The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

Part 1—Preliminary

1—Short title

This Act may be cited as the Statutes Amendment (Child Sex Offences) Act 2021.

5 2—Commencement

This Act comes into operation on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3—Amendment provisions

In this Act, a provision under a heading referring to the amendment of a specified Act amends the Act so specified.

Part 2—Amendment of Child Sex Offenders Registration Act 2006

4—Amendment of section 4—Interpretation

Section 4(1), definition of reportable contact—delete "section 13(4)" and substitute:

5 section 4A

5—Insertion of section 4A

After section 4 insert:

4A—Meaning of reportable contact

10 (1) For the purposes of this Act, a person has reportable contact with a child—

(a) if—

(i) the person has contact with the child consisting of—

15 (A) any form of physical contact or close physical proximity with the child; or

(B) any form of communication with the child (whether in person, in writing, by telephone or other electronic device); and

(ii) the contact with the child—

20 (A) occurs in the course of—

- the person or the child visiting or residing at a dwelling (whether the person and the child are alone or with others); or

- the person (whether alone or with others) supervising or caring for the child; or

(B) involves the person providing contact details to the child or obtaining contact details from the child or otherwise inviting (in any manner) further contact or communication between the person and the child; or 35 (b) if the person has contact of a kind, or occurring in circumstances, prescribed by the regulations.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a reference to a child includes—

(a) a person who the registrable offender believes, at the time the contact occurs, is under the age of 18 years; and

(b) a fictitious person represented to the registrable offender at the time the contact occurs as being a real person under the age of 18 years.

(3) A reference to a dwelling in subsection (1)(a)(ii)(A) includes any form of accommodation (including temporary accommodation).

(4) To avoid doubt, reportable contact includes contact that is supervised.

6—Amendment of section 13—Initial report by registrable offender of personal details

16—Amendment of section 52—Interpretation

(1) Section 52, definition of serious sexual offence, (a)—after "63B" insert:

(1)

(2) Section 52, definition of serious sexual offence—after paragraph (a) insert:

20 (ab) an offence under section 63B(3) of the Criminal Law Consolidation Act 1935 where—

(i) the victim was under the age of 14 years at the time of the offence; or

25 (ii) the victim was a fictitious person represented to the defendant as a real person whom the defendant believed to be under the age of 14 years at the time of the offence.

17—Amendment of section 71—Home detention

Section 71—after subsection (6) insert:

(6aa) If—

30 (a) the defendant commits an offence under section 63B(3) of the Criminal Law Consolidation Act 1935; and

(b) by reason of that offence, the defendant is taken to have committed a serious sexual offence or a prescribed serious sexual offence for the purposes of this section; and

35 (c) the victim of the offence is a fictitious person represented to the defendant as a real person,

the court may, in considering the circumstances of the offending for the purposes of subsection (6)(b) in relation to the victim's age and the age difference between the defendant and the victim, take into consideration the age that the defendant believed the victim to be at the time of the offence.

18—Amendment of section 96—Suspension of imprisonment on defendant entering into bond

Section 96—after subsection (10) insert:

(10a) If—

10

(a) the defendant commits an offence under section 63B(3) of the Criminal Law Consolidation Act 1935; and

(b) by reason of that offence, the defendant is taken to have committed a serious sexual offence for the purposes of this section; and

(c) the victim of the offence is a fictitious person represented to the defendant as a real person,

the court may, in considering the circumstances of the offending for the purposes of subsection (10)(b) in relation to the victim's age and the age difference between the defendant and the victim, take into consideration the age that the defendant believed the victim to be at the time of the offence.
