The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

Part 1—Preliminary

1—Short title

This Act may be cited as the Livestock (Emergency Animal Disease) Amendment Act 2022.

Part 2—Amendment of *Livestock Act 1997

2—Insertion of section 7A

After section 7 insert:

7A—Interaction with other Acts

- (1) Subject to this section, this Act is in addition to and does not limit, or derogate from, the provisions of any other Act.
- (2) Where the provisions of this Act are inconsistent with another Act or law (other than the Emergency Management Act 2004), this Act prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

3—Amendment of section 33—Prohibition on entry or movement of livestock or other property absolutely or without required health certificate etc

- (1) Section 33—after subsection (2) insert:
  - (2a) If the Minister certifies that circumstances of urgency exist, the following provisions apply:
    - (a) a notice under this section may, instead of being made by notice in the Gazette, be made by notice published on a website determined by the Minister (and such notice must then be published in the Gazette within 7 days);
    - (b) the notice will come into force at the time specified in the notice which must be at, or after, the time at which it is published on a website under paragraph (a) (but may be before the time at which it is published in the Gazette in accordance with that paragraph).
- (2) Section 33—after subsection (6) insert:
  - (7) The Minister may—
    - (a) by notice in writing given to a person, exempt the person from any requirements in a notice under this section (whether absolutely or subject to conditions); or
    - (b) by notice published on a website determined by the Minister, exempt any class of persons from any requirements in a notice under this section (whether absolutely or subject to conditions).

4—Insertion of section 36A

After section 36 insert:

36A—Declaration of increased risk of exotic disease

- (1) The Minister may, by notice in writing, declare that there is an increased risk of an exotic disease being brought into the State or a specified part of the State.
- (2) The Minister must not make a declaration under this section unless satisfied that the disease poses a substantial risk of harm to a livestock industry, to the health and safety of any persons or to the economy (or any sector of the economy).
- (3) A declaration under this section—
  - (a) must be published on a website determined by the Minister and in any other manner determined by the Minister; and
  - (b) remains in force for the period specified in the declaration (which must not exceed 14 days) and for such further periods (which may be of any length) as may be approved by the Governor.
- (4) If a declaration is in force under this section in relation to a disease, an inspector may, for the purposes of monitoring whether the disease has entered the State, or the specified part of the State, or for the purposes of any market access arrangements relating to livestock in the State, examine or test any livestock, livestock products or other property or subject any livestock, livestock products or other property to a continued program of examination or testing at intervals.
- (5) In this section—

market access arrangements relating to livestock means arrangements for establishing the condition of any livestock, livestock products or other property as a requirement of access to a market for, or any commercial arrangement relating to, the livestock, product or property.

5—Amendment of section 37—Gazette notices

- (1) Section 37, heading—delete "Gazette" and substitute:

Ministerial
- (2) Section 37—after subsection (2) insert:
  - (2a) A notice under this section—
    - (a) may apply generally throughout the State or in relation to—
      - (i) a specified class of person; or
      - (ii) a specified class of livestock, livestock products or other property used in relation to livestock; or
      - (iii) specified circumstances; and

- (b) may specify that a requirement is to apply if specified conditions are, or are not, met; and
  - (c) may specify that a requirement must be complied with within a specified period (which must be reasonable).
- (2b) If the Minister certifies that circumstances of urgency exist, the following provisions apply:
  - (a) a notice under this section may, instead of being made by notice in the Gazette, be made by notice published on a website determined by the Minister (and such notice must then be published in the Gazette within 7 days);
  - (b) the notice will come into force at the time specified in the notice which must be at, or after, the time at which it is published on a website under paragraph (a) (but may be before the time at which it is published in the Gazette in accordance with that paragraph).
- (3) Section 37—after subsection (5) insert:
  - (5a) The Minister may—
    - (a) by notice in writing given to a person, exempt the person from any requirements in a notice under this section (whether absolutely or subject to conditions); or
    - (b) by notice published on a website determined by the Minister, exempt any class of persons from any requirements in a notice under this section (whether absolutely or subject to conditions).
