After section 75A insert:

Division 12B—Exclusion of liability for trespass—authorised officers

15 75B—Exclusion of liability for trespass—authorised officers

- (1) No action for trespass arises by reason only of an authorised officer carrying out official duties to which this subsection applies on another person's premises.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to the following official duties of an authorised officer:
 - (a) executing any civil or criminal process, including issuing or giving to, or serving on, a person a summons, notice or other document required or authorised to be issued or given to, or served on, the person under an Act or law;

(b) observing and carrying out any direction of a court.

(3) In this section—

authorised officer includes—

- 5 (a) a police officer; and
- (b) a protective security officer appointed under the Protective Security Act 2007; and
- 10 (c) the sheriff, deputy sheriffs and sheriff's officers appointed under the Courts Administration Act 1993; and
- (d) a person appointed under section 7 of the Sheriff's Act 1978 to carry out the duties of a sheriff in relation to any matter; and
- 15 (e) a Public Service employee (within the meaning of the Public Sector Act 2009); and
- (f) any other person engaged by or on behalf of the Crown to execute any civil or criminal process; and
- 20 (g) a person of a class included in the ambit of this definition by the regulations, but does not include a person of a class excluded from the ambit of this definition by the regulations;

25 premises means—

- (a) land; or
- (b) a building or structure on land other than a residential building or structure;

residential building or structure means a building or structure used as a place of residence but does not include a carport, verandah or other similar structure attached to or associated with such a building or structure.
