(4) An approval given by the Minister or the National Director may be revoked by the Minister or the National Director (as the case may be) if, because of a change in any matter referred to in subsection (2), the Minister or the National Director considers that it is no longer appropriate that the organisation be approved.

9—Insertion of sections 79B and 79C

After section 79A insert:

79B—Referral to National Director

(1) If an application (other than an application under section 79C) is made to the Minister under this Part, the Minister may, with the agreement of the National Director, refer the application to the National Director for determination.

(2) If an application is referred to the National Director under subsection (1)—

(a) the application is taken to have been made to the National Director under this Part; and

(b) the applicant is entitled to be refunded an amount equal to any prescribed fee paid by the applicant on making the application less the amount (if any) prescribed by the regulations as an administration charge for the purposes of this section.

79C—Minister may revoke decision of National Director

(1) A direction made, or approval given, by the National Director under this Part may, either on application or on the Minister's own initiative, be revoked by the Minister if the Minister considers that it is not appropriate that the direction be made or the approval be given.

(2) An application made to the Minister under subsection (1) must—

(a) be in writing; and

(b) be made within the prescribed time; and

(c) be accompanied by—

(i) documents and information of a kind prescribed by regulation; and

(ii) the prescribed fee.

(3) This section has effect despite any other provision of this Part.

10—Amendment of section 91—Regulations

Section 91—after its present contents (now to be designated as subsection (1)) insert:

(2) The regulations may be of general application or vary in their application according to prescribed factors.
