5—Amendment of section 5—Establishment of Tribunal

Section 5—after its present contents (now to be designated as subsection (1)) insert:

(2) The Tribunal will have a part that is the Tribunal in Court Session and, as so established by force of this Act, is a court of record.

(3) The Tribunal in Court Session is to be the South Australian Employment Court.

(4) The Tribunal will also have a part that is the Tribunal acting as an industrial relations commission.

6—Substitution of section 6

Section 6—delete the section and substitute:

6—Jurisdiction of Tribunal

(1) Subject to this or any other Act, the Tribunal will have the jurisdiction (including the jurisdiction to try a charge for an offence) conferred on it by or under this or any other Act.

(2) Matters within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal will be assigned to the South Australian Employment Court as follows:

(a) an Act conferring jurisdiction on the Tribunal may specifically assign matters to the South Australian Employment Court;

(b) the rules may (unless to do so is inconsistent with a provision of a relevant Act)—

 - (ii) assign matters to the South Australian Employment Court for resolution or determination after initial consideration or other steps having been undertaken in that part of the Tribunal that does not sit as the Court;
- (c) the jurisdiction to try a charge for an offence is assigned to the South Australian Employment Court.
- 10 (3) Matters within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal (and not assigned to the South Australian Employment Court) and dealt with by the Tribunal acting as an industrial relations commission do not need to be specifically assigned to such a commission.

6A—Conferral of jurisdiction—criminal matters

- 15 (1) Subject to this section, the criminal jurisdiction of the South Australian Employment Court does not include jurisdiction in respect of major indictable offences.
- 20 (2) In addition to any jurisdiction conferred by or under another Act, the regulations may confer on the South Australian Employment Court jurisdiction in respect of a summary or minor indictable offence against a specified Act or statutory provision.
- 25 (3) If jurisdiction is conferred on the South Australian Employment Court under this or any other Act in respect of a summary or minor indictable offence, any proceedings for the offence must be commenced in the Court.
- 30 (4) The South Australian Employment Court will deal with a charge of a summary or minor indictable offence in the same way as the Magistrates Court deals with such a charge (and in accordance with the procedures that would apply if the Magistrates Court were dealing with such a charge) and the Summary Procedure Act 1921 applies to the South Australian Employment Court subject to any exclusions or modifications prescribed by the regulations as if references to the Magistrates Court extended to the South Australian Employment Court.
- 35 (5) For the avoidance of doubt, if a person charged with a minor indictable offence elects, in accordance with the Summary Procedure Act 1921, for a trial in a superior court, the South Australian Employment Court must commit the defendant for trial by jury in the District Court.
- 40 (6) Where proceedings for a minor indictable offence are dealt with by a magistrate of the South Australian Employment Court—
- (a) the magistrate cannot impose a fine that exceeds the maximum fixed by the relevant Act or $300 000 (whichever is the lesser); and

(b) the magistrate cannot impose a sentence of imprisonment that exceeds the maximum fixed by the relevant Act or 5 years (whichever is the lesser).

5 (7) If a magistrate of the South Australian Employment Court is of the opinion in any particular case that a sentence should be imposed that exceeds the limit prescribed by subsection (6), the magistrate may remand the defendant to appear for sentence before a judge of the South Australian Employment Court.

10 (8) In the exercise of the criminal jurisdiction to which this section applies, summary proceedings will be heard by a Deputy President of the South Australian Employment Court who is also a magistrate unless the President determines that the proceedings should be heard by a judge of the Court.

6B—Conferral of jurisdiction—related matters

15 (1) Without limiting any other provision, if a provision of an Act specifically enables an application to be made to the Tribunal, or a claim to be brought before the Tribunal, the Act will be taken to confer jurisdiction on the Tribunal to deal with the matter concerned.

20 (2) Without limiting any other provision, Divisions 6 and 7 provide for additional jurisdiction, powers and other matters relating to the conferral of jurisdiction on the Tribunal or the Tribunal in Court session.

- (a) to take steps, specified in the order, within a time specified in the order, to remedy the contravention or non-compliance; or
- (b) to refrain from further contravention of, or non-compliance with, the provision.
- (2) If there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person is about to contravene or to fail to comply with a provision of this Act, an award or enterprise agreement, SAET has jurisdiction to order the person to refrain from the contravention or non-compliance.
- 30

Part 2—Processes associated with industrial matters and disputes

13—Amendment or rectification of proceedings

- 35
- (1) SAET may—
- (a) allow the amendment of an application, notice, submission, report or other document associated with proceedings; or
- 40
- (b) correct an error, defect or irregularity (even though the error, defect or irregularity may be such as to render the proceedings void).

- (2) If SAET exercises its power to correct an error, defect or irregularity under subsection (1)(b), the proceedings are as valid and effective as if the error, defect or irregularity had never happened.

14—Power to re-open questions

5 SAET may re-open a question previously decided and amend or quash an earlier determination.

15—General power of waiver

- (1) SAET may, on conditions it considers appropriate, waive compliance with a procedural requirement of this Act or the rules.
- 10 (2) SAET may punish non-compliance with a procedural direction by striking out proceedings, or any defence, in whole or in part.

16—Applications to SAET

- (1) For the purposes of the South Australian Employment Tribunal Act 2014, proceedings before SAET under this Act are commenced by an application made to SAET—
- 15 (a) if, in the Minister's opinion, it is in the public interest that the matter be dealt with by SAET—by the Minister; or
- (b) by an employer, or group of employers; or
- (c) by an employee, or group of employees; or
- 20 (d) by a registered association of employers; or
- (e) by a registered association of employees; or
- (f) by the United Trades and Labor Council.
- (2) A natural person may bring an application as of right if the application is authorised under some other provision of this Act but otherwise must establish to the satisfaction of SAET—
- 25 (a) that the claim arises out of a genuine industrial grievance; and
- (b) that there is no other impartial grievance resolution process that is (or has been) reasonably available to the person.

17—Advertisement of applications

- (1) Before SAET deals with the subject matter of an application, SAET must satisfy itself that reasonable notice of the substance of the application and the day and time it is to be heard has been given.
- (2) The substance of an application and the day and time it is to be heard must be—
- 35 (a) advertised in the manner prescribed in the rules of SAET; or
- (b) communicated to all persons who are likely to be affected by a determination in the proceedings or their representatives.

18—Provisions of award etc relevant to how SAET intervenes in dispute

5 If the parties to an industrial dispute are bound by an award or an enterprise agreement that provides procedures for preventing or settling industrial disputes between them, SAET must, in considering whether, when or how it will exercise its powers in relation to the industrial dispute, have regard to—

- 10 (a) the procedures contemplated by the parties for preventing or settling industrial disputes; and
- (b) the extent the procedures (if applicable to the industrial dispute) have been complied with by the parties and the circumstances of any compliance or non-compliance with the procedures.

19—Voluntary conferences

- 15 (1) SAET may, if it appears desirable, call a voluntary conference of the parties involved in an industrial dispute.
- (2) A person who attends a voluntary conference called under this section is, on application to the Registrar, entitled to be paid an amount certified by the person presiding at the conference to be reasonable, having regard to the conduct of the person both before and at the conference and to the expenses and loss of time incurred by the person.
- 20 (3) The amount certified under subsection (2) will be paid out of money appropriated by Parliament for the purpose.

20—Compulsory conference

- 25 (1) SAET may, if it appears desirable, call a compulsory conference of the parties involved in an industrial dispute.
- (2) SAET may summon the parties to the dispute and any other person who may be able to assist in resolving the dispute to appear at the conference.
- 30 (3) A compulsory conference may, at the discretion of SAET, be held in public or in private or partly in public and partly in private.
- (4) A person who fails to attend a compulsory conference as required by SAET's summons or who, having attended, fails to participate in the conference as required by the person presiding at the conference commits a contempt of SAET.
- 35 (5) A person who attends a conference as directed by the person presiding at the conference will, on application to the Registrar, be entitled to be paid an amount certified by the person presiding at the conference to be reasonable, having regard to the conduct of the person both before and at the conference and to the expenses and loss of time incurred by the person.
- 40

- (6) The amount certified under subsection (5) will be paid out of money appropriated by Parliament for the purpose.

21—Reference of questions for determination

- (1) The person presiding at a compulsory conference may, after giving reasonable notice to the persons attending at the conference, refer the subject matter of the conference for determination by SAET (which may be constituted of the person who presided at the conference under this Part).
- (2) A matter may be referred for determination by SAET under subsection (1) orally and without formality.
- (3) An order of SAET on a reference under subsection (1)—
- (a) is binding only on persons represented before SAET or summoned to appear at the conference; and
 - (b) if the parties to the industrial dispute are bound by an enterprise agreement, may not affect the terms of the agreement.

22—Experience gained in settlement of dispute

After the settlement of an industrial dispute, SAET may invite the parties to the dispute to take part in discussions with a view to—

- (a) improving the process of conciliation and arbitration in accordance with the objects of this Act; and
- (b) encouraging the parties to agree on procedures for preventing or settling further disputes by discussion and agreement; and
- (c) deciding whether it would be appropriate for the parties to regulate their relationship by making an enterprise agreement or amending the terms of an existing enterprise agreement to provide more adequate means of dispute prevention or resolution.

Part 3—Representation

23—Representation

- (1) In addition to section 51(1)(a) and (b) of the South Australian Employment Tribunal Act 2014, a party to proceedings before SAET under this Act is entitled, without leave, to be represented by—
- (a) in the case of a party that is not otherwise represented by counsel in accordance with section 51(1)(b) of the South Australian Employment Tribunal Act 2014—a registered agent; or
 - (b) an officer or employee of an industrial association acting in the course of employment with that industrial association.

(2) However, in the case of a voluntary or compulsory conference, a party or intervener may, subject to subsections (3) and (4), only be represented by a legal practitioner or registered agent with the permission of the person presiding at the conference.

5 (3) Permission is not required under subsection (2) if—

(a) the legal practitioner or registered agent is an officer or employee of—

(i) an employer who is a party to the proceedings; or

(ii) the United Trades and Labor Council; or

10 (iii) a registered association of which a member is a party to the relevant industrial dispute; or

(b) the legal practitioner is acting on behalf of the Minister for the purposes of the conference; or 15 (c) in the case of a compulsory conference—the matter has already been referred to SAET.

(4) Permission will only be granted under subsection (2) if (and only if)—

(a) all of the parties consent to the application for permission; or 20 (b) another party is represented by a legal practitioner or registered agent; or

(c) another party is a legal practitioner or is legally qualified; or

(d) the person presiding at the conference is satisfied—

(i) the party or intervener would, if permission were not granted, be unfairly disadvantaged; or

25 (ii) permission is appropriate in the circumstances.

(5) The costs incurred by a party for representation at a voluntary or compulsory conference by a legal practitioner or registered agent acting under the preceding subsections will not be included in any order for costs.

30 24—Registered agents

(1) The Registrar must maintain a register of registered agents.

(2) A person who applies for registration or renewal of registration is entitled to registration or renewal of registration (as the case requires) if the person—

35 (a) has the qualifications and experience required by regulation for registration or the renewal of registration (as the case requires); and

(b) satisfies the Registrar as to any other matter or requirement prescribed by the regulations; and 40 (c) pays the relevant fee fixed by regulation.

- 5
- (3) A person who is not entitled to practise as a legal practitioner because his or her name has been struck off the roll of legal practitioners in this State or elsewhere or because of other disciplinary action taken against him or her is not eligible to become or remain registered as an agent.
- (4) Registration will be granted or renewed for a period (not exceeding 2 years) determined by the Registrar.
- (5) The Governor may, by regulation, establish a code of conduct to be observed by registered agents.
- 10 (6) The code of conduct may (for example) deal with the following matters:
- (a) it may regulate the fees to be charged by registered agents;
 - (b) it may require proper disclosure of fees before the registered agent undertakes work for a client;
 - 15 (c) it may limit the extent to which a registered agent may act on the instructions of an unregistered association.

25—Inquiries into conduct of registered agents or other representative

- 20 (1) The Registrar may inquire into the conduct of a registered agent or other representative in order to determine whether proper grounds for disciplinary action exist.
- (2) Proper grounds for disciplinary action exist if—
- (a) in the case of a registered agent—
 - 25 (i) the agent commits a breach of the code of conduct; or
 - (ii) the agent is not a fit and proper person to remain registered as an agent; or
 - (b) in the case of another representative—the representative's conduct falls short of the standards that should reasonably be expected of a person undertaking the representation of another in proceedings before SAET.
- 30 (3) If, on inquiry, the Registrar finds that proper grounds for disciplinary action exist, the Registrar may—
- (a) issue a letter of admonition; or
 - 35 (b) if the representative is a legal practitioner—refer the matter to the Legal Profession Conduct Commissioner for investigation; or
 - (c) if the representative is a registered agent—
 - 40 (i) suspend the agent's registration for a period of up to 6 months; or
 - (ii) cancel the agent's registration.

(4) An appeal lies to SAET against a decision of the Registrar under subsection (3)(c).

(5) An appeal must be instituted in accordance with the rules of SAET.

Part 4—Concurrent appointments—other industrial authorities

26—Concurrent appointments

(1) A member of SAET may, with the Minister's approval, be appointed also as a member of an industrial authority under the law of the Commonwealth or another State.

(2) If the Minister revokes an approval under subsection (1), the member must resign from office as a member of the other industrial authority.

(3) A member of an industrial authority constituted under the law of the Commonwealth or another State may be appointed also as a member of SAET (to hold a position within SAET determined by the President after consultation with the Minister) and, if such an appointment is made, this Act applies with the following qualifications:

- (a) the appointment terminates if the member ceases for any reason to hold office as a member of the relevant industrial authority;
- (b) the member is not entitled to be remunerated as a member of SAET but is entitled, in circumstances determined by the Governor, to allowances for expenses at rates fixed by the Governor.

(4) If a member holds concurrent appointments, then—

- (a) if the member was appointed first to SAET and subsequently to the other industrial authority, the extent the member performs the duties of a member of that other industrial authority will be determined by agreement between the President and the head of that other industrial authority; or
- (b) if the member was appointed first to the other industrial authority and subsequently to SAET, the extent the member performs the duties of a member of SAET will be determined by agreement between the President and the head of that other industrial authority.

27—Powers of member holding concurrent appointments

A member who holds concurrent appointments under this Part may, in an appropriate case, simultaneously exercise powers deriving from both or all appointments.

Part 5—Special provisions relating to monetary claims

28—Interpretation

In this Part—

5 monetary claim means a claim under section 9 or a claim for a sum or a debt under section 10.

29—Limitation of action

10 A monetary claim must be made within 6 years after the sum claimed became payable, but no time limitation applies to a claim for the non-payment of superannuation contributions.

30—Who may make a claim

- 15 (1) A monetary claim may be made on behalf of the claimant by an association.
- (2) A monetary claim may be made by a minor as the minor had attained the age of majority.
- (3) A claim relating to money that should have been paid to or for the benefit of a person who is now dead may be made by the personal representative of the deceased person or a beneficiary of the deceased person's estate.

20 31—Simultaneous proceedings not permitted

The South Australian Employment Court may not hear a monetary claim if it appears that proceedings based on the same claim have begun in another court and the proceedings have not been withdrawn or struck out.

25 32—Award to include interest

- (1) Unless there is good reason for not doing so, the South Australian Employment Court must, on the application of a person to whom it makes an award on a monetary claim, include in the judgment an award of interest or a lump sum instead of interest.
- 30 (2) However—
- (a) the South Australian Employment Court may not authorise the award of interest on interest; and
- (b) if interest is payable because of an antecedent right, the award may reflect the antecedent right but may not create a 35 right to additional interest; and
- (c) the South Australian Employment Court may not award interest on an amount for which judgment is given by consent except by consent of the parties.

33—Monetary judgment

- 5
- (1) The South Australian Employment Court may authorise or direct that a monetary amount awarded be paid in instalments.
 - (2) The South Australian Employment Court may direct that compensation for non-payment of contributions that should have been, but were not, made to a superannuation fund be paid to a superannuation fund on the claimant's behalf.

34—Costs

- 10
- (1) The South Australian Employment Court may only award costs in proceedings based on a monetary claim as follows—
 - 15 (a) the Court may award costs on a claim for non-payment of superannuation contributions to cover reasonable expenses incurred by the claimant to establish the present value of the loss; and
 - (b) the Court may award costs on an appeal.
 - (2) In connection with the operation of subsection (1)(b)—
 - 20 (a) costs need not be awarded so as to follow the event; and
 - (b) the Court, in considering whether to award costs and, if so, the extent of the award, must take into account—
 - 25 (i) the conduct of the parties; and
 - (ii) the relevant positions and circumstances of the appellant and the respondent (and of the successful and unsuccessful parties); and
 - (iii) the nature of the question in dispute and whether the proceedings have a broader impact than simply inter-partes proceedings between individual parties, and may take into account such other matters as the Court thinks fit to ensure a just outcome in the circumstances of the case.
 - 30 (3) This section does not apply in relation to a claim under section 10.

(b) persons appointed by the Minister to be inspectors;

(c) persons appointed under the Commonwealth Act who are, under an arrangement between the Minister and the Minister responsible for administering the Commonwealth Act, authorised to exercise the powers of an inspector under this Act.

- (2) Each inspector must be furnished by the Minister with an identity card.

- (5) A document produced under subsection (3) or (4) may be retained by the inspector for examination and copying (and, accordingly, the inspector may take it away), subject to the qualification that the inspector must then return the document within 7 days.
- 20
- (6) However—
- (a) the inspector may not retain an original document if the employer supplies a copy of it to the inspector for the inspector's own use; and
- (b) the inspector may not retain the original of a document that is required for the day-to-day operations of the employer (but the inspector may copy it at the time of its production).
- (7) It is the duty of an employer at all reasonable times to facilitate, as far as practicable, the exercise by an inspector of powers under this section.
- 30
- (8) If an inspector puts a question to a person through an interpreter, the question will, for the purposes of this Act, be taken to have been put to the person by the inspector and an answer to the question given by the person to the interpreter will be taken to have been given to the inspector (and in any legal proceedings it will be presumed that the interpreter's translation of the answer is the person's answer to the question as put by the inspector unless it is shown that the interpreter mistranslated the question or the answer).
- 35
- (9) A person must not—

62—Transitional provisions

(1) In this section—

determination has the same meaning as in the principal Act;

industrial authority means the Industrial Relations Court of South Australia or the Industrial Relations Commission of South Australia;

principal Act means the Fair Work Act 1994;

relevant day means the day on which this section comes into operation;

Tribunal means the South Australian Employment Tribunal.

(2) The Industrial Relations Court of South Australia and the Industrial Relations Commission of South Australia are dissolved by force of this subsection.

(3) The commencement of this subsection brings to an end the appointment of a person as a member of the Industrial Relations Court of South Australia or the Industrial Relations Commission of South Australia (as the case may be).

(4) No right of action arises, and no compensation is payable, in respect of an appointment coming to an end by virtue of the operation of subsections (3) and (4).

(5) However—

(a) subsections (2) and (3) do not affect appointment of a person as a member of the Tribunal before the relevant day; and

(b) in the case of a member of the Industrial Relations Commission of South Australia who, immediately before the relevant day, was not a member of the Tribunal—the person will be taken to have been appointed (by force of this subsection) as a conciliation officer under the South Australian Employment Tribunal Act 2014 subject to the following provisions:

(i) the person's term of office will (subject to section 17 of that Act) be taken to be a period of 5 years from the relevant day;

(ii) the person's appointment will be on any conditions determined by the Governor and specified in an instrument executed by a Minister acting under this provision within 14 days after the relevant day;

(iii) the person may, while holding office as a conciliation officer, be entitled to use the title Commissioner of the South Australian Employment Tribunal.

(6) The salary and allowances of a person to whom subsection (5)(a) applies will not be reduced during the person's term of office as a member of the Tribunal.

(7) A person to whom subsection (5)(b) applies is not entitled, after the relevant day, to any salary, benefits or allowances on account of the person's position as a member of the Industrial Relations Commission of South Australia before the relevant day.

(8) However, the salary payable to a person to whom subsection (5)(b) applies as a member of the Tribunal cannot be less than the salary payable to the person as a member of the Industrial Relations Commission of South Australia immediately before the relevant day (unless the person requests or agrees to a change to the number of hours to be worked or to work on a sessional or other basis).

- (9) In addition, a person to whom subsection (5)(b) applies will be taken to have continuity of service in all respects and will not be taken, for the purposes of any Act or law, to have resigned or to have ceased to hold any office for the purposes of any accrued or accruing rights or entitlements to any pension.
- 5 (10) Nothing in a preceding subsection is, in the case of a member of the Industrial Relations Commission of South Australia who, immediately before the relevant day, held an appointment as a member of an industrial authority under a law of the Commonwealth, intended to affect the person's position or status for the purposes of continuing to hold the appointment under that law of the Commonwealth.
- 10 (11) A determination of an industrial authority under the principal Act in force immediately before the relevant day will, on and from the relevant day, be taken to be a determination of the Tribunal.
- 15 (12) A right to bring proceedings before an industrial authority in existence under the principal Act before the relevant day (but not so exercised before that day) will be exercised as if this Part had been in operation before the right arose, so that the relevant proceedings may be commenced before the Tribunal rather than the industrial authority.
- 20 (13) Any proceedings before an industrial authority under the principal Act immediately before the relevant day will, subject to such directions as the President of the Tribunal thinks fit, be transferred to the Tribunal where they may proceed as if they had been commenced before that Tribunal.
- (14) The Tribunal may—
- 25 (a) receive in evidence any transcript of evidence in proceedings before an industrial authority, and draw any conclusions of fact from that evidence that appear proper; and
- (b) adopt any findings or determinations of an industrial authority that may be relevant to proceedings before the Tribunal; and
- 30 (c) adopt or make any determination in relation to proceedings before an industrial authority before the relevant day (including so as to make a determination in relation to proceedings fully heard before the relevant day); and
- (d) take other steps to promote or ensure the smoothest possible transition from 1 jurisdiction to another in connection with the operation of this section.
- 35 (15) Nothing in this section affects a right of appeal to the Supreme Court against a decision, direction or order of the Full Court of the Industrial Relations Court of South Australia made or given before the relevant day.
- (16) A reference in any instrument or enterprise agreement to the Industrial Relations Court of South Australia or the Industrial Relations Commission of South Australia will, unless the context otherwise requires, be taken to be a reference to the Tribunal.
