Discussed, public interest as a relevant consideration in establishing whether or not the Commission should hear a matter under s 28(1).
		Clerks' South Australian Totalizer Agency Board Off-Course Operations - Casual Staff Agreement (Variation of Wages) Case (1986) 53 SAIR 484 (SA Indus Comm): Consideration of factors to be taken into account concerning a claim made on the basis of interstate comparative wage justice.
		Shop Conciliation Committee Award (38-hour Week) Appeal Case (1986) 53 SAIR 576 (SA Indus Comm Full Comm): Sufficiency of cost offsets awarded for a reduction in the standard working week hours considered.
		Retail Supermarket Bakehouse (New Award) Appeal Case (1986) 54 SAIR 32 (SA Indus Comm Full Comm): Held, applicant had to establish their right to a new award, but not that it was necessarily in the public interest. Principles on which Appeal Commission may disturb decision appealed against.
		Taylor v Walter Fashions Pty Ltd (1987) 23 IR 108 (SA Indus Ct Lee J): Meaning and scope of "equity, good conscience and the substantial merits of the case" discussed.
		Clerks' Metal Industry (SA) Award - Appeal (1991) 58 SAIR 139 (SA Indus Comm Full Comm): Discussion of the validity of different principles as a basis for a variation to an award, and of their nexus to the award.

		Re Professional Engineers (SA Public Service) Award (1991) 58 SAIR 228 (SA Indus Comm Full Comm): Variation of an award on the basis of a special case rejected as it did not fit within the accepted variation principles. Re Vehicle Industry (SA) Repair Service and Retail Award (1991) 58 SAIR 232 (SA Indus Comm): Variation of an award on the basis that there was a nexus with a Federal Award granted. Re Administrative Services (SA Govt) New Award (1991) 58 SAIR 239 (SA Indus Comm): Variation and rescission of awards on the basis of structural efficiency and special case arguments. Re Caretakers and Cleaners Award (1991) 58 SAIR 248 (SA Indus Comm): Variation of award on the basis of structural efficiency. A retrospective operation was not precluded by the State Wage Case principles. Re Child Care Workers Award (1991) 58 SAIR 270 (SA Indus Comm): On an application to vary the award it was held that it was broad enough to include out of school hours and vacation programmes, and so a new classification structure was granted.
s 29	Further powers of the Commission	Port Pirie Taxi Service (Question of Law) Case (1979) 46 SAIR (Pt 1) 313 (SA Indus Ct FC): Held, s 29(1)(f) does not sanction the making of an industrial agreement which would have the effect of ousting a pre- existing award. Australian Building and Construction Workers' Federation (SA Branch) v England (1984) 7 IR 6 (SA Indus Ct): Discussed, the operation of s 29(1)(d).
s 30	Applications to the Commission	Re New Award for Teachers Employed in Non-Government Schools (1984) 9 IR 48 (SA Indus Comm): Discussed, the public interest aspect of s 30(3).
s 31	Unfair dismissal	Ryall v Hagemeyer (Aust) (1985) 52 SAIR 343 (SA Indus Comm): Application for reinstatement dismissed. Wynn's Winegrowers Pty Ltd v Foster (1986) 16 IR 381 (SA Indus Ct): Discussed, factors to be taken into account in an inquiry under s 31, where employee dismissed as redundant. MacLeod v Elders IXL (1986) 53 SAIR 258 (SA Indus Comm): Held, no inconsistency between Federal Award prescribing rights of termination and s 31. Taylor v Public Service Board (1986) 53 SAIR 369 (SA Indus Comm): An Engineering and Water Supply Department employee stole water from the Department, in his capacity as a consumer not as an employee. His dismissal was not harsh, unjust or unreasonable since a) his action amounted to a breach of fidelity which was a breach of his contract of employment and b) there was no breach of natural justice - the dismissal was based on a departmental investigation. Clark v South Western Manufacturing Pty Ltd (1986) 53 SAIR 385 (SA Indus Comm): Held, s 31 was inconsistent with the provisions of a Federal Award in relation to termination of employment. The application under s 31 was dismissed for want of jurisdiction. Bewick v San Remo Macaroni Company Pty Ltd (1986) 53 SAIR 448 (SA Indus Comm): Consideration of what amounted to casual employment and a continuous contract of employment. A finding of the latter gave the Commission jurisdiction to hear the application. Corkrey v General Motors - Holden's Ltd (1986) 53 SAIR 531 (SA Indus Ct): Consideration of an Industrial Magistrate's discretion to or not to order re-employment on a finding of harsh, unjust or unreasonable dismissal. Bruce v John Weeks Pty Ltd (T/A "Bi-lo") (1987) 54 SAIR 41 (SA Indus Comm): An application for an adjournment pending criminal proceedings was dismissed. The two hearings were unlikely to canvass identical issues. Consideration of exceptional circumstances.

Justice v Independent Grocers Co-Op Ltd (1987) 54 SAIR 153 (SA Indus Comm): On learning that its employee had lied about his extensive criminal record for dishonesty, the employer dismissed him. Held, not to be harsh, unjust or unreasonable.

Taranto (1980) Pty Ltd (T/A Esquire Motor Inn) v Wood (1987) 54 SAIR 201: The onus of proving that a contract of employment had been renounced was on the party alleging such. The test of whether sufficient intention to renounce was revealed by conduct discussed. Use of rules of evidence and procedure in inter partes proceedings, and rules of privilege for documents used by lay advocates discussed.

Taranto (1980) Pty Ltd (T/A Esquire Motor Inn) v Hendy (1987) 54 SAIR 215 (SA Indus Comm Full Comm): The Australian Conciliation and Arbitration Commission redundancy guidelines did not apply to casual employees. The dismissal was not harsh, etc., as it arose out of a bona fide restructuring of the business.

Lohrstrater v Australia Foam Industries Pty Ltd (1987) 54 SAIR 376 (SA Indus Comm): The Commission had no jurisdiction since there was no ordinary employer/employee relationship; the applicant was a shareholder and director of the company that purportedly employed him as technical manager.

Murdoch v Computer Power Education Pty Ltd (1990) 33 AILR 136; 57 SAIR 441 (SA Indus Comm Full Comm): An application for an extension of time to lodge proceedings pursuant to s 31 was granted an appeal; the Commissioner at first instance had erred in his discretion in that he misdirected himself as to the law applicable to extensions of time.

McRae v Woolworths (SA) Ltd (1991) 58 SAIR 1 (SA Indus Comm): A dismissal was held to be harsh, unjust or unreasonable since there was no solid evidence to support the employer's claims of misconduct and neglect of duties, because no warning had been given and the dismissal procedures were unfair and unreasonable.

De Simoni v National Exhibition Constructions Pty Ltd (1991) 58 SAIR 28 (SA Indus Comm): The employee's misconduct was of such a nature as to be a repudiation of the contract of employment; the resultant dismissal was therefore, neither harsh, unjust nor unreasonable.

Richards v Port Lincoln Aboriginal Organization (1991) 58 SAIR 61 (SA Indus Comm): There was no dismissal since the termination of employment resulted from the expiration of a fixed term contract.

Lelliott v Aitco (T/A The Adelaide Casino) (1991) 58 SAIR 68 (SA Indus Comm Full Comm): While the worker's actions were technically larceny, the full circumstances should have been taken into account. These would have indicated no intent to steal and thus the worker's dismissal was harsh, unjust or unreasonable.

Morris v Southern Farmers Group Ltd (1991) 58 SAIR 86 (SA Indus Comm App Sess): Seven months notice of dismissal and a lump sum in excess of one years salary for a personnel manager was not harsh, etc. As it had not been shown that the Commissioner at first instance had erred, the appeal was dismissed.

Robinson v Harbison (1991) 58 SAIR 292 (SA Indus Comm): A refusal to work weekends, which was one of the terms of the contract, despite the employer's best efforts to avoid the necessity, was a justifiable basis for dismissal.

Wallis and Wallis v Yalata Community Inc (1991) 58 SAIR 305 (SA Indus Comm): A lack of warning as to the conduct of the employees and as to the financial position of the business they were operating, meant that their dismissal was harsh, etc.

Buckley v Mt Gambier Co-operative Dairy Products Ltd (1992) 59 SAIR 452 (SA Indus Commission): Held for the purposes of assessing the jurisdictional limit imposed by s 31 the value of non-monetary benefits is to be determined by their real value to the employee not the value placed on those benefits by the employer.

s 36	Alteration of awards	R v Full Industrial Commission of South Australia; Ex parte Public Service Association of South Australia Incorporated (1977) 16 SASR 496 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Under s 36 of the Act, the Full Commission has power to make an order by way of variation of State awards which would have the effect of granting a greater increase than that authorized under the decision of the Australian Conciliation and Arbitration Commission. R v Full Industrial Commission of South Australia; Ex parte Chamber of Commerce and Industry of South Australia Incorporated (1980) 25 SASR 304 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Consideration and discussion of the jurisdiction of the Full Industrial Commission to vary wages payable generally to employees under awards in consequence of a decision of the Australian Conciliation and Arbitration Commission. State Wage Case - July 1986: see s 146b. Re Building and Construction Workers (State) Award (1991) 58 SAIR 49 (SA Indus Comm): Award exceeding jurisdiction - appropriate forum.
s 46	Summons in prescribed form	Kronen v Linde Lansing Pty Ltd (1991) 58 SAIR 326 (SA Indus Ct): Held, that the court is not empowered to require the production of a chattel by subpoena, as, under s 46(1)(b), production is limited to "books, papers and other documents" a genus of items which does not include a chattel or object. s 48	Appointment of Registrars and Deputy Registrars	R v Cawthorne: see s 6.
s 50	Powers of Inspectors, etc.	Clemow v Stevenson: see s 50a.
s 50a	Powers relating to unpaid wages, etc.	Clemow v Stevenson (1992) 59 SAIR 188 (SA Indus Ct): Held, an inspector serving a notice under s 50a of the Industrial Relations Act (S.A.) 1972 has no basis to ask questions with respect to matters contained within s 50(1). An employers refusal to answer such questions cannot result in offences under s 50(5).
s 81	Annual leave	De Lisio v Paul's Outdoor Centre (1990) 57 SAIR 306 (SA Indus Ct): Held, in the absence of a general standard, the right given to an employee by s 81 of the Act is incomplete and a claim thereunder cannot be entertained pursuant to s 15(1)(d); accordingly, the court has no jurisdiction to hear such a claim. s 82	Provisions relating to automation	R v Industrial Commission; Ex parte Adelaide Milk Supply Co-operative (1977) 16 SASR 6 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: The general jurisdiction of the Industrial Commission includes power to make an award with redundancy provisions, that is, it is not limited by the matters set out in s 82. Milk Processing and Cheese Manufacturing etc (Question of Law) Case (1979) 46 SAIR (Pt 1) 55 (SA Indus Ct FC): Discussed, the power of the Industrial Commission under s 82 to impose, by means of an award, obligations, duties and responsibilities upon an employer in the case of the introduction or proposed introduction of automation or any like technological change. s 93	Appeal to the Full Court	Sanderson v Public Service Board (SA) (1985) 52 SAIR 122 (SA Indus Ct FC): Despite the fact that the cause of action arose prior to the amendment to the Act granting an appeal to the Full Court, the Full Court had jurisdiction to hear the appeal. s 94	Appeal from Industrial Magistrate	R v Industrial Court; Ex parte Mount Gunson Mine Pty Ltd (1982) 30 SASR 504; 2 IR 336 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the power to "vary" an order in s 94(2)(a) empowers the court to discharge an order and substitute a different order. Dunstan v Ferrier Fashion Fabrics (1982) 49 SAIR (Pt 1) 10 (SA Indus Ct): Discussed, the circumstances in which a court should, under s 94, quash a decision appealed against.
s 95	Decision of tribunal to be final	R v Adelaide Milk Supply Co-operative Ltd (No 2) (1978) 18 SASR 65 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Observations as to whether, if bias on the part of the Commissioner had been established, there would be an "excess or want of jurisdiction" on the tribunal's part, within the meaning of s 95 of the Act.

		R v President of Industrial Commission (SA); Ex parte Australian Theatrical & Amusement Employers' Association (SA Branch) (1986) 43 SASR 434; 17 IR 160 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, s 95 precluded the Supreme Court from granting an order of certiorari to quash a decision of the President of the Commission which was within his jurisdiction, although it was alleged to be an error of law.
		Public Service Association (SA) v Federated Clerks' Union of Australia (SA Branch) (1991) 65 ALJR 610 (HC) Interpretation of s 95. See s 121.
s 96	Right of appeal	ICI Australia v Padfield (1985) 52 SAIR 331 (SA Indus Comm Full Comm): Despite the fact that the cause of action arose prior to the amendment to the Act granting an appeal to the Full Commission, the appeal was competent.
		Aitco Pty Ltd - Federated Liquor and Allied Industries Employees Union (SA Branch) Agreement 1985: see s 108a.
		Re Metserve. FIA/ASE Whyalla Agreement: see s 108a.
s 98	Notice of hearing	Retail Supermarket Bakehouse (New Award) Appeal Case: see s 6. s 101	Reference of matters to the Full Commission	Osborne Bulk Handling Plant (SA Govt) Industrial Agreement (1991) 58 SAIR 155 (SA Indus Comm Full Comm): The Commission had jurisdiction to hear a dispute over the terms of a Voluntary Separation Package as it related to the employer/employee relationship. As the terms were manifestly adequate there were no grounds to require more of the employer. s 104	Leave to appeal from decision of Registrar	R v Industrial Commission of South Australia; Ex parte Public Service Association of South Australia Incorporated (1977) 17 SASR 396 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Leave to appeal not against a decision of the Registrar, but against a decision of a person merely purporting to act in that capacity, does not invoke the jurisdiction of the Commission.
		Re Cafe and Restaurants Award 1967 (1981) IAS, Current Review 1009: Discussed, the requirements to be satisfied by a proposed appellant before leave to appeal is granted under s 104.
s 108a	Approval of Commission in relation to industrial agreements	Shop Distributive Association Agreement (1985) 52 SAIR 370 (SA Indus Comm): Grounds on which a registered agreement can be set aside or reopened, discussed. The extent to which such an agreement prevails over an award, considered.
		Aitco Pty Ltd - Federated Liquor and Allied Industries Employees Union (SA Branch) Agreement 1985 (1986) 53 SAIR 236 (SA Indus Comm Full Comm): Held, an approval of an industrial agreement under s 108a is not an award or an order or a decision of the Industrial Commission, so there is no right of appeal under s 96(1).
		MacKinnon Parade Child Care Centre (University of Adelaide) Industrial Agreement (1986) 53 SAIR 565 (SA Indus Comm Full Comm): An Industrial Agreement's provisions were in breach of the Principles of Wage Fixation and therefore approval was refused.
		Manufacturing Grocers' Employees Federation and Driveg Ltd Industrial Agreement (1987) 54 SAIR 428 (SA Indus Comm): Discretion to refuse - likelihood of federal award.
		RAA (SA) Inc v RAA Patrolmen's Association (1990) 58 SAIR 45 (SA Indus Ct FC): An Industrial Agreement that provided that wage rates should vary in accordance with a Federal Award. These were held to occur automatically, and did not require the Commission's approval.
	Approval of Commission	Re Metserve. FIA/ASE Whyalla Agreement (1992) SAIR 472 (SA Indus Comm FC): Held, that the legislative changes which have been brought to s 108a make it sufficiently clear that a "decision" by a single member of the commission to approve or not to approve an agreement is a "decision" for the purposes of s 96 and gives right to an appeal. s 114	Definition of employee	R v Industrial Court of South Australia; Ex parte Australian Broadcasting Commission (1976) 13 SASR 460 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: If an employee within the meaning of s 114(1) applied for an order under the Act, the provisions of s 114(2) do not prevent an order being made.
		Australian Broadcasting Commission v Industrial Court of South Australia: see s 6.

s 115	Registration of associations	R v Cawthorne; Ex parte Federated Clerks' Union of Australia (SA Branch) (1979) 22 SASR 433 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held: 1. An Association is not disqualified from registration because it is already incorporated under the Associations Incorporation Act. 2. The requirements as to the lodging of the rules of the association with the Registrar are directory, not mandatory.
s 121	Change to rules of association	Federated Clerks' Union (SA Branch) v Industrial Commission of SA (1990) 53 SASR 524; 32 AILR 371 (SA Sup Ct FC): Registered organisations - change of constitution - Registrar's discretion to refuse application - extent of discretion. Public Service Association (SA) v Federated Clerks Union of Australia (SA Branch) (1991) 65 ALJR 610 (HC): Observations on the exercise of the discretion conferred on the Registrar pursuant to s 121(5). See also s 95.
s 141	Recovery of money owing	Robinson v SA Health Commission (1991) 58 SAIR 94 (SA Indus Ct): Held, although the applicant, for recovery of underpaid wages, was qualified for and had performed the duties of a higher position, since they had not been appointed to the position - which was an essential part of the job's definition - they were not entitled to the increased salary. Caston v Evans (1991) 58 SAIR 102 (SA Indus Ct): The employer's non-compliance with the award was not exculpated by the fact that she acted in good faith on the advice of the Department of Labour, since its advice was neither binding nor conclusive. The doctrine of equity, good conscience, etc. only applied between the parties to the employment contract not with respect to third parties.
s 146	Penalty for lock-out	Barone v Olympic Industries Pty Ltd (1984) 8 IR 439 (SA Indus Ct): Held, a single act of "lock-out" as defined in s 6(1) constitutes one act and attracts the one penalty under s 146 irrespective of the number of employees affected.
s 146b	Due regard to be had to certain general principles	Clerks' (SA) Part I (Wages) Case (1982) 49 SAIR (Pt 1) 547 (SA Indus Comm): Discussed: 1. The effect of s 146b. 2. Factors to be considered by the Commission in reaching a conclusion under s 146b. State Wage Case - July 1986 (1986) 53 SAIR 294 (SA Indus Comm Full Comm): Wage Fixation principles in the National Wage Case, June 1986 adopted. Variations granted only where employees undertake not to pursue extra claims or awards except within those principles.
s 151	Costs not to be awarded	Ayers v Dehy Fodders (Aust) Pty Ltd (1982) 2 IR 261 (SA Indus Ct FC): Held, the prohibition in s 151 against awarding costs in any proceeding under Part X of the Act extended to the process under which a conviction was recorded and a penalty imposed under s 156(1) for wrongful dismissal.
s 156	Discrimination against employee for taking part in industrial dispute	Ayers v Dehy Fodders (Aust) Pty Ltd (1981) IAS, Current Review 987 (SA Indus Ct FC): Discussed: 1. The meaning of "dismiss" in s 156(1). 2. The scope and operation of s 156. Ayers v Dehy Fodders (Aust) Pty Ltd (1982) 2 IR 261 (SA Indus Ct FC): Held, per Allan and Layton JJ, the costs, the award of which together with damages is contemplated by s 156(4), relate to a deemed wrongful dismissal under that section. s 157	Employer not to dismiss employee because member of association or taking benefit under the Act	Frigmobile (SA) Pty Ltd v Buttle (1984) 8 IR 435 (SA Indus Ct) Discussed: Dismissal of employees on the basis of their membership of a union. The employer's state of mind, and the fact that it was mistaken, are factors to be taken into account in deciding whether or not a dismissal was harsh, unjust or unreasonable.
s 170	Defence available to employers	Australian Building and Construction Workers Federation (SA Branch) v England (1984) 7 IR 6 (SA Indus Ct): Held, persons not party to or bound by an award cannot be convicted of an offence against the Act unless the conditions in s 170 have been fulfilled.

RULES: Rules of Court (Inheritance Family Provision Act) 1973 Revoked by Supreme Court Rules Amendment No. 3

s 6	Persons entitled to claim under this Act	In the Estate of Brooks: see s 7.
		In the Estate of Terry (1980) 25 SASR 500 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Originating summons: The right of a parent, under ss 6 and 7, to claim the benefit of the Act depends on more than the parental relationship or right of guardianship, perse. It must be shown that during the lifetime of the child the parent had assumed (solely or otherwise) responsibility for the child's health, physical and moral needs, accommodation and schooling.
		Parente v Parente (1982) 29 SASR 310 (SA Sup Ct White J): Held, the words "during his lifetime" in s 6(i) mean "during some period of his lifetime".
s 7	Spouse and persons entitled may obtain order for maintenance, etc., out of estate of deceased person	In the Estate of Puckridge (1978) 20 SASR 72 (SA Sup Ct King CJ) Application: Held, the grandchildren of a testator had a valid moral claim for a provision from the testator's estate for their advancement in life.
		In the Estate of Wardle (1979) 22 SASR 139 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J): Meaning of the term "advancement", considered.
		In the Estate of Brooks (1979) 22 SASR 398 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Application: Held, a former wife is able to make a claim out of her former husband's estate.
		Lambeff v Farmers Co-operative Executors & Trustees Ltd (1991) 56 SASR 323 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): The words "proper advancement in life" should be interpreted widely. "Proper" means proper in all the circumstances of the case and it is not necessary to show any special claim.

s 55a	Power to excuse juror during trial	R v Gray, Adams, Brannon and Knox (1977): 17 SASR 534: An application for a juror, who knew the step-father of the prosecutrix but not the prosecutrix, to be excused, was not within s 55a. R v McDonald: see s 56.
s 56	Trial may be continued notwithstanding that the jury may be reduced in number	R v Gray, Adams, Brannon and Knox: see s 55a. R v McDonald (1979) 21 SASR 198 (SA Sup Ct FC): The power given to the judge to order that a juror be excused from further attendance may be exercised by the judge whether or not the juror has made an application to be excused. The meaning of "excused" and the circumstances in which the power to excuse a juror from further attendance, considered.
s 57	Number of jurors required to agree upon verdicts in criminal inquests	R v Hamitov (1979) 21 SASR 596 (SA Sup CT FC): Held, the power to discharge a jury given to a trial judge under s 57(2) is a discretionary power and the judge is not required to bring the jury back forthwith upon the expiration of four hours to inquire whether they need more time for deliberation.

s 6	Interpretation	Palais Parking Station Pty Ltd v Shea (1976) 13 SASR 240 (SA Sup Ct Wells J): Held, the Director-General of Medical Services was "the authority" within the meaning of the Land Acquisition Act and was authorized to acquire the land pursuant to the provisions of that Act. Palais Parking Station Pty Ltd v Shea (1977) 16 SASR 350 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from order of Wells J: When a person is, or is not, "the Authority" with respect to the combined operation of the past and present Land Acquisition Acts, as per s 7. Minister's power of appointment in relation to the holding of land for public purposes, discussed and considered.
s 7	Application	Palais Parking v Shea: see s 6.
s 15	Acquisition by agreement, etc.	Christies Stone Quarries Pty Ltd and Christies Sands Pty Ltd v Corporation of the City of Tea Tree Gully (1979) 22 SASR 224 SA Sup Ct Wells J) Disputed claim for compensation: Despite the fact that a notice of intention to acquire land was not proceeded with, the occupier of the land incurred loss. Consideration of the principles upon which compensation should be assessed pursuant to s 15.
s 16	Notice of acquisition	Emerald Quarry Industries Pty Ltd v Commissioner of Highways (1976) 14 SASR 486 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: Whatever the true nature of a claimant's interest in a piece of land, that interest is revoked by publication of an acquisition notice. s 18	Claims to compensation	Emerald Quarry Industries Pty Ltd v Commissioner of Highways (1976) 14 SASR 486 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: The basis upon which a claim for compensation should be determined, considered and discussed. McInnes and Anor v Commissioner of Highways: see s 25.
s 19	Authority must offer compensation	Minister for the Environment v Florence (1979) 21 SASR 108 (SA Sup Ct Wells J): An authority acquiring land is bound by the offer of compensation made by the authority, as required by s 19 of that Act at the time of service of notice of the acquisition of the land.
s 24	Entry into possession	Smith v Minister of Education (1978) 19 SASR 411 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from order of Wells J: Held, an application for ejectment was made when the summons for an order for ejectment was issued.
s 25	Principles of compensation	Emerald Quarry Industries Pty Ltd v Commissioner of Highways (1976) 14 SASR 486: Held, section 25(h) was applicable to land acquired in which the claimant had no interest, but a statutory right. Emerald Quarry Industries Pty Ltd v Commissioner of Highways (No 2) (1978) 18 SASR 438 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Claim for compensation: Consideration and discussion of the principles to be applied in assessing compensation where a business was terminated in consequence of the acquisition of land. The meaning of "the value of the land" in s 25(b) considered. Commissioner of Highways v Shipp Bros Pty Ltd (1978) 19 SASR 215 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Disputed claim for compensation: Consideration and discussion of the principles to be applied in the assessment of compensation where the acquisition of land has led to the destruction of a business. Bloomfield Pty Ltd v Minister of Works (1978) 20 SASR 67 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Disputed claim for compensation: Held, for the purposes of valuing land for assessment of compensation, its potential for sub-division might properly be taken into account. Gill v State Planning Authority (1979) 20 SASR 580 (SA Sup Ct FC) Question of law: Application of s 25 to land not under the State Planning Authority, considered and discussed. Kiley v Minister of Water Resources (1981) 27 SASR 274 (SA Sup Ct Wells J): Held, section 25(h)(c) is not applicable to land which is unlikely to gain planning approval.

		Sterling Finances Ltd v Minister of Water Resources (1984) 35 SASR 208; 52 LGRA 289 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Discussed, the applicability, operation and effect of s 25(h)(c) in determining the compensation for land compulsorily acquired. Adelaide Clinic Holdings Pty Ltd v Minister for Water Resources (1988) 65 LGRA 410 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): In assessing compensation under s 25(a), it was wrong in principle to determine the highest and best use of resumed land by comparison of the notional market value for commercial development on the one hand, and residential development on the other. Longeranong Pty Ltd v ETSA (1990) 71 LGRA 316 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, that a resuming authority cannot be permitted to bypass the legislation by a unilateral undertaking in its notice of acquisition. Factors in estimating compensation - assessment of value of land "taken". Gugusheff v South Australian Urban Land Trust (1990) 55 SASR 268 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Considered: 1. The time lapse for sub-division of land. 2. Factors in estimating compensation. McInnes and Anor v Commissioner of Highways (1992) 165 LSJS 124 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Land was acquired adjacent to hotel for by-pass road and hotel consequently suffered loss of trade. Held, ss 18 and 25 are limited to a consideration of loss occasioned by the actual acquisition of a specific parcel of land. The loss of profits and value of hotel arose from the by-pass and not from the acquisition of the land and was therefore not compensable.
s 33	Compensation	South Australian Land Commission v Perry (1977) 15 SASR 315 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, that the interest payable on compensation under s 33, was simple interest and not compound interest.

Revoked by Land Agents, Brokers and Valuers Regulations 1986

s 46	Agent, etc not to have interest in land or business which he is commissioned to sell	Cooper v O'Brien (1987) 47 SASR 71 (SA Sup Ct von Doussa J): Discussed, what amounts to an "interest" in the purchase of land or business under s 46.
s 68	Fiduciary defaults	Schofield v Consolidated Interest Fund: see s 72.
s 72	Amount of claim	Schofield v Consolidated Interest Fund (1988) 49 SASR 546 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J):Held, although the loss of interest might be reasonably said to be a "pecuniary loss" suffered from a "fiduciary default" within the meaning of s 68, it was not an "actual pecuniary loss" as required by s 72 of the Act. s 78	Inquiries	Ivanoff v Land and Business Agents Board (1977) 15 SASR 56: Held, the Board had jurisdiction to hold an inquiry into a registered manager allegedly convicted of offences under the Second-Hand Motor Vehicles Act and the Prices Act. See s 82.
		Weber v Land and Business Agents Board (1986) 40 SASR 312 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J): Discussed, the prerequisites to, and the result of, a finding of neglect of duty under s 78(3)(b)(ii).
s 82	Appeals	Ivanoff v Land and Business Agents Board (1977) 15 SASR 56: Held, an appeal lay to the Supreme Court under s 82(1) against the decision of the Board that it had jurisdiction to proceed with the inquiry. See s 78.
s 89	Abolition of instalment contracts	Pooraka Holdings Pty Ltd v Participation Nominees and Others, Cleland and Others (Third Parties) (1991) 58 SASR 184 (SA Sup Ct FC): Interpretation of term "purchase price". The term does not mean "consideration" nor does it include reasonable interest rates paid on the purchase price or contractual obligations to pay rates, taxes or similar charges.

s 54	Interpretation	JF Hillam Pty Ltd v Mooney (1988) 48 SASR 381 (SA Sup Ct, FC) Held, the maintenance of a small booth at a swimming centre where sweets and small items of swimwear were sold was sufficient to render the demised premises "shop premises" within the meaning of the Act. See s 68.
s 55	Application of Part	JF Hillam Pty Ltd v Mooney: see s 68. Ory v Betamore Pty Ltd (No 1) (1990) 54 SASR 331 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): The effect of s 55 is that if a pre- amendment commercial tenancy agreement is extended, renewed, assigned or otherwise transferred after the amendments have come into force, the new Pt IV will apply, not merely to the provision that deals with the extension, renewal, assignment or transfer, but to the whole of the agreement. Ory v Betamore Pty Ltd (No 2) (1990) 54 SASR 331 at 339 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, where a contract note for the sale of land included an agreement that it was subject to the vendor taking a lease of the property, and the parties some months later executed a lease, it could not be said that a lease was granted by the contract note so as to come within the exception in s 55(2)(a), to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Commercial Tribunal.
s 56	Jurisdiction of commercial Tribunal under this Part	Hemruth Advertising Pty Ltd v Karafotias (1988) 46 SASR 532 (SA Sup Ct Lunn J): Discussed, the exclusivity of the jurisdiction of the Commercial Tribunal. JF Hillam Pty Ltd v Mooney: see s 68. Tessari v Bais Pty Ltd (1990) 54 SASR 274 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): Held, the jurisdiction of the Commercial Tenancy Tribunal is limited, pursuant to s 56(1), to claims arising under or in respect of commercial tenancy agreements and does not include a claim under or in respect of a guarantee even though the guarantor has guaranteed the obligations of a party to such an agreement. Ory v Betamore Pty Ltd (No 1) (1990) 54 SASR 331 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): By s 56, the grant of jurisdiction to the Commercial Tribunal is comprehensive and does not permit an interpretation that would preserve the right to seek a declaration in the Supreme Court as to the interpretation of a lease. s 57	Limitation on amounts payable with respect to entering into, extending or renewing a commercial tenancy agreement	Coventry & Others v Caltex Oil (Aust) Pty Ltd (1991) 57 SASR 110 (SA Sup Ct Debelle J): By lease agreement the plaintiffs were required to pay a "franchise fee" in addition to rent in return for premises and Caltex products. Held, s 57(1) does not intend to prohibit every kind of payment made by the tenant apart from rent, security bond or operating expense. The franchise fee is charged for the licence to sell Caltex products and is therefore not a payment for or in relation to the entry of the lease.
s 66	Implied warranty that premises reasonably fit for business of tenant	JF Hillam Pty Ltd v Mooney (1988) 48 SASR 381 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, Where the tenant had become tenant by an assignment, there was no obligation upon the landlord to effect repairs pursuant to the provisions of s 66, as that section only applied to an agreement entered into after the Act came into operation, and an assignee of a lease could not be said to "enter into" the agreement. JF Hillam Pty Ltd v Mooney: see s 68.
s 68	Power of Tribunal to act in any matter	Hemruth Advertising Pty Ltd v Karafotias (1988) 46 SASR 532 (SA Sup Ct Lunn AJ): Held, the Commercial Tribunal has, under s 68(5), power to grant interim and interlocutory injunctions. JF Hillam Pty Ltd v Mooney (1988) 48 SASR 381 (SA Sup Ct) Appeal: Held, the Landlord and Tenant Act did not apply to a lease of an indoor swimming centre because the commercial tenancy did not fall within the meaning of "shop premises" in ss 54 and 55 of the Act.

Section 41a: inserted by 32, 1980, s. 6

s 7	Interpretation	Kelly v Kelly (1988) 48 SASR 115 (SA Sup Ct Lunn AJ) Action: By virtue of the definition of "court" in s 7, exclusive jurisdiction under Part VIII of the Act is vested in the Land and Valuation Division of the Supreme Court and an order for partition and sale cannot be made in the ordinary civil jurisdiction. s 26	Contracts for sale of land to be in writing	Pattison v Mann (1976) 13 SASR 34: The question whether there was a sufficient contract in writing, or acts of part performance, to satisfy the requirement of s 26. Deanshaw v Marshall (1978) 20 SASR 146 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Actions: Whether acts of part performance of an oral contract are sufficient to satisfy the requirements of s 26, considered and discussed.
s 41	Execution and attestation of deeds	Rose v Commissioner of Stamps (1979) 22 SASR 84 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J): Held, a document not sealed or delivered was not required to be treated as a deed by reason of the provisions of s 41.
s 45	Obligation to transfer instead of re-conveying	Excel Finance Corporation Ltd v Commonwealth Bank of Australia (1988) 48 SASR 225 (SA Sup Ct Lunn AJ): Held, s 45(1) did not apply to preclude a second mortgagee obtaining from the first mortgagee in possession a transfer of the first mortgage pursuant to s 131 of the Real Property Act. s 55a	Enforcement of rights against mortgagor	Eadie v Braun (1978) 20 SASR 190 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Originating summons: The meaning of the notice requirements for valid notice of breach of covenant, considered and discussed. Kirkman v Frost (1978) 20 SASR 192 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Originating summons: Held, notice of a breach of covenant was valid if served at a mortgagor's place of abode, even where the memorandum of mortgage stipulated that the notice be served at the mortgagor's place of business. Hindmarsh Building Society v Manhire (1979) 20 SASR 206 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Originating summons: A notice of intention to exercise power of sale which stipulated no time limit within which the mortgagor was to remedy her/his breach of covenant, was defective. Lamshed v Plakakis (1988) 47 SASR 316 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Discussed, the ambit, effect and requirements of s 55a. State Bank of South Australia v Jeltes (1988) 49 SASR 307 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J) Appeal from a master: Held, there must be a breach of the mortgage before a mortgagee can lawfully take action under s 55a. On default of the mortgagor, a notice may be issued by the mortgagee in terms that non-compliance with it establishes a breach. A second notice must be in terms that comply with s 55a. This is so even under a mortgage where moneys are payable on demand.

s 69	Power to order partition sale instead of partition	Tansell v Tansell (1977) 19 SASR 165 (SA Sup Ct FC) Questions of law: Held, the Supreme Court had no jurisdiction to entertain a husband's application for sale and division of the matrimonial home after the wife had invoked the jurisdiction of the Family Court by her application for an order for exclusive occupancy of the property.

s 3	Interpretation	Dezsery Cleaning Service Pty Ltd v Milos (1977) 44 SAIR (Pt 2) 1408 (SA Indus Ct Haese J): Held, an application by an employer pursuant to s 53(2) of the Workers Compensation Act 1971 was an "action" as defined in s 3. Section 48 held to be not applicable. Coleman v Redapple Restaurants Pty Ltd: see s 47: distinguished.
s 35	Actions on simple contract and in tort	Cliff v Quinn: see s 36.
s 36	Personal injuries	Carslake v Guardian Assurance Company (1977) 15 SASR 378 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Local Court: Held, the three year time limitation under the Limitation of Actions Act, commences upon giving notice to an insurer. Footner v Broken Hill Associated Smelters: see s 48. Cliff v Quinn (1988) 54 SASR 151 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held: 1. The wife's action was founded in tort under s 34 of the Wrongs Act, and prima facie fell within the time limit in s 35 of the Limitation of Actions Act, but it also fell within a narrower sub-class of action in respect of "personal injuries to ... (a) person" to which s 36 of the Limitation of Actions Act applied, so that the special time limit of three years would prevail over the general time limit of six years. 2. The wife's cause of action accrued when the loss first appeared, which was the date of the accident. 3. R 53.03 Supreme Court Rules 1987 did not override the time limit in s 36.
s 37	Slander and penalties	In Re Claridge House Ltd (In Liq) (1981) 28 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct FC): In an action under s 367b of the Companies Act, the time limit in s 37 does not apply, since the former provision is procedural in nature.
s 46a	Extension of period of limitation where cause of action survives	Blomme v Sutton (1989) 52 SASR 576 (SA Sup Ct FC): The provisions of s 46a do not apply to the claim for loss of dependency which is an alternative claim to that for the benefit of the estate.
s 47	Extension of certain periods of limitation	Coleman v Redapple Restaurants Pty Ltd (Limitation of Actions) Case (1975) 42 SAIR (Pt 1) 990 (SA Indus Ct FC): Held, s 47(2)(d) interpreted to refer to a limitation which, having regard to the type of action under consideration, is in all the circumstances and in the eyes of any reasonable person a necessary adjunct. Section 47 has no application to s 15(1)(e) of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1972. Section 48 does apply to s 15(1)(e). Johannessen v Miller: see s 48. R v Di Fazio: see s 48. Cummins Diesel Sales & Service Pty Ltd v State Government Insurance Commission (1982) 49 SAIR (Pt 2) 817 (SA Indus Ct): Held, the time limit prescribed by s 5(9) of the Workers Compensation Act 1980 (SA) was "essential" within the meaning of s 47(2)(d). The Queen v Police Appeal Board: see s 48. Meverley v Commane: see s 48. Re Litchfield (1989) 51 SASR 87 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, s 47(2)(d) has application to the time limit prescribed by s 95 of the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act, with the result that the general extension made by s 47 cannot apply to that time limit. s 48	General power to extend periods of limitation	Dezsery Cleaning Service Pty Ltd v Milos: see s 3. Coleman v Redapple Restaurants Pty Ltd: see s 47. In Re Kilkenny Liquidation Pty Ltd (In Liq) (1976) 13 SASR 258 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Petition: Held, the making of an order under s 30 of the Companies Act was not a "fact material to the employee's case", within the meaning of s 48.

Napolitano v Coyle (1977) 15 SASR 559 (SA Sup Ct Bray CJ) Action: Factors to be taken into account upon an application for an extension of time, considered and discussed.

Johannessen v Miller (1977) 17 SASR 547 (SA Sup Ct FC) Question of law: An appeal against conviction under the Justices Act is not an action within the meaning of ss 47 & 48.

Van Vliet v Griffiths (1978) 19 SASR 195 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Action: Held, granting an order for an extension of time, that the plaintiff had not ascertained facts material to his case until after the expiration of the limitation period.

Van Vliet v Griffiths (1979) 20 SASR 524 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: Application for an extension of time refused because the claim was statute-barred before amendment of the Limitation of Actions Act.

R v Di Fazio; ex parte General-Motors Holdens Ltd (1979) 20 SASR 559 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the Industrial Magistrate had power under ss 47 and 48 of the Limitation of Actions Act, 1936, to extend the time in which an application under s 15(1)(e) of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1972 could be made.

General Motors-Holdens Ltd v Di Fazio (1979) 141 CLR 659 (High Court of Aust): R v Di Fazio; Ex parte General Motors Holdens Ltd affirmed.

Dunn v Wilkinson (1979) 22 SASR 129 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Local Court: Jurisdiction of special magistrate to extend the time limit for service of a summons, discussed.

Scott Pools Pty Ltd v Corporation of the City of Salisbury (1979) 22 SASR 406 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Consideration and discussion of questions whether the Supreme Court has power under s 48 of the Limitation of Actions Act or s 26(5) of the Planning and Development Act to extend the time prescribed for the giving of notice of appeal from the Planning Appeal Board to the Supreme Court.

Crafter v Webster and Guscott (1979) 23 SASR 61 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: Held, apart from the provisions of s 48, the Court of Disputed Returns did not have a discretion to permit the amendment of a petition after the expiration of the time period for lodging the petition.

Mavra v Logan, Serdaridis and Pertl (1980) 24 SASR 567 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J) Action: Consideration and discussion of the factors to be taken into account for an extension of time to institute an action for damages for personal injuries received in a road accident where failure to institute proceedings within time was alleged to be due to delay on the part of the plaintiff's solicitor.

Johnson v State of South Australia (1980) 26 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC) Action: Circumstances in which an order should be made extending the time within which an action can be commenced, considered and discussed.

Adelaide Pistol Club Inc v District Council of Munno Para (1981) 28 SASR 186; 45 LGRA 119; 6 SAPR 240 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal from Planning Appeal Board: The court has power to extend the time prescribed for the giving of notice of appeal from the Planning Appeal Board to the Supreme Court under s 48.

South Australian Meat Corporation v Kipirtoglou (1981) 48 SAIR (Pt 2) 237 (SA Ind Ct FC): Discussed, the power, under s 48, to extend the period within which an application disputing employer liability may be made.

Simpson Ltd v Rothwell (1982) 49 SAIR (Pt 2) 1 (SA Indus Ct FC): Discussed, factors to be taken into account in exercising discretion to extend the period of limitation under s 48.

Cummins Diesel Sales & Service Pty Ltd v State Government Insurance Commission (1982) 49 SAIR (Pt 2) 817 (SA Indus Ct): Discussed, factors to be taken into account in exercising discretion to extend the time for filing an appeal under s 48.

Footner v Broken Hill Associated Smelters Pty Ltd (1983) 33 SASR 58 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, the 1972 and 1975 amendments to the Act did not revive a cause of action which was statute-barred before those amendments came into effect.

The Queen v Police Appeal Board; Ex parte McGee (1984) 36 SASR 455 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the provisions of ss 47 and 48 do not apply to proceedings before the Police Appeal Board.

Kammerman v South Australian Planning Commission (1986) 42 SASR 394; 61 LGRA 99 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, the Planning Appeals Tribunal was not a "court" for the purposes of s 48.

Sola Optical Australia Pty Ltd v Mills (1987) 62 ALJR 3; 163 CLR 628 (HC): 1. Discussed, what constitutes a "fact material in the plaintiff's case" under s 48(3)(b)(i). 2. S 48(3)(b)(i) required the material facts to be ascertained by the plaintiff personally and not by an agent.

Meverley v Commane (1987) 47 SASR 162 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, ss 47 & 48 do not apply to proceedings under s 76a of the Justices Act 1921.

Munno Para District Council v Battersby (1988) 66 LGRA 17 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the sub-provisions of s 48(1) and (2) empowered the District Court to extend the time limit prescribed by s 37 of the Planning Act for commencing proceedings under s 36 for breaches of that Act.

Blomme v Sutton (1989) 52 SASR 576 (SA Sup Ct FC): There is no reason of policy for construing the provisions in a way which would exclude the operation of s 48.

Timeny v British Airways PLC (1991) 102 ALR 565 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held: 1. Although the combined operation of s 79 of the Judiciary Act 1903 (Cth) and s 48 of the Limitation of Actions Act 1936 (SA) authorizes courts exercising federal jurisdiction in South Australia to extend the time limits which are imposed by State law and which apply to actions under federal law by virtue of s 79, there is no power to extend time limits imposed directly by federal law. 2. A law which merely authorizes the extension of the time prescribed for the institution of proceedings cannot operate to revive a right which has extinguished.

Gehan v South Australian Meat Corporation (1992). Unreported judgement No. 3294 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the ascertainment of new evidence of a fact already existing and within the plaintiff's knowledge is not enough to found an extension of time.

s 19	Proceedings before the Court	Nepeor Pty Ltd v Liquor Licensing Commission (1987) 46 SASR 205 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the Court's power to inform itself of matters under s 19 did not entitle it to ignore rules of natural justice. s 23	Appeal from orders and decisions of the Court	Mick Lucas and Son Pty Ltd v Licensing Commissioner (1987) 45 SASR 312 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, all appeals under s 23, whether fact or law, are by leave. s 38	Conditions affecting grant or removal of a retail liquor merchant's licence	Nepeor Pty Ltd v Liquor Licensing Commission (1987) 46 SASR 205 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the requirements of s 38(1); the meaning of "public demand", "locality" and "existing facilities".
s 44	Circumstances in which general facility licence may be granted	Trop Nominees Pty Ltd v Liquor Licensing Commissioner (1987) 46 SASR 255 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, what constitutes a "tourist attraction" under s 44(1)(a).
		David Jones (Australia) Pty Ltd v Fahey: see s 63.
s 62	Requirements as to premises	Vandeleur v Delbra Pty Ltd (1988) 48 SASR 156 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: Held: 1. In determining matters required by s 62(1)(b), the court was not only concerned with such additional impact as the proposed premises might have over other uses. 2. A condition in a s 64 certificate that building approval be obtained before a licence was granted was valid. Section 62(2) requires the Licensing Court to be satisfied concerning approvals not as a pre requisite of the grant of the certificate, but as a pre-requisite of the grant of the licence.
		Hignett v Burnside City Corporation (1989) 68 LGRA 149 (SA Sup Ct Prior J): Held, for the purposes of s 62(2), the adequacy of any approvals, consents or exemptions required under planning law was a matter for the Licensing Court and not the Supreme Court on an application for declaratory relief.
s 63	Grant of category A licence must be justified by public need	David Jones (Australia) Pty Ltd v Fahey (1989) 50 SASR 323 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, allowing the appeal, that: 1. The Licensing Court had erred in failing to distinguish between that group of the public to which s 44(1) referred and the public in the locality referred to in s 63. 2. Those frequenting the food hall, could properly complain that to deny the licence sought was to fail to provide for the needs of the public in the locality within the meaning of s 63 of the Act.
s 64	Certificate in respect of proposed premises	Vandeleur v Delbra Pty Ltd: see s 62(2). s 128	Power to refuse entry or remove persons guilty of offensive behaviour	O'Neil v Hughes (1992) 166 LSJS 498 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, force is not necessary for removal. A request to leave must be intended as a removal, it must be clear that the person has no choice other than to be forced to leave and the fact of removal should in some way be conveyed to the person removed.

s 25	Powers and duties of Judge or special magistrate	G & R Wills Co Ltd v Hancock; AG(SA) intervening (1984) 35 SASR 393 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, judgement creditor is not entitled under s 25(1) to an appointment, as of right, of a special bailiff for the purpose of executing any warrant of the Court. The party seeking such an appointment has the burden of adducing special reasons to justify the appointment. Special reasons relate to why the ordinary bailiffs is not satisfactory. Edwards v Petterson (1987) 47 SASR 63 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, a courtesy attendance by a solicitor to the Court to inform it of the plaintiff's absence and to seek an adjournment, was not an "attendance" for the purposes of s 25(1)V. Where a plaintiff did not appear but a defendant did, the plaintiff's action should be struck out, or adjourned. There could be no setting aside of a judgment entered in default of the plaintiff's attendance. Henderson Seed Co Pty Ltd v Charles Sharpe & Co Ltd: see s 93. Powers of Judges or Special Magistrate to set aside (inter alia) judgment given in default: Held, a courtesy attendance by a solicitor to the Court to inform it of the plaintiff's absence and to seek an adjournment, was not an "attendance" for the purposes of s 25(1). Where a plaintiff did not appear but a defendant did the plaintiffs action should be struck out, or adjourned.

s 28	Power to make rules of court	Henderson Seed Co Pty Ltd v Charles Sharpe & Co Ltd: see s 93.
s 31	Jurisdiction of courts of full jurisdiction	Devon Constructions Pty Ltd v SPEHR: see s 32. South Australia v Public Trustee (1984) 36 SASR 153 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, an employer's action pursuant to s 84(b) of the Workers Compensation Act 1971 for the repayment of money from claimant (regarding money recovered by the claimant from a third party) is a personal action within s 31(g) of the Local and District Criminal Courts Act. Section 21 of the Workers Compensation Act 1971 does not deprive the District Court of jurisdiction to hear proceedings. Greybrook v Farina (1984) 36 SASR 348 (SA Sup Ct White J): Held, the meaning of any endorsements on a summons depends upon the ordinary meaning of the words and not upon the pleader's intention proved by extrinsic (and therefore inadmissible) evidence. The quantum of a claim for "damages" on a summons under s 31(1) could be amended by further and better particulars (ie new estimates) of "damages" from any cause of damage - in this case damage to property could be added to damages from personal injury even though the time for bringing an action for personal injury had expired. Stanley v Hill: see s 32. Tip Top Dry Cleaners v City of Woodville (No 1) 1986 LGRA 95 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Held: the words if s 38(1a) LDCCA "in the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred by this division" did not preclude one order in the nature of an interlocutory order such as a slow cause order issued on an ex parte summons under the Planning Act 1982, s 36(2).
s 32	Jurisdiction of courts of limited jurisdiction	Devon Constructions Pty Ltd v SPEHR (1977) 37 SASR 139 (SA Sup Ct Wells J): Note on the reading of ss 31 & 32: The words "all personal actions..." at the front of ss 31 & 32 indicate that the sections have absolute generality of application to causes of action, and are subject only to the money limits of the jurisdiction. Sections 31 & 32 can be read according to their tenor and should not be read down by any principles that lower Courts can only hear causes of action wholly constituted within their particular jurisdictional area. Stanley v Hill (1984) 37 SASR 135 (SA Sup Ct FC): Relationship between ss 31 & 32 is not subject to any limitation as to the place where the cause of action arose, but where the cause of action does not occur in South Australia, issuing a summons under s 93 requires leave of the Court to serve notice.
s 35e	Local court to do complete justice in cause so as to avoid multiplicity of suits	Henderson Seed Co Pty Ltd v Charles Sharpe & Co Ltd: see s 93.
s 38	Defendant not to divide cause of action for set-off or counter-claim	Tip Top Dry Cleaners v City of Woodville (No 1) (1986) 61 LGRA 95 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, the words of s 38(1a) "in the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred by this division" did not preclude an order in the nature of an interlocutory order such as a show cause order issued on an ex parte summons under s 36(2) of the Planning Act 1982.
s 42	Costs	Potts v Moran (1976) 16 SASR 284 (SA Sup Ct King J) Action: Recovery of costs in actions for damages, discussed and considered. Burton v Litton Business Pty Ltd and Data Print (Aust) Pty Ltd (1977) 16 SASR 162 (SA Sup Ct King J) Action: Held, an action for damages for wrongful dismissal was an action "founded on contract". Tuohy v Blackmore (1978) 20 SASR 161 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Action: Consideration and discussion as to whether a plaintiff, awarded a sum slightly below one half of the jurisdictional limit in damages for personal injury, should also be allowed costs. Silverblade v Nelson (1980) 24 SASR 310 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Action: Held, a plaintiff who, in an action for damages for personal injury in the Supreme Court, was awarded less than one half of the Local Court jurisdictional limit, should be awarded no costs. The application in such circumstances of s 42, considered.

		Bunker v James (1980) 26 SASR 286 (SA Sup Ct, FC) Action Consideration and discussion of the factors to be taken into account in determining whether costs should be allowed to a plaintiff in an action for libel in the Supreme Court, where the plaintiff had been awarded as damages a sum less than one half of the jurisdictional limit of the Local Court.
		Stevens v Chandler (1988) 46 SASR 541 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, there is no basis in the Supreme Court Rules 1987, R 40.07, to exclude the operation of s 42 of the Local and District Criminal Courts Act. Both "rules" should apply concurrently to determine the recovery of the plaintiff for costs.
s 58	Appeal to the Supreme Court	State of South Australia and Hofmeyer v Muirhead (1979) 23 SASR 316 (SA Sup Ct, Mitchell J) Application for leave to appeal: Held, leave to appeal under s 58(3) will not be granted as of course, but only in special circumstances or where the matter is of some special general importance.
		Kapetanos v Selig (1984) 37 SASR 493 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Held, a decision of a magistrate not to disqualify himself on the grounds of alleged bias was not a judgment from which an appeal lay to the Supreme Court under s 58.
s 63	Powers of Supreme Court on hearing of appeal	Greenwood v Jones (1977) 16 SASR 447 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J) Appeal from Local Court: The powers of the Supreme Court on appeal from a Local Court do not enable the Supreme Court to order a non-suit.
		Cross v Reilly (1979) 21 SASR 553 (SA Sup Ct White J) Appeal from Local Court: The nature of an appeal from a Local Court to the Supreme Court under s 63, considered.
s 93	Summons may be served out of State	Stanley v Hill: see s 32.
		Robert Express Deliveries Pty Ltd v VARTEX Petroleum Industries Pty Ltd (1985) 40 SASR 155 (SA Sup Ct FC): Section 93 authorized service of notice outside the geographic jurisdiction where the requirements of the section were satisfied; it did not preclude the issue, without leave, of a summons which might lawfully be issued under other provisions of the Local and District Criminal Courts Act. The validity of a summons, served outside South Australia under s 93, was irrelevant where the summons was validly served under the Execution of Process Act 1901.
		Henderson Seed Co Pty Ltd v Charles Sharpe & Co Ltd (1988) 48 SASR 235 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: Held, section 93 is only available to authorize service out of the jurisdiction to an intending plaintiff who is a resident of South Australia.
s 125	Procedure when neither party, or only defendant appears at trial	Horbelt v Raft Pools Pty Ltd: see s 127.
		Edwards v Petterson: see s 126.
s 126	Non-appearance of defendant	Horbelt v Raft Pools Pty Ltd: see s 127.
		Edwards v Petterson (1987) 47 SASR 63 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from District Court: Observations on the correct procedure, under ss 125 and 126, for a District Court to follow, when the plaintiff is unable to appear, and/or when the plaintiff's solicitor informs the court of the plaintiff's inability and applies for an adjournment.
s 127	Court may non suit when plaintiff does not appear	Horbelt v Raft Pools Pty Ltd (1987) 47 SASR 389 (SA Sup Ct FC): Observations by von Doussa J on the construction of ss 125, 126 and 127 relating to the procedure to be followed when parties failed to appear.
s 153	Execution to issue against goods	Re Cirillo; Ex parte Commissioner of Taxation (1992) 36 FCR 279 (Fed Ct of Aust, von Dousa J): Held: 1. Filing fees for the issue of a summons are "costs" within s 293. 2. Where a judgement was obtained by default and the costs ordered to be paid were confined to court fees the provisions of s 153(2) applied and the judgement so far as it provided for payment of those costs could not be enforced until a letter had been served on or posted to the debtor.
s 293	Costs to abide event	Re Cirillo; Ex parte Commissioner of Taxation: see s 153.

s 328	Jurisdiction of the District Criminal Court	R v Cooper, Jones and Harris (1978) 17 SASR 472 (SA Sup Ct FC): The District Criminal Court has no jurisdiction to try a group I offence. A group I offence means any indictable offence the maximum punishment for which is imprisonment for a term exceeding ten years.
s 329	Habitual criminals	R v Giancopolous (1976) 14 SASR 235 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case referred to Full Court: Held, a person committed for sentence to a District Criminal Court is a person "who has been convicted" within the meaning of s 329(1). s 335	Presentation for trial	R v Johnson, Rae and Salt (1978) 19 SASR 157 (SA Sup Ct King J) Criminal trial: The circumstances in which the Supreme Court should exercise the power given by s 335 to remit a case from the Supreme Court to a District Criminal Court for hearing, considered and discussed. R v Ligertwood; Ex parte Attorney-General for South Australia (1981) 26 SASR 443 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the District Criminal Court had jurisdiction to try an accused charged on an information in the Children's Court, and ordered for trial in an adult court.
Local Court Rules
rule 35	Application for extension of time	Dunn v Wilkinson (1979) 33 SASR 129 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Local Court: A summons issued out of the Local Court is required to be served within one year or within such period as may be allowed by the court. A magistrate has jurisdiction to extend time for service of a summons.

s 5	Interpretation	Transway Services Pty Ltd (In Liquidation) v the Corporation of the City of Elizabeth (1976) 13 SASR 537 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal: Meaning of the word "ratepayer", considered and discussed. State Transport Authority v Corporation of the City of Adelaide (1980) 24 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeals against rating assessments: Land owned by the State Transport Authority and leased to persons engaged in commercial businesses thereon is "ratable property" within the meaning of s 5. R v Usher; Ex parte Hearn (1983) 34 SASR 124; 50 LGRA 119 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): Discussed, the effect of ss 5, 51 and 105 on a determination of whether an application by a candidate to have his name enrolled on the voters' roll was sufficient to qualify him to be nominated for election as alderman.
s 18	Error or deficiency in an address, recommendation or proclamation	Georgetown DC v Minister of Local Government: see s 722.
s 25	Powers of Commission	Georgetown DC v Minister for Local Government (1988) 48 SASR 440; 66 LGRA 152 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussion of the application of the Royal Commissions Act 1917 to the Local Government Advisory Commission by s 25 of the Local Government Act 1934.
s 26	Reference of proposals to the Advisory Commission	Georgetown DC v Minister of Local Government: see s 722.
s 27a	General advisory function of the Advisory Commission	The Corporation of the City of Henley and Grange v the State of South Australia: see s 41. District Council of Lincoln v Corporation of the City of Port Lincoln and Virgo (1978) 17 SASR 483 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J) Motion: Held, as the notice to ratepayers, of a proposed severance of land, did not adequately describe the land, the purported petition presented by the municipality was ultra vires, null and void and of no effect.
s 39	Advisory committees	The Corporation of the City of Henley and Grange v the State of South Australia: see s 41.
s 41	Delegation of powers of Council	The Corporation of the City of Henley and Grange v the State of South Australia (1977) 17 SASR 491 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J) Action: Requirements of publication and advertisements of proposed partitions, considered and discussed.
s 50a	Delegation of powers of council to its officers	R v City of Tea Tree Gully; Ex parte Indoor Cricket Arenas (Australia) Pty Ltd (1984) 37 SASR 167; 53 LGRA 370 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the scope of s 50a.
s 51	Election of Mayor, aldermen and councillors	R v Usher; Ex parte Hearn: see s 5.
s 66	Chief executive officer	Transway Services Pty Ltd (In Liquidation) v The Corporation of the City of Elizabeth (1976) 13 SASR 537 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, that council rates were "taxation" within the meaning of s 66 of the Act. s 105	Form of nomination and time for lodging it	R v Usher; Ex parte Hearn: see s 5.
s 111	Voting procedure at polling booths	Raggatt v Fletcher (1990) 69 LGRA 367 (SA Sup Ct FC): The word "authenticated" in s 111(8) should be interpreted as meaning to certify to be genuine rather than in the sense of making genuine.
s 142k	Decisions to be final	R v Ward; Ex parte Bowering (1978) 20 SASR 424 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: As s 142k provided that the decisions of the Court of Local Government Disputed Returns was final, the Supreme Court had no jurisdiction to review any decision of that Court except upon a case stated by the Court itself per s 142m.
s 142m	Special case	R v Ward; Ex parte Bowering: see s 142k.
s 147	Provisions applicable to meetings	R v District Council of Victor Harbor; Ex parte Costain Australia Ltd (1983) 34 SASR 188; 50 LGRA 255 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the meaning of "personal interest" in s 147 VIII.
s 153	Power to appoint committees	R v City of Tea Tree Gully; Ex parte Indoor Cricket Arenas (Australia) Pty Ltd (1984) 37 SASR 167; 53 LGRA 370 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the scope of s 153.

s 171	Valuation of land for the purpose of rating	Mobil Oil Australia Ltd v Valuer-General (1992) 77 LGRA 313 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, once a council has adopted the Valuer-General's valuation of land under s 171 as the basis for rate assessment it cannot object under s 24 of the Valuation of Land Act 1971.
s 216	Special rate	Clothier and Simper v City of Mitcham (1981) 45 LGRA 179: Held, the procedures for making a separate rate under s 218 on the one hand and a special rate under s 216 on the other hand must not be interchanged or blurred.
s 218	Memorial for specific works	Clothier and Simper v City of Mitcham: see s 216.
s 373	Causing a motor vehicle to stand upon a prohibited area	Cherry v Hollobone (1980) 24 SASR 528 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, signs on notice boards bearing the words "No Parking" with arrows marking the prohibited area, conformed to the requirements of s 373.
s 475e	Evidentiary provisions	Howie v Scheer (No. 1) (1986) 59 LGRA 342 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J): Discussed, the proper construction of s 475e(2). Howie v Scheer (No. 4) (1986) 61 LGRA 360 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J): Discussed, the evidentiary effect of s 475e(2). Lindner v Scheer (1986) 61 LGRA 137 (SA Sup Ct Von Doussa J): Discussed, the evidentiary effect of s 475e(1)(a).
s 667	By-laws	Cooper v Bormann (1979) 22 SASR 589 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held: 1. That the word nuisance means nuisance at common law. 2. That a by-law prohibiting the keeping of more than two dogs was ultra vires and invalid. Rice v Daire (1982) 30 SASR 560 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Discussed: the operation of s 667(1)7.XXVIII. Rice v Daire (1982) 30 SASR 560 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Held, the council had power, under s 667 9.VXI, to make a by-law prohibiting noisy activity without permission of the Town Clerk. Foley v Padley (1984) 58 ALJR 454; 54 ALR 609 (HC): Discussed, the scope of ss 667(1)7.IV and. 667(1)9.XVI.
s 722	Evidence of proclamations and order	Georgetown DC v Minister of Local Government (1988) 48 SASR 440 (SA Sup Ct FC) Action: A proposal for amalgamation of councils, accompanied by a covering letter from a Council, held to sufficiently set out the nature and effect of the proposal so as to negate deficiencies in the application process. It thus constituted an application for referral within the meaning of s 26 of the Local Government Act. s 743a	Evidentiary presumption	Weaver v Donkin (1983) 48 LGRA 263 (SA Sup Ct White J): Held, s 743a does not apply until the prosecution proves beyond reasonable doubt that the vehicle in question is that of the defendant. s 748a	Depositing of rubbish, etc.	Wirth v Remove All Rubbish Co Pty Ltd (1985) 39 SASR 30; 55 LGRA 81 (SA Sup Ct White J): Held, a truck type industrial bin was "goods" within s 748a(1)(b). Discussed generally, ss 748a, 748b, 748ba, 748c.
s 779	Penalty for damaging property of council	Little v James (1987) 63 LGRA 272 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussed, the mens rea aspect of s 779.
s 794a	Expiation of offences	Shipp v Donkin (1981) 26 SASR 340 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, a local council wrongly exercised the discretion to impose expiation fees when it refused to accept payment of a late expiation fee and commenced proceedings against the appellant. Salfischberger v Copini (1988) 7 MVR 139 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Discussed, whether it is mandatory to serve an expiation notice under s 794a.
Part IXAA	Enquiries into dismissals, or reductions in status, of officers	R v Industrial Court of South Australia; Ex parte District Council of Karoonda East Murray (1980) 24 SASR 117 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held, an applicant dismissed by a recently amalgamated Council, having worked for one of the Councils prior to amalgamation, had worked more than twelve months for a council. Therefore, the dismissed employee had a right of appeal or review under the Local Government Act and the Industrial Court had no jurisdiction to hear his application.

		Moreland v Burra Burra District Council (1984) 51 SAIR 343 (SA Indus Ct): By virtue of s 109 of the Commonwealth Constitution Pts IXA and IXAA were invalid insofar as being inconsistent with a Federal award.
Part XXII	Squares, Parklands and Reserves	City of Burnside v Attorney-General of South Australia (1992) 75 LGRA 145 (SA Sup Ct Debelle J): Held, the Local Government Act impliedly prohibits the sale of parklands and is not repealed by the Trustee Act. The Court cannot under s 69b of the Trustee Act authorise what the Local Government Act forbids.
Parking Regulations 1981
reg 3	Parking control by councils	Howie v Scheer (No. 4) (1986) 61 LGRA 44 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J): Meaning of "temporary" parking control discussed. It was only an offence to park in a part-time bus zone which was appropriately marked as such. Regs. 3 and 4 do permit the specifying of different parking restrictions at different times for the one area.
reg 4	Parking control by councils	Howie v Scheer (No. 4) (1986) 61 LGRA 44 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J): Discussion of the means of specifying designated parking control areas in relation to the Parking Regulations.
reg 8	Offences	Howie v Scheer (No. 2) (1986) 59 LGRA 360 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): The effect of reg 8 was that no-one can be said to be in a prohibited area unless signs or road markings are there. Howie v Scheer (No. 4) (1986) 61 LGRA 44: see regs 3 and 4. Ridgwell v Scheer (1986) 61 LGRA 66 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J) Appeal: In the absence of specification of the regulated time contrary to which an offence of parking at an expired meter was alleged to have occurred as conclusive evidence under the Local Government Act, no offence was proved. Howie v Foulkes (1986) 61 LGRA 112 (SA Sup Ct White J) Appeal: Reg 8(16) did not require a sign to be placed at each end of a bus zone. One sign and road markings or one or more signs would be sufficient to denote a bus zone. Lindner v Scheer (1986) 61 LGRA 137 (SA Sup Ct Von Doussa J): "Applicable" in reg 8(1) meant clearly relating to the area or zone in question. Snodgrass v Kuhr (1986) 42 SASR 477 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): A "no standing" sign meant that a motorist could not stop his vehicle in a "no standing" area, even for a moment. Howie v Sutcliffe (1988) 65 LGRA 110; 6 MVR 331 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): Reg 8 of the Parking Regulations imposes a strict, not an absolute liability. Therefore, the defences of honest and reasonable mistake of fact and act of a stranger are available to a defendant.
reg 13	Exemptions	Scheer v Smith (1986) 42 SASR 290; 61 LGRA 10 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): Meaning of the expression "principally constructed" in order to determine whether a vehicle qualified for exempt parking in a loading zone, considered.
reg 29	Signs/road markings	Howie v Scheer (No. 4) (1986) 61 LGRA 44: see regs 3 and 4.
Sched 3		Howie v Foulkes (1986) 61 LGRA 112: see reg 8. Howie v Scheer (No. 4) (1986) 61 LGRA 44: see regs 3 and 4.

s 19	Costs	Beard v Wilde (1985) 41 SASR 226 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from the Medical Board of South Australia: Held, The provisions of s 10 of the Medical Practitioners Act do not cut down the general provisions of s 19 and prevent the Board from making an order for costs against the Registrar of the Board (if he lays the complaint). The Act does not contemplate that such costs should be paid personally by the Registrar. Fung v Wilde (1986) 41 SASR 232 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, a decision of the Medical Board that each party to the proceedings should bear its own cost was "an order against a party to the proceedings" within the meaning of s 19, and accordingly an appeal lay to the Supreme Court against that order. s 26	Professional misconduct	In re Phillips (1978) 18 SASR 44 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held, a medical practitioner found guilty of offences against the Health Insurance Act (Cth) was also guilty of "serious misconduct in a professional respect" within the meaning of s 26 of the Act. In re Jennings (1980) 23 SASR 318 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: It is only in an unusual case that the Supreme Court will refuse to order the removal, from the register of medical practitioners, of the name of a medical practitioner who has been found guilty of a misdemeanour.
s 50	Inquiries by the Medical Board as to a medical practitioner's competency	Chan v Medical Board of South Australia (1986) 41 SASR 434 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, proceedings taken under s 50 by the Board do not preclude the same conduct from being investigated in proceedings taken under s 58 of the Act. s 58	Inquiries by the Tribunal as to unprofessional conduct	Chan v Medical Board of South Australia (1986) 41 SASR 434 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Comments as to the correct procedure to be followed by the Tribunal making an inquiry under s 58: affirmation of White J's opinion in Medical Board v Marzola (1985) 39 SASR 429, that experts conducting the Tribunal inquiry are not to substitute their expert knowledge for evidence, and if this occurs, the Tribunal inquiry will miscarry, as it did in Chan's case. s 61	Provisions as to enquiries	R v Medical Practitioners Professional Conduct Tribunal; Ex parte Medical Board (1985) 40 SASR 84 (SA Sup Ct FC) Certiorari and mandamus: Held, the Tribunal had failed to comply with its duty under s 61(1) to afford parties a reasonable opportunity to make submissions to it by dismissing the complaint without hearing submissions from the Board's counsel.

s 66	Appeal to the Supreme Court	Chan v Medical Board of South Australia (1986) 41 SASR 434 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Comments on remedies to an appeal to the Supreme Court brought under s 66 from a decision of the Tribunal on unprofessional conduct.

s 16	Vesting in the Crown of all minerals in the State	Emerald Quarry Industries Pty Ltd v Crown Commissioner of Highways (1976) 14 SASR 486 (SA Sup Ct FC): The rights which the claimant possessed were those which he would have had if a declaration had been made that the land was private land. Such rights however, were extinguished upon publication of the notice of acquisition.
s 19	Exemption provisions - declaration of a private mine	Emerald Quarry Industries Pty Ltd v Crown Commissioner of Highways (1976): see s 16.
s 65	Powers etc., of the Warden's Court	Georgiev v Tanfara (1976) 13 SASR 306 (SA Sup Ct FC) Point of law: Held, the rights of the owner of a precious stones claim and those who worked the claim with him, being in personam rights only, gave the Warden no power to order a transfer of part of the claim. Carr v Simnovec (1980) 26 SASR 263 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Warden's Court: Held, the Supreme Court had power to extend the time for service of the notice of appeal upon the respondent. Dusffy v Farkas: see s 67.
s 67	Jurisdiction of Warden's Court	Georgiev v Tanfara (1976): see s 65. Dusffy v Farkas (1980) 26 SASR 346 Appeal from Warden's Court: Jurisdiction of Warden's Court to award aggravated or exemplary damages, considered and discussed. Observations as to the burden of proof and the assessment of damages in a claim arising from wrongful extraction of mineral from a mining claim, where those minerals have been intermingled with other minerals.

s 69	Forfeiture of claim	Pasinok v Merrill (1992) 57 SASR 566 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, when determining whether a matter is of sufficient gravity to justify the forfeiture of a claim within s 69 the matters to be considered go beyond the proven breach and include the matters leading up to it, the conduct of the parties and the consequences of the breach.
s 70	Forfeiture of mining lease	De Blaquiere v Reid (1980) 24 SASR 475 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal from order of Mining Warden: Held, a lessee's failure to comply with regulations requiring the marking of boundaries, was a matter of sufficient gravity to justify the making of an order for forfeiture of the lease.
s 74	Powers of Minister in relation to persons mining or prospecting on mineral land	Solar v Payne (1984) 37 SASR 221 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): The Minister, when prohibiting a miner from entering or remaining upon a precious stones field pursuant to s 74(3), must observe the rules of natural justice.

s 5	Interpretation	Elliott v Hentschke (1984) 36 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): "Place commonly used by the public": sandhills were capable of being a place. "Road, street or thoroughfare": held that motor cycle tracks in sandhills were not a "road", "street" or "thoroughfare" within the meaning of para (a) of the definition.
		Nominal Defendant v Merritt: see s 116.
s 7	Appointment of Registrar and officers, etc.	Scotts Transport Industries v Boys: see s 140.
s 9	Duty to register	Franklin v Stacey: see s 102.
		Williams v Urie (1984) 36 SASR 173 (SA Sup Ct (In Banco) King CJ, Zelling and White JJ) Appeal from order of Cox J: Person in driver's seat of towed vehicle held to be "driving" the vehicle. s 12	Exemption of farmer's tractors and implements	McIntyre v Nominal Defendant: see s 116.
s 33	Vehicles registered for interstate trade	Scotts Transport Industries Pty Ltd v Bassell (1986) 83 FLR 392 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J) Appeal: The reduced registration fee offered for vehicles which are to be used exclusively for interstate trade as well as words to the effect on the registration form amounts clearly to an undertaking that the vehicle would not be used in any other way.

s 66	Use of general traders plates	Daire v O'Malley (1986) 41 SASR 583; 4 MVR 51 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: The obligation to prove that a general trader's plate was not being used for an authorized use within s 66(2), rests with the prosecutor.
s 88	Suspension of licence of person suffering from disease or disability	Registrar of Motor Vehicles (SA) v Badoui (1985) 2 MVR 255 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J) Appeal: Held, that the principles set out in Harmdorf v Riddle (1971) SASR 398 apply to an order for costs under s 88(4).
s 91	Effect of suspension and disqualification	Davis v Bates (1986) 43 SASR 149 (SA Sup Ct (In Banco) King CJ, Mohr and Von Doussa JJ) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: The offence of driving whilst suspended or disqualified is a strict liability offence. Therefore, the defence of honest and reasonable belief was open to the defendant. Lamshed v Rigney (1987) 48 SASR 320 (SA Sup Ct Von Doussa J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, it was open to the magistrate to dismiss a charge against s 91 at the close of the prosecution case if he considered the evidence from the prosecution witnesses as to identity to be so lacking in weight and reliability that no reasonable tribunal could safely convict.
s 98b	Points demerit scheme	Shillabeer v Linnane (1979) 22 SASR 382 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The fact that a person convicted of an offence is likely to suffer disqualification is not of itself "proper cause" for not recording or reducing the number of demerit points. Hepworth v Rowbottom (1979) 22 SASR 394 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, that "proper cause" specified in s 98b (10) must relate to the circumstances of the offence itself. The fact that it will cause hardship to a convicted person is not in itself a "proper cause". Richards v Binnekamp (1983) 32 SASR 133 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: Principles under which a court should act in not deducting points for a "trifling" offence, considered and discussed. Poole-Blunden v Registrar of Motor Vehicles (1984) 34 SASR 591 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from Local Court: No right of appeal exists to the Supreme Court from a local court against a notice of disqualification from holding or obtaining a driver's licence from the Registrar of Motor Vehicles, served upon someone who has twelve or more demerit points awarded against them. McCade v Chandler (1984) 37 SASR 477 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: Meaning of, and the effect to be given to the expression "proper cause" considered and discussed, in light of whether it requires the court to consider hardship or the nature of the offence. Wojtasik v Newton (1988) 40 A Crim R 339 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J): Held, there was no proper cause for favouring an application under s 98b(10) where the offence involved exceeding the speed limit of 100 km/h by driving at 140 km/h. Newton v Larcombe (1989) 38 A Crim R 254 (SA Sup Ct White J): "Proper cause" within s 98b(10) referred to the circumstances of the particular offence and did not, of itself, encompass hardship resulting from points penalties.
s 98md	Only persons directed by police to proceed to or be present at scene of accident for purposes related to removal, wrecking or repair	Collett v Hitchcock (1986) 42 SASR 494; 4 MVR 201 (SA Sup Ct FC): An employee of a tow truck company, though off duty, was found to be unlawfully present at an accident because he made a telephone call to his employer while at the scene of the accident. s 102	Duty to insure against third party risks	Boyd v Rowbottom (1976) 13 SASR 264 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: The meaning of the term "special reasons" within s 102, considered and discussed. Edwards v Wylie (1976) 14 SASR 268 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that a defendant who had difficulty in getting to work because he was disqualified from holding a licence did not possess "special reasons" sufficient to reduce the minimum period of his disqualification.

Stoakes v French (1979) 20 SASR 258 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The fact that the defendant only drove the vehicle for about one kilometre for the purpose of testing it and because he would suffer hardship from the disqualification, constituted "special reasons" within the meaning of s 102.

Irving v French (1979) 21 SASR 437 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Where a defendant charged with the offence of driving an uninsured vehicle is not represented by counsel the court should inform the defendant of the provision in that section for reduction for special reasons of the minimum period of disqualification from holding a driver's licence.

Smith v Bates (1980) 25 SASR 362 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that s 102 did not offend against s 92 of the Constitution.

Franklin v Stacey (1981) 27 SASR 49 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Sections 9 and 102 impose strict liability for driving an unregistered and uninsured motor vehicle.

Saturno v Dunsmore (1981) 28 SASR 4 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Observations as to the weight to be given to "special reasons" in reducing the minimum period of disqualification prescribed by s 102.

Binnekamp v Keepes; Keepes v Binnekamp (1983) 32 SASR 255 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeals from court of summary jurisdiction: The period of disqualification prescribed by s 102 must run over consecutive months, ie, it cannot run over separate periods.

Barwick v Crichton (1983) 36 SASR 142 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: For the court to reduce the obligatory disqualification period on a conviction of driving an uninsured motor vehicle for "special reasons" under s 102, requires the defendant to satisfy the court that the particular case is extraordinary or atypical. One way is to show a mistaken but reasonable belief that the vehicle was insured.

Schulz v Mill (1984) 37 SASR 41 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: Borrowing a fork-lift truck (seldom driven on roads), and driving it without the knowledge that it was uninsured and unregistered, constituted "special reasons" and justified mitigation. Hardship due to inability to operate one's own business also a mitigating factor.

Dunsmore v Harvey (1985) 38 SASR 383 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: Evidence that an employer bore the burden to register and insure a vehicle along with evidence that the driver would suffer hardship due to loss of licence was a "special reason". This, however, was no reason for imposing a period of disqualification amounting to no disqualification.

Hayes v Chandler (1986) 40 SASR 341 (SA Sup Ct Prior J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: That the appellant, who was a citizen of the United States, had taken out private insurance, honestly believing that this satisfied the requirements of SA law, was not a "special reason" as he had not acted reasonably in failing, for 12 months, to make any inquiry.

Sullivan v Hillman (1986) 43 SASR 181 (SA Sup Ct Von Doussa J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The isolated use of an unregistered and uninsured motor vehicle in an emergency was a matter which due to the level of hardship warranted a reduction in the period of disqualification because it constituted a "special reason".

Milisits v Dunsmore (1988) 6 MVR 485 (SA Sup Ct Von Doussa J) Appeal: Loss of goodwill and expense to the plaintiff's businesses did not constitute a "special reason" to reduce the period of her licence disqualification.

		Semple v Doyle (1988) 48 SASR 357; 8 MVR 34 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, a woman convicted of having driven an unregistered and uninsured vehicle had "special reason" for a reduction of the minimum period of disqualification because she was driving her husband's car, which she rarely drove, and for which he was responsible for registering. Applications pursuant to s 102(2)(a) involved findings of fact and the exercise of judicial discretion, so that there were not, and could not be any closed category of circumstance which fell within or without the statutory provision.
		McIntyre v Nominal Defendant: see s 116.
		Hamed v Higgins (1989) 10 MVR 235 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Held, inadvertent driving after failure to receive a registration renewal notice does not amount to a "special reason" within s 102(2). s 104	"All liability"	Norwich Winterthur Insurance (Aust) Ltd v SGIC (1991) 6 ANZ Insurance Cases 77, 027 (SA Sup Ct FC): Interpretation of "all liability" in s 104; also considered liability to pay compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act (SA).
s 113	Liability of insurer where the insured is dead or cannot be found	Carslake v Guardian Assurance Company (1977) 15 SASR 378 Appeal from Local Ct: The nature of the cause of action pursuant to s 113, and the time limits applicable to the commencement of such actions, considered and discussed.
s 115	Claims against nominal defendant where vehicle not identified	Freeman v Griffiths (1976) 13 SASR 494 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Local Ct: In actions under s 115 where there is no corroboration of the plaintiff's account of the accident, there should be a more cautious approach by the Court than in ordinary actions for negligence where evidence is available.
		Griffiths v McNicol (1977) 15 SASR 419 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Local Ct: Meaning of the requirement that sufficient notice be given to Minister, considered and discussed.
		Plesa v Griffiths (1977) 15 SASR 434 Action: Application of the term "due inquiry and search" in s 115, considered and discussed.
		Anderson v Haskins (1989) 8 MVR 425 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J): In an action for proceedings against the "nominal defendant", the correct procedure is to name defendant as "the nominal defendant".
		Panopoulos v Nominal Defendant (1990) 53 SASR 491 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, that the identity of a vehicle should be regarded as ascertained for the purposes of s 115, if a reasonable person acquainted with the known facts and circumstances would conclude that more likely than not, a given vehicle was the vehicle concerned.
s 116	Claim against nominal defendant where vehicle uninsured	Nominal Defendant v Merritt (1988) 48 SASR 278 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from District Court: Held, that the extended definition of "road" in s 5(1) applied to a claim under s 116(2) and the words "any other place commonly used by the public" were not to be read down.
		Nominal Defendant (SA) v Merritt (1988) 5 ANZ Insurance Cases 75, 411 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: A public reserve commonly used by the public including children and persons using trail bikes was a "road" within the meaning of the Act, thus the nominal defendant was liable to pay damages.
		McIntyre v Nominal Defendant (1989) 50 SASR 518; 9 MVR 29 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): No motor vehicle had to be insured unless it was driven on a road, pursuant to s 102. Even then, in the case of a farm tractor, it did not have to be insured if it was driven on a road pursuant to s 12(2). When, but only when, it was not being so driven would it be within s 116, requiring it to be covered by a policy of insurance.
s 124	Notice of accident or claim	State Government Insurance Commission (SA) v Paneros (1988) 43 SASR 349; 5 ANZ Insurance Cases 75, 369 (SA Sup Ct Lunn AJ) Interlocutory application: The statutory duty to disclose in s 124 should not prevail over an equitable duty of confidence or legal professional privilege. See s 125.
s 124a	Recovery by the insurer	SGIC v Whyatt (1984) 37 SASR 454 (SA Sup Ct (In Banco) Zelling, Jacobs and Millhouse JJ): Driving whilst under the influence of alcohol constitutes a breach of a term of the policy of insurance pursuant to s 124a.
		SGIC v Paneros: see s 125.

s 125	Power of insurer to deal with claims against insured	SGIC v Paneros (1988) 48 SASR 349; 5 ANZ Insurance Cases 75, 369 (SA Sup Ct Lunn AJ): Where solicitors employed by the insurer undertake to conduct the defence of an action, a solicitor client relationship between the insured and the solicitors arises, not out of contract but created by the Act. Thus legal professional privilege attached to information provided by the insured person under s 124, preventing its use in subsequent proceedings pursuant to s 124a.
s 127	Medical examination of claimants	Wilson and Cutovic v Cutovic (1979) 23 SASR 77 (SA Sup Ct FC): A request pursuant to s 127(1) must be a reasonable request. What is reasonable is a question of fact in every case. s 133	Contracting out of liability for negligence	K & S Lake City Freighters Pty Ltd v Gordon & Gotch Ltd (1985) 59 ALJR 658; 60 ALR 509 (High Court of Aust, Appeal from SA Sup Ct): Question whether s 133 applied to a contract for the carriage of goods or whether it was confined by its context to cases of death or bodily injury. Held, s 133 was to be construed in its plain and ordinary meaning and thus did extend to cover damage to goods. Gordon & Gotch Ltd v K & S Lake City Freighters Pty Ltd (1984) 37 SASR 50 affd.
s 140	Evidence of registers	Scotts Transport Industries v Boys (1978) 18 SASR 537 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J): Held, that a document purporting to be an extract from an entry contained in the register of motor vehicles but not signed by someone authorized to do so, was not admissible as evidence.
s 143	Causing or permitting offences	Williams v Urie: see s 9.
		Collett v Bennett (1986) 40 SASR 426 (SA Sup Ct (In Banco) Zelling, Jacobs and Millhouse J) On appeal from Sup Ct Legoe J: Not knowing that a vehicle is unregistered and uninsured does not constitute an honest and reasonable albeit mistaken belief to the contrary.
Fourth schedule		Dawson v Stevens Bros Pty Ltd (1983) 34 SASR 338: Affirmed.
		SGIC v Laube (1984) 37 SASR 31 (SA Sup Ct (In Banco) King CJ, Millhouse and Prior JJ) Appeal from District Court: The mere proof of a blood alcohol level and the fact that most persons with such a level would be incapable of exercising effective control of a motor vehicle was not sufficient to prove that the insured was so much under the influence of intoxicating liquor as to be incapable of exercising effective control of the vehicle within the meaning of the Fourth Schedule.
		SGIC v Stevens Bros Pty ltd (1984) 52 ALR 441 (High Court of Aust) Appeal: Held, injuries sustained whilst unloading a compressor from a stationary truck arose out of the use of a motor vehicle, namely the compressor as if it was a "motor vehicle" within the meaning of the Act and it was being used in a manner for which it was designed.
		Muegel v Fast Freight Pty Ltd (1987) Aust Torts Reports 68, 483 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J) First instance decision: Injuries sustained whilst loading a tray top truck were injuries "arising out of the use of" the truck within para 1 of the Fourth Schedule.
		SGIC v Sweeny (1989) 6 ANZ Insurance Cases 76, 231 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, a passenger who grabbed the steering wheel of a car, causing an accident was driving the motor vehicle at the time of the accident.

s 2	Date of operation by proclamation	LeCornu Furniture & Carpet Centre Pty Ltd v Parsons (1990) 54 SASR 108 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that s 2(1) resulted in the unsuspended provisions coming into operation when first proclaimed and the specified suspended provisions coming into operation when later proclaimed, which then allowed for the operation of s 14c of the Acts Interpretation Act 1915.
s 19	Duty of employers	Arrowcrest Group Pty Ltd v Stevenson (1990) 57 SAIR 368 (SA Indus Ct): Held: 1. Occurrence of injury is not an element or ingredient of an offence under s 19(2). 2. The issue under s 19(1) is whether in the particular circumstances the employer has ensured so far as reasonably practicable that an employee is safe from injury. Bartos v CSR Ltd (1990) 57 SAIR 479 (SA Indus Ct): The employer's duty, in s 19, to maintain a safe working environment extended to all employees, even those who behaved in a negligent manner, except those who behaved in such a reckless manner that their actions could not have been foreseen by a reasonable employer. Stevenson v Broken Hill Associated Smelters Pty Ltd (1991) 58 SAIR 108 (SA Indus Ct): Held, mens rea was not an element of an offence alleging a breach of s 19. The objective test in the section displaced the common law presumption of mens rea. The honest and reasonable mistake defence was already incorporated in the section by the objective test applied to the employer. Pipemech Services Pty Ltd v Stevenson (1991) 58 SAIR 299 (SA Indus Ct): Relevant considerations as to whether or not a penalty imposed by an Industrial Magistrate was manifestly excessive. Stevenson v Evans Deakin Industries Ltd: see s 21.
s 21	Duty of employee to take reasonable care to protect own safety	Stevenson v Minnican (1990) 57 SAIR 507 (SA Indus Ct): An implied threat of dismissal, which led a worker to breach s 21(1)(a), was insufficient to displace the worker's paramount duty to ensure his/her own safety.
	Duties of workers	Stevenson v Evans Deakin Industries Ltd (1992) 59 SAIR 441 (SA Indus Ct): Held: 1. The offence created by s 19(1) is one of negligence. 2. The offence created by reg 16 is one of strict liability. 3. The fact that a leading hand has been convicted of an offence under s 21(1)(b) is no bar to proceedings against the employer under s 19(1).
s 64	Evidentiary provision	Stevenson v Menzel Plastic Traders Pty Ltd (1990) 57 SAIR 493 (SA Indus Ct): Re: the duty of an employer to give written notice of a notifiable work related injury after it became apparent under regulations 4 and 7 of the Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare (Notification of Work Related Injuries, Accidents and Dangerous Occurrences) Regulations, 1987. The presumption in s 64 could not apply where there was no evidence that the relevant injury had become apparent to the employer within the relevant time. s 69	Regulations	Dynamic Cleaning Services v Director Department of Labour (1992) 59 SAIR 360 (SA Indus Ct): Held, the appeal provided by s 69(4)(a) is a hearing de novo.

s 3	Application of law of State to off-shore waters	A. Raptos & Son v South Australia (1977) 138 CLR 347 (High Court of Aust): Determination of South Australia's territorial limits (particularly with respect of Investigator Strait), as described by Imperial legislation and letters patent, for the purposes of the Fisheries Act, 1952 (Cth).

Okmasich v Evans (1980) 25 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct White J) Appeals from court of summary jurisdiction. The South Australian Parliament has power to enact such laws with respect to fishing in off-shore waters, as may be necessary for the peace, order and good government of South Australia, and are not limited in their application to waters within the "Raptis line".

s 18	Revocation of continuing guarantee by change in firm	Re Rogers; Ex Parte CMV Parts Distributors Pty Ltd (1989) 20 FCR 561 (Fed Ct of Aust von Doussa J): Held, a group of companies can carry on business in a State together, and in association, under a business name without necessarily being a partnership. The CMV Group was not a partnership and accordingly the guarantees were not affected by s 18.
s 21	Property bought with partnership money	Kelly v Kelly (1990) 64 ALJR 234 (High Court): Payment by a partnership of the annual fees for an authority to fish for abalone did not raise a presumption that the authority was bought on account of the firm within the meaning of s 21.
s 44	Rule for distribution of assets on final settlement of accounts	Remen Nominees Pty Ltd v Scaffidi (1980) 23 SASR 258 (SA Sup Ct Williams AJ) Appeal from order of Master: Held, it was premature for the Court to order the partners to contribute prior to the final accounts of the partnership being completed.

s 19	Unauthorized entry on the lands	Gerhardy v Brown (1983) 34 SASR 452; 49 ALR 169 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: Held, s 19(1) was inconsistent with s 9 of the Racial Discrimination Act 1975 (Cth) rendering it inoperative and invalid. Gerhardy v Brown (1985) 57 ALR 472 (High Court FC) On appeal from SA Sup Ct: Held, s 19 was not invalid or restricted in its operation by the Racial Discrimination Act, 1975 (Cth) because it was a "special measure" within the meaning of s 8(1) of the Racial Discrimination Act and Art 1(4) of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination. Consideration of the validity of the State Act had it not been held that it was a special measure.

Act		Remove All Rubbish Co Ltd v Munno Para City Council (1991) 73 LGRA 258 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held by majority, there is no power either express or implied in the Planning Act to vary a condition of a planning consent which is an integral part of that consent. A further separate planning consent is required to accommodate the proposed change. s 4	Interpretations	Riceman v District Council of Port Elliot and Goolwa (1983) 7 APA 249 Planning Appeal: Held, "permit" in the definition of "to undertake" should be read as and with the word "suffer". R v Hindmarsh Town Corporation; Ex parte Stevens (1984) 37 SASR 388 (SA Sup Ct FC) Certiorari and prohibition: A council who consented to convey land to a developer had "proposed to undertake the development" within the meaning of ss 4 and 8 of the Act. The relevant planning authority was therefore the State Planning Commission and the Council had no jurisdiction to grant consent for the proposal.

		Heilmann v City of Henley and Grange (No. 1) (1984) 15 APA 121. SA Planning Appeal Tribunal. Preliminary point of law: "To commence" in s 4(1) means to begin, to enter upon. Hubbards Pty Ltd v City of Enfield (1986) 25 APA 1: The submission to a local authority of plans for internal alterations to a building was not an admission that they would amount to "development". Corporation of the City of Noarlunga v Fraser (1986) 42 SASR 450; 61 LGRA 324 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the construction of a yacht in a back yard was not the erection or construction of a building, or reasonably incidental thereto, within the meaning of s 4. R v City of Burnside; Ex parte Ipswich Properties Pty Ltd (1987) 46 SASR 81; 52 LGRA 216 (SA Sup Ct FC) Certiorari: Landscaping of a footpath did not constitute a "development" as defined in s 4 of the Act. Leeming v City of Port Adelaide: see s 4a. Hubbards Pty Ltd v City of Enfield (No. 2) (1987) 29 APA 181 SA Planning Appeal Tribunal. Preliminary point of law: In considering whether a proposal constitutes a change of use, the character of the existing use and of the contemplated use must be ascertained by reference to the circumstances as a whole. Richman v South Australian Planning Commission (1988) 31 APA 288 (SA Planning Appeal Tribunal) Planning Appeal: It is inappropriate to interpret the development plan as if it were a statutory instrument. Therefore the statutory definitions in s 4 cannot be simply applied to similar terms in the development plan. Mount v South Australian Planning Commission (1987) 32 APA 161 SA Planning Appeal Tribunal. Preliminary question of law: Meaning of term "development", considered and discussed. Australian Posters Pty Ltd v City of Unley (1988) 33 APA 274 (SA Planning Appeal Tribunal): The scope of the definition of "advertisement", considered. Munno Para District Council v Battersby (1988) 66 LGRA 17 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that as an act of "proceeding with" a change of use of land was to be taken as continuing until terminated, it could, depending on the facts, constitute a continuing event for the purposes of proceedings under s 6 of the Act. s 4a	Discontinuance	Leeming v City of Port Adelaide (1987) 45 SASR 506; 62 LGRA 296 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: The concepts of discontinuance and non-use are different. "Discontinuance" denoted the termination of a use. s 5	Planning Appeal Board decisions	Consumer Supermarket Pty Ltd v City of Marion (1982) 4 APA 40 Planning Appeal: Held, that an appeal which commenced in pursuance of the repealed Act was preserved by s 5(2)(b) of the new Act. s 7	Extent to which the Crown is bound by this Act	Australian Conservation Foundation Inc. v South Australia (1990) 53 SASR 349 (SA Sup Ct FC): Once a plan of management for a reserve under the National Parks and Wildlife Act is adopted, the combined effect of s 7(3) of the Planning Act and reg 59(e) of the Development Control Regulations is that any proposed development therein ceases to be subject to the provisions of s 7 of the Planning Act. s 8	Councils bound by this Act	R v Hindmarsh Town Corporation; Ex parte Stevens (1984) 37 SASR 388 (SA Sup Ct FC) Certiorari and prohibition: By transferring a parcel of land to the developer a council will suffer and permit the development and will become an undertaker of the development, within the meaning of s 8. R v Corporation of the City of Marion; Ex parte Independent Grocer's Co-operative Ltd. (1984) 37 SASR 415 (SA Sup Ct FC) Certiorari: Held, that by transferring land to a developer the council became a developer, within the meaning of s 8, and therefore could not be the relevant authority to grant consent. R v City of Burnside; Ex parte Ipswich Properties Pty Ltd (1987) 46 SASR 81; 62 LGRA 216 (SA Sup Ct FC) Certiorari: The fact that planning permission granted by the local planning authority provided for landscaping of a public footpath did not mean the authority was proposing to "undertake development" within the meaning of s 8.

		Courtney Hill Pty Ltd v Gawler Town Corporation; Consulere Pty Ltd (Intervening) (1988) 49 SASR 529; 66 LGRA 1 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Section 8 could not be read as exclusively defining the limits within which a council was required to observe the rules of natural justice on a planning application so as to exclude the common law rules of natural justice as to disqualification and bias.
s 25	Constitution of the Tribunal when hearing proceedings	Kalyvas v City of Unley (1987) 63 LGRA 310 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): A planning appeal heard by a judge or sole commissioner in consequence of the Planning Act Amendment Act (No. 2) 1986 was still a hearing de novo to which the provisions of s 54 of the Planning Act 1982 applied.
s 27	Conference of parties to proceedings	Jan Kovski v City of Marion (1983) 29 APA 443: Powers of the tribunal to make orders following a compulsory conference of the parties, considered and discussed. Harrison v City of Campbelltown (1984) 11 APA 203 Planning Appeal: If agreement is reached at a compulsory conference, it binds all parties.
s 28	Principles governing hearings	Russell v State Planning Commission (1984) 53 LGRA 403 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Planning Appeal: Section 28(c) may extend beyond procedural matters. Remove All Rubbish Co. Pty Ltd v District Council of Munno Para (1985) 15 APA 326: To apply a prohibition in a supplementary development plan before it came into force would be to deny the appellant equity and justice contrary to the Planning Act 1982. Takhar v District Council of Light (1985) 17 APA 459. SA Planning Appeal Tribunal. Planning Appeal: Although the Planning Appeal Tribunal is not bound by the rules of evidence, this does not mean it is to ignore them.
s 30	Joinder of parties	Petroleum Refineries (Aust) Pty Ltd v Archer Boulton Pty Ltd (1991) 72 LGRA 355 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, that the discretionary power of the Planning Appeal Tribunal under s 30 to join a person with a bona fide interest as a party to the proceedings before it, is not to be read down by the presence or operation of reg 38 of the Development Control Regulations 1982 (SA) which exempts the council from giving notice of development of a minor nature unlikely to be the subject of reasonable objections.
s 31	Costs	Henderson v Town of St Peters (1986) 23 APA 266 SA Planning Appeal Tribunal. Application for costs: Section 31(1) requires that costs should be awarded only if the Planning Appeal Tribunal considers the proceedings to be frivolous or vexatious, or instituted for the purpose of delay or obstruction.
s 34	Appeals and cases stated	Baily v South Australian Planning Commission (1986) 58 LGRA 355 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): The right of appeal is limited to a determination or decision which disposed of proceedings before the tribunal. It does not extend to a mere ruling in the course of proceedings. Wylie v McNiel (1986) 42 SASR 537 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Planning Appeal Tribunal: Held, a grant of leave to appeal by the Planning Appeal Tribunal "was not a determination or decision" of the tribunal within the meaning of s 34(1). Such appeal was therefore incompetent. Leeming v Port Adelaide City Corporation (1987) 44 SASR 131 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal: Held, an appeal from the Planning Appeal Tribunal against a finding of the Tribunal is not competent where that finding was not a part of or necessary to the determination or decision of the Tribunal. Farrow v South Australian Planning Commission (1988) 66 LGRA 92 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that an appeal from the Planning Appeal Tribunal to the Land and Valuation Court, though not confined to questions of law, was not a hearing de novo. Petroleum Refineries (Aust) Pty Ltd v Archer Boulton Pty Ltd: see s 35.
s 35	General powers of the Tribunal and the Land and Valuation Court with respect to appeals	McNeil v South Australian Planning Commission (1984) 12 APA 384. Point of law: Section 35(1) does not empower the Tribunal to cure an irregularity by dispensing with a requirement in the pre-curial process.

		Lobb v City of Woodville (1986) 21 APA 279 SA Planning Appeal Tribunal. Planning Appeal: Failure to comply with regulations which direct a planning authority not to determine a development application within 28 days of it being forwarded to the Commissioner for consideration could be excused under s 35, as it would not be unjust or inequitable to do so. R v South Australian Planning Commission; Ex parte Unley City Corporation (1986) 44 SASR 100 (SA Sup Ct FC) Certiorari: Section 35(1) of the Act is procedural and may operate both prospectively and retrospectively. Kammerman v South Australian Planning Commission (1986) 42 SASR 394; 61 LGRA 99 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from Planning Appeal Tribunal: Held, that s 35(1) gave the Planning Appeal Tribunal power to dispense with the requirement that notice of appeal from a decision must be given within twenty-one days of the decision. District Council of Willunga v Riches (1987) 62 LGRA 132 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): The power of the Planning Appeal Tribunal to "reverse" a "decision" by a planning authority was wide enough to authorize it to set aside or revoke an unlawful planning decision. Ward v South Australian Planning Commission (1988) 53 SASR 265 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): It appeared that s 35(1) of the Act did not enable the Court to dispense with compliance with s 47(2)(b)(ii). Clothier v South Australian Planning Commission (1989) 68 LGRA 365 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, that the Planning Appeal Tribunal had properly exercised its powers under s 35 in refusing to excuse non-compliance with the prescribed time limits for the lodging of an objector/representor appeal, where there was no legitimate planning objection to the proposal. Tobin Pty Ltd v South Australian Planning Commission (1989) 68 LGRA 372 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, that s 35(1) confers power on the Planning Appeal Tribunal to waive non-compliance with the statutory requirements of the Act whether the non-compliance relates to a mandatory or directory requirement, provided it would not be unjust or inequitable. Petroleum Refineries (Aust) Pty Ltd v Archer Boulton Pty Ltd (1991) 72 LGRA 355 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, that the right of appeal from the Planning Appeal Tribunal to the Supreme Court under ss 34 & 35 is a statutory right limited to parties to the proceedings before the Tribunal; it does not include persons improperly refused leave to be joined as parties in those proceedings. See reg 38.
s 36	Jurisdiction of the Court	R v Stevens; Ex parte Tip Top Dry Cleaners (1986) 43 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC) Certiorari: The meaning of the expression "if the Court is satisfied that the respondent has a case to answer", considered. Munno Para District Council v Battersby: see ss 4 and 37.
s 37	Commencement of proceedings	Munno Para District Council v Battersby (1988) 66 LGRA 17 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the District Court was empowered by s 36 to extend the time limit prescribed by s 37 for commencing proceedings for breaches of that Act. s 41	Amendments to the Development Plan	Sims v Planning Appeal Tribunal: see s 57.
s 42	Certain amendments may be made without preparation of supplementary development plan	Sims v Planning Appeal Tribunal: see s 57.
s 47	Conditions under which development may be undertaken	Brechin v District Council of Mallala (1983) 14 APA 210 SA Planning Appeal Tribunal. Planning Appeal: Taking into account a draft supplementary development plan would appear to be excluded by s 47(9) of the Planning Act 1982.

Hassen v Murray Bridge District Council (1984) 35 SASR 448 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal from Planning Appeal Tribunal: The general structure and operation of the Planning Act and what regard should be had to development plans when considering applications under the Act, considered and discussed.

Weeks v South Australian Planning Commission (1984) 53 LGRA 220 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, that s 47(9) required a planning authority to take into account and give due weight to, but not to be bound by, the development plan.

Russell v State Planning Commission (1984) 53 LGRA 403 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): The Tribunal must consider all relevant matters, not just the relevant provisions of the development plan. It may, for example, consider personal hardship.

Dorrestijn v South Australian Planning Commission (1984) 59 ALJR 105 (High Ct of Aust) Appeal from the Full Ct of the SA Sup Ct: Held, a clearance of land which did not include tall vegetation, constituted "development" for the purposes of s 47(1) of the Act. Consideration of the meaning and effect of s 47(3) of the Act.

Heilmann v City of Henley and Grange (No. 1) (1984) 15 APA 121. SA Planning Appeal Tribunal: A local authority in its capacity as local planning authority is not required to make any request of the Minister under s 47 of the Act.

Destino v Town of Hindmarsh (1984) 10 APA 415 SA Planning Appeal Tribunal. Preliminary point of law: Section 47(8) prevents appeals by disappointed applicants refused consent or concurrence, but has no effect on appeals by objectors.

Hoare v City of Unley (1985) 14 APA 323 SA Planning Appeal Tribunal. Application for leave to proceed: The removal of the right of appeal only applies where consent is sought for an otherwise prohibited development.

Walkerville Town Corporation v Adelaide Clinic Holdings Pty Ltd (1985) 38 SASR 161 (SA Sup Ct FC): The duty "to have regard to" the Development Plan is not a duty to give particular weight to any matters in the Plan; the only obligation is to have regard to the Plan.

South Australian Planning Commission v Watkins (1985) 41 SASR 161 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from Planning Appeal Tribunal: No right of appeal exists against refusal of consent to a prohibited development.

MacMahon Holdings Ltd v City of Unley (1986) 21 APA 375 SA Planning Appeal Tribunal Planning Appeal: Section 47(7) must be read down to conform with the purposes and structures of the Act.

R v City of Munno Para; Ex parte John Weeks Pty Ltd (1987) 46 SASR 400; 63 LGRA 197 Certiorari: An alleged serious departure from the development plan could be the basis for intervention only if it could be discerned plainly and objectively by the court without having to debate the merits of the planning proposal before it. See reg 29.

City of Unley v South Australian Planning Commission (No. 2) (1987) 27 APA 216 SA Planning Appeal Tribunal. Planning Appeal: Section 35(1) does not allow the tribunal to grant a right of appeal over and above that provided for in s 53.

Angoves Pty Ltd v District Council of Paringa (1987) 28 APA 262 SA Planning Appeal Tribunal. Planning Appeal: If a proposed development is seriously at variance with the development plan a planning authority cannot grant a valid planning permission.

Payneham and Dudley Park Cemeteries Trust Inc v Enfield City Corporation (1988) 65 LGRA 377: Held, that in considering whether a crematorium and chapel should be situated in a special uses zone, the local authority whilst obliged under s 47(9) to "have regard to" the development plan was nonetheless permitted to have regard to the character and amenity of the locality in which the proposed development was to be situated.

		Samels v Victor Harbor District Council (1988) 50 SASR 96; 67 LGRA 37 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, that under s 47(10) the obligation of a council to obtain and consider a report of the Commissioner for Highways before making a planning decision was mandatory. South Australia v Tanner (1989) 166 CLR 161; 63 ALJR 149; 67 LGRA 84; 83 ALR 631 (High Court): Held, there was no inconsistency between the provisions of the Waterworks Act and the Planning Act. Accordingly, a consent granted under s 47(6) did not operate to override prohibitions imposed by the Waterworks Act. Cape Jervis Developments Pty Ltd v Millar (1989) 69 LGRA 68 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, that where a proposed development is prohibited by the development plan, the development must, in applying the provisions of s 47(6), be subjected to the same tests under s 47(9) as any other proposed development. Courtney Hill Pty Ltd v SA Planning Commission (1990) 71 LGRA 49 (SA Sup Ct FC): Under s 47(9)(b), where a particular development is prohibited, the question for determination is whether the degree of variance can be characterised as serious within the meaning of the section, by reference to the development plan as a whole and the realities of the context in which the particular development will be implemented. Sections 56 and 41(14) do not preclude an examination of the reality of the proposal as an extension of a protected existing use, rather than a completely new development. Remove All Rubbish Co. Pty Ltd v Munno Para City Council (1990) 71 LGRA 333 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held: 1. Proposal to vary consent was not a change in use, therefore not "development" requiring consent under the Act. 2. Power to impose conditions should impliedly include a discretionary power to vary conditions, where variation sought is not itself "development" as defined. 3. Power to vary conditions resides in the planning authority which granted consent to the original developments and imposed the conditions. Cutajar (T/A Nova Motor Repairs) v Thebarton Town Corp (1991) 55 SASR 70 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Whether or not an established, but non-conforming use should be classified as prohibited, is a matter of degree. Proposed alterations within the character of the original use were not prohibited here.
s 48a	Development with air pollution potential	Skevington v District Council of Light (1985) 16 APA 116 SA Planning Appeal Tribunal. Preliminary point of law: The requirements for an application for planning permission for secondary impact development under s 48a(6), are mandatory.
s 50	Declaration that development subject to this Division	Rialto Estates Pty Ltd v South Australia: see s 51.
s 51	Consent of Governor required for certain forms of development	Rialto Estates Pty Ltd v South Australia (Nos. 1 & 2) (1989) 50 SASR 210; 67 LGRA 25 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, that on the proper construction of ss 50 & 51, the purpose of a declaration under s 50 was to remedy a situation in which the Governor was of opinion that existing control of major social, economic or environmental importance was inadequate.
s 52	Aggrieved applicant may appeal	Russell v South Australian Planning Commission (1983) 11 APA 89: The function of the Tribunal is to review the planning authority's decision to see whether it was properly made in consideration of the development plan, and whether in consideration of such matters, the authority made the correct decision according to law. Russell v State Planning Commission (1984) 53 LGRA 403 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): The hearing of an appeal by the Tribunal is a hearing de novo, and must consider all relevant matters. Wade v South Australian Planning Commission (1985) 15 APA 399: Under s 52(2), an appeal lies against the SA Planning Commission notwithstanding that a decision was originally that of local planning authority under delegated powers.
s 53	Third party appeals	Harris v City of Prospect (1983) 9 APA 259: For leave to be granted to appeal following a compulsory conference, there must be some planning reason upon which the Tribunal could be expected to deliberate and reach a conclusion which might be favourable to the appellant.

Nimmo v South Australian Planning Commission (1983) 9 APA 261: Held, the voluntary giving of notice (it not being required under s 53(1)) cannot confer rights of appeal. Accordingly, the appeals made regarding such an application for planning permission were incompetent.

Hassen v District Council of Murray Bridge and Onsoy (1984) 35 SASR 448 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal from Planning Appeal Tribunal: Third parties should only be granted leave to appeal where the Planning Appeal Tribunal is persuaded that the grounds for appeal have a general and public importance. Moreover, such a case must be reasonably arguable on the merits.

Heilmann v City of Unley and Grange (No. 1) (1984) 15 APA 121 SA Planning Appeal Tribunal. Preliminary points of law: Leave to appeal, once granted, cannot be recalled by the Tribunal.

R v Hindmarsh Town Corporation; Ex parte Stevens (1984) 37 SASR 388 (SA Sup Ct (In Banco) King CJ, Millhouse and Prior JJ) Certiorari and prohibition: Held, objectors to the development were entitled to appeal to the Planning Appeal Tribunal.

Rimington v City of West Torrens (1985) 39 SASR 481; 55 LGRA 70 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from Planning Appeal Tribunal: An applicant for leave to appeal must show that the grounds on which an appeal would be argued possess a general and public importance extending beyond the parties' immediate concern.

Hoare v City of Unley (1985) 14 APA 323 SA Planning Appeal Tribunal. Application for leave to proceed: An objector's right of appeal is not limited to cases of general and public importance. Such an appeal is not litigation over private rights, it is a public matter.

Department of Environment and Planning v District Council of Victor Harbour (1985) 15 APA 399 SA Planning Appeal Tribunal. Preliminary point of law: The Department of Environment and Planning, not being a person, has no right of appeal against the decision of a local planning authority.

Schulz v South Australian Planning Commission (1985) 58 LGRA 68 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal: In order to obtain leave to appeal to the Planning Appeal Tribunal under s 53(10), the Tribunal should be satisfied that the matter was of some general and public importance, and that the case was reasonably and properly arguable on the merits.

Indoor Cricket Arenas (SA) Pty Ltd v City of West Torrens (1986) 58 LGRA 78 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): On an application for leave to proceed with a planning appeal, the Planning Appeals Tribunal was not precluded from entertaining argument that went to the Tribunal's jurisdiction.

Commonwealth v District Council of Mallala (1986) 23 APA 422: In determining applications for leave to appeal by persons with objector status, factual material must necessarily be taken into account.

R v South Australian Planning Commission; Ex parte Unley City Corporation (1986) 44 SASR 100 (SA Sup Ct FC) Certiorari and appeal: Held, a Council's report was not a "representation" within the provisions of s 53.

Gaganis v City of Grange (1986) 32 APA 448 (SA Planning Appeal Tribunal): Third party rights of appeal are statutory rights only.

District Council of Willunga v Riches (1987) 62 LGRA 132 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): A planning decision made without the requisite notice remained valid unless set aside at the suit of a person having a legitimate interest to complain.

Farrow v South Australian Planning Commission (1988) 66 LGRA 92 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that an appeal from a planning authority to the Planning Appeal Tribunal pursuant to s 53 was an appeal de novo, on which that tribunal was required to exercise its own judgment on a matter before it.

		Samels v Victor Harbor District Council (1988) 50 SASR 96; 67 LGRA 37 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, where a proposed development was not required to be advertised pursuant to s 53 and there was accordingly no statutory right of objection by third parties, nevertheless because the particular planning decision was unlawful, a trade competitor and local residents had sufficient standing to seek judicial review of that decision.
		Australian Conservation Foundation v South Australia (1990) 53 SASR 349 (SA Sup Ct FC): Whilst the rights conferred by s 53 upon "any person" to make representations are conferred on all persons the threatened deprivation of statutory rights to make representations may amount to a special interest sufficient to make representations and perhaps appeal against an adverse decision.
		Bosbury Pty Ltd v Comgrigg Pty Ltd (1992) 74 LGRA 376 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): Held, that the provisions of s 53(9a) mean that the approval or consent is given but does not operate until certain periods of time elapse or certain events occur. Nothing in the Development Control Regulations, reg 47, operates to defer consent.
s 54	Powers of Tribunal when deciding appeal	Kalyvas v City of Unley (1987) 63 LGRA 310 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Appeal: A planning appeal heard by a judge or sole commissioner was a hearing de novo to which the provisions of s 54 applied.
		McAuliffe v South Australian Planning Commission (1988) 33 APA 221 (SA Planning Appeal Tribunal): The powers of the Planning Appeal Tribunal includes power to quash a decision unnecessarily obtained.
s 55	Advertisements	Middleton v City of Port Adelaide (1984) 9 APA 341 Planning Appeal: Though it possessed power to enforce an order without specifying anything regarding advertising signs, the enforcing authority was required to prove that the signs detracted from the amenity of the locality. Discussion of the amenity of a locality.
		Focus Video Pty Ltd v City of Enfield (1985) 55 LGRA 214 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal: Section 55 refers to a situation in which an offending panel or sign has an impact beyond its immediate environs.
		R v South Australian Planning Commission; ex parte Watkins: see s 56(1)(a).
		Dalton v District Council of Strathalbyn (1987) 28 APA 144 SA Planning Appeal Tribunal. Planning Appeal: Advertising signs should be in keeping with the appearance and character of the locality and with the objectives of the Development Plan.
		Spackman v District Council of Burra (1988) 30 APA 467: An enforcement order against an advertisement should be made with consideration to the character of the locality as a whole.
s 56	Saving provisions	Davidson v City of Woodville (1983) 9 APA 58 Planning Appeal: The provision of carport did not change the existing residential use of the land. Therefore, planning consent was not required.
		Dorrestijn v South Australian Planning Commission (1984) 59 ALJR 105 (High Ct of Aust) Appeal from SA Sup Ct FC: "continued use", saved by s 56(1) includes such developments as would necessarily be involved in the use of the land for the purpose for which it continues to be used.
		R v South Australian Planning Commission; Ex parte Watkins (1986) 63 LGRA 401 (SA Sup Ct FC) Certiorari and Mandamus: A critical feature of non-conforming use was that a proposed development was no more than an addition to the existing residential development.
	Certain development may be undertaken in the continuation of an existing use	Australian Posters Pty Ltd v City of Unley (1988) 33 APA 274 (SA Planning Appeal Tribunal): Whether the replacement of one side of an advertising panel required a permit, considered.
s 57	Law governing proceedings under this Act	District Council of Munno Para v Remove-All Rubbish Co. Pty Ltd (1985) 41 SASR 188; 60 LGRA 1 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, that the development plan under the Planning Act 1982 was part of "the law to be applied in deciding the application" within the meaning of s 57(1) of the Act.

		R v South Australian Planning Commission; Ex parte Watkins (1986) 63 LGRA 401: When s 56(1)(a) was suspended, s 57 became the non-conforming use provision keeping a 1984 proposal in force. R v South Australian Planning Commission; Ex parte Unley City Corporation (1986) 44 SASR 100 (SA Sup Ct FC) Certiorari and appeal: Section 57(1) does not qualify or detract from the substantive planning law to be applied. Sims v Planning Appeal Tribunal (1992) 75 LGRA 233 (SA Sup Ct Debelle J): Held, amendments made to the Development Plan by an authorised supplementary development plan pursuant to s 41 take effect in accordance with the document which the Governor declares to be authorised. An inconsistency between the recommendation for amendment and the amendment as declared is correctable by ministerial notice under s 42. Section 57 does not apply to an application for an extension of time within which to appeal. Relevant considerations on application for extension discussed.

reg 13	Nature of development	Degenhardt v City of Happy Valley (1986) 23 APA 469: Held, reg 13 did not empower a planning authority to bypass existing definitions or classifications contained in the development plan or the Development Control Regulations. City of Unley v Burnell (1985) 56 LGRA 106 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Discussed, the determination of the nature of development.
reg 29	Council shall consult Commissioner of Highways	Samels v Victor Harbor District Council: see reg 40. Lobb v City of Woodville (1986) 21 APA 279 Discussed: 1. The cumulative effect of regs 29, 30(1) and 30(3) in relation to the impact of a development on traffic using a major road network. 2. The result of non-compliance with regs 30(1) and 30(3). R v City of Munno Para; Ex parte John Weeks Pty Ltd (1987) 46 SASR 400; 63 LGRA 197 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, regs 28 & 29 were mandatory. Discussed, consequences of failure by a council to obtain a fresh report from the Highways Commissioner as to an amended application. See s 47.
reg 30	Council to await reports	Samels v Victor Harbor District Council: see reg 40.

		Lobb v City of Woodville: see reg 29.
reg 33	Method of giving notice	McNeil v South Australian Planning Commission (1984) 12 APA 384: Held, reg 33(2) is mandatory.
		Vandeleur v District Council of Willunga (1984) 13 APA 350: Held, a public notice fails to "describe the nature of the proposed development" as required by reg 33(2), if it does not refer to proposed activities which would require a licence under the Licensing Act 1967.
		Haselgrove Haig Pty Ltd v District Council of Penola (1985) 15 APA 465: Held: 1. The requirement that notice be given on or before the date of publication of the first of the advertisements was directory and not mandatory. 2. Publishing the statutory advertisements giving the statutory notices were mandatory requirements. 3. An objection that a notice of application failed to comply with the requirements of s 33(2) was not answered by saying that a potential objector could obtain the information at the local planning authority's office.
		Wilson v City of Mitcham (1985) 16 APA 17: Discussed, what constitutes a sufficient description under reg 33(2) for a notice to owners and occupiers of a proposed development.
		Shasta Pty Ltd v District Council of Northern York Peninsula (1985) 18 APA 38: Held: 1. The formation of an opinion as to the persons likely to be affected by the proposed development is a mandatory requirement. 2. That power could not be exercised by an un-delegated official.
		Ramsey v District Council of Angaston (1985) 18 APA 378: Discussed, whether a decision not to give notice under reg 33(1)(b) was reasonable.
		Indoor Cricket Arenas (SA) Pty Ltd v City of West Torrens (1985) 19 APA 145: Sufficiency, in the light of an omission, of a notice to owners and occupiers of a proposed development discussed.
		South Australian Planning Commission v McNeil (1985) 56 LGRA 94 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, factors to be taken into account in determining whether reg 33(2) has been substantially complied with.
		Grant v City of Woodville (1986) 19 APA 96: Held: 1. The formation of an opinion as to the persons likely to be affected by the proposed development is a mandatory requirement. 2. The responsibility of forming that opinion could be delegated to a nominated person such as a town clerk.
		Riches v District Council of Willunga (1986) 21 APA 458: Held, the provisions as to persons to whom a notice of application must be given under reg 33(1) are mandatory.
		District Council of Willunga v Riches (1987) 62 LGRA 132 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Discussed, the consequence of non-compliance with reg 33(1).
		Petroleum Refineries (Aust) Pty Ltd v Archer Boulton Pty Ltd: see reg 38.
reg 38	Applications exempt from notification	R v South Australian Planning Commission; Ex parte City of Burnside (1986) 45 SASR 487; 64 LGRA 87 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, requirements to be met before a subdivisional application falls within the exemptions.
		City of Unley v South Australian Planning Commission (1987) 64 LGRA 338 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Discussed, the ambit of reg 38 in relation to a detached dwelling.
		Petroleum Refineries (Aust) Pty Ltd v Archer Boulton Pty Ltd (1991) 72 LGRA 355 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, that: 1. The notice provisions of reg 33 & reg 38 were to be supplied by the council within whose area a proposed development was to be undertaken. 2. The council was entitled to treat the proposal as a type of development of a minor nature unlikely to be the subject of reasonable objections within reg 38(1)(c) and exempt from the notice requirements of reg 33. 3. The council within whose area the division for detached housing purposes (later for detached dwellings and recreation areas) was proposed was entitled to treat those proposals as applications to it for division of land in a residential zone for the erection of detached dwellings for residential use within reg 38(1)(d)(i) and exempt from the notice requirements of reg 33.

reg 40	Making the decision	Samels v Victor Harbor District Council (1988) 50 SASR 96; 67 LGRA 37 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, that under the Planning Act and the Development Control Regulations, the obligation of a council to obtain and consider a report of the Commissioner for Highways before making a planning decision was mandatory.
reg 45	Lapse of consent	Rialto Estates Pty Ltd v Salisbury City Corporation (1988) 5 BCL 219 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Validity of reg 45, considered and held intra vires.
reg 47	Prescribed development	Fordham v City of Mitcham (1984) 16 APA 98: Discussed, the test to be applied in deciding whether the respondent local authority had "caused", "suffered" or "permitted" the proposed development. R v South Australian Planning Commission; Ex parte City of Burnside (1986) 45 SASR 487; 64 LGRA 87 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, what constitutes a class of development in the Hills Face Zone under the Seventh Schedule.
Part 7	Public notification	Skevington v District Council of Light (1985) 16 APA 116: Held, a planning authority which is required to give public notice under Part 7, is under an obligation to ensure that the notice adequately describes the intended use, and if it does not, to make further enquiries to ensure that an adequate description can be given.
Sched. 1	Acts and activities which are not development	Aurora v City of Port Adelaide (1987) 30 APA 159 (SA Planning App. Trib.): Discussed, whether keeping and training trotting horses is "reasonably incidental to residential use" under Sch. 1, para 10.
Sched. 10		South Australian Brewing Co. Ltd v City of Enfield (1988) 34 APA 335 (SA Planning App. Trib.): Requirement that a replacement sign be "substantially the same" as a previous advertising sign, considered. Australian Posters Pty Ltd v City of Unley (1988) 33 APA 274 (SA Planning App. Trib.): The scope of the definition of advertising signs, and whether a permit was required for their display, considered.

s 56	Priority of instruments	Mercantile Credits Ltd v ANZ Banking Group Ltd: see s 249.
s 69	Title of registered proprietor indefeasible except in cases of–	Zafiropoulos v Recchi (1978) 18 SASR 5 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Originating summons: Held, the mortgagee under a registered mortgage of land under the Real Property Act is a registered proprietor within the meaning of that Act. Palais Parking Station v Shea: see s 249. Wicklow Enterprises Pty Ltd v Doysal Pty Ltd (1987) 45 SASR 247 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J) Action: Discussion of what amounted to fraud and forgery within the meaning of s 69I or s 69II. Mercantile Credits Ltd v ANZ Banking Group Ltd: see s 249. Rogers v Resi-Statewide Corporation Ltd (1991) 101 ALR 377 (Fed Ct of Aust von Doussa J): Held, that the proviso of s 69II creates only "deferred indefeasibility" of title; that is to say, the proviso does not give immunity from adverse claims to a bona fide purchaser for value who claims title by the registration of a forged instrument; immunity is given only to a bona fide purchaser for value who subsequently claims through a person who obtained title by such registration.
s 70	In other cases title of registered proprietor shall prevail	Palais Parking Station v Shea: see s 249.
s 71	Saving of certain rights & powers, viz:	Palais Parking Station v Shea: see s 249.
s 77	Memorials on certificates	Mercantile Credits Ltd v ANZ Banking Group: see s 249.
s 84	Easment not binding on registered proprietor subsequently acquiring land bona fide for value unless entered on certificate of title	Golding v Tanner: see s 88.
s 85	Land to be held free of rights of way	Bond & Leitch v Delfab Investments Pty Ltd: see s 87.
s 87	Certificates heretofore issued conclusive evidence of right-of-way therein described	Bond and Leitch v Delfab Investments Pty Ltd (1980) 26 SASR 462 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Action: Held, the provisions of s 85 were applicable to a right of way not entered on a certificate of title prior to 18 Nov, 1881, but had no application to a right of way which was entered on the relevant certificate of title prior to that date and that the provisions of s 87 were applicable to such a right of way.
s 88	Entry as to easement to be made on original and duplicate certificates of title	Golding v Tanner (1991) 56 SASR 482 (SA Sup Ct FC): The terms of s 88 are wide enough to include easements arising by prescription however s 84 will preclude the presumption of a grant where the adverse use has occurred over a period where there have been successive registered proprietors.
s 97	Transferee of land subject to mortgage or encumbrance to indemnify transferor	Clem Smith Nominees Pty Ltd v Farrelly (1978) 20 SASR 227 (SA Sup Ct FC) Originating summons: The effect of s 97 considered and discussed.
s 131	Subsequent mortgages or encumbrances may redeem prior mortgages, etc.	Excel Finance Corporation Ltd v Commonwealth Bank of Australia (1988) 48 SASR 225 (SA Sup Ct Lunn A J) Application for summary judgment: Held, that s 45(1) of the Law of Property Act 1936 does not apply to preclude a second mortgagee obtaining from the first mortgagee in possession a transfer of the first mortgage pursuant to s 131 of the Real Property Act.

s 132	Nature of mortgage and encumbrance and procedure in case of default	Emerald Securities Pty Ltd v Tee Zed Enterprises Pty Ltd (1981) 28 SASR 214 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: Held, although the notice of sale had not complied with the requirements of the mortgage, ss 132-134 authorized the sale of the land by the mortgagees. The protection given to a purchaser upon a mortgagee's sale is not absolute. It is effectual against the mortgagor if default has not been made or that the appropriate notice given but not where some other reason exists to set aside the sale. The operation and effect of s 134 considered.
s 133	Power of sale	Emerald Securities Pty Ltd v Tee Zed Enterprises Pty Ltd: see s 132. Carretta Stud Nominees Pty Ltd v White (1982) 29 SASR 597 (SA Sup Ct Mohr J): A "mortgagee" within s 133 includes a person entitled to be registered as such and so long as the transfer of the mortgage in question is lodged for registration before the mortgagee lodges a transfer of the land the power of sale is validly exercised.
s 134	Mortgagee's receipt to discharge purchaser	Emerald Securities Pty Ltd v Tee Zed Enterprises Pty Ltd: see s 132.
s 135	Appropriation of proceeds	Mercantile Credits Ltd v ANZ Banking Group: see s 249.
s 170	Transmission by bankruptcy or statutory assignment	Re Holland; Ex parte Official Trustee in Bankruptcy (1985) 5 FCR 165 (Fed Ct of Aust Fisher J): The bankruptcy of a joint tenant constitutes a disposition of her/his interest and severs the joint tenancy. The Bankruptcy Act does not affect this result even in the context of the Real Property Act ss 170, 171 and 180.
s 171	Transmission to be entered in Register Book	Re Holland: see s 170.
s 180	Person registered in place of deceased, bankrupt, or assigning proprietor, to be proprietor of land for purpose of dealing	Re Holland: see s 170.
s 191	Caveats	Van Reesma v Giameos (No 2) (1978) 17 SASR 390 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motions and Summons: Section 191 does not authorize an extension of time for removal of the caveat beyond that already ordered by a court. Whallin v Bailbart Investments Pty Ltd (1987) 47 SASR 198 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Application referred by master: Held, a caveator may apply for an interim extension of time for removal of the caveat, pending trial, by showing that he/she was justified in lodging the caveat. It is not necessary for the caveator to obtain an interlocutory injunction restraining the caveatee from dealing with the land before applying for such an extension of time.
s 192	Summons to to give up possession	Southern Cross Petroleum Sales (SA) Pty Ltd v Jagt (1987) 45 SASR 241 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal: Crown leasehold land is "land under the Real Property Act 1886" within the meaning of s 192 of that Act. s 195	Orders on appearance to summons	Corporation of the Town of Moonta v Rodgers and Rodgers (1980) 26 SASR 143 (SA Sup Ct FC) Originating summons: A dispute regarding an application for an order of possession could only be satisfactorily resolved by proceedings in the ordinary jurisdiction of the court not by the summary procedure under s 195 of the Real Property Act.
s 223lh	List of requirements to be furnished by council or Commission	Rialto Estates Pty Ltd v Salisbury City Corporation (1988) 5 BCL 219 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, a council did not have power to extend beyond the nominated time the period within which the requirements of the council, furnished pursuant to the provisions of s 223lh had to be satisfied.
s 233lk	Other Offences	Edwards v District Council of Minlaton (1985) 15 APA 282: Discussion of complexities and desire for law reform arising from dual subdivisional control under the Planning Act 1982 and the Real Property Act 1886.
	Appeal to Planning Appeal Tribunal	Banister v S.A. Planning Commission (1987) 33 APA 133 (SA Planning App Trib): Power of the Planning Appeal Tribunal on appeal to impose conditions or vary revoke or substitute requirements considered.
s 249	Equities not abolished	Palais Parking Station v Shea (1980) 24 SASR 425 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: Held, that although a purported acquisition of land by the Director General of Medical Services was unlawful and void the entry of the endorsement by the Registrar-General gave the Director General an indefeasible title to the land.

Mercantile Credits Ltd v ANZ Banking Group Ltd (1988) 48 SASR 407 (SA Sup Ct FC) Special case stated to the Full Court: Held, the rule that a prior mortgagee with notice of a subsequent mortgage has priority only in respect of the amount owing at the date of receipt of such notice applies under the Real Property Act.

Charmar Electrical Pty Ltd v Minda Inc (1990) 55 SASR 112 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held: 1. The contract to assign was effective in equity as an assignment of lease, perfected by notice to the lessee. 2. Section 249 did not operate to deprive the purchaser of its contractual rights against the unregistered lessee. 3. The fact that the purchaser could in law consider the unregistered lease as not binding does not preclude the lease from binding the lessee, because the purchaser in this case contracted to be bound by the lease.

Real Property Act (Land Division) Regulations

reg 46	Construction of Roads, Bridges and Drains	City of Salisbury v Blaess Enterprises Builders Pty Ltd (1988) 65 LGRA 322 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Reg 46 does not empower the relevant authority to require an applicant for a certificate approving a subdivision of land to make a financial contribution towards works beyond the boundaries of the subdivision.

s 5	Interpretation	Skaventzos v Gage (No. 2) (1979) 21 SASR 432 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Appeals from court of summary jurisdiction: The meaning of the term "carriageway" as defined in s 5 considered. Willing v Hollobone (1981) 44 LGRA 314 (SA Sup Ct White J): A "traffic control device" in s 5 is restricted in meaning to devices regulating moving traffic i.e. not parking. The standing of vehicles in s 5(b) means temporary standing of vehicles in the course of their movement. Mancini v Moore (1981) 31 SASR 161 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the meaning of "axle" and "gross combination mass" in s 5. Thomas v Jakacic (1983) 34 SASR 425 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Where a red arrow signal is not functioning it is not a "traffic light" within the meaning of the Road Traffic Act 1961.
s 20	Signs indicating that works are in progress on a road	Harradine v Bates (1988) 7 MVR 153 (SA Sup Ct White J): Speed signs erected on portions of road where work was in progress or men were at work are ineffective where there is no evidence of such activity.
s 25	General provisions relating to traffic control devices	Manis v Semple (1987) 5 MVR 433 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Clearway signs are not required to be placed at such short intervals that any motorist who desired could stop and see a clearway sign.
s 34	The determination of mass	Mancini v Moore (1981) 31 SASR 161 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The method laid down for determining the mass of a vehicle within s 34(2) is mandatory.

		Kosovich v Mancini (1983) 34 SASR 321 (SA Sup Ct FC): The method laid down for determining the mass of a vehicle is mandatory but there is no prohibition against the use of a combination of the separate methods prescribed in the regulations.
s 38	Question as to identity of drivers	Lamshed v Rigney: see s 175.
s 40	Exempt vehicles	Patterson v McGinlay (1991) ATR 68 716 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that a duty of care exists in the case of exempt vehicles under s 40 as well as ordinary vehicles, although the standard is not the same in each case. Standard of care discussed.
s 42	Power to stop vehicle and ask questions	Cavanagh v Galkowski (1979) 20 SASR 322: Held, that the mere exhibiting of the driver's licence was not an answer to the police officer's questions and thus constituted an offence under s 42. Lovegrove v Spangler (1988) 8 MVR 104 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J): Held, that s 42(1) had general application to all vehicles on the road regardless of whether or not a driver had committed an offence.
s 43	Failure to stop and report in case of accident	Daire v Yates (1982) 30 SASR 365 (SA Sup Ct Mohr J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The meaning of the word "accident" in s 43 considered.
s 44	Using motor vehicle without consent	In re Weetra (1978) 18 SASR 321 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held, that under s 44(2) a court of summary jurisdiction had power to order the payment of compensation only to the owner of the motor vehicle. An order directing the defendant to pay such compensation to a clerk of the court was therefore invalid. Lindsay v Samuels (1979) 20 SASR 285: A defendant convicted with interfering with a motor vehicle who had previous convictions under the section for using a motor vehicle without first obtaining the consent of the owner was guilty of committing a "subsequent" offence within the meaning of s 44. Samuels v Gardner (1980) 23 SASR 119 Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Upon proof that the defendant used a motor vehicle recently taken from the owner without his consent the inference may properly be drawn that he/she was knowingly using it without the consent of the owner. Symons v Murphy (1980) 24 SASR 177 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: A court of summary jurisdiction has power under the Offenders Probation Act to suspend a sentence of imprisonment imposed upon a defendant against the provisions of s 44. Lansdell v Reed (1981) 28 SASR 253 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Someone with interstate convictions was not to be charged as if it were a "subsequent offence". s 45	Careless driving	Samuels v Songaila: see s 47b. Lajos v Samuels (1980) 26 SASR 514 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: A minor and common error of judgement by the driver of a motor vehicle such as bumping into a stationary vehicle behind when attempting to reverse into a parking space is not sufficient to constitute driving without due care. Ladlow v Hayes (1983) 8 ACR 377 (SA Sup Ct Walters J): Section 45 prohibits driving without observance of the standard of consideration for other road users that a reasonably prudent driver would observe in the circumstances. Crispin v Rhodes (1986) 40 SASR 202 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The elements of the offence of driving without due care (s 45) considered and discussed.
s 46	Reckless & dangerous driving	Samuels v Young: see s 47b. Pope v Hall (1982) 30 SASR 78 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of matters to be taken into account when determining whether a vehicle has been driven at a speed dangerous to the public. Armstrong v Twiggs (1985) 2 MVR 217 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): Observations as to when speeding constitutes dangerous driving in s 46.

Phillis v Coombe (1987) 47 SASR 416; 5 MVR 331 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: Under s 46 a person can be convicted and punished for more than one offence arising out of one driving occasion. The test is whether it is possible to isolate different features of one episode of driving. Dual convictions should only be sought however, in extreme cases.

Dunsmore v Alexandrides (1988) 6 MVR 385 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J): Meaning of the word "trifling", considered and discussed.

Zanker v Modystach (1990) 54 SASR 183 (SA Sup Ct Mohr J): Held, that mere speed which exceeds the statutory speed limit in any particular place is not itself sufficient to establish an offence within s 46.

s 47 Driving under influence

Sullivan v Samuels (1976) 14 SASR 168 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Porriciello v Samuels (1976) 14 SASR 83 (SA Sup Ct Bray CJ) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Observations as to factors to be taken into account in determining the period of disqualification imposed for an offence against s 47. Particular consideration given to the weight to be given to the fact that disqualification will cause hardship to a defendant in carrying on a business or in their employment.

Walker v Graetz (1977) 15 SASR 597 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The penalty of imprisonment for a second offence against s 47 is mandatory. A court of summary jurisdiction has no authority to impose a fine in lieu of imprisonment.

Dinham v Watts (1977) 16 SASR 262 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Taylor v Samuels (1977) 16 SASR 266 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The factors to be taken into account in determining the penalty to be imposed for an offence against the provisions of s 47 considered and discussed.

Allen v Bates (1979) 20 SASR 575 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Circumstances in which the court may impose a fine in lieu of disqualification for a first offence considered and discussed.

Adams v Kotz (1978) 21 SASR 341 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration of the factors to be taken into account in determining the penalty for an offence against s 47; including the defendant's level of intoxication and absence of damage to other road users.

Samuels v Young: see s 47b.

Logan v Samuels (1979) 21 SASR 344 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Kester v Marsh (1979) 21 SASR 348 (SA Sup Ct Williams AJ) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: McDougall v Betts (1979) 21 SASR 424 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The factors to be taken into account in determining the penalty to be imposed for an offence against the provisions of s 47 considered and discussed.

Mehesz v Redman (1979) 21 SASR 569 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of evidence required to render admissible the result of a blood analysis test performed by means of an auto-lab data analyser.

Heading v Elston (1980) 23 SASR 491 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the newly amended s 47(3) was not to be applied in determining whether an offence was a subsequent offence when the first offence in question was committed prior to the subsection coming into operation.

Chenoweth v Semple (1981) 27 SASR 142 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that where fresh evidence was available which would have resulted in non-conviction rather than a conviction the Supreme Court on appeal had power to remit the matter to a court of summary jurisdiction.

Janz v Woolvern: see s 47b.

Heinze v Burntey: see s 47g.

s 47a	Interpretation	Felstead v Giersch: see s 47b. Campbell v Fuss (1991) 55 SASR 355 (SA Sup Ct Olssen J): Held, making a minor adjustment to the parking position of a vehicle adjacent to the kerb constituted a "trifling" offence despite the offender having a relatively high blood alcohol reading.
s 47b	Driving whilst having prescribed concentration of alcohol in the blood	Cocks v Dunsmore (1976) 13 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct Bray CJ) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: A period of disqualification under s 47b unlike other s 47 offences, is not mandatory. Felstead v Giersch (1976) 14 SASR 27 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J): A court of summary jurisdiction when imposing a severe penalty for an offence should state the reasons for the imposition of the penalty. The maximum penalty should normally be reserved for the worst type of case. Tepper v Mulraney (1976) 14 SASR 195 (SA Sup Ct Bright J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Bennett v Linnane (1977) 17 SASR 565 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J): Observations as to the factors to be taken into account by a court in imposing a period of disqualification upon a person convicted of an offence against s 47b. Samuels v Songaila (1977) 16 SASR 397 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case Stated: Held, amendments made by the Road Traffic Act Amendment Act (No. 3) 1976, only applied to offences committed on or after the date of operation of that Act. The old penalties were preserved for offences committed prior to this. Frearson v Sweatman (1977) 17 SASR 443 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J): Application of the penalty to a first offence considered and discussed. Satterthwaite v Prestwood (1977) 17 SASR 468 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: In determining the penalty to be imposed for an offence against s 47b the Court should not increase the fine and reduce the period of disqualification simply because disqualification will cause hardship to a defendant. Gilchrist v Williams (1978) 18 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct Bray CJ) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The factors to be taken into account in determining the period of disqualification for an offence against s 47b considered and discussed. Harris v Wylie (1978) 18 SASR 17 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Observations as to the period for which disqualification should be made for offences against s 47b. The extent to which a defendant will suffer hardship in consequence of such an order may be taken into account in determining the disqualification period. Hoppo v Samuels (1978) 18 SASR 277 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that notwithstanding substantial amendment to the Road Traffic Act offences within the specified period of five years were to be taken into account in determining whether an offence against s 47b was a second, third or fourth offence. Richards v Schutt (1978) 18 SASR 421 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that provided a breath testing apparatus was calibrated in "grams in a hundred millimetres" it was not necessary that those words appear on the fact of the apparatus. Samuels v Young (1978) 19 SASR 406 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: If there is a charge under s 47 or 47b and no separate charge for bad driving the defendant cannot subsequently be convicted on a charge relating to that bad driving. Petersen v Samuels (1979) 20 SASR 474 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Because a breath test was not based on reasonable grounds and because the Senior Constable had wrongly informed the defendant that the test was compulsory, evidence of the result of the test should have been excluded. Mehesz v Redman (1979) 21 SASR 569 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal: Consideration and discussion of the evidence required to render admissible auto-lab blood analysis, and the admissibility of computer generated evidence. See s 47.

Day v Conn (1979) 22 SASR 372 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The factors to be taken into account when determining disqualification from holding or obtaining a driver's licence to be ordered upon conviction for an offence against s 47b considered and discussed.

Samuels v McKenzie (1979) 23 SASR 595 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Case stated: For a penalty to be a subsequent offence the subsequent offence must be committed after conviction for the first offence otherwise it must be treated as a first offence.

Berry v Lowcock (1980) 27 SASR 108 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the admissibility in evidence of the result of a breath analysis test where the prosecution has proved the driving of a motor vehicle by the person subjected to the test but not that the driving took place within the two hours preceding the test.

Forbes v Langley (1981) 27 SASR 95 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Observations as to the principles to be applied in determining the penalty for a second offence contrary to s 47b.

Bassell v McGuinness (1981) 29 SASR 508 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: A person sitting in the driver's seat of a towed vehicle is driving the vehicle within the meaning of ss 47b, 74 and 119 of the Act.

Gagliardi v Medwell (1983) 35 SASR 124 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeals from court of summary jurisdiction: An offence against the Road Traffic Act cannot be regarded as "trifling" within the meaning of s 47b(3)(b) if it is within the usual cases that come before the court.

Hele v Semple (1986) 42 SASR 295 (SA Sup Ct von Doussa J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Where the driver of a vehicle in 1981 committed a second offence against s 47b of the Road Traffic Act the penalty to be applied upon conviction in 1986 was that in force at the time of conviction. It was Parliament's intention that it be retrospective.

Lamshed v Rigney: see s 175.

Murton v Bates (1988) 50 SASR 92 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, that s 47b must be regarded as indicative of a legislative intent that in the ordinary case a period of licence disqualification would be imposed.

Cresswell v Bates (1989) 9 MVR 176 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, that the minimum period of licence disqualification for a breach of s 47b(1) of the Road Traffic Act cannot be ameliorated by the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act s 16 and may only be ameliorated in accordance with s 47b(3)(b).

Marr v Rowbottom (1989) 39 ACR 113 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Upon a conviction of driving with an excessive blood alcohol concentration contrary to s 47b, the court's inquiry is not limited to whether the case is rare and exceptional. The broader question is whether it is "expedient" to exercise the power conferred by s 4 of the Offenders Probation Act 1913.

Philp v Bonney (1989) 50 SASR 531 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): On the repeal of the Offenders Probation Act there was no discretionary power in a magistrate to refrain from imposing a mandatory licence disqualification by not recording a conviction or otherwise reducing or mitigating the minimum penalties prescribed by s 47b(3)(a).

Janz v Woolvern (1990) 49 A Crim R 284 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that although the powers contained in Pt V of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988 may be exercised to mitigate the penalties of fine and imprisonment provided for in ss 47 and 47b of the Road Traffic Act, the power not to record a conviction may not be used to avoid the penalty of mandatory licence disqualification.

Delurant v Macklin (1990) 49 A Crim R 288 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that the presumption created by s 47b(2) is that the blood alcohol concentration is greater than the legal limit and not that it was the specific concentration by the test. The presumption relating to the specific concentration is contained in another section and is logically and legally reached after the presumption in relation to the legal limit operates.

Tann v Schild: see s 47f.

		Campbell v Fuss (1991) 55 SASR 355 (SA Sup Ct, Olssen J): Held, making a minor adjustment to the parking position of a vehicle adjacent to the kerb constituted a "trifling" offence despite the offender having a relative high blood alcohol reading. Campbell v Fuss: see s 47a.
s 47da	Breath testing stations	Rejman v Dunsmore (1983) 32 SASR 151 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: It is not necessary for the Commissioner of Police in an authorization given pursuant to s 47da(1) to specify by name the members of the police force authorized to conduct breath tests and establish a breath testing station. Dunsmore v Smith (1984) 35 SASR 437; 1 MVR 121 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that the provisions of s 47da(3), as to members of the police force conducting breath tests being in uniform, are directory, not mandatory, and that non-compliance does not render the resultant evidence inadmissible. Burgess v Hall: see s 47e.
s 47e	Police may require alcotest or breath analysis	Cotton v Ramm (1977) 16 SASR 107 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The "reasonable grounds" test enabling police officers to ask drivers to submit to blood alcohol tests discussed and considered. Hinton v Samuels (1979) 20 SASR 591 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J): Police evidence indicating that there was reasonable grounds on which to administer a breath test rejected, due to evidence of possible maltreatment of the defendant by police. Peterson v Samuels: see s 47b. Schiller v Fingleton (No. 2) (1979) 24 SASR 599 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Observations upon the circumstances in which a member of the police force may properly form a belief that a person's ability to drive a motor vehicle may have been impaired within the meaning of s 47e. Lajos v Samuels (1980) 26 SASR 514 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that it is not necessary that the alcotest or breath test should be administered by the member of the police force who entertains the belief specified in the section. Daire v Rollins (1982) 30 SASR 156 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: What constitutes "good cause" in refusing a breath analysis test considered and discussed. Bottomley v Symons (1982) 31 SASR 18 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, the belief by a defendant that insulin in his blood which would affect the results of an alcotest is not "good cause" to refuse to submit to that test. Williams v Bache (1982) 31 SASR 25 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The member of the police force referred to in s 47e(1) need not necessarily be the member of the police force who administers the breath analysis test. Ladlow v Hayes (1983) 8 ACR 377 (SA Sup Ct Waters J): A police officer who requires a defendant to submit to a breath test must have a reasonable belief that the defendant's driving brings her/him within the criteria that justify a test within s 47e(1). Rejman v Dunsmore (1983) 32 SASR 151 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: S 47e(3) creates not two, but one offence of non-compliance with the directions of a member of the police force. Dunsmore v Smith: see s 47da. O'Leary v Daire (1984) 13 A Crim R 404 (SA Sup Ct White J) Appeal: Discussion as to whether there needs to be a prior offence before there can be a valid direction under s 47e(3). Scott v Fauser (1984) 36 SASR 15 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal: Walking away contrary to the direction from a police officer to wait for a breathalyser constitutes an offence under s 47e(3) and (4)(b).

		Cox v Crichton (1985) 37 SASR 577 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: It is not necessary for a person to have been at fault under s 47e to be "involved in an accident".
		Coldwell v Bormann (1985) 37 SASR 588 (SA Sup Ct Mohr J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The direction of a police officer to exhale into a breath analysis instrument immediately is a reasonable one.
		Bormann v Coldwell (1986) 43 SASR 297; 4 MVR 447 (SA Sup Ct von Doussa J): Meaning of "good cause" considered and discussed.
		Ellis v Dunsmore (1987) 5 MVR 280 (SA Sup Ct Mohr J): "Accident" and what constitutes a reasonable belief discussed and considered.
		Burgess v Hall (1988) 48 SASR 394; 7 MVR 517 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, the appellant before he turned into a side street was "the driver of a motor vehicle that approaches a breath testing station". Accordingly, the officer in the side street was authorized to require the appellant to submit to an alcotest.
		Galic v Talbot (1991) 56 SASR 264 (SA Sup Ct, White J): Held, a refusal to comply with a lawful direction not to smoke and a refusal to exhale constituted offences under s 47e(3). The onus of proving the lawfulness of a direction rests on the prosecution and the onus of establishing "good cause" within s 47e(4)(b) rests on the defendant. s 47f	Right of person to request blood test	French v Scarman (1979) 20 SASR 333 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Discretion of court of summary jurisdiction to exclude evidence which did not comply with s 47f discussed.
		Moore v Pope (1981) 29 SASR 122 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Although a medical practitioner fails to comply with the statutory direction that the sample must be placed in a sealed container the Court has discretion to admit in evidence the result of the breath analysis.
		Taylor v Daire: see s 47g.
		Coldwell v Siggins (1984) 37 SASR 202 (SA Sup Ct Prior J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Where a driver requested a blood sample but none was taken despite the best efforts of the police officers that did not constitute an unfair or unlawful act upon which the court could refuse the results of a breath analysis test.
		Ujvary v Medwell (1985) 39 SASR 418; 3 MVR 203 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from order of Olsson J): Generally, police conduct which deters a suspect from requesting a blood sample, will render it unfair to admit evidence of the result of a breath test conducted by police.
		Pacillo v Hentschke (1988) 47 SASR 261; 7 MVR 244 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J): Duties of police officers imposed by s 47f(2) considered and discussed.
		Tann v Schild (1990) 54 SASR 523 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): Observations on obligation of police under s 47f(2). s 47g	Evidence etc	Richards v Schutt (1978) 18 SASR 421 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Observations as to the effect of the requirement in s 47g that "as soon as practicable" after a person has submitted to an analysis of his breath the person operating the instrument shall deliver the test results to her/him.
		Fingleton v Richardson (1980) 23 SASR 297 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, evidence of a scientist is inadmissible in rebuttal of the presumption created by s 47g(1a) of the Act.
		Richardson v Fingleton (1980) 24 SASR 511 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeals from order of Cox J: The meaning of the word "indicated" in s 47g(1), and the inadmissibility of scientific evidence to rebut breath analysis tests considered and discussed.
		Taylor v Daire (1982) 30 SASR 453 Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the duties of police officers pursuant to s 47(f) and (g). Also the interpretation of "at his expense" in s 47(f).

Weerts v Daire (1982) 32 SASR 270 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Discussion of the "requirements and procedures" which, under s 47g(1), have to be complied with for the presumption to operate.

Golding v Liddy (1983) 33 SASR 116 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the procedure to be adopted when the defendant wishes to submit their own blood sample as evidence. The only evidence which may be adduced by the defendant in rebuttal of the presumption created by s 47g(1) is evidence of the concentration of alcohol in his/her blood as indicated by analysis of the sample.

Gray v Liddy (1984) 34 SASR 569 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: There is a presumption of regularity in favour of accepting a certificate, authorizing the conducting of breath tests, signed by "A/Commissioner" (it being presumed to mean Acting Commissioner), where the statute empowered the Commissioner to issue such certificates.

Porter v Ettridge (1984) 36 SASR 175 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: Section 47g(3c) enables both the Commissioner and Acting Commissioner of Police to give a certificate authorizing members of the police force to undertake breath testing.

Camerotto v McDonald (1985) 38 SASR 588; 2 MVR 464 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Evidence of the consumption of alcohol after the time of driving but before a breath analysis test is not admissible in rebuttal of the presumption created by s 47g(1) of the Act.

Evans v Benson (1986) 4 MVR 257 (SA Sup Ct FC): The presumption created by s 47g(1) was not that the concentration of alcohol in the blood was 0.08 per cent or more but that the concentration was that indicated by the breath analysing instrument.

Foster v Bates (1986) 40 SASR 353 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: A defendant was precluded from offering evidence that a breath analysis operator used a finger to adjust the machine to rebut the presumption in s 47g.

Shearer v Hills (1989) 51 SASR 243 (SA Sup Ct FC): A warning in terms that the court "may accept the breath analysis....as being.... correct" was sufficient to comply with s 47g(2a). The warning prior to the relevant breath analysis substantially complied, thus the result was admissible. The breathalyser reading is not admissible unless the required warning is given. Section 47g(1) does not render the result admissible as evidence of the concentration of alcohol in the blood irrespective of compliance with the requirements and procedures.

Hammond v Medwell (1990) 11 MVR 130 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Held, that a medical practitioner who takes blood pursuant to s 47g is under no duty to warn a person from whom he takes it of the purpose for which the blood is being taken or the use to which the sample can be put. Section 47i(9) does not impose such a duty, nor can such a duty be spelt out of s 47i(9).

Eubel v Martin (1992) 57 SASR 290 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Held, the obligation to "inform" means to thoroughly and correctly inform.

Heinze v Burntey (1992) 57 SASR 452 (SA Sup Ct FC):
Held: 1. The police were entitled to direct a driver of a motor vehicle who had consumed alcohol before and after the accident to submit to a breath analysis and, having done so, to avail themselves of the irrebuttable presumption arising from the production of the s 47g certificate.
2. It was not incumbent upon the police to advise the plaintiff of his potential defence of "good cause" for refusing to undergo the breath analysis.

s 47h	Approval of apparatus for the purposes of breath analysis & alcotests	Taylor v Daire (1982) 30 SASR 453 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Powers of Governor in relation to the approval of apparatus of a specified kind as breath analysing instruments considered and discussed.

		Delurant v Macklin (1990) 49 ACR 288 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that the notice complied with the requirements of s 47h as that section must envisage an inchoate act of approval in Executive Council which is rendered operative when notified in the Gazette and the fact the notice was "by command" must have been the command of the Governor to the Premier.
s 47i	Compulsory blood tests	McKechnie v Jones (1976) 13 SASR 184 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Meaning of the expression "retained on behalf of" in s 47i, considered. R v Little (1976) 14 SASR 556 (SA Sup Ct FC): Since s 47i was not complied with because a container of the blood had not been delivered to the accused, evidence of the analysis of the blood sample could not be admitted. Mazinski v Bakka (1978) 20 SASR 350 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discretion of a judge in allowing or refusing admission of evidence which does not comply with all the requirements of s 47i considered and discussed. Mehesz v Redman (1979) 21 SASR 569 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Mehesz v Redman (No. 2) (1980) 26 SASR 244 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the evidentiary provision in s 47i(13) in relation to a certificate of the result of a computer generated blood analysis test. Angelin v Security and General Insurance Co Ltd (1984) 37 SASR 254 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J) Appeal from Local Court: The admissibility in evidence and probative value of a certificate issued pursuant to s 47i(13) considered and discussed. Jones v Geddes (1984) 37 SASR 338 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: Observations as to the extent of the duty imposed upon a medical practitioner by s 47i. Brown v Lehmann (1985) 40 SASR 52 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: It is not necessary that the request to submit to the taking of a blood sample be formal; it is sufficient that such request is made clear to the patient. Ouwerkerk v Whalan (1986) 41 SASR 287; 23 ACR 168 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The meaning of the expressions "injury" and "for the purpose of receiving treatment" discussed and considered. Dunsmore v Krasser (1987) 5 MVR 253 (SA Sup Ct Mohr J): A notice regarding a blood alcohol reading for an accident which occurred on 14 June was inadmissible as evidence since it was completed on 19 or 20 June. Nixon v Hewes (1992) 164 LSJS 116 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, non-compliance with any of the s 47i requirements renders the evidence of the blood sample results inadmissible.
s 47j	Recurrent offenders	Bassell v Greenhill (1980) 24 SASR 493 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: The meaning of the word "alcoholism" considered and discussed. Lynch v Hall (1988) 48 SASR 149 (SA Sup Ct Prior J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: There is an evidential onus on the defendant to cast doubt upon the correctness of a report before the complainant need call evidence in support of the conclusions of a report of an assessment under s 47j.
s 49	Special speed limits	Hearn v McCann (1982) 29 SASR 448 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The offence of exceeding the speed limit is an offence of absolute liability to which honest and reasonable belief is not a defence.
s 53a	Traffic speed analysers	Ellul v Fauser (1981) 28 SASR 300 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: A notice by the Governor, published in the Government Gazette, sufficiently specified the approved traffic speed analysers. Effect of a certificate of accuracy of a traffic speed analyser, pursuant to s 175(3)(ba), discussed.

s 54	Duty to keep to the left	Rowbottom v Nicolitsi (1986) 41 SASR 576; 4 MVR 35 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The provision of s 54(2) that s 54(1) should not apply when the driver of the vehicle was making or about to make a right hand turn was an exception to the Justices Act and the onus of proof was on the defendant to prove on the balance of probabilities.
s 58	Passing vehicles	Inat v Martin (1985) 38 SASR 11; 2 MVR 187 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J) Action: The expression "signal of intention to turn his vehicle to the right" in s 58(4) of the Act means a signal of intention as prescribed in the regulations made under the Act.
s 63	Giving way at intersections and junctions	Luckett v Baskerville (1976) 13 SASR 362 (SA Sup Ct Wells J): Held, that the offence of failing to give way to the right at an intersection was not one which called for disqualification. Schmalkuche v Williams (1987) 47 SASR 355; 6 MVR 274 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal and Cross Appeal: Section 63(1b) creates a broad and universal obligation on the turning driver to give way to an oncoming vehicle. s 74	Duty to give signals	Bassell v McGuinness: see s 47b.
s 75	Duties at traffic lights	Lamshed v Rigney: see s 175.
s 83a	Restriction on sale of goods on roads	Skaventzos v Gage (No. 2) (1979) 21 SASR 432 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Appeals from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that parking a truck partly on private property and partly on the verge between the property and the edge of the bitumen strip was exposing flowers for sale on the carriageway of a road. s 101	Driving while vehicle emits undue noise, smoke etc.	Sargent v Fuss (1979) 25 SASR 134 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Mens rea is not an ingredient of an offence against s 101 and it is not necessary for the prosecution to prove that the defendant intended to cause an undue amount of noise.
s 106	Damage to roads & works	Dayman v Lee (1976) 14 SASR 233: Upon a complaint for damaging a road otherwise than by reasonable use, unless the defendant admits liability for some specified amount, it is necessary for the complainant to prove the cost of repairing the damage done to the road by the defendant. s 119	Lamps to be alight at night	Bassell v McGuinness: see s 47b.
s 144	Speed limiting	Brambles Holdings Ltd v Carey (1976) 15 SASR 270 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, the defence of honest and reasonable mistake of fact is open on a charge of a breach of s 144. McGeary v Mancini (1979) 22 SASR 330 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Circumstances in which a reduction in fine should be ordered considered and discussed. Kett v Mancini (1979) 22 SASR 334 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeals from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, in each case there were mitigating circumstances and that the fines should be reduced.
s 147	Mass of towed vehicle must not exceed mass of towing vehicle	Mancini v Philp (1981) 28 SASR 29 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the prescribed methods of ascertaining the mass of motor vehicles by the use of Hi-way loado-meters and of the evidentiary value of certificates of result in making out a prima facie case against the section. Mancini v Vallelonga (1981) 28 SASR 236 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that deliberately trying to overload a vehicle was not a trifling offence. Kosovich v Mancini (1982) 31 SASR 272 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): The "foremost axle" within s 147(3) of the Act is the front axle of the vehicle. Burnett v L F Jeffries Nominees Pty Ltd (1983) 33 SASR 124 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Upon a charge of an offence against s 147 (5)(a) the defendant may raise the defence of honest and reasonable mistake of fact. Dann v Tarabini (1987) 48 SASR 485 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: In determining the mass of a vehicle, it was not necessary for it to be on a horizontal plane prior to weighing.

s 149	Measurement of distance between axles	Davies v White (1991) 53 ACR 92 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, that s 149(1) does not provide that the measurement of the distance between axles requires measurements to be taken from both sides of the vehicle or combination of vehicles. Schedule I requires the measurement to be from the foremost to the rearmost.
s 152	Directions to driver etc	Dann v Ballantyne (1989) 51 SASR 75; 9 MVR 87 (SA Sup Ct Prior J): Held, that a direction given by an inspector to a truck driver to position his vehicle in the centre of the road for weighing was a valid direction within s 152 and the place was within that section a particular place convenient for using an instrument. Dann v Ballantyne (1989) 10 MVR 280 (SA Sup Ct FC): A direction under s 152(1) of the Road Traffic Act 1961 must be bona fides. Discussion of what is a convenient place for determining mass of a vehicle. s 162	Securing of loads	Curry v Clarke (1982) 29 SASR 443 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The offence of driving a vehicle with a load insufficiently fastened is an offence of strict liability.
s 162ab	Wearing of seat belts is compulsory	Richardson v Schultz (1980) 25 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct Williams J): If it were not for the provisions of s 162ab(5) the plaintiff would have been held guilty of contributory negligence for her failure to wear a seat belt. However, due to the operation of that section the defendant was wholly liable to the plaintiff for their negligent driving. Carroll v Lewitzke (1991) 56 SASR 18 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, a vehicle whilst stationary and awaiting a break in traffic is not "in motion" for the purposes of the section.
s 168	Power of court to disqualify	McDonald v Mather (1976) 13 SASR 438 (SA Sup Ct Walters J): Held, that an accused who held up the bonnet to attempt to hide dishonest conduct had used his motor vehicle to promote the commission of an offence, thus empowering the court to disqualify him from holding or obtaining a driver's licence. Keynes v Kowald (1976) 13 SASR 354 (SA Sup Ct Bray CJ): The defendant, who was a passenger in a car that stopped near some young girls, and who represented to them that he was a police officer, was not using a motor vehicle in the commission of an offence, hence a disqualification order was not authorised under s 168. Bailey v Nielson (1976) 13 SASR 388 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J): Held, the commission of an offence involving the stealing of petrol was facilitated by the use of a motor vehicle within the meaning of s 168 and thus the court was empowered to make an order for disqualification. Draper v Linnane (1977) 17 SASR 51: Failing to truly answer questions asked by a police officer for the purpose of identifying the rider of a motor cycle constitutes an offence "relating to motor vehicles". Feeney v Devine (1980) 23 SASR 274 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, the stealing of hub caps from one vehicle and driving away in another vehicle was an offence facilitated by the use of a motor vehicle within the meaning of s 168(1)(b). Porter v Prestwood (1983) 33 SASR 75 (SA Sup Ct White J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction. An order for disqualification made under s 168(1) forms part of the penalty imposed for the offence. Learwood v Drinkwater (1986) 43 SASR 547 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: In considering disqualification under s 168 great care should be taken to avoid double counting and clear distinctions needed to be drawn as to the significance of the use of the vehicle in question. Where the offender was a passenger there was little justification for disqualification.
s 169a	Power to postpone commencement of disqualification	Duelberg v Sciberras (1979) 23 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Where a court of summary jurisdiction has convicted a defendant of two or more offences against the Road Traffic Act the court has power to order cumulative periods of disqualification from holding a driver's licence.

Boehm v Milham (1980) 24 SASR 98 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, where a defendant has been convicted of more than one offence the Court has power to make a period of disqualification commence at the expiration of another disqualification period.

s 175 Evidence

Barton v Fuss (1979) 25 SASR 61 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, a certificate of accuracy was not admissible in evidence as the certificate did not show that the speed analyser had been tested by comparison with an accurate speedometer.

Jamieson v Conn (1979) 25 SASR 65 (SA Sup Ct Williams A J): Held, a certificate of accuracy was not admissible in evidence as the certificate did not show that the speed analyser had been tested by comparison with an accurate speedometer.

Dunsmore v Elliott (1981) 26 SASR 496 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the admissibility in evidence of readings of speeds of motor vehicles recorded on a radar unit and of the proof required in relation to the accuracy of the radar unit to render such readings admissible in evidence.

Mancini v Moore (1981) 31 SASR 161 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Evidentiary value of certificates of accuracy and of result of weighing the vehicle considered and discussed.

Ellul v Fauser: see s 53a.

Mancini v McCallum (1983) 33 SASR 582 (SA Sup Ct White J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Circumstances under which prosecution can rely upon the statutory presumption in s 175(1)(f) considered and discussed.

Pereth v Linnane (1983) 33 SASR 442 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Degree of accuracy required for police speedometer to be used in establishing the offence of driving over the speed limit considered and discussed.

Kosovich v Mancini (1983) 34 SASR 321 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from order of Millhouse J): A traffic inspector, who used a private weighbridge, was not "the person in charge" within the meaning of s 175(3), thus the certificate as to the mass of the vehicle was inadmissible.

Baddams v Thomas (1983) 34 SASR 420 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Where it is necessary to establish that a defendant was driving to prove an offence under the Road Traffic Act and the prosecution fails to establish this fact it is precluded from relying for proof on the provisions of s 175(1)(f) of the Act.

O'Leary v Daire (1984) 13 ACR 404 (SA Sup Ct White J): Certificates of accuracy of a radar unit will constitute proof of the accuracy of a recorded speed in the absence of evidence to the contrary. Sworn evidence that the speed was less will not set aside the presumption.

Lamshed v Rigney (1987) 48 SASR 320 (SA Sup Ct von Doussa J): The statutory presumption arising from the provisions of s 175(1)(f) would apply to an averment that a defendant was the driver of a vehicle in respect of offences under ss 75 and 47a but not s 38–the averments, due to s 175(1)(f) proved that fact in the absence of proof to the contrary.

Dann v Stirzaker (1988) 48 SASR 418 (SA Sup Ct Perry J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: In determining the gross combination mass for the purposes of this Act it is mandatory that the provisions of the regulations as to weighing be strictly complied with and overloading of a vehicle is not capable of proof by any other means.

Dann v Stirzaker (1988) 50 SASR 190; 8 MVR 193 (SA Sup Ct Fc): Held, that the expression person in charge in s 175(3) was not restricted to the person who actually tested the weighbridge or was present at the weighing; it was enough that the person who made the statement had the general supervision of the weighbridge and was responsible for complying with the Act.

		Cazzol v Fuss (1988) 6 MVR 350 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J): A defendant is not required to prove that the radar unit was malfunctioning, but was required to prove, on the balance of probabilities, that he/she was not driving in excess of the speed limit.
Road Traffic Regulations 1974
reg 3.01	Failure to driver turning right to give way	Schmalkuche v Williams (1987) 47 SASR 355; 6 MVR 274 (SA Sup Ct FC): The effect of the interaction of ss 62 and 63 is that a driver turning right at a controlled intersection might have to give way even when an oncoming vehicle was not lawfully within the meaning of reg 3.01 (2)(a).
reg 3.06	Duties of drivers of long vehicles	Pischettola v Nominal Defendant (1984) 37 SASR 74; 1 MVR 449 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgement of Zelling J: Reg 3.06 of the Road Traffic Regulations prescribing a distance of 60 metres between long vehicles was of general application and a breach of that regulation amounted to negligence.
reg 10.05	Method of weighing vehicles	Dann v Tarabini (1987) 6 MVR 106 (SA Sup Ct FC): Reg 10.05(3)(c) does not require that vehicles are weighed on a horizontal plane, since it allows weighing on cambered roads.

s 6	Interpretation	James Brown Memorial Trust Inc. v SA Health Commission: see s 57j.
s 16	Functions of Commission	Blyth District Hospital Inc v S.A. Health Commission (1988) 49 SASR 501 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, s 16 prescribed the scope and ambit of the Commission's functions and did not prescribe conditions precedent to the exercise of its powers.
s 39	Fixing of fees	Blyth District Hospital Inc v S.A. Health Commission (1988) 49 SASR 501 (SA Sup Ct FC): The regulation making power in s 39(1) did not permit the prohibition of the charging of a fee, so that to the extent that the regulations purported to prohibit fees for public inpatient services they were invalid.

s 57b	Prohibition of operating private hospitals unless licensed	James Brown Memorial Trust Inc. v SA Health Commission: see s 57j.
s 57d	Grant of licences	James Brown Memorial Trust Inc. v SA Health Commission: see s 57j. Gawler Private Community Hospital Inc v South Australian Health Commission (1991) 56 SASR 335 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): Held, there is no power under the Act to impose a condition that an operator of a private hospital "purchase" bed licences from existing private hospitals.
s 57e	Conditions of licences	James Brown Memorial Trust Inc. v SA Health Commission: see s 57j.
s 57j	Appeal against decision or order of Commission	James Brown Memorial Trust Incorporated v South Australian Health Commission (1988) 48 SASR 431 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal under s 57j of the Act: By virtue of s 6, a hospital cannot be both a private hospital and a recognised hospital. As Kalyra Hospital was a recognised hospital and not a private hospital, the appellant was not eligible to apply for a licence to conduct a private hospital. Gawler Private Community Hospital Inc v South Australian Health Commission (1991) 56 SASR 335 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): Held, an appeal pursuant to s 57j is a rehearing and not a hearing de novo.

s 5	Stamp duties to be charged and to be recoverable as a debt	Superannuation Fund Investment Trust v Commissioner of Stamps (1980) 25 SASR 35 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated; action: Held, neither the application for a certificate of title by the Trust (over a road proposed to be closed by a council), nor the memorandum of transfer to the Trust (of an estate in fee simple) were liable to stamp duty, but the memorandum of transfer to the council (of a right of way held by the Trust) was so liable.
s 20	Penalty for not duly stamping	Iannotti v Corsaro (1984) 36 SASR 127; 15 ATR 592; 84 ATC 4269 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from District Court: Failure to stamp an agreement may lead to penalties under ss 19 to 22 but does not necessarily render an unstamped document illegal and void.
s 24	Objections to, and appeal against, assessments	Corfu Clothing Co. Pty Ltd v Commissioner of Stamps (1988) 48 SASR 105; 19 ATR 956; 88 ATC 4, 081 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Application to dismiss or strike out appeal: An appeal contemplated by s 24 can only be entertained by the Supreme Court on the Commissioner's stating and signing a case in the terms of s 24(4).
s 31	Certain contracts to be chargeable as conveyances on sale	S.A. Crate Pty Ltd v S.A. (1983) 14 ATR 687; 83 ATC 4587 (SA Sup Ct Walters J): That "fill charge" and "initial fee" were "rent" within the meaning of the Act, is strengthened by the use of the phrase "in respect of the use of goods" in s 31g(d). Brion v Commissioner of Stamps (SA) (1990) 21 ATR 808 (SA Sup Ct Duggan J). Held a binding contract specified in s 31(1) comes into existence immediately upon execution of the agreement. Non-fulfilment of special conditions will render the contract void, not voidable. Ontario Ltd v Commissioner of Stamps (1990) 53 SASR 274 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) An agreement for sale under s 36 of the Shipping Registration Act (Cth) is not within the exception in s 31(1)(a) as one under which the property "cannot vest in the purchaser except upon registration of a conveyance".
s 31a	Duty on agreements for "walk in walk out" sales of land used for primary production	Efira Services Pty Ltd v Commissioner of Stamps (SA) (1990) 21 ATR 361 (SA Sup Ct Prior J): Held, that stocks of wine being sold with a vineyard answered the description of being "stocks....or other chattels held or used in connection with land used....mainly for primary production" for the purposes of s 31a.
s 31b	Interpretation	Stansfield v Commissioner of Stamps (1978) 18 SASR 139 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from Commissioner of Stamps: Held, a caravan-hiring business was not a business of giving to any person the right to use goods in conjunction with a licence to occupy or use any land, and was not within the exemption to the definition of "rental business" in s 31b. Franklin v Moore and Moore (1980) 26 SASR 176 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, a business of hiring motor cars which permitted the hirer to park the vehicle on the firm's premises was not a licence to occupy land and hence was not a rental business within the meaning of s 31d. Esanda Finance Corporation Ltd v Commissioner of Stamps (SA): see s 31f.
s 31f	Statement to be lodged by registered person	S.A. Crate Pty Ltd v S.A.: see s 31. Esanda Finance Corporation Ltd v Commissioner of Stamps (SA) (1992) 23 ATR 519 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Discussion of whether the business of a financier in arranging the disposal of goods for a fee constitutes a "rental business" within the meaning of the Act. s 31i	Matter not required to be included in statement	S.A. Crate Pty Ltd v S.A. (1983) 14 ATR 687; 83 ATC 4587 (SA Sup Ct Walters J: The entire "fill charge" could not be said to be attributable to the "cost of servicing", thus the taxpayer was not entitled to a deduction.

s 32	Interpretation "insurance business"	Mercantile Mutual Insurance (Workers Compensation) Ltd v Commissioner of Stamps (SA) (1989) 20 ATR 328 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J): Held, that a receipt of the adjustment of premiums amounted to "assurance and insurance business" within the meaning of the Act. s 66ab	Where consideration is payable in instalments	Jeffrey v Commissioner of Stamps (1980) 23 SASR 398 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeals against assessment of stamp duties: The meaning of the expression "substantially one transaction or one series of transactions" in s 66ab considered and discussed. Old Reynella Village Pty Ltd v Commissioner of Stamps (SA) (1989) 89 ATC 4, 916 (SA Sup Mohr J): A group was engaged in the process of acquiring separate but adjoining blocks of land with the intention of integrating them in due course into one holding. Accordingly the subject transactions were clearly part of a series of transactions within the meaning of s 66ab(1)(b).
s 71	Instruments chargeable as conveyances operating as voluntary dispositions inter vivos	Commissioner of Stamps (SA) v Softcorp Holdings Pty Ltd (1987) 87 ATC 4, 737 (SA Sup Ct FC): Meaning of "the beneficial interest" in s 71(5)(e) considered.
s 71c	Concessional rates of duty in respect of the purchase of a first home, etc	Gillings v Commissioner of Stamps (SA) (1983) 31 SASR 469; 13 ATR 811, 83 ATC 4092 (SA Sup Ct White J) Appeal from assessment by Commissioner of Stamps: Held, that a farmhouse did not come within the definition of "residential premises forming part of industrial or commercial premise" and that the holder of an interest in such premises did not qualify for an exemption under s 71c(3).
Second Sched.		Superannuation Fund Investment Trust v Commissioner of Stamps (1978) 19 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated. The exemption from stamp duty in par 13b of the Second Schedule of a conveyance to the Crown or to any person on behalf of the Crown, relates only to The Crown in right of the State of South Australia. See s 5. Rose and Rose v Commissioner of Stamps (1979) 22 SASR 84 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal: Held, a document not under seal, not being a deed, was chargeable only with stamp duty as an agreement under seal. Independent Order of Odd Fellows v Commissioner of Stamps (SA) (1985) 38 SASR 282; 16 ATR 448; 85 ATC 4214 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: Exemption was only available if all monies collected for life assurance is invested for the shareholder but not if some is used to cover the risk of some policyholders claiming early death payments.

s 4	Interpretation	Semple v Carson (1984) 35 SASR 589 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that demonstrators who had entered upon leased land leading to the site of a mine had not loitered in a "public place" within the meaning of s 4.
s 6	Assaulting and hindering police	Hallion v Samuels (1978) 17 SASR 558 (SA Sup Ct Bray CJ) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: When a defendant is charged with resisting and assaulting a police officer, and the acts alleged to constitute both offences are the one act, a conviction on one charge is a bar to conviction on the other. Morse v Ashton (1978) 18 SASR 221 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Upon a charge of hindering a police officer, after a request to cease loitering, it is not necessary for the prosecution to prove that the defendant knew or believed that the person hindered was a police officer.

		Cavanagh v Galkowski (1979) 20 SASR 322 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Failing to answer questions put by a police officer is not hindering a police officer in the execution of his/her duty. Jones v Daire (1983) 32 SASR 369 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Meaning of "hindering" within s 6 considered and discussed. Panos v Hayes (1987) 44 SASR 148 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Police are entitled to investigate into the nature of private domestic or civil disputes on private premises. Where they reasonably apprehend a breach of the peace they are entitled to exercise their powers to restrain or prevent injury to persons or damage to property.
s 7	Disorderly and offensive conduct and language	Hughes v Fingleton (1977) 17 SASR 433 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that the partial enclosure of portion of a plaza did not prevent that portion of the plaza from being a "public place", within the meaning of s 7. Campbell v Samuels (1980) 23 SASR 389 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that taking hold of a woman's arms and moving her body without excessive force, because she was blocking access to the street, and pushing against a police officer, constituted disorderly conduct within the meaning of s 7 of the Act. Khan v Bazeley (1986) 40 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The wearing of a T-shirt inscribed with an offensive slogan held to be offensive behaviour within the meaning of s 7.
s 11	Refusal to pay for liquor, meals, etc.	Goldsmith v S (1985) 37 SASR 472 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal from Children's Court: It is no defence to a charge under s 11, that the person who refused to pay for liquor supplied was an infant. s 12	Begging alms	Begg v Daire (1986) 40 SASR 375 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: What distinguished begging from non-begging was a whole complex of factors. For example, the existence of an offer to repay must be viewed in the general context.
s 13	Consorting	Jan v Fingleton (1983) 32 SASR 379 (SA Sup Ct FC): Upon a charge of habitually consorting with reputed thieves, it is not necessary for the prosecution to prove that on each occasion of consorting the defendant should have consorted with more than one person. s 15	Offensive weapons, drugs and articles of disguise	Holmes v Hatton (1978) 18 SASR 412 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal: Whether or not a person was carrying an offensive weapon "without lawful excuse" is to be assessed on a combination of all the reasons for it being carried. An unlawful reason may be so insignificant as to leave the person with a lawful excuse, if indeed they initially had one. Waters v Hayes (1981) 26 SASR 455 (Sup Ct Mr Commissioner McCarthy) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, the provisions of this section are not restricted in their application to the carrying of an offensive weapon in a public place, but are equally applicable to the carrying of such a weapon on private premises. Sandaeu v Forster (1983) 35 SASR 38 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeals from court of summary jurisdiction: An imitation pistol found to be an offensive weapon, since it could easily be mistaken for a pistol, and the accused pointed it with reckless indifference to the fear it caused. Coleman v Zanker (1991) 58 SASR 7 (SA Sup Ct Olssen J): Held, a knife found in the appellant's motor vehicle does not constitute "carrying" for the purposes of s 15. "Carrying" implies the weapon be immediately ready for use. Freundt v Hayes (1992) 59 A Crim R 430 (SA Sup Ct Olssen J): Held, "lawful excuse" does not equate to lawful purpose or lawful authority. It connotes having a reasonable and innocent explanation of a lawful nature.
s 17	Being on premises for an unlawful purpose	Varney v Kowald (1976) 14 SASR 12 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: A person who is on premises for the purpose of behaving as a "Peeping Tom" is on the premises without lawful excuse within the meaning of s 17.

s 17a	Trespassers on premises	Semple v Mant (1985) 39 SASR 282 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeals: Demonstrators failed to leave premises when asked by an authorized person, but distributed leaflets instead. Held, that the nature of the trespass was such as to interfere with the enjoyment of the premises by the occupier, within the meaning of s 17a.
s 18	Lying or loitering in a public place	Power v Huffa (1976) 14 SASR 337 (SA Sup Ct FC): The question whether or not a person may be under a duty or obligation to remain in a public place of such gravity as to amount to a legal justification for remaining in a public place causing a person to loiter, considered and discussed. Morse v Ashton (1978) 18 SASR 221 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Upon a charge of failing to cease loitering in a public place, it is not a defence that the defendant had a lawful reason for remaining in the public place after the request had been made. Del Col v Urie (1978) 19 SASR 399 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgement of Bright J: Meaning of the word loitering, considered and discussed. Rice v Daire (1982) 30 SASR 560 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Moving slowly along a mall chanting, dancing and playing musical instruments is not "loitering" within the meaning of s 18. Millbanks v Ford (1984) 35 SASR 389 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): The meaning of the term "loitering", in s 18, considered. Semple v Carson (1984) 35 SASR 589 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Demonstrators who had entered upon leased land leading to a mine site had not loitered in a "public place" within the meaning of s 18(2). Taylor v Beames (1985) 37 SASR 592 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Observation as to the new penalty to be imposed for the offence of failing to cease loitering after being requested by a member of the police force to cease loitering. Semple v Howes (1985) 38 SASR 34 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Where a defendant is charged with loitering in a public place on what was in fact private land, the prosecution could only succeed if the land was found, in evidence led, to be a public place.
	Loitering in a public place	Walker v Hayes (1986) 44 SASR 250 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration of whether a charge of loitering in a public place is made out when the person charged had a lawful duty or obligation, as opposed to merely a lawful purpose, for being there.
s 18a	Loitering on opal claims	Caric v Rowett (1980) 26 SASR 328 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The meaning of the words "loitered" and "defined", considered.
s 24	Urinating in a public place	Morris v Beck (1990) 54 SASR 540 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, the offence of urinating in a public place under s 24, where it is a deliberate offence, is not a trifling offence for the purpose of s 16 of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988 (SA).
s 25	Soliciting	Fingleton v Bryson (1980) 26 SASR 208 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The meaning of the word "solicit" in s 25, considered.
s 27	Interpretation	Adams v Daire: see s 28. Daire v Ellis (1984) 37 SASR 56; 15 A Crim R 192 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: In respect of a charge of receiving money paid in a brothel in respect of prostitution, it must be established that the premises in which the money is received are a brothel as defined in s 27. Page v L (1986) 41 SASR 139 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Evidence demonstrated that an occupier/lessee of a motel prima facie used the premises as a brothel.
s 28	Keeping and managing brothels	Samuels v Warland (1977) 16 SASR 41 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The question of the elements necessary to establish a receipt of money within the meaning of the Police Offences Act, considered and discussed.

		Atkinson v Samuels (1977) 17 SASR 129 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: A woman who waited for customers, supplied the services required and collected fees from customers, though she was not the lessee of the premises, was charged with keeping a brothel contrary to s 28.
		Oldfield v Samuels (1978) 18 SASR 156 (SA Sup Ct FC) Special Case: On the question of whether a person working in a brothel had actually "received" money and whether or not it had actually been "paid" in respect of prostitution, when it was handed to the worker by a police officer acting as agent provocateur, considered. Held, that the money had been so received if and only if, the worker had the intention of exercising exclusive control over it. Consideration and discussion of wording of s 28.
		Samuels v von Stroheim (1978) 19 SASR 297 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Receiving money from a police officer acting as an agent provocateur constituted receiving money paid in a brothel in respect of prostitution.
		Samuels v Flannery (1980) 24 SASR 384 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: A person who receives money paid in a brothel in respect of prostitution is guilty of an offence against s 28 notwithstanding that the money was received in respect of his or her own prostitution.
		Adams v Daire (1983) 33 SASR 315 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Meaning of term "brothel" in ss 27 and 28 considered and discussed.
		Scott v Killian (1985) 40 SASR 37; 19 A Crim R 187 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from order of Bollen J: Evidence from a customer of a brothel regarding prostitution requires corroboration.
		McDonald v Samoilenko (1989) 51 SASR 119 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that a prostitute who receives money paid by a customer in a brothel in respect of prostitution is guilty of an offence, the offence is not restricted to a third party who subsequently receives money so paid.
s 33	Possession of indecent matter for sale	Devine v Solomijczuk (1983) 32 SASR 538 (SA Sup Ct FC): Where the prosecution proved that a publication was of a sadistic nature it was not necessary for the prosecution to prove in addition that the material was sexually offensive to the ordinary citizen.
s 38	Fraud other than false pretences	Fingleton v Zollo (1979) 22 SASR 241 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The necessity for proof of a contemporaneous fraudulent intention upon a charge of obtaining a benefit or advantage by fraud, considered and discussed.
s 40	Fortune telling, palmistry, etc.	Hartridge v Samuels (1976) 14 SASR 209 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that upon a charge of having for personal gain pretended to tell fortunes, a genuine belief on the part of the defendant of her/his ability to tell fortunes is not a defence to the charge. s 41	Unlawful possession of personal property	Klemenko v Huffa (1978) 17 SASR 549 (SA Sup Ct Bray CJ): It is essential to a conviction for an offence that the Court should be satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that at the relevant time the defendant was in possession of the goods.
		Lloyd v Hayes (1986) 40 SASR 401 (SA Sup Ct Prior J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Where a person had possession of money paid in respect of prostitution she/he had not obtained possession of the money "honestly" within s 41(2) and was rightly convicted of an offence under s 41.
		Tepper v Kelly (1988) 47 SASR 271 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal to the Full Court: The court should require that a police officer had an actual suspicion and that the suspicion must be reasonable. A suspicion is either reasonable or unreasonable and cannot be graded by reference to standards of proof. s 43	Wilful damage to property	Taylor v Pope (1979) 21 SASR 468 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The meaning of the expression "wilfully destroys or damages any property", in s 43, considered.

s 61	Bribery	R v Debelis (1984) 36 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Although it is a rule of practice that where two or more defendants are charged with jointly committing a substantive offence, they are not charged with conspiracy to commit the same, the rule rests upon the identity of the offence. In the case of perversion of justice, which is not an element of the offence created by s 61, it was not an abuse of process for the accused to be charged with conspiracy to pervert the course of justice under s 270(2) of the Criminal Law Consolidation Act. s 67	General search warrants	R v Romeo (1982) 30 SASR 243 (SA Sup Ct FC): Meaning of the term "misdemeanour" as used in s 67 considered and discussed. R v Trotter: see s 79.
s 73	Power to visit places of public entertainment	Brander v Lovegrove (1981) 28 SASR 591 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that a member of the police force is not empowered by this section to order a person to leave on the ground that he is a disorderly person unless that person is known to have the character of behaving in a disorderly manner.
s 75	Power of arrest	O'Leary v Daire (1984) 13 A Crim R 404 (SA Sup Ct White J) Appeal: Section 75 requires a suspicion that an offence has been committed. R v O'Neill: see s 78.
s 78	Proceedings on arrest without warrant	R v Barker (1978) 19 SASR 448 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: The effect of a prisoner in custody in South Australia being taken over the border into another state, and the operation in such circumstances of s 78, considered and discussed. R v Miller (1980) 25 SASR 170 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: The duties of police officers under s 78, considered and discussed. R v Conley (1982) 30 SASR 226 (SA Sup Ct FC): A person arrested has no legal right to be present at her/his premises while they are searched, nor is it permissible to delay delivery of the arrested person to make a protracted search of the arrested person's home. R v Clark (1986) 23 A Crim R 303 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J): Interaction between the Summary Offences Act, s 78 and the Bail Act, considered and discussed.
	Person apprehended without warrant, how dealt with	Santos v The Queen (1987) 61 ALJR 668 (High Court of Aust.) Appeal from SA Sup Ct: Section 78 of the Summary Offences Act does not prohibit interrogation of the apprehended person while in stipulated custody and willing to answer questions. R v Wilson (1987) 47 SASR 287; 32 A Crim R 286 (SA Sup Ct White J) Ruling: Evidence taken from prisoners unlawfully removed from custody by police officers, is admissible if the police officers did not know that such removal was unlawful. R v O'Neill (1988) 48 SASR 51 (Ct Cr App) Appeal: Admissibility of a confessional statement and the trial judge's refusal to exclude it, considered and discussed.
s 79	Arrest without warrant where warrant has been issued	R v Wilson (1987) 47 SASR 287; 32 A Crim R 286 (SA Sup Ct White J) Ruling: Held, the option of proceeding should not have been put to the accused, who in the circumstances was effectively deprived of that right. R v Trotter (1992) 60 A Crim R 1 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held: 1. The deputy commissioner is entitled to sign a search warrant where the Commissioner is "absent from duty" and exercise the authority conferred on the Commissioner by s 67(1). 2. Discussion of what constitutes de facto apprehension for the purposes of s 79(a). s 79a	Rights upon arrest	R v Leecroft (1987) 46 SASR 250 (SA Sup Ct White J) Ruling: "Apprehended" pursuant to s 79a means taken into actual or de facto custody. Only when a person is "apprehended" does she/he become entitled to the protection of s 79a. Scott v Pavia (1987) 46 SASR 563; 7 MVR 367 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Case stated: A person does not come within the description of having been "apprehended on suspicion of committing an offence" when complying with a lawful direction to wait for the arrival of a breath analysis unit.

		Marshal v Twigs (1987) 4 MVR 280 (SA Sup Ct Mohr J): Where a motorist is arrested for refusal to undergo an alcotest there was an onus on police to inform that person of their rights, pursuant to s 79a(3). R v Warner (1988) 48 SASR 79 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J): Application of the provisions of s 79a considered and discussed. Burgess v Hall (1988) 48 SASR 394 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, an appellant was not apprehended when required by a police officer to attend a breath testing station for breath analysis. R v Musico (1991) 55 SASR 274 (SA Sup Ct FC): Right of accused to have friend present during interrogation and admissibility of such evidence, discussed.
s 81	Power to search, examine and take particulars of person in custody	R v Franklin (1979) 22 SASR 101 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: 1. The taking of blood and hair specimens can constitute an examination within the meaning of s 81(2) and must be carried out whilst the person is in custody. 2. The meaning of "examination" and of what is "reasonable", considered and discussed.

s 4	Interpretation	R v Ackland; Ex parte Tepper (1985) 38 SASR 371 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the meaning of "minor indictable offence" in s 4. Chamberlain v Thow (1986) 42 SASR 301 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Discussed: the meaning of "minor indictable offence" in s 4.
s 9	Incorporation with past and future Acts	Purvis v West: see s 52.

s 22a	Description of offence in documents under this Act	Okmasich v Evans (1980) 25 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct White J) Appeals from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the questions of the sufficiency of the description of the offence and of the effect under the Justices Act of a variance between the allegations in the complaint and the evidence adduced by the complainant where evidence adduced established that the offence was probably committed on the previous day. s 27	Service of summons	Plenty v Dillon (1991) 65 ALJR 231 (HC): Held, a police officer has no right under the law of South Australia, whether common law or statutory, to enter a private property in order to serve the summons without the consent of the person in or entitled to possession of the land, and without any implied leave or licence. Section 27 was merely facultative, giving the process server an option as to the manner of service. It conferred no relevant power, and no power to do a thing prohibited at common law. s 28	Proof of affidavit of service of process, handwriting etc.	South Australian Co-operative Bulk Handling v Donhardt (1979) 46 SAIR (Pt 2) 563 (SA Ind Ct Layton J) Appeal from Industrial Magistrate: Held, the combined reading of ss 62 and 28 require that there must be evidence given or tendered before the court of service of the summons and such evidence had to be before the court before it had power to proceed ex parte. The court held the view that ss 64, 62 and 28 were appropriate to be followed. It was also considered that the application of s 62(ba) was limited to members of the Police Force or public officers.
s 40	Suspension or mitigation of forfeiture	Elsom v Bassell (1979) 23 SASR 101 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from order of Special Magistrate: Held, when a Special Magistrate or Justice of the Peace hears and decides an application under s 40 for the remission or reduction of a forfeited recognizance or security, they are not acting as a court of summary jurisdiction, and there is no right of appeal to the Supreme Court. s 43a	Special provisions relating to industrial offences	Richards v Baulderstone Pty Ltd (1976) 43 SAIR (Pt 2) 1442 (SA Ind Ct Shillabeer AIM): Consideration that by virtue of s 43a(1) the matter was properly before the Industrial Court. s 46	Contempt of Court	G v Moss (1984) 37 SASR 9 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J): Discussed, the powers of a court of summary jurisdiction under s 46 in relation to contempt of court, and the procedure to be followed in the making and hearing of a charge of contempt of court.
s 49	Complaint	R v Manos; Ex parte Samuels (1981) 28 SASR 262 (SA Sup Ct FC) Mandamus: Held, the making of a complaint before a Justice of the Peace does not involve any exercise of discretion nor is it a judicial act on the part of the Justice before whom the complaint is made.
s 50	How laid	Collins v Dix (1972) 39 SAIR (Pt 2) 1109; Russel v O'Halloran (1895) SA Advertiser - 12 Aust. Digest 272 followed where it was held that s 50 did not permit a corporation to be a complainant. R v Manos; Ex parte Samuels: see s 49.
s 52	Limitation of time for laying	Purvis v West (1979) 22 SASR 313 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, section 52 applies to proceedings for a breach of recognizance which must therefore be commenced within six months from the time when the matter of complaint arose.
s 53	Punishment of aiders and abettors in the commission of the offence	Police v Perrys Bakery Pty Ltd (1972) 39 SAIR (Pt 2) 1129: Application of s 53 to an offence of breaches under the Baking Trades Award. If offence committed employer can be convicted because he procured the commission of the offence.
s 56	Exceptions or exemptions need not be specified or disproved by complainant	Douglass v Ninnes (1976) 14 SASR 377 Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, upon the charge of failing to vote, the onus is on the elector to satisfy the Court, on the balance of probabilities, that he has a valid and sufficient reason for failing to vote, and that no proof was required from the prosecution from the matter. Baronian v Potter Constructions Pty Ltd (1979) 22 SASR 215 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, it was sufficient, to make out a prima facie case, for the complainant to prove that the company agreed to construct a building and that it was not the holder of a general licence. The onus was then on the company to call evidence that it came within the exemption or exclusion contained in s 21(1) of the Builders' Licensing Act.

		Butson v Barclay (1981) 27 SASR 100 (SA Sup Ct Mr Commissioner Duggan) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, upon a complaint for the offence of flying an aircraft at a lesser height than prescribed in the Air Navigation Regulations, the prosecution is not required to prove that the area flown over was not excepted under regulation 117, but the onus is on the defendant to establish that fact.
		Rowbottom v Nicolitsi (1986) 41 SASR 576; 4 MVR 35 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussed, generally, what constitutes an "excuse, exemption or qualification etc" within s 56.
		Daire v O'Malley (1986) 41 SASR 583; 4 MVR 51 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussed, generally, what constitutes an "excuse, exemption or qualification etc" within s 56.
s 57a	Procedure for plea of guilty to be entered in writing	Howie v Scheer (No 2) (1986) 59 LGRA 360 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Section 57a(7a) does not operate to prevent a prosecution being called on in court and the court itself ordering an adjournment.
s 62	On non-appearance of defendant court may issue warrant or proceed ex parte	Meverley v Commane (1987) 47 SASR 162 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, the Special Magistrate correctly exercised his discretion to proceed with an ex parte hearing and determination of a charge of driving under the influence.
		South Australian Co-operative Bulk Handling v Donhardt: see s 28.
s 62ba	Ex parte proceedings where defendant neither appears nor returns written plea of guilty	Walker v Eves (1976) 13 SASR 249 (SA Sup Ct Bray CJ) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Observations as to the circumstances in which courts of summary jurisdiction should adopt the procedure for the ex parte hearing of proceedings under s 62ba.
		Howie v Gordon (1986) 60 LGRA 36 (SA Sup Ct FC): Section 62ba(1) cannot be used to cure defects arising out of something that was inadvertently not alleged in the complaint. s 64	If both parties appear, court to hear and determine the case	South Australian Co-operative Bulk Handling v Donhardt: see s 28.
s 65	Power to the court or the justice to adjourn the hearing	Meverley v Commane (1987) 47 SASR 162 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Discussed, whether the court's decision to issue a warrant under s 65(5) in preference to a summons under s 65(6) was a correct exercise of the court's discretion.
s 69	After hearing the parties, court to convict or dismiss	Kester v Marsh (1979) 21 SASR 348 (SA Sup Ct Williams AJ) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, a court of summary jurisdiction has power under s 69 to permit a complaint to be withdrawn against the will of the defendant. s 70ab	Court may require convicted person to enter into recognizance	Williams v Marsh (1985) 38 SASR 313 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussed, the ambit and effect of s 70ab.
s 75	General power of courts to refrain from or mitigate punishment	Mancini v Vallelonga (1981) 28 SASR 236 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Discussed, the meaning of "trifling" in s 75(2).
		New SF Produce Pty Ltd v Mewett (1983) 33 SASR 27 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Discussed, factors to be taken into account in determining whether to reduce a fine under s 75(5).
		Daire v Raphael (1983) 35 SASR 302 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Discussed, factors to be taken into account by a Court of summary jurisdiction in deciding whether to exercise the power given by s 75(7), to impose the penalty of a fine in lieu of imprisonment.
		Elliot v Bassell (1984) 15 A Crim R 462 (SA Sup Ct Commissioner): Discussed, factors to be taken into account by the court in the exercise of its discretion under s 75(5).
		Lindner v Scheer (1986) 61 LGRA 137 (SA Sup Ct von Doussa J): Discussed, what constitutes a "trifling offence" under s 75(2).
		Mancini v Hamilton (1987) 5 MVR 429 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the meaning of "first offence" in s 75(5).

s 76a	Power to set aside conviction or order of court of summary jurisdiction	Maider v Dancis (1985) 39 SASR 136 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussed: 1. Factors to be taken into account by a court in the exercise of its discretion to set aside a conviction or order under s 76a. 2. The ambit of s 76a. 3. The relationship between ss 76a and 163. Maverley v Commane: see ss 62 and 65.
s 77	Power to award costs	Manthorne v Bache (1980) 25 SASR 316 (SA Sup Ct White J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The powers of a court of summary jurisdiction to order payment by a defendant of costs or compensation, considered and discussed. Foley v Padley (No 2) (1985) 56 LGRA 400 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Discussed, the meaning of "costs" in s 77. Kelly v Noumenon Pty Ltd (1988) 47 SASR 182 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed: 1. Whether a court may award costs to a successful complainant under s 77 in respect of attendance by a prosecutor who is not an admitted legal practitioner. 2. How such costs are to be assessed.
s 81	Term of imprisonment in default of payment of fine	R v Nolan (1983) 10 A Crim R 469 (Fed Ct of Aust, Fisher J) Discussed, the combined effect of ss 81 and 83 of the Justices Act 1921, and s 18A of the Crimes Act 1914 (Cth), on offences against the Trade Practices Act 1974, Part V. s 83	Warrants to enforce payment may be postponed and payment by instalments or security directed	R v Nolan: see s 81.
s 84	Convictions and orders may be enforced by distress or imprisonment, as provided in this Act	In re Weetra (1978) 18 SASR 321 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Per Hogarth J, had the order for payment been a valid order for compensation, the amount so ordered to be paid would have been a "sum of money" adjudged to be paid by a conviction or order within the meaning of s 84.
s 85	Conviction or order may impose imprisonment in default of payment of fine, etc.	Harris v S (1978) 18 SASR 329 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J): Held, the Justices Act did not bind the Crown, but the Registrar of Companies was not entitled to the immunity of the Crown, and it was within the discretion of the Court of summary jurisdiction to make an order against the Registrar under s 84.
s 93	Imprisonment for subsequent offence may commence at expiration of earlier sentence	Flood v McAvaney (1976) 14 SASR 50 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, under s 93, the court of summary jurisdiction had the power to order that the sentences of imprisonment which it imposed should commence at the expiration of the sentence which was then being served. Reid v Hughes (1982) 29 SASR 207 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed: 1. The meaning of "subsequent offence" in s 93. 2. The effect of omitting from a warrant, an order that the imprisonment should commence at the expiration of the previous sentence.
s 99	Orders to keep the peace	Mann v Yannacos (1976) 16 SASR 54 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, an order of a Special Magistrate to keep the peace was an order or adjudication within the meaning of s 163. However, the Special Magistrate had no power under s 99 to make such an order against the original complainant, because no complaint was made against him. Brunsgard v Daire (1984) 36 SASR 391 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J): Discussed, the procedure to be followed by a court of summary jurisdiction under s 99.
s 106	Receipt of evidence upon preliminary examination	R v Byczko (No 1) (1977) 16 SASR 506 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal appeal: The effect and application of s 106(6)(a), considered and discussed. R v Grieve; Ex parte Ellis (1978) 19 SASR 437 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held, if the Special Magistrate or Justice decides that there are special reasons that an alleged victim of a sexual offence appear at the hearing, she/he has no discretion to refuse the defendant's application under s 106(6a) and is required to make an order to that effect.

		Shannon v Ackland (1990) 55 SASR 125 (SA Sup Ct Debelle J): Held: 1. An order of committal for trial may be the subject of judicial review. 2. The provisions of s 106(6) require substantial compliance. A failure to not substantially comply with s 106(6) does not in all cases invalidate an order of committal. The legislation is not intended to prevent or delay committal proceedings when some unforeseen occurrence prevents strict compliance with s 106(6).
s 106a	Power of justices to take plea of guilty without evidence	R v Gun; Ex parte Stephenson (1977) 17 SASR 165 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: The interpretation and application of s 106a considered and discussed.
s 122	Procedure and powers of court in relation to charges of minor indictable offences	McCaffrey v Trembath (1984) 35 SASR 382 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Discussed, the scope and operation of s 122 and the effect of s 122 on the power of a magistrate to state a special case under s 162. Tepper v Di Francesco (1984) 38 SASR 256 and 266 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the procedure to be followed by a court of summary jurisdiction under s 122 in relation to a minor indictable offence and a submission of no case to answer. R v Fiala; Ex parte Watkins (1986) 41 SASR 168; 22 A Crim R 100 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the scope, ambit and operation of s 122; in particular, the Special Magistrate's power under s 122 to commit the accused for trial after a submission of no case to answer. Tassell v Hayes (1987) 61 ALJR 296; 71 ALR 480 (HC): Discussed: 1. Whether a court of summary jurisdiction has the power to proceed with an ex parte hearing and determination of an information for a minor indictable offence. 2. If so, what procedure is to be followed.
s 127	Costs not to be adjudged upon dismissal	France v Kraft (1985) 39 SASR 272 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, section 127 prevented the Special Magistrate from ordering payment of costs by the informant to the defendant upon dismissal of an information. Beshara v Metro Meat Ltd (1988) 91 FLR 232; 36 A Crim R 129 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, an offence contrary to s 7 of the Crimes Act (Cth), charged and determined in a summary way was an "indictable offence" under s 127 which precluded the making of an order for costs against the informant upon the dismissal of the offence. s 129	Powers of Court as to punishment of minor indictable offences	R v Manos; Ex parte Normandale (1977) 16 SASR 78 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held, if the court of summary jurisdiction decided to hear and determine the charge as a minor indictable offence, the Court should not impose penalties exceeding those prescribed by s 129. Flentjar v Daire (1983) 32 SASR 101 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J): Discussed, the complementary operation of subsections (3) and (4) of s 129.
s 133	Proceedings to be a bar to further prosecution	Walker v Baehnk (No 1) (1987) 44 SASR 376 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal: Held, that the ruling of a magistrate refusing to release a defendant from an information pursuant to s 133 was an order or adjudication from which an appeal lay to the Supreme Court under s 163. Walker v Baehnk (No 2) (1987) 44 SASR 380 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, section 133 does not entitle a defendant to a certificate of release under s 133 where the dismissal was ordered as a procedural strategy (upon want of prosecution evidence), rather, the dismissal must be as a result of a decision on the merits.
s 162	Points of law may be reserved for the consideration of the Supreme Court or Industrial Court	Samuels v Peter F Burns Pty Ltd (1976) 14 SASR 88 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: Held, the offence of entering into a transaction for the purpose of defeating or evading the operation of the Urban Land (Price Control) Act could be dealt with summarily as a minor indictable offence and that the Special Magistrate therefore had power to state the case for consideration of the Supreme Court under s 162 of that Act. McCaffrey v Trembath (1984) 35 SASR 382 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, the Special Magistrate had no power in the course of a preliminary examination, to state a special case under s 162, and the Supreme Court therefore had no jurisdiction to proceed to a determination of the case stated. Sweatman v Le Griffin (1988) 50 SASR 379; A Crim R 133 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, a forfeiture order made for the purposes of s 162 took the same character as an earlier order, so that there was power to state a case.

s 163	Right of appeal to Supreme Court or Industrial Court	Elliot v Harris (No 2) (1976) 13 SASR 516 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, it is permissible for an appeal to be instituted by one notice of appeal against convictions made by a court of summary jurisdiction on charges made in different complaints. Power v Huffa (1976) 14 SASR 337 (SA Sup Ct FC) Question of law reserved for Full Court: Held, an appeal lay to the Supreme Court by a defendant from the order of a court of summary jurisdiction, notwithstanding that the complaint had been dismissed. Mann v Yannacos: see s 99. Paynter v Huffa (1977) 17 SASR 120 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: An appeal to the Supreme Court from a conviction or order of a court of summary jurisdiction is an appeal by way of re-hearing, and it is within the power of the Supreme Court to receive evidence of facts occurring after the date of the conviction or order. Schiller v Fingleton (1979) 21 SASR 229 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The meaning of the word "conviction" in s 163, considered. Robinson v Cox (1979) 21 SASR 536 (SA Sup Ct Williams AJ) Appeal from Juvenile Court: Held, an appeal lies to the Supreme Court pursuant to s 163 from any final order or adjudication made by a Juvenile Court when exercising jurisdiction under s 82 of the Community Welfare Act. Elsom v Bassell: see s 40. Peters v Lawson (1980) 23 SASR 418 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, an appeal against a conviction which was adjourned before the imposition of a penalty was not a conviction by a court of summary jurisdiction, and an appeal from that decision is incompetent. Okmasich v Evans (1980) 25 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct White J) Appeals from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, it is permissible for an appeal to be instituted by one composite notice of appeal against convictions made by a court of summary jurisdiction on charges made in separate complaints. Walsh v Kaminski (1980) 26 SASR 188 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Children's Court: Held, a young offender charged but not convicted before a Children's Court had no right of appeal from the decision to the Supreme Court. Maider v Dancis (1985) 39 SASR 136 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussed, the relationship between ss 163 and 76a. Zagar v Wright (1986) 41 SASR 452 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussed, whether s 163 extends to the refusal of a court or justice to make a rescission or reduction order under s 19(3) of the Bail Act. Walter v Baehnk (No 1): see s 133. Dubois v Lovegrove (1987) 45 SASR 309 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, an evidence ruling in a preliminary examination by a magistrate is not appealable under s 163. Gray v Sweatman (1987) 45 SASR 517; 26 A Crim R 157 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Discussed, whether s 163 extends to the refusal of a court or justice to make a rescission or reduction order under s 19(3) of the Bail Act. Di'Orio v Ford (1987) 6 MVR 254 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): Discussed, the right of appeal under s 163 against an interim or provisional order. John Weeks Pty Ltd v Harris (1990) 49 A Crim R 421 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that there could be no appeal from a refusal of a Magistrate to dismiss a complaint as an abuse of process, because such an order did not determine the substantive rights of the parties so as to come within the meaning of "adjudication" in s 163.
s 165	Power of Supreme Court to dispense with conditions relating to appeal where compliance impracticable	Joseph v Davies (1976) 14 SASR 274 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, by reason of s 171(4) the institution of the appeal was rendered void by the failure to serve the notice of appeal upon the respondent within seven days and it was therefore not possible for the Supreme Court to extend the time for appeal under s 165.

		Farelly v Fitzgerald (1976) 15 SASR 228 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J): Held, the Supreme Court had no power to extend the time of one month for the institution of an appeal, when notice of appeal was not served upon the Clerk of the Court within one month of the hearing. Samuels v Meyler (1977) 16 SASR 378 (SA Sup Ct FC) Question of law reserved for the Full Court: Held, by reason of s 171(4) of the Justices Act, the institution of an appeal was rendered void by the failure to serve a notice of appeal upon the respondent within seven days from the date of service of the notice upon the Clerk of the Court. Johannessen v Miller (1977) 16 SASR 546 (SA Sup Ct FC) Questions of law reserved for Full Court: Held, that the Supreme Court is empowered by s 165 to dispense with the requirement of s 172(1) of the Act, that is, the appeal must be instituted within one month after the date of the conviction order or adjudication subject to appeal. Johannessen v Miller (No 2) (1977) 17 SASR 243 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, an appellant who has done whatever is reasonably practicable to comply with the provisions of the Justices Act should be entitled to an order dispensing with the requirement of s 172. Ceruto v Ewens (1977) 17 SASR 249 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, in the circumstances where the convicted defendant knew nothing of charges laid against him, an order dispensing with the requirement that appeals should be instituted within one month from the conviction should be made. Lansdell v Reed (1981) 28 SASR 253 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration of the interpretation of the expression "reasonably practicable" in s 165, empowering the Supreme Court to dispense with compliance with any condition relating to an appeal if in its opinion the appellant "has done whatever is reasonably practicable to comply with the provisions of the Act". Rough v Rix (1982) 30 SASR 301 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Discussed, the scope of s 165. Held, the Supreme Court was empowered under s 165 to dispense with compliance with the requirements of s 171(4) if, in its opinion, the appellant had done what was reasonably practicable to comply with the provisions of the Act.
s 165	Dispensation with requirements of this Act relating to institution of appeal	Cook's Hotel Pty Ltd v Pope (1983) 33 SASR 240 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the new s 165 was a procedural section and was to be construed as operating retrospectively unless it adversely affected vested rights.
s 170	After decision on appeal justices may enforce same	Grey-Pagdin v Duthie (1987) 47 SASR 493 (SA Sup Ct FC) Points of law reserved to Full Court: Held, by s 170 the respondent's prison sentence was suspended while on bail pending determination of an appeal. s 171	Manner in which appeal to be instituted	Joseph v Davies: see s 165. Farelly v Fitzgerald: see s 165. Samuels v Meyler: see s 165. Skaventos v Gage (1979) 21 SASR 233 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: A defendant posted a notice of appeal to the complainant, who received it one day after the expiration of the time for service prescribed by s 171(4). Held, the institution of the appeal was rendered void. Battersby v McDonnell (1980) 25 SASR 556 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, the provisions of s 171(4) did not require that the notice of appeal be served upon the respondent after the notice had been served upon the clerk of the court of summary jurisdiction, and the appeal was not rendered void by the fact that the notice was first served upon the respondent. Rough v Rix (1982) 30 SASR 301 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Held, section 171 should be read subject to s 165. See s 165.
s 172	Time for instituting appeal and hearing thereof	Farelly v Fitzgerald: see s 165. Johannessen v Miller: see s 165.

		Ceruto v Ewens: see s 165.
		Lansdell v Reed: see s 165.
s 176	No other evidence to be received on hearing without consent or order	Paynter v Huffa: see s 163.
		Taormina v Cameron (1980) 24 SASR 59 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, upon the hearing of an appeal against conviction in a court of summary jurisdiction, the Supreme Court is empowered by s 176 to receive evidence of events which have occurred since the conviction. s 177	Procedure and power of Supreme Court on appeal	Williams v Grillet (1979) 21 SASR 258 (SA Sup Ct Williams AJ) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Where on appeal against a conviction the Supreme Court remits the matter to the Court of summary jurisdiction for re-hearing, the Supreme Court has jurisdiction to order the respondent to the appeal to pay the costs of the proceedings in the Court of summary jurisdiction.
		Williams v Bache (1982) 31 SASR 25 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Held, the Supreme Court may not, in the absence of an appeal by the complainant, review the decision of the court of summary jurisdiction to exercise its discretion under the Offenders Probation Act 1913, and discharge the defendant.
		Scheer v Howie (1986) 59 LGRA 370 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, s 177(2)(e) does not empower a court to quash a conviction. s 181	Form of information or complaint	Cook's Hotel Pty Ltd v Pope (1983) 34 SASR 292 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeals: Requirements as to the form of complaints made under the Act, considered and discussed.
s 182	Information or complaint not to be objected to for irregularity	Elliot v Harris (No 2) (1976) 13 SASR 516 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, if there is a reasonable possibility that a defendant will be prejudiced by a variance between complaint and evidence, the complaint, not having been amended, should be dismissed.
		Schulz v Pettitt (1980) 25 SASR 427 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The powers of a court of summary jurisdiction to amend a complaint, considered and discussed.
		Okmasich v Evans: see s 22a.
		Mancini v Sheldrick (1981) 28 SASR 41 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, as the Court of summary jurisdiction had wrongly failed to consider the question of whether the defendant had been prejudiced by the variance between the complaint and the evidence adduced, the order of dismissal should be set aside and the matter referred back to the Court of summary jurisdiction for further hearing. s 183	Amendment of information or complaint	Schulz v Pettitt: see s 182.
s 185	Amendments of convictions, warrants, etc	Brunsgard v Daire (1984) 36 SASR 391 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J): Discussed, the power of a Special Magistrate to amend an original complaint under s 185.
s 200a	Certificate of compensation	Manthorne v Bache: see s 77.

s 23	Counter-claims and third parties	Santos Ltd v American Home Assurance Co (1986) 4 ANZ Insurance Cases 74, 863 (SA Sup Ct White J): The right of counterclaim given by s 23 of the Supreme Court Act is not available where the issues are unrelated to the principal claim. s 29	Court may make orders to have effect of mandamus or injunction, and may appoint receivers	Pivovaroff v Chernabaeff (1977) 16 SASR 329 (SA Sup Ct King J) Action: Circumstances under which an injunction can be granted or refused, considered and discussed.
s 30b	Power to make interim assessment of damages	Cirjak v Todd (1977) 17 SASR 316 (SA Sup Ct Bray CJ): Held, the court had power to make an order for general damages for a girl's education until a final assessment of her damages for personal injury could be made. Grabkowski v Majchrowski (1978) 19 SASR 290 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Action: Consideration and discussion of the circumstances in which a declaratory order should be made for periodic payment of damages under s 30b, and of the operation of s 30b(7). Walker v Tugend (1981) 28 SASR 194 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Action: Circumstances to be taken into account in deciding whether a declaratory judgement should be given pursuant to s 30b, considered and discussed. Held, that a case where a person was injured severely in an accident and suffered reduced life expectancy, the extent of which was unknown, was one in which a declaratory judgement was the proper decision. FF Seeley Nominees Pty Ltd v El Ar Initiations (UK) Pty Ltd and Anor (No 4) (1992) 163 LSJS 271 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J): Held, equitable damages available to a plaintiff as a result of the defendants disobeying orders are not within the scope of s 30b and do not arise out of a determination as to damages at the original hearing.
s 30c	Power to award interest	Marziale v Hathazi (1976) 13 SASR 150 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J): Neither the plaintiff's delay in instituting proceedings or his failure to mitigate was a reason for refusing interest on the judgement. Solomon v Irving (1977) 15 SASR 595 (SA Sup Ct King J) Action: Held, that interest should be allowed on the amount of general damages awarded, undiminished by any sums received by way of worker's compensation. Aro-Allan Veneer Pty Ltd v Public Trustee (1978) 18 SASR 428 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, that s 30c of the Supreme Court Act 1935 did not empower the making of an award of interest after final judgement. Christopoulos v Steel Mains Pty Ltd (1978) 21 SASR 463 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Action: Held, that in calculating interest upon the damages awarded, the amounts received as workmen's compensation should be excluded from the sum upon which interest was calculated. Guley v Sabbadin (1979) 21 SASR 139 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Action: Held, in allowing interest upon damages awarded for personal injury, the amounts received as workmen's compensation were not to be excluded from the sum upon which interest should be calculated. Thompson v Favaonio (1979) 24 ALR 1 (Privy Council) Appeal from Full Court of the Supreme Court of SA: Interest, under s 30c, on damages awarded for personal injury, should only be calculated on amounts awarded for loss occurring prior and up to the date of judgement of the court of first instance. Revising part of Faraonio v Thompson (1978) 19 SASR 56.

		Vincent v Faehrmann (1979) 21 SASR 503: Hewitt v Bernhardt (1979) 21 SASR 510 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J): Paull v Gloede (1979) 21 SASR 526 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgement of Newman AJ: In an action for damages for personal injuries, interest should not be allowed upon damages assessed for future loss of earning capacity or other losses not yet suffered by the plaintiff. Wheeler v Page (1982) 31 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: Judicial discretion when assessing interest on a damages claim, considered and discussed. Dimond v Metcalf (1982) 32 SASR 73 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Action: Notwithstanding that a tort giving rise to an action was committed in New South Wales, interest on the damages awarded should be assessed in accordance with s 30c of the Supreme Court Act. Legal and General Assurance Society Ltd v Stateliner Pty Ltd (1982) 31 SASR 157 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal: On appeal of a damages claim, the defendant is under no liability to the plaintiff until the Full Court pronounced its judgement. Meddick v Cutten and Harvey (1984) 36 SASR 542 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgement of White J: Section 30c deals not with the interest which a judgement will bear after it is entered but with interest to be awarded as a component part of the judgement debt. A.J. Thompson Pty Ltd v K.L.K. Manufacturing Pty Ltd (1986) ATPR 47, 875 (Fed Ct of Aust Fisher J): Held, that the Federal Court of Australia is not empowered by s 79 of the Judiciary Act to include in a judgement an award of interest under s 30c(1) of the Supreme Court Act (SA). s 35	Power to arrest debtors about to leave the State	Southern Drug Co v Lagos (1980) 24 SASR 590 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Action: Consideration and discussion of the circumstances in which an order can be made under s 35.
s 39	Restriction on institution of vexatious actions	A/G v Van Reesma (1986) 43 SASR 170 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J) Motion: Held, that the expression "legal proceedings" in s 39(1) includes both civil and criminal proceedings for the purpose of determining whether vexatious legal proceedings had been instituted.
s 49	Cases or points of law reserved for Full Court	R v Parry (1980) 23 SASR 187 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: The right of a Judge to state a case for consideration of the Full Court, considered and discussed. R v Millhouse (1980) 24 SASR 555 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: That the power given to any Judge of the Court to reserve a case, or any point in a case, for the consideration of the Full Court does not authorize a Judge to reserve for the Full Court's consideration a point of law arising in the course of a criminal trial was discussed but not decided.
s 50	Appeals against decisions of judges and masters	Road Chalets Pty Ltd v Thornton Motors Pty Ltd (1986) 47 SASR 532 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: A mortgagee does not require leave as is normal under s 50(1) and (2)(b), to appeal against an order for costs awarded in the mortgagor's favour because there is a common law practice that a mortgagee is entitled to costs in a suit of redemption, unless guilty of misconduct. Legal Practitioners Complaints Committee v A Practitioner (1987) 46 SASR 126 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: Consideration of the meaning of "judgement" and "order" and of the distinction between those concepts and incidental rulings which are not subject to appeal. Remm Construction (SA) Pty Ltd v Allco Newsteel Pty Ltd (1992) 57 SASR 180 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, an adjournment sine die of applications that issues as to liability of plaintiffs and defendant be heard and determined separately is an appealable order within s 50(1). s 72	Rules of court	Rigney v Rigney (1987) 48 SASR 291 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: Rule 56.06(d) of the Supreme Court Rules is to be regarded as a rule relating to practice and procedure. It therefore falls within the rule-making power of s 72 of the Supreme Court Act.

		R v S (1988) 50 SASR 161 (SA Sup Ct Lunn AJ) Application to set aside a subpoena in the Criminal Court: Discussion of the relationship between the Supreme Court Rules, 1987 made under s 72 of the Supreme Court Act, and special rules of the Supreme Court often made under separate legislation. In this case the Rules of Supreme Court (Criminal Jurisdiction) 1981 were considered.
		Hellaby v State Bank of South Australia: see r 60.01. s 114	Interest on judgement debts	Meddick v Cutten and Harvey (1984) 36 SASR 542 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgement of White J: Section 114 prescribes the rate of interest which a judgement is to bear and hence is not affected by s 30c where interest is awarded as part of the judgement debt.
Supreme Court Admission Rules rule 5	Rules governing admission as legal practitioner	In Re Everingham (1976) 13 SASR 488 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: Held, that to interfere with a finding of The Board of Examiners that an applicant for admission as a practitioner did not possess an adequate knowledge of SA law and practice, the Court must be satisfied either that The Board acted on some erroneous principle of law or misapprehension or fact, or that its conclusion was one which no reasonable body could have reached.
rule 5	That applicants must have adequate knowledge of SA law and practice	In re Goldberg (1981) 28 SASR 472 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from finding by The Board of Examiners: The principles to be applied in determining whether an applicant for admission as a practitioner in the Supreme Court possess an adequate knowledge of South Australian law and practice, considered and discussed.
rule 5	Admission to practice (SA)	Re Bellman (1985) 39 SASR 222 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from decision of Board of Examiners: Meaning of the words "carried on practice as a barrister or solicitor" considered and discussed.
rule 28	Absolute admission as a practitioner on grounds that an applicant "has not pursued any occupation other than the proper business of a legal practitioner"	In re Hunt (1976) 14 SASR 197 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, working in the Australian Legal Aid Office constituted the "proper business of a legal practitioner" within the meaning of rule 28(2).
rule 45		In re Prescott (1976) 13 SASR 390 (SA Sup Ct FC) Application for exemption from Sup Ct Admission Rules: Held, the special circumstances enabling the court to grant exemption from compliance with the rules must be unusual, abnormal or atypical.
Supreme Court Rules 1987
r 10.03	Issue of summonses	Leslie v F.S. Evans and Sons Pty Ltd (1988) 65 LGRA 168 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): The court has unfettered discretion to permit renewal for "proper cause shown" implying that the court is to decide each application on the merit. It does not require the applicant to show exceptional reasons.
r 18.02	Cases in which a summons may be served out of Australia	Saltram Wine Estates Pty Ltd v Independent Stave Co (1992) 57 SASR 156 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, the use of the words "is or relates to" in r 18.02(a) does not demonstrate an intention to change the effect of O 11. Claims for damages for breach of contract do not come within O 11.
r 38.01	Experts' Reports and Paternity Tests	Wilson v Porter (1988) 46 SASR 547 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from order of Bolton J: The power of the court to order a party to deliver a report of an expert witness to another party does not extend to material not included in the report but relied upon in its compilation.
		Sorre v Ingman (1992) 57 SASR 469 (SA Sup Ct Mohr J) Held: 1. An expert report must be prepared by the expert "in his capacity as an expert". 2. Communications of a defendant medical practitioner with his legal advisers are not communications in his capacity as an expert but as a client. 3. Rule 38.01 does not abrogate from a party's right to claim legal professional privilege.
r 40.07	Offers To Consent to Judgment	Stevens v Chandler (1988) 46 SASR 541 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from order of von Doussa J: The respective purposes of s 42 of the Local and District Criminal Courts Act and rule 40.07 of the Supreme Court rules, distinguished and discussed.
		Lacey v Schneider (No. 2) (1988) 46 SASR 519 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Discussion of the history of rule 40.07 and O22 r6A.

	Pleadings Generally	Rupcic v A W Baulderstone Pty Ltd (1987) 46 SASR 99 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal: Consideration of the effects on pleading of rr 46 and 47 of the Supreme Court Rules 1987.
r 41		Whitehead v Maas (1991) 56 SASR 362 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the criteria that the defendant unreasonably failed to accept the filed offer is to be determined objectively. The offer remains open until judgement. The purpose of the rule is penal.
r 46.12	A defence and a subsequent pleading is to specifically admit or deny including particular	Duke Group (In Liq) v Arthur Young (Reg) & Peat Marwick Hungerfords (Third Party) (No 13) (1991) 5 ACSR 212 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, that: 1. The court is not bound by the plea that a party "does not know and cannot admit a fact" if there are proper grounds to do so. 2. Generally speaking a Company should not stand on a different footing from a natural person in that respect, and if a company is admittedly a party to various transactions, it could hardly be allowed to plead ignorance of what it had taken part in. 3. A company in liquidation must comply with r 46.12 and other pleading rules in the same fashion as might be expected of an ordinary limited company not in liquidation. Duty of liquidator, discussed.
r 46.12		Duke Group Ltd (In Liq) v Arthur Young (Reg) & Peat Marwick Hungerfords (Third Party) (No. 13) (1991) 5 ACSR 212 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, that if a plaintiff wishes to rely upon facts in answer to those set out in the defence other than facts which he has set out in his statement of claim, he has no alternative but to file a reply, in which event it must comply with r 46.12(1) Supreme Court Rules (SA).
r 46.18	Striking out pleadings	Duke Group Ltd (In Liq) v Arthur Young (Reg) & Peat Marwick Hungerfords: see r 46.12.
r 47.04	Defences	Duke Group (In Liq) v Arthur Young (Reg) & Peat Marwick Hungerfords (Third Party) (No. 13) (1991) 5 ACSR 212 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, that a negative pregnant should be regarded as raising a positive allegation of fact. Although r 47.04 only proscribes any "evasive denial or negative pregnant" in a defence, a negative pregnant should not normally be tolerated in any reply.
r 53.01	Amendments	Brook v Flinders University of South Australia (1988) 47 SASR 119 (SA Sup Ct von Doussa J): Application may be made under the general power to amend a writ of summons, and the plaintiff will generally be granted leave to amend so that the merits of the claim can be resolved.
r 53.03	Power to allow amendment where limitation period has expired	Brook v Flinders University of South Australia (1988) 47 SASR 119 (SA Sup Ct von Doussa J): The scheme of r 53.03 is primarily related to a new cause of action and is independent of the Statute of Limitations. Swietlick v Central Linen Service (1991) 56 SASR 569 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussion of what constitutes a "new cause of action".
r 56.06	Pretrial Conferences	Rigney v Rigney (1987) 45 SASR 464 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): In an action for damages for personal injury, rule 56.06(d) empowers the court to require the defendant to give details of the component part of a lump sum offer to the plaintiff.
r 60.01	Orders for discovery against a nonparty and before action	Hellaby v State Bank of South Australia (1992) Unreported Judgement No 3686 (SA Sup Ct FC): A rule that is not for the purpose of regulating proceedings of the court may be completely outside power and is therefore reviewable. Rule 60.01 is within power and not disproportionate to the purpose of the grant of power.
r 63.02	Summons for the determination of questions on a statute, statutory instrument, by-law or rule	WorkCover Corporation v James (1992) 57 SASR 365 (SA Sup Ct FC): The purposes of R 63.02 discussed.
r 84.12	Judgments And Orders	Commonwealth Bank of Australia v Forsham (1990) 55 SASR 247 (SA Sup Ct FC): Ambit of r 84.12 considered.
r 97.03	Appeals against Masters and others to which R 97.02 does not apply to go to single Judges	George v Dowling (1992) 57 SASR 579 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): Held, whilst an appeal from a Master is by way of rehearing, it is limited to whether the decision ought to be affirmed or overturned in light of the material before the Master. Where it involved the exercise of discretion some error must be established. Evidence may only be adduced if the fresh evidence tests are satisfied.

r 100.03	Action stayed till security is given	Remm Construction (SA) Pty Ltd v Allco Newsteel Pty Ltd (1992) 57 SASR 180 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, r 100.03 does not preclude the statutory right of appeal given by s 50 of the Supreme Court Act 1935.
Supreme Court, Rules prior to 1987
O. 2 rule 1	Commencement of action	Benzija v Adriatic Fisheries Pty Ltd (1984) 37 SASR 545 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Originating summons: O. 2, rule 1 obliges a litigant to commence proceedings by way of a writ of summons unless authorized to commence by originating summons. The Trustee Act s 90 authorizes the use of an originating summons.
0. 3 rule 3	Evidence–power to call expert witnesses	McCutcheon v Grimmond (No. 1) (1986) 40 SASR 404 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Action: It is the duty of the court to limit the number of expert witnesses called.
O. 8 rule 1	Renewal of writ	Middleton v Geary (1980) 24 SASR 239 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from order of Deputy Master: Held, mere failure by the solicitor for a party to cause a writ to be served within twelve months does not, of itself, constitute a good reason for the renewal of the writ.
0. 10	Summons for immediate relief	Taylor v District Council of Munno Para (1984) 57 LGRA 438 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): On a summons for immediate relief under SCR 0. 10 the proceedings must be resolved by the normal adversial method and in accordance with the usual procedures.
O.16, r2	Substitution or correction of misnomer	La Compagnie Financiere de la Mediteranee SA v Peter & Son Pty Ltd (1985) 38 SASR 550 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from order of a Master: The Master has jurisdiction to correct an error where a party is wrongly named, but such order should not be by way of substitution of another plaintiff.
O. 16 rule 7	Claims for indemnity & contribution between co-defendants	Eggleston v Marley Engineers Pty Ltd (1979) 21 SASR 51 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Action: Where the claimant wishes to rely upon facts which have not been pleaded by the plaintiff against the co-defendant, an order for third party directions under O. 16, rule 7 of the Supreme Court Rules is necessary.
O. 16 rule 11	Application to be joined as a defendant	Gilbertson v The State of South Australia (1976) 15 SASR 66 (SA Sup Ct FC) Action: The right to apply for the joinder of additional parties is not restricted to the existing parties to the action.
O. 16 rule 16	Proceedings by mental defective in own name or by best friend	Hutchinson v Gaitazis and Gobell (1980) 25 SASR 30 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J) Action: Although the rule permits a mental defective to sue by best friend, it does not require that course to be followed, and a mental defective may validly commence proceedings in his/her own name.
O.16A rules 3 & 12	Third party notice	Roufos Jewellers of Adelaide Pty Ltd v Malltown Pty Ltd (1980) 27 SASR 270 (SA Sup Ct Wells J): Held, a third party became party to an action from the time of service of the third party notice on said party.
O. 19 rule 17	Rules of pleading	Rupcic v A W Baulderstone Pty Ltd (1987) 46 SASR 99 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal: Consideration of the principles and techniques of pleading under the new Rules of Court.
O. 20 rule 2	Amendment of writ after expiration of limitation period	Brook v Flinders University of South Australia (1988) 47 SASR 119 (SA Sup Ct von Doussa J) Appeal from a Master: The latitude accorded to a plaintiff by O. 20, rule 2 did not extend to causes of action in libel, contract and negligence.
O. 21 rule 9	Right of counter claim under 0. 21, rule 9	Santos Ltd v American Home Assurance Co (1986) 4 ANZ Insurance Cases 74, 863 (SA Sup Ct White J): The right of counterclaim was not available where the issues were unrelated to the principal case.
O. 22 rule 1	Costs–variation	Cretazzo v Lombardi (1975) 13 SASR 4 (SA Sup Ct FC) Action: The making of an offer to consent to judgement for a sum less than the amount awarded is a factor to be taken into consideration in the exercise of the Court's discretion in making an order for costs.
O. 24 rules 1, 3 & 4	Matters Arising Pending Action	Maney v Minister of Agriculture (1976) 14 SASR 333 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Action: Held, the provisions of the Supreme Court Rules applicable to the filing of pleadings subsequent to a defence are equally applicable to the filing of a further defence. Consequently, it was not open to the plaintiffs to file a further defence after the expiration of seven days from the filing and delivery of the further defence.

O. 25 rule 2	Order that a point of law be disposed of before trial of the action	Rogers v Baillieu Bullock Wilkinson Pty Ltd (1981) 28 SASR 594 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Action: An order pursuant to O. 25, rule 2, should be made only where the objection in point of law raises a question which, if decided in favour of the objecting party, would dispense with any further trial of some substantial issue in the action.
O. 25 rule 4	No reasonable cause of action	Egan v The Commonwealth Minister for Transport (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from the order of Walters J: Circumstances in which a statement of claim will be struck out, pursuant to O. 25, rule 4, as disclosing no reasonable cause of action, considered and discussed.
O. 28 rule 1	Amendment of writ or pleading	Karasaridis v Kastoria Fur Products (1984) 37 SASR 345 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: Assuming that an amendment to a damages claim for personal injury introduced a new cause of action, the court had power to allow such amendment.
O. 31 rule 1	Discovery–in what proceedings	R v City of Tea Tree Gully; Ex parte Concrete Systems Pty Ltd (No. 1) (1986) 65 LGRA 56 (SA Sup Ct FC): O.31, r1, applies to all forms of potential proceedings before the court regardless of their nature.
O. 31 rule 31	Disclosure of documents	Williams Aviation Pty Ltd v Santos Ltd (1985) 40 SASR 272 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J) Action: Circumstances in which an order for disclosure of documents by a stranger to the proceedings should be allowed, considered and discussed.
O. 31 rule 31	Documents–in "possession, custody or power".	Wee v Gerard Industries Pty Ltd (1986) 40 SASR 329 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Appeal from order of Master: Consideration of the meaning of the words "possession, custody or power" and of what documents must be disclosed under that rule. Consideration of the meaning to be attributed to the expression "likely to be a party" to subsequent proceedings. Where there is a dispute as to the facts the court is not required to decide the issues between the parties. The court must ask whether the defendant "may" or "may well be made" a party to subsequent proceedings.
O. 36 rule 8	Entry for Trial and Notice	Crack v Broken Hill Pty Ltd (1985) 39 SASR 216 (SA Sup Ct Lunn AJ) Action: Leave to hear an interlocutory application after the time for lodging such application has expired will only be granted if it is established that some special circumstance makes it just to do so.
O. 37	Number of expert witnesses to be called	McCutcheon v Grimmond (No. 1) (1986) 40 SASR 404 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Action: It is the duty of the court to exercise the power given by RSC O. 30 rule 3(3)(e) and O. 37 to limit the number of expert witnesses called in routine and uncomplicated claims for damages for personal injury.
O. 37 rule 4	Judges powers with respect to examination of witnesses	In re Co-Operative Development Funds of Australia Ltd and Others (No. 1) (1977) 19 SASR 105 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J) Petitions: The Supreme Court of South Australia cannot sit outside of South Australia but under O. 37, rule 4 a Judge of the Supreme Court may be appointed a special examiner for the purposes of examining witnesses outside South Australia.
O. 39 rule 2	Jurisdiction of Supreme court	General Motors-Holdens Ltd v The Ship "Northern Highway" (1982) 29 SASR 138 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from order of Master: Held, the service of a writ "in rem" cannot be effected out of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court.
O. 54 rule 20	Jurisdiction of Master to make order nisi in a criminal matter	R v Manos; Ex parte Samuels (1981) 28 SASR 262 (SA Sup Ct FC) Mandamus: A Master has jurisdiction to make an order nisi for mandamus in a criminal matter where the question of the jurisdiction of the court to make such an order is not in dispute.
O. 58 rule 14	Substitution of higher damages by Supreme Court	Rendell v Paul & Earle (1979) 22 SASR 459 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgement of Hogarth J: Even though there is no appeal or cross appeal by the plaintiff, on appeal by the defendant upon the ground that the damages awarded were excessive the Full Court is empowered to substitute, in its discretion, a greater award of damages in lieu of the award made in the judgement appealed from.
O. 58 rule 16	Extension of time for appeals	Scott Pools Pty Ltd v Corporation of the City of Salisbury (1979) 22 SASR 406 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeals from Planning Appeal Board: Consideration and discussion of the question of whether the Supreme Court has power to extend the time prescribed for the giving of notice of appeal from the Planning Appeal Board to the Supreme Court.
O. 59 rule 9	Discovery–in what proceedings	R v City of Tea Tree Gully; Ex parte Concrete Systems Pty Ltd (No. 1) See O. 31, rule 1.

O. 64 rule 3	Deadlines for the return of petitions	In Re Trendset Products Pty Ltd (1976) 15 SASR 240 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J) Petitions: The provisions of O. 64 rule 3(1) are applicable to orders made by the Supreme Court that petitions should be returned by a specified date when that date is a public holiday.
O. 64 rule 7	Extension of time to appeal	Carr v Simnovec (1980) 26 SASR 263 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Warden's Court: In the event of an appeal to the Warden's Court being out of time, the Supreme Court has power to extend the time for service of the notice of appeal.

s 27	Only stamped measuring instrument, etc, to be used	Tingey v Harrison: see s. 41. Hodges v Taylor (1981) 28 SASR 90 (SA Sup Ct Mr Commr von Doussa) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, with respect to charges under s 27, that it is immaterial whether the pump mechanism which measure the price of was calculated was separate from the device which measured the petrol supplied, since both came within the definition of measuring instrument.
s 29	Offences in connection with masses, etc.	Hodges v Taylor (1981) 28 SASR 90 (SA Sup Ct Mr Commr von Doussa) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: In a case where the pump did not measure petrol incorrectly, but merely priced it incorrectly, a charge could not be made out under s 29 since it had not been shown that the pumps measured incorrectly.
s 41	Defence to proceedings for offence	Tingey v Harrison (1980) 25 SASR 26 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, the proprietors charged with having in their possession a petrol pump which was incorrect, even though they did not know it was incorrect failed to establish the defence of mistake because it was not shown that they had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.

s 36	Power of the court to appoint new trustees	Benzija v Adriatic Fisheries Pty Ltd (1984) 37 SASR 545 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Originating summons: The court has power to remove a trustee and appoint another where it is considered expedient to do so and may exercise that power even though the trustee may not wish to go.
s 59b	Advantageous dealings	City of Burnside v Attorney-General of SA: see s 69b.
s 59c	Power of court to authorize variations of trust	Benzija v Adriatic Fisheries Pty Ltd (1984) 37 SASR 545 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Originating summons: The power to revoke a trust requires weighty reasons; even if they exist the court must consider, pursuant to s 59c(3), the interests of the beneficiaries, the security of the trust property and satisfactory execution of the trusts by the trustee. s 69a	Inclusion of non-charitable and invalid purposes not to invalidate a trust	In the Estate of Cole (1980) 25 SASR 489 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Originating summons: Held, the establishment of a Foundation which included both charitable and non-charitable purposes, was to be construed as if no provision had been made requiring or permitting the application of the trust property for purposes that were non charitable.
s 69b	Application of trust property cy-pres	City of Burnside v Attorney-General of SA (1992) 75 LGRA 145 (SA Sup Ct Debelle J): An application to sell the very subject of the trust falls outside s 59b. An application for a cy-pres scheme could be made under s 69b. Where the trustee is a local council the court cannot authorise the sale of parklands under s 69b as this is impliedly prohibited under the Local Government Act 1934 Pt XXII.
s 84a	Interpretation	In the Estate of Webb (1992) 57 SASR 193 (SA Sup Ct FC): The term "any trust" grants the South Australian Supreme Court jurisdiction over the administration of a trust connected with South Australia.
s 90	Parties entitled may apply to the Court by summons or petition	Benzija v Adriatic Fisheries Pty Ltd (1984) 37 SASR 545 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Originating summons: Section 90 authorizes the use of an originating summons for an application for an order under the Trustee Act. However, when there are disputed facts a writ of summons is to be preferred.

s 5 Interpretation

CSR Limited v Valuer-General (1977) 17 SASR 446 (SA Sup Ct Wells J): Where it is unlikely that there will be much competition over a particular piece of land, in making the valuation of that land the owner of the land should be treated as potential buyer.

Goode v Valuer-General (1979) 22 SASR 247 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Appeal from Valuer-General: Meaning of the word "improvement" in s 4, considered and discussed.

Beiler v Valuer-General: see s 16.

s 16	Valuation may be separate or conjoint	Beiler v Valuer-General (1980) 23 SASR 385 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from valuation of Valuer-General: In ascertaining the capital value of land of a Crown Lease Perpetual of two or more sections of land, the lease should be considered as if it were one piece of land held in fee simple comprising two or more allotments.
s 24	Objection to valuation	Mobil Oil Australia Ltd v Valuer-General and Anor (1992) 77 LGRA 313 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): The Local Government Act and Valuation of Land Act operate as complementary. A council may object to a valuation under s 24 except where a council has adopted the valuer-general's valuation and in that situation it cannot object. s 25b	Review of valuation	Coventry v Valuer-General: see s 25c.
s 25c	Right of appeal	Fenton Nominees Pty Ltd v Valuer-General (1981) 27 SASR 258 Appeal against valuation of Valuer-General: The status of, and the weight to be given to, a valuation of the Valuer-General upon an appeal to the Supreme Court against valuation, considered and discussed. Coventry v Valuer-General (1987) 63 LGRA 105 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): The court had no power to consider whether a determination to make a separate valuation of a portion of land under s 16 should have been made.

s 8	Requirements as to writing and execution of will	Elder's Trustee & Executor Company Ltd v Walker (1976) 15 SASR 62 (SA Sup Ct Bray CJ): A testator's signature on the third page of the will could be regarded as appearing at the foot or end of the will. Probate granted on the first three pages of the will. In Estate of Radziszewski; Lalic v South Australia (1982) 29 SASR 256 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Action: Wills not signed at the foot or end can be validated by s 12(2) if, as here, the deceased indicated acceptance of the will.
s 9	When signature to a will to be deemed valid	Elder's Trustee & Executor Company Ltd v Walker: see s 8.
s 12	Validity of will	In the Estate of Graham (1978) 20 SASR 198 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Motion: A will, signed but not validly witnessed, admitted to probate because on the facts there was no reasonable doubt that the deceased intended the document to constitute her will.

		Baumanis v Praulin (1980) 25 SASR 423 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J): Held, that s 12(2) has no application to a document which, although embodying the testamentary intentions of a deceased person, has not been executed at all by that person. In the Estate of Kurmis (1981) 26 SASR 449 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J) Motion: Held, a testator who added an extra legacy to the body of a properly executed will, had an intention that this should form part of the will. In the Estate of Kolodnicky (1981) 27 SASR 374 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Motion: Held, the provisions of s 12(2) were applicable notwithstanding that the document had been executed prior to the enactment of that provision. In the Estate of Radziszewski; Lalic v South Australia (1982) 29 SASR 256 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Action: Held, s 12(2) applied to a will which would have been signed by the deceased, had he the strength to do so. In the Estate of Standley (1982) 29 SASR 490 Motion: 1. Section 12(2) of the Wills Act applies to wills executed before the enactment of the subsection. 2. Section 12(2) can apply to parts of a will, like alterations, not only to a whole document. In the Estate of Crocker (1982) 30 SASR 321 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Motion: Held, the provisions of s 12(2) were applicable, even though the will had been executed before the enactment of the section. In the Estate of Blakely (1983) 32 SASR 473 (SA Sup Ct White J) Motion: A husband's will inadvertently signed by his wife admitted to probate. There was no reasonable doubt that he intended the document to constitute his will. In the Estate of Williams (1984) 36 SASR 423 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held, the provisions of 12(2) extended to a document signed by the witnesses but inadvertently not signed by the testatrix. In the Estate of Lynch (1985) 39 SASR 131 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Motion: A will revoked by marriage but subsequently altered by the testatrix who amended her surname, admitted to probate under s 12(2). In the Estate of Ryan (1986) 40 SASR 305 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J) Motion: Held, s 12(2) extended to an unsigned addition to a properly executed will. In Estate of Kraehe (1986) 40 SASR 347 (Sa Sup Ct Matheson J) Motion: A testator failed to sign the last page of what purported to be his will. Document admitted to probate under s 12(2). In the Estate of Richardson (1986) 40 SASR 594 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J) Motion: A document with a suicide note referring to it and entitled Last Will and Testament but which was not signed or witnessed, admitted to probate under s 12(2). In the Estate of Gwynne (1988) 48 SASR 209 (SA Sup Ct White J): Held, the evidence established that a carbon copy of a will was the last will of the deceased, and would be admitted to probate. In the Estate of Greenslade (1988) 48 SASR 414 (SA Sup Ct White J) Application: Held, that a duly executed will which was subsequently amended so that it didn't comply with the requirements for a valid will, should be admitted to probate. In the Estate of Kirs (1990) 55 SASR 61 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Unattested alterations, obliterations and additions to an otherwise properly executed will, were non-operative as per s 24, and cannot be admitted to probate pursuant to s 12(2). The proviso to r18 of the Rules of Supreme Court (Administration and Probate Act) and the fact that the alterations were of no practical importance, ensured that the original will could be admitted to probate.
s 24	Alterations in wills	In the Estate of Kirs: see s 12.
s 25	How revoked will is to be revived	In the Estate of Jones (1979) 21 SASR 46 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Motion: Whether a testator intended to revive a revoked will by making a codicil to that will, is a question to be decided on the facts of the case. s 28	What a residuary devise includes	In the Estate of Cole (1980) 25 SASR 489: Held, a failed gift of land fell into the testator's residuary estate.

s 3 Interpretation

Barton v City of Henley and Grange (1989) 51 SASR 290 (SA Sup Ct FC): The definition of "journey" in s 3 of the Act legitimated a deviation by way of return for the temporary and necessary purpose of fixing a deflated tyre.

Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Corporation v Ascione (1989) 52 SASR 122 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, a congenital defect leading to a cerebral rupture was not a "disease" within the meaning of s 3 of the Act Frith v Medical Review Panel (1989) 1 WCATR 124 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Determination of claims–medical provisions–medical Boards and Referees–functions–Medical Review Panel–"medical question" involving determination of incapacity–validity of reference.

Burford v Review Officer: see s 30.

Woodville City Corp v. Smith (1989) 1 WCATR 135 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Injury followed by reactive arthritis–exacerbation of reactive arthritis–whether compensable.

s 30	Compensability of disabilities	Barton v City of Henley and Grange (1989) 51 SASR 290 (SA Sup Ct FC per White J): The provisions of s 30(6)(b) did not operate to cause a worker's journey to terminate when he recrossed the boundary of his home to effect repairs, as that provision operated to terminate a journey between the place of employment and the worker's residence. Burford v Review Officer (1989) 1 WCATR 61 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Onus of proof–myocardial infarction whilst shearing–a secondary disability arising in the course of employment.
s 32	Compensation for medical expenses, etc.	WorkCover Corporation v Rice (1989) 1 WCATR 170 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Assessment – special payments – medical and hospital treatment – reasonable and necessary costs – travelling expenses – rate – relevant considerations.
s 35	Weekly payments	Kelvinator v Jezior (1988) 49 SASR 592 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: Held, allowing the appeal, the provisions of s 35(2) imported the same element of mutuality in the contract of employment as existed in the repealed statute. Francese v Adelaide City Corporation (1989) 51 SASR 522 (SA Sup Ct FC): A worker was entitled to compensation equal to his/her notional weekly earning, as defined by s 3 which for present purposes was average weekly earnings, including overtime where it was worked on a regular and established pattern. T O'Connor & Sons Pty Ltd v Review Officer (1989) 1 WCATR 160 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Review of award–application to reduce–"incapacity"–changes in working conditions–"rates of remuneration"–method of calculation. Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Corporation v James (1992) 57 SASR 365 (SA Sup Ct FC): "Reasonable prospect of obtaining employment" means that to reduce payments the Corporation must show that suitable wok is immediately available to the worker and it is reasonable for the worker to undertake such work. s 36	Discontinuance of weekly payments	Simpson Ltd v Piwinski (1989) WCATR 227 (SA Workers Comp App Tribunal). Cessation of payments–return to work on light duties at less than full-time employment. Wills v WorkCover Corp (1989) 1 WCATR 243 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Cessation of payments procedure–mandatory requirements as to notice–whether a defective notice curable. WorkCover Corp v Phillips: see s 97. Thuy Thi Vu v Review Officer: see s 106.
s 38	Review of weekly payments	T O'Connor & Sons Pty Ltd v Review Officer: see s 35.
s 39	Economic adjustments to weekly payments	T O'Connor & Sons Pty Ltd v Review Officer: see s 35.
s 42	Commutation of liability to make weekly payments	Howe v State of South Australia (1992) 166 LSJS 270 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): The fact that a worker is left with an inability to work in his previous employment amounts to a "permanent incapacity".
s 43	Lump sum compensation	WorkCover Corporation v Phillips (1991) 56 SASR 72 (SA Sup Ct FC): "Normal life" means the life which the individual would have been capable of leading and would have been expected to lead, if he or she had not suffered the disability.
s 52	Claim for compensation	Arrowcrest Group Pty Ltd v Vo (1989) 1 WCATR 215 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Proceedings for compensation–sufficiency–failure to comply with formalities–mandatory requests–failure to reject claim as defective.
s 54	Limitation of employer's liability	Broken Hill Pty Co Ltd v Lorenz (1990) 535 SASR 244 (SA Sup Ct FC): Pursuant to s 54(1), an employer must answer to any liability imposed upon him by the Act, and in addition, a liability at common law limited to "non-economic loss or solatium". Alsafe Safety Industries Pty Ltd v Workers Rehab & Compensation Corporation (1990) 54 SASR 320 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that the jurisdiction of the Industrial Court to hear a claim under s 54 is not subject to a condition precedent that liability to pay damages has been established in a prior action. The provisions of s 54(7)(g) when read in their natural sense permit the Industrial Court to determine all the issues that have to be resolved to determine the claim for indemnity.

		Mundy v Pav (1992) 57 SASR 526 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held (by majority) damages to be awarded against a tort feasor for services voluntarily rendered to an injured person by a third person are not a liability for non-economic loss within s 54.
s 59	Registration of employers	Western Underwriters Insurance Ltd v Carey (1990) 57 SAIR 246 (SA Ind Ct): Offences–unregistered employer entering contract of service–continuing offence–time limitation for prosecution–penalty.
s 60	Exempt employers	Santos Ltd v Saunders (1988) 49 SASR 556 (SA Sup Ct FC): "Matters" that the corporation should have regard to, so as to exclude matters personal to the applicant, considered and discussed.
s 67		Australian National Railways Commission v Commission for Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation of Commonwealth Employees (1992) 35 FCR 344 (Fed Ct of Aust von Doussa J): Held, the mere resignation by a worker from employment does not necessarily preclude the worker from benefiting under s 67(1). Consideration of what constitutes a breach of s 67.
s 88	Principles relating to reviews	Wills v WorkCover Corp: see s 36.
s 90	Powers of Review Authority	Moir v Review Officer (1988) 1 WCATR 30 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Determination of claims–evidence–legal professional privilege–summons to produce documents–whether right to privilege abrogated by statute. s 92	Representation	Evans v Gen Motors-Holden Automotive Ltd: see s 102.
s 95	Application for review	Evans v General Motors-Holden Automotive Ltd: see s 102.
		Re Litchfield (1989) 51 SASR 87 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that s 47(2)(d) of the Limitation of Actions Act has application to the time limit prescribed by s 95 of the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1986, with the result that the general extension made by s 47 cannot apply to the time limit under s 95.
		Local Govt Assoc (SA) v Sutton: see s 96.
s 96	Review by Review Officer	Santos Ltd v Saunders (1988) 49 SASR 556 (SA Sup Ct FC): The defendant's obligation in reviewing the decision under s 96 was to make a fresh judgement of the matter
		Local Govt Assoc (SA) v Sutton (1989) 1 WCATR 237 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Refusal of worker to undergo remedial treatment–suspension of payments by employer–Review by Review Officer–hearing de novo.
		Advertiser Newspaper v Despoja: see s 97.
s 97	Appeals to the Tribunal	WorkCover Corp v Phillips (1989) 1 WCATR 69 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): 1. Appeal from Review Officer to Tribunal–person dissatisfied with decision–whether power of Corp delegated to exempt employer. 2. Cessation of payments–right of employer–effect of application by worker for review–where payments discontinued before application made.
		Advertiser Newspaper v Despoja (1989) 1 WCATR 178 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Determination of claims–evidence–matters not contained in formal claim–admissibility–powers of Review Officer–relevant considerations.
		Soldo v Review Officer (1989) 1 WCATR 144 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Hearing and orders made–nature of appeal–appeal from Review Officer to Tribunal–admission of further evidence–hearing de novo.
s 98	Decisions of Medical Review Panel	Urban v Mitsubishi Motors (1989) 1 WCATR 269 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Hearing and orders made–appeal from Medical Review Panel to Tribunal–appeal on record. s 100	Appeals to Supreme Court	Workers' Rehabilitation & Compensation Corporation v Thuy Thi Vu (1988) 49 SASR 585 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that the word "decision" in s 100 of the Act should not be construed so as to confine the availability of an appeal to decisions of the Workers' Compensation Appeal Tribunal which finally disposed of the issues between the parties.

s 102	Special jurisdiction of Review Officer	Evans v Gen Motors-Holden Automotive Ltd (1988) 1 WCATR 45 (SA Workers Comp App Trib) 1. Determination of claims – costs – Tribunal declining jurisdiction – Appeal from Review Officer – Review Officer without jurisdiction. 2. Jurisdiction of Workers Comp App Tribunal – Discontinuance of weekly payments – sufficiency of claim. s 106	Payment of interim benefits	Thuy Thi Vu v Review Officer (1989) 1 WCATR 15, 21, 27 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Cessation of payments–procedure–notice to worker–weekly or interim payments–effect of failure to give notice.

Workers Rehabilitation & Compensation Regulations 1986

reg 3	"Worker"	Wheeler v Review Officer: see reg 4.
reg 4	"Employ"	Wheeler v Review Officer (1989) 1 WCATR 90 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Held, a worker assisted by an unpaid volunteer was not an employer, thus his injury was compensable.

s 6	Privilege of newspaper, radio or television reports of legal proceedings	Bunker v James and Downland Publications Ltd (1980) 26 SASR 286 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Action: The meaning of the word "contemporaneously", in s 6, considered and discussed. Held, that a newspaper report of proceedings in Victoria was too one-sided to be a fair and accurate report of proceedings within the meaning of s 6.
s 20	Effect and mode of bringing action, awarding of damages for funeral expenses, etc.	Wright v Johnston (1980) 25 SASR 595 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgement of Wells J: In an action for damages following the death of a wife and mother, damages must be apportioned between the husband and children.
s 25	Proceedings against and contribution between joint and several tort-feasors	Hanson v Matthew Brothers (Contractors Ltd (1990) 55 SASR 183 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Duty of care of third party to plaintiff discussed.

		Bakker v Joppich and Bitumax Pty Ltd: see s 26.
s 26	Extent of contribution	Bakker v Joppich and Bitumax Pty Ltd (1980) 25 SASR 468 (SA Sup Ct Wells J): Held, that the defendant (an employee), having made accord and satisfaction with the plaintiff, became a "tort feasor" liable for the damage to the plaintiff (within the meaning of s 25(1)(c)) and therefore entitled to recover contribution from the employer. The court could reduce the amount of contribution by the employer, per s 26, if the defendant/employee had been negligent.
s 27a	Apportionment of liability in cases of contributory negligence	Watt v Bretag (1981) 27 SASR 301 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgement of Mohr J: Consideration and discussion of the question whether, in apportioning responsibility for the collision, the fact that the defendant was appreciably affected by intoxicating liquor should be taken into account.
		Christie v Bridgestone Australia Pty Ltd (1983) 33 SASR 377 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgement of Zelling J: In the absence of a plea of contributory negligence s 27a(3) imposes no power or duty on the judge to apportion liability between the parties.
		Walker v Hungerfords (1987) ATR 68,780 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): A plea of contributory negligence is available where a breach of conduct was a breach caused by negligent conduct, i.e. it is available to claims in both contract and tort.
		Martin v Stratman (1992) Aust Torts Reports 61,732 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, workers compensation payments are not "damages" within the meaning of the Wrongs Act. s 34	Damages where injured spouse participated in a business	Chorlton v Walker (1983) 35 SASR 47 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Action: Meaning of the expression "engaged in the conduct of a business", considered and discussed.
		Lott v Cameron (1983) 35 SASA 61 (SA Sup Ct FC) Action: A wife carried on publicity and promotion work in her husband's theatrical and booking agency. Held, the husband and wife were "engaged in the conduct of a business".
s 35a	"Significantly impaired"	SGIC v Fiorenti (1991) ATR 69, 052 (SA Sup Ct FC): Interpretation of "significantly impaired" under s 35a(1)(a)(i).
