The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

Part 1—Preliminary

1—Short title

This Act may be cited as the Emergency Management (COVID-19) (Electronic Monitoring) Amendment Act 2020.

2—Amendment provisions

In this Act, a provision under a heading referring to the amendment of a specified Act amends the Act so specified.

Part 2—Amendment of Emergency Management Act 2004

3—Amendment of section 28—Failure to comply with directions

(1) Section 28—after subsection (1) insert:

(1a) If a person commits a breach of section 28 of the Act constituted of a failure to comply with a direction to self-isolate or quarantine, or to remain in self-isolation or quarantine, the State Co-ordinator or an authorised officer may direct—

- (a) that the person wear an electronic device; or
- (b) that an electronic device be installed at the place at which the person is required to self-isolate or quarantine, until the period of self-isolation or quarantine applying to the person expires.

(1b) A person who, without the approval of an authorised officer, interferes or tampers with an electronic device is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: $12 000 or imprisonment for 12 months.

(2) Section 28—after subsection (3) insert:

(4) In this section—

electronic device means an electronic device of a class or kind approved by the Minister for the purposes of this Act.
