23AA—Indecent filming

- 15 (1) A person must not engage in indecent filming.
Maximum penalty: $10 000 or imprisonment for 2 years.
- (2) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (1) to prove—
 - 20 (a) that the indecent filming occurred with the consent of the person filmed; or
 - (b) that the indecent filming was undertaken by a licensed investigation agent within the meaning of the Security and Investigation Agents Act 1995 and occurred in the course of obtaining evidence in connection with a claim for compensation, damages, a payment under a contract or some 25 other benefit.

- (3) A person must not distribute a moving or still picture obtained by indecent filming.

Maximum penalty: $10 000 or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (4) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (3) to prove—

- (a) that the person filmed consented to the distribution of the moving or still picture; or
- (b) that the defendant did not know, and could not reasonably be expected to have known, that the indecent filming was without the person's consent; or
- (c) that the indecent filming was undertaken by a licensed investigation agent within the meaning of the Security and Investigation Agents Act 1995 and occurred in the course of obtaining evidence in connection with a claim for compensation, damages, a payment under a contract or some other benefit and the distribution of the moving or still picture was for a purpose connected with that claim.

- (5) An apparent consent will not be an effective consent for the purposes of this section if—

- (a) given by a person who is under 16 years of age or mentally incapacitated; or
- (b) obtained from a person by duress or deception.

- (6) Law enforcement personnel and legal practitioners, or their agents, acting in the course of law enforcement or legal proceedings do not commit an offence under this section.

- (7) If a court convicts a person of an offence against this section the court may order the forfeiture of anything that has been seized and consists of, or contains a record of, moving or still pictures taken in the course of the commission of the offence, or consists of equipment used for the commission of the offence.

- (8) In this section—

distribute includes—

- (a) communicate, exhibit, send, supply or transmit; and
- (b) make available for access by another; and
- (c) enter into an agreement or arrangement to do something contemplated by paragraphs (a) and (b); and
