Part 3—The co-operative principles

10—Co-operative principles

The co-operative principles are the following principles:

1 Voluntary and open membership

Co-operatives are voluntary organisations, open to all persons able to use their services and willing to accept the responsibilities of membership, without gender, social, racial, political or religious discrimination.

2 Democratic member control

Co-operatives are democratic organisations controlled by their members, who actively participate in setting their policies and making decisions. Men and women serving as elected representatives are accountable to the membership. In primary co-operatives members have equal voting rights (1 member, 1 vote) and co-operatives at other levels are organised in a democratic way.

3 Member economic participation

Members contribute equitably to, and democratically control, the capital of their co-operative. At least part of the capital is usually the common property of the co-operative. They usually receive limited compensation (if any) on capital subscribed as a condition of membership. Members allocate surpluses for any or all of the following purposes:

- (a) developing the co-operative, possibly by setting up reserves, part of which at least would be indivisible;
- (b) benefiting members in proportion to their transactions with the co-operative;
- (c) supporting other activities approved by the membership.

4 Autonomy and independence

Co-operatives are autonomous, self-help organisations controlled by their members. If they enter into agreements with other organisations, including governments, or raise capital from external sources, they do so on terms that ensure democratic control by their members and maintain their co-operative autonomy.

5 Education, training and information

Co-operatives provide education and training for their members, elected representatives, managers and employees so they can contribute effectively to the development of their co-operatives. They inform the general public, particularly young people and opinion leaders, about the nature and benefits of co-operation.

6 Co-operation among co-operatives

Co-operatives serve their members most effectively and strengthen the co-operative movement by working together through local, national, regional and international structures.

7 Concern for the community

While focusing on member needs, co-operatives work for the sustainable development of their communities through policies accepted by their members.

Note—

The co-operative principles are those adopted by the International Co-operative Alliance.

11—Interpretation to promote co-operative principles

In the interpretation of a provision of this Law, a construction that would promote the co-operative principles is to be preferred to a construction that would not promote the co-operative principles.

Division 1—Exclusion of matters from the Corporations legislation

12—Excluded matter—co-operatives and participating co-operatives

Note—

This section ensures that neither the Corporations Act nor Part 3 of the ASIC Act will apply in relation to a co-operative or participating co-operative, other than to the extent specified in this section. Section 5F of the Corporations Act provides that if a State or Territory law declares a matter to be an excluded matter in relation to the whole of the Corporations legislation other than to a specified extent, then that legislation will not apply, except to the specified extent, in relation to that matter in the State or Territory concerned. However, other provisions of this Part provide for the application of provisions of the Corporations legislation to co-operatives or participating co-operatives as laws of this jurisdiction.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not exclude the application of the following provisions of the Corporations legislation to co-operatives or participating co-operatives to the extent that the provisions would otherwise be applicable to them:
- (a) provisions relating to a matter that the National Regulations provide is not to be excluded from the operation of the Corporations legislation;

- (b) provisions relating to the role of a co-operative or participating co-operative in the formation of a company;
 - (c) provisions relating to the registration of a co-operative as a company under Chapter 5B of the Corporations Act;
 - (d) provisions relating to substantial shareholdings, by or involving a co-operative or participating co-operative, in a company;
 - (e) provisions conferring or imposing functions on a co-operative or participating co-operative as a member, or former member, of a corporation;
 - (f) provisions relating to dealings by a co-operative or participating co-operative in financial products of a corporation, other than financial products of the co-operative or participating co-operative itself;
 - (g) provisions conferring or imposing functions on a co-operative or participating co-operative in its dealings with a corporation, not being dealings in financial products of the co-operative or participating co-operative;
 - (h) provisions relating to financial products of a co-operative, other than shares in, CCUs of, debentures of, or deposits with, a co-operative or participating co-operative;
 - (i) provisions relating to financial markets and participants in financial markets;
 - (j) provisions relating to financial services licensees whose licence covers dealing in, or providing advice about, financial products;
 - (k) provisions relating to carrying on a financial services business;
 - (l) provisions relating to financial statements, and audits of financial statements, of financial services licensees whose licence covers dealing in, or providing advice about, financial products;
 - (m) provisions relating to clients of financial services licensees whose licence covers dealing in, or providing advice about, financial products;
 - (n) provisions relating to registers of interests in financial products;
 - (o) provisions relating to powers of a court to cure procedural irregularities and to make other orders.
- (3) To avoid doubt, it is declared that subsection (1) does not operate so as to exclude the operation of the following provisions of the Corporations Act, except in relation to shares in, CCUs issued by, debentures of, or deposits with, a co-operative or participating co-operative:
- (a) Part 1.2A;
 - (b) Chapter 2L;
 - (c) Chapter 6CA;
 - (d) Chapter 6D;
 - (e) Part 7.10.

Division 2—Applied matters (applied Corporations legislation matters)

13—Applied Corporations legislation matters under this Law

- (1) Other provisions of this Law declare matters to be applied Corporations legislation matters for the purposes of the Corporations application legislation of this jurisdiction in relation to provisions of the Corporations Act specified in those provisions.
- (2) A declaration is made subject to any modifications specified in or in connection with the provision in which the declaration is made.
- (3) Additionally, a declaration is also made subject to—
 - (a) any modifications applying under section 15; and
 - (b) any modifications prescribed by the National Regulations; and
 - (c) any necessary modifications.

Note 1—

The Corporations application legislation of this jurisdiction provides for the application of provisions of the Corporations Act and Part 3 of the ASIC Act as laws of this jurisdiction in respect of any matter declared by a law of this jurisdiction (whether with or without modification) to be an applied Corporations legislation matter for the purposes of the Corporations application legislation in relation to those Commonwealth provisions. The Corporations application legislation ensures that a declaration made for the purposes of that legislation only operates so as to apply a provision of the Corporations legislation to a matter as a law of this jurisdiction if that provision does not already apply to the matter as a law of the Commonwealth. If a provision referred to in a declaration already applies as a law of the Commonwealth, nothing in the declaration will affect its continued operation as a law of the Commonwealth.

- (2) Except as expressly provided in this Law, the registration and incorporation of the corporation as a co-operative does not prejudice any right of a member in relation to any shares held at the time of registration and incorporation.
- (3) The change of registration and incorporation does not affect the identity of the corporation and it is taken to be the same body after registration as a co-operative as it was before and no act, matter or thing is affected by the change.

Division 2—Doctrine of ultra vires not to apply

40—Interpretation

In this Division—

- (a) a reference to the doing of an act by a co-operative includes a reference to the making of an agreement by the co-operative and a reference to a transfer of property to or by the co-operative; and
- (b) a reference to legal capacity includes a reference to powers.

41—Doctrine of ultra vires not to apply

- (1) The objects of this Division are—
 - (a) to provide that the doctrine of ultra vires does not apply to co-operatives; and

43—Rules may limit powers and set out object (cf Corporations Act section 125)

- (1) The rules of a co-operative may contain an express restriction on, or a prohibition of, the co-operative's exercise of any of its powers, but the exercise of a power by the co-operative is not invalid merely because it is contrary to an express restriction or prohibition in the rules of the co-operative.
- (2) The rules of a co-operative may set out the co-operative's objects, but an act of the co-operative is not invalid merely because it is contrary to or beyond any objects in the rules of the co-operative.

- (2) Despite subsection (1), a member of a co-operative is taken to have knowledge of the rules of the co-operative.

48—Effect of fraud

- (1) A person's entitlement under this Division to make an assumption is not affected merely by the fact that any person—

 - (b) within the period agreed to by the parties to the contract.

 - (b) if notice was not required as referred to in section 161(2)—the cancellation takes effect.
- (3) While an order is in force under this section—
- (a) the membership concerned is not required to be cancelled and any shareholding of the member is not required to be forfeited; and
 - (b) the person whose membership was cancelled is entitled to be reinstated as a member of the co-operative with all the rights and entitlements (including any shareholding) attaching to or arising from the former membership.
- (4) Reinstatement of a member under this section is to be effected under the directions of the designated tribunal.

163—Repayment of amounts owing because of cancelled membership

- (1) If the membership of a member of a co-operative is cancelled under this Part, the co-operative must, within one year after the date of cancellation—
- (a) repay to the former member the amount owing to the member because of the cancellation; or
 - (b) apply the amount under subsection (2) if—
 - (i) the board considers repayment would adversely affect the financial position of the co-operative; or
 - (ii) the board and the former member so agree.
- (2) The amount payable may be applied as follows:
- (a) if the co-operative is a deposit-taking co-operative—the co-operative may apply the amount as a deposit by the former member with the co-operative (subject to the requirements of section 164 as to interest on the deposit);
 - (b) the co-operative may allot or issue debentures or CCUs of the co-operative to the former member in satisfaction of the amount;

- (c) the co-operative may appropriate the amount as a donation to the co-operative, but only if the former member consents in writing to the donation.
- (3) The amount payable to a former member because of the cancellation of membership includes any amount paid up for shares forfeited because of the cancellation of membership.
- (4) If the former member is subsequently readmitted to membership, any amount held by the co-operative under this section must, if the member asks, be applied towards the cost of readmission to membership (including any subscription for share capital).
- (5) The co-operative may retain the amount otherwise payable to a former member under this section, if—
 - (a) the former member cannot be found by the co-operative, after reasonable efforts by the co-operative to find the former member; and
 - (b) the amount is less than $100 (or any other amount prescribed by the National Regulations).

164—Interest on deposits, debentures and CCUs

- (1) This section applies when the amount payable to a former member under section 128 or 163 is applied as a deposit with the co-operative or the co-operative allots or issues debentures or CCUs to the former member in satisfaction of the amount.
- (2) The deposit, debenture or CCU bears interest during any period—
 - (a) for a co-operative with share capital—
 - (i) at the rate (or, if there is more than one rate, at the higher or highest rate) of dividend payable for that period on the share capital of the co-operative; or
 - (ii) if the rate of dividend payable for that period has not been decided—at the rate (or the higher or highest rate) payable for the immediately preceding period for which a rate has been decided; or
 - (iii) if a rate of dividend has never been decided for the share capital of the co-operative—at the rate the board of the co-operative considers reasonable; or
 - (b) for a co-operative without share capital—at the rate the board of the co-operative considers reasonable; or
 - (c) if the rules of the co-operative provide for a rate to be payable that is higher than the rate applicable under paragraph (a) or (b)—at the higher rate.
- (3) A former member may agree to the rate of interest being lower than that which would otherwise be payable under this section and may agree to no interest being paid.
- (4) The following provisions of the Corporations Act, as applying under section 337 of this Law, do not apply to an allotment or issue of debentures or CCUs under this section:
 - (a) Chapter 2L;
 - (b) Chapter 6D.

165—Repayment of deposits, debentures and CCUs

- (1) A deposit, debenture or CCU to which an amount payable to a former member is transferred under this Division or section 128(2) is to be repaid to the former member as soon as repayment would not, in the opinion of the board, adversely affect the financial position of the co-operative.
- (2) The deposit, debenture or CCU must in any case be repaid within 10 years (or within any shorter period the rules of the co-operative may require) after cancellation of the member's membership.

166—Register of cancelled memberships

A co-operative must keep a register stating the particulars prescribed by the National Regulations of persons whose membership has been cancelled under this Part.

Division 5—Entitlements of former members of distributing co-operatives

167—Application of Division

This Division applies only to distributing co-operatives.

168—Former shareholders to be taken to be shareholders for certain purposes

- (1) Even though a person's shares in a co-operative have been forfeited under this Part, the person is to be taken to be the holder of shares in the co-operative (the same in all respects as those that were forfeited) for the following purposes—
 - (a) the entitlement of a shareholder in relation to the purchase of shares in the co-operative under an offer described in section 373(1)(a), (b) or (c) or the purchase of all the shares in the co-operative, if the offer or purchase occurs within 2 years after the person's shares were forfeited;
 - (b) the entitlement of a shareholder when the co-operative becomes registered as a company if the relevant special resolution under section 404 is passed within 2 years after the person's shares were forfeited;
 - (c) the entitlement of a shareholder to a distribution of surplus in a winding up of the co-operative that starts within 2 years after the person's shares were forfeited.
- (2) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply to—
 - (a) an offer described in section 373(1)(a) or (c) that is made by another co-operative; or
 - (b) the purchase of all the shares in the co-operative by another co-operative.
- (3) Subsection (1)(c) does not apply if the winding up is for a merger under Chapter 4 Part 3.
- (4) The entitlement under subsection (1)(a) of a person whose shares have been forfeited does not include an entitlement to vote on any matter.

- (5) This section does not apply to a forfeited shareholding in a co-operative if section 169 operates so as to require the forfeited shareholding to be regarded as a forfeited shareholding in another co-operative.

169—Entitlements of former shareholders on mergers etc

- (1) This section applies when a person's shares in a co-operative (the original co-operative) are forfeited under this Part and within 2 years after the forfeiture—
- (a) another co-operative (the new co-operative) is created because of a merger under Chapter 4 Part 3 involving the original co-operative; or
 - (b) the engagements of the original co-operative are transferred to another co-operative (the new co-operative) under Chapter 4 Part 3.
- (2) A person referred to in subsection (1) is, for the purposes of section 168 (and the further operation of this section), taken to have held shares in the new co-operative and as having had those shares in the new co-operative forfeited under this Part when the person's shares in the original co-operative were forfeited.
- (3) The extent of the forfeited shareholding in the new co-operative is decided as follows:
- (a) if the entitlement of active members of the original co-operative in the circumstances concerned is solely an entitlement to be allotted shares in the new co-operative—the forfeited shareholding in the new co-operative is the shareholding to which the person would have been entitled had the person's shares in the original co-operative not been forfeited;
 - (b) in any other case—the forfeited shareholding in the new co-operative is the shareholding that is the same in all respects as the forfeited shareholding in the original co-operative.
- (4) The decision under subsection (3)(a) of the person's shareholding in the new co-operative must be made—
- (a) solely on the basis of the person's shareholding in the original co-operative when the shares were forfeited or (in a further operation of this section to the person) when the person was first taken to have a forfeited shareholding in the original co-operative; and
 - (b) without regard to any additional shareholding in the original co-operative to which the person would have become entitled had the shares not been forfeited (whether because of any bonus share issue or otherwise).

170—Set-off of amounts repaid etc on forfeited shares

- (1) If a person has an entitlement because of section 169, the entitlement operates to end any liability of the co-operative—
- (a) to repay to the person under section 163 any amount for the forfeited shares concerned; or
 - (b) for a deposit held by the co-operative, or debentures or CCUs allotted or issued to the person, under section 163 for the forfeited shares concerned (except a liability to pay interest that is payable but unpaid).

- (2) If an amount has been repaid to a person under section 163 or 165, the amount repaid is to be set-off against any entitlement of the person under section 168 for the forfeited shares concerned.
- (3) If the amount repaid cannot be set-off against the entitlement because the entitlement is not, or is only partly, an entitlement to money, the entitlement is lost unless the person pays to the co-operative the amount repaid to the person and does so within the period required under subsection (4).
- (4) If the circumstances referred to in subsection (3) arise, the co-operative concerned must—
 - (a) give written notice of the matter by post to the person concerned at the person's address last known to the co-operative, stating a period of not less than 28 days after the notice is given within which any amount repaid must be paid to the co-operative; and
 - (b) publish a general notice to that effect in a newspaper circulating generally in the district in which the registered office of the co-operative is situated.

171—Exemption of co-operatives from provisions

- (1) The Registrar may, by designated instrument, exempt a co-operative or class of co-operatives from any or all of the provisions of this Division.

- (2) The board must consist of at least 3 directors (not counting alternates of directors) and at least 2 of the directors must be ordinarily resident in Australia.
- (3) The board of directors may exercise all the powers of the co-operative that are not, by this Law or the rules of the co-operative, required to be exercised by the co-operative in general meeting.
- (4) The acts of a director are valid despite any defect that may afterwards be discovered in his or her appointment or qualification.

173—Election of directors

- (1) Except as provided in subsections (2)—(4), the directors of a co-operative are to be elected in the way specified in the rules of the co-operative.

- (5) If a resolution is passed following a motion in contravention of subsection (4):
- (a) the resolution is void; and
 - (b) there is no provision for the automatic re-election of retiring directors in default of another election.
- (6) This section does not apply to a resolution amending the rules of a co-operative to prevent the election of 2 or more directors by ballot.
- (7) A nomination for election or appointment to the office of a director must give details of the qualifications and experience of the person nominated.
- (8) Unless this Law or the rules of a co-operative otherwise provide, a director is eligible for re-election at the end of his or her term of office.

 - (b) a person who is qualified as provided by the rules of the co-operative (a non-member director) and who is not an active member of the co-operative.

Note—

A non-member director either is not a member of the co-operative or is an inactive member of the co-operative.

- (2) The majority of directors must be member directors.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not prevent the rules of a co-operative requiring that a greater number of directors than a majority must be member directors.

- (3) Separate copies of a resolution may be distributed for signing by the directors if the wording of the resolution and approval is identical in each copy.
- (4) For the purpose of the approval of a resolution under this section, the chairperson of the board and each director of the board have the same voting rights as they have at an ordinary meeting of the board.
- (5) The resolution is approved when the last director required for the majority signs.
- (6) A resolution approved under this section must be recorded in the minutes of the meetings of the board within 28 days after the resolution is approved under this section.
- (7) Papers may be circulated among directors of the board for the purposes of this section by fax or other transmission of the information in the papers concerned.

- (2) Notice of intention to move the resolution must be given to the co-operative at least 2 months before the meeting is to be held. Part 2—Voting and meetings

Division 1—Voting entitlements

227—Application of Part to voting

The provisions of this Part apply to voting on all resolutions.

228—Voting

- (1) The right to vote attaches to membership and not shareholding.
- (2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4), each member has only one vote at a meeting of the co-operative.
- (3) If its rules so provide, a member of a co-operative group may have the number of votes (up to 5) at a general meeting that is stated in the rules.
- (4) If the rules so provide, the chairperson has a second vote at a board meeting or general meeting.
- (5) In the case of joint membership—
 - (a) the joint members have only one vote between them; and
 - (b) that vote may be exercised (subject to the grant of a proxy or power of attorney) only by the joint member decided under the rules.
- (6) In the case of shares held jointly by 2 or more members otherwise than by virtue of joint membership, each member holding the shares is entitled to vote in accordance with this section.

Note—

See section 233 for the effect on a member's right to vote where a non-member has a relevant interest in a share held by the member or in the member's right to vote.

229—Voting by proxy

- (1) If the rules of the co-operative so provide, voting may be by proxy at a general meeting.
- (2) The instrument of proxy may state the way in which a proxy is to vote on a particular resolution.
- (3) The proxy must vote in the way authorised by an instrument of proxy referred to in subsection (2).
- (4) A person must not act as a proxy unless he or she—
 - (a) is an active member of the co-operative; or
 - (b) in the case of a co-operative group—is entitled to represent a member of the group.
- (5) The rules of the co-operative may limit the number of persons for whom a person may act as a proxy on the same question.

230—Inactive members not entitled to vote

A member cannot vote if the member is not an active member of the co-operative.

231—Control of right to vote

- (1) A person must not directly or indirectly control the exercise of the right to vote of a member.
Maximum penalty: $6 000 or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

- (2) If a person controls the exercise of the right of a member to vote at a meeting of a co-operative—
- (a) the vote of the member is invalid; and
 - (b) if the person is a member—the vote of the person is invalid.
- (3) Nothing in this section prevents—
- (a) the exercise of a vote by means of a proxy or power of attorney; or
 - (b) a director controlling the vote of a corporate member; or
 - (c) an agreed purchaser controlling a member's vote pending settlement.

232—Effect of disposal of shares on voting rights

A member of a co-operative cannot vote if the member has sold or transferred, or disposed of the beneficial interest in, all the member's shares, or agreed to do so.

233—Effect of relevant share and voting interests on voting rights

- (1) Subject to subsection (3) and section 228(5) and (6), a member of a co-operative cannot vote if another person (whether or not a member of the co-operative) has a relevant interest in any share held by the member or in the member's right to vote.
- (2) A member who cannot vote because of this section may apply to the Registrar to review the matter.
- (3) The Registrar may order that the member may vote if the Registrar is satisfied in the circumstances of the case that loss of the right to vote would be unjust or unreasonable, and the order of the Registrar has effect accordingly.

234—Rights of representatives to vote

A person appointed under this Law to represent a member of a co-operative or co-operative group—

- (a) is entitled to receive notice of all meetings in the same way as the member represented; and
- (b) is entitled to exercise the same rights to vote as the member represented.

235—Other rights and duties of members not affected by ineligibility to vote

A provision of this Law that disentitles a member of a co-operative to vote (either generally or in relation to a particular matter) does not affect any other right, entitlement, obligation or duty of the member as a member.

236—Vote of disentitled member to be disregarded

A vote cast by or on behalf of a member of a co-operative when not entitled to vote under this Division or any other provision of this Law must be disregarded.

Division 2—Resolutions

237—Decisions to be by ordinary resolution

Unless this Law or the rules of the co-operative otherwise provide, every question for decision by a co-operative must be decided by ordinary resolution.

238—Ordinary resolutions

An ordinary resolution is a resolution of a co-operative that is passed by a simple majority at a general meeting of the co-operative or in a postal ballot of members.

239—Special resolutions

- (1) A special resolution is a resolution of a co-operative that is passed—
- (a) by a two-thirds majority at a general meeting of the co-operative; or
 - (b) by a two-thirds majority in a postal ballot (other than a special postal ballot) of members; or
 - (c) by a three-quarters majority in a special postal ballot of members.

Note 1—

A co-operative may by its rules require a higher majority voting percentage on any matter or that specified matters must be passed by postal or special postal ballot.

Note 2—

Section 250 enables 20% of members (or a lesser percentage specified in the rules) to require a postal ballot for a special resolution.

- (2) A special resolution may be passed by a postal ballot only if the rules of the co-operative so permit or this Law requires the special resolution to be passed by postal ballot (including a special postal ballot).
- (3) A resolution must not be considered to have been passed as a special resolution unless not less than 21 days notice has been given to the members of the co-operative stating—
- (a) the intention to propose the special resolution; and
 - (b) the reasons for proposing the special resolution; and
 - (c) the effect of the special resolution being passed.

240—How majority is ascertained

- (1) A resolution is passed by a particular majority at a meeting if that majority of the members of the co-operative who, being entitled to do so, vote in person or (if proxies are allowed) by proxy at the meeting vote in favour of the resolution.
- (2) A resolution is passed by a particular majority in a postal ballot if that majority of the members of the co-operative who, being entitled to do so, cast formal votes in the postal ballot vote in favour of the resolution.

241—Declaration of passing of special resolution

- (1) At a meeting of a co-operative for the purpose of passing a special resolution, a declaration by the chairperson of the meeting that the resolution has been passed as a special resolution is evidence of that fact.
- (2) A declaration by the returning officer for a postal ballot to pass a special resolution that the resolution has been passed as a special resolution is evidence of that fact.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply if a poll is taken at the meeting of the co-operative.

242—Effect of special resolution

- (1) A special resolution has effect from the date it is passed.
- (2) However, a special resolution relating to anything for which a special resolution is required to be passed by special postal ballot has no effect until it is registered.

Note—

Section 446 provides that a members' voluntary winding up of a co-operative starts when the result of the special postal ballot is noted in the minutes by the secretary of the co-operative.

- (3) Subsection (2) and sections 243 and 244 do not apply to a special resolution amending the rules of a co-operative.

Note—

Chapter 2 Part 3 deals with amendments to rules and when amendments take effect.

243—Registration of special resolution

- (1) A co-operative must, in accordance with subsection (2), file 2 copies of each special resolution passed by the co-operative with the Registrar for registration.
Maximum penalty: $2 000.
- (2) The copies must—
 - (a) be filed within 28 days after the passing of a special resolution or the further period the Registrar allows; and
 - (b) be signed by a director, the secretary of the co-operative or another authorised representative of the co-operative; and
 - (c) be accompanied by the filing fee prescribed by—
 - (i) the National Regulations, unless subparagraph (ii) applies; or
 - (ii) the local regulations.

Note—

See section 444(4)(a) regarding the period within which a special resolution must be filed with the Registrar in connection with the voluntary winding up of a co-operative.

- (3) A co-operative or an officer of the co-operative must not knowingly fail to file the required copies under this section.

Maximum penalty: $2 000.

- (4) An offence based on subsection (1) is an offence of strict liability.

244—Decision of Registrar on application to register special resolution

- (1) If the Registrar is satisfied the co-operative has complied with this Law and the special resolution is not contrary to this Law, the Registrar must register the special resolution and may issue a certificate of registration.
- (2) If the Registrar considers the effect of a special resolution filed for registration would be in contravention of this Law or any other law, the Registrar—
 - (a) may refuse to register the special resolution; and
 - (b) must give written notice to the co-operative that the special resolution—
 - (i) for a special resolution referred to in section 242(2)—has no effect; and
 - (ii) in any other case—has no effect as from the date it was passed.
- (3) A certificate of registration of a special resolution issued by the Registrar is, in favour of any person advancing money to the co-operative on the faith of the certificate or in favour of any guarantor of that advance, evidence that the resolution was properly passed.

Division 3—Resolution by circulated document

245—Application of Division

This Division applies to a resolution of a co-operative, including a resolution appointing an officer or auditor or approving of or agreeing to any act, matter or thing, if—

- (a) the co-operative has fewer than 50 members; and
- (b) the resolution is required or permitted under this Law or the rules of the co-operative to be passed at a general meeting of the co-operative.

246—Resolution by circulation of document—fewer than 50 members

- (1) If all the members of a co-operative have signed a document that sets out the terms of a resolution and contains a statement that they are in favour of the resolution, the resolution is taken to have been passed at a general meeting of the co-operative.
- (2) The meeting is taken to have been held—
 - (a) if all the members signed the document on the one day—on the day the document was signed, at the time the document was signed by the last member to sign; or
 - (b) if the members signed the document on different days—on the day, and at the time, the document was signed by the last member to sign.
- (3) The document need not exist as a single document, but may exist in the form of 2 or more documents in identical terms.
- (4) The document is taken to constitute a minute of the general meeting.
- (5) Anything attached to the document and signed by the members signing the document is taken to have been laid before the co-operative at the general meeting.

- (6) The document is signed by all members of a co-operative only if the document is signed by each person who was a member of the co-operative at the time the document was signed by the last member to sign.
- (7) Nothing in this section affects or limits any rule of law about the effectiveness of the assent of members of a co-operative given to a document, or to an act, matter or thing, otherwise than at a general meeting of the co-operative.

Division 4—Postal ballots

247—Postal ballots

- (1) A postal ballot may be held as provided by the rules of a co-operative and must be conducted in the way prescribed by the National Regulations.

- (1) A special postal ballot is a postal ballot that is conducted in accordance with this section.
- (2) The ballot must not be held less than 28 days after notice of the ballot is given to members.

Note—

This period is intended to enable sufficient time for a meeting to be called (whether by the board or on the requisition of members) and held to discuss the proposal the subject of the ballot.

- (3) The co-operative must send to each member (along with any other material required to be sent in relation to the postal ballot) a disclosure statement approved by the Registrar and containing information about—
 - (a) the financial position of the co-operative; and
 - (b) the interests of the directors of the co-operative in the proposal with which the ballot is concerned, including any interests of the directors in another organisation concerned in the proposal; and
 - (c) any compensation or consideration to be paid to officers or members of the co-operative in connection with the proposal; and
 - (d) any other matters the Registrar directs.
- (4) If the Registrar so requires, the disclosure statement is to be accompanied by a report made by an independent person approved by the Registrar about any matters the Registrar directs.

- (5) A draft disclosure statement must be submitted to the Registrar at least 28 days (or the shorter period the Registrar may allow in a particular case) before the notice of the special postal ballot is to be given to members.
- (6) Section 25 (except subsections (1), (2) and (3)) applies to a disclosure statement under this section with any necessary modifications, and in particular as if a reference in that section to a formation meeting were a reference to the notice of the special postal ballot.

Note—

Sections 380 and 445 provide for exemptions from this section in certain circumstances.

 - (b) all persons who become members of the co-operative after the date and before the total amount of the loan to be raised under the proposal has been raised.
- (7) A draft disclosure statement must be submitted to the Registrar before notice of the ballot is given to members.
- (8) Section 25 (except subsections (1), (2) and (3)) applies to a disclosure statement under this section with any necessary modifications, and in particular as if a reference in that section to the holding of a formation meeting were a reference to the giving of notice of the ballot to members.

- (9) The National Regulations may prescribe the maximum amount that may be levied in any period of 12 months on either or both of the following:
- (a) an individual member of the co-operative;
 - (b) all members of the co-operative or all members of a class of members.
- (10) The Registrar may, by designated instrument, exempt a co-operative or class of co-operatives from complying with all or specified provisions of this section.
- (11) An exemption may be given unconditionally or subject to conditions.

344—Interest payable on compulsory loan

- (1) The rate of interest payable by a co-operative for a loan under section 343 during a period is—
- (a) for a co-operative with share capital—
 - (i) the rate (or, if there is more than one rate, the higher or highest rate) of dividend payable for the period on the share capital of the co-operative; or
 - (ii) if the rate of dividend payable for the period has not been decided—the rate (or the higher or highest rate) payable for the immediately preceding period for which a rate has been decided; or
 - (iii) if a rate of dividend has never been decided for the share capital of the co-operative—the rate the board of the co-operative considers reasonable; or
 - (b) for a co-operative without share capital—the rate the board of the co-operative considers reasonable; or
 - (c) if the rules of the co-operative provide for a rate to be payable that is higher than the rate applicable under paragraph (a) or (b)—the higher rate.
- (2) A member may agree to the rate of interest being less than what would otherwise be payable under this section and may agree to no interest being paid.

Division 2—Co-operative capital units (CCUs)

345—General nature of CCU

- (1) A co-operative capital unit (in this Law referred to as a CCU) is an interest issued by a co-operative conferring an interest in the capital (but not the share capital) of the co-operative.
- (2) A CCU—
- (a) is personal property; and
 - (b) is transferable or transmissible as provided by this Law and the rules of the co-operative, subject to the terms of issue of the CCU; and
 - (c) is, subject to the rules of the co-operative, capable of devolution by will or by operation of law.

- (3) Subject to subsection (2)—
- (a) the laws applicable to ownership of and dealing with personal property apply to a CCU in the same way as they apply to other property; and
 - (b) equitable interests in respect of a CCU may be created, dealt with and enforced as in the case of other personal property.
- (4) A transferor of a CCU remains the holder of the CCU until the transfer is registered and the name of the transferee is entered in the register of CCUs and their holders (referred to in section 212(1)(e)) in respect of the CCU.
- (5) Despite any rule of law or equity to the contrary, a condition subject to which a CCU is issued is not invalid merely because the CCU is, by the condition, made irredeemable or redeemable only on the happening of a contingency however remote or at the end of a period however long.

346—Priority of CCUs on winding up

- (1) On a winding up of a co-operative, a debt owed to a person as the holder or former holder of a CCU issued by the co-operative is to rank for priority of payment in accordance with the terms of issue of the CCU.
- (2) Such a debt may rank as a secured debt if it is secured but if it is unsecured may not rank in priority to other unsecured debts.
- (3) Such a debt may rank equally with or behind unsecured debts and (if the debt ranks behind unsecured debts) may rank in priority to, equally with or behind debts due to contributories.

347—Financial accommodation provisions apply to issue of CCUs

- (1) The issuing of CCUs is to be considered to be the obtaining of financial accommodation and accordingly Division 1 applies to the issue of CCUs.
- (2) For the purpose of that Division, a CCU is to be considered to be a debenture.

348—CCUs can be issued to non-members

CCUs may be issued to persons whether or not they are members of the co-operative.

349—Minimum requirements for rules concerning CCUs

The rules of a co-operative that permit the co-operative to issue CCUs must contain provision to the effect of the following provisions and must not contain provisions that are inconsistent with the following provisions:

- (a) either (as specified in the rules)—
 - (i) each holder of a CCU is entitled to one vote only at a meeting of the holders of CCUs; or
 - (ii) each holder of a CCU is entitled to one vote per CCU held at a meeting of the holders of CCUs;
- (b) the rights of the holders of CCUs may be varied only in the manner and to the extent provided by their terms of issue and only with the consent of at least 75% of the holders of CCUs given in writing or at a meeting;

- (c) the holder of a CCU has, in the person's capacity as a holder, none of the rights or entitlements of a member of the co-operative;
- (d) the holder of a CCU is entitled to receive notice of all meetings of the co-operative and all other documents in the same manner as the holder of a debenture of the co-operative.

350—CCUs not to be issued unless terms of issue approved by Registrar

- (1) A co-operative is not to issue CCUs unless—
 - (a) the terms of issue have been approved by a special resolution of the co-operative; and
 - (b) the issue is made pursuant to an offer accompanied by a copy of a statement approved by the Registrar for the purposes of the issue; and
 - (c) the Registrar approves of the terms of the issue.
- (2) The terms of issue must specify the following (but this subsection does not limit the contents of the terms of issue):
 - (a) details of entitlement to repayment of capital;
 - (b) details of entitlement to participate in surplus assets and profits;
 - (c) details of entitlement to interest on capital (whether cumulative or non-cumulative interest);
 - (d) details of how capital and interest on capital are to rank for priority of payment on a winding up;
 - (e) whether there is a limit on the total holding of CCUs that may be acquired by persons who are not members of the co-operative and, if there is a limit, what the limit is.
- (3) The statement approved by the Registrar for the purposes of the issue is to set out the terms of the issue, the rights of the holders of CCUs, the terms of redemption and the manner of transferability of CCUs.
- (4) The Registrar is not to approve of the terms of issue unless satisfied that they will not result in a failure to comply with co-operative principles and are not contrary to the rules of the co-operative or this Law.

351—Directors' duties concerning CCUs

In discharging their duties, it is proper for the directors of a co-operative to take into account that the holders of CCUs, in their capacity as holders of CCUs, have none of the rights and entitlements of, and are not entitled to be regarded as, members of the co-operative.

352—Redemption of CCUs

- (1) The redemption of CCUs is not to be considered to be a reduction in the share capital of the co-operative.
- (2) A co-operative may redeem CCUs but only on the terms and in the way that are provided by the terms of their issue and only if they are fully paid up.

- (3) CCUs may not be redeemed except out of—
 - (a) profits; or
 - (b) the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares, or an approved issue of CCUs, made for the purpose of the redemption.
- (4) An issue of CCUs is an approved issue for the purposes of subsection (3) if there is the same entitlement to priority of payment of capital and dividend in relation to shares in the co-operative as there was for the redeemed CCUs.
- (5) Any premium payable on redemption is to be provided for out of profits or out of the share premium account or an account created for that purpose.

353—Capital redemption reserve

- (1) This section applies if CCUs are redeemed out of profits.
- (2) Out of profits there is to be transferred to a reserve called the capital redemption reserve a sum equal to the nominal amount of the CCUs redeemed.
- (3) Subject to subsection (5), the provisions of this Law relating to the reduction of share capital of a co-operative apply as if the capital redemption reserve were paid up share capital of the co-operative.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), the capital redemption reserve may be applied in paying up unissued shares of the co-operative to be issued to members of the co-operative as fully paid bonus shares.
- (5) Subsections (3) and (4) do not apply to a non-distributing co-operative.

Note—

Section 448 provides that, on a winding up of a non-distributing co-operative, the surplus property of the co-operative must be distributed as required by the rules of the co-operative.

354—Issue of shares in substitution for redemption

- (1) If a co-operative has redeemed or is about to redeem CCUs held by an active member of the co-operative, it may—
 - (a) issue shares to the member up to the sum of the nominal value of the CCUs redeemed or to be redeemed, as if those CCUs had never been issued; or
 - (b) pay up amounts unpaid on shares held by the member up to the sum of the nominal value of the CCUs redeemed or to be redeemed, as if those CCUs had never been issued.
- (2) This section applies only if the terms of issue of the CCUs provide for the conversion of CCUs held by an active member of the co-operative into shares of the co-operative.

Division 3—Disposal of surplus from activities

355—Retention of surplus for benefit of co-operative

The board of a co-operative may resolve to retain all or part of the surplus arising in a year from the business of the co-operative to be applied for the benefit of the co-operative.

356—Application for charitable purposes or approved activities

- (1) A co-operative may apply a part of the surplus arising in a year from the business of the co-operative for any charitable purpose.
- (2) A distributing co-operative may apply a part of the surplus arising in a year from the business of the co-operative for supporting an activity approved by the co-operative.
- (3) The rules of a co-operative must limit the amount that may be applied under subsection (1) or (2) to a stated proportion of the surplus.

357—Distribution of surplus or reserves to members

- (1) A distributing co-operative may apply a part of the surplus arising in a year from the business of the co-operative or a part of the reserves of the co-operative by—
 - (a) distribution to members as a rebate in proportion to—
 - (i) the value of business done by each member with the co-operative; or
 - (ii) profits earned by the co-operative on business done by each member with the co-operative; or
 - (b) the issue to members of bonus shares in proportion to—
 - (i) the value of business done by each member with the co-operative; or
 - (ii) profits earned by the co-operative on business done by each member with the co-operative; or
 - (iii) shares held by each member; or
 - (c) the issue to members of a limited dividend for shares held by each member.
- (2) The amount of a rebate payable to a member under subsection (1)(a) may be applied—
 - (a) in payment for the issue to the member of bonus shares, with the consent of the member; or
 - (b) as a loan to the co-operative—
 - (i) with the consent of the member; or
 - (ii) if the rules of the co-operative authorise the amount of a rebate payable to a member under subsection (1)(a) to be applied as a loan to the co-operative.
- (3) The amount of a dividend payable to a member under subsection (1)(c) may be applied—
 - (a) in payment for the issue to the member of bonus shares, with the consent of the member; or
 - (b) as a loan to the co-operative—
 - (i) with the consent of the member; or
 - (ii) if the rules of the co-operative authorise the amount of a dividend payable to a member under subsection (1)(c) to be applied as a loan to the co-operative.

- (4) A loan to the co-operative authorised by the rules (as referred to in subsection (2)(b)(ii) or (3)(b)(ii)) is repayable at call and must bear interest at a rate not lower than the rate prescribed by the National Regulations.
- (5) In this section—
- limited dividend* means a dividend that is not more than the amount prescribed by the National Regulations.

358—Application of surplus to other persons

- (1) Part of the surplus arising in a year from the business of a distributing co-operative may be credited to a person who is not a member, but is qualified to be a member, by way of rebate in proportion to the value of business done by the person with the co-operative or to the profit earned by the co-operative, if—
- (a) the person was a member when the business was done and the membership has lapsed; or
 - (b) the person has applied for membership after the business was done.
- (2) Nothing in this section precludes the payment of a bonus to an employee under the terms of his or her employment.

Division 4—Acquisition and disposal of assets

 - (d) acquire an asset the value of which represents a percentage prescribed by the National Regulations or more of the total book value of the undertaking of the co-operative, if the acquisition would result in the co-operative commencing to carry on an activity that is not one of its primary activities;
 - (e) dispose of an asset, if the disposal would result—

- (i) in the co-operative ceasing to carry on a primary activity of the co-operative; or
- (ii) in the ability of the co-operative to carry on a primary activity of the co-operative being substantially impaired.

Maximum penalty: $6 000.

- (2) If a co-operative contravenes this section, each person who is a member of the board of the co-operative is taken to have committed the offence, if the person—
 - (a) was in a position to influence the conduct of the co-operative in relation to the commission of the offence by it; and
 - (b) did not use all due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence by it.
- (3) The Registrar may, by designated instrument, exempt a co-operative from compliance with a provision of this section and section 248 in relation to a matter to which this section applies.

- (5) A substantial change takes place in a person's share interest in a co-operative if there is an increase or decrease in the number of shares in the co-operative in which the person has a relevant interest and the increase or decrease represents at least 1% of the nominal value of the issued share capital of the co-operative.

362—Requirements for notices

A notice required under this Division must—

- (b) state the particulars prescribed by the National Regulations of the interest or change being notified.

363—Maximum permissible level of share interest

- (1) A person must not have a relevant interest in shares of a co-operative the nominal value of which is more than a maximum of 20% of the nominal value of the issued share capital of the co-operative.
- (2) The Registrar may, by designated instrument, state a maximum greater than 20% as the maximum for subsection (1) for a particular co-operative or class of co-operatives.

- (2) The shares to be forfeited are—
 - (a) the shares nominated by the person for the purpose; or

366—Powers of Supreme Court about contravention

- (1) If a person has contravened section 360 or 361 in relation to a co-operative, the Supreme Court may, on the application of the co-operative or the Registrar, make any order it considers appropriate.

- (3) An order may be made whether or not the contravention continues.
- (4) Proof to the satisfaction of the Supreme Court at the hearing of an application that—
 - (a) a person has a relevant interest in a share of a co-operative because an associate (within the meaning of Schedule 2 Part 2) of the person has a relevant interest in a share; and

Note—

Section 91 provides that the board of a co-operative may give directions about disclosure of relevant interests and instructions.

370—Excess share interest not to affect loan liability

- (1) This section applies if a co-operative has made a loan to a member and the member had or has a relevant interest in shares of the co-operative in contravention of this Division.

- (2) Until the amount lent to the member has been repaid to the co-operative (with the interest payable), the member is liable to make to the co-operative the payments the member would be liable to make if all the shares concerned were lawfully held by the member.
- (3) Security for the repayment of the loan is not affected by a contravention of this Division.

371—Extent of operation of this Division

 - (c) an offer made as part of a proposal for, or that is conditional on, the winding up of the co-operative;
 - (d) an offer that would result in a contravention of section 363 were the offerer to be registered (immediately after the offer is made) as the holder of the shares that are the subject of the offer;
 - (e) an offer that would lead to the offerer having a substantial share interest in the co-operative, or to a substantial change taking place in a substantial share interest the offerer has in the co-operative, were the offerer to be registered (immediately after the offer is made) as the holder of the shares that are the subject of the offer.
- (2) In subsection (1)(e), substantial share interest and substantial change have the same meanings as they have in section 361.

374—Requirements to be satisfied before offer can be made

- (1) A person must not make an offer to which this Division applies unless the making of the offer has been approved—
 - (a) by special resolution by a special postal ballot; and
 - (b) by the Registrar.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), an offer referred to in section 373(1)(e) can be made even if it has not been approved as referred to in subsection (1) if it is made in circumstances stated in, and in accordance with the requirements of, the National Regulations.

375—Some offers totally prohibited if they discriminate

An offer referred to in section 373(1)(a)—(d) must not be made at all if it operates or would operate to discriminate between members who are active members and members who are not active members.

376—Offers to be submitted to board first

- (1) A proposal to make an offer to which this Division applies must in the first instance be submitted to the board of the co-operative.
- (2) The board may decline to put a proposed offer to a special postal ballot unless arrangements satisfactory to the board have been made for payment to the co-operative of the expenses involved in holding the ballot.
- (3) The board may require payment under subsection (2) in advance.
- (4) A requisition for a special postal ballot for this Division cannot be served unless the board has had a reasonable opportunity to consider the proposed offer concerned.

 - (b) the person has no reasonable grounds for believing the person, or the person and the other person or persons, will be able to perform obligations arising under the scheme or announcement or under the Corporations Act in relation to the scheme or announcement if a substantial proportion of the offers or the offers made under the announcement are accepted.

- (6) The amount of the compensation is the difference between the price of the shares at which the transaction was entered into and the price of the shares at which the transaction would have been likely to have been entered into if the person had not made the public announcement.
- (7) A person does not contravene subsection (3) and is not liable to pay compensation for the contravention if it is proved the person could not reasonably have been expected to make the takeover bid concerned—
- (a) because of circumstances that existed when the public announcement was made but of which the person had no knowledge and could not reasonably have been expected to have knowledge; or
 - (b) because of a change in circumstances after the announcement was made, other than a change in circumstances caused directly or indirectly by the person.
- (8) Expressions used in this section have the same meanings as they had in section 746 of the Corporations Law as applying on 12 March 2000.

- (3) An amount certified under subsection (2)(b) may be recovered by the Registrar in a court of competent jurisdiction.

However, this does not apply to a criminal proceeding in respect of the falsity of the evidence given by the individual in the proceedings for the pecuniary penalty order.

565—Relief from liability for contravention of civil penalty provision (cf Corporations Act section 1317S)

- (1) In this section—

eligible proceedings—

- (a) means proceedings for a contravention of a civil penalty provision, including—
 - (i) proceedings under section 557 of this Law; and
 - (ii) proceedings under section 588M or 588W of the Corporations Act as applying under this Law (see section 451); and
- (b) does not include proceedings for an offence, except so far as the proceedings relate to the question whether the Supreme Court should make an order under—
 - (i) section 557 of this Law; or
 - (ii) section 588K of the Corporations Act as applying under this Law (see section 451).

- (2) If—
- (a) eligible proceedings are brought against a person; and
 - (b) in the proceedings it appears to the Supreme Court that the person has, or may have, contravened a civil penalty provision but that—
 - (i) the person has acted honestly; and
 - (ii) having regard to all the circumstances of the case (including, where applicable, those connected with the person's appointment as an officer, or employment as an employee, of a co-operative), the person ought fairly to be excused for the contravention,the Supreme Court may relieve the person either wholly or partly from a liability to which the person would otherwise be subject, or that might otherwise be imposed on the person, because of the contravention.
- (3) In determining under subsection (2) whether a person ought fairly to be excused for a contravention of section 588G of the Corporations Act as applying under this Law, the matters to which regard is to be had include, but are not limited to—
- (a) any action the person took with a view to appointing an administrator of the co-operative; and
 - (b) when that action was taken; and
 - (c) the results of that action.
- (4) If a person thinks that eligible proceedings will or may be begun against them, they may apply to the Supreme Court for relief.
- (5) On an application under subsection (4), the court may grant relief under subsection (2) as if the eligible proceedings had been begun in the court.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (2) as applying for the purposes of a case tried by a judge with a jury—
- (a) a reference in that subsection to the Supreme Court is a reference to the judge; and
 - (b) the relief that may be granted includes withdrawing the case in whole or in part from the jury and directing judgment to be entered for the defendant on such terms as to costs as the judge thinks appropriate.
- (7) Nothing in this section limits, or is limited by, section 566.

566—Power to grant relief (cf Corporations Act section 1318)

- (1) If, in any civil proceeding against a person to whom this section applies for negligence, default, breach of trust or breach of duty in a capacity as such a person, it appears to the Supreme Court—
- (a) that the person is or may be liable in respect of the negligence, default or breach but that the person has acted honestly; and
 - (b) that, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, including those connected with the person's appointment, the person ought fairly to be excused for the negligence, default or breach, the Supreme Court may relieve the person either wholly or partly from liability on such terms as the court thinks fit.

- (2) Where a person to whom this section applies has reason to apprehend that any claim will or might be made against the person in respect of any negligence, default, breach of trust or breach of duty in a capacity as such a person—
 - (a) the person may apply to the Supreme Court for relief; and
 - (b) the Supreme Court has the same power to relieve the person as it would have had under subsection (1) if it had been a court before which proceedings against the person for negligence, default, breach of trust or breach of duty had been brought.
- (3) Where a case to which subsection (1) applies is being tried by a judge with a jury, the judge after hearing the evidence may—
 - (a) if he or she is satisfied that the defendant ought pursuant to that subsection to be relieved either wholly or partly from the liability sought to be enforced against the person, withdraw the case in whole or in part from the jury; and
 - (b) forthwith direct judgment to be entered for the defendant on such terms as to costs or otherwise as the judge thinks proper.
- (4) This section applies to a person who is—
 - (a) an officer or employee of a co-operative; or
 - (b) an auditor of a co-operative, whether or not the person is an officer or employee of the co-operative; or
 - (c) an expert in relation to a matter—
 - (i) relating to a co-operative; and
 - (ii) in relation to which the civil proceeding has been taken or the claim will or might arise; or
 - (d) a receiver, receiver and manager, liquidator or other person appointed or directed by the Supreme Court to carry out any duty under this Law in relation to a co-operative.

567—Irregularities (cf Corporations Act section 1322)

- (1) In this section, unless the contrary intention appears—
 - (a) a reference to a proceeding under this Law is a reference to any proceeding whether a legal proceeding or not; and
 - (b) a reference to a procedural irregularity includes a reference to—
 - (i) the absence of a quorum at a meeting of a co-operative, at a meeting of directors or creditors of a co-operative, or at a joint meeting of creditors and members of a co-operative; and
 - (ii) a defect, irregularity or deficiency of notice or time.
- (2) A proceeding under this Law is not invalidated because of any procedural irregularity unless the Supreme Court is of the opinion that the irregularity has caused or may cause substantial injustice that cannot be remedied by any order of the court and by order declares the proceeding to be invalid.

- (3) A meeting held for the purposes of this Law, or a meeting notice of which is required to be given in accordance with the provisions of this Law, or any proceeding at such a meeting, is not invalidated only because of the accidental omission to give notice of the meeting or the non-receipt by any person of notice of the meeting, unless the Supreme Court, on the application of the person concerned, a person entitled to attend the meeting or the Registrar, declares proceedings at the meeting to be void.
- (4) A meeting held for the purposes of this Law, or a meeting notice of which is required to be given in accordance with the provisions of this Law, or any proceeding at such a meeting, is not invalidated only because of the inability of a person to access the notice of meeting, unless the Supreme Court, on the application of the person concerned, a person entitled to attend the meeting or the Registrar, declares proceedings at the meeting to be void.
- (5) If a member does not have a reasonable opportunity to participate in a meeting of members, or part of a meeting of members, held at 2 or more venues, the meeting will only be invalid on that ground if—
- (a) the Supreme Court is of the opinion that—
 - (i) a substantial injustice has been caused or may be caused; and
 - (ii) the injustice cannot be remedied by any order of the Supreme Court; and
 - (b) the Supreme Court declares the meeting or proceeding (or that part of it) invalid.
- (6) Subject to the following provisions of this section but without limiting the generality of any other provision of this Law, the Supreme Court may, on application by any interested person, make all or any of the following orders, either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as the court imposes:
- (a) an order declaring that any act, matter or thing purporting to have been done, or any proceeding purporting to have been instituted or taken, under this Law or in relation to a co-operative is not invalid by reason of any contravention of a provision of this Law or a provision of the constitution of a co-operative;
 - (b) an order directing the rectification of any register kept by the Registrar under this Law;
 - (c) an order relieving a person in whole or in part from any civil liability in respect of a contravention or failure of a kind referred to in paragraph (a);
 - (d) an order extending the period for doing any act, matter or thing or instituting or taking any proceeding under this Law or in relation to a co-operative (including an order extending a period where the period concerned ended before the application for the order was made) or abridging the period for doing such an act, matter or thing or instituting or taking such a proceeding,
- and may make such consequential or ancillary orders as the court thinks fit.
- (7) An order may be made under subsection (6)(a) or (c) notwithstanding that the contravention or failure referred to in the paragraph concerned resulted in the commission of an offence.

- (8) The Supreme Court must not make an order under this section unless it is satisfied—
- (a) in the case of an order referred to in subsection (6)(a)—
 - (i) that the act, matter or thing, or the proceeding, referred to in that paragraph is essentially of a procedural nature; or
 - (ii) that the person or persons concerned in or party to the contravention or failure acted honestly; or
 - (iii) that it is just and equitable that the order be made; and
 - (b) in the case of an order referred to in subsection (6)(c)—that the person subject to the civil liability concerned acted honestly; and
 - (c) in every case—that no substantial injustice has been or is likely to be caused to any person.

568—Civil proceedings not to be stayed (cf Corporations Act section 1331)

No civil proceedings under this Law are to be stayed merely because the proceeding discloses, or arises out of, the commission of an offence.

569—Standard of proof (cf Corporations Act section 1332)

Where, in proceedings other than proceedings for an offence, it is necessary to establish, or for the court to be satisfied, for any purpose relating to a matter arising under this Law, that—

- (a) a person has contravened a provision of this Law; or
- (b) default has been made in complying with a provision of this Law; or
- (c) an act or omission was unlawful by virtue of a provision of this Law; or
- (d) a person has been in any way, by act or omission, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in or party to a contravention of, or a default in complying with, a provision of this Law, it is sufficient if the matter referred to in paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) is established, or the court is so satisfied, as the case may be, on the balance of probabilities.

- (5) The delegate may, in the exercise of a delegated function, do anything that is incidental to the delegated function.
- (6) A delegated function that purports to have been exercised by the delegate is taken to have been properly exercised by the delegate unless the contrary is proved.
- (7) A delegated function that is properly exercised by the delegate is taken to have been exercised by the delegator.
- (8) If, when exercised by the delegator, a function is dependent on the delegator's opinion, belief or state of mind, then, when exercised by the delegate, the function is dependent on the delegate's opinion, belief or state of mind.
- (9) If—
 - (a) the delegator is a specified officer or the holder of a specified office; and
 - (b) the person who was the specified officer or holder of the specified office when the delegation was made ceases to be the holder of the office,then—
 - (c) the delegation continues in force; and
 - (d) the person for the time being occupying or acting in the office concerned is taken to be the delegator for the purposes of this clause.
- (10) If—
 - (a) the delegator is a body; and
 - (b) there is a change in the membership of the body,

then—

- (c) the delegation continues in force; and
 - (d) the body as constituted for the time being is taken to be the delegator for the purposes of this clause.
- (11) If a function is delegated to a specified officer or the holder of a specified office—
- (a) the delegation does not cease to have effect merely because the person who was the specified officer or the holder of the specified office when the function was delegated ceases to be the officer or the holder of the office; and
 - (b) the function may be exercised by the person for the time being occupying or acting in the office concerned.
- (12) A function that has been delegated may, despite the delegation, be exercised by the delegator.
- (13) The delegation of a function does not relieve the delegator of the delegator's obligation to ensure that the function is properly exercised.
- (14) Subject to subclause (15), this clause applies to a subdelegation of a function in the same way as it applies to a delegation of a function.
- (15) If this Law authorises the delegation of a function, the function may be subdelegated only if the Law expressly authorises the function to be subdelegated.

30—Exercise of powers between enactment and commencement

- (1) If a provision of this Law (the empowering provision) that does not commence on its enactment would, had it commenced, confer a power—
- (a) to make an appointment; or
 - (b) to make a statutory instrument of a legislative or administrative character; or
 - (c) to do another thing,

then—

- (d) the power may be exercised; and
 - (e) anything may be done for the purpose of enabling the exercise of the power or of bringing the appointment, instrument or other thing into effect,
- before the empowering provision commences.
- (2) If an instrument, or a provision of an instrument, is made under subclause (1) that is necessary for the purpose of—
- (a) enabling the exercise of a power referred to in the subclause; or
 - (b) bringing an appointment, instrument or other thing made or done under such a power into effect,
- the instrument or provision takes effect—
- (c) on the making of the instrument; or
 - (d) on such later day (if any) on which, or at such later time (if any) at which, the instrument or provision is expressed to take effect.

- (3) If—
- (a) an appointment is made under subclause (1); or
 - (b) an instrument, or a provision of an instrument, made under subclause (1) is not necessary for a purpose referred to in subclause (2),
- the appointment, instrument or provision takes effect—
- (c) on the commencement of the relevant empowering provision; or
 - (d) on such later day (if any) on which, or at such later time (if any) at which, the appointment, instrument or provision is expressed to take effect.
- (4) Anything done under subclause (1) does not confer a right, or impose a liability, on a person before the relevant empowering provision commences.
- (5) In the application of this clause to a statutory instrument, a reference to the enactment of the instrument is a reference to the making of the instrument.

Part 5—Distance, time and age

31—Matters relating to distance, time and age

- (1) In the measurement of distance for the purposes of this Law, the distance is to be measured along the shortest road ordinarily used for travelling.
- (2) If a period beginning on a given day, act or event is provided or allowed for a purpose by this Law, the period is to be calculated by excluding the day, or the day of the act or event, and—
- (a) if the period is expressed to be a specified number of clear days or at least a specified number of days—by excluding the day on which the purpose is to be fulfilled; and
 - (b) in any other case—by including the day on which the purpose is to be fulfilled.
- (3) If the last day of a period provided or allowed by this Law for doing anything is not a business day in the place in which the thing is to be or may be done, the thing may be done on the next business day in the place.
- (4) If the last day of a period provided or allowed by this Law for the filing or registration of a document is a day on which the office is closed where the filing or registration is to be or may be done, the document may be filed or registered at the office on the next day that the office is open.
- (5) If no time is provided or allowed for doing anything, the thing is to be done as soon as possible, and as often as the prescribed occasion happens.
- (6) If, in this Law, there is a reference to time, the reference is, in relation to the doing of anything in a jurisdiction, a reference to the legal time in the jurisdiction.
- (7) For the purposes of this Law, a person attains an age in years at the beginning of the person's birthday for the age.

Part 6—Effect of repeal, amendment or expiration

32—Time of Law ceasing to have effect

If a provision of this Law is expressed—

- (a) to expire on a specified day; or
- (b) to remain or continue in force, or otherwise have effect, until a specified day;

the provision has effect until the last moment of the specified day.

33—Repealed Law provisions not revived

If a provision of this Law is repealed or amended by an Act, or a provision of an Act, the provision is not revived merely because the Act or the provision of the Act—

- (a) is later repealed or amended; or
- (b) later expires.

34—Saving of operation of repealed Law provisions

- (1) The repeal, amendment or expiry of a provision of this Law does not—
 - (a) revive anything not in force or existing at the time the repeal, amendment or expiry takes effect; or
 - (b) affect the previous operation of the provision or anything suffered, done or begun under the provision; or
 - (c) affect a right, privilege or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the provision; or
 - (d) affect a penalty incurred in relation to an offence arising under the provision; or
 - (e) affect an investigation, proceedings or remedy in relation to such a right, privilege, liability or penalty.
- (2) Any such penalty may be imposed and enforced, and any such investigation, proceedings or remedy may be begun, continued or enforced, as if the provision had not been repealed or amended or had not expired.

35—Continuance of repealed provisions

If an Act repeals some provisions of this Law and enacts new provisions in substitution for the repealed provisions, the repealed provisions continue in force until the new provisions commence.

36—Law and amending Acts to be read as one

This Law and all Acts or regulations amending this Law are to be read as one.

Part 7—Instruments under this Law

37—Schedule applies to statutory instruments

- (1) This Schedule applies to a statutory instrument, and to things that may be done or are required to be done under a statutory instrument, in the same way as it applies to this Law, and things that may be done or are required to be done under this Law, except so far as the context or subject matter otherwise indicates or requires.
- (2) The fact that a provision of this Schedule refers to this Law and not also to a statutory instrument does not, by itself, indicate that the provision is intended to apply only to this Law.

Part 8—Application to coastal sea

38—Application

This Law has effect in and in relation to the coastal sea of this jurisdiction as if that coastal sea were part of this jurisdiction.

Part 9—Offences under this Law

39—Penalty at foot of provision

In this Law, a penalty specified at the foot of—

- (a) a section (whether or not the section is divided into subsections); or
- (b) a subsection (but not at the end of a section); or
- (c) a section or subsection and expressed in such a way as to indicate that it applies only to part of the section or subsection, indicates that an offence referred to in the section, subsection or part is punishable on conviction or, if no offence is mentioned, a contravention of the section, subsection or part constitutes an offence against the provision that is punishable, on conviction, by a penalty not more than the specified penalty.

40—Penalty other than at foot of provision

In this Law, a penalty specified for an offence, or a contravention of a provision, indicates that the offence is punishable on conviction, or that the contravention constitutes an offence against the provision that is punishable, on conviction, by a penalty not more than the specified penalty.
