 - discriminate* means—
 - (a) discriminate on the ground of marital or domestic partnership status; or
 - (b) discriminate on the ground of the identity of a spouse or domestic partner; or
 - (c) discriminate on the ground of pregnancy; or

- (d) discriminate on the ground of association with a child; or
 - (e) discriminate on the ground of caring responsibilities; or
 - (f) discriminate on the ground of religious appearance or dress,
- and discrimination has a corresponding meaning.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act, a person discriminates on the ground of marital or domestic partnership status—
- (a) if he or she treats another unfavourably because of the other's marital or domestic partnership status or past or proposed marital or domestic partnership status; or
 - (b) if he or she treats another unfavourably because the other does not comply, or is not able to comply, with a particular requirement and—
 - (i) the nature of the requirement is such that a substantially higher proportion of persons of a different marital or domestic partnership status comply, or are able to comply, with the requirement than of those of the other's marital or domestic partnership status; and
 - (ii) the requirement is not reasonable in the circumstances of the case; or
 - (c) if he or she treats another unfavourably on the basis of a characteristic that appertains generally to persons of that marital or domestic partnership status, or on the basis of a presumed characteristic that is generally imputed to persons of that marital or domestic partnership status; or
 - (d) if he or she treats another unfavourably because of an attribute of or a circumstance affecting a relative or associate of the other, being an attribute or circumstance described in the preceding paragraphs.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act, a person discriminates on the ground of the identity of a spouse or domestic partner if he or she treats another unfavourably because of the identity of the other's spouse or domestic partner, or former or proposed spouse or domestic partner.
- (4) For the purposes of this Act, a person discriminates on the ground of pregnancy—
- (a) if he or she treats a woman unfavourably because of her pregnancy or potential pregnancy; or
 - (b) if he or she treats a pregnant woman unfavourably because she does not comply, or is not able to comply, with a particular requirement and—
 - (i) the nature of the requirement is such that a substantially higher proportion of women who are not pregnant comply, or are able to comply, with the requirement than of those who are pregnant; and

- (ii) the requirement is not reasonable in the circumstances of the case; or
 - (c) if he or she treats a pregnant woman unfavourably on the basis of a characteristic that appertains generally to pregnant women, or on the basis of a presumed characteristic that is generally imputed to pregnant women; or
 - (d) if he or she treats another unfavourably because of an attribute of or a circumstance affecting a relative or associate of the other, being an attribute or circumstance described in the preceding paragraphs.
- (5) For the purposes of this Act, a person discriminates on the ground of association with a child—
- (a) if he or she treats another unfavourably because the person is breast feeding or bottle feeding an infant, or proposes to do so, or is, or proposes to be, accompanied by a child; or
 - (b) if he or she treats another unfavourably because a relative or associate of the other is breast feeding or bottle feeding an infant, or proposes to do so, or is, or proposes to be, accompanied by a child.
- (6) For the purposes of this Act, a person discriminates on the ground of caring responsibilities—
- (a) if he or she treats another unfavourably because of the other's caring responsibilities or proposed caring responsibilities; or
 - (b) if he or she treats another unfavourably because the other does not comply, or is not able to comply, with a particular requirement and—
 - (i) the nature of the requirement is such that a substantially higher proportion of persons without caring responsibilities comply, or are able to comply, with the requirement than of those with caring responsibilities; and
 - (ii) the requirement is not reasonable in the circumstances of the case; or
 - (c) if he or she treats another unfavourably on the basis of a characteristic that appertains generally to persons with caring responsibilities, or on the basis of a presumed characteristic that is generally imputed to persons with caring responsibilities; or
 - (d) if he or she treats another unfavourably because of an attribute of or a circumstance affecting a relative or associate of the other, being an attribute or circumstance described in the preceding paragraphs.

- (7) For the purposes of this Act, a person discriminates on the ground of religious appearance or dress—
- (a) if he or she treats another unfavourably because of the other's appearance or dress and that appearance or dress is required by, or symbolic of, the other's religious beliefs; or
 - (b) if he or she requires a person to alter the person's appearance or dress and that appearance or dress is required by, or symbolic of, the other's religious beliefs; or
 - (c) if he or she treats another unfavourably because of the appearance or dress of a relative or associate of the other and that appearance or dress is required by, or symbolic of, the relative or associate's religious beliefs.

Division 2—Discrimination against workers

85U—Application of Division

This Division applies to discrimination on the ground of marital or domestic partnership status, identity of spouse or domestic partner, pregnancy, caring responsibilities or religious appearance or dress.

85V—Discrimination against applicants and employees

- (1) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person—
- (a) in determining, or in the course of determining, who should be offered employment; or
 - (b) in the terms or conditions on which employment is offered.
- (2) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against an employee—
- (a) in the terms or conditions of employment; or
 - (b) by denying or limiting access to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to other benefits connected with employment; or
 - (c) by dismissing the employee; or
 - (d) by subjecting the employee to other detriment.

85W—Discrimination against agents and independent contractors

- (1) This section applies to a principal for whom work is done—
- (a) by agents remunerated by commission; or
 - (b) by independent contractors engaged under a contract for services.
- (2) It is unlawful for the principal to discriminate against a person—
- (a) in determining, or in the course of determining, who should be engaged as an agent or independent contractor; or

- (b) in the terms or conditions on which such an engagement is offered.
- (3) It is unlawful for the principal to discriminate against an agent or independent contractor—
 - (a) in the terms or conditions on which the agent or independent contractor is engaged; or
 - (b) by denying or limiting access to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training or other benefits connected with the agent's or independent contractor's position; or
 - (c) by terminating the engagement; or
 - (d) by subjecting the agent or independent contractor to other detriment.

85X—Discrimination against contract workers

- (1) This section applies to a principal for whom work is done by persons (contract workers) under a contract between the principal and another where the contract workers are employed or engaged by a person other than the principal.
- (2) It is unlawful for a principal to enter into a contract or arrangement with another for work to be performed by contract workers under which a person is to discriminate against a contract worker.
- (3) It is unlawful for the principal to discriminate against a contract worker—
 - (a) in the terms or conditions on which the contract worker is allowed to work; or
 - (b) by not allowing the contract worker to work; or
 - (c) by denying or limiting access to a benefit connected with the employment or position concerned; or
 - (d) by subjecting the contract worker to other detriment.

85Y—Discrimination within partnerships

- (1) It is unlawful for a firm, or a person promoting the formation of a firm, to discriminate against a person—
 - (a) in determining, or in the course of determining, who should be offered a position as partner in the firm; or
 - (b) in the terms or conditions on which that person is offered a position as partner in the firm.
- (2) It is unlawful for a firm to discriminate against a partner—
 - (a) in the terms or conditions of membership of the firm; or
 - (b) by denying or limiting access to a benefit arising from membership of the firm; or
 - (c) by expelling the partner from the firm; or

- (d) by subjecting the partner to other detriment.

85Z—Exemptions

- (1) This Division does not apply in relation to—
- (a) an employer employing a person for purposes not connected with a business carried on by the employer; or
 - (b) a principal engaging a natural person as an independent contractor for purposes not connected with a business carried on by the principal.
- (2) This Division does not apply to discrimination against same sex domestic partners on the ground of marital or domestic partnership status in relation to employment or engagement for the purposes of an educational institution administered in accordance with the precepts of a particular religion if Part 3 Division 2 does not apply in relation to discrimination on the ground of sexuality in relation to the employment or engagement (see section 34(3)).
- (3) This Division does not apply to discrimination against a pregnant woman on the ground of pregnancy if—
- (a) the discrimination is based on the fact that the woman is not, or would not be, able—
 - (i) to perform adequately, and without endangering herself, the unborn child or other persons, the work genuinely and reasonably required of her; or
 - (ii) to respond adequately to situations of emergency that should reasonably be anticipated in connection with her duties; and
 - (b) in the case of discrimination arising out of dismissal from employment—
 - (i) there is no other work that the employer could reasonably be expected to offer the woman; and
 - (ii) the woman has been offered leave for the period that would result in her being unable—
 - (A) to perform adequately, and without endangering herself, the unborn child or other persons, the work genuinely and reasonably required of her; or
 - (B) to respond adequately to situations of emergency that should reasonably be anticipated in connection with her duties, and the woman has declined to take the leave.

- (4) This Division does not apply to discrimination on the ground of religious appearance or dress if, by reason of the person's appearance or dress, the person is not, or would not be, able—
 - (a) to perform adequately, and without endangering himself or herself or other persons, the work genuinely and reasonably required for the employment or position in question; or
 - (b) to respond adequately to situations of emergency that should reasonably be anticipated in connection with the employment or position in question.
- (5) This Division does not apply to discrimination on the ground of religious appearance or dress in relation to employment or engagement if the discrimination is for the purposes of enforcing a standard of appearance or dress reasonably required for the employment or engagement.

Division 3—Discrimination by other bodies

85ZA—Application of Division

This Division applies to discrimination on the ground of marital or domestic partnership status, identity of spouse or domestic partner, pregnancy or caring responsibilities.

85ZB—Discrimination by associations

- (1) It is unlawful for an association to discriminate—
 - (a) against an applicant for membership—
 - (i) by refusing or failing to admit the applicant to membership, or to a particular class of membership, of the association; or
 - (ii) in the terms on which the applicant is, or may be, admitted to membership, or to a particular class of membership; or
 - (b) against a member of the association—
 - (i) by refusing or failing to provide a particular service or benefit to that member; or
 - (ii) in the terms on which a particular service or benefit is provided to that member; or
 - (iii) by expelling that member from the association or subjecting him or her to other detriment.
- (2) This section does not render unlawful an association established—
 - (a) for persons of a particular marital or domestic partnership status; or
 - (b) for spouses or domestic partners of a particular class; or

- (c) for persons with caring responsibilities or particular caring responsibilities, and, consequently, such an association may discriminate against an applicant for membership so as to exclude from membership persons other than those for whom the association is established.

- (3) This section does not apply to discrimination against same sex domestic partners on the ground of marital or domestic partnership status if the association is administered in accordance with the precepts of a particular religion and the discrimination is founded on the precepts of that religion.

85ZC—Discrimination by qualifying bodies

It is unlawful for an authority or body empowered to confer an authorisation or qualification that is needed for, or facilitates, the practice of a profession, or the carrying on or engaging in of a trade or occupation, to discriminate against a person—

- (a) by refusing or failing to confer or renew that authorisation or qualification; or
- (b) in the terms or conditions on which it confers the authorisation or qualification; or
- (c) by withdrawing the authorisation or qualification, or varying the terms or conditions on which it is held.

Division 4—Discrimination in education

85ZD—Application of Division

This Division applies to discrimination on the ground of marital or domestic partnership status, identity of spouse or domestic partner, pregnancy, caring responsibilities or religious appearance or dress.

85ZE—Discrimination by educational authorities

- (1) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a person—
 - (a) by refusing or failing to accept an application for admission as a student; or
 - (b) in the terms or conditions on which it offers to admit the person as a student.
- (2) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a student—
 - (a) in the terms or conditions on which it provides the student with education or training; or
 - (b) by denying or limiting access to a benefit provided by the authority; or
 - (c) by expelling the student; or

- (d) by subjecting the student to other detriment.
- (3) This section does not apply to discrimination against a pregnant woman on the ground of pregnancy in respect of participation in a particular activity or admission as a student to a course requiring participation in a particular activity if the woman is not, or would not be, able—
 - (a) to perform adequately, and without endangering herself, the unborn child or other persons, the activity; or
 - (b) to respond adequately to situations of emergency that should reasonably be anticipated in connection with the activity.
- (4) This section does not apply to discrimination on the ground of religious appearance or dress in respect of participation in a particular activity if, by reason of the person's appearance or dress, the person is not, or would not be, able—
 - (a) to perform adequately, and without endangering himself or herself or other persons, the activity; or
 - (b) to respond adequately to situations of emergency that should reasonably be anticipated in connection with the activity.
- (5) This section does not render unlawful an act of discrimination by an educational authority administered in accordance with the precepts of a particular religion against a student or potential student because the student or potential student appears or dresses, or wishes to appear or dress, in a manner required by, or symbolic of, a different religion.

Division 5—Discrimination in relation to land, goods, services and accommodation

85ZF—Discrimination by person disposing of interest in land

- (1) This section applies to discrimination on the ground of marital or domestic partnership status, identity of spouse or domestic partner, pregnancy or caring responsibilities.
- (2) It is unlawful for a person to discriminate against another—
 - (a) by refusing or failing to dispose of an interest in land to the other person; or
 - (b) in the terms or conditions on which an interest in land is offered to the other person.
- (3) This section does not apply to the disposal of an interest in land by way of, or under, a testamentary disposition or gift.

85ZG—Discrimination in provision of goods and services

- (1) This section applies to discrimination on the ground of marital or domestic partnership status, identity of spouse or domestic partner, pregnancy, association with a child or caring responsibilities.

- (2) It is unlawful for a person who offers or provides—
 - (a) goods; or
 - (b) services to which this Act applies,(whether for payment or not) to discriminate against another—
 - (c) by refusing or failing to supply the goods or perform the services; or
 - (d) in the terms or conditions on which or the manner in which the goods are supplied or the services are performed.

85ZH—Discrimination in relation to accommodation

- (1) This section applies to discrimination on the ground of marital or domestic partnership status, identity of spouse or domestic partner, pregnancy or caring responsibilities.
- (2) It is unlawful for a person to discriminate against another—
 - (a) in the terms or conditions on which accommodation is offered; or
 - (b) by refusing an application for accommodation; or
 - (c) by deferring such an application or according the applicant a lower order of precedence on a list of applicants for that accommodation.
- (3) It is unlawful for a person to discriminate against a person for whom accommodation has been provided—
 - (a) in the terms or conditions on which accommodation is provided; or
 - (b) by denying or limiting access to a benefit connected with the accommodation; or
 - (c) by evicting the person; or
 - (d) by subjecting the person to other detriment.
- (4) This section does not apply to discrimination in relation to the provision of accommodation if the person who provides, or proposes to provide, the accommodation, or a near relative of that person, resides, and intends to continue to reside, in the same household as the person requiring the accommodation.
- (5) This section does not apply to discrimination on the ground of marital or domestic partnership status, pregnancy or caring responsibilities in relation to the provision of accommodation by an organisation that does not seek to secure a pecuniary profit for its members, if that accommodation is provided only for persons of a particular marital or domestic partnership status, pregnant women or persons with caring responsibilities.

Division 6—General exemptions from Part 5B

85ZI—Charities

This Part does not—

- (a) affect a provision in a charitable instrument for conferring benefits wholly or mainly on—
 - (i) persons of a particular marital or domestic partnership status; or
 - (ii) pregnant women; or
 - (iii) spouses or domestic partners of persons of a particular class; or
 - (iv) persons with caring responsibilities or particular caring responsibilities; or
- (b) render unlawful an act done to give effect to such a provision.

85ZJ—Rights in connection with pregnancy

This Part does not render unlawful the granting to women of rights or privileges in connection with pregnancy or childbirth.

85ZK—Measures intended to achieve equality

This Part does not render unlawful an act done for the purpose of carrying out a scheme or undertaking intended to ensure that persons of a particular marital or domestic partnership status, or persons with caring responsibilities, have equal opportunities with, respectively, persons of another marital or domestic partnership status, or persons without caring responsibilities, in any of the circumstances to which this Part applies.

85ZL—Exemption relating to identity of spouse or domestic partner

This Part does not apply to discrimination on the ground of the identity of a spouse or domestic partner if the discrimination is, having regard to all the circumstances of the particular case, reasonably necessary to preserve confidentiality, avoid conflicts of interest or nepotism or reasonably apprehended conflicts of interest or nepotism or protect the health or safety of persons.

85ZM—Religious bodies

This Part does not render unlawful discrimination on the ground of marital or domestic partnership status in relation to—

- (a) the ordination or appointment of priests, ministers of religion or members of a religious order; or

- (b) the training or education of persons seeking ordination or appointment as priests, ministers of religion or members of a religious order.

85ZN—Exemption relating to religious appearance or dress

This Part does not apply to discrimination on the ground of religious appearance or dress if the discrimination arises as a consequence of a person refusing to reveal his or her face in circumstances in which the person has been requested to do so for the purpose of verifying the identity of the person, and the request was reasonable in the circumstances.

63—Amendment of section 87—Sexual harassment

- (1) Section 87(1) to (5)—delete subsections (1) to (5) and substitute:

- (1) It is unlawful for a person to subject to sexual harassment—

- (a) a person with whom he or she works; or
- (b) a person who is seeking to become a fellow worker,

while in attendance at a place that is a workplace of both the persons or in circumstances where the person was, or ought reasonably to have been, aware that the other person was a fellow worker or seeking to become a fellow worker.

- (2) It is unlawful for a person who works for an educational authority to subject a student of the educational authority, or a person applying to become a student of the educational authority, to sexual harassment while in attendance at a place in connection with the student's education or the applicant's prospective education or in circumstances where the person was, or ought reasonably to have been, aware that the person was a student, or a person applying to become a student, of the educational authority.

- (3) It is unlawful for a student of or over 16 years of age, while in attendance at a place in connection with his or her education, to subject a person who works at the educational institution at which the student is enrolled or a fellow student to sexual harassment.

- (2) Section 87—after subsection (6) insert:

- (6aa) It is unlawful for a person to whom goods, services to which this Act applies or accommodation are being offered, supplied, performed or provided by another person to subject that other person to sexual harassment.

- (3) Section 87—after subsection (6e) insert:

- (6f) It is unlawful for a member of an authority or body empowered to confer an authorisation or qualification that is needed for, or facilitates, the practice of a profession, or the carrying on or engaging in of a trade or occupation to subject an applicant for the conferral of such an authorisation or qualification to sexual harassment.

- (6g) It is unlawful for a member of the governing body of an association to subject a member of the association, or a person applying to become a member of the association, to sexual harassment.
- (4) Section 87(7) to (11)—delete subsections (7) to (11) and substitute:
- (7) If an employee reports to his or her employer specific circumstances in which the employee was subjected, in the course of his or her employment, to sexual harassment by a person other than a fellow worker, and it is reasonable in all the circumstances to expect that further sexual harassment of the employee by the same person is likely to occur, it is unlawful for the employer to fail to take reasonable steps to prevent the further sexual harassment.
- (8) It is unlawful for an educational authority administering a secondary education institution to fail to have a written policy against sexual harassment by students that incorporates procedures for resolving complaints and is made readily available to students.
- (9) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) a person sexually harasses another (the person harassed) if—
- (i) the person makes an unwelcome sexual advance, or an unwelcome request for sexual favours, to the person harassed; or
- (ii) engages in other unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature in relation to the person harassed,
- in circumstances in which a reasonable person, having regard to all the circumstances, would have anticipated that the person harassed would be offended, humiliated or intimidated; and
- (b) conduct of a sexual nature includes making a statement of a sexual nature to a person, or in the presence of a person, whether the statement is made orally or in writing; and
- (c) a person works with another if both carry out duties or perform functions, in whatever capacity and whether for payment or not, in or in relation to the same business or organisation; and
- (d) a person works for an authority if he or she carries out duties or performs functions, in whatever capacity and whether for payment or not, in or in relation to that authority; and
- (e) workplace means a place (including a ship, aircraft or vehicle) at which a person works or attends in connection with the person's work.

64—Substitution of section 88

Section 88—delete the section and substitute:

87A—Sharing accommodation with child

- (1) It is unlawful for a person—
 - (a) to refuse an application for accommodation; or
 - (b) to defer such an application or accord the applicant a late order of precedence on a list of applicants for that accommodation,on the ground that the applicant intends to share that accommodation with a child.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply—
 - (a) in relation to the provision of accommodation for recreational purposes, if the use of that accommodation is limited, on a genuine and reasonable basis, to persons other than children or persons of a particular age group; or
 - (b) in relation to the provision of accommodation, if the person who provides, or proposes to provide, the accommodation, or a near relative of that person, resides, and intends to continue to reside, in the same household as the person requiring the accommodation.

87B—Student breast feeding infant

- (1) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a student by denying or limiting access to the educational services provided by the authority on the ground that the student is breast feeding an infant or proposes to do so.
- (2) This section does not apply to discrimination in respect of a particular activity if the student is not, or would not be, able—
 - (a) to perform adequately, and without endangering herself or other persons, the activity; or
 - (b) to respond adequately to situations of emergency that should reasonably be anticipated in connection with the activity.

88—Assistance animals

Subject to this Act—

- (a) it is unlawful to impose a condition or requirement that would result in a person with a disability being separated from his or her assistance animal; and
- (b) a person who imposes such a condition or requirement is, in addition to civil liability that might be incurred under this Act, guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

88A—Therapeutic animals

- (1) It is unlawful for a person—
 - (a) to refuse an application for accommodation; or
 - (b) to defer such an application or accord the applicant a late order of precedence on a list of applicants for that accommodation, on the ground that the applicant intends to keep a therapeutic animal at that accommodation.

- (2) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply if the respondent establishes that in the circumstances of the case the refusal was reasonable.
- (3) In this section—

therapeutic animal means—

 - (a) an animal certified by a medical practitioner as being required to assist a person as a consequence of the person's disability; or
 - (b) an animal of a class prescribed by regulation, but does not include an assistance animal, a dangerous dog within the meaning of the Dog and Cat Management Act 1995 or a dog of a prescribed breed within the meaning of the Dog and Cat Management Act 1995.

65—Substitution of section 91

Section 91—delete the section and substitute:

91—Civil liability of employers and principals

- (1) Subject to this section, a person is, for the purposes of this Act, vicariously liable for a discriminatory or unlawful act of an agent or employee of the person committed while acting in the course of their agency or employment.
- (2) In proceedings brought under this Act against a person in respect of an act alleged to have been committed by an agent or employee while acting in the course of their agency or employment, it is a defence to prove that the person took reasonable steps to ensure that the agent or employee would not act in contravention of this Act.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), a defence is established under that subsection in relation to an alleged discriminatory or unlawful act if the person—
 - (a) had in force at the relevant time an appropriate policy for the prevention of such an act; and
 - (b) had taken reasonable steps to implement and enforce the policy including—
 - (i) reasonable steps to make the employees and agents of the person aware of the terms of the policy; and

- (ii) prompt investigation of any alleged act and taking appropriate action.

66—Substitution of heading to Part 8 Division 1

Heading to Part 8 Division 1—Delete the heading and substitute:

Division 1—Proceedings before Commissioner and Tribunal

67—Amendment of section 93—Making of complaints

- (1) Section 93(1)(c)—delete "has an intellectual impairment" and substitute:
is a child or has an intellectual disability
- (2) Section 93(2)(a)—delete "six" and substitute:
12
- (3) Section 93(2)(b)—delete "six" and substitute:
12
- (4) Section 93—after subsection (2) insert:
 - (2a) The Commissioner may, on application, extend the time for lodging a complaint, even if the time for lodging the complaint has expired, if the Commissioner is satisfied—
 - (a) that there is good reason why the complaint was not made within the stipulated time period; and
 - (b) that in all the circumstances it is just and equitable to do so.
 - (2b) If the Commissioner decides to refuse an application to extend the time for lodging a complaint, the Commissioner must give the applicant notice in writing of the decision and of the applicant's right to have the decision reviewed.
 - (2c) A complaint alleging that a student enrolled in a course of secondary education has committed an act of sexual harassment or victimisation against a fellow student of the educational institution at which the student is enrolled may not be lodged unless the complainant satisfies the Commissioner that the complainant has made a reasonable attempt to resolve the matter through procedures available at the institution or that there is good reason for not doing so.
- (5) Section 93(3)—delete ", personally or by post, upon" and substitute:
on

68—Amendment of section 94—Investigation of complaints or matters referred to Commissioner

- (1) Section 94—delete subsection (2) and substitute:
- (2) An investigation by the Commissioner into an alleged contravention of this Act is to be conducted—
 - (a) in the case of an investigation on a complaint—for the purpose of enabling the Commissioner to determine whether the complaint is one on which action should be taken by the Commissioner and, if so, enabling resolution of the matter by conciliation or enabling referral of the matter to the Tribunal; and
 - (b) in the case of a matter referred to the Commissioner for investigation—for the purpose of enabling the Commissioner to determine whether the matter should be referred to the Tribunal and, if so, enabling that referral.
 - (2a) For the purposes of an investigation, the Commissioner may, by notice in writing, require a person whom the Commissioner reasonably believes may have in his or her possession or control books, papers or other documents relevant to the subject matter of the investigation, to produce to the Commissioner such of those books, papers or other documents as may be specified in the notice.
 - (2b) The Commissioner cannot, without the consent of the person concerned, require production of—
 - (a) records of counselling or therapy sessions undergone by the person; or
 - (b) records or notes made by an advocate for the person in relation to the subject matter of the alleged contravention of the Act.
- (2) Section 94(3)—delete "pursuant to subsection (2)" and substitute:
under subsection (2a)
- (3) Section 94(3), penalty provision—delete the penalty provision and substitute:
Maximum penalty: $2 500.
- (4) Section 94(4)—delete subsection (4) and substitute:
- (4) A person is not obliged to produce books, papers or documents under this section if—
 - (a) their contents would tend to incriminate the person of an offence; or
 - (b) by producing them the person would commit a breach of legal professional privilege.

69—Substitution of section 95

Section 95—delete the section and substitute:

95—Conciliation of complaints lodged with Commissioner

- (1) If the Commissioner is of the opinion that a matter the subject of a complaint (other than a complaint declined by the Commissioner under section 95A) may be resolved by conciliation, the Commissioner must make all reasonable endeavours to resolve the matter by conciliation.
- (2) If the Commissioner—
 - (a) has received more than 1 complaint against the same respondent alleging the same or similar issues of law or fact; and
 - (b) is of the opinion that the most appropriate form of conciliation is by way of joint conciliation,the Commissioner may conciliate the matters jointly.
- (3) The Commissioner may, by notice in writing to the complainant or the person who is alleged to have contravened this Act, require that person to attend at a time and place specified in the notice for the purpose of conciliation.
- (4) A person who refuses or fails to comply with a requirement of the Commissioner under this section is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: $2 500.
- (5) The Commissioner may conduct conciliation proceedings as the Commissioner thinks fit, including—
 - (a) by conciliating the matter without bringing the parties into direct contact with one another; and
 - (b) by inviting persons other than the parties to attend the conciliation proceedings (for example, by inviting representatives of an educational authority to attend conciliation proceedings in a case involving sexual harassment between students).
- (6) A party to proceedings is not entitled to be represented, or assisted, by a legal practitioner in conciliation proceedings except with the authority of the Commissioner.
- (7) If a child is a party to proceedings, the child is entitled to be supported in conciliation proceedings by an adult who, in the opinion of the Commissioner, would be of assistance in that role.

- (8) For the purposes of conciliating a matter, the Commissioner may make available to a particular party to the proceedings books, papers or documents produced by other persons for the purposes of an investigation that are likely, in the Commissioner's opinion, to facilitate resolution of the matter (but the Commissioner must not make records referred to in section 94(2b), or other documents containing confidential or personal information, available without the consent of the person concerned).
- (9) Evidence of anything said or done in the course of conciliation proceedings is not admissible in proceedings under this Act or any other Act or law.

95A—Commissioner may decline complaints in certain circumstances

- (1) The Commissioner may, by notice in writing to the complainant, decline to recognise a complaint as one on which action should be taken by the Commissioner if, in the opinion of the Commissioner—
 - (a) the complaint is frivolous, vexatious, misconceived or lacking in substance; or
 - (b) the complaint has ceased to be a complaint that should be proceeded with because the complainant—
 - (i) has died; or
 - (ii) is unable to be contacted; or
 - (iii) has expressed an intention not to proceed, or otherwise evidenced a lack of interest in proceeding, with the complaint; or
 - (iv) has unreasonably refused or failed to cooperate; or
 - (c) there is no reasonable prospect of an order being made by the Tribunal under section 96(1) or of an order being made by the Tribunal that is more favourable to the complainant than offers refused by the complainant in conciliation proceedings.
- (2) A decision by the Commissioner not to recognise a complaint as one on which action should be taken may be made at any time, despite the fact that to some extent action has already been taken on the complaint.
- (3) If—
 - (a) the Commissioner has determined that a complaint has ceased to be a complaint that should be proceeded with under subsection (1)(b); and
 - (b) the complainant contacts the Commissioner within 12 months after the date of that determination requesting that the complaint proceed,the Commissioner may reinstate the complaint.

95B—Referral of complaints to Tribunal

If, in respect of a complaint, the Commissioner—

- (a) is of the opinion that the matter cannot be resolved by conciliation; or
- (b) has attempted to resolve the matter by conciliation but has not been successful in that attempt; or
- (c) has declined to recognise the complaint as one on which action should be taken and the complainant has, within 3 months of being notified of the Commissioner's decision, by notice in writing, required the Commissioner to refer the complaint to the Tribunal, the Commissioner must refer the matter to the Tribunal for hearing and determination.

95C—Assistance to parties before Tribunal

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Commissioner may, at the request of the complainant or respondent, provide representation for the complainant or respondent in proceedings before the Tribunal.
- (2) The Commissioner must apply available public funds judiciously taking into account—
 - (a) the capacity of the complainant or respondent to represent himself or herself or provide his or her own representation; and
 - (b) the nature and circumstances of the alleged contravention of this Act; and
 - (c) any other matter considered relevant by the Commissioner.
- (3) If the Commissioner provides representation to a complainant or respondent, the person representing the complainant or respondent—
 - (a) must disclose to the Commissioner information reasonably required by the Commissioner to determine whether the Commissioner should cease to provide representation; and
 - (b) may disclose to the Commissioner information that the person considers relevant to the question of whether the Commissioner should cease to provide representation, and the complainant or respondent will be taken to have waived any right or privilege that might prevent such disclosure.

95D—Referral of matters to Tribunal

- (1) If, following an investigation of a matter referred to the Commissioner, the Commissioner is of the opinion that the matter should be referred to the Tribunal for hearing and determination, the Commissioner will lodge a complaint with the Tribunal in respect of the matter.

- (2) If, following an investigation of a matter referred to the Commissioner, the Commissioner determines that the matter should not be referred to the Tribunal, the Commissioner must, by notice in writing to the person the subject of the investigation, inform the person of that determination.

70—Amendment of section 96—Power of Tribunal to make certain orders

- (1) Section 96(1)(a)—before "an order" insert:
subject to this section,
- (2) Section 96(1)(c)—after "contravention" insert:
or remedying a discriminatory or unlawful act
- (3) Section 96(3)—after subsection (3) insert:
 - (3a) In awarding compensation the Tribunal must take into account the amount of damages or compensation (if any) awarded in other proceedings (criminal or civil) in respect of the same act or series of acts.
 - (3b) An award of compensation may not be made against a child for an act in contravention of this Act (but an award of compensation may be made against a person who is vicariously liable for the act of the child).
- (4) Section 96(4), penalty provision—delete the penalty provision and substitute:
Maximum penalty: $5 000.
- (5) Section 96—after subsection (5) insert:
 - (6) The Commissioner may, at the request or with the leave of the Tribunal, assist the Tribunal in proceedings.

71—Insertion of section 96A

After section 96 insert:

96A—Limitation on publicity relating to child

A person must not publish, by radio, television or newspaper, on the Internet or in any other way, a report of proceedings under this Act to which a child is a party if the report identifies the child or contains information tending to identify the child.

Maximum penalty: $10 000.

72—Amendment of heading to Part 8 Division 2

Heading to Part 8 Division 2—delete the heading and substitute:

Division 2—Review and appeal

73—Insertion of section 96B

Before section 97 insert:

96B—Review of refusal to extend time

- (1) If the Commissioner has refused an application for an extension of time within which to lodge a complaint, the applicant may apply to the Tribunal for a review of the decision.
- (2) An application for review must be made within 1 month after notification of the decision.
- (3) The Tribunal may confirm the decision of the Commissioner or substitute its own decision.

74—Amendment of section 100—Proceedings under Fair Work Act 1994

- (1) Section 100(3)—delete "the sex, sexuality, marital status, pregnancy, race, impairment or age of the person" and substitute:

a ground of discrimination under this Act
- (2) Section 100(5)—delete "the sex, sexuality, marital status, pregnancy, race, impairment or age of the person" and substitute:

a ground of discrimination under this Act
- (3) Section 100—after subsection (5) insert:
 - (6) The Commissioner may, with leave of the Industrial Relations Commission of South Australia, make submissions and present evidence in proceedings before the Commission under the Fair Work Act 1994.

75—Amendment of section 102—Offences against Commissioner

Section 102, penalty provision—delete the penalty provision and substitute:

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

76—Amendment of section 103—Discriminatory advertisements

Section 103(1), penalty provision—delete the penalty provision and substitute:

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

77—Substitution of section 104

Section 104—delete the section and substitute:

104—Service of documents

A notice or document required or authorised to be given or sent to, or served on, a person for the purposes of this Act may—

- (a) be given to the person personally; or
- (b) be posted in an envelope addressed to the person at the person's last known address; or

- (c) if the person is a party to proceedings under this Act, be transmitted to the person by fax or email to the fax number or email address last provided to the Commissioner by the person for that purpose; or
- (d) in the case of a company or registered body within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth, be given in accordance with that Act.

78—Amendment of section 106—Regulations

- (1) Section 106(1)—after "regulations" insert:
as are contemplated by or
- (2) Section 106(2)(c)—delete paragraph (c) and substitute:
 - (c) impose fines, not exceeding $2 500, for offences against the regulations.
