Schedule 1—Transitional provisions

Part 1—Transitional provisions—Electricity market

Division 1—Preliminary

1—Preliminary

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears—

AEMO means the Australian Energy Market Operator Limited (ACN 072 010 327);

asset means tangible or intangible real or personal property of any description and includes—

- (a) a present, future or contingent legal or equitable interest in real or personal property;
- (b) a chose in action;
- (c) a right, power, privilege or immunity;
- (d) goodwill;
- (e) a security;
- (f) money;
- (g) documents;
- (h) information (including data and records) in any form;

business day means any day except a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday;

designated entity means—

- (a) AEMO; or
- (b) the relevant Minister;

ESIPC means the Electricity Supply Industry Planning Council;

liability means a monetary or non-monetary obligation and includes a future or contingent obligation;

principal Act means the Electricity Act 1996;

property includes intellectual property;

relevant day means a day appointed by the relevant Minister by notice in the Gazette as the relevant day for the purposes of the provision in which the term is used;

relevant Minister means the Minister responsible for the administration of the principal Act;

Technical Regulator means the Technical Regulator under the principal Act.

Division 2—Reporting requirements and financial statements—ESIPC

2—Reporting and financial requirements—ESIPC

- (1) AEMO must comply with any requirement that would have applied to or in relation to ESIPC with respect to ESIPC's operations before the relevant day had the repeal of Part 2 Division 2 of the principal Act not been effected by this Act—
 - (a) to ensure that proper accounts are maintained and financial statements prepared and finalised with respect to any financial year; and
 - (b) to ensure that financial statements are delivered to the Auditor-General for auditing (together with any relevant certificates, information or material); and
 - (c) to prepare and deliver any annual or other reports.
- (2) AEMO, or the Chief Executive of AEMO, may take such steps as are reasonably necessary in order to comply with subclause (1) (including by assuming control of any accounts, statements or other documents or materials or by providing any certificate, information or statement).

Division 3—Assignment or provision of information

3—Assignment of information held by ESIPC

- (1) Despite any other Act or law, the documents and other information (including data and records) in any form held by ESIPC immediately before the relevant day (designated information) will be assigned by force of this clause to—
 - (a) in the case of designated information directly relevant to the functions of AEMO—AEMO;
 - (b) in the case of designated information directly relevant to the functions of the relevant Minister—the relevant Minister;
 - (c) in the case of designated information directly relevant to the functions of the Technical Regulator appointed under the principal Act—the Technical Regulator;
 - (d) in the case of any other designated information—the relevant Minister or, if so determined by the relevant Minister, another person or entity specified by the relevant Minister.
- (2) Any person or entity to which designated information is assigned under this clause will hold that designated information on the same basis as it was being held by ESIPC immediately before the relevant day.
- (3) It follows that—
 - (a) if the designated information was confidential in the hands of ESIPC immediately before the relevant day, it remains confidential in the hands of the person or entity to which it is assigned; and
 - (b) the person or entity must deal with any designated information in the same way as if it has been acquired or produced by the person or entity rather than ESIPC.

- (4) Despite a preceding subclause, AEMO, the relevant Minister and the Technical Regulator may provide any information obtained under this clause to each other and, in doing so, will not be acting in breach of any confidence and will not be subject to any other form of limitation that may have applied to ESIPC.

4—Provision of information under a licence

A reference in a licence under the principal Act relating to the provision of information by an electricity entity to ESIPC will, on the relevant day, be taken to be a reference to the provision of information to AEMO.

Division 4—Transfer of assets and liabilities—ESIPC

5—Ministerial orders

- (1) The relevant Minister may, by instrument in writing (an allocation order), transfer—
- (a) specified assets or liabilities of ESIPC to AEMO or to the relevant Minister;
 - (b) specified classes of assets or liabilities of ESIPC to AEMO or to the relevant Minister;
 - (c) all assets and liabilities of ESIPC, other than specified classes of assets or liabilities, to AEMO;
 - (d) all assets and liabilities of ESIPC, or all remaining assets and liabilities of ESIPC, to AEMO.
- (2) An allocation order takes effect from a date (which may be earlier than the date of the order) specified in the order.
- (3) If it appears to the relevant Minister that assets or liabilities should not have been transferred to AEMO under this clause, the Minister may, by instrument in writing (a claw back order), transfer assets or liabilities transferred under this clause from AEMO to the relevant Minister or to another person or entity specified by the relevant Minister.
- (4) A claw back order—
- (a) must be made within 12 months after the date of the allocation order; and
 - (b) takes effect from a date (which may be earlier than the date of the order) specified in the order.
- (5) The relevant Minister must, at least 20 business days before making a claw back order, give AEMO written notice of the relevant Minister's intention to make the order.
- (6) The relevant Minister may make an allocation order, or a claw back order, in relation to assets or liabilities situated outside South Australia.
- (7) An allocation order or a claw back order may be made on conditions specified in the order.

6—Effect of transfer order

- (1) On the relevant date, assets and liabilities vest in the transferee named in a transfer order in accordance with the order.

- (2) If a transfer order provides for the transfer of the transferor's interest in an agreement—
 - (a) the transferee becomes on the relevant date a party to the agreement in place of the transferor; and
 - (b) on and after the relevant date, the agreement has effect as if the transferee had always been a party to the agreement.

- (3) In this clause—

relevant date means, in relation to an allocation order or a claw back order, the date specified in the order for the order to take effect;

transfer order means an allocation order or a claw back order under clause 5;

transferor means the person from whom assets or liabilities are transferred by a transfer order.

7—Continued effect of certain acts by ESIPC

Anything done, or omitted to be done, by ESIPC in relation to assets or liabilities transferred to a designated entity under this Division is, if it continues to have effect as at the date of the transfer, taken to be the designated entity's act or omission.

8—Continuation of proceedings

Proceedings commenced before the date of transfer by or against ESIPC in relation to an asset or liability transferred to a designated entity under this Division may be continued and completed by or against the designated entity.

9—Evidence of transfer

A written notice signed by the relevant Minister stating that a specific transfer of assets or liabilities has been made under this Division is conclusive evidence of the transfer.

10—References

- (1) A reference in an instrument or other document to ESIPC in connection with an asset or liability transferred to a designated entity under this Division is, from the date of transfer, taken to be a reference to the designated entity.
- (2) Subclause (1) does not apply to any instrument or document, or instrument or document of a specified class, excluded from the operation of that subclause by the relevant Minister by notice in the Gazette.

11—Parties to transfer must do anything necessary to perfect transfer

- (1) AEMO must accept assets and liabilities transferred to it under this Division.
- (2) The relevant Minister may direct AEMO's directors to accept, on AEMO's behalf, a transfer of assets or liabilities under this Division.
- (3) AEMO must take necessary action to perfect a transfer of assets or liabilities under this Division.
- (4) The relevant Minister may direct the directors of AEMO to ensure that AEMO complies with an obligation under subclause (3).

12—Agreements

- (1) As from the relevant day, AEMO succeeds to ESIPC's powers, rights, obligations and liabilities under any agreement or other instrument related to an electricity market of which AEMO assumes the operation.
- (2) A reference in an agreement or other instrument within the ambit of subclause (1) continues to have effect in accordance with its terms as if any reference to ESIPC were a reference to AEMO (and AEMO will be taken to be a party to the agreement or other instrument, and to always have been such a party).

Division 5—Instruments made by ESIPC

13—Instruments made by ESIPC

- (1) Unless the context otherwise requires, a procedure, guideline, directive, approval, determination or other instrument of a legislative or administrative character—
 - (a) made by ESIPC under the principal Act; and
 - (b) in force immediately before the relevant day,continues in force, subject to amendment or revocation by AEMO, as if made by AEMO.
- (2) Subclause (1) does not apply to any instrument, or instrument of a specified class, excluded from the operation of that subclause by the relevant Minister by notice in the Gazette.

Part 2—Transitional provisions—Gas market

Division 1—Preliminary

14—Preliminary

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears—

AEMO means the Australian Energy Market Operator Limited (ACN 072 010 327);

asset means tangible or intangible real or personal property of any description and includes—

- (a) a present, future or contingent legal or equitable interest in real or personal property;
- (b) a chose in action;
- (c) a right, power, privilege or immunity;
- (d) goodwill;
- (e) a security;
- (f) money;
- (g) documents;
- (h) information (including data and records) in any form;

liability means a monetary or non-monetary obligation and includes a future or contingent obligation;

principal Act means the Gas Act 1997;

property includes intellectual property;

relevant day means a day appointed by the relevant Minister by notice in the Gazette as the relevant day for the purposes of the provision in which the term is used;

relevant Minister means the Minister responsible for the administration of the principal Act;

REMCo means the Retail Energy Market Company Limited (ACN 103 318 556).

Division 2—Provision of information and assistance

15—Provision of information and assistance to AEMO

- (1) Despite any other Act or law, REMCo is authorised, on its own initiative or at the request of AEMO—
 - (a) to provide AEMO with such documents and other information (including data and records and including information given in confidence) in the possession or control of REMCo that is reasonably required by AEMO in connection with the performance or exercise of its functions or powers (whether under this Act or the principal Act or under any other Act or law); and
 - (b) to provide AEMO with such other assistance as is reasonably required by AEMO to perform or exercise a function or power (whether under the principal Act or under any other Act or law).
- (2) Despite any other Act or law, REMCo or the relevant Minister may authorise AEMO to disclose information provided under subclause (1) even if the information was given to REMCo in confidence.

16—Provision of information under a licence

A reference in a licence under the principal Act relating to the provision of information by a gas entity to REMCo will, on the relevant day, be taken to be a reference to the provision of information to AEMO.

Division 3—Retail market administrator licence

17—Retail market administrator licence

Any licence in force under section 26B of the principal Act immediately before the relevant day is cancelled by force of this clause on the relevant day.

Division 4—Retail market rules

18—Retail market rules

The REMCo Retail Market Rules, as published by REMCo, insofar as those rules apply in relation to South Australia, will no longer apply from the relevant day.

Division 5—Imposition of additional costs on service providers

19—Imposition of additional costs on service providers

- (1) This clause applies if—
 - (a) AEMO changes the National Gas Procedures (South Australia); and
 - (b) the effect of the change is to alter the retail market obligations of a service provider in the State; and
 - (c) the service provider is able to satisfy AEMO—
 - (i) that the alteration imposes additional obligations on the service provider that result, or will result, in new costs being incurred by the service provider that are, or will be, fair and reasonable material costs; and
 - (ii) that the service provider is unable to recover those costs under existing pricing and access arrangements applying in the State with respect to services provided by the service provider (after taking into account reasonable accounting and regulatory cost recovery principles).
- (2) In a case where this clause applies, the change referred to in subclause (1)(a) will not apply to or in relation to the relevant service provider unless or until—
 - (a) the service provider is able to recover the costs referred to in subclause (1)(c); or
 - (b) AEMO implements steps that result in the service provider not having to incur the relevant costs.
- (3) This clause will expire on the relevant day.
- (4) In this clause—

National Gas Procedures (South Australia) means the National Gas Procedures under the National Gas Law that apply in, or in relation to, South Australia, as in force from time to time; service provider means a service provider under the National Gas (South Australia) Law.

Division 6—Transfer of assets and liabilities—REMCo

20—Transfer of assets and liabilities—REMCo

- (1) The relevant Minister may, by instrument in writing (an allocation order), transfer any of REMCo's assets or liabilities to AEMO (insofar as any such assets or liabilities relate to REMCO's activities or former activities in, or in relation to, South Australia).
- (2) The Minister may, in connection with—
 - (a) the operation of an allocation order (whether or not as part of the allocation order); or
 - (b) the operation of any other instrument (whether or not executed under statute), by instrument in writing—

- (c) divide any right, interest or liability of REMCo into distinct parts; or
 - (d) direct that a reference in any instrument or other document to REMCo will be taken to be a reference to some other entity; or
 - (e) take other steps to facilitate the transfer of any asset or liability of REMCo.
- (3) An instrument under subclause (2) operates by force of this clause and despite the provisions of any other law or instrument.
 - (4) An instrument under subclause (1) or (2) takes effect from a date (which may be earlier than the date of the instrument) specified in the instrument.
 - (5) If it appears to the relevant Minister that assets or liabilities should not have been transferred to AEMO under this clause, the Minister may, by instrument in writing (a claw back order), transfer assets or liabilities transferred under this clause from AEMO to REMCo or to another person or entity specified by the relevant Minister.
 - (6) A claw back order—
 - (a) must be made within 12 months after the date of the allocation order; and
 - (b) takes effect from a date (which may be earlier than the date of the order) specified in the order.
 - (7) The relevant Minister must, at least 20 business days before making a claw back order, give AEMO written notice of the relevant Minister's intention to make the order.
 - (8) The relevant Minister may make an allocation order, or a claw back order, in relation to assets or liabilities situated outside South Australia.
 - (9) An allocation order or a claw back order may be made on conditions specified in the order.
 - (10) The relevant Minister may only act under this clause at the request or with the concurrence of REMCo.

21—Effect of transfer order

- (1) On the relevant date, assets and liabilities vest in the transferee named in a transfer order in accordance with the order.
- (2) If a transfer order provides for the transfer of the transferor's interest in an agreement—
 - (a) the transferee becomes on the relevant date a party to the agreement in place of the transferor; and
 - (b) on and after the relevant date, the agreement has effect as if the transferee had always been a party to the agreement.
- (3) In this clause—

relevant date means, in relation to an allocation order or a claw back order, the date specified in the order for the order to take effect;

transfer order means an allocation order or a claw back order under clause 20;

transferor means the person from whom assets or liabilities are transferred by a transfer order.

22—Continued effect of certain acts by REMCo

Anything done, or omitted to be done, by REMCo in relation to assets or liabilities transferred to AEMO under this Division is, if it continues to have effect as at the date of the transfer, taken to be AEMO's act or omission.

23—Continuation of proceedings

Proceedings commenced before the date of transfer by or against REMCo in relation to an asset or liability transferred to AEMO under this Division may be continued and completed by or against AEMO.

24—Evidence of transfer

A written notice signed by the relevant Minister stating that a specific transfer of assets or liabilities has been made under this Division is conclusive evidence of the transfer.

25—References

- (1) A reference in an instrument or other document to REMCo in connection with an asset or liability transferred to AEMO under this Division is, from the date of transfer, taken to be a reference to AEMO.
- (2) Subclause (1) does not apply to any instrument or document, or instrument or documents of a specified class, excluded from the operation of that subclause by the Minister by notice in the Gazette.

26—Certain parties to transfer must do anything necessary to perfect transfer

- (1) AEMO must accept assets and liabilities transferred to it under this Division.
- (2) The relevant Minister may direct AEMO's directors to accept, on AEMO's behalf, a transfer of assets or liabilities under this Division.
- (3) The relevant parties must take necessary action to perfect a transfer of assets or liabilities under this Division.
- (4) The relevant Minister may direct the directors of a relevant party to ensure that the relevant party complies with an obligation under subclause (3).
- (5) In this clause—
relevant party means—
 - (a) AEMO; or
 - (b) REMCo.

27—Agreements

- (1) As from the relevant day, AEMO succeeds to REMCo's powers, rights, obligations and liabilities under any agreement or other instrument related to a gas market of which AEMO assumes the operation.
- (2) A reference in an agreement or other instrument within the ambit of subclause (1) continues to have effect in accordance with its terms and as if any reference to REMCo were a reference to AEMO and, as from the relevant day, the agreement or other instrument has effect as if AEMO had always been a party to the agreement or instrument.

Part 3—Related matters

28—Corporations Act displacement

To the extent that any provision of this Schedule is incapable of concurrent operation with a provision of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth (a designated Commonwealth provision), the provision of this Schedule is declared to be a Corporations legislation displacement provision for the purposes of section 5G of that Act in relation to the designated Commonwealth provision.

Note—

Section 5G of the Corporations Act provides that if a State law declares a provision of a State law to be a Corporations legislation displacement provision, any provision of the Corporations legislation with which the State provision would otherwise be inconsistent does not apply to the extent necessary to avoid the inconsistency.

29—Validity and effect of steps taken under Schedule

- (1) Nothing done under this Schedule—
 - (a) is to be regarded as placing any person in breach of contract or confidence or as otherwise making any person guilty of a civil wrong; or
