- (ii) such longer period as may be specified in the resident's residence contract;
- (c) a person will be taken to cease to reside in a retirement village—
- (i) when the person (or someone else on behalf of the person) delivers up vacant possession of the person's residence to the administering authority following the person's vacation of the residence; or
- (ii) when the executor or administrator of the person's estate delivers up vacant possession of the person's residence to the administering authority following the person's death; or

(iii) when the person vacates the person's residence and indicates to the administering authority (either expressly or by his or her actions) that the person does not intend to continue to reside in the village; or

(iv) if—

(A) the administering authority decides to terminate the person's right of occupation under Part 2; and

(B) the Tribunal confirms the administering authority's decision to terminate the right of occupation, at the end of the period fixed by the Tribunal within which the person must vacate the person's residence.

6—Insertion of Part 1A

After section 4 insert:

Part 1A—Administration

Division 1—Registrar

5—Appointment of Registrar

- (1) There will be a Registrar for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The Minister will appoint a Public Service employee to be the Registrar.
- (3) The Minister may assign a Public Service employee to act as the Registrar—
  - (a) during a vacancy in the office of Registrar; or
  - (b) when the Registrar is absent from, or unable to discharge, official duties.

5A—Registrar's functions

- (1) The Registrar's functions are—
  - (a) to gather and maintain current information about retirement villages and retirement village schemes in South Australia in a manner consistent with the Registrar's obligations of confidentiality; and
  - (b) to advise the Minister on the administration and operation of this Act; and
  - (c) to perform any other function assigned to the Registrar by the Minister.

- (2) The Registrar may, at any time, and must, at the request of the Minister, report to the Minister on any issue concerning retirement villages.

5B—Registrar's power to require information

- (1) A person must, if required to do so by the Registrar by written notice—
  - (a) give the Registrar, within a time and in a manner stated in the notice (which must be reasonable), information in the person's possession that the Registrar reasonably requires for the performance of the Registrar's functions under this Act; and
  - (b) verify the information by statutory declaration.

Maximum penalty: $750.
Expiation fee: $105.
- (2) A person cannot be compelled to give information under this section if the information might tend to incriminate the person of an offence.

5C—Registrar's obligation to preserve confidentiality

- (1) The Registrar must preserve the confidentiality of information gained in the course of the performance of the Registrar's functions under this Act that—
  - (a) could affect the competitive position of the administering authority of a retirement village or some other person; or
  - (b) is commercially sensitive for some other reason.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the disclosure of information between—
  - (a) persons engaged in the administration of this Act; or
  - (b) the Registrar and the Tribunal for the purposes of resolving a dispute under this Act.
- (3) Information classified by the Registrar as confidential is not liable to disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act 1991.

5D—Delegation

- (1) The Registrar may delegate a power or function vested in or conferred on the Registrar by or under this Act—
  - (a) to a particular person or body; or
  - (b) to the person for the time being holding or acting in a particular office or position.
- (2) A power or function delegated under this section may, if the instrument of delegation so provides, be further delegated.
- (3) A delegation—
  - (a) may be absolute or conditional; and

- (b) does not derogate from the power of the delegator to act in a matter; and
- (c) is revocable at will by the delegator.

5E—Annual report

- (1) The Registrar must, on or before 30 September in every year, forward to the Minister a report on his or her work and operations for the preceding financial year.
- (2) The Minister must, within 12 sitting days after receiving a report under this section, have copies of the report laid before both Houses of Parliament.

Division 2—Registration of retirement village schemes

5F—Register

- (1) The Registrar must maintain a register containing the following information:
  - (a) the name and business address of the administering authority of each retirement village;
  - (b) in respect of each retirement village—
    - (i) the name and address of the village; and
    - (ii) the references for the certificates of title of the land used for the village; and
    - (iii) the name, address and contact details of the person managing the village for or on behalf of the administering authority;
  - (c) any other information that the Registrar considers appropriate.
- (2) The register is to be available for inspection, without fee, during ordinary office hours at a public office, or public offices, determined by the Minister.
- (3) The Minister must ensure that copies of material on the register can be purchased for a reasonable fee at the public office, or public offices, at which the register is kept available for inspection.

5G—Notification of information required for register

- (1) The administering authority of a retirement village established after the commencement of this section must, within 28 days after the first person is admitted to occupation of his or her residence in accordance with the scheme, give the Registrar—
  - (a) the name and business address of the administering authority; and
  - (b) in respect of the retirement village—
    - (i) the name and address of the village; and

- (ii) the references for the certificates of title of the land used for the village; and
  - (iii) the name, address and contact details of the person managing the village for or on behalf of the administering authority; and
  - (c) any other information that the Registrar considers appropriate.
- Maximum penalty: $2 500.
Expiation fee: $210.
- (2) The administering authority of a retirement village must, within 28 days of any change in the information given under subsection (1) (including a change by virtue of the sale of an interest in the land within the village, or the name of the administering authority or business address), give the Registrar notice of details of the change.
- Maximum penalty: $2 500.
Expiation fee: $210.
- (3) Any information required under this section must be given in a manner and form determined by the Registrar.

Division 3—Authorised officers

5H—Appointment of authorised officers

- (1) The Minister may appoint suitable persons to be authorised officers for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) An appointment may be made subject to conditions specified in the instrument of appointment.
- (3) The Minister may, at any time, revoke an appointment of an authorised officer or vary or revoke a condition of appointment or impose a further condition of appointment.

5I—Identification of authorised officers

- (1) An authorised officer must be issued with an identity card by the Minister.
- (2) If the powers of the authorised officer have been limited by conditions, the identity card issued to the officer must contain a statement of those conditions.
- (3) An authorised officer must, at the request of a person in relation to whom the officer intends to exercise powers under this Act, produce for the inspection of the person his or her identity card.

5J—General powers of authorised officers

- (1) An authorised officer may (subject to any conditions of the officer's appointment) for the purposes of the administration or enforcement of this Act—
  - (a) subject to subsection (2)—enter and inspect any place or vehicle and use such force as may be reasonably necessary to gain entry; or
  - (b) require a person to produce documents in the person's possession or control for inspection; or
  - (c) require a person who has been issued a document under this Act, or who is required to keep records under this Act, to produce the document or records for inspection; or
  - (d) require a person who the officer reasonably suspects has committed, is committing or is about to commit, an offence against this Act to state the person's full name and usual place of residence and to produce evidence of the person's identity.
- (2) An authorised officer cannot exercise the power conferred by subsection (1)(a) except—
  - (a) with the consent of the owner or occupier of the place or the owner or person in charge of the vehicle; or
  - (b) on the authority of a warrant issued by a justice.
- (3) A justice must not issue a warrant under subsection (2) unless satisfied, by information given on oath, that the warrant is reasonably required in the circumstances.
- (4) In the exercise of powers under this Act, an authorised officer may be assisted by such persons as the officer considers necessary in the circumstances.
- (5) An application for a warrant under this section cannot be made to a justice who is a resident of the retirement village in respect of which the warrant is to be executed.

5K—Offence to hinder etc authorised officers

- (1) A person who—
  - (a) hinders or obstructs an authorised officer, or a person assisting an authorised officer, in the exercise of powers conferred by this Act; or
  - (b) uses abusive, threatening or insulting language to an authorised officer, or a person assisting an authorised officer; or
  - (c) refuses or fails to comply with a requirement of an authorised officer under this Act; or

- (d) falsely represents, by words or conduct, that he or she is an authorised officer, is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

- (2) A person who assaults an authorised officer, or a person assisting an authorised officer, in the exercise of powers under this Act, is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $10 000 or imprisonment for 2 years.

7—Substitution of section 6

Section 6—delete the section and substitute:

Division 1—Creation and exercise of residents' rights

6—Residence contracts

- (1) A residence contract must be in writing and comply with this section and the requirements (if any) prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) The residence contract must include the following information:
  - (a) details about the residence in respect of which the person is entering the contract;
  - (b) details about the resident's rights and obligations created by or under the contract, including—
    - (i) the right to cool-off (that is, to rescind the contract and not proceed with becoming a resident in the retirement village);
    - (ii) the right to occupation of the residence;
    - (iii) recurrent charges for which the resident is liable;
    - (iv) additional services and facilities available to residents of the retirement village and the costs of those services and facilities;
    - (v) the right to terminate the right to occupation of the residence and receive a refund of the premium paid;
    - (vi) dispute resolution processes;
    - (vii) any other details prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) The administering authority must, before a person enters into a residence contract, give the person a copy of each of the following documents:
  - (a) the contract;

- (b) if the contract relates to a retirement village already established—the financial statements presented at the last annual general meeting of residents of the village in accordance with section 10(5)(a), including a written statement of any subsequent change in the affairs of the village and the administering authority that may significantly affect the resident's decision to enter the village;
  - (c) the detailed report providing information about—
    - (i) the condition, as at the date of the contract, of the fixtures, fittings and furnishings (an item) provided in the residence; and
    - (ii) who will be responsible for repairing or replacing an item; and
    - (iii) when an item is due to be repaired or replaced; and
    - (iv) how the cost of repairing or replacing an item is to be funded,(the premises condition report);
  - (d) the residence rules;
  - (e) the policy of the administering authority to be applied for the remarketing of residences (the remarketing policy);
  - (f) any code of conduct to be observed by the administering authority;
  - (g) any other document prescribed by the regulations.
- (4) A residence contract will be taken to include a warranty on the part of the administering authority of the correctness of the information contained in the documents provided under subsection (3) (subject to any written alteration made by the administering authority with the consent of the resident on or before the signing of the contract by the administering authority), and that warranty prevails over any inconsistent contractual term unless the resident elects to rely on the contractual term rather than the statement (and then the contractual term will prevail to the extent of any inconsistency).
- (5) An administering authority must not, without the approval of the Minister—
- (a) make a representation to a prospective resident that is inconsistent with information given to the prospective resident under subsection (2) or (3); or
  - (b) give information to a prospective resident under subsection (2) or (3) that is inconsistent with a representation made by the administering authority to the prospective resident.

- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), a representation made by an employee or agent of an administering authority will be taken to be a representation of the administering authority unless the administering authority proves that the person was not acting in the course of his or her employment or agency.
- (7) A resident or prospective resident is entitled to rescind the residence contract—
  - (a) at any time within 15 business days after the date of the contract; or
  - (b) if subsection (3) is not complied with—at any time before the expiration of 15 business days after the date on which the last of the documents required to be given to the resident or prospective resident under that subsection is so given.
- (8) A contract is rescinded under this section by notice in writing, given personally or by post, to the administering authority.
- (9) If a provision of this section is not observed, the administering authority is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: $35 000.
- (10) A residence contract may be enforced against the administering authority for the time being of the retirement village.

8—Amendment, redesignation and relocation of section 7—Termination of residents' rights
