In this Act, a provision under a heading referring to the amendment of a specified Act amends the Act so specified.

Part 2—Amendment of Road Traffic Act 1961

10 3—Amendment of section 45B—Power of police to impose licence disqualification or suspension

(1) Section 45B(7)—delete subsection (7) and substitute:

(7) If—

- 15 (a) a period of licence disqualification or suspension has applied to a person as a result of the person having been given a notice of licence disqualification or suspension under this section; and
- (b) a court convicts the person of the offence in relation to which the notice was given or another offence arising out of the same course of conduct; and

(c) a mandatory minimum period of disqualification would (apart from this subsection) be required to be imposed for the offence,

(e) despite any other provision of this or any other Act, the court must, in determining the period, take into account the period of licence disqualification or suspension that has applied to the person as a result of the notice and may impose a period that is less than the mandatory minimum period of disqualification (provided that the period imposed is not less than the difference between the mandatory minimum and the period that has applied as a result of the notice).

(2) Section 45B(8)—after "exercise" insert:

, or purported exercise,

(3) Section 45B(9)—after "exercise" insert:

(4) Section 45B—after subsection (10) insert:

(12) A notice given to a person by a police officer before the commencement of this subsection that purported to be a notice of licence disqualification or suspension under this section is declared to be, and to have always been, valid if the notice was completed in the prescribed form and was given in the circumstances specified in subsection (1).

4—Amendment of section 47IAA—Power of police to impose immediate licence disqualification or suspension

(1) Section 47IAA—after subsection (7) insert:

(7a) If a person is given a notice of immediate licence disqualification or suspension under this section, the Commissioner of Police must ensure—

(a) that a determination is made, within a reasonable time, as to whether to charge the person with an offence to which this section applies; and

(b) if a determination is made that the person should not be charged with any offence to which this section applies, that the person is given, or sent by post, written notice of that determination.

5 (7b) The laying of charges against a person is not prevented by a failure to comply with subsection (7a) in relation to the person or by the making of a determination referred to in that subsection or the notification of such a determination.

10 (7c) Subject to the making of an order under section 47IAB(2)(a)(ii), the operation of a notice of immediate licence disqualification or suspension is not affected by any failure to comply with subsection (7a).

25 (c) a mandatory minimum period of disqualification would (apart from this subsection) be required to be imposed for the offence,

then—

30 (d) the court must order that the person be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period determined by the court (and if the person is the holder of a driver's licence, the disqualification operates to cancel the licence from the commencement of that period); and

35 (e) despite any other provision of this or any other Act, the court must, in determining the period, take into account the period of licence disqualification or suspension that has applied to the person as a result of the notice and may impose a period that is less than the mandatory minimum period of disqualification (provided that the period imposed is not less than the difference between the mandatory minimum and the period that has applied as a result of the notice).
