- 25
- (9) The period for which a disqualification or suspension has applied to a person under this section as a result of the person having been given a notice of immediate licence disqualification or suspension will be counted as part of any period of disqualification that is imposed on the person in relation to the offence to which the notice relates by order of a court under this Division.

(iv) in any event—

(A) if the offence to which the notice relates is a category 2 offence—at the end of 6 months from the commencement of the relevant period; or

30 (B) in any other case—at the end of 12 months from the commencement of the relevant period.

35 (13) Commencement of the relevant period applying under a notice of immediate licence disqualification or suspension may be postponed in accordance with subsection (12)(a)(i) subject to any conditions specified in the notice.

40 (14) The Commissioner of Police must establish procedures to be followed by members of the police force giving notices of immediate licence disqualification or suspension under this section for the purpose of determining whether the commencement of the relevant period should be postponed under subsection (12)(a)(i) and the conditions (if any) on which the postponement should be granted.

47IAB—Application to Court to have disqualification or suspension lifted

- 5 (1) A person who has been given a notice of immediate licence disqualification or suspension under section 47IAA or has been sent particulars of such a notice by the Registrar of Motor Vehicles may apply to the Magistrates Court for an order—

- (2) The Magistrates Court may, on an application under subsection (1), make an order—
- 15 (a) that the person is not disqualified, or the person's driver's licence is not suspended, by the notice if the Court is satisfied, on the basis of evidence given by or on behalf of the applicant, that there is a reasonable prospect that the applicant would, in proceedings for the offence to which the notice relates, be acquitted of the offence and the evidence before the Court does not suggest that the applicant may be guilty of another offence to which section 47IAA applies; or
- 20 (b) reducing the period of disqualification or suspension applicable under the notice if—
- (i) the offence to which the notice relates is a category 2 or category 3 offence that is a first offence and the Court is satisfied, on the basis of evidence given by or on behalf of the applicant, that there is a reasonable prospect that the applicant might, in proceedings for the offence to which the notice relates, successfully argue that the offence was trifling (in which case the Court must order that the period of disqualification or suspension be reduced to a period of 1 month); or
- 25 (ii) the offence to which the notice relates is a category 3 offence and the Court is satisfied, on the basis of evidence given by or on behalf of the applicant, that there is a reasonable prospect that the applicant would, in proceedings for the offence to which the notice relates, be acquitted of the offence but the evidence before the Court suggests that the applicant may be guilty of a category 2 offence (in which case the Court must order that the period be reduced to a period of 6 months).
- 30
- 35
- 40
- 45 (3) The application must be commenced by lodging written application with the Magistrates Court, in the form prescribed by rules of the Court, setting out the grounds on which the application is made and particulars of the evidence that will be relied on by the applicant.

- (4) The Commissioner of Police—
- (a) must be served, by an applicant for an order under this section, with a copy of the application as soon as practicable after the application is made; and
 - (b) is a party to the application; and

Section 52—delete the section and substitute:

52—Cessation of alcohol interlock licence

- (a) in the case of a licence that is surrendered—the person is, on surrender of the licence, disqualified from holding or obtaining a licence for a period equal to the number of days remaining in the period of the person's disqualification for the relevant drink driving offence immediately before the issuing of the licence; or
 - (b) in any other case—a driver's licence subsequently issued to the person will be subject to the conditions until the aggregate of the periods for which the conditions have applied in relation to the person equals the required period.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), a driver's licence will only be taken to be surrendered if the person has surrendered the licence voluntarily and has not been required to do so under any Act or law.
