Division 4—Use of services

17—Use of services

- (1) SAHT may, by arrangement with the appropriate authority, make use of the services, facilities or staff of a government department, agency or instrumentality.
- (2) SAHT may, with the approval of the Minister, engage agents or consultants, and enter into other forms of contract for the provision of services.

9—Amendment of section 18—Committees

(1) Section 18(1), (2) and (3)—delete subsections (1), (2) and (3) and substitute:

- (1) SAHT must establish—
 - (a) a committee (to be called the South Australian Affordable Housing Trust Board of Management or "SAAHT") to promote initiatives to increase the supply of affordable housing within the State; and
 - (b) such other committees (including advisory committees or subcommittees) as the Minister may require.
- (1a) SAAHT—
 - (a) will be constituted by persons with experience and knowledge directly relevant to housing, local government or urban or regional planning; and
 - (b) will have functions that include providing advice directly to the Minister and to SAHT; and
 - (c) will be capable of acting as a delegate of the Minister, SAHT or the Chief Executive under this or any other Act.
- (2) SAHT may establish such other committees (including advisory committees or subcommittees) as SAHT thinks fit.

(3) Subject to a direction of the Minister (and to the operation of subsection (1a)), the membership of a committee will be determined by SAHT.

(2) Section 18(4)(a)—delete "the board" and substitute:

SAHT

10—Amendment of section 19—Delegations

(1) Section 19(1)—delete "(or SAHT) under this Act" and substitute:

or SAHT under this or any other Act

(or SAHT)

11—Amendment of section 21—Further specific powers of SAHT

Section 21(3)(b)—delete "or SACHA"

12—Insertion of section 21A

After section 21 insert:

21A—Covenants to secure certain commitments

- (1) SAHT may, as a term of an agreement with another party that involves the provision of financial or other assistance or support in the public, private or community sectors, require that an instrument of covenant be registered under this section in relation to specified land.
- (2) The covenant—
 - (a) may do 1 or more of the following:
 - (i) restrict the use of land and buildings;
 - (ii) require that land only be occupied by a person who satisfies criteria specified by the agreement;
 - (iii) require the disclosure of specified information to—
 - (A) SAHT;
 - (B) a person who occupies land;
 - (C) a person who is seeking to occupy or acquire land;
 - (iv) make provision for any tenancy or other agreement relating to the occupation of land;
 - (v) provide for the management, preservation or development of land;
 - (vi) provide that land may only be sold to a person who satisfies criteria specified in the agreement, and otherwise regulate or restrict the sale of land;

- (vii) make provision for other matters that are contemplated by, or necessary or expedient for the purposes of, the agreement (whether in the form of a positive covenant or a negative covenant); and
 - (b) may be registered and have effect under the terms of this section so as to bind subsequent owners of the land despite the fact that the covenant does not benefit land of SAHT.
- (3) The Registrar-General must, on an application of a person who is a party to an agreement under this section, register a covenant under this section on the relevant instrument of title or, in the case of land not under the provisions of the Real Property Act 1886, against the land.
- (4) A covenant, once registered, is binding on any person who is for the time being an owner of the land in relation to which the covenant is registered, whether or not the person was the person with whom the agreement was made or who effected the registration of the covenant (and despite any other Act or law).
- (5) The owner of land and SAHT may, by instrument in writing executed by both parties—
 - (a) vary a covenant by registration of an instrument of variation; or
 - (b) discharge a covenant by registration of an instrument of discharge,(with registration being effected in the same manner as the original registration of the covenant).
- (6) The Registrar-General may, in connection with an application to register an instrument under subsection (3) or (5)—
 - (a) require the application to be made in a manner and form determined by the Registrar-General; and
 - (b) require the application to be accompanied by such information or other instrument specified by the Registrar-General; and
 - (c) require the payment of a fee prescribed by the regulations.

13—Amendment of section 23—Transfer of property, etc.

- (1) Section 23(1)(b)(ii)—delete "or SACHA"
- (2) Section 23(3)—delete subsection (3) and substitute:
 - (3) This section does not limit the operation of another provision of this or any other Act that allows for the transfer of any asset, right or liability of SAHT.

14—Amendment of section 26—Dividends

Section 26(7)—delete "the board of SAHT" and substitute:

SAHT itself

15—Amendment of section 27—Accounts and audit

Section 27—after subsection (2) insert:

- (2a) Subject to subsection (3), the accounts of SAHT may include accounts (and related financial information) that relate to the operations of SAHT under any other Act.

16—Repeal of sections 30 and 31

Sections 30 and 31—delete the sections

17—Insertion of Part 3A

After section 32 insert:

Part 3A—Appeals

32A—Interpretation

- (1) In this Part—

Appeal Panel means the Housing Appeal Panel established under section 32B; reviewable decision means a decision of SAHT—

- (a) on an application to SAHT—
 - (i) for housing assistance; or
 - (ii) for priority housing; or
 - (iii) for rent assistance, or other forms of concessions with respect to rent, or in relation to a bond; or
 - (iv) with respect to a matter arising under a tenancy agreement where SAHT is landlord; or
- (b) with respect to any other matter that may—
 - (i) involve an assessment or decision by SAHT with respect to a person's housing needs or position; or
 - (ii) affect a tenant of SAHT; or
- (c) with respect to any other matter brought within the ambit of this definition by the regulations, but does not include a decision where a complaint against the decision would fall within the ambit of subsection (2); tenant includes a former tenant.

- (2) The following matters are excluded from the operation of this Part:
 - (a) a complaint about a policy of the Government, the Department or SAHT (as compared to a complaint about whether or not such a policy has been complied with or implemented in accordance with the terms of the policy);

- (b) a complaint about the manner in which a member of the staff of the Department has acted or behaved (as compared to a complaint about a decision that has been made by a member of the staff of the Department);
- (c) a complaint about a matter that is the subject of proceedings before the Residential Tenancies Tribunal, or proceedings before a court or another tribunal constituted by law;
- (d) a complaint about a matter that is attributable to a dispute between neighbours;
- (e) a complaint about a matter prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.

32B—Housing Appeal Panel

- (1) The Minister must establish a panel to be called the Housing Appeal Panel.
- (2) The Minister may, as the Minister thinks fit, appoint suitable persons to be members of the Appeal Panel.
- (3) The Minister must appoint a person as the Presiding Member of the Appeal Panel (and may from time to time appoint another member of the Appeal Panel to be the Acting Presiding Member in the absence of the Presiding Member).
- (4) A member of the Appeal Panel is appointed on conditions determined by the Minister and for a term, not exceeding 3 years, determined by the Minister and, at the expiration of the term of appointment, is eligible for reappointment.
- (5) The Minister may remove a member of the Appeal Panel from office—
 - (a) for breach of, or non-compliance with, a condition of appointment; or
 - (b) for failure or incapacity to carry out official duties satisfactorily; or
 - (c) for misconduct.
- (6) The office of a member of the Appeal Panel becomes vacant if the member—
 - (a) dies; or
 - (b) completes a term of office and is not reappointed; or
 - (c) resigns by written notice to the Minister; or
 - (d) is convicted of an indictable offence or sentenced to imprisonment for an offence; or
 - (e) is removed from office under subsection (5).
- (7) On the office of a member of the Appeal Panel becoming vacant, the Minister may appoint a suitable person to the vacant office.

- (8) A member of the Appeal Panel is entitled to remuneration, allowances and expenses determined by the Minister after consultation with the Commissioner for Public Employment.
- (9) A member of the Appeal Panel incurs no civil liability for an honest act or omission in the performance or exercise, or purported performance or exercise, of the member's or the Appeal Panel's functions or powers.
- (10) A civil liability that would, but for subsection (9), attach to a member of the Appeal Panel attaches instead to the Crown.
- (11) The Appeal Panel may act with respect to—
 - (a) a matter brought by application under—
 - (i) this Act; or
 - (ii) another Act that provides for applications to be made to the Appeal Panel; or
 - (b) a matter prescribed by the regulations.
- (12) For the purposes of hearing an application (whether under this Act or another Act), the Appeal Panel will be constituted by—
 - (a) 2 members; or
 - (b) 3 members,as determined by the Presiding Member (either in a particular case or under a policy set by the Presiding Member from time to time).
- (13) The members of the Appeal Panel must comply with any procedures determined by the Presiding Member after taking into account any operational guidelines established by the Minister, but to the extent that any matter is not within a determination of the Presiding Member the members constituting the Appeal Panel in a particular case may decide or determine any procedural matter as they think fit.
- (14) Where the Appeal Panel is constituted by 3 members, a decision of at least 2 of the members will be a decision of the Appeal Panel.
- (15) Despite a preceding subsection, if a person sitting as a member of the Appeal Panel dies or is for any other reason unable to continue to sit on the matter, the remaining members or member (as the case may be) may continue and complete the proceedings.
- (16) The Appeal Panel, in dealing with a matter, is not bound by the rules of evidence but may obtain information in any manner the Appeal Panel thinks fit.

32C—Internal reviews

- (1) The Chief Executive must establish a review system within the Department so that a person who is directly affected by a reviewable decision may, at first instance, apply for an internal departmental review of the decision.

- (2) The system established under subsection (1) must include a process under which a person who has applied for a review of a reviewable decision will, at the conclusion of that process, be furnished with a written statement setting out—
 - (a) the outcome of the review; and
 - (b) unless the application has been decided in favour of the applicant—the reasons for the decision made on the review.

32D—Appeals

- (1) Subject to this section, a person who is dissatisfied with the outcome of a review under section 32C may apply to the Appeal Panel for review of the decision that applies at the conclusion of the review.
- (2) The application must be made within—
 - (a) the prescribed period after the day on which a written statement setting out the outcome of the relevant review is furnished under section 32C; or
 - (b) such longer period as the Appeal Panel may allow.
- (3) The Appeal Panel may decline to hear a matter, or may suspend any hearing or other consideration of a matter, if the Appeal Panel considers or is satisfied that—
 - (a) the matter should be determined or dealt with by way of proceedings in a court or tribunal, or before another body or authority; or
 - (b) proceedings have been commenced before the Residential Tenancies Tribunal, or before a court or other tribunal constituted by law; or
 - (c) the applicant in the proceedings has failed to take a step relevant to the conduct or subject matter of the proceedings within a reasonable time; or
 - (d) the matter is not suitable for consideration, or further consideration, by the Appeal Panel for some other reason.
- (4) The question to be determined by the Appeal Panel in a particular matter is whether the decision that has been made is correct and preferable after taking into account any policy that applies in the relevant case and such other matters that appear to the Appeal Panel to be appropriate in the circumstances.
- (5) The Appeal Panel may, after hearing an appeal under this section and conducting such inquiries as the Appeal Panel thinks fit—
 - (a) confirm, vary or revoke the decision to which the proceedings relate;
 - (b) refer the matter back to SAHT or the Chief Executive, with such suggestions as the Appeal Panel thinks fit;
 - (c) make incidental and ancillary orders.

- (6) The Appeal Panel must ensure that the applicant and SAHT are provided with a written statement setting out the Appeal Panel's decision and the reasons for the decision.
- (7) The operation of a decision that is the subject of an application under this section will be stayed pending the outcome of the proceedings unless—
 - (a) the Appeal Panel, on its own initiative or on application by SAHT, determines that the decision may take effect or apply despite the application (and related proceedings) under this section; or
 - (b) the decision is within the ambit of a regulation that prescribes a class or classes of decisions that will take effect or apply despite an application (and related proceedings) under this section.
- (8) A decision on a matter that has been the subject of a review under section 32C which constitutes an administrative act within the meaning of the Ombudsman Act 1972 may be investigated by the Ombudsman under that Act despite the fact that this section provides a right of review (and section 13(3) of the Act will not apply in such a case).

18—Insertion of section 39A

After section 39 insert:

39A—Redevelopment of residential property

Where—

- (a) SAHT is the landlord of residential property; and
- (b) SAHT requires possession of the residential property for redevelopment or renovations,

SAHT must take reasonable steps—

- (c) to consult with any tenants occupying the residential property (the tenants) about their housing options; and
- (d) to arrive at an outcome that is fair and reasonable in the circumstances after paying particular attention to the age, health and any special needs or circumstances of the tenants and to the nature and availability of housing (being an outcome which may include relocating the tenants to other premises on an ongoing basis or proceeding on the basis that the tenants will return to the same site or locality after the redevelopment or renovations are completed).

19—Insertion of section 42A

After section 42 insert:

42A—Annual report

- (1) The Minister must on or before 30 September in each year cause a report to be prepared on the operation and administration of this Act for the financial year ending on the preceding 30 June.
- (2) The report must include a report on the operations of SAHT for the relevant financial year.
- (3) The report must incorporate the audited accounts and financial statements of SAHT.
- (4) The report may be combined with an annual report of the Minister under another Act that is also administered by the Minister.
- (5) The Minister must have copies of the report laid before both Houses of Parliament within 12 sitting days after the report is prepared.

20—Insertion of section 43A

After section 43 insert:

43A—Ministerial delegations

- (1) The Minister or the Treasurer may delegate a function or power conferred on the relevant Minister under this Act—
 - (a) to a specified person or body; or
 - (b) to a person occupying a specified office or position.
- (2) A delegation—
 - (a) may be made subject to conditions and limitations specified in the instrument of delegation; and
 - (b) if the instrument of delegation so provides, may be further delegated by the delegate; and
 - (c) is revocable at will and does not prevent the relevant Minister from acting personally in a matter.

Part 3—Amendment of South Australian Co-operative and Community Housing Act 1991

21—Amendment of section 3—Interpretation

- (1) Section 3(1), definition of Authority—delete the definition
- (2) Section 3(1)—after the definition of capital value insert:

Chief Executive means the Chief Executive of the Department and includes the person for the time being acting in that position;

- (3) Section 3(1), definition of Department—delete the definition and substitute:

Department means the administrative unit designated from time to time by the Minister by notice in the Gazette as being the Department primarily responsible for assisting the Minister in the administration of this Act;

- (4) Section 3(1), definition of Fund—delete the definition

22—Insertion of section 6A

Before section 7 insert:

6A—Functions and powers of Minister

- (1) The functions of the Minister include—
- (a) to take action (so far as may be appropriate) to support the activities and promote the best interests of housing co-operatives and housing associations;
 - (b) to promote the development of co-operative or community housing in this State;
 - (c) to register housing co-operatives and housing associations under this Act and to oversee and regulate the activities of those co-operatives and associations;
 - (d) to arrange for the provision of administrative, managerial, educational and other services to registered housing co-operatives, secondary co-operatives and registered housing associations to ensure so far as practicable that they perform their activities efficiently and effectively;
 - (e) to undertake, commission or sponsor research, educational and training programmes relating to co-operative or community housing;
 - (f) to publicise the activities of housing co-operatives and housing associations and disseminate information and statistics on co-operative and community housing;
 - (g) to develop links and encourage communication between housing co-operatives, housing associations and other bodies or organisations that are interested in the activities of the co-operative and community housing sector;
 - (h) to promote the active involvement of people in the development of co-operative and community housing.
- (2) The Minister must prepare and publish guidelines to assist housing co-operatives that are registered under this Act (and the members of such co-operatives) to understand their rights and responsibilities under this Act.
- (3) The Minister has such powers as are contemplated by this Act or necessary or expedient for the effective performance of the Minister's powers.

23—Amendment of section 7—Power of Minister to delegate

- (1) Section 7(1)(a)—delete "the Authority" and substitute:
SAHT
- (2) Section 7(2)—after paragraph (a) insert:
 - (ab) if the instrument of delegation so provides, may be further delegated by the delegate; and

24—Repeal of Part 2 Division 2

Part 2 Division 2—delete Division 2

25—Substitution of heading

Heading to Part 2 Division 3—delete the heading to Division 3 and substitute:

(9) The following provisions apply where an application is made under subsection (1)(c):

- (a) the matter must first be considered under a review system that is the same as the review system that applies under section 32C of the South Australian Housing Trust Act 1995, subject to the qualification that a proposal arising from the review to vary or revoke a decision made personally by the Minister should be referred to the Minister (and the Minister may then take such action as the Minister thinks fit, including to affirm, vary or revoke his or her original decision, or to substitute a new decision);
- (b) except where a matter is referred to the Minister under paragraph (a), a housing co-operative may apply to the Appeal Panel for review of a decision that applies to the housing co-operative at the conclusion of a review under paragraph (a), subject to the qualification that the application must be made within—
 - (i) the prescribed period after the day on which a written statement setting out the outcome of the relevant review is furnished to the housing co-operative under the review system; or
 - (ii) such longer period as the Appeal Panel may allow;
- (c) on an appeal—

- (i) the question to be determined by the Appeal Panel is whether the decision that has been made is correct and preferable taking into account any policy that applies in the relevant case and such other matters that appear to the Appeal Panel to be appropriate in the circumstances; and
 - (ii) the Appeal Panel may, after hearing the appeal and conducting such inquiries as the Appeal Panel thinks fit—
 - (A) confirm, vary or revoke the decision to which the proceedings relate;
 - (B) refer the matter back to SAHT or the Chief Executive, with such suggestions as the Appeal Panel thinks fit;
 - (C) make incidental or ancillary orders; and
 - (iii) the Appeal Panel must, after making a decision under subparagraph (ii), ensure that the parties to the proceedings are provided with a written statement setting out the Appeal Panel's decision and the reasons for the decision.

asset includes—

- (a) a present, contingent or future legal or equitable estate or interest in real or personal property; or
- (b) a present, contingent or future right, power, privilege or immunity;

liability includes a present, contingent or future liability or obligation (including a non-pecuniary obligation);

SACHA means the South Australian Community Housing Authority;

SAHT means the South Australian Housing Trust.

2—Public Housing Appeal Panel

- (1) A person who, immediately before the commencement of this clause, holds office as a member of the Public Housing Appeal Panel (being the panel of that name established by the Minister for Housing, Urban Development and Local Government Relations in 1995) will be taken to have been appointed as a member of the Housing Appeal Panel established under Part 3A of the South Australian Housing Trust Act 1995 (as inserted by this Act) for the balance of his or her term of appointment to the Public Housing Appeal Panel (and on the same conditions of appointment).
- (2) Any proceedings—
 - (a) before the Public Housing Appeal Panel; or
 - (b) before a relevant appeal authority under Part 11 of the South Australian Co-operative and Community Housing Act 1991 (as it applies immediately before the commencement of this clause), will be continued and completed before the Housing Appeal Panel as if they had been commenced before the Housing Appeal Panel.

- (3) The Housing Appeal Panel may make any order or determination in connection with the operation of subclause (2).

3—Property—SACHA

- (1) Subject to subclause (2), all assets, rights and liabilities of SACHA (including under any funding agreement or statutory charge under the South Australian Co-operative and Community Housing Act 1991), and all assets and rights arising from the South Australian Community Housing Development Fund, are transferred to SAHT.

- (2) Subclause (1) does not apply to an asset, right or liability transferred by the Minister, by notice in the Gazette, to—
 - (a) the Crown; or
 - (b) the Minister; or
 - (c) a subsidiary of SAHT; or
 - (d) another agency or instrumentality of the Crown.
- (3) The transfer of assets, rights and liabilities under this clause operates by force of this clause and despite the provisions of any other law.
- (4) The Registrar-General or another authority required or authorised under a law of the State to register or record transactions affecting assets, rights or liabilities, or documents relating to such transactions, must, on application under this clause, register or record in an appropriate manner a transfer and vesting under this clause.
- (5) No fee is payable in respect of an application under subclause (4).

4—References—SACHA

- (1) Subject to subclause (2), all references in any instrument or contract, agreement or other document to SACHA will have effect as if it were a reference to—
 - (a) SAHT; or
 - (b) if the Minister so determines by notice in the Gazette—the Minister.
- (2) Subclause (1) does not apply to any reference excluded by the Minister by notice in the Gazette.
- (3) Subclause (1) has effect despite the provisions of any other law or instrument.

5—Procedures and proceedings—SACHA

Any procedure or proceedings commenced by SACHA before the commencement of this clause but which had not been finally determined at the commencement of this clause may be continued or completed by the Minister or by SAHT.
