Subdivision 3—Cooling-off

25                   18A—Interpretation

                          In this Subdivision—

approved form means a form approved by the Commissioner.

18B—Cooling-off

30                   (1) This section applies to a contract entered into by a dealer after the commencement of this section for the sale of a second-hand vehicle to a natural person, other than a contract for the sale of a vehicle of a prescribed class or the sale of a vehicle in prescribed circumstances.

35                   (2) Subject to this section, a purchaser under a contract to which this section applies may, by giving the dealer written notice before the expiration of the cooling-off period of the purchaser's intention not to be bound by the contract, rescind the contract.

- (3) The notice may be given—
- (a) by giving it to the dealer personally; or
  - (b) by posting it by registered post to the dealer's address for service (in which case the notice is taken to have been given when the notice is posted); or
  - (c) by leaving it for the dealer at the dealer's address for service with a person apparently responsible to the dealer; or
  - (d) by transmitting it by fax or email to a fax number or email address provided by the dealer (in which case the notice is taken to have been given at the time of transmission).
- (4) If in legal proceedings the question arises whether a notice has been given in accordance with this section, the burden of proving the giving of the notice lies on the purchaser.
- (5) A dealer, or a person acting on behalf of a dealer, may not demand or require the purchaser of a second-hand vehicle under a contract to which this section applies to make a payment in respect of the sale before the expiration of the cooling-off period, other than payment of a deposit towards the contract price of the vehicle that does not exceed 2% of that price or $100, whichever is the lesser.
- Maximum penalty: $5 000.
- (6) If a contract is rescinded under this section, the purchaser is entitled to the return of money paid under the contract, but the dealer may retain money paid by the purchaser by way of deposit.
- (7) In proceedings for an offence against subsection (5), if it is proved that the defendant received money from the purchaser, it will be presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary, that the defendant demanded or required the payment of that money.
- (8) If the purchaser of a second-hand vehicle under a contract to which this section applies enters into a contract for the provision of credit (a credit contract) in connection with the purchase, the following provisions apply:
- (a) if the contract for the purchase of the vehicle is rescinded under this section—the credit contract is void and any associated mortgage or other security taken by the credit provider is discharged;
  - (b) if the contract for the purchase of the vehicle is not rescinded—the credit contract does not take effect until—
    - (i) the purchaser waives his or her right to a cooling-off period in relation to the contract for the purchase of the vehicle in accordance with section 33; or
    - (ii) if the right to a cooling-off period is not waived—the expiration of the cooling-off period.

18C—Legal title to vehicle remains with dealer during cooling-off period

Subject to an agreement in the approved form between a dealer and a purchaser under a contract for the sale of a second-hand vehicle to which section 18B applies, the following provisions apply in respect of the contract:

- (a) legal title to the vehicle does not pass from the dealer to the purchaser until the expiration of the cooling-off period in relation to the contract;
- (b) the dealer is entitled to retain possession of the vehicle during the cooling-off period;
- (c) the dealer must allow the purchaser, or a person nominated by the purchaser, reasonable access to the vehicle during the cooling-off period for the purpose of test driving or inspecting the vehicle;
- (d) neither the dealer nor the purchaser, nor a person acting on behalf of the dealer or the purchaser, may drive the vehicle more than 100 kilometres during the cooling-off period;
- (e) the dealer must ensure during the cooling-off period that the vehicle—
  - (i) is roadworthy; and
  - (ii) is insured against loss or damage; and
  - (iii) is registered, or bears trade plates, and is insured in accordance with the requirements of the Motor Vehicles Act 1959.

18D—Trade-in vehicles

(1) If in connection with a contract to which section 18B applies, legal title to a vehicle owned by the purchaser is to pass to the dealer by way of trade-in (the trade-in vehicle), the following provisions apply:

- (a) the purchaser is to retain possession of the trade-in vehicle during the cooling-off period;
- (b) details of the condition of the trade-in vehicle at the commencement of the cooling-off period must be recorded in the approved form, which must be signed by the dealer and the purchaser;
- (c) legal title to the trade-in vehicle does not pass to the dealer until the expiration of the cooling-off period.

(2) If during the cooling-off period the trade-in vehicle is damaged—

- (a) the dealer may, by written notice in the approved form given personally to the purchaser, rescind the contract to which section 18B applies and any contract made in connection with that contract; and

- (b) if the contract to which section 18B applies is so rescinded—any contract entered into by the purchaser for the provision of credit in connection with that contract is void and any associated mortgage or other security taken by the credit provider is discharged.

18E—Option to purchase vehicle subject to contract for sale

- (1) A dealer must not, during the cooling-off period in relation to a contract for the sale of a second-hand vehicle—
- (a) sell or offer for sale the vehicle or an interest in the vehicle other than an option to purchase the vehicle if the contract for the sale of the vehicle is rescinded; or
- (b) offer for sale more than 1 option to purchase the vehicle.

Maximum penalty: $20 000.

- (2) A dealer proposing to grant an option to a person to purchase a second-hand vehicle during the cooling-off period in relation to a contract for the sale of the vehicle—
- (a) may require the person to pay a deposit towards the proposed contract price of the vehicle that does not exceed 2% of that price or $100, whichever is the lesser; and
- (b) must provide the person with a notice in the approved form—
- (i) advising that the vehicle is subject to a contract for sale and the person will only be entitled to purchase the vehicle if the contract is rescinded; and
- (ii) containing other prescribed information.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

- (3) The holder of an option to purchase a second-hand vehicle subject to a contract for sale is entitled to a refund of any deposit paid in order to secure the option if, and only if, the contract for sale is not rescinded.

18—Amendment of section 20—Notices to be displayed in case of auction

- (1) Section 20(1), penalty provision—delete the penalty provision and substitute:
Maximum penalty: $5 000.
