The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

1—Short title

This Act may be cited as the Right to Farm Act 2012.

2—Commencement

This Act will come into operation 2 months after the date of assent.

5 3—Interpretation

In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—farming activity includes any form of primary production;

protected farming activity means a farming activity that is being carried out lawfully on land and that conforms with—

- 10 (a) if the regulations prescribe a code of practice for that farming activity—the prescribed code of practice; or
- (b) in any other case—generally accepted standards and practices for that particular farming activity.

4—Objects

The objects of this Act are—

- (a) to ensure that protected farming activities are not adversely impacted by changes in land use; and
- 5 (b) to ensure that the planning system adequately addresses issues of food security and the importance of ensuring the continued viability of farming activities.

5—Defence for farming activities

- 10 (1) It will be a defence in any proceedings for a prescribed offence if it is proved that the alleged offence resulted from the defendant carrying out a protected farming activity.
- (2) No prescribed civil liability lies in respect of an act or omission that is a protected farming activity.
- (3) In this section—prescribed civil liability means—

- 15 (a) liability to a civil penalty under the Environment Protection Act 1993; or
- (b) liability in nuisance; or
- (c) civil liability of a kind prescribed by regulation;

prescribed offence means—

- 20 (a) an offence against the Environment Protection Act 1993; or
- (b) an offence of a kind prescribed by regulation.

6—Planning principles

- (1) The Minister must, within 6 months after the commencement of this section, develop planning principles that are consistent with, and seek to further, the objects of this Act.
- 25 (2) The Minister must undertake public consultation in developing, or subsequently altering, the planning principles in such manner as the Minister thinks fit.
- (3) The planning principles developed under this section, and any subsequent alterations to those principles, will have effect from the day on which they are published in the Gazette.

7—Regulations

- 30 (1) The Governor may make such regulations as are contemplated by, or necessary or expedient for the purposes of, this Act.
- (2) The regulations may—
 - (a) be of general application or vary in their application according to prescribed factors; and
 - 35 (b) provide that a matter or thing in respect of which regulations may be made is to be determined according to the discretion of the Minister or some other person.

(3) The regulations may refer to or incorporate, wholly or partially and with or without modification, a code, standard or other document prepared or published by a prescribed body, either as in force at the time the regulations are made or as in force from time to time.

5 (4) If a code, standard or other document is referred to or incorporated in the regulations—

(a) a copy of the code, standard or other document must be kept available for public inspection, without charge and during ordinary office hours, at an office or offices specified in the regulations; and

10 (b) evidence of the contents of the code, standard or other document may be given in any legal proceedings by production of a document apparently certified by the Minister to be a true copy of the code, standard or other document.

Schedule 1—Related amendments and transitional provisions

15 Part 1—Related amendments to Development Act 1993

1—Amendment of section 22—The Planning Strategy
