- 20 (a) keeping the magnitude of individual doses of, or the number of people that may be exposed to, ionising radiation as low as is reasonably achievable, taking into account economic, social and environmental factors;
 - (b) if the magnitude of individual doses, or the number of people that may be exposed, is uncertain—keeping the likelihood of incurring exposures of ionising radiation as low as is reasonably achievable, taking into account
- 25 economic, social and environmental factors.

- (5) An application under this section may be made by—
- 5 (a) the Minister; or
- (b) a person whose interests are affected by the subject matter of the application; or
- (c) any other person with the permission of the ERD Court.
- (6) If an application is made by a person other than the Minister—
- 10 (a) the applicant must serve a copy of the application on the Minister within 3 days after filing the application with the ERD Court; and
- (b) the ERD Court must, on application by the Minister, join the Minister as a party to the proceedings.
- (7) An application under this section may be made in a representative capacity (but, if so, the consent of all persons on whose behalf the application is made must be obtained).
- 15 (8) An application may be made in the absence of the respondent, (or an associate of the respondent), and, if the ERD Court is satisfied on the application that the respondent has a case to answer, it may grant permission to the applicant to serve a summons requiring the respondent to appear before the Court to show cause why an order
- 20 should not be made under this section.
- (9) An application under this section must, in the first instance, be referred to a conference under section 16 of the Environment, Resources and Development Court Act 1993.
- (10) If, on an application under this section or before the determination of the proceedings commenced by the application, the ERD Court is satisfied that, in order to preserve the rights or interests of parties to the proceedings or for any other reason, it is desirable to make an interim order under this section, the Court may make such an
- 25 order.
- (11) An interim order—
- 30 (a) may be made in the absence of the respondent or any other party; and
- (b) may be made whether or not the proceedings have been referred to a conference; and
- (c) will be made subject to such conditions as the Court thinks fit; and
- (d) will not operate after the proceedings in which it is made are finally
- 35 determined.
- (12) The ERD Court may order an applicant in proceedings under this section—
- (a) to provide security for the payment of costs that may be awarded against the applicant if the application is subsequently dismissed;
- 40 (b) to give an undertaking as to the payment of any amount that may be awarded against the applicant under subsection (13).

(13) If, on an application under this section alleging a contravention of this Act, the ERD Court is satisfied—

- (a) that the respondent has not contravened this Act; and
- (b) that the respondent has suffered loss or damage as a result of the actions of the applicant; and
- (c) that in the circumstances it is appropriate to make an order under this provision, the Court may, on the application of the respondent (and in addition to any order as to costs), require the applicant to pay to the respondent an amount, determined by the Court, to compensate the respondent for the loss or damage suffered by the respondent.

(14) The ERD Court may, if it considers it appropriate to do so, either on its own initiative or on the application of a party, vary or revoke an order previously made under this section.

(15) The ERD Court may, in any proceedings under this section, make such orders in relation to the costs of the proceedings as it thinks just and reasonable.

(16) Without limiting the generality of subsection (15), in determining whether to make any order in relation to costs the ERD Court may have regard to the following matters (so far as they are relevant):

- (a) whether the applicant is pursuing a personal interest only in bringing the proceedings or is furthering a wider group interest or the public interest;
- (b) whether or not the proceedings raise significant issues relating to the administration of this Act.

Division 2—Civil penalties

66—Civil penalties

(1) Subject to this section, if the Minister is satisfied that a person has committed an offence by contravening a provision of this Act, the Minister may, as an alternative to criminal proceedings, recover, by negotiation or by application to the ERD Court, an amount as a civil penalty in respect of the contravention.

(2) The Minister may not recover an amount under this section in respect of a contravention if the relevant offence requires proof of intention or some other state of mind, and must, in respect of any other contravention, determine whether to initiate proceedings for an offence or take action under this section, having regard to the seriousness of the contravention, the previous record of the offender and any other relevant factors.

(3) The Minister may not make an application to the ERD Court under this section to recover an amount from a person as a civil penalty in respect of a contravention—

- (a) unless the Minister has served on the person a notice in the prescribed form advising the person that the person may, by notice given to the Minister in the prescribed manner, elect to be prosecuted for the contravention and the person has been allowed not less than 21 days after service of the Minister's notice to make such an election; or

- (b) if the person serves notice on the Minister, before the making of such an application, that the person elects to be prosecuted for the contravention.
- (4) The maximum amount that the Minister may recover by negotiation as a civil penalty in respect of a contravention is the sum of the amount specified by this Act as the criminal penalty in relation to that contravention and the amount of any economic benefit acquired by the person, or accrued or accruing to the person, as a result of the contravention.
- (5) If, on an application by the Minister, the ERD Court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that a person has contravened a provision of this Act, the Court may order the person to pay to the Minister an amount as a civil penalty (but not exceeding the amount specified by this Act as the criminal penalty in relation to that contravention).
- (6) In determining the amount to be paid by a person as a civil penalty, the ERD Court must have regard to—
- (a) the nature and extent of the contravention; and
 - (b) any detriment to the public interest resulting from the contravention; and
 - (c) any financial saving or other benefit that the person stood to gain by committing the contravention; and
 - (d) whether the person has previously been found, in proceedings under this Act or the repealed Act, to have engaged in any similar conduct; and
 - (e) any other matter it considers relevant.
- (7) The jurisdiction conferred by this section is to be part of the civil jurisdiction of the ERD Court.
- (8) If conduct of a person constitutes a contravention of 2 or more provisions of this Act, an amount may be recovered from the person under this section in relation to the contravention of any 1 or more of those provisions (provided that the person is not liable to pay more than 1 amount as a civil penalty in respect of the same conduct).
- (9) Proceedings for an order under this section that a person pay an amount as a civil penalty in relation to a contravention of this Act, or for enforcement of such an order, are stayed if criminal proceedings are started, or have already been started, against the person for an offence constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention.
- (10) Furthermore—
- (a) proceedings referred to in subsection (9) may only be resumed if the criminal proceedings do not result in a formal finding of guilt being made against the person; and
 - (b) if proceedings for an order under this section that a person pay an amount as a civil penalty in relation to a contravention of this Act are commenced by the Minister, criminal proceedings against the person for an offence constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention cannot be commenced without the authorisation of the Attorney-General.

- (11) Evidence of information given or evidence of the production of documents by a person is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the person if—
- (a) the person gave the evidence or produced the documents in the course of negotiations or proceedings under this section for the recovery of an amount as a civil penalty in relation to a contravention of this Act; and
 - (b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is substantially the same as the conduct that was alleged to constitute the contravention.
- (12) However, subsection (11) does not apply to criminal proceedings in respect of the making of a false or misleading statement.
- (13) The ERD Court may, in any proceedings under this section, make such orders in relation to the costs of the proceedings as it thinks just and reasonable.

 - (3) The identity card must be issued as soon as is reasonably practicable after the appointment is made (but an authorised officer is not prevented from exercising powers under this Act just because an identity card is yet to be issued).
 - (4) An authorised officer must, at the request of a person in relation to whom the authorised officer intends to exercise any powers under this Act, produce for the inspection of the person the authorised officer's identity card (unless the identity card is yet to be issued).
 - (5) An authorised officer appointed under this Act must, on ceasing to be an authorised officer for any reason, immediately return their identity card to the Minister.
- Maximum penalty: $500.

 - (l) require a person who the authorised officer reasonably suspects has knowledge of matters in respect of which information is reasonably required for the administration or enforcement of this Act to answer questions in relation to those matters; and

5 (9) A person who gives assistance to an authorised officer as required under subsection (8) must, if the person so requires, be reimbursed by the authorised officer or the Minister for any reasonable costs and expenses incurred in giving the assistance.

10 (10) If the exercise of a power under this section (other than a power exercised with the authority of a warrant) results in any damage, the Minister must make good the damage as soon as is reasonably practicable or pay reasonable compensation for the damage.

70—Provisions relating to warrants

15 (1) If, on the application of an authorised officer, a magistrate is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe—

20 (c) that the circumstances require immediate action,

the magistrate may issue a warrant in respect of the place or vehicle authorising an authorised officer, with such assistants as the authorised officer considers necessary, to use reasonable force to break into or open any part of, or anything in or on, the place or vehicle as specified in the warrant.
