Part 2—Amendment of Rail Safety National Law

4—Amendment of section 128—Offence relating to prescribed concentration of alcohol or prescribed drug

Section 128—after subsection (1) insert:

- (1a) For the purposes of subsection (1), and without limiting the circumstances in which a rail safety worker will be taken to be carrying out, or attempting to carry out, rail safety work, if a rail safety worker—
- (a) has arrived at the rail safety worker's place of work; and
 - (b) —
 - (i) has signed on for the purpose of carrying out rail safety work (in such manner as may be required by the practices and procedures at the worker's place of work and however described) and is available to carry out the rail safety work; or
 - (ii) is otherwise on duty for the purpose of carrying out rail safety work, then the rail safety worker will be taken to be carrying out, or attempting to carry out, rail safety work.
